It Was A Grand Day At The Newtown Stroll

THE CHRISTMAS STROLL at CharlesNewtown was a delight for children of all ages with a visit from Santa (Marty O'Brien Sr.) and Mrs. Santa (Ann McCarron), along with Frosty The Snowman. This event, which was founded by Terry Ring, has grown from a small gathering with a visit from Santa to a large block party for several hundred children with hayrides, refreshments and gifts. #### WHEN YOU HAVE ANOTHER HOME TO SELL

You've decided it's time to move, but you're afraid to place your present home on the market until you've found a new one and completed negotiations for its purchase. At the same time, however, you find that most sellers are reluctant to finalize offers from buyers who must include contingencies calling for the sale of a current residence before settling on the new one.

If you're caught in this dilemma, the first step out of it is to contact a professional Realtor. He or she can list your home, showing you how it can be done without the risk of putting your family out on the street. Once you have a firm contract from a qualified buyer, you will become much more attractive to sellers. When you do find the perfect home, you greatly increase your chances of being able to buy it.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Monument Properties. Call us at 241-5900 or stop by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

- No parking on major snow arteries or within 20 feet of an intersection;
- Secondary roads, where permitted, have parking on the odd side of the street;
- Make resident parking stickers visible to passersby within 24 hours after a storm;
- Do not extend cars onto the street or sidewalk when parked in a driveway;
- Sidewalks abutting property must be passable within three hours after the storm and;
- Do not shovel or plow snow from driveways and sidewalks onto the street.

A Past Remembered

Each year, as time goes by, our pasts contain more and more moments we wish to remember. The years have a way of magnifying some of those moments, imbedding them even more indelibly into our memory banks. Who among us has not lived a story ten, twenty, thirty, or more years ago, only to tell it with a bit more embellishment today?

Remember that one-yard touchdown you scored in high school during "trash time" when the third team was in to finish things up? Isn't that now forty or fifty yards of zigging and zagging which resulted in the conference championship? How about the twelve inches of snow we had that winter of long ago? Isn't it now a major blizzard of epic proportions. And remember your first date? You probably held her hand at the "Hippie," were too bashful to say very much to her on the way home and maybe, just maybe, you were lucky enough to steal a little kiss in the doorway before she went in for the night. But was that the way you told it to your friends the next day? I think not!

Reunions of all kinds have been formed so that we may remember what we were, where we came from, what we did, and to show others what we have become. On Saturday evening, Jan. 20, the OLD CHARLESTOWN BOYS CLUB ALUMNI COMMITTEE will be holding its eighth reunion. The event was begun in January of 1989, and has grown in popularity with each new year.

Now the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club, our old "home away from home," is suddenly suffering from the effects of time. The Green Street building, our first introduction to the "club," is now nearly ninety years old. For years the club has survived the difficulties a multi-building unit must endure, but recent studies have shown that it is highly impractical to continue to operate under these conditions. Costly overhead, expensive repairs and administrative problems directly related to the servicing of a multi-building unit are only a few of the difficulties our club is being faced with.

No, it is not the club, it is truly our club. There is no question what our club did for us, and there is no question what our club is doing for a new generation of kids. Today we are adults, but we must not forget that, in order to have gotten to this point in life, we first had to be kids.

We were the kids of yesterday. It is incumbent upon us to remember that there are kids of today and that there will be kids of tomorrow. One day, if all goes well, our children and our grandchildren will be planning a reunion to remember their club.

This is not being written in an attempt to solicit funds for a new clubhouse, but rather it is being written to invite former members of the Boys Club to the eighth annual reunion where proposed plans for a new and expanded facility will be briefly explained in a fifteen to twenty minute presentation. The remainder of the evening will be set aside for business as usual.

Once again the evening will include a cash bar, a sandwich buffet, entertainment and scores of old friends. Join us, please.

As has been our custom, a donation of $50 will entitle a former member to admission to the reunion and a reunion T-shirt. Each additional contribution of $25 will entitle the alumnus to an additional T-shirt. Be sure to indicate your T-shirt size when you send in payment for your reservation.

Remember the Old Charlestown Boys Club Reunion date is Saturday evening, Jan. 20 at the High Street building (this is the old Girls Club, as we knew it).

Sincerely,

News From Charlestown Catholic Elementary School

Snow certainly changed the closing days of the calendar year for the boys and girls of Charlestown Catholic. The Christmas play was postponed to Jan. 3.

Many projects and other activities were also cancelled during these snow-filled days. However, thanks to a wonderful group of parents from the Parent Board and Parent Representatives, Breakfast with Santa was a great success. More than 100 children participated in games and face painting while they waited for their picture to be taken with Santa.

During January, teachers and children will look ahead to the celebration of Catholic Schools Week to celebrate the quality education, faith and moral development, and religious foundation, which are strong aspects of the school.

In February, many parents will join with other supporters of Charlestown Catholic at the $5,000 Dinner and Drawing. Do you have your ticket? If not, please contact Sister Mary Ellen by Friday, Jan. 12. Many tickets are sold, but quite a number remain. This is an important fund raiser for the school. Come, have a wonderful evening, support Catholic education in Charlestown and maybe you will be the lucky winner of $5,000.

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Andy Puopolo Basketball . . . The Andy Puopolo-Charlestown Pride basketball 17 & under team will begin action in the 1996 ADSL Basketball League this Sunday, Jan. 7. All games will be played at the Dan Marr Boys & Girls Club.

◆ High School Notebook . . . 1996 brings the Summer Olympics to Atlanta and sometime in the near future Charlestown's next Olympian might be a young swimmer from Boston Latin. Matthew Chardavoine doesn't get as much credit as he should, but check around and you will learn that he is one of the top swimmer's in the state, and has been all through his high school career.

Tegan Leonard is another of Charlestown's unsung sports heroes who continues to do great things at Buckingham Brown and Nichols. The number of school letters she earns each year might amaze you.

Courtney McLaughlin continues to keep the fine McLaughlin basketball tradition alive at St. Clement's and Erin Brennan is beginning her own basketball tradition at Matignon.

In the prep school-private school department there is plenty of hockey blood flowing through the great Nolan family. Brendan Foley and Patrick Foley are two exciting players to watch on St. Sebastian's hockey team, and they would love to see their Nolan cousins at a game.

Keith Wallace and his Winchendon Preppies picked up some points at the BB&N Holiday Showcase. The W battled Holderness 4-4, defeated the Boston Bulldogs 9-6 and tied host BB&N 4-4 in an overtime game.

Hockey Night in Boston calls them the "dynamic Carroll brothers," I'll stick with Mike and Jamie. Both of these Townies, along with Head Coach Mike Maloney, are already making noise in the Boston City South Conference. Their Snowden squad is undefeated with wins versus Lynn Tech, Brighton, O'Bryant and Pope John.

Nick Smith and Company are the champs. Boston Latin defeated North Quincy 57-47 to take the Scholastic Holiday Tournament.

Rob McIntosh has donned the skates once again coaching the Don Bosco Freshmen Hockey Team.

Brian Dole has joined the Charlestown High hockey team.

◆ Financial Aid Workshop . . . Bunker Hill Community College, in conjunction with the Charlestown High School faculty, will offer a free Financial Aid Workshop on Thursday, Jan. 11 at 6:30 p.m. at the college. The workshop is open to both students and parents. All interested from the community are also invited to attend.

◆ Charlestown Highlights . . . The hockey Townies are on a streak, unbeaten in their last five starts. Point one of the nine acquired points came the old fashioned way,

HARD WORK. Trailing 5-2 halfway through the second period versus rival, but much respected Southie, the boys erupted with three unanswered goals coming off cannon shots by Timmy Warren, Phil Jones and Terry Smith. The Townies came close to pulling off a stunning victory, but Southie's premier goaltender Dave Pittman stood tall in the closing minute stopping a barrage of solid Charlestown shots. Opening goals were scored by Willie Hutchins and Timmy Warren. Christmas break victories included O'Bryant, Brighton, West Roxbury and Cambridge pushing their season's record to 4-1-1.

The lady hoopsters took part in the city of Boston Christmas Tournament. The girls advanced to the championship game by defeating West Roxbury 44-40 behind another stary 20-point performance by Nicole Matson. In the title game Charlestown was stopped solidly by O'Bryant 56-35.

On the hardwood, the "Blue Wave" continues to roll. The boys' basketball team comes into the New Year at 6-0. Year-ending victims included Cathedral 77-36, Burlington 64-54 and Needham 78-70 in double overtime. The latter two wins were part of the Arlington High School Holiday Tournament. Don't be surprised if you see basketball guru Dick Vitale walking the halls of Charlestown High looking to talk to Scott Clark. Scott was the tournament MVP scoring 33 points versus Burlington and 32 points in the championship game versus Needham. Desmond McDuffie continues to be Charlestown's reigning rebound ruler averaging 12-15 rebounds per game. In the Cathedral contest Charlestown's offense was sparked by the trio of Anthony Walker (17 points), Scott Collins (16 points) and Desmond McDuffie (11 points).

Charlestown's Indoor Track Team gets back into action today, Thursday, Jan. 4, when we meet West Roxbury at the beautiful Reggie Lewis Center. The meet begins around 3:15 p.m. Tri-Captains of the team are Gabe Soto, Angel Pepin and Kwame Rhodes.

◆ College Board . . . A much improved Stonehill College Hockey Team boasts one of Charleston's finest in former Malden Catholic standout Joe DeRoeve. Stonehill visits the area on Jan. 25 when they play Suffolk University at 6 p.m. at the BU Rink.

Way up north, Mark Chardavoine is doing the hockey thing at Bowdoin College, and enjoying every minute of it.

Jamie Smith is home for a visit and his basketball career continues to flourish down at Kings Point. Jamie was the MVP of our 1994 Cherry Tree Andy Puopolo Basketball Tournament, and we know Corey Gallagher had a pleasant stay in Florida as Bentley defeated Tampa 82-78.

◆ World Junior Hockey . . . I spent most of my first school vacation in a long time "Touring the World" at the World Junior Hockey Championships, which culminates tonight with the Gold Medal Game at Boston College at 7:30 p.m. It's been quite an experience watching the world's best under 20 year-old hockey players in an Olympic atmosphere. The competition was just as keen in the stands as scouts from every NHL team were doing their thing, among them our own Billy Whelton, who scouts for Ottawa. It was also good to see so many of our Charlestown Youth Hockey players and coaches in the stands. This tournament has given a big boost to hockey in our area just as Bobby Orr did in the early 70s. Congratulations to the Mass. Sports Partnership on bringing this event to town.

◆ Pro Line . . . Tommy Fitzgerald and his Florida Panthers have dropped into second place in the NHL Atlantic Division, several points behind the Rangers. Tommy picked up his eighth goal of the season in a 6-5 loss to Pittsburgh. The Panthers are 25-10-2 (52 points).

The Winnipeg Jets end 1995 with a 16-19-3 (35 points) record. The Jets were defeated by the Bruins 5-3 on Sunday. Keith Tkachuk ends the year with 18 goals and 23 assists (41 points). We should see him in the All Star Game on Saturday, Jan. 20.

◆ Light-A-Life . . . Special thank you to all our fine Townies who supported the Andy Puopolo-Charlestown Pride We Care Light-A-Life Button Drive. Once again you have come through to help AIDS hospices throughout the city. Jimmy Yandle and Sonny Blackstone were extremely helpful with this year's drive.

◆ Tidbits . . .

- Congratulations to Dennis Collins and his bride. The new Mr. and Mrs. Collins were married on New Year's Eve.

- Welcome to Anna Leonard on her return to Charlestown High, and a very special hello to Jimmy Griffin.

- A reliable source said that Jimmy Hingston used to peg his hockey pants.

- John "Hurricane" Giso says hello to M and M.

- Chet Ferreira has his own hockey fan club at Charlestown High, but please don't call him "Cheta."

- Good to see Alex's cousins at the World Junior Tournament.

- Congratulations to Rachel Britton on setting a new school record for being late.

- Pat Walsh is taking Home Economics at Lori Ann's.

- Who is Greg Poole's secret admirer?

- Congratulations to Joe Burns on his free throw accomplishments.

- Steve Linnane needs an alarm clock! (That works.)

CYO & ST. CATHERINE'S NEWS

BY FATHER RON COYNE

▲ Three-Day Ski Trip Cancelled- We had to cancel our annual three-day ski trip. We apologize to those who had signed up. Refunds have been sent out.

▲ Mile of Pennies Collection - We are deeply grateful to all those who contributed to our Mile of Pennies endeavor. Every cent we collect goes toward an altar server trip. This year we hope to travel for three or four days at the end of June. We have not finished counting, but it looks like close to $1,000 came in this Advent. Thank you for your support.

▲ CYO Basketball - As we enter our fifth week of play in the CYO basketball season, we again thank all those who represent us and Charlestown so well by their attitude and playing abilities. Our oldest boys team (Juniors) is coached by Jason Gallagher. Their last game before the Christmas break was a heartbreaking one-point loss to St. Brigid of South Boston. Our players include Joe Burns, Mike Bussell, Shane Fisher, Dave Hurley, Dan O'Brien, Dave O'Brien, Jim Tallent and Joe Tallent. This team is short in number and we appreciate the extra sacrifice these boys make to be at our games.

This week's schedule is as follows: Saturday, Jan. 6 - Cadet Boys vs. St. Brendan at 2:20 p.m. at Pierce.

Sunday, Jan. 7 - Bantam Girls vs. Holy Family at 5 p.m. at Duxbury Elementary. Bantam Boys vs. Sacred Heart at 1 p.m.; Cadet Girls vs. Holy Family at 2 p.m.; and Cadet Boys vs. Holy Name at 3 p.m. and Junior Boys vs. St. Gabriel at 4 p.m. All of these games will be played at the club.

Monday, Jan. 8 - Junior Boys vs. St. Brigid at 7:15 p.m. at St. Brigid.

▲ CYO Ice Hockey - We are proud of the young men who play hockey for St. Catherine's CYO this year. Last season we had a record of 3-13. This year we hope to make a real impact in the league. The number of boys playing indicates we should have some depth this year that we lacked last season.

▲ St. Catherine's Color Guard Season Begins - After months of drilling, discipline, choreography and equipment work, our girls will begin their fifth season of competing in the Eastern Mass. Color Guard Circuit this Saturday, Jan. 6 at Waltham High School beginning at 5 p.m. Just about every weekend between now and Easter Sunday our Townies and Little Townies and even our newest guard, The Teeny Townies will compete in various divisions for trophies and bragging rights.

Our girls are real good and so is our competition. We look forward to an exciting season. Our young ladies are encouraged to be the best they can be wherever they are. Human nature being what it is, we will have our good days and bad days. We teach them not to equate winning with success and losing with failure.

Their second competition will be held on Saturday, Jan. 13 at BC High School beginning at 5 p.m. We wish them the best.

▲ First Penance Parents Meeting - There will be a meeting in the lower church for all parents whose children will be receiving their First Penance at St. Catherine's this year. The meeting will be Sunday, Jan. 14 at 7 p.m. Every child from both public and parochial school, should have a parent present at this meeting. The Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) will take place on Saturday, Feb. 10 at 1 p.m.

▲ CYO Scavenger Hunt - We would like to have a CYO Scavenger Hunt for all the teenagers of Charlestown, ages 13 and up, on Saturday, Jan. 20. We would begin at 7 p.m. in St. Catherine's Hall and teams would have two hours to scavenge around Charlestown looking for various items or figuring out clues that lead to various locations. We would like teams of five. If you are interested in forming a team, please call Father Coyne at 242-1750.

'Save Our Seniors' Housing Initiative

Mayor Thomas M. Menino announced the Save Our Seniors Housing Initiative, a joint program involving the city of Boston and the Rental Housing Association. The program is meant to control costs for some elderly tenants who will be affected by the abolishment of rent control by setting aside affordable housing units for those who meet criteria. Menino hopes that additional property owners will agree to participate in the months ahead.

Property owners have agreed to set aside 168 units from now to Apr. 30, 1996 for senior citizens, including 13 in Charlestown.

Persons eligible for this program are elderly families earning 80 percent or less of median income, who are currently living in 1-3 family buildings, 4-12 unit owner-occupied buildings, or condominiums, who are displaced by the phase-in of M.G.L. Chapter 282. Elderly families will make initial application for referral to the Mayor's Housing Advisor which will list gross family income, family size, present address, type of building and a neighborhood preference.

The Mayor's Housing

Advisor will provide the applicant(s) with a certificate of relocation due to public action and determine if the applicant meets the preliminary criteria. If the criteria is met, then the application will be forwarded to the Rental Housing Association office which will contact the applicant and provide the name and address of available housing in the specific neighborhood.

The applicant will then be responsible to make application, meet the criteria and qualify for the housing. Potential applicants can call 635-4001 for more information.

Park Service Concerned About Sledders At The Monument

The National Park Service is very concerned about children sledding on the grounds of the Bunker Hill Monument. Children have been seriously injured from crashing into the cast iron fencing which surrounds the Monument.

Several fence sections are missing due to the ongoing work to restore the fence. There is the additional danger of children sledding through one of these areas and into the street and oncoming traffic.

The Park Service asks the cooperation of parents in helping their children find a safer place on which to sled. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Chief Ranger Marc Vagos at 242-5631.

I'm so proud of both of you.

And my 4th graders at St. Eulalia's in Winchester - your cards and well wishes were much appreciated. God bless, I miss and love you all.

Charlestown Boys & Girls Club Teen Group
c/o Denise Tompetrini
15 Green St.
Charlestown, Mass. 02129

Dear Denise:

On behalf of the patients and staff of the Chelsea Soldiers' Home - Quigley Memorial Hospital, I would like to extend our sincere thanks to you and the members of the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club Teen Group for so generously donating your time at an Evening of Blackjack which was held on Dec. 5.

We were so glad that your Teen Rap Group wanted to perform a community service project here with our veterans. This was your first time coming here and it was absolutely unforgettable. This was one of the best intergenerational events we have ever had. The staff composed of you, Denise, John Killoran, Kenny Giordano and Dennis Pilotte along with the members of the teen group, DeDe Arroyo, Tim Warren, Tim Gallagher, Robby Murray and Monique Matarazzo were wonderful! You spent half an hour in a training session with me and learned so quickly. You were enthusiastic, interested in our veterans, very compassionate and willing to participate in any way needed. You learned how to deal, assisted patients with limitations who needed help, transported patients in wheelchairs to and from this event, served refreshments and even stayed to help take down the decorations.

We would also like to thank you for your generous donation of many half gallons of assorted flavors of Friendly's Ice Cream, Hershey's chocolate topping and several cans of whipped cream. Our hospitalized veterans were delighted with this special treat.

These teens exemplify all the positives of today's inner city youth. There was not one person at this event who did not think to themselves or voice their high opinions of these kids who were so very patient, kind and hard working. We truly can't thank you enough for your generosity and for all you did to make our veterans feel so special. It means so much to them when they know they haven't been forgotten, especially by these very special young people. You should be proud of the joy that you brought into their lives.

Sincerely,
Irma Vanderpool, CTRS
Director of Recreation Therapy

Our Sincere Gratitude

In August of 1995, our daughter Mary was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Mary is now in remission and the outlook is very positive for a full recovery.

On Dec. 15, a fund-raiser, organized by Ellen Briggs and Janet Vitiello, was held for Mary. The benefit was a huge success with a turnout of approximately 350 people. We hope that everyone enjoyed themselves.

A special thank you goes out to Dan McCarthy of D&M Productions who donated his equipment and time. We would like to thank everyone for their thoughts and prayers, and we express our sincere gratitude to all who helped make this a great night that we will never forget.

Thanks again,
Garry Sullivan and Family

Thank You, Everyone!

Dear Gloria,

I would like to thank the Boston Fire Department, the American Red Cross and Patty Jeweks, manager of CharlesNewtown, for their efforts on behalf of the residents of 39 and 43 Old Ironsides Way. Fortunately, there was no loss of life at the fire on Friday, Dec. 29.

The Mayor's Office and the Red Cross set up an emergency center at the home of Donna Passamonti. The rescue team appreciated her assistance. Donna personifies the true meaning of the word "Townie."

Sincerely,
Judy Evers, regional coordinator
Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services

The Forty Flights

I would like to take this opportunity to thank two gentlemen for helping us on Christmas Eve.

Eddie Johnson from Russell Street and Bobby Shea from Mead Street, saw what a tough time my wife and I had coming down the Forty Flights from the 11 a.m. Mass on Sunday, Dec. 24.

Without a word from anyone, these two men went to work and cleared one whole side from top to bottom so that when my wife and I returned to climb them for the 5 p.m. Christmas Mass, there wasn't one snow flake or piece of ice on the Forty Flights.

Thanks again for a job well done!
Sincerely,
Marty and Catherine O'Brien

GOOD IRA RECORDKEEPING CAN CUT YOUR TAXES

You could be in for a headache (and extra taxes) many years from now when you withdraw funds from your IRA. Here's how the problem can arise, and how you can solve it by spending a few minutes every year when you file your tax return.

Normally, all distributions from an IRA are fully taxable at the time of distribution. Since 1987, however, taxpayers who did not qualify for the IRA deduction have been allowed to make non-deductible contributions to their accounts. Because these contributions are made with after-tax dollars, they are not taxed again when a distribution is made. The problem arises because many taxpayers have a mixture of deductible and non-deductible contributions in their IRAs. When they receive IRA distributions, those distributions will be taxed at a rate depending on the ratio of deductible to non-deductible contributions that they have made during the life of the IRA. If you make non-deductible IRA contributions, you must maintain good records on an ongoing basis.

The IRS has designed a form to help you keep track of your nondeductible contributions - Form 8606. You must file this form every year in which you make a nondeductible contribution, even if you don't have to file a tax return for that year. If you don't report a contribution as nondeductible, you are subject to penalties and you may be taxed when it is distributed. You should always keep several other documents for each year you make a nondeductible contribution:

- a copy of the Form 5498 you receive annually from your IRA trustee showing your IRA balances and contributions;
- a copy of the front page of your Form 1040;
- a copy of Forms 1099-R and W-2P for each year you receive a distribution.

It's a good idea to organize these forms each year rather than try to reconstruct them later. Call if we can be of assistance.
