Charlestown Awaits The Arrival Of The Tall Ships

Excitement has been mounting in many quarters as preparations are finalized for the arrival of the Tall Ships on Saturday, July 11. Charlestown's pride, the USS Constitution will make her way out into Boston Harbor, leaving her berth at Pier 1 in the Charlestown Navy Yard at 7 a.m. on Saturday, July 11 to lead the parade of Tall Ships into the inner harbor.

Parade Of Sail

The Parade of Sail will consist of 19 flotillas with a Class A Tall Ship, which is over 170 feet in length, acting as guide vessel with up to nine smaller vessels behind. The Parade will begin at Buoy # 2 in the North Channel of the harbor and sail into the harbor, turning around adjacent to the U.S. Coast Guard Base Support Center on Commercial Street in the North End which is just off the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The USS Constitution and the USCGB Eagle will lead the first flotilla and should cross the starting point at 9 a.m., pass Deer Island at 9:30 a.m., Castle Island at 10:05 a.m., the official reviewing stand at the Boston Fish Pier at 10:20 a.m., make the turnaround maneuver off the Charlestown Navy Yard at 10:30 a.m. and be berthed by 11:05 a.m. Each flotilla guide vessel will follow at 15 minute intervals.

The crews should be their busiest when the vessels are off the Charlestown Navy Yard as they turn the ships around and head toward their respective berths.

The nearly 200 vessels in the Parade will stretch for almost two miles with the Parade expected to last six to seven hours.

Two of the magnificent Tall Ships will be berthed along with "Old Ironsides" on Pier 1 until their departure on July 16.

The Esmeralda from Chile is expected to dock at the west side of Pier 1 in the Charlestown Navy Yard at approximately 2 p.m. on Saturday. The ship, a four-mast topsail schooner is 370 feet 8 inches long. She carries a crew of 328. Built in 1952, she was named for a Chilean warship that won victories in wars with Peru and Bolivia.

The Amerigo Vespucci from Italy is a 331-foot full-rigged ship built in 1930. She is expected to dock at the east side of Pier 1 in the Charlestown Navy Yard at 4 p.m. Carrying a crew of 450, she is the oldest ship on duty in the Italian Navy. Observers should take note of the bright red geraniums in flower boxes off her stern and the gilded carvings on her bow and stern.

Both of these ships will be open to the public from noon to 5 p.m. each day from Sunday, July 12 through Wednesday, July 15.

The 204-foot USS Constitution will also be open for daily visitation. Launched on Oct. 21, 1797, she is the oldest commissioned warship still afloat in the world. She has a crew of 58. Deck tours will be conducted on July 11 from 5 p.m. to sunset; July 12, 14 and 15 from 9:30 a.m. to sunset; July 13 from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to sunset; and July 16 from 5:30 p.m. to sunset.

The USS Cassin Young, which is temporarily docked at the Hoosac Pier adjacent to Pier 1, will have tours every hour from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. from July 11 through July 16, and the top deck will be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily.

Also, 11 Class B Tall Ships, ranging in length from 100 to 170 feet, are scheduled to be berthed in the vicinity of Pier 1.

Viewing Sites In Charlestown

Viewing of the Parade of Sail will be from the east lane of the North Washington Street

Bridge and from the following areas in the Charlestown Navy Yard:

- Piers 1 and 2 - National Historical Park section;
 - Area surrounding Dry Dock 2;
 - Pier 3 - the portion of the pier nearest the head of Dry Dock 2 will be open to the public while the end of the pier will be closed;
 - Pier 4 - a portion of the pier will be open to the public while the remainder is utilized for a fund-raising activity;
 - Pier 5 - the pier will be utilized as a benefit for Camp Bunker Hill and admission to the pier between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. is $10;
 - Piers 6, 7 and 8 - these piers will be open to the public, although Pier 7 has limited space because of the housing on the site.
- Piers 9, 10 and 11 will be closed to the public because of danger due to their decay. The Harborwalk around the perimeter of the waterfront will be open to the public.

Locations Of Other Class A Tall Ships

The berthing sites for the other Class A Tall Ships are as follows:

Charlestown Neighborhood Council Endorses Whydah Pirate Museum

by Kathy Giordano

The Charlestown Neighborhood Council voted to endorse the proposed development of Parcel 5/Dry Dock 5 in the Charlestown Navy Yard by the Pirate Complex Development and Management Inc. The vote took place at the council's monthly meeting on July 7. The 17-member vote, with one abstention, now clears the way for the developer to appear before the Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) Board of Directors for a tentative designation to develop the site.

The Whydah Pirate Complex (WPC) held four public meetings before the council's Development Committee, outlining the proposal to build a $70 million pirate museum in the Yard's End section of the Navy Yard. The meetings included discussions on traffic, parking, landscaping, open space and community benefits. The council will now work with the developer to establish a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) that would include issues addressed at the public meetings. Representation by the BRA will be present at these discussions.

The final committee meeting on the WPC museum took place on July 6. Community benefits that could be realized if the museum is built in the Navy Yard were outlined. Among the benefits offered by the developer were:

- 300 construction jobs;

- 350 new permanent jobs at the facility, including seasonal and part-time positions;
- Housing and Job linkage money;
- Related business activity for goods and services to the museum by community businesses/vendors;
- Education programs with Charlestown public and parochial schools;
- Charlestown community involvement —

- Representation on the WPC Advisory Board
- Free admission for residents at designated times
- Charlestown youth programs
- Special education programs
- Use of function facilities by community non-profit organizations
- Sponsorship of local events, such as the Bunker Hill Day Parade, the Chris-

William McKeon Dies At 47

William T. "Bill" McKeon died on July 5 at the New England Medical Center, Boston, after a short illness. He was 47 years old.

Mr. McKeon was born and raised in Charlestown. He graduated from St. Mary's Grammar School in 1959 and Boston College High School in 1963. He continued his education at Bentley College. At the time of his death he was a pension analyst at The New England, formerly the New England Mutual Insurance Company, where he worked for the past 26 years.

He will be warmly remembered by more than a generation of Charlestown youngsters as "The Ump" for his years of dedication as Chief Umpire behind home plate for all Charlestown Little League games. He was active in the organization for 14 years, and also served on the Board for the league.

At the first Charlestown Little League Jamboree last spring, Little Leaguers, board members and friends of the League stopped at WILLIAM "BILL" McKEON, known as "The Ump" by a generation of Little League players, died on Sunday at the age of 47. players were handed to "The Ump" and St. Catherine's "Little Townies" Color Guard, who led the parade, performed a routine for his benefit.

Mr. McKeon joined the Fathers' Club at Don Bosco Technical High School nine years ago and served as its secretary for four years and as its treasurer for the past five years.

He leaves his wife, Suzanne M. (Chiampa) McKeon, and two sons, Patrick W. and Keith M., all of Charlestown. He also leaves one brother, Daniel J. of West Peabody, and two sisters, Mildred A. Wallace of Malden and Mary F. Lee of Wakefield.

A Funeral Mass was said this morning, July 7, at St. Francis de Sales Church. Burial took place at Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

The McKeon family requests that remembrances in Bill's memory be made to the St. Francis de Sales Church Building Fund, 303 Bunker Hill St., or to the Charlestown Little League, c/o President Ed Greator, 341 Bunker Hill St.

Funeral arrangements were by the John H. Sawyer Funeral Home, 329 Bunker Hill St., Charlestown.

Voke Presented Legion Annual Legislative Award

Rep. Richard A. Voke, Majority Leader of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, was presented the Legion's Annual Legislative Award at the Department of Massachusetts, The American Legion's 74th annual state convention at the Royal Plaza Hotel in Marlborough. Over 1,500 delegates and alternates were in attendance along with auxiliary and family members.

Selected to make the presentation on behalf of the Legion's Legislative Committee and the 73,000 members of the Department of Massachusetts, The American Legion, was Past National Historian James W. Conway of Charlestown.

Prior to introducing Voke, Conway read the following inscription on the Legislative Award plaque:

In sincere appreciation of your continuing cooperation and support of legislation benefitting veterans, especially those hospitalized at our Soldiers Homes.

We, the members of the Department of Massachusetts, The American Legion, thank you for your outstanding dedicated leadership in our behalf and express our gratitude for all your help."

Voke received a standing ovation from the packed convention hall for helping to save the Chelsea and Holyoke Soldiers Homes.

Former State Rep. from Fall River and Legion Legislative Chairman Harold Nagle, PNHAL Jim Conway, Voke, Department Commander Joseph Cremens and Legion Past National Commander John P. "Jake" Comer.

LOOKING FOR A LENDER

Once you've found the perfect home, the search for the perfect loan begins. There are many factors to consider, including not only the interest rate and loan fees, but also the lender's general reputation for delivering its promises to the settlement table.

Your professional Realtor can provide you with several mortgage lender contracts and can help you compare their various programs. Also, some lenders may have great rates, but may also have very conservative standards for qualifying customers. Others may be more willing to consider people who are marginally qualified or have less than perfect credit histories. Some lenders have local underwriters and can process loans quickly. Others may need extra time to process paperwork for investors thousands of miles away. Some lenders may shy away from making loans for urban condominiums or townhouses, while others invite this business. The ordinary consumer deals with only a few mortgage lenders over a lifetime, but Realtors deal with many of them every month. This expertise can help you match your individual needs to the many offerings in this complicated marketplace.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Monument Properties. Come by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

Participate In Toastmasters Youth Program

Rosetta Cannizzaro, Alyssa Vanderpool and Maureen Shea, all Cadette Girl Scouts of Troop 9306 of Charlestown, have completed a special course in oral communication and leadership sponsored by the Ironside Toastmasters Club.

The girls, of junior high school age, had the opportunity to become better listeners, thinkers and speakers. They also obtained practice in conducting a meeting properly. This program complements the requirements for the Girl Scout Silver Award.

The Youth Leadership program was developed by Toastmasters International to help the young people of today become the leaders of tomorrow. The program uses material especially adapted for youth from the regular Toastmasters International public speaking program. More than two million people have benefited from the adult Toastmasters program since it was introduced in 1924. Mary White was the coordinator for the program.

This program helps young women to learn by doing. There are no grades. Each graduate received a completion certificate at the Ironsides Toastmasters Club meeting held on June 30.

DANIEL J. AWBREY SR.

I'm sending a Happy Birthday
To the heavens above,
I'm sending it to my father,
With all my heartfelt love.
And the tears run down my face.
I know that God has sent you home
For heaven is the place.
I miss you much, remember that so,
But I guess it was time to let you go.
I love you more than words can say,
Just remember I'll see you again someday.

Happy Birthday, Dad

Not For Nothin' ... But Have You Heard ...

• Pssst ... You didn't hear it here, but word has it that two Charlestown residents are considering placing their names in the political hat for a City Council seat ... The Boston Globe announced last week that St. Martin Street resident Jim Walsh is interested in running for the office. This week, a reliable source informs us that Steve Owens is also thinking of gathering support for the race. Steve said, "You always have to look at an open seat!" ... Stay tuned!

• Interested In Becoming A Neighbor ... is the "99 Club." Unofficial reports tell us that the club, which runs the 99 Restaurant chain, has purchased the liquor license of the former Front Page restaurant in the Bunker Hill Mall and plans to open for business in October.

• Dewey Beach ... got its name from Admiral George Dewey, we're told. This hero of the Spanish-American War received the most votes (calls) on how Dewey Beach got its name!

• Cheerio, Father Lobo ... who'll depart for England on July 18 to take up residency in a parish in the Diocese of Northampton. The parishioners at St. Francis de Sales, and his many friends in Charlestown, hope to see him return at the end of the summer.

• Although We All Agree ... that Judy Evers deserves a well-earned rest, we'll be lost without her assistance for the upcoming week. If you need city help while she's away, give a call to 635-4500 ... Have a wonderful vacation, Judy!

• As If WE Didn't Know ... the Herald ran an article this past week outlining the lack of output from the BRA while the authority is in leadership limbo ... If City Hall thinks it's hard to get an answer from "someone in charge," try to be in one of Boston's neighborhoods and find THE person who'll be able to answer the question at hand ... It's (beyond) time that a new director be named to head the agency that oversees the development issues of Boston.

• Birthday Greetings ... go out this week to Kathy O'Hearn of Old Ironside Way on July 10th ... Frank Dacey of Town Shade on July 12th ... Wayne Black of Russell Street on July 13th ... and special wishes to Judie Dunphy who'll celebrate her special day on July 14th ... Have a wonderful year — each and all!

• Get Well ... Nancy Kroon, who'll be celebrating her July 11th birthday as a patient at the Massachusetts Rehabilitation Hospital, 2001 Washington St., Braintree, Mass. 02184 ... Why not cheer her up with a friendly note?

• They're Planning To Gather ... to roast "Jack The Barber" on Nov. 13th at the K. of C. ... Hey, all you old Town Team members and all of Jack's friends, this is one night you won't want to miss ... The event is still in the planning stages, so stay tuned!

• Postponed ... due to rain was the "Up with People" concert last Saturday night, July 4th. Word from H.P. Hood, sponsor of the event, is that it will be rescheduled for a later date ... Stay tuned, folks!

• City Hall Plaza Concerts ... will feature the Saturday Night Oldies Concert with Peter Noone of Herman's Hermits on July 11th, starting at 7 p.m. ... and the Wednesday Night Concert on July 15 at 7:30 p.m. will be a performance by The Spinners, including their signature song "Working My Way Back To You" ... The concerts are free.

• North End Feast ... this weekend, July 10-12, will be in honor of Madonna Del Grazie. The festivities will take place on Endicott Street between Thatcher and Commercial streets.

• Stuck In Town This Weekend? ... Have we got a couple of great eateries for you to enjoy! The Coffee Shop in Thompson Square (Old Bank Building) will be open and offering the best in home cooking ... If you venture down to the Navy Yard, drop by Tony Costa's "Dry Dock Fish & Chips" next to Dry Dock 2 for great seafood specialties and, of course, his famous Yankee Doodle Hot Dog!

• A Final Note On The Tall Ships ... Calls have come into the Patriot office with complaints and comments, especially on the traffic restrictions imposed on the community this Saturday and Sunday with the arrival of the Tall Ships ... Please remember, we at the Patriot had nothing to do with creating the traffic regulations, we just reported that information to our readers so that residents and business persons would be alerted. We, as residents of the community, will also have to endure (and hopefully get some enjoyment) with the visit of the beautiful vessels. Persons with questions on vehicular access should call the Boston Transportation Department Hotline at 635-3052.

• Brace Yourself, Charlestown ... for the Tall Ships! Try to get out and enjoy the festivities and make this a most memorable week in celebration of the greatest discovery by Christopher Columbus —

AMERICA!

Neighborhood Council Clears Plate For Summer Break

by Kathy Giordano

The monthly meeting of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council on July 7 covered an array of issues that have appeared before the council committees in recent months.

The anticipated council vote on the proposal to develop a pirate museum in the Charlestown Navy Yard took place with an overwhelming vote of approval from all but one council member.

Success on community input into a landscaping scheme along Medford Street at the former Revere Sugar Refinery was reported, with an increase in the amount of money allocated for the project from $10,000 to well over $60,000.

The Ackerley-owned billboard in City Square, situated on top of the Roughan building, will be the topic of another public meeting of the Billboard Committee.

The Community Benefits Committee will evaluate the 25 applications for a portion of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA) grant for this year. The decision will be made at a special council meeting on July 14.

Council members who were present included: Chairman Peter Looney, First Vice Chairman Tom Cunha, Second Vice Chairman Mel Stillman, Secretary Jim Mansfield, Treasurer Nancy Keyes, Marty O'Brien Sr., Kay Whelan, Kevin Roche, Bill Galvin, Dan Kovacevic, Bob Wallace, Jim Conway, Jeanne Davis, Tom Pitts, Judy Brennan, Moe Gillen, Ken Stone and Kate McDonough. Absent were Matt O'Neil, Bob Scalli and Ed Callahan.

Development Committee Chairman Cunha reported to the council on the presentations made to the committee by the Whydah Pirate Complex principals to construct a pirate museum on Parcel 5/Dry Dock 5 in the Charlestown Navy Yard. He stated that an average of 80 to 85 residents attended each of the four public meetings that included discussions on traffic, parking, open space, landscaping and community benefits.

Cunha outlined each aspect of the development proposal and explained the community concerns relative to each issue, suggesting to the council that it consider a vote of endorsement on the proposal, understanding that "it is far from over, a long way to go" before final designation.

Conway's motion on the report read that the CNC endorse the recommendation of the Development Committee that the Whydah Pirate Complex be given a tentative designation by the BRA to develop a museum on Parcel 5/Dry Dock 5 in the Charlestown Navy Yard and that a committee be formed by CNC to work on a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) which would include points brought up during the several community meetings, during the planning process prior to any approval for final designation. This motion was approved by the CNC by a 17-member vote and one abstention.

Mitigation Committee Chairman Gillen reported, with additional remarks by the vice chairman and committee members, that MWRA and Massport will work cooperatively to beautify the former Revere Sugar area. MWRA will increase its contribution from $10,000 to $30,000 and Massport will take the lead as the landlord with an anticipated contribution of well over an additional $30,000 to develop a landscaping/buffer zone for the Medford Street Massport properties. They will hold meetings for community input.

Billboard Committee Chairman Stone reported that a public meeting held to discuss the Ackerley billboard on Roughan's Hall in City Square resulted in a committee vote to have the sign removed as soon as possible. The vote was taken after residents in attendance at the meeting overwhelmingly requested its removal.

Since that June meeting, Stone reported, Ackerley has requested that the sign be allowed to remain for one year (1993) instead of the previously requested two years. The company, who has been financing summer jobs for Charlestown youths in return for the community's allowance of the sign, increased the number of jobs from five to 10 for next summer.

Council members asked Stone to hold another public meeting on the issue, stating that the need for summer jobs for Charlestown youths is an important issue. Some members expressed their feelings that 10 summer jobs was not an adequate return for a billboard that generates a lot of revenue for the outdoor advertising company, and requested that more than 10 summer jobs be funded for an additional year's extension on the agreement between the community and Ackerley.

Stone stated that he will schedule a public meeting on the issue, inviting residents and representatives from the advertising company to return to further discuss the billboard. No date has been set for this meeting.

Community Benefits Chairperson Keyes informed the council that 25 non-profit community organizations had applied for the MWRA's $50,000 in grant money. The procedure to choose which of the organizations would receive money from the grant was established previously by the committee and approved by the council.

The Benefits Committee will meet on Tuesday, July 14 at 6:30 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St. to review the applications. A special meeting of the CNC will follow at 8 p.m. that same evening to vote on the committee's recommendations. Keyes announced that representatives of all organizations that had submitted applications as well as community residents are welcome to attend these meetings.

The council will not hold its regular monthly meeting in August. Also, there are presently no committee meetings scheduled for this time period.

When the council returns in September, the members will discuss the October election for seven at-large council seats, as well as outstanding development proposals, community input into future harbor/waterfront events and will make a decision on the Ackerley billboard in City Square.

★ Fires . . . The Boston Fire Department reports two minor blazes recently in Charlestown.

The first occurred on June 30 at 8:22 p.m. when a plastic barrel behind the Charlestown District Court caught fire. It was quickly put out and resulted in an estimated $250 in damage to the rear of the City Square building.

The second fire took place on Medford Street at 3:26 a.m. on July 5. An automobile was found fully engulfed in flames. The fire, which is under investigation due to its suspicious origin, resulted in an estimated $500 in damage.

★ Charlestown Neighborhood Council Meeting . . . — The Community Benefits Committee, chaired by Nancy Keyes, will meet on Tuesday, July 14 between 6:30 and 8 p.m. at the K. of C. Hall, 75 West School St., to review the applications from Charlestown non-profit organizations requesting a portion of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority mitigation allotment totaling $50,000.

This meeting will be followed at 8 p.m. by a special meeting of the Neighborhood Council where a vote will be taken by the full council on which non-profit organizations will receive financial assistance.

The public is welcome to attend both meetings.

★ Blackout . . . Boston Edison reports that a cable fault on 9th Street in the Charlestown Navy Yard caused an estimated 320 customers to loose their electricity on July 2.

Residents reported hearing a loud explosion shortly after 7 p.m. last Thursday night, followed by a loss of electricity. The affected areas included homes and businesses on Warren, Medford, Chelsea and Cambridge streets, as well as Old Rutherford Avenue and in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Mike Monahan, Boston Edison spokesman, stated the the cause of the blackout was a cable failure in a manhole on 9th Street. The failure occurred when a "tie switch" failed, causing the loud explosive-type noise. There were no injuries reported, Monahan said.

At 8:01 p.m., Edison crews thought they had the problem corrected and turned the power back on. This effort failed, causing additional customers to lose power. At 8:15 p.m., another attempt brought power back to some of these customers, Monahan stated. The circuit was retried again at 10:15 p.m. and failed for a second time. By 10:21 p.m., however, over 300 customers had their power returned. According to Monahan, all remaining outages were back on by 11:30 p.m.

★ CANA Project . . . The sprinkler system in the Central Artery/North Area (CANA) tunnels in City Square back-fired last Wednesday night. The July 1 incident presented no hazard to the community, but did bring chuckles to those who were witness to the unusual event.

According to Lt. Richard Powers, public relations officer for the Boston Fire Department, the system was tested on June 30, combining the non-toxic chemicals with water. The pretest is standard procedure in order to assure that the fire-fighting system is in working order prior to the tunnel opening. On July 1, however, during another test, the piping system overflowed due to a high tide in the harbor.

MOUNDS of foam blanket the roadway adjacent to the CANA tunnels in City Square as a high tide mixed with the non-toxic chemical in the tunnel's sprinkler system.

Powers stated that the incoming high tide caused the system to back up into the tunnel and ultimately forced the foam up through any opening in the ground. Eyewitnesses stated that foam could be seen coming from the sewer covers and manholes in the City Square area. It was estimated that at some locations, foam reached 10 to 15 feet in the air, resembling long, slender fingers.

Ed Barr, CANA coordinator, stated that there was no hazard from the foam. "The only problem that was created was that the foam was slippery," he stated.

Fire Department crews hosed the slippery substance down and the area was clear of all evidence of the mishap by the time the tide receded.

★ Charlestown Street Reconstruction Update . . . According to Ralph Cunningham, resident engineer with Bry-and Associates, the contractor, Middlesex Paving Company, and the Boston Redevelopment Authority have completed their negotiations on the Mead Street Stairs (40 Flights), and work should be starting again this week. Residents with concerns on this project should contact Community Liaison Peter Looney at 722-4300 ext. 5674.

The street contractor, the John Mahoney Construction Company, continued working in the Devens and Washington streets and Old Rutherford Avenue area installing and relocating lights and light bases, installing new and resetting old curb and installing roof drains. This work is being done around the gas company, which is installing new mains in the area, as well as the telephone compny that is also doing work so that the new streets won't have to be dug up when the project is completed.

Another major work site is Concord Street where the new water main is in and tied into Concord Avenue as well. One sidewalk was stripped, the known lead water services replaced and some of the new roof drains were installed.

On Russell Street, most of the roof drain tie-ins were completed, more grading to the sub-base was done and the gas company was installing new mains, as well.

The gas company was also working on Ellwood Street. Some of the new drainage was installed and a new storm drain is scheduled for installation within the next week.

Adams Street draws closer to completion of the phase one work with the installation of the brick paver strip along the sidewalk adjacent to the Training Field.

Residents who wish to discuss concerns or have complaints about the street contracts, can call Megan Mahoney at 696-8446. All calls will be recorded and forwarded to Looney who meets with the resident engineer on a daily basis to handle community questions and concerns.

Children's Films

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St. on Tuesday, July 14 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The features will be "Doctor DeSoto," the story of a fox who visits his dentist, the mouse Dr. DeSoto; a tree gives a boy pleasure throughout his life in "The Giving Tree;" and all of the creatures in the house join the grandmother for a nap in "The Napping House."

Amateur detective Nate help Claude find his missing dinosaur stamp in "Nate The Great And The Sticky Case," shown only at 3:30 p.m.

Olsson Graduates From The Mount

Richelle Olsson of Charlestown recently graduated from Mount St. Joseph Academy in Brighton. She was the class Salutatorian.

'Faces Of Charlestown' To Open At The Schrafft Center On July 13

Members of the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club will debut "Faces of Charlestown" from 6 to 7:30 p.m. on Monday, July 13 at The Schrafft Center Lobby, 529 Main St., Charlestown. This event has been made possible by a grant from the Boston's Safe Neighborhood Youth Fund.

Clubhouse members from 8 to 15 will be exhibiting their photography of the Charlestown community to develop an appreciation for the town's cultural diversity. "Faces of Charlestown" has the over-all goal to educate young people about their own cultural history as well as the cultural history of some of the people of color who have moved to Charlestown in recent years. From 1980 to 1990, there was a 245 percent increase in the number of minorities living in the Charlestown community — the largest increase in any of the Boston neighborhoods. The project is a creative way to bring the understanding of community diversity to both young and old, as well as bolster the self-esteem of every youth involved.

Part of the grant provided a new darkroom and supplies for the Charlestown clubhouse. This made it possible for the kids to learn the skills of photography, such as developing their own film and making prints.

In addition, club members participated in a series of violence prevention workshops led by peer leaders at the Boys & Girls Club. Time was spent focusing on various cultures, their art, customs and food.

Each youth in the program selected several Charlestown residents for the purpose of a portrait and an interview focusing on their family background. Accompanying each photo will be a short written piece on the subject's heritage.

Admission to the showing is free and open to the public through July 27.

For more information about the photography exhibit, call Eliza Hemenway at 242-1775.

Mary Babcock Dies At 75

Mary C. (O'Gara) Babcock passed away after a short illness on July 4 at Mount Auburn Hospital. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. Babcock was a Charlestown native. She worked as a Boston Police Matron at the House of Correction until her retirement in 1982. Prior to that, she was a housekeeper at the Regina Cleary Home for Retired Priests in Boston.

She leaves three daughters, Jean M. Babcock of Charlestown, Mary M. Sexton of Melrose and Helen L. Babcock of Winchester. She was the grandmother of Thomas and Kevin Sexton of Melrose and Steven and Amy Poflak of Winchester.

A Funeral Mass of Christian Burial was said on July 6 at St. Catherine of Siena Church. Interment was at Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

The Babcock family requests that remembrances in Mary's memory be made to the St. Catherine of Siena Building Fund, 49 Vine St., Charlestown.

Funeral arrangements were by the John H. Sawyer Funeral Home, 329 Bunker Hill St., Charlestown.

Burke Graduates From Forsyth School

HONORED: Donna M. Burke of Charlestown (right), was the recipient of two awards presented by Dean Linda Hanlon (left) during the 79th annual commencement of the Forsyth School for Dental Hygienists in Boston. She was chosen for the Dorothy K. Bourdeau Award for demonstrating clinical excellence, leadership and a high quality of scholarship by her classmates, and selected for the Jane C. Barth Award by the faculty for demonstrating professionalism, academic achievement and good citizenship. Burke, who graduated with honors, was chosen to speak for the graduating class.

National Park Service Goes All Out To Support 'Sail Boston'

One of the best free viewing sites for the Tall Ships visiting during Sail Boston will be right here in Charlestown at Pier 1 in the Boston National Historical Park (BNHP) section of the Charlestown Navy Yard, according to BNHP Acting Superintendent John Benjamin.

Pier 1 will have unrestricted viewing of the Parade of Sail on Saturday, July 11. Two Class A vessels, Esmeralda and the Amerigo Vespucci, will be berthed at Pier 1 near USS Constitution from July 11 to 16. They will be open for free public viewing from approximately noon to 5 p.m., July 12 through 15. However, the exact visiting hours are at each captain's discretion.

To prepare for Sail Boston, the National Park Service has temporarily moved the World War II destroyer USS Cassin Young to the Hoosac Pier in the Navy Yard to make room for the Chilean ship Esmeralda. The Hoosac Pier is steps away from Pier 1, and USS Cassin Young will be open for free tours from 9 a.m. to sunset each day. The Italian vessel Amerigo Vespucci will berth next to USS Constitution.

"After months of planning, we are prepared for just about anything," Benjamin said. "We expect to host hundreds of thousands of people during the week, and we will do our best to make sure that everybody gets to tour at least one of the Tall Ships here. Of course, with this many people, we will be working extra hard to ensure public safety as well," he added.

The BNHP will have more than 100 employees and uniformed rangers in direct contact with the public to assist people and ensure their safety. The National Park Service has made arrangements with other agencies and organizations to offer a variety of public services. As a result, the BNHP will be a self-contained visitor area, prepared to handle any eventuality. For example, Boston City Hospital will have an Emergency Medical Unit on hand and the Boston Police Department will have a strong presence onsite.

The National Park Service has requested assistance from MBTA officials to direct pedestrians as they come through Gate 1, the main access point into the Navy Yard.

Inside the Navy Yard, the National Park Service will offer many visitor services, including its regular Visitor Information Center and an information kiosk. The U.S. Postal Service will be set up to offer special cancellations commemorating Sail Boston.

For life's necessities, the National Park Service has arranged for Belmont Springs to offer free water on Saturday and Sunday. Expanded food service will be provided by the Shipyard Galley, under contract to the National Park Service. Also, 20 extra telephones have been installed by AT&T, 20 portable toilets will be in place and additional trash removal service will help make sure people have a pleasant day.

Chief of Interpretation Bill Foley stated: "Sail Boston is a great opportunity for us to showcase the many programs we always have underway for visitors." The Visitor Information Center is currently featuring a special exhibit of drawings by Vernon Howe Bailey. Rangers will lead 90-minute walking tours of the Navy Yard each day, beginning at 2 p.m. The BNHP regularly offers historic encampments for the public to visit, and the 47th Regiment of Foot Encampment will be in place on July 11 and 12.

Also in the BNHP, the U.S. Navy will continue to offer free tours of the USS Constitution during much of Sail Boston, and the USS Constitution Museum, featuring two new exhibits, will be open to the public.

The USS Constitution will go into Boston Harbor twice during Sail Boston, to lead the Parade of Sail on July 11, and to bid the Tall Ships farewell on July 16.

The National Park Service will also host additional special programs for Sail Boston, including a major exhibit by the American Sail Training Association, and woodworking demonstrations by high school students from the museum's apprenticeship program.

Children At Little Patriots Put On Bunny Ears

The children from the Little Patriots Children's Center at the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club hopped to help people with disabilities on June 11 and 12, raising $315 in an Easter Seal Hop-N-Ing.

The children had spent the previous week learning about disabilities — what causes them, how disabilities affect people's everyday lives and the equipment used to help them cope. After that, they were ready to help.

Each child secured pledges from family and friends for every hop performed during a three-minute Hop-N-Ing. The funds raised help provide Easter Seal services for men, women and children with disabilities.

A Report On Sail Boston '92

After three years of planning and with the involvement of more than 20 city of Boston departments, the Tall Ships are finally set to parade into Boston Harbor on Saturday, July 11.

This will be the culmination of an intercontinental voyage which began in Genoa, Italy this past April 19. Along the way, the ships have stopped in Lisbon, Portugal; Cadiz, Spain; San Juan, Puerto Rico; and New York City. The journey is part of the Grand Regatta Columbus '92 Quincentenary, which commemorates the 500th anniversary of the voyage of Christopher Columbus to the New World.

More than 200 vessels, three times as many as the 1976 Bicentennial Celebration, will take part in this event. Approximately 3.5 million people are expected to attend the week-long event. According to Rosemarie Sansone, coordinator of the Tall ship's visit for the city of Boston, "this is the biggest such event ever staged in the region."

To ensure public safety and maximize public enjoyment, a number of measures and programs will be implemented. The focus here will be Charlestown and the adjacent neighborhoods, with telephone numbers to secure information on other areas.

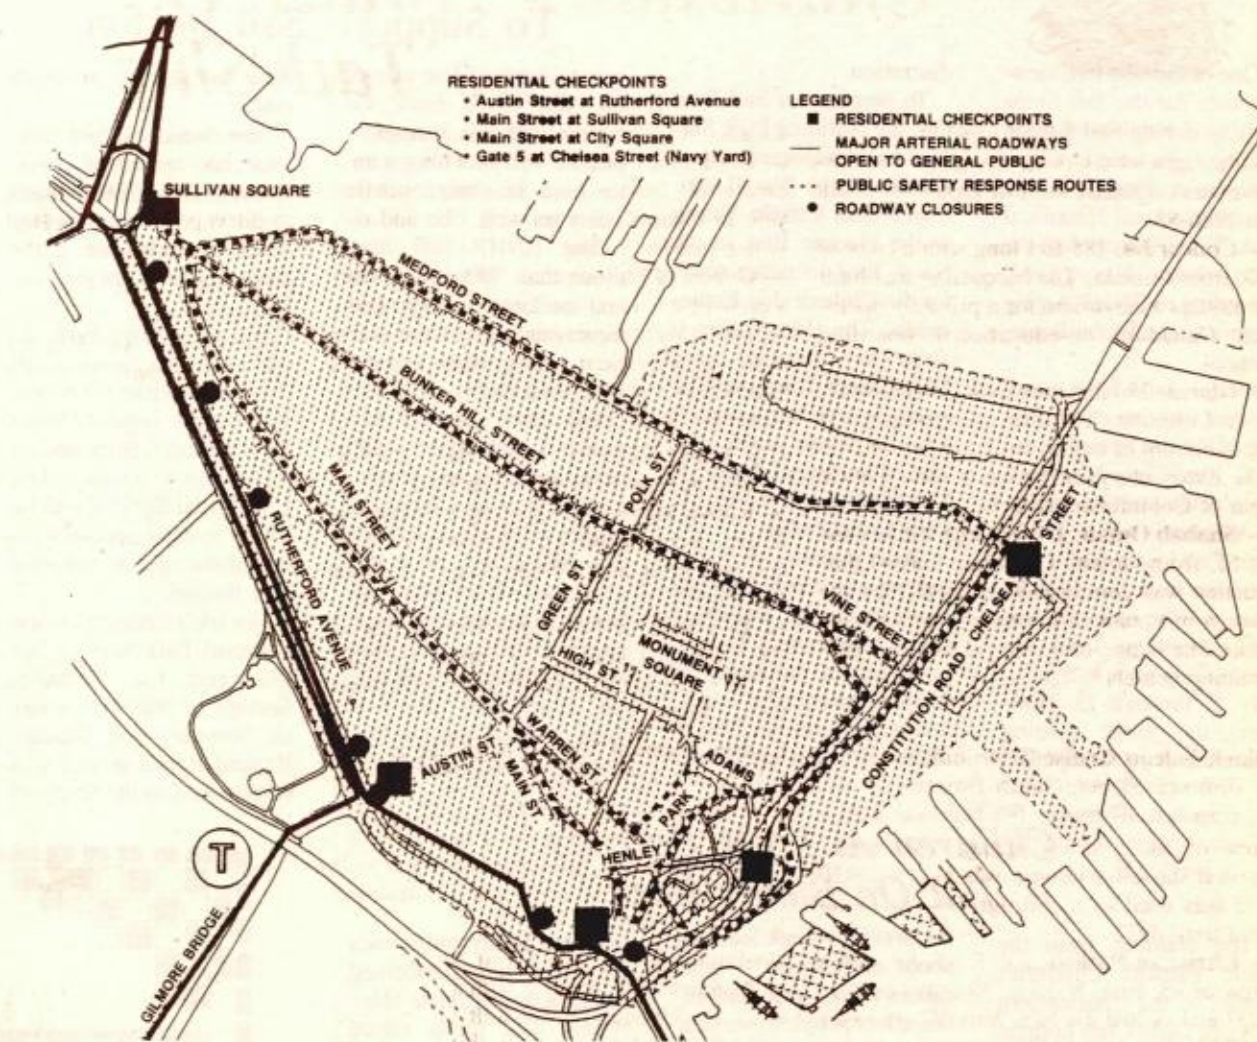

Passenger Automobile Restrictions

In order to maintain public safety and eliminate vehicular gridlock on neighborhood streets, the Boston Transportation Department (BTD) has a transportation plan that will close Boston's waterfront neighborhoods to private passenger automobiles. In Charlestown, these restrictions will be in place on Saturday, July 11 from 5:30 a.m. until approximately 7 p.m. and on Sunday, July 12 from 5:30 a.m. to midnight when these restrictions will be lifted. Access into and out of Charlestown will not be limited on July 13 through July 16.

The transportation plan will stop all vehicles from entering Charlestown during these hours with only the following exceptions: tour buses, high occupancy vehicles (10 or more passengers), MBTA shuttle buses, public safety vehicles, credentialed Sail Boston and/or media vehicles and some delivery and commercial vehicles. Commercial vehicles, bearing proper commercial identification, will be allowed into Charlestown for time-sensitive deliveries only.

The BTD has offered no guarantee that residents, employers or employees outside Charlestown when the 5:30 a.m. blockade takes effect on July 11 and 12 will be allowed to enter the community. Although proper identification, such as a driver's license or car registration, showing a

THIS MAP of Charlestown indicates the checkpoints for residents to exit and re-enter the community if it necessary for them to use their vehicles, and which streets will be blocked off. These restrictions will apply from 5:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday, July 11 and from 5:30 a.m. to midnight on Sunday, July 12.

Charlestown address might gain the vehicle's entry, motorists must be advised that they will most likely be sitting in bumper-to-bumper traffic on streets leading into Charlestown before they reach a police officer to request entry.

Vehicles Within The Community

Residential vehicles already within the boundaries of the neighborhood at 5:30 a.m. on July 11 and 12 will have complete access within the community with the exception of the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Residents with vehicles wishing to leave the neighborhood will have to exit through a designated checkpoint where a resident placard will be issued to them. Re-entry must be through a designated checkpoint and the placard must be returned.

Exiting And Entering The Community

The Charlestown checkpoints where vehicles will be allowed to exit or enter the community will be located at:

- City Square
- Sullivan Square (at The Schrafft Center) and
- Rutherford Avenue at Austin Street (the Gilmore Bridge).

No traffic will be allowed to enter or exit the Tobin

Bridge in Charlestown during the blockade.

Refer to the map on page 10 for the roadway closings and the exit and entry checkpoints in the community.

Navy Yard Residents

A separate pass will be distributed to residents of the Charlestown Navy Yard who wish to drive out of that area. The pass would have to be produced to gain re-entry into the Yard. All other private vehicles, including those belonging to Charlestown residents, will not be allowed to drive into the Navy Yard on Saturday or Sunday.

In addition, Gate 4 of the Navy Yard will be closed to vehicular traffic from Monday, July 13 through Thursday, July 16. Traffic into the Navy Yard will be directed through Gate 5.

Streets Closed To Traffic

Streets that will be closed to traffic to prevent outside vehicles from entering the community are all located off New Rutherford Avenue. They are: Mishawum Street (across from the Sullivan Square fire station), Baldwin, Essex and West School streets, Old Rutherford Avenue and City Square.

Traffic outside the Charlestown boundaries will be allowed to use New Rutherford Avenue, two lanes on the North Washington Street Bridge and the streets around the rotary in Sullivan Square.

Public Transportation

The use of public transportation is strongly advised to anyone wishing to take advantage of the splendor of the visit by the Tall Ships, but this is especially important for residents, their guests, employers and employees trying to enter the community on July 11 and 12.

Increased bus service on Main and Bunker Hill streets will depart and return to Sullivan Square throughout the weekend. Bus routes 92 and 93 will not take passengers downtown, but will transport them to Sullivan Square to make connections on the Orange Line. The 92 and 93 buses will make a "loop" through Charlestown that will include a bus stop at the Charlestown

'Heavy Metal Horns' Concert At Charlestown Navy Yard Tonight

A free "Party in the Park" concert featuring the rhythm and blues of Heavy Metal Horns will be held at the Courageous Sailing Center on Pier 4 in the Charlestown Navy Yard tonight, Thursday, July 9, starting at 6:30 p.m. It is sponsored by Cablevision and the Boston Parks and Recreation Department.

Also tonight, neighborhood residents can preview the Tall Ships celebration at the Navy Yard. The event will be the first opportunity for Charlestown residents to view the maxi-yachts and the 12-meter yachts which will be arriving from around the world for the Tall Ships extravaganza.

"We look forward to visiting Charlestown at such an exciting time with great summertime music and the Tall Ships celebration as well," said Cablevision General Manager Henry J. Ferris. "The Party in the Park concert series is a wonderful collaboration with the Boston Parks Department and we are delighted to present this free entertainment to the people of Charlestown."

So plan on visiting Pier 4 in the Charlestown Navy Yard tonight at 6:30 p.m. and enjoy the music of Heavy Metal Horns.

with a crew of 60, from Germany. The barque was originally built in 1906 and rebuilt in 1986-88.

— Concordia, 185 feet long with a crew of 63, from Canada. The barquette was built in 1991 as a classroom for a privately operated Canadian co-educational boarding school.

— Gloria, 250 feet long with a crew of 132, from Columbia. The three-masted barque is reminiscent of the medium clipper ships of the 19th century and has an on-board museum of Columbian artifacts.

— Shabab Oman, 171 feet long with a crew of 57, from Oman. This three-masted barquette was commissioned in 1971 by the Sultan of Oman as his navy's sail-training ship. She is one of the world's newest sail-training vessels.

Black Falcon Cruise Terminal, Summer Street, South Boston

— Capitan Miranda, 198 feet long with a crew of 102, from Uruguay. This three-masted staysail schooner was built in 1930 and was used as a hydrographic relieving ship until 1977.

— Christian Radich, 240 feet long with a crew of 93, from Norway. She was built in 1937 and visited the New York World's Fair in 1939. She was seized by the Germans during World War II and served as a submarine depot ship until 1945. This three-masted full-rigged ship was featured in the 1957 film "Windjammer."

— Danmark, 252 feet long with a crew of 97, from Denmark. She was visiting the New York's World's Fair when war broke out in 1939 and she and her crew were offered to the U.S. Coast Guard by the Danish government. This full-rigged ship was built in 1933.

— Dar Młodzieży, 358 feet long with a crew of 167, from Poland. She was built as a "Gift of Youth." This full-rigged ship was built in 1982.

— USCGB Eagle, 296 feet long with a crew of 212, from the United States. Built in Germany in 1936, this barque was taken as a war prize following World War II. She now serves as a seagoing classroom for 175 cadets and instructors at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn.

— Gorch Fock II, 216 feet long with a crew of 216, from Germany. Built in 1958, this barque is the second oldest of the post-war windjammers and a sail training ship of the German Navy.

— Juan Sebastian de Elcano, 370 feet long with a crew of 163, from Spain. Built in 1927, this four-masted topsail schooner was named for the first Spaniard to sail around the world and has sailed on seven successful circumnavigations of the globe.

— Kruzenshtern, 376 feet long with a crew of 232, from the Commonwealth of Independent States. She is one of the largest square riggers in the world and is one of the last of the legendary "Flying Pliners." Originally christened Padua, her name was changed to Kruzenshtern in honor of the famous Russian geographer and navigator after becoming the property of the Soviet Union in 1946. She was built in 1926.

— Libertad, 340 feet long with a crew of 262, from Argentina. This three-masted full rigged vessel is not only a training ship but one of the world's largest sailing vessels. Built in 1956, she has a sail area covering 28,546 square feet and a displacement of 3,765 tons.

— Sagres II, 294 feet long with a crew of 218, from Portugal. This three-masted barque, built in 1938, is distinguished by Portuguese Crosses of Christ on her sails.

— Sedov, 385 feet long with a crew of 193, from the Commonwealth of Independent States. Built in 1921, this four-masted barque is the world's largest square-rig sailing ship.

— Simon Bolivar, 270 feet long with a crew of 201, from Venezuela. This barque is one of the modern generation of windjammers being used by navies around the world. She was built in 1979.

Boston Harbor Hotel, Rows Wharf

— Fryderyk Chopin, 182 feet long with a crew of 60, from Poland. This brig, built this year in Gdansk, is a training ship and this is her maiden voyage.

— Gazela of Philadelphia, 178 feet long with a crew of 44, from the United States. Built in 1883, this three-masted barquette is the oldest square-rigged vessel still in operation and sails as a good-will ambassador from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

U.S. Coast Guard Support Base, Pier 3, Commerical Street, North End

— Kaiwo Maru, 361 feet long with a crew of 155, from Japan. This four-masted barque was built in 1989 and is used for sea training.

— Tovarisch, 204 feet long with a crew of 190, from the Ukraine. This barque was built in 1933 and is the sister ship to the United State's Eagle.

Coastal Cement Corp., Adjacent to Black Falcon Terminal, Summer Street

— Mir, 361 feet long with a crew of 198, owned by the State Academy in St. Petersburg, Russia. This full-rigged ship was built in 1987 and she is used as a sail training vessel.

Boston Fish Pier, Northern Avenue

— Niagara, 198 feet long with a crew of 36, from the United States. Built in 1813 and completely restored in 1900, this brig is the flagship of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The original vessel was one of the ships which helped destroy British sea power during the War of 1812.

Bay Point Marina, Quincy

— Rose, 179 feet long with a crew of 36, from the United States. This full-rigged ship, which was built in 1970 and restored in 1985, has the distinction of being the largest operational wooden Tall Ship in the world with a 130-foot mainmast as tall as a 14-story building.

Other Vessels In The Charlestown Navy Yard

In addition to the three Tall Ships on Pier 1, over 50 other sailing vessels will be docked in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Maxi-Class yachts will be berthed at Piers 4 and 5 where the public will be able to view them following the Parade of Sail on Saturday. These boats are generally about 80-feet long and have a rig that is 100 feet above the deck. They each carry a crew of about 23.

The Maxi-Class yachts arrived in Boston yesterday (Wednesday) finishing a race that began on April 19 and went from Genoa, Italy to Cadiz, Spain. The final leg of the race was from New York City to off Castle Island. They will be competing in regattas in the outer harbor on Monday, July 13 and Tuesday, July 14.

Also docked at the Charlestown Navy Yard will be several 12-meter sailboats which will also compete in a regatta.

Elsewhere In Charlestown

The guided missile frigate USS Kauffman (FFG-59) is scheduled to visit Charlestown in conjunction with Sail Boston '92. The ship will be berthed at Mystic Pier 1. The public is invited to tour the ship as guests of the commanding officer on July 12, 13 and 14 from noon to 5 p.m. each day.

The Oliver Hazard Perry class ship is 445 feet long and 45 feet wide, and carries a crew of 200. Cmdr. James H. Chapman Jr. is the commanding officer.

Visitors can gain access to the Kauffman by traveling down Chelsea Street and crossing the Little Mystic Bridge. Mystic Pier 1 will be on the right.

At the other end of town, over 100 Class C Tall Ships will be berthing at the Mystic Marina at The Schrafft Center in Sullivan Square. These ships are under 100 feet in length and will be available for viewing by the public.

Sail Boston '92 Events

As the final port destination in the United States, Boston's celebration is expected to be spectacular. Along with the sheer spectacle of the Tall Ships, there will be a series of events which include concerts, arts festivals, special parades, cultural exhibits and fireworks. The events in the Charlestown, North End/Waterfront, City Hall and Faneuil Hall areas include:

Thursday, July 9

• 6:30 p.m. — Cablevision's Party in the Park Concert with Heavy Metal Horns, Pier 4, Charlestown Navy Yard. Free.

■ Sail Charlestown . . . This weekend, a spectacular event will take place in Boston. The Tall Ships will return to our harbor, and America will watch with awe. How very fortunate we are to really have a front-row seat for this great event. The Charlestown Navy Yard will again be filled with energy and excitement.

Having seen the Tall Ships in 1976, I strongly encourage everyone to become a neighborhood tourist this weekend. I remember "camping out" at Castle Island, and seeing the ships come into Boston Harbor was truly a magnificent sight, almost beyond description.

In addition to our own Tall Ship — the USS Constitution, the Amerigo Vespucci from Italy and the Esmeralda from Chile will be berthed in the Navy Yard and open to the public during the upcoming week. There will be fireworks on Sunday evening, and we're in for a very exciting time. Once again we have a beautiful opportunity to share our "Charlestown Pride" with so many others.

■ Rock Hill Basketball . . . "Charlestown Pride" will play the "Old Timers" on Sunday at 8 p.m. in Rock Hill Basketball action. Players should be at the Savin Hill court by 7:45 p.m. Charlestown Pride is 1-0 in the league.

■ Project Discovery . . . The New England Sports Museum was the site of our most recent Project Discovery trip. This "preview" museum is located in the Galleria Mall in Cambridge, and it is full of sports items, ongoing videos and the famed wood sculptures of Bobby Orr, Larry Bird and Yaz. Accompanying me on this Discovery trip were Andrew Ray, Mark Shean, Pat Collins, Billy Barends and Jimmy Yandle.

■ Still Number One . . . Charlestown remains in the top spot in the Rivera Division of the Tom Yawkey Baseball League at 12-3-0. Continued success to our "Old Town Team."

■ Gone Fishing . . . Some 42 teens accompanied Father Coyne on the first fishing trip of the summer. The bus left Charlestown at 5:30 a.m. for the trip to Plymouth. A fine day and a fine experience was had by all. Another trip is scheduled for early August.

■ Go Townies! . . . The Charlestown Townies open their 1992 Eastern Football League schedule on Saturday afternoon, July 11. The kickoff time is 3:30 p.m., the opponent is Medway, and the game will be played in Brighton.

■ Red Sox Trip . . . Townies Billy Barends, Kenny O'Neil, Jeff Houlihan, Brenden Houlihan and Seamus Houlihan attended a recent Red Sox game. Tickets were provided by the Andy Puopolo-Charlestown Pride program.

■ BHA Jamboree . . . The annual BHA Jamboree is scheduled to take place on Saturday, July 18 at White Stadium in Franklin Field and is open to youngsters who live in the Bunker Hill Housing Development. A bus will be provided. Information, permission slips and registration forms are available from the BHA Youth Worker (Bob D.) or from the Teen Resource Center at the management office.

Local Athletes To Participate In Summer Bay State Games

Three Charlestown athletes will join hundreds of young men and women from across the state in competing in a variety of events at locations throughout the city in the 1992 Summer Bay State Games. The games open on Thursday, July 16 and continue through Sunday, July 19.

Matthew Chardavoyne, a seventh-grade student at Boston Latin School, will be competing in swimming in the junior division. The swimming competition gets underway at 9 a.m. on Friday, July 17 at Harvard University. The meet continues until noon, and resumes from 7 to 10 p.m. Swimming will also be held at Harvard on Saturday, July 18 and Sunday, July 19 from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and from 5 to 9 p.m.

Jonathan Lent, a sophomore at Matignon High School, will be playing ice hockey for the Metro team in the scholastic division. They will play the Northeast team at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 16 at Boston University. On Saturday, July 18, the Metro team will play the Coastal team at 11:30 a.m. and the Southeast team at 7 p.m. at the Dexter School. The team will play the West team at the Dexter School at 11 a.m. on Sunday, July 19, with the Gold Medal Game scheduled for 4:30 p.m. the same day.

Kevin McCarthy will be competing in wrestling in the open division. Wrestling gets underway at UMass/Boston on Friday, July 17 with the weigh-in at 4 p.m. and the event at 6 p.m. On Saturday, July 18, wrestling will be from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. at UMass/Boston.

BayBanks, the presenting sponsor of the 1992 Summer Bay State Games, will provide a variety of special attractions during opening ceremonies at City Hall Plaza at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 16.

BayBanks has arranged for the award-winning Boston Crusaders Drum and Bugle Corp. to kick off the evening and lead a parade of 5,000 athletes from Government Center to City Hall Plaza. In addition, BayBanks spokesman and Bay State Games Honorary Coach Bobby Orr will be a featured speaker and will introduce Massachusetts Olympians, including Nancy Kerrigan, and Boston sports figures to the gathering. Other special attractions will include the lighting of the Olympic torch, a fireworks display, refreshments and balloons, compliments of BayBanks. In the event of rain, the ceremonies will be held at the Boston Garden.

The Bay State Games, established in 1982, are an annual Olympic-style competition for Massachusetts young people. Former Bay State Games participants include 1992 Olympic ice skating medalists Nancy Kerrigan and Paul Wylie, and Boston Celtic star Reggie Lewis.

1992 Yawkey League All-Star Game

by Dave McKay

The 1992 Yawkey Amateur Baseball League All-Star Game was held on June 28 at the Casey/Town Field in Dorchester. This afternoon was an amateur baseball fan's dream come true. The glorious dry and sunny afternoon drew over 200 fans to the legendary Fields Corner ball yard.

Representatives of the nine Stewart Division teams and the eight Rivera Division teams locked heads in the league's 10th All-Star extravaganza with Boston City Councillor Albert "Dapper" O'Neil throwing out the first ball.

Joe Upton and Neal Keane represented the Charlestown 520 Club in the Rivera Division.

The Rivera Division went down to defeat after leading for seven innings by a 12-2 score. The game was very close through seven, until the Stewart Division scored seven runs in the eighth for what looks like a blow out in the box score.

Rob Jordan of the East Boston/Serra Club was awarded the game MVP. Roslindale-based Brannelly's pitcher Ken Kozak obtained the win, while Errol Fagone of East Boston worked the save for the Stewart Division.

Charlestown 520 Club hurler Upton was the losing pitcher for the Rivera Division. Upton pitched two innings and allowed the lead run. He left in favor of McKay Club pitcher John Nee who suffered through the disastrous eighth.

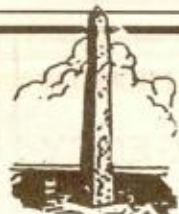

Game managers were John Capo of East Boston for the Stewart Division and Mike Sheeron of Charlestown for the Rivera Division.

by Father Ron Coyne

• CYO Boys Baseball — With the great response from teen-agers and parents, we are able to field three cadet and one junior team.

This week, we present our cadet team coached by Rob McIntosh and Paul Allen. Players include: Bill Burke, Brian Dole, Michael Fidler, Peter Golden, Patrick Healey, Dave Hurley, Kevin Hurley, Tom Halloran, Brian Lacey, Brendan Sullivan, Michael Sullivan, Jim Tallent, Joe Tallent and Tim Warren. They will be playing a 14-game regular season schedule followed by playoffs. We appreciate these boys and their willingness to represent Charlestown in the CYO League.

• CYO Harbor Cruise — All Charlestown teen-agers 13 and over are invited to go with St. Catherine's CYO on the annual CYO Harbor Cruise on the Provincetown II, leaving from Commonwealth Pier on Monday, July 20. The bus will leave St. Catherine's Rectory at 7:15 p.m., and will return around 11:30 p.m. The cost of the trip is $10 per person. There will be 1,000 teen-agers from throughout the Archdiocese on the cruise which is from 8 to 11 p.m. Please sign up at St. Catherine's Rectory, 49 Vine St. as soon as possible. We are limited to 40 people.

• CYO All-Nighter — Our Summer All-Nighter for teen-agers 13 years old and up will begin on Friday, July 10 at 6 p.m. and continue through the night until Saturday, July 11 at 6 a.m. Our bus will leave from St. Catherine's Church and will proceed to roller-skating at Rollerworld from 7 to 9 p.m., a movie theater at 9:30 p.m., pizza at the European at midnight, followed by an "Anything Goes" contest at the school hall at 1:15 a.m. It will then be bowling in Malden at 3 a.m. and breakfast at Bickford's at 4:30 a.m. before returning to St. Catherine's at 6 a.m. The cost for all of this is only $20 per person. Please register at St. Catherine's Rectory, 49 Vine St.

• Red Sox/Rangers Tickets — We have 40 tickets to the Boston Red Sox vs. Texas Rangers baseball game on Tuesday, July 28 beginning at 7:35 p.m. These are all bleacher seats and they are on sale now at the rectory, 49 Vine St., for $3.50 each. All ages are welcome. You must provide your own transportation.

• CYO Three-Day Montreal Trip — We will be taking 20 teen-agers to Montreal from Monday through Wednesday, Aug. 3-5. We will travel in two vans and will stay at the Radisson Gouvaneurs Hotel for two nights. The trip will include the Montreal Expos vs. Cubs game, a day at Aqua Park and the evening at La Ronde Amusement Park. The cost of the trip is $125 per person. There are only a few spaces left, so sign up now and leave a $50 deposit at the rectory. Everyone must have a birth certificate to cross the Canadian border. Linda Lacey and Father Coyne will be the chaperones.

• CYO Golf Tournament — The CYO Golf Tournament will be held from Monday, July 20 through Friday, July 24 at Ponkapoag Golf Course in Canton. All males and females from 12 to 26 are eligible to enter their division. For more information, call Vicky at 472-0333.

Health Gap To Provide Homecare Services

Health Gap is a new and innovative homemaker program designed by the Kennedy Center and funded by an EDIC Community Development Block Grant. Homemakers will provide cleaning, shopping, laundry, meal preparation and accompaniment. Charlestown seniors, age 60 and older, will qualify for the services if they fall within certain income guidelines and are not currently receiving and/or do not qualify for services through other homemaker agencies.

Health Gap has the ability to provide emergency services when a person is discharged from the hospital or at home with an illness. Interim care will be provided while assisting the client with the referral process to the most appropriate agency for the services that will best enhance their well being. Provisions are made for both short-term (four hours a week for two weeks) and long-term (two hours a week for up to 26 weeks) service plans.

Health Gap will accept referrals from potential clients, family members, physicians, clinicians, hospitals, etc. For complete guideline information or referral, please contact: Judi Meaney, director of Senior Services, at 241-8866.

Put Your Old Eyeglasses To Good Use

The Charlestown Lions Club recycled over 1,000 pairs of used eyeglasses in 1991, making it possible for many who could not afford to buy eyeglasses to obtain them.

If you have any discarded or unneeded eyeglasses or sunglasses and would like to put them to good use, please give them to a local Lions Club member, drop them off at the Patriot office at One Thompson Square, or call Bud Coleman at 242-2063.

Pierce Honored For Service

'Ironside Ale' Sails Into Boston

As Sail Boston prepares for its launch, so does Boston's newest microbrewed beer — Ironside Ale, the legendary brew with a hearty Constitution which pays tribute to the ales of yesteryear. The ale is a product of Olde Time Brewers Inc., located on Rutherford Avenue in Charlestown.

Brewed in the American brewing tradition with the purest ingredients of barley malt, hops, yeast and water, this robust brew is the recreation of the rich, hearty ale stocked in the holds of "Old Ironsides" and enjoyed by only her sea captains in the early 1800's.

Ironside Ale is the brainchild of brewmaster Rick Dugas, founder of Olde Time Brewers Inc. An electrician by trade and an avid homebrewer for over 10 years, this 28-year-old native of Lynn began brewing beer while in high school. Says Dugas: "I've always been fascinated by the process of making spirits. First, making wine in an old oak cask in the basement and then beer in an hand-made brewing kettle set up in my parents' backyard."

Recently inspired by the increased consumption and BREWMASTER Rick Dugas, founder of Olde Time Brewers Inc., located on Rutherford Avenue in Charlestown, prepares for the delivery of Ironside Ale in his authentic 1934 Ford beer delivery truck.

growing popularity of microbrews, Dugas decided to turn his talent for homebrewing into a business venture. He gathered his life-long savings and established Olde Time Brewers Inc. According to Dugas, Ironside Ale, the first of many beer brands to be introduced by his new brewing company, is the product of extensive historical research. Says Dugas: "All along, it's been my dream to create a beer that is quintessentially Boston, one that reflects the heritage of this great port city."

In developing Ironside Ale, Dugas spent months investigating nautical folklore, looking for evidence of beer amidst the records of sunken treasures off the New England coast. In his search, he discovered that when tall ships ruled the high seas, captains enjoyed a robust ale brewed just for their pleasure. This rich, hearty ale came from the first runs of each batch brewed. Ironside Ale, using the same first-run process, revives this noble tradition. Because it is brewed in small batches, Ironside Ale will always be fresh and flavorful.

A premium beer, Ironside Ale is made with 100 percent natural ingredients with no preservatives. According to Dugas, its recipe reflects a "back to basics" hand-crafted quality. It is a classic full-bodied Olde English Ale with a rich amber color and crisp smooth taste designed to appeal to the most discriminating palates.

Future plans include introducing a variety of brews. All brands will tell a story — a little bit of history in every bottle.

Recycling Drop-Off Closed For July

According to the Charlestown Recycling Volunteers, the monthly drop-off for recyclables, scheduled for Saturday, July 11 in the Bunker Hill Mall, will be cancelled due to the arrival of the Tall Ships in Boston Harbor and the resulting limited access in and out of the town.

The next community recycling drop-off day will be on Saturday, Aug. 8.

Storm Drain Stencilling Project Gets Underway In Charlestown

Volunteers from the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club hit the streets of Charlestown on July 7 to stencil signs reading: "Don't Dump: Drains To Boston Harbor" next to storm drain catch basins.

The stencilling project, sponsored by the Boston Water & Sewer Commission, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority, is designed to discourage the dumping of toxins into storm drain catch basins. This project includes public education about safe disposal of oil and other household hazardous wastes which pose a threat to the environment.

Most storm drains lead directly to local waterways such as the Charles and Mystic rivers, and eventually to Boston Harbor where the contaminants have a severe impact on the environment. Hazardous wastes such as oil and antifreeze can affect water quality and impair the ability of surface waters to sustain aquatic life.

Used motor oil in particular is a significant contributor to the pollution of Boston Harbor. Petroleum hydrocarbons and heavy metals found in used motor oil pose a direct threat to the delicate marine ecosystem and kill microorganisms which form the base of the marine food chain. Each year, Americans carelessly dispose of over 200 million gallons of used motor oil, which is equal to 19 Exxon Valdez oil spills. In Massachusetts, it is estimated that 3.6 million gallons of used motor oil are disposed of improperly each year.

Even in areas served by combined sewers, hazardous materials dumped down storm drain catch basins end up at the MWRA's Deer or Nut Island treatment plants where toxic chemicals and heavy metals are either released into the harbor through treated water and/or become part of the primary by-product, sludge, which will later be used as fertilizer.

The Boston Water and Sewer Commission plans to work with the Mayor's Office and with neighborhood groups during the summer and into the fall. If your group would like to participate in the program, please contact Charlie Jewell at 330-9400.

Return My Children's Slide

This letter is directed to the despicable person who stole a child's slide out of a yard on Allston Street on July 1 or 2.

You must be a real hero — a brave and intelligent person — a real provider. I hope your children are proud of you. I hope, for their sake, they never find out it's all a delusion.

And if, by chance, you are a parent whose child has recently acquired a slide, I would ask you to please ask questions about it and if they can't be answered, then return my children's slide.

As a "Townie," I know we have our fair share of crime, but it's a sad day when you have to start chaining your children's toys down in their own backyard.

The brand name of the slide is "Little Tykes." The slide portion is red, the stairs are blue and the two crossbars underneath are yellow.

To the Editor,

Back in 1978, Charlestown was in the midst of celebrating the 350th anniversary of its founding and many cars throughout the town sported bumper stickers with the old Charlestown seal imprinted on it. Closer observation showed the old Charlestown motto, "Liberty: A trust to be transmitted to posterity." In many ways, most Townies lived that very motto without even being aware of its existence. One such Townie was Gus Charbonnier of Baldwin Street. He lived that motto every day of his life. Some folks take short cuts through life. They travel the easy road, leaving the heavy lifting to others. The Townie spirit is a "contrarian esprit." People here don't say, "Why?" They say, "Why Not?"

On Sunday, June 14 there was a dedication ceremony in honor of the creation of Charbonnier Street at the corner of Main and Baldwin streets in memory of Gus. I missed the ceremony due to my work schedule but, more impor-

Thank You

I want to thank the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club and the Raymond Group for honoring me on June 14. Having a trophy named in my honor was a great thrill, and is deeply appreciated.

I thoroughly enjoyed taking part in both the race and the award ceremonies.

Congratulations to my niece Lynn on winning the trophy. Once again, thank you for thinking of me.

Thank You, Jimmy Hall

The Kennedy Center and the Old Kent School would like to extend a big, warm thank you to Jimmy Hall of Charlestown Community Gardens.

Jimmy donated many flowers and plants to enhance the recent landscaping additions to the Old Kent School playground. A grant provided by Boston Greenspace Alliance allowed the Kennedy Center to add two trees and the many forsythia bushes to the school grounds.

Jimmy contributed the many daisy and royal grass plants to add extra color and beauty and contributed his "planting services" as well!

Thank you for thinking of us, Jimmy.

Gus Is Not Forgotten

tantly, I miss Gus Charbonnier. Gus wasn't a politician but he certainly told politicians a thing or three. He didn't just live in Charlestown, he lived and acted to make Charlestown the very best it could be. He was a true example of what a community activist should be.

Many of us have Gus Charbonnier stories. Mine is one from 1977 when I was a young upstart trying to attain ballot status for the old five-member Boston School Committee. I had been collecting nomination signatures all day in Brighton and in the evening started walking around Charlestown, going door-to-door in search of 2,000 qualified voter signatures. I arrived at Baldwin Street and got to his address. I was invited up and we chatted in his kitchen. Even then most folks knew my name and we talked of Charlestown issues. I respected his opinions and he did mine. We agreed more than not, and it was the best stop I had in that brief political campaign.

Gus is gone now but surely not his spirit. Every generation has a responsibility to the next. Gus understood that as do most of today's community leaders. Hopefully, I understood it. And as long as there are people who remember Gus, he will live forever in spirit. Having a street named after you is just an extra bonus.

Gus Charbonnier was never ambiguous when it came to community issues. He took firm stands come hell or high water. He took the heat along with the praise. The Charlestown motto is a reflection of a belief that each of us is accorded his or her time to be used wisely and for the benefit of all. Gus may be gone but surely not forgotten!

Sincerely,
Sal J. Giarratani

The Children Had A Great Time

To Mr. Stephen Owens:

Dear Mr. Owens,

On behalf of the children and staff of the Shriners Burns Institute, I would like to sincerely thank you for arranging to have all the characters, including the Ninja Turtles, Cookie Monster and Big Bird, visit with the children. The children had a really great time.

Your thoughtfulness and concern for the children here at Shriners is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,
Diana M Beattie, C.T.R.S.

Thursday, July 2

An attempt was made to break into an apartment at 106 13th Street during the day by forcing open the front door.

During the evening, a storage shed in the rear of a Baldwin Street residence was broken into, and two bicycles were stolen.

Wiles To Appear In Concert

Recording artist Paula Wiles of Charlestown will appear in concert at the Ruth Gordon Amphitheater in Merrymount Park, Quincy on Wednesday, July 15 from 7 to 9 p.m. She will be backed by the five-piece Worcester-based showband "Stormfront."

Her performance is sponsored by the Quincy Businessmen's Association and the city of Quincy. This free outdoor concert is part of a weeklong celebration welcoming the tall ships.

Fun On Wheels

The Fun-on-Wheels vans are once again racing about the city, bringing sports, athletics, games and arts & crafts to youngsters 15 and under.

The van will be visiting the Doherty Playground on Bunker Hill Street from 1 to 3 p.m. on Monday, July 13.

Four tires were slashed on an automobile parked on 13th Street during the evening.

Friday, July 3

An attempt was made to break into a business at 92 Main St. by forcing in the rear window.

At 7 p.m., officers responded to 50 Decatur St. where they arrested a 46-year-old resident for the violation of a restraining order.

A stolen automobile was recovered on Spice Street.

Sunday, July 5

At 4 p.m., officers responded to 12 Austin St. where they met a 19-year-old resident who reported that a 78-year-old resident had grabbed her by the leg. Another resident reported that the same individual had done the same thing to her. The suspect was arrested for indecent assault.

For additional information regarding arrested individuals, contact Community Service Officer
Joe McNulty at 343-4627.

• If you know of any drug activity in your neighborhood, call the Area A Detectives office at 343-4571. It is not necessary to give your name, and all information will be investigated.

• Residents are reminded that if you purchase alcohol from a local liquor store for someone under age, you are subject to arrest.
