

COVIDIAN CULT
MASS HYSTERIA
FURTHER
PROSPECTIVES

Living under the 5th French Banana Republic, during the Covidian Cult mass hysteria world wide.

A political view from an insider regardless of political correctness, which trend tends to be a dusty relic of the past across both our beloved MSM and Nanny French State.

This is our new normal folks. We are now stuck in a never ending loop of lockdowns/release/lockdowns. Sure the super duper Delta variant accross Moscow, now Sydney. I just don't buy the fake narrative anymore. Our world is a giant scamdemic potemkine village full of masked bozos.

Please, just accelerate the depopulation agenda. I am so done with all this non sense. It finally gets me, i am so sick of it all. Common, just release every NBC stuff stored in the drinking water.

This tyranny we live in only works and rely on braindead, cattle minded people all around us. I feel cornered, drained to the bone. The modern man love to wear those damn shiny debt chains, leeches on leashes, loving their servitude.

So many centurys of struggle from the human kind to end miserably like this, like utter helots? What is even the point? What we once called civilizations are already dead and long gone, what is left of them are only a remnant mockery at best, decaying ashes. Our ancestors will spit on this era and everything it represents, they will be horrified of this open air pshychiatric ward we became.

The thing is, i am also cattle like braindead NPCs. I always have been. The only difference is that i became aware of my despicable condition. The technological, modern, Orwellian society is the cage we all live in. The cell is pretty wide but still we are stuck inside no matter what.

This synthesis is an agregamento of several comments i previously made under the comment section of the ZeroHedge website like the one above. They are a condensed, revised version deemed for a better comprehension, reading. It comes across several axioms which the main, central one is the Great Reset and what i define as the "Covidian Cult".

I agreed Covid 19 exist, i only deny it has a threatening nature justifying these senseless lockdowns and "vaccines" across the globe. I will also underline how irrational fear was used as leverage through mass induced hysteria by both MSM/Governements towards a de facto vaccination, using an ever increasing amount of indirects coercions.

Covidian Cult ironically refers to the fake Covid 19 "plague like" narrative which was and still is used to fullfill another, hidden, globalist agenda. Some call it a scamdemic, i prefer this one term which perfectly illustrate the mass hysteria era we all live in. Covid 19 became a dogma, with both true believers and heretics. Holy ones and unholy ones. Vaccinated and unvaccinated. Divide and rule, as always.

Conspiracy theorist labelling is a rethorical trick used when you do not want an open, honest, argumented debate and avoid talking about some inconvenient truths. Its the down syndrom, shy niece equivalent of a Godwin point when running pretty low on arguments.

The Covidian Cult

I have a theory regarding the singularity we now all face. These are only prospectives and i might only be a delusionnal, paranoid, so called "conspiracy theorist" fool. Still, i feel a surge leading me to wrote this and share it.

The monetary and economical system is living dead for quite some time. There will be no recovery and the more time passes the more we approach the cinetic "hit the wall at full speed" momentum. FIAT[1] is already worthless anyway. A deflation spiral could be triggered at any times. To avoid this inflation is guarantee.

Our Elites Overlords planned the Covidian Cult to push for these mRNA "vaccines" among the general population. The lockdowns were aimed to destroy the middle class and it sadly was a success. There was way too much correlation in the Covid 19 restrictions across the globe to only be a pure coincidence. It was concerted and well planned, worldwide. (event 201 during October 2019 simulation was indeed a rehearsal for Covid19)

Our Elite Overlords knew the central banking system was already at a failure level, the Covid19 outbreak was a method of powering the planned economical demolition, which was unavoidable on the short term. I also suppose we get a very low EROIE[2] on oil and the death cross is not very far from now.

Regarding the World Economic Forum Great Reset agenda

"You will own nothing and you will be happy." -World Economic Forum

This motto said it all of our Elites Overlords mindset.

If you own nothing, someone else does. These someone else are our Elites Overlords themselves and their corporate/political minions. It will be a two class society, no more middle men, middle class will be crushed. An hybrid neo-feudal system. Something between ultra crony capitalism on the uppers levels and a commie technological, Orwellian, nightmarish dystopia for the proles.

Proles will have UBI[3] paid in form of CBDC[4] throughout their digital wallets, cash will be outlawed. Those will be linked to their social credit (health) score. In this dystopia to come, privacy and nuclear family will no longer exist. Your hability to move freely will be reduced to absolute zero. No more human bounds only human digits. Those "vaccines" will be permanent and no longer an option.

1 FIAT : Government-issued currency unbacked by gold such as dollar, euro, yuan

2 EROIE refers to energy return on energy invested, basically if you need more energy to get a ressource extracted than what you get in return, then it will stay unextracted. The cost undermine the profit

3 UBI : Universal Basis Income

4 CBDC : Central Bank Digital Currencies. Digital dollar, euro, yuan will be implemented in a near future as replacement of FIAT, no more physical coins or bills

Fear & mass coordinated hysteria

As I already said in a previous post, The Covidian Cult is pretty much like these senseless ever changing wars in Orwell's 1984, against Eurasia, Eastasia or Oceania. The target is to drive people into mass coordinated hysteria, to make them compliant, unified, hive minded, braindead cattle. Covid 19 ever changing variants are the equivalent of these endless wars. Both serve the same purpose.

This is what the Covidian Cult is really about, make people obedient, and hive minded. There is no more individuals in the name of the "greater good". The success of this mass coordinated hysteria is sadly astonishing. Technological dystopia bound with sanitary tyranny is the new normalcy.

About masks

Wearing a mask was never about health nor Covid 19. It has always been about social control of the masses through fear, virtue signaling. It became a conformity marker among the human herd. Masks only are a submission signal of the wearer. It shows in broad daylight those who bow to the Covidian Cult and those who do not. The true believers versus the heretics. With the so called "Delta" strain our Elites Overlords will declare those who refuse this sanitary madness as guilty because of their heresy. Heretics are not a conform part of the Covidian Cult so they must be cast away for the greater good.

They will qualify those who refuse these mRNA "vaccines" as a problem that needs to be done with. At some point, I see the sanitary gulag (perpetual quarantine) for those who are still sane of mind. Once you are in here, I guess you will be definitively done, one way or another.

Etienne de la Boetie described pretty well the masses who willingly submit to tyranny/ slavery on their own. In French it's called: "Discours de la servitude volontaire." He nailed the main problem we actually face (spineless masses who love their servitude) and he did so in the XVI th century. A visionary, ahead of his time and still relevant today. A must read.

Divide and rule

In here, French MSM already started blaming next lockdowns to come down on the vaccine refusers. They will push these Covid 19 vaccinated people against those who do not fell into the Covidian Cult trap psychosis, the reluctant ones. Those submissive people are cowards, they won't go directly after the designated reluctant enemy by MSM. The strategy appears to be crystal clear and as old as human History is. Divide and rule as always. Vaccinated against the reluctant ones. True believers against heretics.

Kary Mullis & PCR test

Most people know about PCR, but seems to be clueless about who Kary Mullis was. The man -which was a science genius and a chemistry Nobel laureate- invented the PCR (Polymerase Chain Reaction) technology. He talked about PCR test during a public speech recorded in 1993.

Here is a transcription of his speech during this video :

"the PCR test is a process that it's used to make a lot of something out of something, it DOESN'T tell you that you are sick, it doesn't tell you that the thing you've ended up (he means PCR test results) with it, really was gonna hurt you"

"With PCR you can find anything in anybody."

Kary Mullis also talked about Dr. Anthony Fauci (NIAD Director) in another video. Here is some quotes about Fauci :

"Guys like Fauci get up there and start talking, and he doesn't know anything really about anything, and I'd say that to his face. Nothing."

"He doesn't understand electron microscopy and he doesn't understand medicine"

About HIV epidemic in the eighties and PCR test used back then :

"Epidemic. The number of cases reported went up epidemically, exponentially because the number of tests that was done went up exponentially. How many doctors knew about HIV in 1983? Two. How many knew about it in 1985? Say 500. How many knew about it in 1986? 40,000. So that's where the curve came from. How many tests were done"

About CDC during HIV epidemic :

"[...] that made it a plague again. The CDC needed one. The CDC hadn't had a good plague since polio."

Kary Mullis conveniently passed away from a severe pneumonia on August 7th, 2019. Event 201 a simulation of a worldwide coronavirus pandemic was held two months later, on October 18, 2019 inside The Pierre hotel in New York. These Kary Mullis videos were censored from both you tube and google later. PCR tests were used (and still are) to maintain the Covid 19 pandemic narrative using so called asymptomatic.

A never ending lockdowns & release loop

From there it appears to me that these lockdowns/mandatory mRNA "vaccines" will never stop. These leaky mRNA "vaccines" will potentially create a lot more deadly strains to come next winter. We are all stuck in this never ending loop of lockdowns/release/lockdowns along with another one of "vaccines"/new variants/upgraded "vaccines". People will only move when food shelves will be empty. Most of us are domesticated eunuchs, unsuspecting cattle.

The fake pandemic narrative keep our crooked politicians in place, even tightening their power over us. There will never be a return to the pre Covid 19 normalcy, the madness we live in is the new normal. We are headed toward darkness. Still, i do hope i am wrong.

Covidian Cult, green agenda & depopulation prospectives

My guess was depopulation due to lower EROIE on petroleum. Deathcross of the fossil energy (oil) available was near to us. Maybe we already are behind peak oil. Windmills, solar panels and EV are an energetical leftist joke and will never be a realistic alternative to nuclear/charcoal power plants and ICV.

I was thinking about it for quite some time. Why all this Covidian Cult was necessary for? What does it produced? Lockdowns were a main response worldwide.

With some recoil, was it even remotly usefull?

Absolutely not. Consequences were such as: no more planes in the sky, economical slowdown and a lot less of fossil energy used. I guess this sanitary madness was all about cheap energy we can get from oil. The human population exploded due to the industrial revolution, the machines, their capacities and -in fine- oil made it possible. If you do not have enough cheap oil available and the EROIE is way to low, then the industrial, technological, abundant, polite society we all live in can no longer be.

The Covidian Cult produced what a fossil energy scarcity crisis would have made. So if it is the case, depopulation will happens no matter what at some point in the future. Our Elites Overlords already knew this and they planned a soft way to make it happen, keeping and even tightening their reign. Our monetary and economical system was already living dead before the Covidian Cult. Their Great Reset is just rebooting, overwriting this dying system with a lot less people around and even more coercitive power for our rulers. Those mRNA "vaccines" maybe only are a tool in a larger depopulation toolbox.

Engineered depopulation does makes sense if you start thinking outside the box. FIAT is worthless. Our economical and monetary system are living dead. We are running low on fossil energy. Here comes Covid 19.

What is the point making profit in the Weimar momentum on steroids to come? There is no reason in making profit from the vaccinated masses in the current situation. The statu quo that once was, is no longer and never will be anymore. Our former societies are shifting towards Orwellian technological tyranny. Whatever comes next, business as usual (before the Covidian Cult) will never come back. Our Elites Overlords saw us as useless eaters, a burden to be dealt with. When some think business (profit) as usual in the mRNA "vaccines", i only see a depopulation tool.

Green dystopia

Recently, at the same time Dementia Biden goes public for the "Green New Deal" public announcement, we got pretty much the same here in EU. ("plan de relance" in french) Adding extra debt to a previously huge exponential amount of debt pile won't change anything. I start thinking about it, you can't print yourself out of reality like these central banks pretend they will do. Neither FED or ECB can. No one can. We are in a monetary dead end.

The so called "green transition" is nothing but pretty lame globalist propaganda. It is used by MSM/Gov to make most people accept much lower levels of life to come. And it includes energy consumption. This green utopia is nothing but a fantasy that will never come true. This indeed is the energetical part of the unfamous Great Reset. GIEC and climate change propaganda are not about science, never were. It is scientism, blind faith, dogma. GIEC and OMS are supranational entities both entangled in scientism and political kabuki, not factual science.

Energetical unicorn & virtue signaling

In failed France, our Gouvernement and so called ecologist, green party are so proud of how ecologist our society became, how virtuous we became. Yeah, sure. Since the 70's we progressively offshored most of the industrial plants/technology in China/Eastern Europe. We only offshored the pollution elsewhere, along with the complex engineering methods and all the jobs. We have literally nothing left here, we became an empty industrial shell, a French "disneyland" for tourists.

Where i live, our crooked officials financed windmills everywhere. Not only destroying landscape they also are very efficient birds chopper. The thing is, they are not very energy efficient. Simply put, intermittency is just not reliable at all. Just like solar panels, they are an energetical unicorn. A wet dream only for people who did not understand energy production/consumption, how the power grid and basic law of physics really works.

While we progressively closed the active nuclear power plants and rejected construction of the new ones needed. Our great Governemental planners replaced them with those "green" jokes, windmills, solar panel. The unavoidable consequence of those poor planned choices will be blackouts. When there will not be enough energy produced and too much demand at the same time. And also the electricity bill for the average joe will go sky high. Anyway we already have rampant inflation.

EV

Where do you think EV got their electricity from? Power plants mostly, nuclear and charcoal for the most parts. EV won't clean up the air, have you seen these incredible machines needed to extract lithium? How do you produce plastics without oil? You need oil or oil derivatives everywhere as a key component for almost everything around you. EV as an efficient replacement for internal combustion vehicles on a full scale are a pseudo ecologist wet dream. This simply won't happen.

This greener future (build back better) will never be. The ecological facade is a salesman trick and that's pretty it. Solar panels, windmills are a leftist unefficient joke. There is no clean energy without oil at some point. Think about it, you ALWAYS need oil, absolutely everywhere, even to produce fertilizer for growing food, use farm machinery or build a power plant in the first place.

Look around you, the civilization has already collapsed for quite some time, we are on the late, terminally ill phase in the West. If the Great Reset succeed has planned, it will be an era with more in common with East Germany under technological STASI than bright New Greener world.

Stimulus checks in the US as a prototype, transition towards UBI

At this point, exponential inflation to come seems to make more sense than ever, seen through the lense of the "Great Reset" agenda. It will destroy common people savings, progressively sinking most people into utter poverty. The side effect unlimited QE produced through monetary inflation, is an unprecedented wealth transfer from common people towards our Elites Overlords. The more the real economy gets crushed, the more the stock market is sky high. The first one get drained by the other one, thanks to endlesses QE.

You will own nothing simply cause you will not be able to, due to rampant inflation and shortages of almost everything. A black market will probably rise, like it did in former USSR. Scarcity, shortages and plausible starvation to come.

This might be the plan, let it sink for some years. Once most people are progressively near third worlders levels of life and rely only on stimulus checks. Those checks paid by Governements are already some kind of universal basis income, a "prototype". Stimulus checks pave the way towards UBI. UBI will not "free" anyone like leftist/marxsit sell it to the unsuspecting public. Animals in the zoo have UBI, to get it they only have to live in cages and renounce any freedom and will. Still, some animals are more equals than others.

MAD Doctrine & World War III

We could not have a world scale war like we used to have before because of the MAD doctrine. Mutually assured destruction by ICBM. Nuclear fire would produce a Pyrrhus, flawless victory to our Elites Overlords. Whats the point being Supreme Rulers of an irradiated wasteland?

If you could not have a world war like it was before due to unavoidable nuclear escalation, then you needed to fill the blank space. Here goes the Covidian Cult and its main purpose, those mRNA "vaccines" injections. Might be used to culling the herd. Depopulation was always a result of a world scale war.

What was the purpose of the previous World Wars? Redefine the hegemonic power in place, initiate a new paradigm, a new society. In parallel, reducing the herd, destroy to be able to build back. Their Great Reset is nothing but a reboot, instaure a new paradigm, shifting from a former civilization to a new, radically different, Orwellian, technological, global one. And it includes a cultural revolution part well advanced. This is what truly define their "Build Back Better" marketing catchphrase.

Opportunity window towards a New World Order (great reset)

I know it sounds bat shit crazy, but could we already be in World War 3 without even realizing it?

A new kind of war, the MAD doctrine made the old World War methods obsolete. Unlike others, previous ones, nations against nations. But for plausible reasons not made public, an hybrid World War, each nations against its own people. My guess was low EROIE and its deathcross pretty near us. If it is the case, then depopulation will happen no matter what. Its the soft, polite depopulation method using mRNA "vaccines" to enforce it, only as a pro active measure. If this is the case, depopulation is unavoidable.

Cultural Revolution

The American cultural society is torn appart from the inside by marxist/leftist ideology since decades. Since the last decade the same woke marxists "rewriting" the past path have gone increasingly berserk.

With some recoil, It all started in 1968 as a cultural revolution using hedonism and materialism as a tool to undermine America. It keeps going on ever since. We are on the late phase of undermining America from inside out, xenomorph style. This goes for the West in general. How incredible it is the same cultural revolution happens across each side of the Atlantic Ocean at the same time during the last 50 years? How fascinating this is.

BTC as a trojan horse

When did BTC made it first appearance as an idea on the web? it was supposedly created around 2008/2009. The same window time when the financial "crisis" should have blown up and do much more damage than it really did. Thanks to endlesses QE since then, FIAT is now worthless. Absolute zero.

Regarding BTC creation, Satoshi Nakamoto probably never existed, the banking cartel might surely be behind, financing those who created it. After all, BTC could have been killed an unlimited amount of time since its creation, why was he tolerated for so long? I see it as a huge anomaly when tech enthusiast only see the shiny tech or speculative part. It goes way beyond that. BTC was never a threat to the banking cartel, not disruptive at all, quite the contrary. BTC is used numerous ways as it was designed in the first place for it to really be.

Monetary transition toward CBDC

My guess is BTC was designed and used as a multifactorial tool for diverser purposes in the Great Reset monetary part agenda. Both as a monetary inflation sponge and to distract people from hard tangible assets, like PM (gold, silver) and any tangible assets with intrinsic value. Add to this another one, more abstract, prepare in the mind of the unsuspecting public the idea/principle of central bank digital currencies (CBDC) to come through cryptocurrency (BTC). I felt it when common people and old people on main street started talking about BTC, without even knowing what it really was, only cause they heard of it on MSM. FIAT is worthless and so is BTC.

I see BTC as nothing else but a trojan horse. Our Elites Overlords wants to create CBDC and to outlaw cash at some point. There is no such thing as digital gold. Unless you want to push an agenda for the use of CBDC as the new normal, then you need to pretend there is digital gold. My point is, BTC was created -in the long run- to falsely be claimed and used as a digital gold reserve in a new CBDC eco-system to come.

There goes the economical and monetary plan of the Great Reset: CB will continue to print an unlimited amount of money but it will be digital only. Cash will be outlawed and become worthless at some point. I guess an ever increasing inflation will help them -one way or another- to get the cattle were they want them to go.

Your digital ID will be mandatroy. It will include your digital vaccine passport and also your digital wallet. CBDC amounts will be given to each one through CB directly into their digital wallet. Surely your digital wallet will be linked to your social (health) status score, a carbon copy of the Chinese one using Covid 19 mass hysteria as a trojan horse.

Technological outcast

With CBDC, there is no bank run that could occurs, because money became ethereal, virtual only. Here lies the trick of the absolute control over proles, utter technological tyranny. In the near future, if you refuse anything the authority order you to do, (like mRNA vaccines as an exemple) your social credit (health) score drops progressively. Once it turn negative, your digital bucks cease to get paid on your digital wallet. You instantly became a pariah, a technological outcast. Rapidly without money, you will starve and no one will want to help you fearing they share the same fate if they did. Some kind of a «digital black plague» put on reluctant citizens to enforce absolute social control. A digital seal of infamy, a permanent threat.

A Dying empire

When i look at the current decay of United States, they already are a failed Empire, the King has no clothes. When dementia Joe was put in the President chair, this event itself, clearly was the end of the United States as a nation. The King has no clothes, this is what a dying Empire looks like. I know there still are some fine folks across America. DC has fallen, let it sink and rest into oblivion. Nothing last forever.

There are striking parallel lines between the current collapse of America and the fall of the Roman Empire. A totally corrupt to the core political class, a worthless debased currency (denarius/USD) coupled with incessant wars which led to even higher taxes. Moral decay at every levels of society. Pretty similar, the result will be the same, civil unrest, riots, former territory dislocation, starvation, exodus.

We also are in the same political dead end in old EU. The West has fallen. There was recent election recently in also dying France, about 65 per cent of people did not care to vote. The system is rigged everywhere and not much still believes in and support it. The 5th French banana Republic which is a joke and a petri dish for corruption and moral decay, is already dead.

UK MP Says "Important People" Shouldn't Need To Quarantine Under COVID Rules

UK has fallen to new low, abyssal, near the center of the earth i mean. They spit on our faces and no one seems to react in the general public.

Whats fascinates me is that we pretty get the same political events in here (living dead) France at the same time. Seems to be a worlwide push when you look closely. Might the New World Order be planned and not a conspiracy theorist's delusion after all?

Except for the technological slavery part, this is pretty much the epitome for neo-feudalism. Everyone should obey the law except us is our great leaders new motto. I guess peak hubris from our Elites Overlords precede whatever comes next. How fascinating it is that the average man, in primitive time, might had more freedoms and family bounds than the modern, castrated, urbanite man?

The middle class will gets crushed. There will only remains degrees of proles living in profound shades of misery inside utter dystopian megacities monitoring every particules using AI. Proles will need to take experimental mRNA "vaccines", eat bugs, drink sewer. Submit to credit social (health) score in order to save mother earth from so called "global warming" and Covid 19. Indeed their every move 24/7 will be monitored in real time only able to use digital bucks. Enjoy you social "green" credit (health) score proles, you live in an absolute paradise if we say so.

But our Elites Overlords will not eat the bugs. In fact they will drown themselves in an insane amount of abundance, while laughing from their Olympus towers and tax exempted private jet, at the unsuspecting braindead, hive minded masses. Industrial society was a huge mistake. Once it has fallen and it certainly will at some point, i do hope no one will be able to rebuilt it.

Excessive Governemental regulations

The only solution is less Governemental regulation of every aspect of our lives. People want to eat themselves until their heart blew up in a cholesterol rain? Fine by me, i do not care. You want to drink yourself into oblivion and smoke hundreds of cigarettes per day? The same. Go on you are an adult. There is a reason this is a slippery slope, once you allow the State or others to dictate your everymove/habits, it will only increase until tyranny of epic proportion is reached. These mRNA mandatory "vaccines" are a good sample of this tyranny for the "greater good" gone berserk.

Taking care of one health is individual prerogatives and extended to the close family/siblings if needed/wanted.

Moral decay

If you want to destroy a society from within in order to produce a clean plate for a new one, you need to destroy everything that bounds it in the first place. Ground zero was in 1968. Come for the religious part, dissolve it. Then goes the nuclear family through divorce, feminism and mass abortions. Add to this individualism and sterile consumerism.

Complete the recipe with huge ammounts of drugs, legals, illegals, no matter. Oh i almost forgot, add some extra tittytainment and pornography. Transgenderism promotion is the next (and certainly not the final) step in the annihilation of the natural order. The aim is always and remain the same from the beggining. Destroy the former civilization to bring up another new one, where there only is individuals. The motto is always for more "inclusiveness", "equality", "rights" "tolerance" "pride". Sure it is just as destructive as it could be because it is the main goal.

This is the social aspect of the Great Reset and indeed it goes on for quite some decades. Men of the past, i mean 50's will be horrified to see the moral decay we now live in.

In the New World Order to come, "family" is a strange relic of the past. There only is individuals, human digits, no ascendants, no descendants, no bounds to anyone. This new paradise will be close to a human petri dish, an absurd human hell hole, surrounded by technological tyranny. Zero private property and zero privacy for the proles. You will rent everything.

Cyber polygon as a blueprint for massive planned cyber attacks

The next pandemic will also be viral but this time it will be in the digital realm. Klaus Schwab, the World Economic Forum frontman and founder was pretty clear about it.

Most people did not even know or care about Event 201, a simulation of a worldwide coronavirus pandemic (astonishingly similar to Covid19 outbreak) and the international response needed at every level. This global pandemic exercice was held on October 18, 2019 inside The Pierre hotel in New York.

This event was funded by John Hopkins Center for Health security, the WEF, Bill & Melinda Gates foundation. Covid 19 outbreak started late 2019, approximately 2 months after the event 201 simulation was held in New York.

World Economic Forum's Cyber polygon will be held next July 9, 2021. This event is an international simulation of massive cyber attacks worldwide targeting the supply chain and the response needed.

Quotes and data extracted from the cyber polygon website:

"The exercise will include two scenarios Defence and Response."

The Red Team will simulate the attack while the Blue Team will protect the infrastructure from the attackers.

"During the online exercise at Cyber Polygon 2021, the teams will practise response actions at the moment of a targeted supply chain attack on a corporate ecosystem."

My guess is huge planned "cyber attacks" will occur this next winter 2021. The ideal schedule could be November/December to disrupt the internet/the supply chain and maybe even the power grid at the same time. When and if it happens, it will be during a real pandemic, thanks to those mRNA leaky "vaccines". This next digital "pandemic" crisis will work as Covid 19 pandemic previously worked. Create chaos to later bring a solution aka ordo ab chao. Using the same levers, fear, induced mass hysteria and this time an also intangible but digital ennema instead of a previous biological one. This event will also hide the real culprit (endless QE) for unavoidable hyperinflation and ever increasing shortages. This "digital viral pandemic" will serve as the next boogeyman after Covid 19.

The internet -as it actually exist- permit to express different point of view and sharing them toward a wide audience, through the cyberspace, even with rampant digital censorship. Zero Hedge website is a fine sample of that. Precisely finding elsewhere what is desperately lacking in our politically correct, sold out beloved MSM. And their lame minions, so called "fact checkers" who are nothing else but the "Ministry of truth" upgraded.

Further prospectives

One of cyber polygon future planned cyber attacks aims (beside the supply chain attacks) is to completely overwrite the cyber space later. Dissent and privacy will not be tolerated anymore in the name of the greater good and as an excuse to prevent future cyber attacks. Once the dust has settled, the internet and Civilizations as we knew them, will be relics of the past. The shifting into utter tyranny using relentless terror will be complete. Any form of dissent, will not be tolerated anymore. Thoughtcrime will instantly lead you to the digital gulag and later you will be locked up in some perpetual quarantine, the physical gulag. A detention, quarantine camp using Covid 19 as a medical justification for your incarceration in the name of the greater good.

In the New World Order to come, humans being will be completely monitored 24/7 during their entire lives. Zero privacy, zero private property, from birth to death. The recent Orwellian push and censor in the digital realm will only increase in intensity. At some point, some kind of mandatory digital ID will be needed to access the web. In France, the vaccine passport is clearly a tracking device, a carbon copy of the Chinese social credit (health) score. Later, upgraded versions to come will add your digital ID as a must have encryption key to access the internet. Add to this CBDC, like digital euro, digital dollar sent to your digital wallet. All of these elements linked to/part of your social credit (health) score. UBI will progressively become the norm.

This is the epitome of technological slavery. Submit won't give you back the previously lost freedoms. It will only get you trapped into an ever increasing tyranny spiral.

Human procreation

Depopulation using mass sterilization through mRNA vaccines might be a plausible and effective way, at some extent. In the near future, you could have a child, but you have to pay an insane amount to get one artificially procreated. You will also need to have an excellent social credit (health) score. Cowardness and conformity will be rewarded. Any form of Refusal or designated abnormal behaviors will be severely punished.

I do not think there will be thalidomide-like babies. Miscarriages will become the new norm due to these mRNA "vaccines". Women will no longer be able to reach their pregnancy full term, no more "natural" births. This will be blamed on an exogenous factor, like pollution or Covid 19, but it will not be.

Quarantine facilities

Spike protein will trigger a severe auto immune reaction from these mRNA "vaccinated" people. The body count this next winter will be epic. Both MSM/Gov will blame these deaths on the "vaccine" refusers. With such lethality, thanks to these mRNA "vaccines", panic and mass hysteria among the population will make "quarantine" camps no longer a conspiracy theory but a necessity.

At some point, quarantine facilities might receive "patients". Nothing to do with Covid 19, the aim will be to break the will of the reluctant ones down. Still refusing the mRNA shot once in there? You will be "processed" and declared Covid 19 death on your death certificate, inside the quarantine camp.

Due to the "pandemic" crisis, your corpse will be incinerated without an autopsy or any sibling assisting the cremation. Updated, perfected, automated gulag. Despair and a huge body count will make most people finally submit and accept the social credit (health) score as unavoidable.

Upgraded damnatio memoriae

If the Great Reset succeed as intended, History will be rewritten. Internet will also be overwritten. All archives, both paper and digital, monuments, sculptures of our actual era (which could contradict the new normalcy to come) will disappear or be corrupted.

This process of rewriting History already started in the US, UK and the West. Using the so called "woke"/marxist/leftist agenda, tearing down historical sculptures, overwriting or banning books and censoring dissent opinions, destroying the nuclear family, undermining society. This upgraded "damnatio memoriae" process is global, both in the physical and digital realm.

At some point in the future, no one will be able to connect the dots of the past. Memories will be drowned in an abyssmal ocean of ever changing lies, definitely vaporized. Etienne de La Boétie, George Orwell, Aldous Huxley, Alexander Solzhenitsyn, Jacques Ellul, Theodore John Kaczynski, Michael Rectenwald. Each one of them and many others -in some different degree- warned us about this. We should have read and listen much more carefully the legacy they left us.

How many of you knew the Holodomor happened? The absolute horror it really was and who supervised it? Question History is an healthy practice no one should be afraid of.

See you in the wasteland
