Presearch

Presearch is a search engine based on blockchain technology and sees itself as an open, decentralized search engine that rewards community members with Presearch Tokens for their usage, contribution to, and promotion of the platform. It launched as a closed beta on the 15th November 2017 for a limited audience and opened up for a public beta on 9th April 2018.

Presearch rewards community members with Presearch Tokens for their usage, contribution to, and promotion of the platform. In a world where one company controls 77% of all searches, influencing trillions of dollars in spending, shaping perceptions and effectively acting as the primary gatekeeper to the Internet, a new, open and community-driven search engine is a necessity.

Presearch has an innovative go-to-market strategy to target the most frequent searchers - web workers - and gain early adoption, on their way to releasing future versions of the open source platform that will utilize a blockchain-based indexing that is added by community curation.

The G2A affiliate program

accessible to almost every individual with an online presence. Affiliates can expect to earn 10% of each sale for referred users. The affiliate program is split – one being a general program while the other, G2A Goldmine, is offered more for G2A users.

What makes Goldmine special?

Forget about one-time only commissions! Each person who makes a purchase thanks to your recommendation will be permanently added to your Team. Thanks to that, every order made by that person in the future, will bring you profit. And that is just for a start up! If the person you invited, does the same with their friends you are going to get money through their shopping! Are you interested in how much you can make and why we are thinking in large scale? Check the Earning Details for more information.

Earn with your Team

It is simple as pie. Each product on G2A.COM includes some information about how much you can earn by recommending it.

If someone clicks on your reflink and after some time makes a purchase, the cookies will make sure that you receive the amount specified on the product page on the very day Person A placed the order. is thus on level 1 relation to you as he or she made the purchase directly thanks to your reflink. thanks to the smart cookies.

Level 1 relation means that you earn 100% of the amount specified on the product page. What is more, if the creates his/her own reflink for another person who consequently will make a purchase, will enter the Second Level relation in your group of your group, allowing you to benefit 60% of the amount stated on the product page. Similarly, if recommends a product via reflink to yet another avid gamer you will receive 40% of the amount specified on the product page since will from now on be on third level relation in your group.

Social media make money!

How does it work? Think about it for a second.

Let's say you have 400 friends (either in real or virtual world on such social media portals like Facebook, Tumblr or Twitter) and just 5% of them regularly buy games. Those 20 people are the key ones since they can earn money for you each time they purchase a new title. But that is not all. Consider what can happen if your friends start recommending Goldmine to others. If only they invite 20 people each your commission will grow to 400 people! Does that sound good enough? That's what we call the strength of unity when everybody can benefit equally.
