According to an as yet unconfirmed report, the Russian government has announced that it will issue an arrest warrant for billionaire George Soros for being "the main driver of the war in Ukraine. At the same time, Soros is said to have been declared a "global terrorist" in China, although it is not clear whether this was done by the government or in the state media (1). Should these reports be confirmed, then I would say: finally - and now get on with it, because in addition to Soros - through his Open Society de facto a kind of 'shadow president' of the EU - the two other leaders of the most evil trio that has ever plagued humanity on behalf of the Rothschild - Rockefeller empire should also be arrested immediately: Klaus Schwab and Bill Gates.

'Destroyer of nations'

George Soros is originally from a Jewish family. He changed his name and turned completely against his origins. Soros even called '1944' the best year of his life, as it was then that 70% of his fellow Jews living in Hungary were exterminated by Hitler. As a youth member of the Waffen-SS, Soros even helped the Nazis confiscate the property of Jews, and admitted this ruefully on the TV program 'Sixty Minutes'.

Later, Soros built his financial empire in the U.S. through cunning and deceit. In 1992 he brought the Bank of England to the brink of collapse through speculation; in 1999 he did the same with the Russian economy. In 1997, Thailand and Malaysia became his next victims. He was also blamed for a dubious role in dismantling Yugoslavia and causing unrest in Georgia, Ukraine and Burma (Myanmar). France and Hungary sentenced him to millions in fines for illegal market manipulation.

Speaking to an Australian newspaper, the "destroyer of nations" stated that the financial crisis that erupted in 2008 was "stimulating" for him, and "in a way the crowning achievement of my life's work. Soros is known as a front man of the New World Order, is absolutely unscrupulous, has the destruction of America and the entire West as a priority, and to that end has managed to stuff both American and European politics full of left-wing extremists and radicals who often use the 'Alinsky Terror Model'.

That term comes from Saul Alinsky's 'Rules for Radicals'*, a literal book dedicated to Lucifer (Satan) that gained notoriety on the free news internet in 2008 and 2009 because Obama allegedly used it as a guide for his entire career. * Quote from Alinsky's book: 'Let us not forget to give recognition to the very first radical in our legends, mythology and history... the first radical who rebelled against the establishment and did so so so effectively that he gained his own kingdom through it: Lucifer.'

With the many billions Soros made, his 'Open Society' foundations have promoted abortion, atheism, the legalization of drugs, sex 'education', euthanasia, feminism, globalization, mass immigration, gay marriage and all kinds of radical groups such as Antifa and Black Lives Matter, among others. In addition to the now infamous ACLU and ACORN in the US, Soros also funded the PDIA: the Project for Death in America.

Shadow President of the EU

That Soros is perhaps the biggest manipulator of the EU is shown by this list (2014-2019) of no less than 226 MEPs who were or are officially listed as his allies. One in three MEPs were thus on his 'payroll' - if that is not corruption to the bone, what is it? They do what he wants, and vote for anything that pleases him, including the long-standing anti-Russia hysteria that has gripped European politics and media. This clearly makes Soros a kind of 'shadow president' of the EU.

In 2018, the EU decided to establish an 'independent fact-checking network'-a kind of Orwellian 'Ministry of Truth'-which would include members of the International Fact-Checking Network (IFCN). The IFCN was founded by the American Poynter Institute, which is financed by, among others, George Soros, who in this way also gained enormous influence on the reporting and opinion forming in Europe.

Incidentally, the Kremlin had previously had clean enough of the billionaire's state subversive activities in Russia, after which his Open Society institutions were expelled from the country as an "undesirable organization" in 2015. On the contrary, Brussels openly cooperates with various Open Society organizations, which make no secret of their pursuit of a totalitarian EU superstate.

Soros, Gates, Rockefeller in 2009: most people should disappear

On May 5, 2009, according to the Los Angeles Sunday Times, a meeting of the world's richest billionaires took place in Manhattan. Led by George Soros - who as a "gangster" speculator ruined the economies of entire countries (such as Russia, Thailand, Malaysia and now the U.S.) - these "elites" agreed on one thing at least: "overpopulation" is the greatest threat to our planet. The number of people would have to be sharply reduced, and the remedy thought to be eminently suitable for this purpose are vaccines, supposedly intended against a dangerous virus, but in reality incrementally destroying the health and fertility of the recipients.

Bill Gates, David Rockefeller, Warren Buffet, Michael Bloomberg (former mayor of New York) and media tykes Ted Turner and Oprah Winfrey (who had a lot of influence on the Obamas) were also present at this meeting.

Mass depopulation of our planet, certainly since 2020, is no longer a hidden agenda item of the power elite behind the scenes, and need not be limited to 'National Secret-Memorandums' (such as NSSM-200, drafted in 1974 by Henry Kissinger and Zbigniew Brzezinski, the big man behind CFR stooge Jimmy Carter and Barack Obama.

Good-for-nothing Obama, because of his charisma, was specially chosen to lead the United States and the West to ruin as a "manchurian candidate. Obama's designated successor Hillary Clinton was to initiate a war with Russia for this purpose, but Donald Trump rode roughshod over her.

After his actual "impeachment" through fraudulent elections, the - almost literally - mindless Joe Biden was installed, Obama's former vice president. He began to pursue the agenda that was intended for Hillary, and you know by now where that has led us: a pandemic that has dealt our society and economy enormous blows, the dismantling of our affordable energy supply, and now an impending Third World War with Russia.

Russian Resistance to New World Order

'The US won't be the world's leading superpower,' read one of the slogans of an infamous promo video from Schwab's World Economic Forum. Soros said years ago that "the greatest obstacle to a just world is the United States.

Both men are therefore openly trying to end the superpower status of the US. However, they believe they can move that power to the UN and their own organizations without much resistance. Russia and China, however, oppose submission to this -via a roundabout way anyway- Western-led New World Order.

Ukraine instrumental in planned war against Russia

That resistance must be broken in the eyes of the globalists. Soros therefore now openly pleads for "regime change" in both Russia and China. Years ago, when it became clear that President Putin had no intention of handing over his country to a new world government, the conclusion was drawn that he had to step down. One of the main instruments chosen for this purpose was Ukraine.

In 2014, with the help of the CIA and MI6, the 'Maidan' revolution was seized upon to install a Western puppet regime designed to bring Ukraine into the EU and NATO as quickly as possible. To pull the country out of Russia's sphere of influence, a false flag attack was carried out on flight MH17 in July, which Vice President Biden blamed on Russia on the same day.

In the years that followed, the Russia-hype was further fuelled with bizarre, never proven and later totally debunked accusations about manipulating elections in the US and also Europe. At the same time, with tacit Western approval, the regime in Kiev launched a state terror campaign against the Russian-speaking population in eastern Ukraine. In the process, that population was subjected to severe discrimination, human rights violations and essentially a step-by-step genocide.

This eventually led to the Russian military intervention on February 24, which was immediately seized upon by the US/EU/NATO bloc to demonize Russia much worse, impose heavy sanctions and provide military support to Ukraine. Meanwhile, the West is increasingly clearly pushing for a direct 'hot' war with Russia, apparently on the assumption that The Kremlin will not dare to deploy nuclear weapons.

'Dangerous games with Russia will have unexpected end for U.S.'

But the number of warnings from Russia that this is indeed being seriously considered is growing. Yesterday, Russian politician Alexei Zhuravlyov, chairman of the centrist Rodina party, threatened on a state radio station to launch a nuclear attack on Warsaw and NATO troops who dare to cross the border into Ukraine supposedly for a "peace mission" (see our article on this).

Former President and Prime Minister Dmitry Medvedev is also now warning of a nuclear attack on Poland. 'The US does not care about the future of other countries. The neocons in the U.S. don't think about the logical consequences,' he said. 'The West is playing a very dangerous game. In any other situation, these kinds of sanctions would amount to a declaration of war. Dangerous games with Russia will end unexpectedly for the US.'
