— ANNOUNCEMENT: Until more information is available, we strongly advise against the use of any THICKENER products. We started carrying this product after they became widely available through the primary terpene suppliers in the industry. We maintain the fact that while COUNTLESS other terpene companies were offering the same product, we were the ONLY company that explicitly stated that thickeners contained Vitamin E acetate so our customers could make their own informed decision. Once our new payment processor is implemented we will be returning to carrying our popular SERVM, LIQUEFY, and small-batch terpene blends along with fully transparent ingredients however we will NOT be reintroducing any thickener products until more information is available regarding the safety and usage limits of these products. If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to us directly at Sales@MassTerpenes.com. Thank you.
