Hi

I was playing in one of your casino after seeing your advertise on bitcointalk forum. I played the whole day and my first couple of deposit and cashout went smoothly and timely. However in my last game i won a surprising amount and tried to cashout and now i see it has been sent back to my account and did not process.

My deposit address : 1BF2XJJPEBAMTB46ps7PCDsRLQQ89bhnCo

I hope you are not cheating me or i think i will write about this experience on bitcointalk forum if you are not paying the players

Hi Once again

I have waited a long time and I have decided tomorrow I am going to write about your casino in bitcointalk forum so people don't fall for this victim .

You were a new casino so I gave it a try but if you can't even pay 0.063 btc to a player I am not sure how do you expect your business to be running . Sorry I have to do this but you wasted my time and money

Thank you for your patience.

We have a problem on guest users balance details.
We're trying to solve it.

I assure you that as soon as the problem is resolved, your winning amount will be paid

Threat and destruction do not seem to help solve the problem

Thank you for understanding

Best Regards

Well first of thank you for replying at least.

And you can completely understand where I am coming from since I see no reviews of your casino anywhere to feel safe . All I am thinking is I lost my money .

You asked me to be patient but never gave me a timeline ? Now again you didn't say by exactly when you will resolve your issue .

I assure you I will take down my post and no I still haven't called your domain provider as soon as you pay me

Best regards
