Boys' Club of Boston Celebrating 87th Anniversary

The Boys' Club of Boston was established in 1893 in response to a social need for a place, and a way, for boys to engage in wholesome, developmental activities during their leisure time. In 1980 the need still exists in these more sophisticated, somewhat more prosperous, but essentially same environments of Boston.

From its original modest setting on the second floor of a small wood frame building in Charlestown, the organization has grown to include three large clubhouses and memberships in Charlestown, Roxbury, and South

Boston. In the process of its own expansion, the Boys' Clubs of Boston, Inc. also founded the Girls' Clubs of Boston, Inc., the Boys' and Girls' Camps, Inc. and the G.O. Program for Girls. It was instrumental, as well, in the establishment of the nationally chartered Boys' Clubs of America, Inc.

In its 87th year of service to boys, the Boys' Clubs of Boston is

McGonagle Named Assistant Headmaster

time and talents to helping the youth of Charlestown. He has spent the past twenty-three years at the Charlestown Clubhouse, Boys' Clubs of Boston in various capacities - member, full-time employee during the 60's, and is presently a part-time youth worker in the Physical Education Department at the Clubhouse. His volunteer hours in and out of the Clubhouse setting have far surpassed those for which he has been compensated.

Charlie has informed and entertained our community for many years with his "Boys' Club News". Through the Patriot he has brought to the public's attention, events that occurred in the Club - giving just credit to persons and events making news at the Club. He has also written on topics of community concern and has shared anecdotes of his personal and family life with his readers - relating holiday and special events that were meaningful to him and through his eyes and his descriptive writing, these stories, have created a twinge of nostalgia in the hearts of his readers. He is not only an excellent feature writer, but a poet as well - treating us to holiday poems and other such classics as a parody on forced busing and the infamous "Old Rubber Pole" - which described the "El" that ran the length of Main Street for over sixty years.

Charlie, in recent years, has authored "Knights Knots" which is an accounting of the events and activities of the Bunker Hill members at Council 62 where he serves as a member of the Board of Directors. Few of the K. of C. "regulars" have escaped the mighty McGonagle magic as they weekly turn to "Knights Knots" with "fear and trepidation" - who will be next? Charlie has brought much laughter and a few tears to the eyes of his many readers over these past years - and for this his fans are most grateful.

Charlie resides on School Street in Charlestown with his wife, the former Mary Capraro, and his two daughters Brenda, 15 and Marie, 13. Charlie - a true "Townie", not only lives in the town, but contributes his time and talent to his fellow "Townies".

Charlie, congratulations on your appointment as Acting Assistant Headmaster at Charlestown High School. Charlestown is pleased that your commitment to youth has been rewarded.

Bunker Hill Museum Grand Re-Opening Saturday

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

Are you tired of Charlestown receiving bad press? Are you tired of your fellow workers telling you of all the bad things happening in Charlestown???

Well, now is the time for each and every one of you to stand up and let them know what a wonderful, great and friendly neighborhood CHARLESTOWN really is. We consider it "God's Country"!

Two of the most wonderful things that happened in our town in many a year, happen in 1978 and 1980. In 1978, our own Robert Gillen was appointed the Commander of the USS Constitution. What a thrill for Bob, his family and fellow "Townies". Then in 1980, we saw our own Jackie O'Callahan, a member of the USA's Olympic Hockey Team. They won, much to the delight of all TOWNIES, new and old. That is all we heard for weeks!! Let's keep the magic of that rare moment alive! Come and visit us on opening day, April 19, 1980 at the Bunker Hill Museum, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. and again that same evening from 7-10 p.m. Come and share, enjoy two of our newest heroes of Bunker Hill, Bob Gillen and Jackie O'Callahan. Spread the word of the Charlestown Historical Society, Inc.—Bunker Hill Museum. Our pride and joy - now in its 5th year.

Have you visited us?? Can you brag about us?? We invite you one and all to come and visit us on Opening Day. We are there to share, to spread and to enjoy our Town's Heritage. Come spread the wealth of our love of Charlestown. We welcome you one and all!

DON'T FORGET!! Bob Gillen and Jackie O'Callahan are two of our newest displays at the Bunker Hill Museum this year.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Kathleen Whelan, President
Charlestown Historical Society

At a recent social, sponsored by the Irish American Cedar Sports Club in Cambridge, Mrs. Mary Hurley, one of Charlestown's - "finest" - traffic supervisors, sang a beautiful rendition of the popular, "One Day at a Time!" She was accompanied by the "Tommy Sheridan Irish Band." Mary has several brothers and sisters all of whom are residents of the Charlestown Community.

On May 4th, the Irish

American Cedar Sports Club, is sponsoring a "Rose of Tralee" Contest at the Santo Christo Center, 1146 Cambridge Street, Inman Square, Cambridge.

West Point Academy Is A Dream Come True

by Maria Girvin

"I always thought I'd like to be an officer," said Robert (Bobby) Paquette, Jr., and it looks as though his dream will be fulfilled as Bobby has been accepted to the U.S. Army Academy at West Point, New York.

A Charlestown resident of six years, Bobby lives at 16 TibbettsTown Way with his parents, three brothers, and sister. Bobby is finishing up at Boston Technical High School where his mother says he is more of a scholar than anything else. At school, Bobby is a member of the track and swim team. He is also a part-time employee of Papa Gino's restaurant in the Bunker Hill Mall.

West Point was not the only choice Bobby had. Northeastern University and Boston University were two other options. However, when Bobby's West Point liaison officer told him the good news, Bobby decided West Point would be his choice, even if it did involve extra sacrifice and hard work.

One of 1500 chosen across the nation, Bobby is confident he will graduate in four years with the thousand who will stick it out. "I think I can handle it," says Robert. "It's a challenge." Bobby will receive a stipend of $376 a month while in attendance.

The academy is run according to a strict military routine. "You can only say four things to an upperclassman, says Bobby through a grin, "yes sir, no sir, there's no excuse sir and I don't understand sir."

Once Bobby applied to West Point, he was assigned a liaison officer, Colonel Edward Merrill, to keep Bobby informed on the status of his application. Obviously proud, Bobby's mother, Linda Paquette, said "Colonel Merrill interviewed Bobby and said he was quite impressed with Bobby's outlook.

However, it was a recommendation from Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill, Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, who got Bobby into West Point.

A Congressional recommendation is necessary before West Point will accept a cadet. "Colonel Merrill was the one to help Bobby get a recommendation," said Linda, "because we certainly don't have any money or political pull."

When asked how Bobby's success affected her outlook for her other four children, Linda Paquette answered, "I guess I'm not the demanding type. I just like to think they'll find a good honest living. Already one of her sons is enrolled at the Boston Conservatory of Music and another has recently been admitted to Boston Latin.

In talking about the challenges of West Point, Bobby mentioned the academy's honor code which forbids cheating on tests or the failure to report those who do. "That's something some people wouldn't understand. . . to squeal on your friends. . . but that's what makes leaders," said Bobby.

Bobby will sacrifice part of his summer as his reporting date to the academy is July 1. Thereafter, he will be allowed to leave the campus for a short Christmas break and four weekends during the school year.

In addition, the distance between Charlestown and West Point will involve more sacrifice for Bobby because he will be separated from a very special person — his sweetheart, Kathleen (PeeWee) Dennison. "A cadet can't marry and "PeeWee" and I have decided to wait until she and I finish school."

While that wait may seem now to be a long time, Bobby will have made a dream come true once he completes West Point.

Diet alone was not enough!

"After I stopped smoking, I couldn't believe the amount of weight I was gaining. I tried to lose weight by joining a weight control group. They gave me a good diet and I got weighed regularly, but something was missing. Finally, I got smart and joined Gloria Stevens. Not only is the diet good for me, but the exercises that are geared to my body are helping me lose inches while losing pounds. Now I know what was missing from the other program. It's the support and caring of the technicians. At Gloria Stevens, caring is an everyday fact. I see the results every time I look in the mirror. I've lost 25 lbs. already and feel the best I have in years. You can try the other programs, but when you're really serious, you'll come to Gloria Stevens."

Be A Bunker Hill Parade Booster

You might ask yourself - how can I help make our Bunker Hill Day Parade (Sunday afternoon, June 15, 1980) the biggest and best in years?

Each and everyone - young or old - can help improve the parade by either giving of your time, working as a door-to-door salesperson, selling Bunker Hill Day Parade decal boosters or by donating generously to the booster salesperson when they knock at your door.

The City of Boston portion of the parade budget has been constant for over 16 years and thus with the increased cost of hiring of bands and drum corps, it is necessary to raise additional supplemental funds.

The 1979 parade, one of the best in years, was made possible only through the dedicated efforts of the Parade Fund Raising Committee and its volunteers and the generous response to our Parade Booster Decal Drive by our fellow TOWNIES and local businessmen.

Chief Marshal Al Sullivan, Past Commander of the David M. Cleary Chapter 109, D.A.V., invites all to join with the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee in making this, the June 15, 1980 - Bunker Hill Day Parade even bigger and better than last year's. Mark Sunday afternoon, April 27, 1980 as Bunker Hill Parade Booster Day. Come on down to Bunker Hill Post 26, American Legion Hall at 27 Chestnut Street at noon and offer your help as a volunteer to sell the Parade Stickers door-to-door through Charlestown.

If it is impossible for you to help out in the door-to-door sale of parade booster stickers on Sunday afternoon, April 27, 1980, then help us and the parade by donating generously when that knock comes on your door.

Remember this is your parade and all it needs to be the best in years is your volunteer help or financial contribution or both.

Mrs. O'Casey Comes To Town

Hats off to Charlestown Working Theater (CWT) Director Peggy Ings who, along with guest director, David Rothauer, has transformed her amateur actors in professional renderers of two short Sean O'Casey plays, "Hall of Healing" and "Time to Go."

Opening last Friday, these two plays are the first to be performed since the CWT's facelift. The plays coincide with the 100th birthday of O'Casey which is being celebrated nationwide. According to Ings, the productions are attracting visitors from as far away as New York City. O'Casey is most famous for his plays "Juno and the Paycock" and "The Plough and the Stars."

The Irish playwright was born in 1880 and struggled through a bitterly hard boyhood among Dublin's tenement houses. Although he never went to school, he taught himself to read.

The plays of Shakespeare served as instruction for O'Casey in theatrically drawing the themes he knew so well — tragic, yet comical, visions of the poor's difficult life. His interests were in the working man and Irish culture. Those who know O'Casey's work say Charlestown is the kind of place he had in mind when he wrote his plays.

CWT's production of "Hall of Healing" and "Time to Go" nicely captures these themes in humorous and heart-touching drama.

In "Healing" the setting is a public health clinic in Dublin where the poor may seek medical aid. O'Casey's dialogue skillfully depicts the vigor in which the poor selfishly cling to their illnesses, as it is all they have left of their impoverished identities. Yet because of their shared poverty they are able to communicate their heart aches as all are familiar with the plights of sickness and death.

"A Time to Go" focuses on the downfall of the greedy, mixing a little dramatical magic and mystery into the characters who warningly shake a finger at those who "pay too little for too much."

To add to these delightful plays will be a guest visit by Mrs. Sean O'Casey this week. Eileen O'Casey was an Irish actress in "The Plough and the Stars" when O'Casey met and married her in 1927.

For reservations to see the O'Casey plays, persons may call 242-3534. The audience will be pleased to see the transfiguration of the 100 year old Charlestown CWT inhabits — where it is good regardless of what is seated.

A Tale Of "Just One"

by Charlie McGonagle

Sitting around a happy dinner table listening to parents and aunts and uncles recall their youthful days can be a enjoyable experience, indeed.

As a young man of not more than seventeen, my Mother's brother Tom, with assistance from my Grandfather Maurice Walsh, who for many years was the Custodian at St. Mary's School and Church, built "The Camp."

"The Camp," located on King Street in Wilmington, then but a dirt path in the woods, would, for many years, serve as a summer haven for Uncle Tom, his six brothers and sisters, and their friends. It was here where many of my parents' early memories together were born. In later years, my brothers, sister, cousins, and I, would spend our summers at "The Camp," sometimes crowding as many as fifteen or so family members into the small wooden frame house. To us, the kids, it was an exciting adventure, to the parents, I suppose, a nightmare.

In the early years of "The Camp," there was much work to be done, a garage to be built, a roof to be shingled an outhouse to be dug and so on down the line.

The men, in keeping with the finest in Irish tradition, would often reinforce their waning energies with bottled spirits periodically throughout a hot, busy summer afternoon. On one such August day, Uncle Tom was climbing a ladder which rested against the nearly completed garage. On his right shoulder, he carried a bundle of shingles. In his back pocket, he carried a half pint of whiskey, almost full.

Using his right arm to hold the shingles, he had only his left hand to help him up the ladder. About three and one half rungs into his climb, he misjudged a step and tumbled earthward, landing uncomfortably on that section of his body which makes sitting possible.

The other workers, my father included, rushed to his assistance.

"Are you okay, Tom?" he was asked.

Reaching to the back side of his coveralls, Uncle Tom felt a definite wetness. His face twisted in both pain and concern.

"My God," he said, "I hope it's blood!"

In those early days of "The Camp," refrigerators were for the well-to-do, and ice boxes served to keep food cool and fresh. In Wilmington, at the time, there were no ice deliveries, and in times of need, a trip to the local ice house was necessary.

On one such occasion, my father agreed to accompany Uncle Tom on a ice run. After strapping the large block to the front fender of his old sedan, Tom proposed a trip to The Rainbow, an oasis of sorts in the days before Wilmington's townfolk voted for package stores only.

"Just one," said Tom "The girls are expecting us to come right back, but I suppose one can't do us much harm," reasoned Dad.

Now, as anybody with even a hint of Gaelic blood in his veins knows, there is no such thing as "Just One," especially on a warm summer's night.

As the block of ice on the old car's fender melted in value from its original twenty-five cent size down to Twenty....Fifteen....Ten, Uncle Tom and Dad's "Just One" traveled in the opposite direction, escalating upward.

"Don't tell the girls we stopped at The Rainbow," cautioned Tom, as he knew of their utter disdain for the place.

"Well where will we tell them we've been?" asked Dad who was now beginning to reap the benefits bestowed upon the partaker of "Just One" by the bottled spirits.

"To John's Diner for a cup of coffee," answered Tom, "and remember," he added, "Don't mention The Rainbow!"

He had Dad's solemn promise. They returned to "The Camp."

"Oh, oh, no lights. They must have gone to bed. I didn't realize how late it had gotten," said Tom. "Get the ice Charlie, walk in tall and straight, and don't mention The Rainbow."

"I'll walk as tall and as straight as the spirits will allow Tom, and I'll be damned if I'll mention The Rainbow, but I can't carry in the ice."

"Why not?" "It's gone Tom, It's all gone."

"Oh geez." The two opened the back door to "The Camp" quietly enough to make even the most proficient burglar envious. However, the journey across the kitchen floor was not as successful, as Tom stumbled into a chair. The lights flashed on, as the women, led by my Mom, dashed into the room.

"Where in God's name have you two been?" she demanded, Her voice laced with anger.

"And where's the ice?"

Dad, with his hand against the wall for support, maneuvered his way to the closest chair. Sitting down, he confidently rested his chin into the palm of his hand, and through slightly glassy stare, looked directly at Ma, and said "Oh, we just stopped at John's Diner for a couple of Rainbows."

They immediately waived a Trial by Jury and submitted a Plea of Guilty, agreeing to suffer the consequences attached to stopping for "Just One."

C.Y.H.A. News

The following list of names are people who are running for the Board of Directors; Present Board members (whose 2 year term is up but are seeking another 2 year term) Matty O'Neil, Joe Fleming and Froggie Greateox. New names for the board positions, (four spots open) are: "Bo" Whitlock, Ann Considine, Kevin Roche, Billy Smith and "Crash" McNeil.

The election will be held at the annual yearly meeting which will be on May 14th, the second Wednesday in May at 7:30 p.m. at the Kent School, 50 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown. Please come and vote...

The C.Y.H.A. Board of Directors through it's President Matty O'Neil is trying to establish an M.D.C. house to house league in District One. If the league can be established it will mean substantial savings in the areas of ice costs and travel (gas). To give you an idea of how it would work. The first week in October the C.Y.H.A.'s four "A" teams would travel to South Boston, "B" at our rink. In the same week Eastie's four "A" teams would travel to Hyde Park to play their "A" teams, while Hyde Park's "B" teams would go to Eastie to play their "B's". And so on, with all the teams in our district. There are eleven teams in District One, so it would take ten weeks to complete the cycle. For the second half of the season the "A" teams would play at our rink and the "B" teams would travel, the entire season taking approximately five months. Any team that opted to play in a travel (such as Danvers) league could do so, but we would ask them to give the M.D.C. District One league top priority as far as commitments of time is concerned. Please let the board know how you feel about this idea.

The board would also like to re-establish an inhouse league for the coming season.

The Bantam "B" team played three past Sunday's for the league championship in Danvers. While they did not win, they deserve a big hand for the game they played. Congratulations to Billy Smith and the Bantam "B" team for a fine season. There was a good turn out of Charlestown people for the game. It was nice to see them there.

The Midget "A" and Bantam "A" team travel to Tyngsboro this week end for the Bobby Orr Tournament. We hope to see a lot of Charlestown people there, rooting the teams on.

The following is an idea for a rotating coach's system! First year coach is assigned to lowest team in his division, the following year he moves up to the next higher team in that division, until he reaches the "A" team. The following year he reverts back to bottom team unless there is an opening in the next higher division. e.g. (Mite to Squirt). In this instance, he may move up to the next division. On moving up to that division, he must start the process over again, first year-lowest team, second year-next higher team, until he reaches the "A" team. After reaching the "A" team if the coach remains, in the same division, he must drop down to lowest team and start through the division again. In the case of a third team moving through a division (Mite A,B, and C teams) after two years one team will be moving up to Squirts. The coach with the most years in the division (Mites) the team is leaving, will have first preference to move up with the team. If he declines to move, the second coach by years in a division will have preference to move if he declines, the newest coach must move up with the team. This system will give some continuity to the coach and players for two years.

Kindly let the board know if you like this idea, or maybe you have an idea of your own that you would like to have considered. See you at the rink.

Suffolk Journal Staff Vows Fight For Funding

by Maria Girvin

The editor-in-chief of the Suffolk Journal, the Suffolk University student newspaper, vows to fight journalistically, legally, and actively against a decision by the Board of Trustees to cut the $25,000 budget provided her newspaper.

Editor in chief Ann Hobin, a 21 year-old senior from Savin Hill, Dorchester, calls the axing of the funds an irresponsible act aimed at silencing the Journal, the school's only weekly newspaper.

"The trustees are abridging the Journal's right to freedom of the press guaranteed under the first amendment; a right also acknowledged by these same trustees in a university statement in 1977; Ms. Hobin said, "Just because this is a private university does not mean they are above the United States Constitution."

The university explained its action in a prepared statement: "The Board of Trustees voted Wednesday, April 9, to delete funding from the 1980-81 budget for the Suffolk Journal following repeated instances of irresponsible journalism, increasing bad taste, and poor judgement over an extended period of time."

Ms. Hobin calls these charges utter nonsense. "It's absurd. The Journal has proven over the past four years that it is a responsible college newspaper by the numerous awards and national recognition it has received," she said. "Ironically, the day after I received the news about the slashing of funds, the Journal received a First Class Rating from Associated Collegiate Press."

The Journal, which has been in existence since 1936 and became a weekly just five years ago, has been recognized ten times in the past four years for outstanding achievement in journalism. Associated Collegiate Press has recognized the newspaper five times, the Society of Professional Journalists (SDX) has issued it four Northeast

Regional awards, and the Columbia School of Journalism chose the Journal as the top collegiate newspaper in the country in its population size-category just last year.

According to Ms. Hobin, the Journal has enough money to continue publishing into early May. "I don't know if we will be able to publish as we have done in the past," she said, "but I'm determined to keep this paper coming out even if I have to mimeograph it. I will not allow the Board of Trustees to destroy this award-winning newspaper simply because they don't like what I'm printing. As far as I'm concerned, this is an obvious form of prior censorship. The trustees are trying to muzzle the Journal."

The Journal has been a strong advocate of student rights and has been critical of the trustees' secrecy and personal business dealings with the university.

Ms. Hobin concluded by saying: "The way I run this newspaper and my editorial stances will not change no matter how much they threaten me."

Secondary Seller Financing

Now let's look at one type of secondary seller financing.
Interest only w/Balloon payment

The interest only second mortgage in its simplest form is a purchase money mortgage given to the Buyer by Seller for which the Buyer signs a promissory note for the amount of the loan which is then recorded along w/the first mortgage loan.

EXAMPLE: An owner who wanted to sell a property of which he had an unpaid balance of $30,000 at 9-1/2 percent found a would-be buyer and the two agreed upon a price of $60,000, with the buyer to put up $10,000 in cash leaving $50,000 to be financed. The only arrangements they could make was for the bank holding the Seller's first mortgage to allow the buyer to assume the existing mortgage amount of $30,000 at current interest rates of 16-1/2 percent.

Consequently, the $10,000 cash and the assumption of the Sellers $30,000 first mortgage left a difference of $20,000 for which the Seller decided to take back an interest only second mortgage for the $20,000 at 12-1/2 percent for 10 years with the full principal amount due (Balloon payment) at the end of the 10 years. This arrangement was beneficial to both the Buyer and Seller.

Benefits to the Buyer

The obvious advantage with this arrangement is that it allows the Buyer to purchase a home which he would not be able to otherwise.

By paying 12.5 "interest only" on the principal it actually reduces his monthly payment by $71 from $699 ($50,000 at 16-1/2 percent f/25 yrs) to $628 ($30,000 assumption at 16-1/2 percent f/25 yrs equals $419.48 plus $208.33 interest only payment on $20,000).

The monthly savings of $71 adds up to $8,520 over 10 yrs. So the balloon payment of $20,000 is actually $20,000-8,520 or $11,480, since the house will surely double in value over 10 yrs. We can safely assume it will be worth $120,000. The appreciation will certainly offset the balloon payment.

NOTE: If we carry this example even further we should also make the buyer aware that after the initial 10 yrs he is left w/only a first mortgage payment of $419.48 for the remaining 15 year life of the mortgage.

Taking the original mortgage payment of $50,000 at 16-1/2 percent for 25 yrs, which as you will recall was $699, you can clearly see the Buyer will save an additional $280 a month for the next 15 yrs which represents over $50,000.

The bottom line is when we can make the Buyer aware of all the above advantages of this type of secondary financing. We will easily convince the buyer to proceed with the purchase.

Voice Won't Be Silenced

As I am a member of the Kennedy Center Board, elected by the people of Charlestown, I intend to work as hard for these people as I possibly can. On Thursday, April 10, at 5:30 p.m. I went directly to the Kennedy Center on Winthrop Street to attend a meeting of the Program Review Committee of which I am a member. Not being able to get in there, (the doors were locked) and since I could not get any response from anyone by ringing the bell, I immediately proceeded to Thompson Square to the Kennedy Office there. All the doors were locked and I did everything I possibly could to arouse some one to let me in but no one heard me, so they say. Rather strange, I think, when at other times, my voice seems so loud to everyone. I intend to check into these situations and try to find out for the people of the town just why these things can go on when a person elected by the people is restrained from attending these meetings.

I trust you will all bear with me because sometime, somehow these situations will be cleared up. Respectfully, Eleanor Marino 24 Brighton Street Charlestown

Why Did He Run?

Dear Gloria: I would like to answer Michael Connolly's (sic) letter from last week (April 3rd). He was strictly out of line. What did he run for if the Kennedy Center is so bad? Believe me John Gardiner is a good Director and I hope he will stay for many years. All this man had to do was send a letter to the secretary and not for publicity. A Member (Name Withheld by Request)

My Thanks

Dear Jim, I would like to take this time to thank my family and friends for the terrific going away party they had for me on April 4, 1980. I would especially like to thank my aunt Sis and my cousin Janie, who even though they were sick, made an extra special effort to be there. To Danny Noonan, who played his accordion; to my cousin Edwardine who made a special cake for me; to my uncle Ted who even though he couldn't make the party because he was sick made an extra effort to come down to see me before I left. - My thanks. Although I will be gone when this letter will be printed, again I would like to say Thank You to all the people who came and made the party something I will never forget.

Sincerely, Tommy Codair 18 Mystic St. Charlestown, Mass.

Thank You

Dear Gloria: Through you I would like to thank all my friends, neighbors, the priest and nuns of Saint Catherine's, the Wednesday Night Dancers and "Zip"; and the girls at Marge Coghlan's and Dot Collin's School for their prayers and for their Mass Cards and get well cards sent to me during my period as a shut in. May GOD BLESS THEM ALL, I hope to be with them soon. Lovingly, Mae Brickley

To Talk Of Many Things . . . .

A Lottery Based On H.U.D. Guidelines?

by Sal Giarratani

Last May, the dedication of the Mary S. Colbert Senior Citizens Apartments to be constructed in the old Harvard School took place and now the dream is about to become a reality and to some-maybe a nightmare.

The Charlestown Economic Development Corporation took out an advertisement in the Charlestown Patriot which told readers that they would be accepting applications for the Mary S. Colbert Apartments ONLY on Friday, April 18 from nine to four and Saturday, April 19 from nine until one over at the BHA's Elderly Apartments Recreation Hall.

Further down in the ad they said, "Since there are only 30 apartments, the Charlestown Economic Development Corporation will employ a public lottery system, based on HUD guidelines."

What I want to know is: Just what are HUD guidelines? I believe preference should be given to the elderly and handicapped in our community and I dislike Charlestown entering further into the nether world of the federal government.

The needs of this community should be met first and a lottery is surely not the best way to do that, especially if HUD has their own guidelines for it.

I have nothing against guidelines from federal agencies but usually they never spell relief and cause pain!

GOOD NEWS

There is going to be another segment of "The Baxters" dealing with court-ordered busing and this time the studio audience is going to be split with parents who kept their kids in the public school system and those who pulled out of the system, and sent their kids to private and parochial schools.

"The Baxters" a few Sundays ago did a show on busing in which the audience consisted of students bused to the Madison Park High School. Many anti-busing viewers let WCVB-TV know what they thought of that show and now a second show has been taped. You can watch this episode consisting of parents 'for' and 'against' on Sunday, April 27 at 6:30 p.m. It appears Channel Five is at least listening.

Voke Appointed To Special Commission

Representative Richard Voke has been appointed to the powerful Special Commission on Uniform Sentencing by Speaker of the House Thomas W. McGee. The announcement of the appointment came during a formal session of the House of Representatives, with the Speaker citing Richard's experience as both a prosecutor and a defense counsel, and declaring Representative Voke to be most capable of participating in the delicate process of rewriting the criminal laws of the Commonwealth. The Special Commission has been charged by the Legislature with the endorsement of the Governor to review criminal sentencing procedures currently practiced in our courts and to recommend sentencing reforms which will be both fair to the accused and firm for the convicted felon. Representative Voke, who became an expert on the concept of mandatory sentencing when he argued the constitutionality of the Massachusetts gun law before the Supreme Judicial Court during his tenure as an assistant district attorney, should have a great deal of influence over the direction of the Commission's recommendations. Although Representative Voke is very much in favor of increasing the certainty of punishment for persons convicted of a felony, he spoke from experience when he said, "I think we should search for a middle ground which ensures the incarceration of a convicted felon, but which leaves the Judge some discretion over the range of sentence to be imposed."

Boys' Club News

A Friend Remembered

by Charlie McGonagle

In the mid nineteen fifties, a young Charlestown Athlete of great promise met with an accidental and untimely death. Lawrence P. Considine was an outstanding Football and Hockey player at Boston Trade High School. He also excelled as a swimmer for the Charlestown Boys' Club. In 1955 he was a member of a strong Boys' Club Team which represented Charlestown at the National Championships held at Yale University.

A group of young men decided, at the time of young Mr. Considine's death, to commemorate his name by awarding an Annual Trophy to a member of the Boston Trade High School Hockey Team who displayed outstanding team spirit, dedication, and sportsmanship.

Through the efforts of a former Charlestown resident and teammate of Considine's at Boston Trade, Charlie Harrington, the practice of presenting this Trophy to a deserving player continued for more than two decades.

During the past school year, however, with the proposed closing of Boston Trade, the School did not field a Hockey Team, and Charlie Harrington, who now resides in Dedham, was faced with a question. Would he let the Lawrence P. Considine Trophy follow Boston Trade's Hockey Team down Memory Lane, or would he find another way to keep the name of his friend alive?

In a gesture of true friendship, one that should be a lesson to all of us, Charlie Harrington brought the name of his former teammate home.

About a month ago he wrote a letter to Charlestown High School Hockey Coach, John Morris. In the letter he explained his dilemma and asked Mr. Morris if he would consider awarding the Considine Trophy this year, and in future years, to a member of the Charlestown High School Hockey Team whom he considered most deserving.

Impressed by Harrington's deep sense of loyalty and friendship to his late teammate, even after twenty-five years, Morris agreed to present the award to one of his players, and added that he would be both proud and privileged to bring the Considine Trophy to Charlestown High School.

Through the efforts of Charlie Harrington, the epitome of a true friend, the name of Lawrence Considine will live on for many years to come.

Cecil Jones, an outstanding student-Athlete at Charlestown High School, and Goaltender on this past season's Hockey Squad, has been selected as Charlestown High School's first recipient of the Considine Trophy.

Young Mr. Jones is an Honor Roll Student in Charlestown's Cooperative Electrical Program, an all-conference Quarterback in football, a member of the current Varsity Baseball Team, as well as a standout Goaltender in Hockey.

"I can't think of a more deserving young man for this award," stated Coach Morris. "Through hard work and dedication, he became an outstanding Goalie and a valuable leader on a very young Hockey Team. We had an unusual number of Freshmen and Sophomores on this year's Squad. Cecil's presence gave us leadership and direction. I'm very happy for him."

CECIL JONES, Goaltender on the Charlestown High School Hockey Team, receives the Lawrence P. Considine Memorial Trophy from Coach Jack Morris.

Tall Ships' Photography Contest

The USS Constitution Museum and the Boston Herald American will co-sponsor the Tall Ships' Photography Contest for young people to take place with the arrival of the Tall Ships to Boston. The contest will allow young people to become active participants in the 1980 Tall Ships' visit. Through the use of camera, children will be encouraged to explore the drama, romance, and meaning of this historic event.

Entries will be submitted to the USS Constitution Museum to be judged on the basis of originality, composition, technique, and subject matter.

Dance Postponed

The Charlestown Community Center Dance "Swing Into Spring", scheduled for April 25, 1980 at the Officer's Club, Building 5 has been postponed till the FALL.

Kids Science Program

"Energy, The Great Search" will be the topic of the City Kids Science Program to be held on Wednesday afternoon, April 23, 1980 at 3:30 p.m. at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street.

Will solar power or atomic power be our source of energy for the future? How did people heat their homes long ago? Mr. Joseph Creeden will show a film on how energy use has developed through the centuries.

Panelists of judges will include professional Pulitzer prize-winning photographers from the Boston Herald American, Stanley Forman and Kevin Cole; John Carter, Curator of the Peabody Museum of Salem; Cynthia Stone, head of the Workshop Program Department of Public Education at the Museum of Fine Arts; and Jane Tuckerman, Professor of Environmental and Visual Studies at Harvard University. The best of the photographs will be exhibited in Boston City Hall's Scollay Square Gallery from August 11 - September 26, 1980. Following the City Hall exhibit, the winning entries will then be exhibited at the USS Constitution Museum.

The Museum plans to publicly recognize the winners in a special awards ceremony at Boston City Hall. The ceremony will coincide with Boston's 350th Birthday and state, national, and international officials will be invited to attend. In addition to cash prizes, each winner will receive a special plaque made from wood taken from one of CONSTITUTION's previous restorations.

Christine Rudomin, Education Programmer at the USS Constitution Museum, will act as supervisor for the contest. Contest guidelines will be publicized through the Boston

Herald American in May and extra copies of contest guidelines will be available at the Boston

Herald American distribution offices and at the USS Constitution Museum.

THE CHARLESTOWN MITE "A" TEAM has won the Divisional Championship in Danvers for the 1979-1980 season with a record of 14 wins, 4 losses and 1 tie. The odds of these kids winning the Championship were very slim. Their effort and overall team spirit was an asset to them. Congratulations "Mite A" Hockey Team. You deserve to be number one. ### Your Dental Health

by Jeffrey
D. Cohen,
D.M.D.

There is still chance of decay or problems with the supporting tissues of the teeth regardless of how much brushing and flossing is done. This is the prime reason why it is still necessary to visit your dentist regularly. Even when a sound program of dental care is followed and problems are not apparent the visits are necessary. Dental problems usually start small and so are easy to ignore until they become painful enough to require attention. It should then become apparent that regular rather than crisis checkups make a lot more sense.

Dental check-ups should be a routine part of every family's yearly health program. Visit the office of JEFFEREY D. COHEN, D.M.D., 338 Main St., 242-3550 or call for an appointment. We stress preventive dentistry — the best and least expensive way to maintain good oral health. By having regular check-ups small problems can be caught before they become major, costly and painful. We know that you, as the patient, have control over the cost of your care and the condition of your mouth through regular visits and good home care methods.

DENTAL TIP

Chewing and other mouth movements put added stresses on the teeth when a few are out of line.
