

The far east, Japan and South Korea qualify for women's semi-finals in Pacific-Asia Curling Championships

Hosts China, Japan and South Korea have all qualified for the can certainly semi-finals at the Pacific-Asia Curling Championships, after the sixth session of round-robin activities in Shenzhen.

China guaranteed his or her progress with some sort of 17-2 win over Kazakhstan at the Shenzhen Universiade Sports Center.

On the way to win, in the first stop, the home nation launched this scoring with 7 factors, when skip Yu Damien made a lure on top of the edge regarding the eight-foot band.

Lead Zhao Ruiyi acknowledged advancements in China's shot-making.

"There are some shots that individuals weren't able to create in the last games and we all tried to undertake together with made some of all of them in this sport, very well she said.

"We've recently been improving the setup such as well as the exactness of our pulls, and we'll try to perform some more challenging images. very well

Japan advanced following beating Hong Kong 15-1, while Southerly Korea performed so after beginning with a seven-point end to a 20-0 victory above Qatar.

All three qualified clubs have a history of five victories together with one loss.

There is another session of round-robin games tomorrow day, if the fourth-placed team can be determined.

Oriental Taipei, 13-0 winners more than Quarterly report today, currently carry of which position with about three benefits and three losses.

Australia, Hong Kong and Kazakhstan are all behind all of them, with simply two victories. The first three men's semi-final qualifiers ended up chose in the morning hours, whenever China beat Kazakhstan 13-1, South Korea defeated Hong Kong 15-3 and Japan stinging past Chinese Taipei 6-5.

In the penultimate round-robin session in the nighttime, a 10-point victory regarding New Zealand against Hk was enough to clinch the last playoff put having overcome Nigeria 18-3 prior in the day time,

The fourth conclusion connected with the game saw New Zealand's skip Scott Becker play a hit broad on the 12-foot circle of which attached his team two points plus a 5-2 business lead.

Then, in the seventh end, he made a good get, which was enough to score six points.

New Zealand led 14-3 at that will stage before Hong Kong conceded as soon as the eighth stop at 14-4.

" [the possibility to be competitive at the playoffs] undoubtedly gives us often the confidence to play well and win, " Becker claimed.

The focus for the men's groups in tomorrow's last round-robin program will be their closing placements in the top 4.

South Korea, 7-5 victors at the expense connected with Quotes in their second match of waking time, currently guide the way with a new great eight wins out of seven.

China plus Japan will be tied to get second will commence on seven is the winner after the second item master the former 8-7, while New Zealand are 3 rd on five wins.

There initially were mixed fortunes for Qatar today, losing 10-3 to be able to Australia before busting Nigeria 14-3, and Chinese Taipei bounced back from their particular decline to Japan by alleviating Kazakhstan 7-5.