Introduction: Bill Buckner's error should no define a life.

Key Question: How do we keep our errors from defining our lives when others (or we) will not let them go?

Key Thought: We let go of errors others (or we) will not forget by faith in the God who will not let us go.

What does Isaiah's prophecy of the Messiah teach us about the love of God?

I. The Exaltation of God's Servant (52:13-15)

II. The Rejection of God's Servant (53:1-3)

God's servant is rejected because of...

A. Bad Roots

B. Bad reputation

III. The Suffering of God's Servant (53:4-6)

IV. The substitution of God's Servant (53:7-9)

A. By a Willing Sacrifice

B. For a Purposed Death

V. The Salvation of God's Servant (53:10-12)

A. The Father's Will

B. The Fathers Work

Conclusion: Bill Buckner's Joy
