

WHAT IS ASEXUALITY?

AN ASEXUAL PERSON IS SOMEONE WHO DOES NOT EXPERIENCE SEXUAL ATTRACTION.

Unlike celibacy or sexual abstinence, which is a choice, asexuality is a sexual orientation. Some asexual people do have sex.

Though asexuals don't experience sexual attraction, they can still experience romantic attraction and be in relationships. These relationships may or may not be sexual.

THE ASEXUAL COMMUNITY IS VERY DIVERSE AND EVERYONE ON THE ASEXUAL SPECTRUM HAS THEIR OWN INDIVIDUAL VIEWS AND FEELINGS ON SEX, SEXUALITY, ROMANCE, RELATIONSHIPS, GENDER, AND ANY OTHER TOPIC.
