Chapter contents (with sub-headlines)

Chapters	Summary Contents
Chapter 1.	Pharmacy Practice at a Glance Introduction; APhA Practice for Pharmaceutical Care; Scope of Pharmacists; The Healthcare Pharmacists; Pharmacist's Role Plays in Public Health; Building Relationships; Future Roles; Pharmacy Professional Organizations
Chapter 2.	Pharmacists in Clinical Pharmacy Practice Introduction; Evolution of Clinical Pharmacy; The Clinical Care Pharmacists; Role Within the Healthcare Systems; Ongoing Development of CPS; Opportunities and Challenges of Clinical Pharmacy
Chapter 3.	Pharmacists in Hospital Management Introduction; ASHP Guidelines: Elements of Care in Hospital Settings; Responsibilities of Pharmacists; The role of a hospital pharmacist; Differences with Community Pharmacy; Major Challenges; Collaboration between Hospital and Community Pharmacists; Future of Hospital Pharmacy
Chapter 4.	Pharmacists in Community Care Introduction; The Practice of Community Pharmacy; Distribution and Control of Medications; Critical Path of a New Prescription; Patient counseling and evaluating; Public Health Domains and Scope of Community Pharmacists; Prescribing Faults and Prescription Errors; Prevention of Errors; Future of Community Pharmacy
Chapter 5.	Patient Rights and Ethical Care Introduction; Patient Rights Determination in Professional Characteristics; Ethical Principles and Moral Rules; Patient Rights Varies with Culture and Social Norms; Special about Physician patient Relationship; Ending Relationship; Professional Ethics in Pharmacy Education
Chapter 6.	Prescription Introduction; Prescription Irregularities Worldwide at a Glance; Form Content of Prescription Order; Processing the Prescription Order Upon Receiving; Packaging; Other Considerations
Chapter 7.	Prescribing Introduction; The Prescribing Process; Critical Issues of Patient Communication; Factors That Influence Prescribing Process; Managerial Approaches to Influence Prescribing; Prescribing by Non-Medical Professionals; Classification of Non-Medical Prescribing: Other Issues of Prescribing
Chapter 8.	Patient Counseling Introduction; Barriers of Patient Counseling; Factors to Be Considered During Counseling; Patient Consultation: Steps in the Patient Medication Interview; Counseling Patients on The Use of Refill Prescriptions; Techniques for Counseling Patients Who Present Barriers; Counseling Children and Adolescents; Consulting Elderly Patients; When Patients Refuse Counseling; Patient Empowerment
Chapter 9.	Extemporaneous Prescription Compounding Background; Introduction; Compounding Factors; Types of Compounding; Identifying Errors and Cause
Chapter 10.	Framework for Medication Safety Introduction; Important Definitions; Scope of Safety Problems; Understanding Error; Identifying Risk; Targeting Medication Safety at The Microsystem Level; Collaboration Across the Medication Use Process; System Failures in the Medication Use Process; Classification of Medication Errors; Medication error-prevention strategies; Recommendations for Prescribing Improvements; Error Potential in the Dispensing Phase; Error Potential in the Administration Phase; Changing Systems Within Organizations; Steps for Conducting a Root Cause Analysis; Role of Patients in Medication Errors
Chapter 11.	The Enigma of Patient Behavior Introduction; Factors That Influence Patient Behavior; Behavior: An East West Comparison; Pharmacists' Role; The Health Collaboration Model
Chapter 12.	Patient Education Introduction; Expected Area Coverage for Education; Pharmacists' Requirements; Required Environment; Pharmacist and Patient Roles; Drug Use and Drug Education; Basic Principles of Drug Education; Advancing Compliance: NCPIE Panels Make Recommendations; Further Recommendations
Chapter 13.	Patient-Provider Relationship Introduction; Fundamentals for Dynamic Relationship; Patient-Physician Relationship and Medical Ethics; Pharmacists in Patient Care Management

Chapter 14.	Patient Compliance Introduction; Patient Non-Compliance; Factors Associated with Non-compliance; Non-compliance Detection; Improving Compliance; Role of Pharmacist in Patient Compliance; Benefits of patient compliance
Chapter 15.	Patient Relationship Management Background; Introduction; Key Elements of PRM For Hospitals; Application of PRM; Benefits of PRM in the Health Care Industry; PRM versus CRM in Private and Public Health Care; Implementation of CRM in Health Care; PRM Programs in Hospital Setting; Industrial Age Medicine to Information Age Healthcare
Chapter 16.	Patient Problem Solving and Preventive Care Introduction; Nine Steps to Pharmaceutical Care; Prevention and Problem Solving; Identifying Drug-Related Problems; Making Recommendations; Drug-Related Problems Encountered by Pharmacist Monitoring; Patient Education; Specified Areas of Preventive Care
Chapter 17	Pharmacovigilance Introduction; Types and Prevalence of ADRs; The Value of Patient Reporting; The Value of Healthcare Professionals' Reporting; Factors of ADR Reporting; Biological Medicines Pose Specific Challenges for Pharmacovigilance; Medical and Economical Burden of ADRs; Pharmacovigilance in Healthcare Education; Pharmacovigilance in Pharmaceutical Industries; Worldwide Monitoring of Pharmacovigilance; Necessity of Collaboration; Role of Pharmacist in the Management of ADRs; Role of pharmacist in Pharmacovigilance
Chapter 18	Patient Safety Introduction; Commercialism in Healthcare Service; Medication Safety; Nurse/Patient Ratio; Length of Physician Consultation; High WTC; Shortage of Physicians; Shortage of Hospital Supply; Quality Reporting by Hospital Staffs; Access to Healthcare; Hospital Acquired Sepsis; Availability of Essential Drugs; High Prices of Drugs and Health Services; Justified Use of Biotech Products; Antibiotic Resistance; Unnecessary Emergency Hospitalizations; Poor Health Diagnosis; Wrong Dispensing; Lack of Therapeutic Guideline Implementation; Poor Vaccination; Pharmacists Role
Chapter 19	Pharmaco-Economics Introduction; The General Necessity of Pharmacoeconomics; Perspectives of Pharmaco-economics; Pharmacoeconomic Doctrine; Pharmacoeconomic challenges; Scope of Pharmacoeconomics; Application of Pharmacoeconomics; Pharmacoeconomic Components; Methods of Pharmacoeconomics; Economic evaluation methods; Pharmacoeconomic Evaluation Steps; Pharmacoeconomics – A Tool for Pharmacists; Pharmacists in Healthcare Cost Minimization
Chapter 20	Long Term Care Introduction; Clients of Long-term Care; Elderly People Management; Pharmacists in HIV care; Pharmacists in Subacute or High-Tech Care; Critical Care Pharmacist Activities
Chapter 21.	Community Liaison Pharmacists in Home Care Background; Introduction; Residential Care Pharmacists into Aged Care Homes; Terminal/Palliative Care; Transition of Care: Issue of Collaboration
Chapter 22.	Pharmacists in Ambulatory Care Background; Introduction; Expertise in Therapy Management; Committed Relationship with Patients; Provision of Pharmacy Services; Barriers to Pharmaceutical Care; Medication risk management; Outpatient service through telemedicine; Challenges of chronic health management
Chapter 23.	Pharmacists in ICU Background; Introduction; Pharmacists' role in critical care; ICU Medication management; Pharmacist on the Pediatric Intensive Care Practice; Interventions to reduce medication errors in NICU; Pharmacists in CCU; Education and Training ICU Pharmacists
Chapter 24.	Rational Use of Drugs Background; Introduction; Economic Impact of Irrational Drug Use; Prevalence of PDM in US; Prevalence of Self-Medication; Substance Use Disorders (SUDs); Promoting rational Drug Use by WHO; Challenges of Rational Drug Use; Role of pharmacists
Chapter 25.	Surgical Wound Enrichments Background; Introduction; Classification; Pharmacist's Role; Future Directions
Chapter 26.	Medication Risk Management Background; Introduction; Key Components of Performing Risk Management; Overview of risk management around the world; Pharmacovigilance planning; Developing risk minimization plans/risk mitigation strategies; Planning and implementation of Risk Minimization Measures

	(RMMs); Incorporating Risk Management and Quality Improvement into Organizational Planning; Risk Management Processes and Strategies
Chapter 27.	Medication History Taking and Reconciliation Abstract; Introduction; Sources of Medication/Patient History; Importance of an Accurate Medication History; Medication History and Hospital admission; Data to be obtained during Medication History Interview; Medication Reconciliation; Necessity to pay More Attention to Medication Reconciliation; Pharmacists led medication history taking and Reconciliation; Issues of Collaboration
Chapter 28.	Palliative and Hospice Care Abstract; Introduction; Abstract; Introduction; Medication Dispensing for Terminal/Palliative Care; Specialized Cancer Care; Pharmacists in Palliative Care
Chapter 29.	Non-Drug Pain Management Abstract; Introduction; Education and psychological conditioning; Comfort Therapy; Hypnosis; Electrical Stimulation; Spinal Manipulation Primary Therapy (Chiropractic Care); Acupuncture; Physiotherapy; Yoga