

The Corona Dictatorship

"The greatest damage is done by the silent majority, which only wants to survive, submits and goes along with everything."
Sophie Scholl, German Resistance 1921* – 1943+

The system hypocritically defends itself with overplayed outrage (one of its main weapons) against the notion of dictatorship, because that is exactly what it is and this correct realization and consequently unwanted attention hinders the full implementation of the dictatorship. We are in a latent dictatorship, which is NOT YET fully implemented. To the complete implementation, however, only few steps are missing. The basic law is already to a large extent practically abolished by the infection protection law. Dictatorships are insidious, they do not announce themselves to alert the citizens about their arrival. They sneak up, lie, downplay, appease, suppress. A dictatorship always certifies itself not to be a dictatorship. Dictatorships always give themselves euphonious names and their representatives claim to have only the best intentions and to act for the greater good of all in order to conceal their true nature. State-affiliated media and "fact checkers" confuse and deny facts.

Everything is slowly put in place until it is too late for effective resistance and realities have been created that cannot be easily undone. Exactly this insidious process takes place right now with purpose. History teaches that there is an effective blueprint for turning democracies into dictatorships. It is difficult and tedious to create and maintain a democracy, much easier to end one, and this transformation always happens faster than seems possible to most. The current state is of secondary relevance, it can change quickly, what is relevant is the intention of those in power.

1. Proclaiming a fearsome internal and external enemy: "The very terrible Sars-CoV-2 virus (PCR test) of which no isolate exists (exosomes are manipulatively reinterpreted) and its even more fearsome various mutations (computer models). One worse than the other. Only dictatorship measures can save us now!"

2. Establishing prison camps: In 2021 political understanding is widespread, tyrants must use sophisticated methods of paraphrasing and reinterpretation to realize the blueprint. Instead of concentration camps into which people are directly imprisoned for overtly political reasons, there are "quarantine camps" for Corona deniers and "infected" people supposedly endangering the body of the nation (based on manipulative PCR test fraud, incidence and chain of infection deception).

3. Developing a thug caste: ANTIFA and large parts of the deeply psychologically manipulated police and military. Police and Army are turned against the people/critics. The Army is increasingly used domestically.

4. Development of an internal surveillance apparatus: Citizens are increasingly encouraged to denounce "illegal activities" (regular human behavior like social gatherings). The state is deliberately trying to create a new culture of snitches.

5. Harassment of citizens' groups: Demonstrations are banned, made virtually impossible by impositions and/or broken up violently. Critics are defamed in the media, put under massive pressure and socially ostracized.

Arbitrary arrests and dismissals: Lawyers and doctors are arrested or forcibly committed to psychiatric hospitals.

Increasing restrictions on travel and movement, including state-imposed house arrest, society is turned into an open-air concentration camp.

7. Key individuals are persecuted: Critics become non-persons, conspiracy theorists which are now even retouched from television broadcasts.

8. Controlled press: One-sided and synchronized media reporting in propaganda jargon. Information monopoly through total censorship. Big-Tech, Amazon and mass media systematically censor and delete.

9. Treating all political dissidents as traitors to the country: 'Conspiracy theorists', 'corona deniers', 'covidiot' harm public health, so are effectively 'pests'.

10. The rule of law is suspended: The Basic Law is being undermined piece by piece. By means of absolutely illegal invocation of 'protection against infection' (CovID does not fulfill Koch's 4 postulates, an isolate does not exist, infections cannot be proven, they are only claimed by theoretical PCR procedure).

The opposition is increasingly being undermined, consequently monopoly of power by the government. Those who do not comply with the new illegal arbitrary rules receive draconian punishments, starting with enormous fines. Weapons laws are permanently tightened, people are deprived of the possibility of legal self-defense.

There are clear parallels between 1933 (seizure of power by the Nazis) and 2021 (seizure of power by the technocrats/globalists). These parallels exist because the establishment of a dictatorship is being deliberately and systematically sought. This intention is absolutely clearly recognizable, even if those responsible for it squirm like the snakes they are and try to conceal this intention by means of salami tactics and manipulative rhetoric. The "Corona policy" is an attempt to seize power by a group of conspirators with the aid of a medical hoax.

How could this have happened back then? Just as it is happening again today. Those who do not recognize this at this time do not want to recognize it. But escape from reality and Stockholm syndrome do not protect from consequences. Those who do not resist now or even support this system of lies and deceit make themselves severely complicit and will be mentioned in the history books as fellow travelers or even accomplices. History is written by the victors and that will not be the soulless draconian gang of Corona conspirators.

1933: "We knew nothing about anything."

2021: "We had all the information at our free disposal, but proven liars in media and politics told us it was all conspiracy theories, so we saw no reason to use our own minds and let others think and decide for us."

These similarities are not coincidental, superficial or effortfully constructed, they inevitably result from the same underlying dictatorial-eugenic system. It is 1933 in medical-scientific garb, the principles are virtually identical only the terminology has been altered. The "elite" is of a highly clinical psychopathic nature and acts in a machine-like manner, repeatedly using the same tried and tested formulas adapted according to the population's level of knowledge. It implements societal changes in cycles of about 100 years, because by then most of the contemporary witnesses have passed away, which is relevant because they have knowledge that exposes the elite's deceptions as such.

What we are witnessing today is probably a re-run of the "Spanish Flu" of 1918-21, with theories that it was the result of the vaccine administered and not a virus. So the same picture that is currently emerging. The system claims that people are dying because of Covid. Whereas we now know that they die WITH Covid (PCR test), not FROM Covid. But at the same time, the policy claims that dozens of deaths that have already occurred related to "Covid vaccination" are coincidence. That they die WITH the vaccination, not FROM the vaccination.

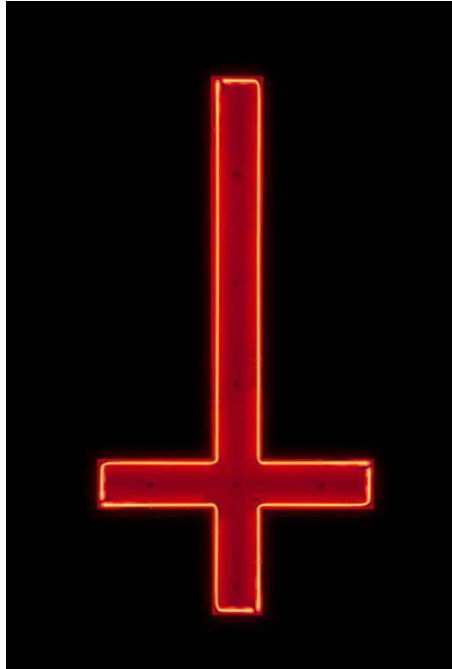

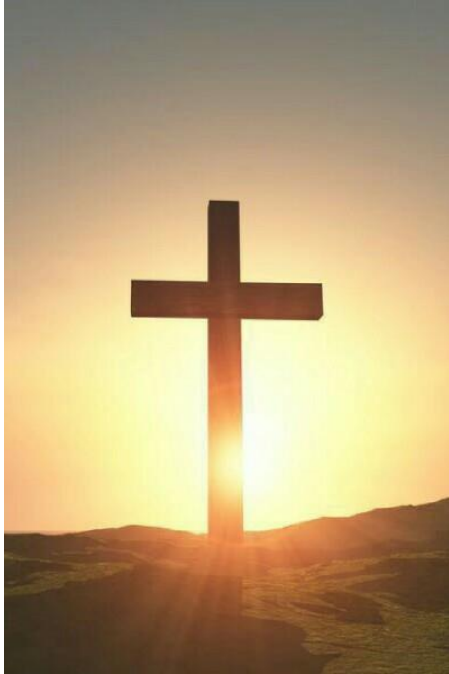

Since their first claim is an inversion of the facts, the second claim will also be upside down. People die WITH Covid, not FROM Covid, and they die FROM vaccination, not WITH vaccination. Vaccination is the real death bringer, while the propagated virus is an illusion, created by the manipulative PCR testing procedure and deliberate statistical fraud (intensive care bed shortages, failure to account for changing age structure, etc.).

Inversion, the reversal of facts, turning things upside down, is the nature of the "elite." "War is peace", "The mask is an instrument of freedom" (Söder - German minister), "Lie is truth", "Covid kills - vaccination is harmless", and so on. Some are Satanists the others at least severely deluded.

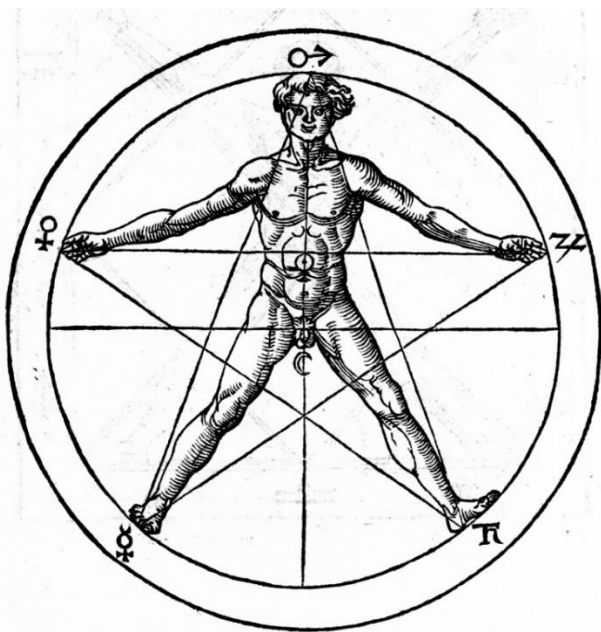

One of them is Peter Tauber (German minister): "To reject and even demonize vaccination is anti-human. It is time to hold the torch of the Enlightenment higher again, to let the light shine so brightly that the dark entities disappear again into the holes from which they came crawling."

Then they should enlighten and present the virus isolate and explain themselves why they use the PCR test with 45 cycles, which results in up to 97% false positive results, with which they justify their infection protection authorization law. But they don't explain about that. For good reason, because they are truth-twisting liars.

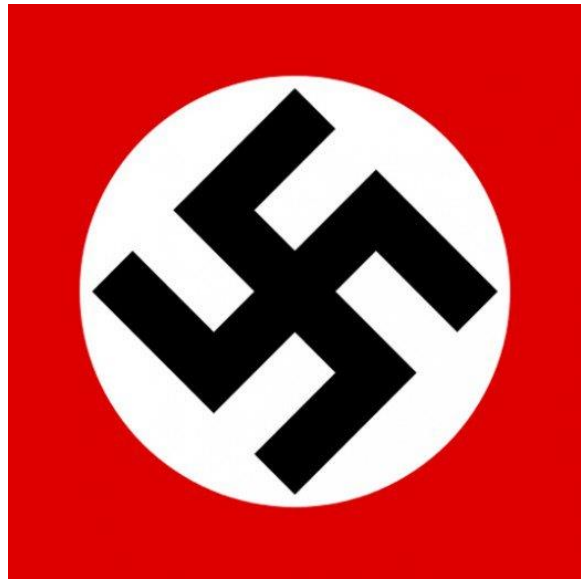

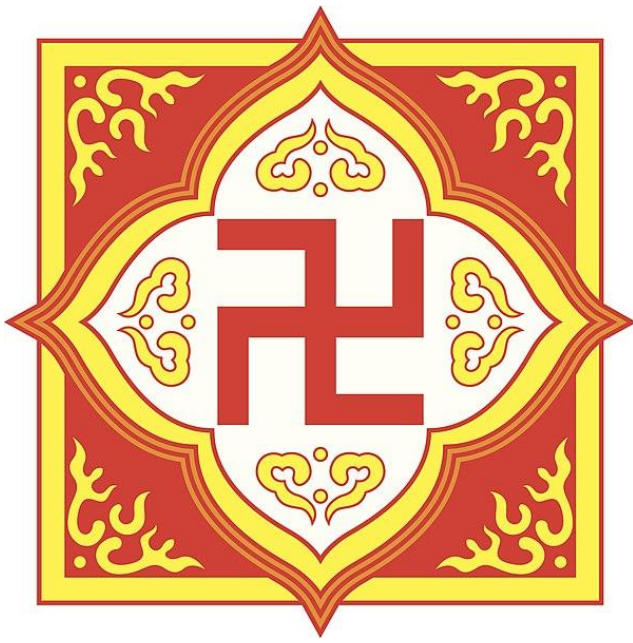

The Christian cross stands for charity, forgiveness, sacrifice, mercy, compassion, love, noble ideals.

Turned upside down, it stands for the exact opposite. It is therefore one of the most popular symbols of Satanism.

Originally, the pentagram stands for human, life.

Turned upside down, it symbolizes death, anti-life.

The Buddhist swastika embodies satisfaction, happiness, health, high ideals.

The occult swastika of the National Socialists reversed these values into the negative.

If today, following the 100-year cycle after the "Spanish flu", we experience a medical deception, was it then also such a deception and was vaccination really the cause of mass death at that time? Accordingly, a mass death caused by mass multiple vaccinations would then also begin again today. What will then be blamed on "Covid" or his "mutants" in the context of the hoax.

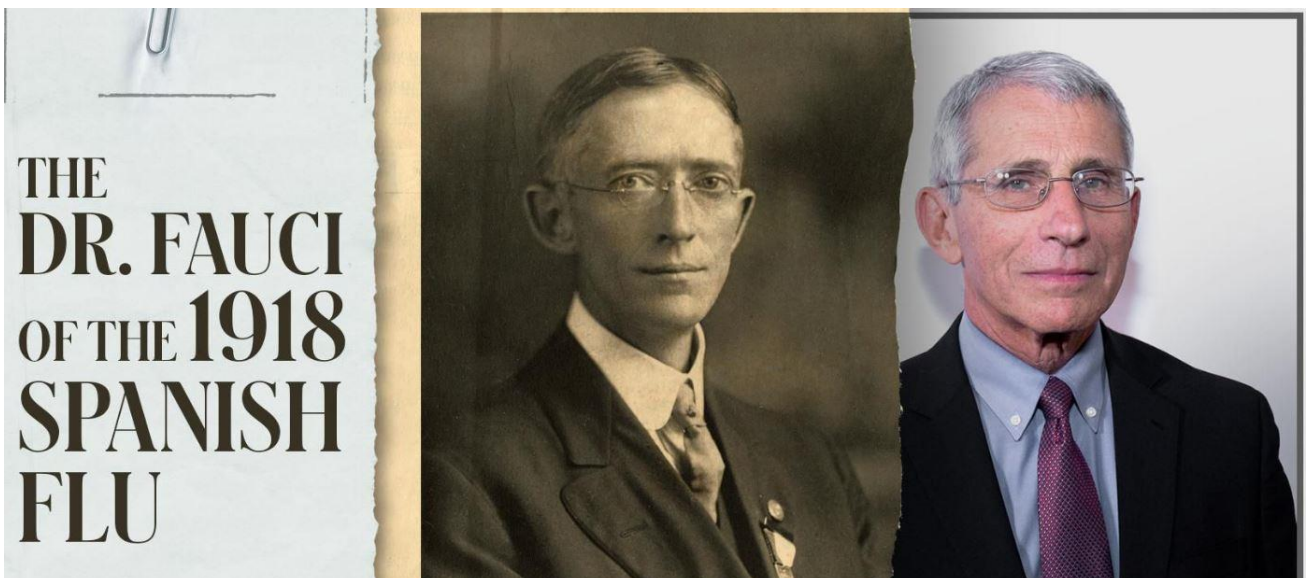

Another parallel between the present and the "flu" of 1918-21 is the introduction of a new technology. Then telegraph poles/electricity networks, now it is nationwide 5G. One possible connection explored in:

"The Invisible Rainbow: A History of Electricity and Its Effect on Life" by Arthur Firstenberg.

"5G Technology and induction of coronavirus in skin cells" by M. Fioranelli.

5G is capable of lowering blood oxygen levels at a 60 gigahertz setting, triggering symptoms attributed to "Covid". Using 5G activation, it is thus possible to simulate "severe outbreaks of Covid" to enforce political goals. Presumably, this will happen first in schools, kindergartens and hospitals.

Dr. Anthony Fauci of the CDC (similar to the German RKI), the Dr. Lothar Wieler version of the USA, has an obvious resemblance to Dr. Thomas Tuttle, his 'mask' and 'social distance' prescribing counterpart of the 1918 "pandemic". A deliberate choice of personnel to comply with the metaphysical laws which require that the victims of evil deeds be given clues to avoid karmic consequences for the perpetrators. The hint given by the similarity of the main protagonists is a 'then as now', so that today's "pandemic" is again the same scenario as then.

These very rules force them to deceive instead of killing directly. They deceive people about the existence of a virus, a pandemic, and then that vaccination is the cure for it. In truth, there is no virus, no pandemic, and vaccination (possibly in conjunction with EMF) brings death. People are given the opportunity to see through this deception by clues placed everywhere. If they are too arrogant-ignorant, lazy, egoistic, the consequences are self-inflicted. The deceivers can then claim: "We have told you, made the deception sufficiently clear to you, but you have criminally ignored the hints, therefore it is your own fault".

What is taking place here is a conflict between good and evil.

One must always remain aware of the prevention paradox, that if this should all turn out well, it would not have turned out well if evil had not met with sufficiently strong opposition. Their intention has been from the beginning and still is and will be to bring lies, suffering, death and destruction upon the world. If the Covid hoax succeeds, it would inevitably lead to mass internment in Corona camps and forced vaccinations and chip implantations and dispossession and mass murder. This grim prognosis is the sober analytical consequence of the facts at hand. As usual, if the outcome is good, the other camp will then claim that this is the merit of their actions and further proof that they never had evil intentions and that the conspiracy theorists were entirely wrong. To deceive is their nature.

Medical deception is only one element of the Covid power grab. Even if the PCR test is debunked, the conspirators will come up with new explanatory models to maintain their pandemic illusion, they will never stop lying because that is their genetic predisposition. One has to see things in the big picture, only this way their nature becomes comprehensible, only this way the true intentions of the conspirators become recognizable.

The Covid conspirators display no difference to the Nazis in mentality. They are highly-manipulative psychopathic felons with human facade which already commit mass murder-in-consequence (stress and heart diseases, Bankruptcy suicides, postponement of preventive medical examinations and operations) with their Corona policy and would also carry out systematic mass murders of opposition members administratively with absolute certainty, if they had the political power to do so.

If these seriously mentally ill gain unchallengeable global political power, the world will sink into darkness.

Time to end the political terror by the Homo Sapiens Tyrannis.

Time to let the light of the Enlightenment shine to banish these dark creatures back into their holes.

Thus always to tyrants!
