Reading DQ # 3, Thorne and Luria

1) How did the researchers gather their information? What was the sociological significance of their study?

2) According to the authors what is gender segregation, and how did it play out in the school setting? Was gender segregation total?

3) What was the interaction like among boys?

4) What was the interaction like among girls?

5) In comparison to your childhood, were there any similarities or differences regarding gendered play?