INCIDENT REPORT - BASIC CASE

4/11/10

On 2/5/10 at 1030 hours I received a call from Division Dean Patricia Houston reference suspicious behavior of student Jared L. Loughner in class at the Northwest Campus, 7600 N. Shannon Road, Tucson, Arizona.

Houston reported that a student named Jared Loughner had reacted strangely to the reading of another student's poem in class. Houston stated the teacher had said Loughner had made comments in the class after the poem that were a huge leap from the context of the poem and said things about abortion, wars, killing people, and "why don't we just strap bombs to babies." Houston said that Loughner has a "dark personality" and is kind of "creepy" and they had resolved to just keep an eye on him. However, they had received an email from another student in the class who thought he might have a knife in his possession in a protective cover; she wasn't sure if it was a knife, but thought it might be. She decided to advise of the situation and seek our advice.

I asked Houston if the student had been the cause of any other incidents, distractions, or code of conduct issues and she said no. I told her I would check Loughner's history and see if there was anything we needed to be concerned about that we could link to this kind of behavior. I told her if so we might make contact with him and discuss the concerns with him; and if there was nothing to indicate he might have a trend of misbehavior of this type, that we really didn't have anything to react to in a law enforcement mode at this time. I suggested they keep an eye on him and call us if anything else developed that concerned them.

I had Dispatch run him for warrants and history. Loughner has some prior drug involvement but no warrants or anything of immediate concern. For now, this report documents the faculty's concerns but does not in my opinion justify making contact with Loughner by police.

On 4/6/2010 at approximately 1626 hrs Ofc. Serna and I responded to Northwest Campus Library to check the welfare of a person the staff was concerned with. Upon arrival I contacted SWANK, KRIS who is the Director of the Library, she informed me there was a young man using one of the computers and he would sometimes make noises loud enough for staff at the reference desk to hear. I contacted the subject, identified as LOUGHNER, JARED LEE, a current PCC student, who was working on the computer and listening to music using ear bud type headphones. He stated to me that he was really into music and that sometimes he would be enjoying the music and excitedly utter phrases and words from the songs. I asked LOUGHNER if this had happened in the past and if anyone had asked him to be quiet, he stated that he had been told on a previous occasion. I informed LOUGHNER that this behavior was not an acceptable practice for a public setting, especially in a library. He stated that it would not happen again.

Ofc. Serna and I cleared the scene at 1722 hrs.

On 05 17 10 suspicious activity was reported to me at the Pima College West Campus 2202 W. Anklam Rd Tucson, Az 85709.

At approximately 1522 hours, dispatch informed me that a Pima College instructor wanted to report suspicious activity. I retrieved all pertinent information and made telephonic contact with PCWC instructor Patricia Curry. Curry stated that earlier in the day she was conducting a Pilates class in the recital hall of the CFA building. Curry said during the class, she informed her students of their final grade for the semester. Curry stated that one of her students, Jared Loughner, became "very hostile" when finding out he was receiving a "B." Curry said Loughner "threw his work down" and said the grade was "unacceptable." According to Curry, she spoke with Loughner outside the class room, and felt like it might become physical. Loughner was then referred to Curry's supervisor, Susan Heinrich, who according to Curry also felt "intimidated." No contact has been made with Heinrich or Loughner at this time.

Curry stated that her last semester class is scheduled for 1700 hours at CFA Recital Hall, and did not feel comfortable teaching without an "officer in the area." I informed Curry that I would be near the CFA until her class ended at 1800 hours; she acknowledged. I monitored the CFA complex until Curry's class ended at about 1755 hours, and then cleared the call at about 1800 hours.

INCIDENT REPORT - BASIC CASE

On 6-3-10 at approximately 1700 hrs, Division Dean, Patricia Houston wanted to meet with me for a student code of conduct at the Northwest Campus.

On 6-3-10, I met with Division Dean Patricia Houston in reference to a student by the name of Jared Loughner (DOB 9-10-88) disturbing a class. Houston advised that Loughner was disrupted in his math class when he made reference to a problem that the instructor was trying to explain and argued with the instructor on the number used. Houston handed me an e-mail that was sent to her from Delisa Siddall, an Education Support Student Counselor at the Northwest Campus, and asked me to read it. I read over the e-mail and attached it to this report. I did notice that two of the e-mails were in contradiction to each other. The first e-mail that was dated on the second, did not state that he was asked to leave the class or did it state the student was under the influence of a control substance. The second e-mail that was dated on the first, from Jennifer Guajardo, did state these issues. These e-mails were handed to me in this order and are attached in this order.

I asked Houston what exactly did he do that was against the student code of conduct and she advised that Loughner was disrupted to the class and instructor. I asked if she wanted me to write a referral and a suspension letter and she advised not at this point. Houston also advised that she wanted it documented so that our department could look into his conduct per Commander Amado. I advised that a report would be written and this incident is going to be documented. Houston then advised that a previous incident with Loughner has been documented and a referral was conducted before on the same issues. I connected this report to the other report taken for the same issues.

Houston showed me a math paper submitted by Loughner, which had writing on it, that stated "Mayhem Fest!!" I looked through the rest of the documents that were handed to me of some internet logins that Loughner had looked up and found that it was a music festival that was taking place sometime in 2010. The rest of the internet printouts are postings from other people that have commented on the concert tour. Lamb of God is a rock group and most were commenting on the tour. All postings are connected to this report.

At this time I have no student code of conduct or do I have any charges to file on this student. A further investigation is needed to be able make the decision on this student's ability to stay in class or be with other students. Houston has advised that the instructor and students in the class are uncomfortable with Loughner inside their class and are afraid of any repercussions that could exist from Loughner being unstable in his actions.

MATH 092

QUIZ #1

Name: Jared Laughner

Date: 2008

Please read all questions carefully. Show all work. Circle your final answer. Good luck!

Imagination

1. Simplify using order of operations.  $\frac{x^2 + 5 - 3x}{2(y+1)}$ ; for  $x = -4$  and  $y = 2$

$\frac{-4^2 + 5 - 3(-4)}{2(2+1)}$
 $\frac{-16 + 5 + 12}{2(4)}$
 $\frac{1}{8}$

2. Solve  $-7(1+2x)+10=-5x$ .

$-7 - 14x + 10 = -5x$
 $-4 - 14x = -5x$
 $-4 = 9x$
 $x = -\frac{4}{9}$

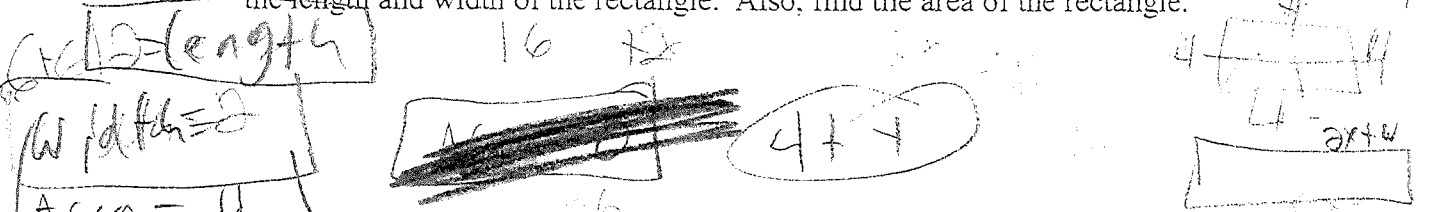

3. The formula for an area of a triangle is  $A = \frac{1}{2}BH$ , where  $A$  is the area of the triangle,  $B$  is the length of the base, and  $H$  is the height of the triangle. If the area of the triangle is 50 square inches and the base is 20 inches, what is the height?

$50 = \frac{1}{2}(20)(H)$
 $50 = 10(H)$
 $5 = H$

4. The perimeter of a rectangle is 16 feet. The length is 2 more feet than the width. Find the length and width of the rectangle. Also, find the area of the rectangle.

Bonus. Let  $ax = 2b$  and  $n = ax + b$ . Show that  $n$  is a number divisible by 3.

I met with Jared Lee Loughner today to discuss the incident that occurred yesterday.

I arrived to his math class at 8:20am, introduced myself to the Instructor, quietly introduced myself Jared and informed him that I wanted to hear his perspective, about the incident that occurred yesterday, in the privacy of my office.

He stated, "I am offended" and I informed him that I would like to hear about it outside of the class. He followed me outside of the class, and returned to the class briefly to get his belongings.

As we walked out of the class, he asked me if I was a cop, I told him no, but there could be one if we could not find a way to meet a happy medium. I followed up by letting him know that my goal was to find a middle ground that would benefit everyone concerned. He questioned why he had to leave the class when he was only exercising his freedom of speech.

When we arrived to my office, I asked him to explain what transpired yesterday in his math class, and he said, "I don't know what you are talking about." I reminded him that a complaint was made that he was disruptive in class and he said, "I was not disruptive, I was only asking questions that related to math."

I asked him to tell me the questions he asked? He said, "My Instructor said he called a number 6 and I said I call it 18." He also asked the Instructor to explain, "How can you deny math instead of accept it?"

I asked him to explain how this was pertinent to the subject at hand? He said these questions caused students to think. I asked him to describe his views on time and place. He said he paid $200 for the class so he should have the right to speak. He added that he has taken other courses and was scammed so he was going to do everything to ensure that he passed this class. I asked him to explain scammed and he said he took prior classes, failed, and did not get his money back.

I asked him if he felt he was being scammed in this math class, he said that he wasn't, but added that it scared him that his freedom of speech rights were being taken away. He also complained about being removed from class to talk to the Counselor.

I told him that I wanted to talk about rights as well as time and place. Every student has the right to have a safe learning environment; how are you meeting the rights of other students when you must exercise your right to call the number 6, 18. Have you considered the rights of the students who are sitting in class struggling to understand 6, while you argue with the instructor?

I informed him that the students are making the same complaint about being robbed of their educational experience that he was making to me, and asked him to explain the difference. I further informed him that the Instructor has to cover material in 5 weeks that is generally covered in 16 weeks, so there might not be time for students to ponder his questions, so his questions might have to be asked after class.

He was reassured that when he becomes an Instructor he will have the right to teach a class based on his teaching style, but in the meantime, his Instructor will conduct the class the way he sees fit and if Jared had a problem with this, I would be happy to drop him from the class.

Jared said he wanted to remain in the class and he showed proof that he was doing the assignments. He asked me if I was saying that he could not speak in class and I informed him that he could ask his philosophical questions after class, and ask "how do I solve this problem questions in class."

He reassured me that he did not want to be expelled from class. I asked him to tell me what he planned to do to remain in this class, and he said that he planned not to ask any questions.

He mentioned in closing that he spoke to some guy ( another Counselor in this office) about asking questions in class, and reiterated again that it scared him that his right to freedom of speech was being squelched.

This student was informed that the formal code would go into effect if this should happen again.

This student was warned. He has extreme views and frequently meanders from the point. He seems to have difficulty understanding how his actions impact others, yet very attuned to his unique ideology that is not always homogeneous. Since his resolution was to remain silent in class and successfully complete the course, I had no grounds to keep him out of class.

Since he reported that an incident such as this occurred in another class, Administrators will have to help this student clearly understand what is appropriate classroom dialog.

Oops! This exchange should all have gone to Benjamin McGahee, not Benjamin Zamzow. This is my mistake as I wrote down Ben Zamzow's email and told you Ben McGahee's name. I'm sorry for this mistake.

It's official! Call your grandmother (I don't know why she would care, but call her anyway). The complete official lineup for this summer's (Metal Injection sponsored) Rockstar Energy Mayhem Festival has been announced and it's certainly an eclectic buffet of hard rock and heavy metal using a something for everybody approach. Without further ado:

- Main Stage
- KORN
- ROB ZOMBIE
- LAMB OF GOD

FIVE FINGER DEATH PUNCH

Mayhem Fest Stage

ATREYU

NORMA JEAN

IN THIS MOMENT

3 INCHES OF BLOOD

Jagermeister Stage

HATEBREED

CHIMAIRA

SHADOWS FALL

WINDS OF PLAGUE

They certainly seem to have gone more mainstream and less extreme this year. While this isn't the most exciting lineup I have ever seen, you book Lamb of God on a show and I'm there. Let us know what you think of the lineup in the comments. As we do everywhere, we will be holding a huuge contest where we give away a pair of tickets to each stop of the tour, so keep your eyes peeled for that contest to start. Here are the scheduled tour dates:

July 10th San Bernardino, CA – San Manuel Amphitheater
July 11th Mountain View, CA – Shoreline Amphitheatre
July 13th Auburn, WA – White River Amphitheater Southeast
July 14th Nampa, ID – Idaho Center Amphitheater
July 16th Phoenix, AZ – Cricket Wireless Pavilion
July 17th Albuquerque, NM – Journal Pavilion
July 18th Englewood, CO – Comfort Dental Amphitheatre
July 20th Maryland Heights, MO – Verizon Wireless Amphitheater
July 21st Cincinnati, OH – Riverbend Music Center
July 23rd Camden, NJ – Susquehanna Bank Center
July 24th Hartford, CT – The Comcast Theatre
July 25th Montreal, QC – Parc Jean Drapeau
July 27th Mansfield, MA – Comcast Center
July 28th Holmdel, NJ – P.N.C. Bank Arts Center
July 30th Tinley Park, IL – First Midwest Bank Amphitheatre
July 31st Noblesville, IN – Verizon Wireless Music Center
August 01st Atlanta, GA – Lakewood Amphitheatre
August 04th Virginia Beach, VA – Virginia Beach Amphitheater
August 06th Clarkston, MI – DTE Energy Music Theatre

Just Lamb of God, Shadows Fall, Rob Zombie, and 3 Inches of Blood would be an awesome show.. In This Moment, Chimaira, and Five Finger Death Punch have maybe 5 good songs between them. I just can't imagine myself sitting through the other terrible bands to get to good ones. Maybe if the tickets are cheap...

This tour is a joke. I count 4 good bands this year, one of them being Chimaira, who I've already seen 2 or 3 times. The ticket price could be $15 and I wont go. This is a joke. I hope & pray SOTU comes back, or that Summer Slaughter has a better lineup. Anyone seen the Atticus tour lineup? Its a thousand times better than this shit.

what the fuck is it with bad ass concerts turning into pussy emo kid fests i thought finally a death metal concert but no mayhem goes and gets ATREYU? NORMA JEAN? WHAT THE FUCK where behemoth wheres cannibal corpse come on even fucking slayer played that shit last year! SO FUCK ALL OF YOU THIS YEARS LINE UP CAN SUCK MY SHIT COVERED DICK, I HOPE YOU ALL DIE.

14. January 20th, 2010 at 11:23 pm shee says:

this is bullshit...

at least they come to Canada, montreal more specifically....(unlike last year)

Few good bands make it worth it but, disappointing nonetheless with all that gay shit like FFDP, in this moment and atreyu, etc...

WTF!?!

Other than Lamb of God there are no must see bands for me this year. Im going for Lamb of God, there always insane. ive never liked more than a few Rob Zombie songs, but i guess its prolly as close as ill get to seeing White Zombie, i hope they play some WZ. Korn maybe, ive hated them since their 4th album, but the 1st one is still cool, as long as its not a bunch of new shit. i saw FFDP at the 1st mayhem and i left their set cuz they sucked massive ass. Winds of Plague was cool at Slaughterfest but that was with Kristen, who is now gone. She was my fave part of WoP, and not only because i want her to be the mother of my children. 3 Inches seems like they could be cool cuz their always on tour with Black Dahlia & Skeletonwitch. i haven't like Atreyu, except for Lip Gloss & Black. but that was because my friend learned the guitar part, and it was sweet. Hatebreed, Shadows Fall, and Chimera have always been some of the blandest metal bands, ok music, just bland. and i absolutely fucking hate Norma Jean n In this Moment. maybe because year 1 had Mastodon, Suicide Silence, The Red Chord, and Slipknot. then last years was one of the best concerts ive ever been to, and will possibly never be rivaled in sheer holy fucking shitness. i noticed there's no hot topic stage this year, maybe that's why there are no extreme bands this year. HT stage was AMAZING last year. And obviously SLAYER slayed. even manson wasnt horrible, my gf loved his show and he played alot of his older stuff which ive always been ok with. i could understand the Jagerstage, but the other one sucks major ass cept for maybe 3IoB.

if the free tickets are for mainstage seats at the DTE in Michigan, ill be happy to take them off your hands...

18. ■ January 26th, 2010 at 3:25 am metalrules33 says:

I would to see LOG but I will NOT go if they are charging $13 for a budwieser like last year and I can't BYOB!.... that's just a slap in the face to the fans to lock them in a 110 degree cage and then charge $7 for a Monster and $4 for a f'ing water. I saw a guy fall with a tray of 4 beers... there goes $52... well the ants will be happy.

Also, who decides the headliners for this tour??? They always f that one up.

.... looks like i gotta get there early for SF, Chimara... and bail early again after 5FDP and LOG

WHAT?!!!!!!!!!! THIS HAS GOT TO BE A FUCKING JOKE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! What are you trying to do, Mayhem Fest people, appeal to the scene crowd?

Let's see, 2008, Slipknot was amazing, Disturbed kicked ass, Dragonforce sucked, Mastodon was awesome, Underoath was gay, Black Tide was boring, Suicide Silence was awesome, 36 Crazyfists was awesome, The Red Chord was great, Machine Head was awesome, Airbourne sucked, SFDP was awesome, and Walls of Jericho blew. 2009, the whole entire show FUCKIN RULED!!!!!!!! Including Manson, he put on a great show. Now 90s shock rock was okay in my book but queercore is where I draw the line. Atreyu, Norma Jean, In This Moment, are you fucking kidding me, this is a metal tour, not a screamo tour, even Three Inches of Blood doesn't add up. The mainstage is awesome and the Jager stage is alright but honestly, lose the emo bands like Atreyu, they don't belong at Mayhem Fest. You should have got Messhugah or Dimmu Borgir and there are a lot of very unpopular deathmetal bands that are awesome enough and would sever an arm to play even on the opening spot. Expect me there a few hours late cuz I'm only going for Korn and Zombie.

21. February 6th, 2010 at 12:52 pm Scramles says:

I personally like this years lineup (minus atreyu and norma jean...) but Zombie is good, Korn's old stuff is good, I FUCKIN LOVE LAMB OF GOD, FFDP is okay, I never cared for atreyu, or norma jean. But In this moment is okay and i like 3 inches of blood (Even though they have no original members left).

Hatebreed.. SICK
Chimaira.. SICK
Shadows Fall.. SICK
Winds Of Plague.. SICK

It's still gonna be a good show. I'll even stick around for the other bands that i dont like just to see how well of a show they put on.

On 9/23/2010 at approximately 0731 hrs I was dispatched to a disturbance call at Pima Community College Northwest Campus, building D room 301.

On 9/23/2010 at approximately 0731 hrs I was dispatched to a disturbance call at Pima Community College Northwest Campus, building D room 301. I responded from parking lot number 3. Upon arrival at D-301 I met with SCHEIDEMANTEL, DEBORA an Adjunct Faculty member who had reported the disturbance. SCHEIDEMANTEL informed me that one of her students, LOUGHNER, JARED, had caused a disruption in the classroom when she told him that he would only receive half credit on an assignment because it was late. SCHEIDEMANTEL stated that LOUGHNER said that was a violation of his right to freedom of speech and continued to cause the start of class to be delayed. SCHEIDEMANTEL said that LOUGHNER asked if he could leave class and finish the assignment and then turn it in, she told him again that he still would only receive half credit since the due date was past. LOUGHNER was insistent that his freedom of speech was being taken away. SCHEIDEMANTEL seemed visibly upset. I informed her that I was going to escort LOUGHNER out of class and talk with him about the incident.

When I entered the classroom LOUGHNER had gotten up and was heading towards the door. I contacted him just outside of room D-301. I informed LOUGHNER that I had received a call that there was a disturbance in the classroom. LOUGHNER immediately said that his freedom of speech had been taken away. I informed him that was not the case and if he could explain to me what had happened and why I had to be called to his classroom. LOUGHNER could not verbalize what the problem was and kept referring back to the freedom of speech. I noticed during my questioning that LOUGHNER'S head was constantly tilted to the left and his eyes were jittery and looking up and to the left. At this point Officer Dana Mattocks arrived on scene. I informed Officer Mattocks about the incident and the difficulty in communicating with LOUGHNER. Officer Mattocks spoke with LOUGHNER and at this point the loss of freedom of speech turned into freedom of thought and his right to write whatever he wanted to and get a good grade on his work. LOUGHNER was not understanding that his actions and causing a disruption in class had nothing to do with his right to freedom of speech or freedom of thought. LOUGHNER was unable to process why the police were involved in the incident. Officer Mattocks put LOUGHNER through a channel of basic reasoning questions. One of the questions used was, Is it okay to yell fire in a theater full of people, if in fact there is no fire? LOUGHNER'S thought process through the freedom of speech thinking is yes, that is acceptable because he has the freedom of speech and there was no consequence. Throughout the the course of questioning LOUGHNER was only concerned about his grade until he was made to understand that because of his actions that an administrative suspension could be recommended. LOUGHNER repeated several times that he wanted to stay in school. Officer Mattocks spoke with SCHEIDEMANTEL while I stayed with LOUGHNER. It was decided that LOUGHNER should not be allowed back into the classroom today due to the instructor and other students not feeling comfortable with LOUGHNER after the earlier disruption. Officer Mattock and I suggested to LOUGHNER that we go talk to Aubrey Conover, the Advanced Program Manager for Northwest Campus. Officer Mattocks and I escorted LOUGHNER to Mr. Conover's office. Officer Mattocks informed Mr. Conover about the incident and he agreed to speak with LOUGHNER. LOUGHNER was asked if he would like Officer Mattocks in Mr. Conover's office during there conversation. LOUGHNER said yes he would like Officer Mattocks in the office, however Officer Mattocks after only a few moments realized that his presence was not what was needed in this meeting. After approximately twenty minutes Mr. Conover and LOUGHNER emerged from the office. We were informed that a follow up meeting is scheduled for Monday of next week. LOUGHNER seemed to be content with help he was given and left Mr. Conover's office.

On 09/23/10 at approximately 0731 hours I was dispatched for response as a backup officer the classroom disturbance in building D, classroom 301 at Pima College Northwest Campus located at 7600 N. Shannon Road. I was currently stationed at Pima College Downtown Campus located at 1255 N. Stone and arrived to the classroom at approximately 0745 hours.

Officer States #387, the primary officer for this call was speaking with a Pima College student matching the dispatched description outside the classroom located on the southeastern third floor. Officer States had already identified him as Jared Loughner (DOB 09/10/88)(S1) through his Arizona driver's license and date of birth. As I approached and listened, I found it apparently evident through their conversation that Jared Loughner found difficulty understanding what he had done wrong inside the classroom. Officer States spoke with Loughner for approximately 10 minutes while Loughner remained concentrated on a "Freedom of Speech" Act in correlation to his current homework assignment. I requested to speak with the student and then initiated a conversation. Mr. Loughner continued standing and I observed his head was tilted to the left with a confused look in the countenance of his face. His eyes focused down at his homework and he showed a sustained bobbing of the eyes while looking to his upper left side during questioning. After introducing myself I asked him to tell me what happened today. He very slowly began telling me in a low and mumbled voice that under the Constitution which had been written on the wall for all to see, he had the right to his "Freedom of thought" and whatever he thought in his head he could also put on paper. By placing his thoughts within his homework assignment, his teacher "must be required to accept it" as a passing grade.

Over the next course of 30 minutes and during our conversations I asked Mr. Loughner if he knew why the Police had been called out to speak with him. His responses repeated references to his homework assignment, the outcome of his grade and his right to the freedom of thought. I requested his understanding to causing a disruption in class. His response pointed to his hand raised and called upon by the instructor which indeed allowed him to speak without interruption since he then, "Had the floor" and also his "Freedom of thought". I spoke later to the instructor Ms. Susan Scheidemantel; she stated that his actions did not allow the class to continue normal classroom operations. She said he stood up when called upon and described his voice growing louder and louder into a disruptive manner for her and several of her students. By taking the extra time through repeated explanation I was eventually able to communicate with Mr. Loughner that his actions in the classroom were disruptive and not permitted. I informed him that even though he had his 'freedom of thought', he was also required to submit to the structure of a classroom setting within a College as set forth by the Instructor and also explained in the Student Code of Conduct rules. Loughner acknowledged that he knew about the Student Code of Conduct but reverted back several times to his payment of classes, entitlements to his actions and then referenced money as a strong issue through repetition. The conversation was grading as Officer States and I considered the best possible options with Mr. Loughner's state of mind and reasoning. It was clear that he was unable to fully understand his actions and an Administrative approach was reasonable at this time. Opposing for Mr. Loughner to return at a later date to speak with the Dean of Students we escorted him upon his request to the Campus Administrator located on the 2nd floor East of the Library. While Officer States remained outside with Jared Loughner I contacted Aubrey Conover's office to request an immediate interview. After agreeing to speak with Loughner, Mr. Conover walked outside to greet him and additionally recognized him from previous conversations and appointments. At first Loughner requested my presence in the meeting and stated he wanted to fully obey the officer and cooperate fully with the process. Initially I attending the sit down meeting in Mr. Conover's office and advised Loughner that I was only here to support him during conversation as he requested. A few minutes later it became apparent that I was not needed and I initiated excusing myself from the conversation to give full privacy to their meeting and exchange of information. After such time approximately 25 minutes later, Loughner was seen leaving Mr. Conover's office and then the area of the Campus. Before leaving, Mr. Conover conveyed that an additional appointment had been set with Loughner on Monday, September 27th. I then cleared the area with Officer States without further incident at 0940 hours. NFI

On 09/29/10 at approximately 1800 hours I was dispatched to serve a Pima College 'Notice of Immediate Suspension' letter for Jared Loughner (DOB 09/10/88) to his residence located at 7741 N. Soledad Avenue in Pima County.

I went in route from Pima College West Campus located at 2202 W. Anklam Road and arrived to Pima College Northwest Campus of 7600 N. Shannon at 1900 hours. I passengered with Supervisor Sgt. Franz (S4) at this time and requested for FTO Officer Gittings #316 and Officer Haywood #386T to remain in the neighborhood area as backup. At approximately 1930 hours Sgt. Franz and I attempted contact with the residence of the household without response and then left the area. After Dispatch recontacted the listed phone numbers for Mr. Loughner we were notified that a male answered the telephone. We recontacted the residence successfully at 2030 hours and were invited into the garage by the father, Mr. Randy Loughner after awaiting for the family to put away dogs.

While inside the garage I spoke with Jared who held a constant trance of staring as I narrated the past events that had transpired. These events have been documented by Police reports and meetings conducted by Pima College Administration. I served the 'Notice of Immediate Suspension' to Mr. Jared Loughner by reading the letter verbatim to him and giving it directly to him. It was clear that he understood our reason at the home and the terms of the letter as he read the letter back to me. Even though we spent approximately one hours relaying the information and narration of Jared's actions that brought him to his current predicament, Jared left his silence and spoke out saying, "I realize now that this is all a scam". With this information Sgt. Franz advised the meeting was adjourned. At approximately 2131 hours we cleared the area after a brief conversation with the father in the back yard. No further information known.

On 9/29/10, I investigated a suspicious activity at 7600 N. Shannon Rd.

On 9/29/10 at 0920 hours, I was asked by Sergeant Lomeli (S9) to look into a suspicious video posted on "YouTube" that had been found on the W.W.W. by Officer Gutierrez #376. The title of the video was "Pima Community College School-Genocide/Scam-Free Education-Broken United States Constitution". The video was posted on 9/23/10 by a "2PLOY". The video was of the PCC Northwest Campus. The narrator was saying things like;

"We are examining the torture of students"

"The war that we are in right now is currently illegal under the constitution"

"This is my genocide school. Where I'm going to be homeless because of this school""I haven't forgotten the teacher that gave me a B for freedom of speech"

"This is Pima Community College, one of the biggest scams in America"

"If the student is unable to locate the external universe, the student is unable to locate the internal universe"

"This is genocide in America"

"Thank you....This is Jared,...from Pima College"

Officer Mattocks #360 saw the video and positively recognized the voice and the reflection in the window as student Jared Loughner (S1). He stated that he had dealt with him on the morning of 9/23/10 (same day the video was posted) at the Northwest Campus (See case #C10-04471). This case involved a "Student Code Of Conduct" referral to PCC Advanced Program Manager Dr Aubrey Conover. I contacted Dr. Conover by phone. He stated that he had met twice with Jared Loughner. He stated the second meeting, he was accompanied by PCC Student Counselor Allison Ward. I asked Dr. Conover for a written report as soon as possible. A copy of his report is attached to this report. I contacted Allison Ward and requested a written report. She stated she would get one to me. At the time of the writing of this report, I still had not received anything from Ms. Ward.

I copied the YouTube video and placed the copy into evidence. A paper printout of the site is attached to this report. I requested a subpoena from Pima County Grand Jury on 9/29/10 for YouTube records and I am awaiting the subpoena return.

This case is still open and under investigation.

Summary of Meetings with Jared Loughner in regards to September 23rd incident

On the morning of Sept 23rd officers were called to remove Jared Loughner from his Biology class due to disruptive behavior. The officers brought the student to my office for an initial discussion and possible code of conduct violation. At that time Jared indicated that he did not know why officers had been called he was "only asking a question" but he did not want to get into the code of conduct process and would be dropping the class. I explained to Jared that as part of the investigation I would need to get information from the instructor and as well as his side of the story. We set up a time to meet the next time he would be on campus, Monday the 27th.

During the meeting on the 27th I explained to Jared that the information I had received from the instructor indicated that Jared had been repeatedly asking for full credit on an assignment that he had not completed on time. The instructor explained that this was not possible according to the syllabus and that Jared would only receive half credit. Jared continued to ask the same question as well as stating that the 1st amendment gave him the right to ask questions and that he paid the teacher's salary so he was entitled to full credit. I then asked Jared if he would explain his side of the event. Jared then gave a cryptic answer of understanding that he needed to write what the teacher wants and that he would drop the class. I asked Jared how this compared to his earlier statements that due to his "Universal Declaration of Human Rights" and 1st amendment rights he could put whatever he wanted down for an answer and he could receive full credit. Jared was unable to reconcile the two and changed topics. He then stated that he had paid for his courses illegally. When question as to why he said, "I did not pay with gold and silver." When pressed as to why he thought he had to do this he said something about the constitution and then changed subjects. I began asking another question and Jared stated that he should not say any more. I asked why and Jared stated that his parents told him to not say more. I asked if it would be ok to have his parents join us to help work through the situation he said yes and we scheduled a time to meet the next evening at 6:00pm.

It was suggested by the EEO office that I include a counselor in our meeting with Jared and his mom. I asked Allison Ward to join us at the meeting. During the Jared signed a release of information form so that we could share specifics about the incident with his mom. I then proceeded to go over the issues. I asked Jared to give his account of what had happened but he stated that he had told the police and did not want to say anymore. When asked about the earlier conflicting statements about the right of the teacher to evaluate students Jared gave a scripted answer of, "I know I have to follow Pima processes and write what the teacher wants." When Allison asked if Jared had a support network to help him be successful in school Jared again said that he did not want to talk about it and he would follow Pima policies. I explained that our next step would be for me to write up a behavioral contract that would outline the appropriate conduct that we had discussed throughout the meeting. Included in this contract would be agreed upon steps that Jared would take to avoid any further disruptions in any of his courses. It was agreed that he would come to my office Monday after class to sign the agreement. Throughout the meeting Jared held himself very rigidly and smiled overtly at inappropriate times. I am scheduled to meet with EEO this afternoon as to the best way to proceed.

Incident During January 2010

My only previous encounter with this directly with this student was during the last week in January. A writing instructor asked that I follow up with the student after he had made a "bizarre" comment in class. During the class student were talking about the poems they had written. One of the female students had a poem that in some way connected to abortion. With no context, Jared stated that we should have dynamite attached to babies. When I met with Jared his mother accompanied him. I asked Jared to help me understand his comment. He said that the class had been talking about abortion, which made him think of death, which made him think of suicide bombers, which made him think of babies as suicide bombers. We talked about how you need to give context to you statements, especially when deal with emotional issues. Jared said he would just not say anything in class. I explained that was not the answer, but that he need to think through how he cwanted to contribute in order to share his ideas in an appropriate fashion.

Follow up with the instructor said that Jared was doing ok, we was still acting a bit "bizarre" in class but there had been no further interruptions.
