Reopening Of Caldwell Play Area Celebrated

A grand reopening celebration was recently held at the Caldwell Street Play area in Charlestown. This project, constructed at a cost of $140,000, included total site redevelopment which displays an ornamental iron and wood fencing adorned with artwork painted by neighborhood children. The festivities included: live entertainment, face painting and free ice cream.

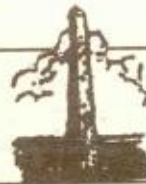

Boston Parks Commissioner Patrick S. Harrington said, "The Caldwell Play Area, with its seating design and landscape architecture is the culmination of a cooperative effort between the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, its architects, designers, planners and the people of Charlestown."

JOB - RELATED EDUCATION EXPENSES

Workers who continue their education undoubtedly enhance their employment opportunities. An added bonus: Work-related educational expenses may provide a tax deduction as well.

Work-related educational expenses are tax deductible if they are incurred:

- to maintain or improve skills required in your current job, or
- to meet the express requirements of your employer or of applicable law as a condition of retaining your job, salary or status.

Deductible educational expenses include amounts paid for tuition, books, fees and incidental expenses such as photocopies and typing. Transportation and travel expenses connected with the education are also deductible. However, travel as a form of education is not deductible.

To be deductible, educational expenses must relate to your current job or trade or business. Expenses cannot be deducted if the education qualifies you for a new occupation, or is to meet minimum educational requirements for your present job.

If you're an employee, only part of your educational expenses are deductible. Your educational expenses are combined with your other miscellaneous itemized deductions, and the total amount is deductible only to the extent it exceeds 2% of your adjusted gross income.

If you're self-employed, you can take the deduction for your qualifying educational expenses on Schedule C, and the 2% rule doesn't apply.

Camp Bunker Hill Celebrates Summer

The staff and campers from Camp Bunker Hill gathered at Charlestown High School recently to celebrate summer and share its program and activities with members of the community.

Camp Bunker Hill is a therapeutic summer day camp program and after-school program run by the MGH Bunker Hill Health Center. The summer program is able to serve up to 50 boys and girls ages 4 to 16. The after school program can serve up to 20 elementary school-aged children and is held at St. Catherine's Rectory.

"Home base" for Camp Bunker Hill this summer has been Charlestown High School. Here, campers enjoyed indoor activities such as arts and crafts, cooking, computer activities and academic enrichment. Athletic activities took place in the full-size gym, indoor pool and playing field. The camp's "home away from home" was Hale Reservation in Westwood.

Camp Bunker Hill hit the road too! Frequently, groups traveled to find their fun. Past excursions have included overnight camping trips to Hale, sailing on the Charles River, hiking, boating, beach-combing, museum trips, roller skating and fishing.

Dr. Michael Cauley, the director of Camp Bunker Hill, has worked with the camp for 17 years. He is a psychologist whose specialties include cognitive behavioral and group psychotherapy.

The camp accepts children of all races, religions and ethnic backgrounds. It serves children who can benefit from the small groups and structure that a therapeutic day camp can provide. These children typically require special attention to their learning style, behavioral difficulties and social skills.

The areas of special focus include social skills, impulsive behaviors, physical skills and coordination, management of anger, math and reading skills and self-confidence.

Camp Bunker Hill is partially funded by the Mass. General Hospital, however, "The Friends of Camp Bunker Hill" also offer generous financial and personal support. The friends work year-round by running raffles, hosting charity sporting events, cruises and other ingenious ways to support the camp. In fact, an auction is being planned for Sept. 30 in Building 149 in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

For more information on the camp or after school program, call Cauley or Co-Director Scott McLeod at 242-5760

FRESH AIR

One of the first things a new real estate agent learns is the old vanilla on the light bulb trick, or boiling apple cider with lots of cinnamon and cloves during an Open House. This is supposed to help make the house smell good, and because the sense of smell seems to have such an impact on how buyers react, it's always a good idea to make your home as fresh as possible when it is being shown.

Occasionally, we list one of those homes that is beyond vanilla or cider. When this happens, we have to have one of those delicate talks with the owner. If your house is for sale and your Realtor ought to have this conversation with you and hasn't, let this be it! If you have a mild case of musties, a good airing may do the trick. If you have years of smoky all-night poker games or an unaltered tomcat, you may want to call in a professional to clear the air for you. Whatever it takes, it's really worth it!

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Monument Properties. Please call us at 241-5900 or stop by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

'Chowda'fest To Be Held On Sept. 18

The event "chowdahs" have been waiting for is drawing near! It's the 12th annual Bud Light "Chowda"fest to benefit Horizons for Youth and it's taking place on Sunday, Sept. 18 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Chefs from several area restaurants are already taking their secret chowder recipes of out hiding for the event, sponsored by Bud Light in cooperation with WBOS 92.9 FM.

Scheduled so far to participate in the popular people's choice taste-off are Dining in the Light Caterers, Weymouth; Gourmeli's Restaurant, Boston; Hard Rock Cafe, Boston; Marie's Restaurant, Quincy; Maximillian's Cafe, Needham; 99 Restaurant & Pub, Charlestown; Poppyseed's, Westwood; Turner Fisheries, Boston; and Winsor House Inn, Duxbury.

They and other food establishments (more are

There'll be plenty stirring in addition to the unlimited chowder. Continuous musical entertainment will include performances by the Courage Brothers, Chuck Morris and the Sidewalk Blues Band, Diane Bonaventura, Love Thing, Vision Thing and others, and WBOS 92.9 FM on-air personalities will be on hand to emcee and meet their fans.

Admission to the "Chowda"fest is $6 ($3 for children under 12 and senior citizens) and includes unlimited chowder and all the entertainment. Proceeds go to Horizons for Youth's outdoor programs for needy children.

The Needed Hug

by Dessa Weisz Hardin

It seems to rain every Tuesday, my day for going to Charlestown to work with the school children. I volunteer in a reading program in a public school. Goals are to encourage the children to enjoy reading, teach vocabulary and precepts from the stories, be a role model and what I think is the most important, to be one more adult to love them in this world of fractured families. I go each time with anticipation of filling a need.

I travel by car, subway and bus and often there are many raindrops. But when I run down the first steps to catch the Orange Line, my spirits lift; after all, I am on my way to work with these beloved children; all ages, from many different ethnic groups, but each one is special in their own way. Today I wait a long time for the bus. I myself, spent a difficult week with many projects; one becomes vulnerable when one steps forward to do something publicly, whatever it be. There was criticism of my Thanksgiving decorations for the church. I thought it turned out well or why didn't they do it? The remarks still hurt a bit. I pull out my book from my bag to read and transport myself away from that problem and to ignore the dampness all around me as the rain continues to fall.

Finally at the school, I run quickly up the steps and immediately turn on a smile. This is my third year here and many children know me. I may not know their names, but they remember me. I would not deprive any child of a wanted or needed smile.

Today the librarian is sponsoring a book sale and things are a little crowded and confused. My third grade class finds a free spot and settle themselves comfortably on the floor. I pull up my chair to begin. Little Alex, a charming African-American boy, attired in purple sweats, sits in the front row. He looks up at me and a big grin crosses his face as he says, "Hey, it's you again." Thank you Alex, for a warm welcome.

I read the story of the "Secret of the Match Box." I tried to explain the principle of secrets to them; simple, if you have a secret and you tell it to one person, it is not a secret anymore. There was time too, for one poem and I read a funny one about a boy and his dream of chickens. He dreams all night long about them being here, there and everywhere. The boy wakes up and finds eggs all over his bed. Now what else would he find? Alex laughs heartily with the other children.

It is time for them to return to their classroom. I wish them a Happy Thanksgiving. They wave politely and call goodbye. Alex dawdles at the end of the line. Quickly he turns and comes back to me. He puts his hand in mine and looks into my eyes and wishes me a Happy Thanksgiving again. Suddenly he throws his arms around me and hugs me tight. And I hug him back. We walk to the door and say goodbye again. He goes to join his class.

Alex, you made my day! You in your pretty purple sweats and charming smile, and more important, you with your big hug. I was glad I was there for you when you needed a hug. But how did you know that, I too, needed one today?

Walk For Breast Cancer

To the editor:

When someone we love is stricken with breast cancer, we feel deep concern, as well as frustration, at not quite knowing how to help. On Sunday, Sept. 25, the American Cancer Society will offer a way to move beyond that frustration with an event that's educational, inspiring and enjoyable for the whole family.

Thousands of women who have battled breast cancer, along with caring friends and family members, will gather at the Hatch Shell in Boston for the American Cancer Society's "Making Strides Against Breast Cancer" walk. They'll join this easy, five-mile walk along the Charles River Esplanade to raise funds for the American Cancer Society programs such as "Reach to Recovery," where trained volunteers visit women undergoing breast cancer treatment. Outreach programs like "Tell A Friend" encourage and enable underserved women to go for early detection, including mammography. The Society's 1-800-ACS-2345 line provides information to help women make decisions about options for treatment and recovery.

I urge every resident of Charlestown to get involved. "Making Strides Against Breast Cancer" is a way to literally put legs on our love and concern for the women in our lives, to move past frustration and into hope. Call the American Cancer Society at 1-800-952-7430 for your walking papers.

Sincerely,
Rose Agrippino
Making Strides Chairperson

Who Is Mark Charbonnier?

We know him as a loving son, husband, brother, cousin; as a beautiful friend; as a solid State Police Officer. He remains these things and reminds us of their importance - of their simple and wonderful importance.

If nothing had happened, we would have continued to enjoy his all-American life and dreams, and we would try

Thank You, Mom!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my mother, Marguerite Griffin, for her 15 years of dedicated service as assistant manager of CharlesNewtown. We, your family and friends, are so very proud of you.

Your concern for the needs of the tenants led you to become a member of the Board of Directors. Overcoming the challenges of living and working in the same development was not an easy task, but one which you met unswervingly.

Walking through the neighborhood, I can see where your diligence has made a difference. What stands out to me are the flowers and gardens of which you were an integral part of developing. So like you, they remind me of your love of beauty and the nurturing way you have with everyone you touch.

If there was a broken pipe, fire or any other emergency, anytime of day or night, you were there to assist. Your involvement with the Co-op has proven that you were a hard worker and good neighbor to the people you so proudly served.

Everyday was a new challenge and you faced it. Thank you again, from a tenant and very loving daughter.

I Love You, Mom,
Kathy

to raise our own sons and daughters just like him. But events come into some lives and things are never the same. People are sometimes called upon to give their all for what is right and just. A few are brave enough to answer that call, and they sometimes pay with their lives. They do it because they can - because they have the love and the courage and the willpower to face the impossible loss of all in their quest for their ideals.

Sometimes these souls are forgotten and left to die alone on some remote battlefield in a far-away war, others give their lives in silence - and we love them as we love Mark. But Mark is different, because he died right in front of us in a loud and violent way. He took on evil, eye to eye. He did not flinch in his duty to his family, friends and country. He becomes a true American hero because he had the goodness and the courage that allowed him to do his duty.

We'll all remember Mark Charbonnier, and the basic, wonderful things he stood for. - Family, Friendship, Honor, Work Ethic, America.

Abraham Lincoln once said, "We are now in the midst of a great civil war" - but it is not a war of black against white, or of rich against poor, but of good against evil. There are good and evil people in all classes and races of society. Mark fought and died in this war, in defense of the rights of all average, honorable, everyday American citizens.

Mark Charbonnier belongs to American History now. He is our image of what is right in society and of the potential that exists in the human spirit. He is special beyond the common man. He becomes our beacon to do the right thing. To fight crime. To stand up to evil. To raise children who respect authority and individual rights. To refuse to find excuses.

He empowers us to go on with our lives and his spirit will be there to help us.

A Friend

Brown Takes A Shot At 'The Green Monster'

ERIC C. BROWN of Charlestown, lived out the fantasy of a lifetime on Saturday, Aug. 27, when he took a shot at Fenway Park's left field wall, the famed "Green Monster," during the third annual John Hancock Fantasy Day at Fenway Park to benefit The Jimmy Fund. More than 100 participants stepped up to the plate at the event, which raised $220,000 for The Jimmy Fund, the main fundraising arm of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. John Hancock Financial Services underwrote the event with the Boston Red Sox so that the entire $220,000 raised went to the Jimmy Fund for the battle against cancer in children and adults. Hancock donated $1,000 for each ball hit off the left field wall and $2,000 for each home run.

CYO & ST. CATHERINE'S NEWS BY FATHER RON COYNE

▲ St. Catherine's Parish Show Postponed - For the past three years, we have entertained thousands of friends and neighbors in mid-October at our annual Parish Show directed by Ed Rooney. Unfortunately, Mr. Rooney has been hospitalized and is not able to provide his services at this time. However, being real "show biz" people, we can assure you that "the show must go on," but the dates will be moved to sometime after the New Year. If you planned on being in the cast, we apologize and ask you to be patient.

We believe there is no director equal to Ed Rooney and we are willing to wait for his restoration to good health.

Our show will be titled "Oscar, Emmy, Tony and Us."

▲ Boys Ball Hockey League - Every fall we sponsor a boys ball hockey league for boys 10-14 years of age. The games are played weekday afternoons at 3:30 p.m. in the old and new cages. We usually have between four and six teams. The league runs from mid-September to mid-November. Each team plays two games a week.

The 14-year-olds are team captains and will choose their teams on Thursday, Sept. 15 at 4 p.m. in the lower rectory at St. Catherine's. All boys who wish to play in this league should be at the sign-ups on Thursday, Sept. 15 in order to be selected for a team. The cost is $5 per person. Older teenagers who would like to volunteer as referees should contact Father Coyne at 242-1750.

▲ CCD Classes - Registration for CCD classes will be held on Saturday, Sept. 10, from 5 to 6 p.m. at the rectory and on Sunday, Sept. 11, from 9 a.m. to noon at the school. The registration fee is $20 per child ($35 for a family of two or more). This fee is for books, equipment and materials.

Classes will begin on Sunday, Sept. 18 at 9:45 a.m., following the 9 a.m. Children's Mass. They will be held at our Interparish School, Charlestown Catholic. We ask all the children and their families to attend the 9 a.m. Children's Mass.

▲ Children's Mass - During the school year, the 9 a.m. Mass each Sunday at St. Catherine's is a special Mass focusing on our children. All public and parochial school students and their families are encouraged to attend this Mass. Our CCD classes for public school children follows this Mass. All the readings, prayers, music and homilies (sermons) are prepared for the benefit of our children.

The Children's Mass will begin again on Sunday, Sept. 18 and be celebrated each Sunday.

▲ Altar Servers - St. Catherine's Parish invites all boys and girls (public and parochial schools) who would like to serve Mass to come to our training sessions beginning on Tuesday, Sept. 20 at 4 p.m. in the lower church. Any boy or girl entering grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 are welcome. We will practice once a week and they will begin serving Mass in November. This is a privilege and we ask parents to encourage their children to volunteer their services.

▲ Adult Confirmation - Each year we sponsor adult confirmation classes for any man or woman, 18 years of age or older who has never received the sacrament of Confirmation as teenagers. There may also be some who have not received their First Communion or who wish to be baptized or become Catholic as well. Each year, we sponsor four classes for adults and invite them to receive their Confirmation at the annual celebration of the sacrament in Charlestown. This year, the Confirmation ceremony will be held at St. Mary's Church on Wednesday, Oct. 12.

All adults interested in being able to participate are reminded that four classes, the first of which was held last night, will be held at St. Catherine's Church on Wednesday evenings, Sept. 14, 21 and 28 at 7 p.m. Classes will be for 1 1/2 hours. The sessions will be conducted by Fathers Coyne, Mottau and Casey.

Each person taking classes will need a copy of his/her baptism record. If someone is going to be baptized or receive his/her First Communion, it will be celebrated prior to Confirmation.

These classes are open to all Charlestown residents and their friends.

For more information, call Father Coyne at 242-1750.

NORTH END CHIROPRACTIC

Kevin J. Loughlin, D.C.

414 Commercial St., Unit 1-A, Boston, Mass 617-742-5797

◆ Bunker Hill's "A" Team . . . Thank you to my Massport Summer Job Workers who made the first Rainbow Summer Program a success - Mike Erardi, Jimmy Yandle, Luis Rivera, Jimmy Saccardo, Janice Casey, Greg Staples and Sean Getchell. You gave 40 young people a great summer. Special thank you to Mike Erardi and Jimmy Yandle, who also made our Bunker Hill Teen Leagues a go.

◆ Hockey Time . . . Mike Erardi, Jimmy Yandle, Greg McNeil and Greg Staples got a glimpse of some of the area's top NHL players when they visited the Pro-Am Developmental Camp at Boston University. Kevin Stevens, Teddy Donato, Tony Amonte, Brian Noonan and Steve Heinze were some of the players involved in the pre-training training camp.

◆ High School Notebook . . . Don Bosco Football moves back into the Catholic Conference this season after a two-year independent schedule. The Bears open the '94 season at St. John's Prep on Saturday, Sept. 17. Pope John football rooters can get a preview look at the Tigers, who will take part in the Hofferan Football Jamboree, this Friday evening, Sept. 9 at the Manning Bowl in Lynn. Danvers is the 8:30 p.m. opponent.

◆ A September To Remember . . . Summer was busy, but fall is here. September will see a lot of events. Pop Warner Football gets underway, the second annual "Dunny Cup" Jimmy Donovan Ball Hockey Tournament and the Bryan McGonagle Street Hockey Tournament are on the calendar. Also, Camp Bunker Hill will have a major fund raiser.

◆ Converse Exhibition . . . Jimmy Yandle, Mike Erardi, Dave Hurley, Bob Yandle, Greg Staples and Andrew Ray joined some young people from the Old Colony Development and played a friendly basketball game with some more young people from the Mary Ellen McCormack Development in South Boston. The result was a fine day of hoop and the realization that Charlestown and Southie really do have a lot in common. Thanks to Converse who presented each player with a pair of sneakers valued at $90. Also, special thanks to BHA Southie Coordinator Jake Manning for the invitation extended to our Bunker Hill boys.

SEPTEMBER also means back to school and you can see by their smiles that (from l. to r.) Colleen Walsh, Courtney McLaughlin and Christine Locke "can't wait" for the doors to reopen.

◆ Charlestown Pride . . . Old Colony Basketball League Playoffs will take place on Sunday, Sept. 11. Charlestown Pride will battle Sidewalk Cafe at 6 p.m. in what should be quite a basketball game.

◆ CHAD . . . CHARlestown Against Drugs (CHAD) will meet tomorrow, Friday, Sept. 9 at noon at the Boys & Girls Club.

◆ Bunker Hill Girls Ball Hockey . . . As we enter playoff week, we thank all the girls who participated in the 1994 Bunker Hill Girls Hockey League. Teams and participants included:

Bunker Hill - Katie O'Leary, Bonnie O'Leary, Shannon Casey, Janice Casey, Shannon Anzalone, Cindy Campbell, Amanda Fornash, Sharon Wallace, Jill Doherty, Monique Matarazzo, Dianne Ferreira, Tegan Leonard, Kristen Murphy and Deana O'Connor.

The Lancers - Laureen Jones, Nicole Matson, Courtney McLaughlin, Colleen Walsh, Sue Wrenn, Patty Ann Suprey, Erin McDonough, Christine Locke and Lynn Anthony.

Newtowne - Dina Duraes, Michelle Macomber, Janell Pappas, Kristen Powers, Kelley Whelan, Bridgette Centola, Kelly Mahan, Jessica Baker, Jessica Sweeney, Shannon McLaughlin, Cheryl Lyman and Fran Armstrong.

Parkies - Shannon Lawler, Cheryl Collins, Corey Gallagher, Peggy Suprey, Elaine Harty, Mary Kay Tkachuk, Jolie O'Brien, Maureen Wedge, Melissa Doherty and Stephanie Walsh.

King Club - Nancy King, Kathleen King, Teresa King, Amy King, Gert Dagle, Fran Dagle, Kathy Kacvinsky, Tina Lyons, Diane Gandolfo, Kristen Patruce, Debbie Adduci and Liz Hanscom.

Tidbits . . .
- Good to see Stephen Mahan, who is home on leave from the military.

- Alexis is off to college!
- Greg McNeil is still waiting.

Smile!

Benefit In Memory Of 'Cricket' Dillon
Raises Funds For Charlestown Youth Hockey

Thank You, Everyone!

The sound of Irish music and bagpipes flowed from the Knights of Columbus hall on Aug. 19 in memory of Jimmy "Cricket" Dillon. Inside the hall, a standing-room-only crowd contributed over $3,700 to Charlestown Youth Hockey.

As at any benefit or function that raises that kind of money, we have many people to thank: Gloria Conway, for the advertising in the Patriot, you're always there; Jack Dalton, the Irish singer and entertainer; Fathers Daniel Mahoney and Ron Coyne; the Collier family for the great food; John Alvino and the LaPiccola Venezia Restaurant for the great food they supplied; and Sandra Griffin, who gave up her day and night to cater, and what a beautiful hors d'oeuvres table she created. Our family will always be indebted to you.

Also, thank you to Danny Evers, no matter what we ask Danny to do or get, he ends up solving the problem. Thanks, Dan. Thanks to Joanne McNeil, who donated the champagne basket in her brother Brendan's name - you are the best. Joanne not only collected the money for the raffles, but when she won the half and half raffle, she donated the $250 she won to Charlestown Youth Hockey. Thanks also to Tommy Fitzgerald for the autographed hockey stick.

Also, our thanks to Lisa Hanlon, Leslie Borden and John Crilley who helped organize the whole thing; the Haggerty Family for their special contribution; Matt from Weymouth for the beautiful pens with Cricket's name on them; the 99 Restaurant & Pub for the gift certificate; and Salon 44 for its gift.

Our thanks to Diane Modica, District One Boston City Councillor and Eve Piemonte Stacey, candidate for Clerk of Suffolk County Superior Court for Criminal Business for their contributions; to the Dillon and Murray families, especially Karen Paley, who danced the highland fling; the bagpipers, - Mike Giordano, Ken Giordano, Pat McClellan and Pat McDonald, - these guys were fantastic, the best anybody ever heard, and not only would they not take any money, but the four of them pooled their own money and made a contribution to Charlestown Youth Hockey.

Thanks to Julia Hormann for her many hours of hard work putting this together; and the Knights of Columbus for letting us use the hall - that was really nice of you.

A very big thank you to Francis Kirk for videotaping the party and being the very special person that he is.

And last, but not least, to my son John Jr. - I am so proud of you and I know that Cricket is too. The love you feel for Cricket helps the family get through each day.

In closing, I would like to say that Charlestown Youth Hockey does a wonderful job teaching our kids to skate and play hockey. If you missed Cricket's time and feel you would like to contribute, you can make your check payable to: Charlestown Youth Hockey, c/o The Charlestown Patriot, One Thompson Square, Charlestown, Mass. 02129. You'll make some Charlestown youth very happy.

Sincerely,
John Dillon

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.*

ABCD Surplus Food Distribution In Charlestown On Sept. 21

Action for Boston Community Development Inc., (ABCD) and The Kennedy Center announce that Surplus Food will be distributed in Charlestown on Wednesday, Sept. 21. The federally-funded program distributes FREE food to income-eligible Charlestown residents. The distribution will be from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Old Kent School, 23 Moulton St.

ABCD expects to distribute peaches, raisins, rice, peanut butter and double butter during this distribution. However, they cannot guarantee that all commodities will be available from the government.

All food must be distributed the same day it reaches the distribution facility. Leftover food will be sent to local food pantries, shelters and food kitchens. If food runs out, the distribution for the site is over.

All surplus food recipients must have new registration cards with them when they pick up their food. If you do not have a red, white or green card, you MUST contact The Kennedy Center at 27 Winthrop St. and show proof of income-eligibility to receive a new card, or call 241-8866. Self declarations are no longer accepted.

If you receive benefits from any of the following programs, you are eligible to receive free surplus food: Veterans' Benefits; Fuel Assistance; Food Stamps; SSI; Welfare; Women, Infants and Children (WIC); Head Start; AFDC; or Medicaid-MassHealth (not Medicare). If you don't receive any of these benefits, call the Surplus Food Hotline at 357-6000, ext. 239, to find out if you are eligible to receive surplus food.

PROFESSIONAL DISPOSAL

BARRY DISPOSAL uses trucks for disposal services that cost less than companies using rented container disposal outfits.

John Barry, owner of Barry Disposal, does the jobs most people can't or won't do themselves, as well as anybody you can find and for lower prices.

"We do residential and commercial clean-outs of condos, offices, factories — you name it," he says. "We pick up the load, whether it's one piece of furniture, 100 items or the whole house." He strives to get tough work done right as quickly as possible.

In an age when illegal dumping is rampant, John is licensed by the Department of Public Utilities to dump at legal landfills and refuse areas, and is insured while many others aren't. He pays the DPU for proper removal and disposal of tanks and boilers, considered hazardous waste.

Barry Disposal will dispose of a mass of debris for home owners and businesses. "I take things people usually find hard to remove by themselves, like metal or furniture," says John. He will also do commercial and residential construction.

John and his crews use trucks, saving customers money. Since he uses trucks for hauling, customers only pay for the weight on the trucks and not for a container rental. He performs same-day service.

"I can get there quickly," he says, "and I call people back to set up and confirm appointments. I don't care if it's raining or dark, I'm trying to run a business the way it ought to be run."

John — who has a phone in his truck — is on call 24-hours a day, seven days a week for customer convenience. "We'll load any time of day, especially if there's an emergency," he says. You may call Barry Disposal, the residential and commercial specialist, at 246-7762.
