(Eze 26:2) Son of man, because Sor has said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is crushed: the nations are destroyed: she is turned to me: she that was full is made desolate:

(Eze 26:3) therefore thus saith YHVH; Behold, I am against thee, O Sor, and I will bring up many nations against thee, as the sea comes up with its waves.

(Eze 26:4) And they shall cast down the walls of Sor, and shall cast down thy towers: and I will scrape her dust from off her, and make her a bare rock.

(Eze 26:5) She shall be in the midst of the sea a place for repairing nets: for I have spoken it, saith YHVH: and it shall be a spoil for the nations.

(Eze 26:6) And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain with the sword, and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 26:7) For thus saith YHVH; Behold, I will bring up against thee, O Sor, Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon from the north: he is a king of kings, with horses, and chariots, and horsemen, and a concourse of very many nations.

(Eze 26:8) He shall slay thy daughters that are in the field with the sword, and shall set a watch against thee, and build forts around thee, and carry a rampart round against thee, and set up warlike works, and array his spears against thee.

(Eze 26:9) He shall cast down with his swords thy walls and thy towers.

(Eze 26:10) By reason of thy multitude of his horses their dust shall cover thee, and by reason of the sound of his horsemen and the wheels of his chariots the walls shall be shaken, when he enters into thy gates, as one entering into a city from the plain.

(Eze 26:11) With the hoofs of his horses they shall trample all thy streets: he shall slay thy people with the sword, and shall bring down to the ground the support of thy strength.

(Eze 26:12) And he shall prey upon thy power, and plunder thy substance, and shall cast down thy walls, and break down thy pleasant houses: and he shall cast thy stones and thy timber and thy dust into the midst of thy sea.

(Eze 26:13) And he shall destroy the multitude of thy musicians, and the sound of thy psalteries shall be heard no more.

(Eze 26:14) And I will make thee a bare rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I YHVH have spoken it, saith YHVH.

(Eze 26:15) For thus saith YHVH Elohim to Sor; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, while the wounded are groaning, while they have drawn a sword in the midst of thee?

(Eze 26:16) And all the princes of the nations of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and shall take off their crowns from their heads, and shall take off their embroidered raiment: they shall be utterly amazed; they shall sit upon the ground, and fear their own destruction, and shall groan over thee.

(Eze 26:17) And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and shall say to thee, How art thou destroyed from out of the sea, the renowned city, that brought her terror upon all her inhabitants.

(Eze 26:19) For thus saith YHVH Elohim; When I shall make the city desolate, as the cities that shall not be inhabited, when I have brought the deep up upon thee,

(Eze 26:20) and great waters shall cover thee; and I shall bring thee down to them that go down to the pit, to the people of old time, and shall cause thee to dwell in the depths of the earth, as in everlasting desolation, with them that go down to the pit, that thou mayest not be inhabited, nor stand upon the land of life;

(Eze 26:21) I will make thee a destruction, and thou shalt be no more for ever, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 27:1) And the word of YHVH came to me saying,

(Eze 27:2) And thou, son of man, take up a lamentation against Sor;

(Eze 27:3) and thou shalt say to Sor that dwells at the entrance of the sea, to the mart of the nations coming from many islands, Thus saith YHVH to Sor; Thou hast said, I have clothed myself with my beauty.

(Eze 27:4) In the heart of the sea thy sons have put beauty upon thee for Beelim.

(Eze 27:5) Cedar in Senir was employed for thee in building: boards of cypress timber were taken out of Libanus, and wood to make thee masts of fir.

(Eze 27:6) They made thine oars of wood out of the land of Basan; thy sacred utensils they made of ivory, thy shady houses of wood from the isles of Chetiim.

(Eze 27:7) Fine linen with embroidery from Egypt supplied the couch, to put honour upon thee, and to clothe thee with blue and purple from the isles of Elisai; and they became thy coverings.

(Eze 27:8) And thy princes were the dwellers in Sidon, and the Aradians were thy rowers: thy wise men, O Sor, who were in thee, these were thy pilots.

(Eze 27:9) The elders of the Biblians, and their wise men, who were in thee, these helped thy counsel: and all the ships of the sea and their rowers traded for thee to the utmost west.

(Eze 27:10) Persians and Lydians and Libyans were in thine army: thy warriors hung in thee shields and helmets; these gave thee thy glory.

(Eze 27:11) The sons of the Aradians and thine army were upon the walls; there were guards in thy towers: they hung their quivers on thy battlements round about; these completed thy beauty.

(Eze 27:12) The Carthaginians were thy merchants because of the abundance of all thy strength; they furnished thy market with silver, and gold, and iron, and tin, and lead.

(Eze 27:13) Greece, both the whole world, and the adjacent coasts, these traded with thee in the persons of men, and they gave as thy merchandise vessels of brass.

(Eze 27:14) Out of the house of Thogarma horses and horsemen furnished the market.

(Eze 27:15) The sons of the Rhodians were thy merchants; from the islands they multiplied thy merchandise, even elephants' teeth: and to them that came in thou didst return thy prices,

(Eze 27:16) even men as thy merchandise, from the multitude of thy trading population, myrrh and embroidered works from Tharsis: Ramoth also and Chorchor furnished thy market.

(Eze 27:17) Juda and the children of Israel, these were thy merchants; in the sale of corn and ointments and cassia: and they gave the best honey, and oil, and resin, to thy trading population.

(Eze 27:18) The people of Damascus were thy merchants by reason of the abundance of all thy power; wine out of Chelbon, and wool from Miletus; and they brought wine into thy market.

(Eze 27:19) Out of Asel came wrought iron, and there is the sound of wheels among thy trading population.

(Eze 27:20) The people of Daedan were thy merchants, with choice cattle for chariots.

(Eze 27:21) Arabia and all the princes of Kedar, these were thy traders with thee, bringing camels, and lambs, and rams, in which they trade with thee.

(Eze 27:22) The merchants of Sabba and Ramma, these were thy merchants, with choice spices, and precious stones: and they brought gold to thy market.

(Eze 27:23) Charra, and Chanaa, these were thy merchants: Assur, and Charman, were thy merchants:

(Eze 27:24) bringing for merchandise blue, and choice stores bound with cords, and cypress wood.

(Eze 27:25) Ships were thy merchants, in abundance, with thy trading population: and thou wast filled and very heavily loaded in the heart of the sea.

(Eze 27:26) Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the south wind has broken thee in the heart of the sea.

(Eze 27:27) Thy forces, and thy gain, and that of thy traders, and thy rowers, and thy pilots, and thy counselors, and they that traffic with thee, and all thy warriors that are in thee: and all thy company in the midst of thee shall perish in the heart of the sea, in the day of thy fall.

(Eze 27:29) And all the rowers and the mariners shall come down from the ships, and the pilots of the sea shall stand on the land.

(Eze 27:30) And they shall wail over thee with their voice, and cry bitterly, and put earth on their heads, and spread ashes under them.

(Eze 27:32) And their sons shall take up a lament for thee, even a lamentation for Sor, saying, (Eze 27:33) How large a reward hast thou gained from the sea? thou hast filled nations out of thine abundance; and out of thy mixed merchandise thou hast enriched all the kings of the earth.

(Eze 27:34) Now art thou broken in the sea, thy traders are in the deep water, and all thy company in the midst of thee: all thy rowers have fallen.

(Eze 27:35) All the dwellers in the islands have mourned over thee, and their kings have been utterly amazed, and their countenance has wept.

(Eze 27:36) Merchants from the nations have hissed at thee; thou art utterly destroyed, and shalt not be any more for ever.

(Eze 28:1) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 28:2) And thou, son of man, say to the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith YHVH; Because thine heart has been exalted, and thou hast said, I am Elohim, I have inhabited the dwelling of Elohim in the heart of the sea; yet thou art man and not Elohim, though thou hast set thine heart as the heart of Elohim:

(Eze 28:3) art thou wiser than Daniel? or have not the wise instructed thee with their knowledge?

(Eze 28:4) Hast thou gained power for thyself by thine own knowledge or thine own prudence, and gotten gold and silver in thy treasures?

(Eze 28:5) By thy abundant knowledge and thy traffic thou hast multiplied thy power; thy heart has been lifted up by thy power.

(Eze 28:6) Therefore thus saith YHVH; Since thou hast set thine heart as the hart of Elohim;

(Eze 28:7) because of this, behold, I will bring on thee strange plagues from the nations; and they shall draw their swords against thee, and against the beauty of thy knowledge,

(Eze 28:8) and they shall bring down thy beauty to destruction. And they shall bring thee down; and thou shalt die the death of the slain in the heart of the sea.

(Eze 28:9) Wilt thou indeed say, I am Elohim, before them that slay thee? whereas thou art man, and not Elohim.

(Eze 28:10) Thou shalt perish by the hands of strangers among the multitude of the uncircumcised: for I have spoken it, saith YHVH.

(Eze 28:11) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 28:12) Son of man, take up a lamentation for the prince of Tyre, and say to him, Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Thou art a seal of resemblance, and crown of beauty.

(Eze 28:13) Thou wast in the delight of the paradise of Elohim; thou hast bound upon thee every precious stone, the sardius, and topaz, and emerald, and carbuncle, and sapphire, and jasper, and silver, and gold, and ligure, and agate, and amethyst, and chrysolite, and beryl, and onyx: and thou hast filled thy treasures and thy stores in thee with gold.

(Eze 28:14) From the day that thou wast created thou wast with the cherub: I set thee on the holy mount of Elohim; thou wast in the midst of the stones of fire.

(Eze 28:15) Thou wast faultless in thy days, from the day that thou wast created, until iniquity was found in thee.

(Eze 28:16) Of the abundance of thy merchandise thou hast filled thy storehouses with iniquity, and hast sinned: therefore thou hast been cast down wounded from the mount of Elohim, and the cherub has brought thee out of the midst of the stones of fire.

(Eze 28:17) Thy heart has been lifted up because of thy beauty; thy knowledge has been corrupted with thy beauty: because of the multitude of thy sins I have cast thee to the ground, I have caused thee to be put to open shame before kings.

(Eze 28:18) Because of the multitude of thy sins and the iniquities of thy merchandise, I have profaned thy sacred things; and I will bring fire out of the midst of thee, this shall devour thee; and I will make thee to be ashes upon thy land before all that see thee.

(Eze 28:19) And all that know thee among the nations shall groan over thee: thou art gone to destruction, and thou shalt not exist any more.

(Eze 28:20) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 28:21) Son of man, set thy face against Sidon, and prophesy against it,

(Eze 28:22) and say, Thus saith YHVH; Behold, I am against thee, O Sidon; and I will be glorified in thee; and thou shalt know that I am YHVH, when I have wrought judgments in thee, and I will be sanctified in thee.

(Eze 28:23) Blood and death shall be in thy streets; and men wounded with swords shall fall in thee and on every side of thee; and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 28:24) And there shall no more be in the house of Israel a thorn of bitterness and a pricking briar proceeding from them that are round about them, who dishonoured them; and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 28:25) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; I will also gather Israel from the nations, among whom they have been scattered, and I will be sanctified among them, and before the peoples and nations: and they shall dwell upon their land, which I gave to my servant Jacob.

(Eze 28:26) Yea, they shall dwell upon it safely, and they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and dwell securely, when I shall execute judgment on all that have dishonoured them, even on those that are round about them; and they shall know that I am YHVH their Elohim, and the Elohim of their fathers.

(Eze 29:1) In the twelfth year, in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 29:2) Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against the whole of Egypt:

(Eze 29:3) and say, Thus saith YHVH; Behold, I am against Pharaoh, the great dragon that lies in the midst of his rivers, that says, The rivers are mine, and I made them.

(Eze 29:4) And I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy river to stick to thy sides, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy river:

(Eze 29:5) and I will quickly cast down thee and all the fish of thy river: thou shalt fall on the face of the plain, and shalt by no means be gathered, and shalt not be brought together: I have given thee for food to the wild beasts of the earth and to the fowls of the sky.

(Eze 29:6) And all the dwellers in Egypt shall know that I am YHVH, because thou hast been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

(Eze 29:7) When they took hold of thee with their hand, thou didst break: and when every hand was clapped against them, and when they leaned on thee, thou wast utterly broken, and didst crush the loins of them all.

(Eze 29:8) Therefore thus saith YHVH; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and will cut off from thee man and beast;

(Eze 29:9) and the land of Egypt shall be ruined and desert; and they shall know that I am YHVH; because thou sayest, The rivers are mine, and I made them.

(Eze 29:10) Therefore, behold, I am against thee, and against all thy rivers, and I will give up the land of Egypt to desolation, and the sword, and destruction, from Magdol and Syene even to the borders of the Ethiopians.

(Eze 29:11) No foot of man shall pass through it, and no foot of beast shall pass through it, and it shall not be inhabited for forty years.

(Eze 29:12) And I will cause her land to be utterly destroyed in the midst of a land that is desolate, and her cities shall be desolate forty years in the midst of cities that are desolate: and I will disperse Egypt among the nations, and will utterly scatter them into the countries.

(Eze 29:13) Thus saith YHVH; After forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations among whom they have been scattered;

(Eze 29:14) and I will turn the captivity of the Egyptians, and will cause them to dwell in the land of Phathore, in the land whence they were taken;

(Eze 29:15) and it shall be a base kingdom beyond all other kingdoms; it shall not any more be exalted over the nations; and I will make them few in number, that they may not be great among the nations.

(Eze 29:16) And they shall no more be to the house of Israel a confidence bringing iniquity to remembrance, when they follow after them; and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 29:17) And it came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 29:18) Son of man, Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre; every head was bald, and every shoulder peeled; yet there was no reward to him or to his army serving against Tyre, nor for the service wherewith they served against it.

(Eze 29:19) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Behold, I will give to Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon the land of Egypt, and he shall take the plunder thereof, and seize the spoils thereof; and it shall be a reward for his army.

(Eze 29:20) In return for his service wherewith he served against Tyre, I have given him the land of Egypt; thus saith YHVH Elohim:

(Eze 29:21) In that day shall a horn spring forth for all the house of Israel, and I will give thee an open mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 30:1) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 30:2) Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith YHVH; Woe, woe worth the day!

(Eze 30:3) For the day of YHVH is nigh, a day of cloud; it shall be the end of the nations.

(Eze 30:4) And the sword shall come upon the Egyptians, and there shall be tumult in Ethiopia, and in Egypt men shall fall down slain together, and her foundations shall fall.

(Eze 30:5) Persians, and Cretans, and Lydians, and Libyans, and all the mixed multitude, and they of the children of my covenant, shall fall by the sword therein.

(Eze 30:6) And the supports of Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her strength shall come down from Magdol to Syene: they shall fall by the sword in it, saith YHVH.

(Eze 30:7) And it shall be made desolate in the midst of desolate countries, and their cities shall be desolate in the midst of desolate cities:

(Eze 30:8) and they shall know that I am YHVH, when I shall send fire upon Egypt, and when all that help her shall be broken.

(Eze 30:9) In that day shall messengers go forth hasting to destroy Ethiopia utterly, and there shall be tumult among them in the day of Egypt: for, behold it comes.

(Eze 30:10) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; I will also destroy the multitude of the Egyptians by the hand of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon,

(Eze 30:11) his hand and his people's; they are plagues sent forth from the nations to destroy the land: and they all shall unsheath their swords against

Egypt, and the land shall be filled with slain.

(Eze 30:12) And I will make their rivers desolate, and will destroy the land and the fulness of it by the hands of strangers: I YHVH have spoken.

(Eze 30:13) For thus saith YHVH Elohim; I will also destroy the nobles from Memphis, and the princes of Memphis out of the land of Egypt; and they shall be no more.

(Eze 30:14) And I will destroy the land of Phathore, and will send fire upon Tanis, and will execute vengeance on Diospolis.

(Eze 30:15) And I will pour out my wrath upon Sais the strength of Egypt, and will destroy the multitude of Memphis.

(Eze 30:16) And I will send fire upon Egypt; and Syene shall be sorely troubled; and there shall be a breaking in Diospolis, and waters shall be poured out.

(Eze 30:17) The youths of Heliopolis and Bubastum shall fall by the sword, and the women shall go into captivity.

(Eze 30:18) And the day shall be darkened in Taphnae, when I have broken there the scepters of Egypt: and the pride of her strength shall perish there: and a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall be taken prisoners.

(Eze 30:19) And I will execute judgment on Egypt; and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 30:20) And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 30:21) Son of man, I have broken the arms of Pharao, king of Egypt; and, behold, it has not been bound up to be healed, to have a plaster put upon it, or to be strengthened to lay hold of the sword.

(Eze 30:22) Therefore thus saith YHVH Elohim; Behold, I am against Pharao king of Egypt, and I will break his strong and outstretched arms, and will smite down his sword out of his hand.

(Eze 30:23) And I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations, and will utterly scatter them among the countries.

(Eze 30:24) And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword into his hand: and he shall bring it upon Egypt, and shall take her plunder and seize her spoils.

(Eze 30:25) Yea, I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharao shall fail: and they shall know that I am YHVH, when I have put my sword into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out over the land of Egypt.

(Eze 30:26) And I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations, and utterly scatter them among the countries; and they all shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 31:1) And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of YHVH came to me, saying, (Eze 31:2) Son of man, say to Pharao king of Egypt, and to his multitude; To whom hast thou compared thyself in thy haughtiness?

(Eze 31:3) Behold, the Assyrian was a cypress in Libanus, and was fair in shoots, and high in stature: his top reached to the midst of the clouds.

(Eze 31:4) The water nourished him, the depth made him grow tall; she led her rivers round about his plants, and she sent forth her streams to all the trees of the field.

(Eze 31:5) Therefore was his stature exalted above all the trees of the field, and his branches spread far by the help of much water.

(Eze 31:6) All the birds of the sky made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches all the wild beasts of the field bred; the whole multitude of nations dwelt under his shadow.

(Eze 31:7) And he was fair in his height by reason of the multitude of his branches: for his roots were amidst much water.

(Eze 31:8) And such cypresses as this were in the paradise of Elohim; and there were no pines like his shoots, and there were no firs like his branches: no tree in the paradise of Elohim was like him in his beauty, (Eze 31:9) because of the multitude of his branches: and the trees of Elohim's paradise of delight envied him.

(Eze 31:10) Therefore thus saith YHVH; Because thou art grown great, and hast set thy top in the midst of the clouds, and I saw when he was exalted;

(Eze 31:11) therefore I delivered him into the hands of the prince of the nations, and he wrought his destruction.

(Eze 31:12) And ravaging strangers from the nations have destroyed him, and have cast him down upon the mountains: his branches fell in all the valleys, and his boughs were broken in every field of the land; and all the people of the nations are gone down from their shelter, and have laid him low.

(Eze 31:13) All the birds of the sky have settled on his fallen trunk, and all the wild beasts of the field came upon his boughs:

(Eze 31:14) in order that none of the trees by the water should exalt themselves by reason of their size: whereas they set their top in the midst of the clouds, yet they continued not in their high state in their place, all that drank water, all were consigned to death, to the depth of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

(Eze 31:15) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; In the day wherein he went down to Hades, the deep mourned for him: and I stayed her floods, and restrained her abundance of water: and Libanus saddened for him, all the trees of the field fainted for him.

(Eze 31:16) At the sound of his fall the nations quaked, when I brought him down to Hades with them that go down to the pit: and all the trees of Delight comforted him in the heart, and the choice of plants of Libanus, all that drink water.

(Eze 31:17) For they went down to hell with him among the slain with the sword; and his seed, even they that dwelt under his shadow, perished in the midst of their life.

(Eze 31:18) To whom art thou compared? descend, and be thou debased with the trees of paradise to the depth of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain by the sword. Thus shall Pharaoh be, and the multitude of his host, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 32:1) And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, that the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 32:2) Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him, Thou art become like a lion of the nations, and as a serpent that is in the sea: and thou didst make assaults with thy rivers, and didst disturb the water with thy feet, and didst trample thy rivers.

(Eze 32:3) Thus saith YHVH; I will also cast over thee the nets of many nations, and will bring thee up with my hook:

(Eze 32:4) and I will stretch thee upon the earth: the fields shall be covered with thee, and I will cause all the birds of the sky to settle upon thee, and I will fill with thee all the wild beasts of the earth.

(Eze 32:5) And I will cast thy flesh upon the mountains, and will saturate them with thy blood.

(Eze 32:6) And the land shall be drenched with thy dung, because of thy multitude upon the mountains: I will fill the valleys with thee.

(Eze 32:7) And I will veil the heavens when thou art extinguished, and will darken the stars thereof; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

(Eze 32:8) All the bodies that give light in the sky, shall be darkened over thee, and I will bring darkness upon the earth, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 32:9) And I will provoke to anger the heart of many people, when I shall lead thee captive among the nations, to a land which thou hast not known.

(Eze 32:10) And many nations shall mourn over thee, and their kings shall be utterly amazed, when my sword flies in their faces, as they wait for their own fall from the day of thy fall.

(Eze 32:11) For thus saith YHVH Elohim; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee, (Eze 32:12) with the swords of mighty men; and I will cast down thy strength: they are all destroying ones from the nations, and they shall destroy the pride of Egypt, and all her strength shall be crushed.

(Eze 32:13) And I will destroy all her cattle from beside the great water; and the foot of man shall not trouble it any more, and the step of cattle shall no more trample it.

(Eze 32:14) Thus shall their waters then be at rest, and their rivers shall flow like oil, saith YHVH, (Eze 32:15) when I shall give up Egypt to destruction, and the land shall be made desolate with the fullness thereof; when I shall scatter all that dwell in it, and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 32:16) There is a lamentation, and thou shalt utter it; and the daughters of the nations shall utter it, even for Egypt, and they shall mourn for it over all the strength thereof, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 32:17) And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of YHVH came to me, saying, (Eze 32:18) Son of man, lament over the strength of Egypt, for the nations shall bring down her daughters dead to the depth of the earth, to them that go down to the pit.

(Eze 32:20) They shall fall with him in the midst of them that are slain with the sword, and all his strength shall perish: the giants also shall say to thee, (Eze 32:21) Be thou in the depth of the pit: to whom art thou superior? yea, go down, and lie with the uncircumcised, in the midst of them that are slain with the sword.

(Eze 32:22) There are Assur and all his company: all his slain have been laid there:

(Eze 32:23) and their burial is in the depth of the pit, and his company are set around about his tomb: all the slain that fell by the sword, who had caused the fear of them to be upon the land of the living.

(Eze 32:24) There is Ælam and all his host round about his tomb: all the slain that fell by the sword, and the uncircumcised that go down to the deep of the earth, who caused their fear to be upon the land of the living: and they have received their punishment with them that go down to the pit, (Eze 32:25) in the midst of the slain.

(Eze 32:26) There were laid Mosoch, and Thobel, and all his strength round about his tomb: all his slain men, all the uncircumcised, slain with the sword, who caused their fear to be in the land of the living.

(Eze 32:27) And they are laid with the giants that fell of old, who went down to Hades with their weapons of war: and they laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities were upon their bones, because they terrified all men during their life.

(Eze 32:28) And thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that have been slain by the sword.

(Eze 32:29) There are laid the princes of Assur, who yielded their strength to a wound of the sword: these are laid with the slain, with them that go down to the pit.

(Eze 32:30) There are the princes of the north, even all the captains of Assur, who go down slain to Hades: they lie uncircumcised among the slain with the sword together with their terror and their strength, and they have received their punishment with them that go down to the pit.

(Eze 32:31) King Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all their force, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 32:32) For I have caused his fear to be upon the land of the living yet he shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh, and all his multitude with him, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 33:1) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 33:2) Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and thou shalt say to them, On whatsoever land I shall bring a sword, and the people of the land take one man of them, and set him for their watchman:

(Eze 33:3) and he shall see the sword coming upon the land, and blow the trumpet, and sound an alarm to the people;

(Eze 33:4) and he that hears the sound of the trumpet shall hear indeed, and yet not take heed, and the sword shall come upon him, and overtake him, his blood shall be upon his own head.

(Eze 33:5) Because he heard the sound of the trumpet, and took no heed, his blood shall be upon him: but the other, because he took heed, has delivered his soul.

(Eze 33:6) But if the watchman see the sword coming, and do not sound the trumpet, and the people do not watch; and the sword come, and take a soul from among them, that soul is taken because of its iniquity; but the blood thereof will I require at the watchman's hand.

(Eze 33:7) And thou, son of man, I have set thee as a watchman to the house of Israel, and thou shalt hear a word from my mouth.

(Eze 33:8) When I say to the sinner, Thou shalt surely die; if thou speak not to warn the wicked from his way, the wicked himself shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

(Eze 33:9) But if thou forewarn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he turn not from his way, he shall die in his ungodliness; but thou hast delivered thine own soul.

(Eze 33:10) And thou, son of man, say to the house of Israel; Thus have ye spoken, saying, Our errors, and our iniquities weigh upon us, and we pine away in them, and how then shall we live?

(Eze 33:11) Say to them, Thus saith YHVH; As I live, I desire not the death of the ungodly, as that the ungodly should turn from his way and live: turn ye heartily from your way; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

(Eze 33:12) Say to the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him, in the day wherein he errs: and the iniquity of the ungodly shall not harm him, in the day wherein he turns from his iniquity, but the righteous erring shall not be able to deliver himself.

(Eze 33:13) When I say to the righteous, Thou shalt live; and he trusts in his righteousness, and shall commit iniquity, none of his righteousnesses shall be remembered; in his unrighteousness which he has wrought, in it shall he die.

(Eze 33:14) And when I say to the ungodly, Thou shalt surely die; and he shall turn from his sin, and do judgment and justice, (Eze 33:15) and return the pledge, and repay that which he has robbed, and walk in the ordinances of life, so as to do no wrong; he shall surely live, and shall not die.

(Eze 33:16) None of his sins which he has committed shall be remembered: because he has wrought judgment and righteousness; by them shall he live.

(Eze 33:17) Yet the children of thy people will say, The way of YHVH is not straight: whereas this their way is not straight.

(Eze 33:18) When the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and shall commit iniquities, then shall he die in them.

(Eze 33:19) And when the sinner turns from his iniquity, and shall do judgment and righteousness, he shall live by them.

(Eze 33:20) And this is that which ye said, The way of YHVH is not straight. I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one for his ways.

(Eze 33:21) And it came to pass in the tenth year of our captivity, in the twelfth month, on the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped from Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city is taken.

(Eze 33:22) Now the hand of YHVH had come upon me in the evening, before he came; and he opened my mouth, when he came to me in the morning: and my mouth was open, it was no longer kept closed.

(Eze 33:23) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 33:24) Son of man, they that inhabit the desolate places on the land of Israel say, Abram was one, and he possessed the land: and we are more numerous; to us the land is given for a possession.

(Eze 33:27) Therefore say to them, Thus saith YHVH Elohim, As I live, surely they that are in the desolate places shall fall by swords and they that are in the open plain shall be given for food to the wild beasts of the field, and them that are in the fortified cities and them that are in the caves I will slay with pestilence.

(Eze 33:28) And I will make the land desert, and the pride of her strength shall perish; and the mountains of Israel shall be made desolate by reason of no man passing through.

(Eze 33:29) And they shall know that I am YHVH; and I will make their land desert, and it shall be made desolate because of all their abominations which they have wrought.

(Eze 33:30) And as for thee, son of man, the children of thy people are they that speak concerning thee by the walls, and in the porches of the houses, and they talk one to another, saying, Let us come together, and let us hear the words that proceed from YHVH.

(Eze 33:31) They approach thee as a people comes together, and sit before thee, and hear thy words, but they will not do them: for there is falsehood in their mouth, and their heart goes after their pollutions.

(Eze 33:32) And thou art to them as a sound of a sweet, well-tuned psaltery, and they will hear thy words, but they will not do them.

(Eze 33:33) But whenever it shall come to pass, they will say, Behold, it is come: and they shall know that there was a prophet in the midst of them.

(Eze 34:1) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 34:2) Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to the shepherds, Thus saith YHVH Elohim; O shepherds of Israel, do shepherds feed themselves? do not the shepherds feed the sheep?

(Eze 34:3) Behold, ye feed on the milk, and clothe yourselves with the wool, and slay the fat: but ye feed not my sheep.

(Eze 34:4) The weak one ye have not strengthened, and the sick ye have not cherished, and the bruised ye have not bound up, and the stray one ye have not turned back, and the lost ye have not sought; and the strong ye have wearied with labour.

(Eze 34:5) And my sheep were scattered, because there were no shepherds: and they became meat to all the wild beasts of the field.

(Eze 34:6) And my sheep were scattered on every mountain, and on every high hill: yea, they were scattered on the face of the earth, and there was none to seek them out, nor to bring them back.

(Eze 34:7) Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of YHVH.

(Eze 34:8) As I live, saith YHVH Elohim, surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became meat to all the wild beasts of the field, because there were no shepherds, and the shepherds sought not out my sheep, and the shepherds fed themselves, but fed not my sheep.

(Eze 34:9) For this cause, O shepherds,

(Eze 34:10) thus saith YHVH Elohim, Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hands, and will turn them back that they shall not feed my sheep, and the shepherds shall no longer feed them; and I will deliver my sheep out of their mouth, and they shall no longer be meat for them.

(Eze 34:11) For thus saith YHVH Elohim, Behold, I will seek out my sheep, and will visit them.

(Eze 34:12) As the shepherd seeks his flock, in the day when there is darkness and cloud, in the midst of the sheep that are separated: so will I seek out my sheep, and will bring them back from every place where they were scattered in the day of cloud and darkness.

(Eze 34:13) And I will bring them out from the Gentiles, and will gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land, and will feed them upon the mountains of Israel, and in the valleys, and in every inhabited place of the land.

(Eze 34:14) I will feed them in a good pasture, on a high mountain of Israel: and their folds shall be there, and they shall lie down, and there shall they rest in perfect prosperity, and they shall feed in a fat pasture on the mountains of Israel.

(Eze 34:15) I will feed my sheep, and I will cause them to rest; and they shall know that I am YHVH: thus saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 34:16) I will seek that which is lost, and I will recover the stray one, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen the fainting, and will guard the strong, and will feed them with judgment.

(Eze 34:17) And as for you, ye sheep, thus saith YHVH Elohim, Behold, I will distinguish between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

(Eze 34:18) And is it not enough for you that ye fed on the good pasture, that ye trampled with your feet the remnant of your pasture? and that ye drank the standing water, that ye disturbed the residue with your feet?

(Eze 34:19) So my sheep fed on that which ye had trampled with your feet; and they drank the water that had been disturbed by your feet.

(Eze 34:20) Therefore thus saith YHVH Elohim; Behold, I will separate between the strong sheep and the weak sheep.

(Eze 34:21) Ye did thrust with your sides and shoulders, and pushed with your horns, and ye cruelly treated all the sick.

(Eze 34:22) Therefore I will save my sheep, and they shall not be any more for a prey; and will judge between ram and ram.

(Eze 34:23) And I will raise up one shepherd over them, and he shall tend them, even my servant David, and he shall be their shepherd;

(Eze 34:24) and I YHVH will be to them a Elohim, and David a prince in the midst of them; I YHVH have spoken it.

(Eze 34:25) And I will make with David a covenant of peace and I will utterly destroy evil beasts from off the land; and they shall dwell in the wilderness, and sleep in the forests.

(Eze 34:26) And I will settle them round about my mountain; and I will give you the rain, the rain of blessing.

(Eze 34:27) And the trees that are in the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield her strength, and they shall dwell in the confidence of peace on their land, and they shall know that I am YHVH, when I have broken their yoke; and I will deliver them out of the hand of those that enslaved them.

(Eze 34:28) And they shall no more be a spoil to the nations, and the wild beasts of the land shall no more at all devour them; and they shall dwell safely, and there shall be none to make them afraid.

(Eze 34:29) And I will raise up for them a plant of peace, and they shall no more perish with hunger upon the land, and they shall no more bear the reproach of the nations.

(Eze 34:30) And they shall know that I am YHVH their Elohim, and they my people. O house of Israel, saith YHVH Elohim, (Eze 34:31) ye are my sheep, even the sheep of my flock, and I am YHVH your Elohim, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 35:1) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 35:2) Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, (Eze 35:3) and say to it, Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Behold, I am against thee, O mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against thee, and will make thee a waste, and thou shalt be made desolate.

(Eze 35:4) And I will cause desolation in thy cities, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 35:5) Because thou hast been a perpetual enemy, and hast laid wait craftily for the house of Israel, with the hand of enemies with a sword, in the time of injustice, at the last:

(Eze 35:6) Therefore, as I live, saith YHVH Elohim, verily thou hast sinned even to blood, therefore blood shall pursue thee.

(Eze 35:7) And I will make mount Seir a waste, and desolate, and I will destroy from off it men and cattle:

(Eze 35:8) and I will fill thy hills and thy valleys with slain men, and in all thy plains there shall fall in thee men slain with the sword.

(Eze 35:9) I will make thee a perpetual desolation, and thy cities shall not be inhabited any more: and thou shalt know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 35:10) Because thou saidst, The two nations and the two countries shall be mine, and I shall inherit them; whereas YHVH is there:

(Eze 35:11) therefore, as I live, saith YHVH, I will even deal with thee according to thine enmity, and I will be made known to thee when I shall judge thee:

(Eze 35:12) and thou shalt know that I am YHVH. I have heard the voice of thy blasphemies, whereas thou hast said, The desert mountains of Israel are given to us for food;

(Eze 35:13) and thou hast spoken swelling words against me with thy mouth: I have heard them.

(Eze 35:14) Thus saith YHVH; When all the earth is rejoicing, I will make thee desert.

(Eze 35:15) Thou shalt be desert, O mount Seir, and all Idumea; and it shall be utterly consumed: and thou shalt know that I am YHVH their Elohim.

(Eze 36:1) And thou, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say to the mountains of Israel, Hear ye the word of YHVH:

(Eze 36:2) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Because the enemy has said against you, Aha, the old waste places are become a possession for us:

(Eze 36:3) therefore prophesy, and say, Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Because ye have been dishonoured, and hated by those round about you, that ye might be a possession to the remainder of the nations, and ye became a by-word, and a reproach to the nations:

(Eze 36:4) therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of YHVH; Thus saith YHVH to the mountains, and to the hills, and to the streams, and to the valleys, and to the places that have been made desolate and destroyed, and to the cities that have been deserted, and have become a spoil and a trampling to the nations that were left round about;

(Eze 36:5) therefore, thus saith YHVH; Verily in the fire of my wrath have I spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Idumea, because they have appropriated my land to themselves for a possession with joy, disregarding the lives of the inhabitants, to destroy it by plunder:

(Eze 36:6) therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, and to the hills, and to the valleys, and to the forests, Thus saith YHVH; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because ye have borne the reproaches of the heathen:

(Eze 36:7) therefore I will lift up my hand against the nations that are round about you; they shall bear their reproach.

(Eze 36:8) But your grapes and your fruits, O mountains of Israel, shall my people eat; for they are hoping to come.

(Eze 36:9) For, behold, I am toward you, and I will have respect to you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

(Eze 36:10) and I will multiply men upon you, even all the house of Israel to the end: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the desolate land shall be built upon.

(Eze 36:11) And I will multiply men and cattle upon you; and I will cause you to dwell as at the beginning, and will treat you well, as in your former times: and ye shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 36:12) And I will increase men upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall inherit you, and ye shall be to them for a possession; and ye shall no more be bereaved of them.

(Eze 36:13) Thus saith YHVH Elohim: Because they said to thee, Thou land devourest men, and hast been bereaved of thy nation;

(Eze 36:14) therefore thou shalt no more devour men, and thou shalt no more bereave thy nation, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 36:15) And there shall no more be heard against you the reproach of the nations, and ye shall no more bear the revilings of the peoples, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 36:16) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 36:17) Son of man, the house of Israel dwelt upon their land, and defiled it by their way, and with their idols, and with their uncleannesses; and their way was before me like the uncleanness of a removed woman.

(Eze 36:18) So I poured out my wrath upon them:

(Eze 36:19) and I dispersed them among the nations, and utterly scattered them through the countries: I judged them according to their way and according to their sin.

(Eze 36:20) And they went in among the nations, among which they went, and they profaned my holy name, while it was said of them, These are the people of YHVH, and they came forth out of his land.

(Eze 36:21) But I spared them for the sake of my holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations, among whom they went.

(Eze 36:22) Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus saith YHVH; I do not this, O house of Israel, for your sakes, but because of my holy name, which ye have profaned among the nations, among whom ye went.

(Eze 36:23) And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the nations, which ye profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am YHVH, when I am sanctified among you before their eyes.

(Eze 36:24) And I will take you out from the nations, and will gather you out of all the lands, and will bring you into your own land:

(Eze 36:25) and I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be purged from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols, and I will cleanse you.

(Eze 36:26) And I will give you a new heart, and will put a new spirit in you: and I will take away the heart of stone out of your flesh, and will give you a heart of flesh.

(Eze 36:27) And I will put my Spirit in you, and will cause you to walk in mine ordinances, and to keep my judgments, and do them.

(Eze 36:28) And ye shall dwell upon the land which I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be to me a people, and I will be to you a Elohim.

(Eze 36:29) And I will save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and multiply it, and will not bring famine upon you.

(Eze 36:30) And I will multiply the fruit of the trees, and the produce of the field, that ye may not bear the reproach of famine among the nations.

(Eze 36:31) And ye shall remember your evil ways and your practices that were not good, and ye shall be hateful in your own sight for your transgressions and for your abominations.

(Eze 36:32) Not for your sakes do I this, saith YHVH Elohim, as it is known to you: be ye ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel.

(Eze 36:33) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; In the day wherein I shall cleanse you from all your iniquities I will also cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built upon:

(Eze 36:34) and the desolate land shall be cultivated, whereas it was desolate in the eyes of every one that passed by.

(Eze 36:35) And they shall say, That desolate land is become like a garden of delight; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are inhabited.

(Eze 36:36) And the nations, as many as shall have been left round about you, shall know that I YHVH have built the ruined cities and planted the waste lands: I YHVH have spoken, and will do it.

(Eze 36:37) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Yet for this will I be sought by the house of Israel, to establish them; I will multiply them even men as sheep;

(Eze 36:38) as holy sheep, as the sheep of Jerusalem in her feasts; thus shall the desert cities be full of flocks of men: and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 37:1) And the hand of YHVH came upon me, and YHVH brought me forth by the Spirit, and set me in the midst of the plain, and it was full of human bones.

(Eze 37:2) And he led me round about them every way: and, behold, there were very many on the face of the plain, very dry.

(Eze 37:3) And he said to me, Son of man, will these bones live? and I said, YHVH Elohim, thou knowest this.

(Eze 37:4) And he said to me, Prophecy upon these bones, and thou shalt say to them, Ye dry bones, hear the word of YHVH.

(Eze 37:5) Thus saith YHVH to these bones; Behold, I will bring upon you the breath of life:

(Eze 37:6) and I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and will spread skin upon you, and will put my Spirit into you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 37:7) So I prophesied as YHVH commanded me: and it came to pass while I was prophesying, that, behold, there was a shaking, and the bones approached each one to his joint.

(Eze 37:8) And I looked, and behold, sinews and flesh grew upon them, and skin came upon them above: but there was not breath in them.

(Eze 37:9) And he said to me, Prophecy to the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith YHVH; Come from the four winds, and breathe upon these dead men, and let them live.

(Eze 37:10) So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath entered into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, a very great congregation.

(Eze 37:11) And YHVH spoke to me, saying, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: and they say, Our bones are become dry, our hope has perished, we are quite spent.

(Eze 37:12) Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith YHVH; Behold, I will open your tombs, and will bring you up out of your tombs, and will bring you into the land of Israel.

(Eze 37:13) And ye shall know that I am YHVH, when I have opened your graves, that I may bring up my people from their graves.

(Eze 37:14) And I will put my Spirit within you, and ye shall live, and I will place you upon your own land: and ye shall know that I am YHVH; I have spoken, and will do it, saith YHVH.

(Eze 37:15) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 37:16) Son of man, take for thyself a rod, and write upon it, Juda, and the children of Israel his adherents; and thou shalt take for thyself another rod, and thou shalt inscribe it for Joseph, the rod of Ephraim, and all the children of Israel that belong to him.

(Eze 37:17) And thou shalt joint them together for thyself, so as that they should bind themselves into one stick; and they shall be in thine hand.

(Eze 37:18) And it shall come to pass, when the children of thy people shall say to thee, Wilt thou not tell us what thou meanest by these things?

(Eze 37:19) Then shalt thou say to them, Thus saith YHVH; behold, I will take the tribe of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel that belong to him, and I will add them to the tribe of Juda, and they shall become one rod in the hand of Juda.

(Eze 37:20) And the rods on which thou didst write shall be in thine hand in their presence.

(Eze 37:21) And thou shalt say to them, Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Behold, I will take the whole house of Israel out of the midst of the nations, among whom they have gone, and I will gather them from all that are round about them, and I will bring them into the land of Israel.

(Eze 37:22) And I will make them a nation in my land, even on the mountains of Israel; and they shall have one prince: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided any more at all into two kingdoms:

(Eze 37:23) that they may no more defile themselves with their idols; and I will deliver them from all their transgressions whereby they have sinned, and will cleanse them; and they shall be to me a people, and I YHVH will be to them a Elohim.

(Eze 37:24) And my servant David shall be a prince in the midst of them: there shall be one shepherd of them all; for they shall walk in mine ordinances, and keep my judgments, and do them.

(Eze 37:25) And they shall dwell in their land, which I have given to my servant Jacob, where their fathers dwelt; and they shall dwell upon it: and David my servant shall be their prince forever.

(Eze 37:26) And I will make with them a covenant of peace; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will establish my sanctuary in the midst of them for ever.

(Eze 37:27) And my tabernacle shall be among them; and I will be to them a Elohim, and they shall be my people.

(Eze 37:28) And the nations shall know that I am YHVH that sanctifies them, when my sanctuary is in the midst of them for ever.

(Eze 38:1) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Eze 38:2) Son of man, set thy face against Gog, and the land of Magog, Rhos, prince of Mesoch and Thobel, and prophesy against him,

(Eze 38:3) and say to him, Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Behold, I am against thee, Rhos prince of Mesoch and Thobel:

(Eze 38:4) and I will gather thee, and all thine host, horses and horsemen, all wearing breast-plates, with a great multitude, shields and helmets and swords:

(Eze 38:5) Persians, and Ethiopians, and Libyans; all with helmets and shields.

(Eze 38:6) Gomer, and all belonging to him; the house of Thorgama, from the end of the north, and all belonging to him; and many nations with thee.

(Eze 38:7) Be thou prepared, prepare thyself, thou, and all thy multitude that is assembled with thee, and thou shalt be to me for a guard.

(Eze 38:8) He shall be prepared after many days, and he shall come at the end of years, and shall come to a land that is brought back from the sword, when the people are gathered from many nations against the land of Israel, which was entirely desolate: and he is come forth out of the nations, and they shall all dwell securely.

(Eze 38:9) And thou shalt go up as rain, and shalt arrive as a cloud to cover the land, and there shall be thou, and all that are about thee, and many nations with thee.

(Eze 38:10) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; It shall also come to pass in that day, that thoughts shall come up into thine heart, and thou shalt devise evil devices.

(Eze 38:11) And thou shalt say, I will go up to the rejected land; I will come upon them that are at ease in tranquility, and dwelling in peace, all inhabiting a land in which there is no wall, nor bars, nor have they doors;

(Eze 38:12) to seize plunder, and to take their spoil; to turn my hands against the desolate land that is now inhabited, and against a nation that is gathered from many nations, that have acquired property, dwelling in the midst of the land.

(Eze 38:13) Sabba, and Daedan, and Carthaginian merchants, and all their villages shall say to thee, Thou art come for plunder to take a prey, and to get spoils: thou hast gathered thy multitude to take silver and gold, to carry off property, to take spoils.

(Eze 38:14) Therefore prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, Thus saith YHVH; Wilt thou not arise in that day, when my people Israel are dwelling securely, (Eze 38:15) and come out of thy place from the farthest north, and many nations with thee? all of them mounted on horses, a great gathering, and a large force?

(Eze 38:16) And thou shalt come up upon my people Israel as a cloud to cover the land; it shall come to pass in the last days, that I will bring thee up upon my land, that all the nations may know me, when I am sanctified in thee before them.

(Eze 38:17) Thus saith YHVH Elohim, to Gog; Thou art he concerning whom I spoke in former times, by the hand of my servants the prophets of Israel, in those days and years, that I would bring thee up against them.

(Eze 38:18) And it shall come to pass in that day, in the day when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith YHVH Elohim,

(Eze 38:19) that my wrath and my jealousy shall arise, I have spoken in the fire of mine anger, verily in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

(Eze 38:20) and the fish of the sea shall quake at the presence of YHVH, and the birds of the sky and the wild beasts of the field, and all the reptiles that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are on the face of the earth; and the mountains shall be rent, and the valleys shall fall, and every wall on the land shall fall.

(Eze 38:21) And I will summon against it even every fear, saith YHVH: the sword of every man shall be against his brother.

(Eze 38:22) And I will judge him with pestilence, and blood, and sweeping rain, and hailstones; and I will rain upon him fire and brimstone, and upon all that are with him, and upon many nations with him.

(Eze 38:23) And I will be magnified, and sanctified, and glorified; and I will be known in the presence of many nations, and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 39:1) And thou, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith YHVH; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, Rhos prince of Mesoch and Thobel:

(Eze 39:2) and I will assemble thee, and guide thee, and raise thee up on the extremity of the north, and I will bring thee up upon the mountains of Israel.

(Eze 39:3) And I will destroy the bow out of thy left hand, and thine arrows out of thy right hand, and I will cast thee down on the mountains of Israel;

(Eze 39:4) and thou and all that belong to thee shall fall, and the nations that are with thee shall be given to multitudes of birds, even to every fowl, and I have given thee to all the wild beasts of the field to be devoured.

(Eze 39:5) Thou shalt fall on the face of the field: for I have spoken it, saith YHVH.

(Eze 39:6) And I will send a fire upon Gog, and the islands shall be securely inhabited: and they shall know that I am YHVH.

(Eze 39:7) And my holy name shall be known in the midst of my people Israel; and my holy name shall no more be profaned: and the nations shall know that I am YHVH, the Holy One in Israel.

(Eze 39:8) Behold it is come, and thou shalt know that it shall be, saith YHVH Elohim; this is the day concerning which I have spoken.

(Eze 39:9) And they that inhabit the cities of Israel shall come forth, and make a fire with the arms, the shields and the spears, and bows and arrows, and hand-staves, and lances, and they shall keep fire burning with them for seven years:

(Eze 39:10) and they shall not take any wood out of the field, neither shall they cut any out of the forests, but they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall plunder those that plundered them, and spoil those that spoiled them, saith YHVH.

(Eze 39:11) And it shall come to pass that in that day I will give to Gog a place of renown, a tomb in Israel, the burial-place of them that approach the sea: and they shall build round about the outlet of the valley, and there they shall bury Gog and all his multitude: and the place shall then be called the burial-place of Gog.

(Eze 39:12) And the house of Israel shall bury them, that the land may be cleansed in the space of seven months.

(Eze 39:13) Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a place of renown in the day wherein it was glorified, saith YHVH.

(Eze 39:14) And they shall appoint men continually to go over the land, to bury them that have been left on the face of the earth, to cleanse it after the space of seven months, and they shall seek them out.

(Eze 39:15) And every one that goes through the land, and sees a man's bone, shall set up a mark by it, until the buriers shall have buried it in the valley, the burial place of Gog.

(Eze 39:16) For the name of the city shall be Burial-place: so shall the land be cleansed.

(Eze 39:17) And thou, son of man, say, Thus saith YHVH; Say to every winged bird, and to all the wild beasts of the field, Gather yourselves, and come; gather yourselves from all places round about to my sacrifice, which I have made for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, and ye shall eat flesh, and drink blood.

(Eze 39:18) Ye shall eat the flesh of mighty men, and ye shall drink the blood of princes of the earth, rams, and calves and goats, and they are all fatted calves.

(Eze 39:19) And ye shall eat fat till ye are full, and shall drink wine till ye are drunken, of my sacrifice which I have prepared for you.

(Eze 39:20) And ye shall be filled at my table, eating horse, and rider, and mighty man, and every warrior, saith YHVH.

(Eze 39:21) And I will set my glory among you, and all the nations shall see my judgment which I have wrought, and my hand which I have brought upon them.

(Eze 39:22) And the house of Israel shall know that I am YHVH their Elohim, from this day and onwards.

(Eze 39:23) And all the nations shall know that the house of Israel were led captive because of their sins, because they rebelled against me, and I turned away my face from them, and delivered them into the hands of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword.

(Eze 39:24) According to their uncleannesses and according to their transgressions did I deal with them, and I turned away my face from them.

(Eze 39:25) Therefore thus saith YHVH Elohim, Now will I turn back captivity in Jacob, and will have mercy on the house of Israel, and will be jealous for the sake of my holy name.

(Eze 39:26) And they shall bear their reproach, and the iniquity which they committed when they dwelt upon their land in peace. Yet there shall be none to terrify them

(Eze 39:27) when I have brought them back from the nations, and gathered them out of the countries of the nations: and I will be sanctified among them in the presence of the nations.

(Eze 39:28) And they shall know that I am YHVH their Elohim, when I have been manifested to them among the nations.

(Eze 39:29) And I will no more turn away my face from them, because I have poured out my wrath upon the house of Israel, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 40:1) And it came to pass in the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the first month, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the taking of the city, in that day the hand of YHVH was upon me, and brought me (Eze 40:2) in a vision of Elohim into the land of Israel, and set me on a very high mountain, and upon it there was as it were the frame of a city before me. (Eze 40:3) And he brought me in thither, and, behold, there was a man, and the appearance of him was as the appearance of shining brass, and in his hand was a builder's line, and a measuring reed; and he stood at the gate. (Eze 40:4) And the man said to me, Look with thine eyes at him whom thou hast seen, son of man, and hear with thine ears, and lay up in thine heart all things that I show thee; for thou hast come in hither that I might show thee, and thou shalt show all things that thou seest to the house of Israel. (Eze 40:5) And behold a wall round about the house without, and in the man's hand a reed, the measure of it was six cubits by the cubit, and a span: and he measured across the front wall; the breadth was equal to the reed, and the length of it equal to the reed. (Eze 40:6) And he entered by seven steps into the gate that looks eastward, and he measured across the porch of the gate equal to the reed. (Eze 40:7) And the chamber was equal in length to the reed, and equal in breadth to the reed; and the porch between the chambers six cubits; and the second chamber equal in breadth to the reed, and equal in length to the reed, and the porch five cubits. (Eze 40:8) And the third chamber equal in length to the reed, and equal in breadth to the reed. (Eze 40:9) And the porch of the gateway (near the porch of the gate) eight cubits; and the posts there of two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward: (Eze 40:10) and the chambers of the gate of the chamber in front were three on one side and three on the other, and there was one measure to the three: there was one measure to the porches on this side and on that. (Eze 40:11) And he measured the breadth of the door of the gateway, ten cubits; and the breadth of the gateway thirteen cubits. (Eze 40:12) And the space before the chambers was narrowed to a cubit in front of the chambers on this side and on that side: and the chamber was six cubits this way, and six cubits that way. (Eze 40:13) And he measured the gate from the wall of one chamber to the wall of the other chamber: the breadth was twenty-five cubits, the one gate over against the other gate. (Eze 40:14) And the open space of the porch of the gate without, was twenty cubits to the chambers round about the gate. (Eze 40:15) And the open space of the gate without to the open space of the porch of the gate within was fifty cubits. (Eze 40:16) And there were secret windows to the chambers, and to the porches within the gate of the court round about, and in the same manner windows to the porches round about within: and on the porch there were palm-trees on this side and on that side. (Eze 40:17) And he brought me into the inner court, and, behold, there were chambers, and peristyles round about the court; thirty chambers within the ranges of columns. (Eze 40:18) And the porticos were behind the gates; according to the length of the gates, was the lower peristyle.

(Eze 40:19) And he measured the breadth of the court, from the open space of the outer gate inwards to the open space of the gate looking outwards: a hundred cubits was the distance to the place of the gate looking eastward: and he brought me to the north;

(Eze 40:20) and behold a gate looking northwards belonging to the outer court, and he measured it, both the length of it and the breadth;

(Eze 40:21) and the chambers, three on this side and three on that; and the posts, and the porches, and the palm-trees thereof: and they were according to the measures of the gate that looks eastward: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof was twenty-five cubits.

(Eze 40:22) And its windows, and its porches, and its palm-trees, were according to the dimensions of the gate looking eastward; and they went up to it by seven steps; and the porches were within.

(Eze 40:23) And there was a gate to the inner court looking toward the north gate, after the manner of the gate looking toward the east; and he measured the court from gate to gate, a hundred cubits.

(Eze 40:24) And he brought me to the south side, and behold a gate looking southwards: and he measured it, and its chambers, and its posts, and its porches, according to these dimensions.

(Eze 40:25) And its windows and its porches round about were according to the windows of the porch: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof was five and twenty cubits.

(Eze 40:26) And it had seven steps, and porches within: and it had palm-trees on the posts, one on one side, and one on the other side.

(Eze 40:27) And there was a gate opposite the gate of the inner court southward: and he measured the court from gate to gate, a hundred cubits in breadth southward.

(Eze 40:28) And he brought me into the inner court of the south gate: and he measured the gate according to these measures;

(Eze 40:29) and the chambers, and the posts,

(Eze 40:30) and the porches, according to these measures: and there were windows to it and to the porches round about: its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits, (Eze 40:31) from the porch to the outer court: and there were palm-trees to the post thereof, and eight steps.

(Eze 40:32) And he brought me in at the gate that looks eastward: and he measured it according to these measures:

(Eze 40:33) and the chambers, and the posts, and the porches according to these measures: and there were windows to it, and porches round about: the length of it was fifty cubits, and the breadth of it twenty-five cubits.

(Eze 40:34) And there were porches opening into the inner court, and palm-trees on the posts on this side and on that side: and it had eight steps.

(Eze 40:35) And he brought me in at the northern gate, and measured it according to these measures;

(Eze 40:36) and the chambers, and the posts, and the porches: and it had windows round about, and it had its porches: the length of it was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits.

(Eze 40:37) And its porches were toward the inner court; and there were palm-trees to the posts on this side and on that side: and it had eight steps.

(Eze 40:38) Its chambers and its door-ways, and its porches at the second gate served as a drain, (Eze 40:39) that they might slay in it the sin-offerings, and the trespass-offerings.

(Eze 40:40) And behind the drain for the whole-burnt-offerings at the north gate, two tables eastward behind the second gate; and behind the porch of the gate two tables eastward.

(Eze 40:41) Four on one side and four on the other side behind the gate; upon them they kill the victims, in front of the eight tables of sacrifices.

(Eze 40:42) And there were four tables of hewn stone for whole-burnt-offerings, the breadth of them was a cubit and a half, and the length of them two cubits and a half, and their height was a cubit: on them they shall place the instruments with which they slay there the whole-burnt-offerings and the victims.

(Eze 40:43) And they shall have within a border of hewn stone round about of a span broad, and over the tables above screens for covering them from the wet and from the heat.

(Eze 40:44) And he brought me into the inner court, and behold there were two chambers in the inner court, one behind the gate looking to the north, turning southward, and one behind the southern gate, but which looks to the north.

(Eze 40:45) And he said to me, This chamber that looks to the south, is for the priests that keep the charge of the house.

(Eze 40:46) And the chamber that looks to the north is for the priests that keep the charge of the altar: they are the sons of Sadduc, those of the tribe of Levi who draw near to YHVH to serve him.

(Eze 40:47) And he measured the court, the length whereof was a hundred cubits, and the breadth a hundred cubits, on its four sides; and the altar in front of the house.

(Eze 40:48) And he brought me into the porch of the house; and he measured the post of the porch, the breadth was five cubits on one side and five cubits on the other side; and the breadth of the door was fourteen cubits, and the side-pieces of the door of the porch were three cubits on one side, and three cubits on the other side.

(Eze 40:49) And the length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth twelve cubits; and they went up to it by ten steps; and there were pillars to the porch, one on this side and one on that side.

(Eze 41:1) And he brought me into the temple, the porch of which he measured, six cubits the breadth on one side, and six cubits the breadth of the porch on the other side.

(Eze 41:2) And the breadth of the gateway was ten cubits, and the side-pieces of the gateway were five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and he measured the length of it, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

(Eze 41:3) And he went into the inner court, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the side-pieces of the door, seven cubits on one side, and seven cubits on the other side.

(Eze 41:4) And he measured the length of the doors, forty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, in front of the temple: and he said, This is the holy of holies.

(Eze 41:5) And he measured the wall of the house, six cubits: and the breadth of each side, four cubits round about.

(Eze 41:6) And the sides were twice ninety, side against side; and there was a space in the wall of the house at the sides round about, that they should be for them that take hold of them to see, that they should not at all touch the walls of the house.

(Eze 41:7) And the breadth of the upper side was made according to the projection out of the wall, against the upper one round about the house, that it might be enlarged above, and that men might go up to the upper chambers from those below, and from the ground-sills to the third story.

(Eze 41:8) And as for the height of the house round about, each space between the sides was equal to a reed of six cubits;

(Eze 41:9) and the breadth of the wall of each side without was five cubits; and the spaces that were left between the sides of the house,

(Eze 41:10) and between the chambers, were a width of twenty cubits, the circumference of the house.

(Eze 41:11) And the doors of the chambers were toward the space left by the one door that looked northward, and there was one door southward; and the breadth of the remaining open space was five cubits in extent round about.

(Eze 41:12) And the partition wall in front of the remaining space, toward the west, was seventy cubits in breadth; the breadth of the partition wall was five cubits round about, and the length of it ninety cubits.

(Eze 41:13) And he measured in front of the house a length of a hundred cubits, and the remaining spaces and the partitions; and the walls thereof were in length a hundred cubits.

(Eze 41:14) And the breadth in front of the house, and the remaining spaces before it were a hundred cubits.

(Eze 41:15) And he measured the length of the partition in front of the space left by the back parts of that house; and the spaces left on this side and on that side were in length a hundred cubits: and the temple and the corners and the outer porch were ceiled.

(Eze 41:16) And the windows were latticed, giving light round about to the three stories, so as to look through: and the house and the parts adjoining were planked round about, and so was the floor, and from the floor up to the windows, and the window shutters folded back in three parts for one to look through.

(Eze 41:17) And almost all the way to the inner, and close to the outer side, and upon all the wall round about within and without,

(Eze 41:18) were carved cherubs and palm-trees between the cherubs, and each cherub had two faces.

(Eze 41:19) The face of a man was toward one palm-tree on this side and on that side, and the face of a lion toward another palm-tree on this side and on that side: the house was carved all round.

(Eze 41:20) From the floor to the ceiling were cherubs and palm-trees carved.

(Eze 41:21) And the holy place and the temple opened on four sides; in front of the holy places the appearance was as the look of

(Eze 41:22) a wooden altar, the height of it three cubits, and the length two cubits, and the breadth two cubits; and it had horns, and the base of it and the sides of it were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table, which is before the face of YHVH.

(Eze 41:23) And the temple had two doors, and the sanctuary had two doors, with two turning leaves apiece;

(Eze 41:24) two leaves to the one, and two leaves to the other door.

(Eze 41:25) And there was carved work upon them, and cherubs on the doors of the temple, and palm-trees according to the carving of the sanctuary; and there were stout planks in front of the porch without.

(Eze 41:26) And there were secret windows; and he measured from side to side, to the roofing of the porch; and the sides of the house were closely planked.

(Eze 42:1) And he brought me into the inner court eastward, opposite the northern gate: and he brought me in, and behold five chambers near the vacant space, and near the northern partition,

(Eze 42:2) a hundred cubits in length toward the north, and in breadth fifty,

(Eze 42:3) ornamented accordingly as the gates of the inner court, and arranged accordingly as the peristyles of the outer court, with triple porticos fronting one another.

(Eze 42:4) And in front of the chambers was a walk ten cubits in breadth, the length reaching to a hundred cubits; and their doors were northward.

(Eze 42:5) And the upper walks were in like manner: for the peristyle projected from it, even from the range of columns below, and there was a space between; so were there a peristyle and a space between, and so were there two porticos.

(Eze 42:6) For they were triple, and they had not pillars like the pillars of the outer ones: therefore they projected from the lower ones and the middle ones from the ground.

(Eze 42:7) And there was light without, corresponding to the chambers of the outer court looking toward the front of the northern chambers; the length of them was fifty cubits.

(Eze 42:8) For the length of the chambers looking toward the inner court was fifty cubits, and these are the ones that front the others; the whole was a hundred cubits.

(Eze 42:9) And there were doors of these chambers for an outlet toward the east, so that one should go through them out of the outer court, (Eze 42:10) by the opening of the walk at the corner; and the south parts were toward the south, toward the remaining space, and toward the partition, and so were the chambers.

(Eze 42:11) And the walk was in front of them, according to the measures of the chambers toward the north, both according to the length of them, and according to the breadth of them, and according to all their openings, an according to all their turnings, and according to their lights, and according to their doors.

(Eze 42:12) So were the measures of the chambers toward the south, and according to the doors at the entrance of the walk, as it were the distance of a reed for light, and eastward as one went in by them.

(Eze 42:13) And he said to me, The chambers toward the north, and the chambers toward the south, in front of the void spaces, these are the chambers of the sanctuary, wherein the priests the sons of Sadduc, who draw night to YHVH, shall eat the most holy things: and there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat-offering, and the sin-offerings, and the trespass-offerings; because the place is holy.

(Eze 42:14) None shall go in thither except the priests, and they shall not go forth of the holy place into the outer court, that they that draw nigh to me may be continually holy, and may not touch their garments in which they minister, with defilement, for they are holy; and they shall put on other garments whenever they come in contact with the people.

(Eze 42:15) So the measurement of the house within was accomplished: and he brought me forth by the way of the gate that looks eastward, and measured the plan of the house round about in order.

(Eze 42:16) And he stood behind the gate looking eastward, and measured five hundred cubits with the measuring reed.

(Eze 42:17) And he turned to the north and measured in front of the north side five hundred cubits with the measuring reed.

(Eze 42:18) And he turned to the west, and measured in front of the west side, five hundred cubits with the measuring reed.

(Eze 42:19) And he turned to the south, and measured in front of the south side, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

(Eze 42:20) The four sides he measured by the same reed, and he marked out the house and the circumference of the parts round about, a space of five hundred cubits eastward, and a breadth of five hundred cubits, to make a division between the sanctuary and the outer wall, that belonged to the design of the house.

(Eze 43:1) Moreover he brought me to the gate looking eastward, and led me forth.

(Eze 43:2) And, behold, the glory of the Elohim of Israel came by the eastern way; and there was a voice of an army, as the sound of many redoubling their shouts, and the earth shone like light from the glory round about.

(Eze 43:3) And the vision which I saw was like the vision which I saw when I went in to anoint the city: and the vision of the chariot which I saw was like the vision which I saw at the river Chobar; and I fell upon my face.

(Eze 43:4) And the glory of YHVH came into the house, by the way of the gate looking eastward.

(Eze 43:5) And the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the house of YHVH was full of glory.

(Eze 43:6) And I stood, and behold there was a voice out of the house of one speaking to me, and a man stood near me,

(Eze 43:7) and he said to me, Son of man, thou hast seen the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, in which my name shall dwell in the midst of the house of Israel for ever; and the house of Israel shall no more profane my holy name, they and their princes, by their fornication, or by the murders of their princes in the midst of them;

(Eze 43:8) when they set my door-way by their door-way, and my thresholds near to their thresholds: and they made my wall as it were joining myself and them, and they profaned my holy name with their iniquities which they wrought: and I destroyed them in my wrath and with slaughter.

(Eze 43:9) And now let them put away from me their fornication, and the murders of their princes, and I will dwell in the midst of them forever.

(Eze 43:10) And thou, son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may cease from their sins; and shew its aspect and the arrangement of it.

(Eze 43:11) And they shall bear their punishment for all the things that they have done: and thou shalt describe the house, and its entrances, and the plan thereof, and all its ordinances, and thou shalt make known to them all the regulations of it, and describe them before them: and they shall keep all my commandments, and all my ordinances, and do them.

(Eze 43:12) And thou shalt shew the plan of the house on the top of the mountain: all its limits round about shall be most holy.

(Eze 43:13) And these are the measures of the altar by the cubit of a cubit and a span, the cavity shall be a cubit deep, and a cubit shall be the breadth, and the border on the rim of it round about shall be a span: and this shall be the height of the altar

(Eze 43:14) from the bottom at the commencement of the hollow part to this great mercy-seat, from beneath was two cubits, and the breadth was a cubit; and from the little mercy-seat to the great mercy-seat, four cubits, and the breadth was a cubit.

(Eze 43:15) And the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and above the horns a cubit.

(Eze 43:16) And the altar shall be of the length of twelve cubits, by twelve cubits in breadth, square upon its four sides.

(Eze 43:17) And the mercy-seat shall be fourteen cubits in length, by fourteen cubits in breadth on its four sides; and there shall be a border to it carried round about it of half a cubit; and the rim of it shall be a cubit round about; and the steps thereof looking eastward.

(Eze 43:18) And he said to me, Son of man, thus saith YHVH Elohim of Israel; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day of its being made, to offer upon it whole-burnt-offerings, and to pour blood upon it.

(Eze 43:19) And thou shalt appoint to the priests the Levites of the seed of Sadduc, that draw nigh to me, saith YHVH Elohim, to minister to me, a calf of the herd for a sin-offering.

(Eze 43:20) And they shall take of its blood, and shall put it on the four horns of the altar, and upon the four corners of the propitiatory, and upon the base round about, and they shall make atonement for it.

(Eze 43:21) And they shall take the calf of the sin-offering, and it shall be consumed by fire in the separate place of the house, outside the sanctuary.

(Eze 43:22) And on the second day they shall take two kids of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall make atonement for the altar, as they made atonement with the calf.

(Eze 43:23) And after they have finished the atonement, they shall bring an unblemished calf of the herd, and an unblemished ram of the flock.

(Eze 43:24) And ye shall offer them before YHVH, and the priests shall sprinkle salt upon them, and shall offer them up as whole-burnt-offerings to YHVH.

(Eze 43:25) Seven days shalt thou offer a kid daily for a sin-offering, and a calf of the herd, and a ram out of the flock: they shall sacrifice them unblemished for seven days:

(Eze 43:26) and they shall make atonement for the altar, and shall purge it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

(Eze 43:27) And it shall come to pass from the eighth day and onward, that the priests shall offer your whole-burnt-offerings on the altar, and your peace-offerings; and I will accept you, saith YHVH.

(Eze 44:1) Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary that looks eastward; and it was shut.

(Eze 44:2) And YHVH said to me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no one shall pass through it; for YHVH Elohim of Israel shall enter by it, and it shall be shut.

(Eze 44:3) For the prince, he shall sit in it, to eat bread before YHVH; he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go forth by the way of the same.

(Eze 44:4) And he brought me in by the way of the gate that looks northward, in front of the house: and I looked, and, behold, the house was full of the glory of YHVH: and I fell upon my face.

(Eze 44:5) And YHVH said to me, Son of man, attend with thine heart, and see with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say to thee, according to all the ordinances of the house of YHVH, and all the regulations thereof; and thou shalt attend well to the entrance of the house, according to all its outlets, in all the holy things.

(Eze 44:6) And thou shalt say to the provoking house, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Let it suffice you to have committed all your iniquities, O house of Israel!

(Eze 44:7) that ye have brought in aliens, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, and to profane it, when ye offered bread, flesh, and blood; and ye transgressed my covenant by all your iniquities;

(Eze 44:8) and ye appointed others to keep the charges in my sanctuary.

(Eze 44:9) Therefore thus saith YHVH Elohim; No alien, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of all the children of strangers that are in the midst of the house of Israel.

(Eze 44:10) But as for the Levites who departed far from me when Israel went astray from me after their imaginations, they shall even bear their iniquity.

(Eze 44:11) yet they shall minister in my sanctuary, being porters at the gates of the house, and serving the house: they shall slay the victims and the whole-burnt-offerings for the people, and they shall stand before the people to minister to them.

(Eze 44:12) Because they ministered to them before their idols, and it became to the house of Israel a punishment of iniquity; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 44:13) And they shall not draw nigh to me to minister to me in the priests' office, nor to approach the holy things of the children of Israel, nor to approach my holy of holies: but they shall bear their reproach for the error wherein they erred.

(Eze 44:14) They shall bring them to keep the charges of the house, for all the service of it, and for all that they shall do.

(Eze 44:15) The priests the Levites, the sons of Sadduc, who kept the charges of my sanctuary when the house of Israel went astray from me, these shall draw nigh to me to minister to me, and shall stand before my face, to offer sacrifice to me, the fat and the blood, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 44:16) These shall enter into my sanctuary, and these shall approach my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charges.

(Eze 44:17) And it shall come to pass when they enter the gates of the inner court, that they shall put on linen robes; and they shall not put on woollen garments when they minister at the gate of the inner court.

(Eze 44:18) And they shall have linen mitres upon their heads, and shall have linen drawers upon their loins; and they shall not tightly gird themselves.

(Eze 44:19) And when they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their robes, in which they minister; and they shall lay them up in the chambers of the sanctuary, and shall put on other robes, and they shall not sanctify the people with their robes.

(Eze 44:20) And they shall not shave their heads, nor shall they pluck off their hair; they shall carefully cover their heads.

(Eze 44:21) And no priest shall drink any wine, when they go into the inner court.

(Eze 44:22) Neither shall they take to themselves to wife a widow, or one that is put away, but a virgin of the seed of Israel: but if there should happen to be a priest's widow, they shall take her.

(Eze 44:23) And they shall teach my people to distinguish between holy and profane, and they shall make known to them the difference between unclean and clean.

(Eze 44:24) And these shall attend at a judgment of blood to decide it: they shall rightly observe my ordinances, and judge my judgments, and keep my statutes and my commandments in all my feasts; and they shall hallow my Sabbaths.

(Eze 44:25) And they shall not go in to the dead body of a man to defile themselves: only a priest may defile himself for a father, or for a mother, or for a son, or for a daughter, or for a brother, or for his sister, who has not been married.

(Eze 44:26) And after he has been cleansed, let him number to himself seven days.

(Eze 44:27) And on whatsoever day they shall enter into the inner court to minister in the holy place, they shall bring a propitiation, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 44:28) And it shall be to them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and no possession shall be given them among the children of Israel; for I am their possession.

(Eze 44:29) And these shall eat the meat-offerings, and the sin-offerings, and the trespass-offerings; and every special offering in Israel shall be theirs.

(Eze 44:30) And the first-fruits of all things, and the first-born of all animals and all offerings, of all your first-fruits there shall be a share for the priests; and ye shall give your earliest produce to the priest, to bring your blessings upon your houses.

(Eze 44:31) And the priests shall eat no bird or beast that dies of itself, or is taken of wild beasts.

(Eze 45:1) And when ye measure the land for inheritance, ye shall set apart first-fruits to YHVH, a holy space of the land, in length twenty and five thousand reeds, and in breadth twenty thousand; it shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

(Eze 45:2) And there shall be a sanctuary out of this, five hundred reeds in length by five hundred in breadth, a square round about; and there shall be a vacant space beyond this of fifty cubits round about.

(Eze 45:3) And out of this measurement shalt thou measure the length five and twenty thousand, and the breadth twenty thousand: and in it shall be the holy of holies.

(Eze 45:4) Of the land shall be a portion for the priests that minister in the holy place, and it shall be for them that draw nigh to minister to YHVH: and it shall be to them a place for houses set apart for their sacred office;

(Eze 45:5) the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the breadth twenty thousand: and the Levites that attend the house, they shall have cities to dwell in for a possession.

(Eze 45:6) And ye shall appoint for the possession of the city five thousand in breadth, and in length twenty-five thousand: after the manner of the first-fruits of the holy portion, they shall be for all the house of Israel.

(Eze 45:7) And the prince shall have a portion out of this, and out of this there shall be a portion for the first-fruits of the sanctuary, and for the possession of the city, in front of the first-fruits of the sanctuary, and in front of the possession of the city westward, and from the western parts eastward: and the length shall be equal to one of the parts of the western borders, and the length shall be to the eastern borders of the land.

(Eze 45:8) And he shall have it for a possession in Israel: and the princes of Israel shall no more oppress my people; but the house of Israel shall inherit the land according to their tribes.

(Eze 45:9) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Let it suffice you, ye princes of Israel: remove injustice and misery, execute judgment and justice; take away oppression from my people, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 45:10) Ye shall have a just balance, and a just measure, and a just choenix for measure.

(Eze 45:11) And in like manner there shall be one choenix as a measure of capacity; the tenth of the gomor shall be the choenix, and the tenth of the gomor shall be in fair proportion to the gomor.

(Eze 45:12) And the weights shall be twenty oboli, your pound shall be five shekels, fifteen shekels and fifty shekels.

(Eze 45:13) And these are the first-fruits which ye shall offer; a sixth part of a gomor of wheat, and the sixth part of it shall consist of an ephah of a core of barley.

(Eze 45:14) And ye shall give as the appointed measure of oil one bath of oil out of ten baths; for ten baths are a gomor.

(Eze 45:15) And one sheep from the flock out of ten, as an oblation from all the tribes of Israel, for sacrifices, and for whole-burnt-offerings, and for peace-offerings, to make atonement for you, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 45:16) And all the people shall give these first-fruits to the prince of Israel.

(Eze 45:17) And through the prince shall be offered the whole-burnt-offerings and the meat-offerings, and the drink-offerings in the feasts, and at the new moons, and on the Sabbaths; and in all the feasts of the house of Israel: he shall offer the sin-offerings, and the meat-offering, and the whole-burnt-offerings, and the peace-offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

(Eze 45:18) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; In the first month, on the first day of the month, ye shall take a calf without blemish out of the herd, to make atonement for the holy place.

(Eze 45:19) And the priest shall take of the blood of the atonement, and put it on the thresholds of the house, and upon the four corners of the temple, and upon the altar, and upon the thresholds of the gate of the inner court.

(Eze 45:20) And thus shalt thou do in the seventh month; on the first day of the month thou shalt take a rate from each one; and ye shall make atonement for the house.

(Eze 45:21) And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the feast of the passover; seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread.

(Eze 45:22) And the prince shall offer in that day a calf for a sin-offering for himself, and the house, and for all the people of the land.

(Eze 45:23) And for the seven days of the feast he shall offer as whole-burnt-offerings to YHVH seven calves and seven rams without blemish daily for the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin-offering, and a meat-offering.

(Eze 45:24) And thou shalt prepare a cake for the calf, and cakes for the ram, and a hin of oil for the cake.

(Eze 45:25) And in the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, thou shalt sacrifice in the feast in the same way seven days, as they sacrificed the sin-offerings, and the whole-burnt-offerings, and the freewill-offering, and the oil.

(Eze 46:1) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; The gate that is in the inner court, that looks eastward, shall be shut the six working days; but let it be opened on the Sabbath-day, and it shall be opened on the day of the new moon.

(Eze 46:2) And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the inner gate, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his whole-burnt-offerings and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the entrance of the gate: then shall he come forth; but the gate shall not be shut till evening.

(Eze 46:3) And the people of the land shall worship at the entrance of that gate, both on the Sabbaths and at the new moons, before YHVH.

(Eze 46:4) And the prince shall offer whole-burnt-offerings to YHVH on the Sabbath-day, six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish;

(Eze 46:5) and a freewill-offering, a meat-offering for the ram, and a meat-offering for the lambs, the gift of his hand, and a hin of oil for the meat-offering.

(Eze 46:6) And on the day of the new moon a calf without blemish, and six lambs, and there shall be a ram without blemish;

(Eze 46:7) and a meat-offering for the ram, and there shall be a meat-offering for the calf as a freewill-offering, and for the lambs, according as his hand can furnish, and there shall be a hin of oil for the cake.

(Eze 46:8) And when the prince goes in, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way of the gate.

(Eze 46:9) And whenever the people of the land shall go in before YHVH at the feasts, he that goes in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he that goes in by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the gate by which he entered, but he shall go forth opposite it.

(Eze 46:10) And the prince shall enter with them in the midst of them when they go in; and when they go forth, he shall go forth.

(Eze 46:11) And in the feasts and in the general assemblies the freewill oblation shall be a meat-offering for the calf, and a meat-offering for the ram, and for the lambs, as his hand can furnish, and a hin of oil for the meat-offering.

(Eze 46:12) And if the prince should prepare as a thanksgiving a whole-burnt-peace-offering to YHVH, and should open for himself the gate looking eastward, and offer his whole-burnt-offering, and his peace-offerings, as he does on the Sabbath-day; then shall he go out, and shall shut the doors after he has gone out.

(Eze 46:13) And he shall prepare daily as a whole-burnt-offering to YHVH a lamb of a year old without blemish: in the morning shall he prepare it.

(Eze 46:14) And he shall prepare a freewill-offering for it in the morning, the sixth part of a measure of flour, and a third part of a hin of oil to mix therewith the fine flour, as a freewill-offering to YHVH, a perpetual ordinance.

(Eze 46:15) Ye shall prepare the lamb, and the freewill-offering, and the oil in the morning, for a perpetual whole-burnt-sacrifice.

(Eze 46:16) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; If the prince shall give a gift to one of his sons out of his inheritance, this shall be to his sons a possession as an inheritance.

(Eze 46:17) But if he give a gift to one of his servants, then it shall belong to him until the year of release; and then he shall restore it to the prince: but of the inheritance of his sons the possession shall continue to them.

(Eze 46:18) And the prince shall by no means take of the inheritance of the people, to oppress them: he shall give an inheritance to his sons out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered, every one from his possession.

(Eze 46:19) And he brought me into the entrance of the place behind the gate, into the chamber of the sanctuary belonging to the priests, that looks toward the north: and, behold, there was a place set apart.

(Eze 46:20) And he said to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass-offerings and the sin-offerings, and there shall they bake the meat-offering always; so as not to carry them out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.

(Eze 46:21) And he brought me into the outer court, and led me round upon the four sides of the court; and, behold, there was a court on each of the sides of the court,

(Eze 46:22) on every side a court, even a court for all the four sides, and each little court belonging to the court was in length forty cubits, and in breadth thirty cubits, there was one measure to the four.

(Eze 46:23) And there were chambers in them round about, round about the four, and cooking-places formed under the chambers round about.

(Eze 46:24) And he said to me, These are the cooks' houses, where they that serve the house shall boil the sacrifices of the people.

(Eze 47:1) And he brought me to the entrance of the house; and, behold, water issued from under the porch eastward, for the front of the house looked eastward; and the water came down from the right side, from the south to the altar.

(Eze 47:2) And he brought me out by the way of the northern gate, and he led me round by the way outside to the gate of the court that looks eastward; and, behold, water came down from the right side, (Eze 47:3) in the direction in which a man went forth opposite; and there was a measuring line in his hand, and he measured a thousand cubits with the measure;

(Eze 47:4) and he passed through the water; it was water of a fountain: and again he measured a thousand, and passed through the water; and the water was up to the thighs: and again he measured a thousand; and he passed through water up to the loins.

(Eze 47:5) and again he measured a thousand; and he could not pass through: for the water rose as of a torrent which men cannot pass over.

(Eze 47:6) And he said to me, Hast thou seen this, son of man? Then he brought me, and led me back to the brink of the river

(Eze 47:7) as I returned; and, behold, on the brink of the river there were very many trees on this side and on that side.

(Eze 47:8) And he said to me, This is the water that goes forth to Galilee that lies eastward, and it is gone down to Arabia, and has reached as far as to the sea to the outlet of the water: and it shall heal the waters.

(Eze 47:9) And it shall come to pass, that every animal of living and moving creatures, all on which the river shall come, shall live: and there shall be there very many fish; for this water shall go thither, and it shall heal them, and they shall live: everything on which the river shall come shall live.

(Eze 47:10) And fishers shall stand there from Ingadin to Enagallim; it shall be a place to spread out nets upon; it shall be distinct; and the fishes thereof shall be as the fishes of the great sea, a very great multitude.

(Eze 47:11) But at the outlet of the water, and the turn of it, and where it overflows its banks, they shall not heal at all; they are given to salt.

(Eze 47:12) And every fruit tree shall grow by the river, even on the bank of it on this side and on that side: they shall not decay upon it, neither shall their fruit fail: they shall bring forth the first-fruit of their early crop, for these their waters come forth of the sanctuary: and their fruit shall be for meat, and their foliage for health.

(Eze 47:13) Thus saith YHVH Elohim; Ye shall inherit these borders of the land; they are given by lot to the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

(Eze 47:14) And ye shall inherit it, each according to his brother's portion, even the land concerning which I lifted up my hand to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you by lot.

(Eze 47:15) And these are the borders of the land that lies northward, from the great sea that comes down, and divides the entrance of Emaseldam;

(Eze 47:16) Maabthera, Ebrameliam, between the coasts of Damascus and the coasts of Emathi, the habitation of Saunan, which places are above the coasts of Auranitis.

(Eze 47:17) These are the borders from the sea, from the habitations of Ænan, the coasts of Damascus, and the northern coasts.

(Eze 47:18) And the eastern coasts between Loranitis, and Damascus, and the land of Galaad, and the land of Israel, the Jordan divides to the sea that is east of the city of palm-trees. These are the eastern coasts.

(Eze 47:19) And the southern and south-western coasts are from Thaeman and the city of palm-trees, to the water of Marimoth Cadem, reaching forth to the great sea. This part is the south and south-west.

(Eze 47:20) This part of the great sea forms a border, till one comes opposite the entrance of Emath, even as far as the entrance thereof. These are the parts west of Emath.

(Eze 47:21) So ye shall divide this land to them, even to the tribes of Israel.

(Eze 47:22) Ye shall cast the lot upon it, for yourselves and the strangers that sojourn in the midst of you, who have begotten children in the midst of you: and they shall be to you as natives among the children of Israel; they shall eat with you in their inheritance in the midst of the tribes of Israel.

(Eze 47:23) And they shall be in the tribe of proselytes among the proselytes that are with them: there shall ye give them an inheritance, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 48:1) And these are the names of the tribes from the northern corner, on the side of the descent that draws a line to the entrance of Emath the palace of Ælam, the border of Damascus northward on the side of Emath the palace; and they shall have the eastern parts as far as the sea, for Dan, one portion.

(Eze 48:2) And from the borders of Dan eastward as far as the west sea-coast, for Asser, one.

(Eze 48:3) And from the borders of Asser, from the eastern parts as far as the west coasts, for Nephthalim, one.

(Eze 48:4) And from the borders of Nephthalim, from the east as far as the west coasts, for Manasse, one.

(Eze 48:5) And from the borders of Manasse, from the eastern parts as far as the west coasts, for Ephraim, one.

(Eze 48:6) And from the borders of Ephraim, from the eastern parts to the west coasts, for Ruben, one.

(Eze 48:7) And from the borders of Ruben, from the eastern parts as far as the west coasts, for Juda, one.

(Eze 48:8) And from the borders of Juda, from the eastern parts shall be the offering of first-fruits, in the breadth twenty-five thousand reeds, and in length as one of the portions measured from the east even to the western parts: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of them.

(Eze 48:9) As for the first-fruits which they shall offer to YHVH, it shall be in length twenty-five thousand, and in breadth twenty-five thousand.

(Eze 48:10) Out of this shall be the first-fruits of the holy things to the priests, northward, five and twenty-thousand, and towards the west, ten thousand, and southward, five and twenty thousand: and the mountain of the sanctuary, shall be in the midst of it,

(Eze 48:11) for the priests, for the consecrated sons of Sadduc, who keep the charges of the house, who erred not in the error of the children of Israel, as the Levites erred.

(Eze 48:12) And the first-fruits shall be given to them out of the first-fruits of the land, even a most holy portion from the borders of the Levites.

(Eze 48:13) And the Levites shall have the part, next to the borders of the priests, in length twenty-five thousand, and in breadth ten thousand: the whole length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth twenty thousand.

(Eze 48:14) No part of it shall be sold, nor measured as for sale, neither shall the first-fruits of the land be taken away: for they are holy to YHVH.

(Eze 48:15) But concerning the five thousand that remain in the breadth in the five and twenty thousand, they shall be a suburb to the city for dwelling, and for a space before it: and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

(Eze 48:16) And these shall be its dimensions; from the northern side four thousand and five hundred, and from the southern side four thousand and five hundred, and from the eastern side four thousand and five hundred, and from the western side they shall measure four thousand five hundred.

(Eze 48:17) And there shall be a space to the city northward two hundred and fifty, and southward two hundred and fifty, and eastward two hundred and fifty, and westward two hundred and fifty.

(Eze 48:18) And the remainder of the length that is next to the first-fruits of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and they shall be the first-fruits of the sanctuary; and the fruits thereof shall be for bread to them that labour for the city.

(Eze 48:19) And they that labour for the city shall labour for it out of all the tribes of Israel.

(Eze 48:20) The whole offering shall be a square of twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: ye shall separate again part of it, the first-fruits of the sanctuary, from the possession of the city.

(Eze 48:21) And the prince shall have the remainder on this side and on that side from the first-fruits of the sanctuary, and there shall be a possession of the city, for five and twenty thousand cubits in length, to the eastern and western borders, for five and twenty thousand to the western borders, next to the portions of the prince; and the first-fruits of the holy things and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst of it.

(Eze 48:22) And there shall be a portion taken from the Levites, from the possession of the city in the midst of the princes between the borders of Juda and the borders of Benjamin, and it shall be the portion of the princes.

(Eze 48:23) And as for the rest of the tribes, from the eastern parts as far as the western, Benjamin shall have one portion.

(Eze 48:24) And from the borders of Benjamin, from the eastern parts to the western, Simeon, one.

(Eze 48:25) And from the borders of Simeon, from the eastern parts to the western, Issachar, one.

(Eze 48:26) And from the borders of Issachar, from the eastern parts to the western, Zabulon, one.

(Eze 48:27) And from the borders of Zabulon, from the east to the western parts, Gad, one.

(Eze 48:28) And from the borders of Gad, from the eastern parts to the south-western parts; his coasts shall even be from Theman, and the water of Barimoth Cades, for an inheritance, unto the great sea.

(Eze 48:29) This is the land, which ye shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions, saith YHVH Elohim.

(Eze 48:30) And these are the goings out of the city northward, four thousand and five hundred by measure.

(Eze 48:31) And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; the gate of Ruben, one, and the gate of Juda, one, and the gate of Levi, one.

(Eze 48:32) And eastward four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; the gate of Joseph, one, and the gate of Benjamin, one, and the gate of Dan, one.

(Eze 48:33) And southward, four thousand and five hundred by measure: and three gates; the gate of Symeon, one, and the gate of Issachar, one, and the gate of Zabulon, one.

(Eze 48:34) And westward, four thousand and five hundred by measure: and three gates; the gate of Gad, one, and the gate of Asser, one, and the gate of Nephthalim, one.

(Eze 48:35) The circumference, eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city, from the day that it shall be finished, shall be the name thereof.

Daniel.

(Dan 1:1) In the third year of the reign of Joakim king of Juda, came Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon to Jerusalem, and besieged it.

(Dan 1:2) And YHVH gave into his hand Joakim king of Juda, and part of the vessels of the house of Elohim: and he brought them into the land of Sennaar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

(Dan 1:3) And the king told Asphanez his chief eunuch, to bring in some of the captive children of Israel, and of the seed of the kingdom, and of the princes;

(Dan 1:4) young men in whom was no blemish, and beautiful in appearance, and skilled in all wisdom, and possessing knowledge, and acquainted with prudence, and who had ability to stand in the house before the king, and the king gave commandment to teach them the learning and language of the Chaldeans.

(Dan 1:5) And the king appointed them a daily portion from the king's table, and from the wine which he drank; and gave orders to nourish them three years, and that afterwards they should stand before the king.

(Dan 1:6) Now these were among them of the children of Juda, Daniel, and Ananias, and Azarias, and Misael.

(Dan 1:7) And the chief of the eunuchs gave them names: to Daniel, Baltasar; and to Ananias, Sedrach; and to Misael, Misach; and to Azarias, Abdenago.

(Dan 1:8) And Daniel purposed in his heart, that he would not defile himself with the king's table, nor with the wine of his drink: and he intreated the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

(Dan 1:9) Now Elohim had brought Daniel into favour and compassion with the chief of the eunuchs.

(Dan 1:10) And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your meat and your drink, lest he see your countenances gloomy in comparison of the young men your equals; also shall ye endanger my head to the king.

(Dan 1:11) And Daniel said to Amelsad, whom the chief of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias.

(Dan 1:12) Prove now thy servants ten days; and let them give us pulse, and let us eat, and let us drink water:

(Dan 1:13) And let our countenances be seen by thee, and the countenances of the children that eat at the king's table; and deal with thy servants according as thou shalt see.

(Dan 1:14) And he hearkened to them, and proved them ten days.

(Dan 1:16) So Amelsad took away their supper and the wine of their drink, and gave them pulse.

(Dan 1:17) And as for these four children, Elohim gave them understanding and prudence in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

(Dan 1:18) And at the end of the days, after which the king had given orders to bring them in, then the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nabuchodonosor.

(Dan 1:19) And the king spoke with them; and there were not found out of them all any like Daniel, and Ananias and Misael, and Azarias: and they stood before the king.

(Dan 1:20) And in every matter of wisdom and knowledge wherein the king questioned them, he found them ten times wiser than all the enchanters and sorcerers that were in all his kingdom.

(Dan 2:1) In the second year of his reign Nabuchodonosor dreamed a dream, and his spirit was amazed, and his sleep departed from him.

(Dan 2:2) And the king gave orders to call the enchanters, and the magicians, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to declare to the king his dreams. And they came and stood before the king.

(Dan 2:3) And the king said to them, I have dreamed, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

(Dan 2:4) And the Chaldeans spoke to the king in the Syrian language, saying, O king, live for ever: do thou tell the dream to thy servants, and we will declare the interpretation.

(Dan 2:5) The king answered the Chaldeans, The thing has departed from me: if ye do not make known to me the dream and the interpretation, ye shall be destroyed, and your houses shall be spoiled.

(Dan 2:6) But if ye make known to me the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and presents and much honour: only tell me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

(Dan 2:7) They answered the second time, and said, Let the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will declare the interpretation.

(Dan 2:8) And the king answered and said, I verily know that ye are trying to gain time, because ye see that the thing has gone from me.

(Dan 2:9) If then ye do not tell me the dream, I know that ye have concerted to utter before me a false and corrupt tale, until the time shall have past: tell me my dream, and I shall know that ye will also declare to me the interpretation thereof.

(Dan 2:10) The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is no man upon the earth, who shall be able to make known the king's matter: forasmuch as no great king or ruler asks such a question of an enchanter, magician, or Chaldean.

(Dan 2:11) For the question which the king asks is difficult, and there is no one else who shall answer it before the king, but the gods, whose dwelling is not with any flesh.

(Dan 2:12) Then the king in rage and anger commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

(Dan 2:13) So the decree went forth, and they began to slay the wise men; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to slay them.

(Dan 2:14) Then Daniel answered with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the royal guard, who was gone forth to kill the wise men of Babylon; saying, (Dan 2:15) Chief magistrate of the king, wherefore has the preemptory command proceeded from the king? So Arioch made known the matter to Daniel.

(Dan 2:16) And Daniel intreated the king to give him time, and that he might thus declare to the king the interpretation of it.

(Dan 2:17) So Daniel went into his house, and made known the matter to Ananias, and Misael, and Azarias, his friends.

(Dan 2:18) And they sought mercies from the Elohim of heaven concerning this mystery; that Daniel and his friends might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

(Dan 2:19) Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night; and Daniel blessed the Elohim of heaven, and said, (Dan 2:20) May the name of Elohim be blessed from everlasting and to everlasting: for wisdom and understanding are his.

(Dan 2:21) And he changes times and seasons: he appoints kings, and removes them, giving wisdom to the wise, and prudence to them that have understanding:

(Dan 2:22) he reveals deep and secret matters; knowing what is in darkness, and the light is with him.

(Dan 2:23) I give thanks to thee, and praise thee, O Elohim of my fathers, for thou has given me wisdom and power, and has made known to me the things which we asked of thee; and thou has made known to me the king's vision.

(Dan 2:24) And Daniel came to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon, and said to him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon, but bring me in before the king, and I will declare the interpretation to the king.

(Dan 2:25) Then Arioch in haste brought in Daniel before the king, and said to him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judea, who will declare the interpretation to the king.

(Dan 2:26) And the king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Baltasar, Canst thou declare to me the dream which I saw, and the interpretation thereof?

(Dan 2:27) And Daniel answered before the king, and said, The mystery which the king asks the explanation of is not in the power of the wise men, magicians, enchanters, or soothsayers to declare to the king.

(Dan 2:28) But there is a Elohim in heaven revealing mysteries, and he has made known to king Nabuchodonosor what things must come to pass in the last days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are as follows, (Dan 2:29) O king: thy thoughts upon thy bed arose as to what must come to pass hereafter: and he that reveals mysteries has made known to thee what must come to pass.

(Dan 2:30) Moreover, this mystery has not been revealed to me by reason of wisdom which is in me beyond all others living, but for the sake of making known the interpretation to the king, that thou mightest know the thoughts of thine heart.

(Dan 2:31) Thou, O king, sawest, and behold an image: that image was great, and the appearance of it excellent, standing before thy face; and the form of it was terrible.

(Dan 2:32) It was an image, the head of which was of fine gold, its hands and breast and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of brass, (Dan 2:33) its legs of iron, its feet, part of iron and part of earthenware.

(Dan 2:34) Thou sawest until a stone was cut out of a mountain without hands, and it smote the image upon its feet of iron and earthenware, and utterly reduced them to powder.

(Dan 2:35) Then once for all the earthenware, the iron, the brass, the silver, the gold, were ground to powder, and became as chaff from the summer threshingfloor; and the violence of the wind carried them away, and no place was found for them: and the stone which had smitten the image became a great mountain, and filled all the earth.

(Dan 2:36) This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

(Dan 2:37) Thou, O king, art a king of kings, to whom the Elohim of heaven has given a powerful and strong and honourable kingdom, (Dan 2:38) in every place where the children of men dwell: and he has given into thine hand the wild beasts of the field, and the birds of the sky and the fish of the sea, and he has made thee lord of all.

(Dan 2:39) Thou art the head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and a third kingdom which is the brass, which shall have dominion over all the earth;

(Dan 2:40) and a fourth kingdom, which shall be strong as iron: as iron beats to powder and subdues all things, so shall it beat to powder and subdue.

(Dan 2:41) And whereas thou sawest the feet and the toes, part of earthenware and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; yet there shall be in it of the strength of iron, as thou sawest the iron mixed with earthenware.

(Dan 2:42) And whereas the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of earthenware, part of the kingdom shall be strong, and part of it shall be broken.

(Dan 2:43) Whereas thou sawest the iron mixed with earthenware, they shall be mingled with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave together, as the iron does not mix itself with earthenware.

(Dan 2:44) And in the days of those kings the Elohim of heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed: and his kingdom shall not be left to another people, but it shall beat to pieces and grind to powder all other kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

(Dan 2:45) Whereas thou sawest that a stone was cut out of a mountain without hands, and it beat to pieces the earthenware, the iron, the brass, the silver, the gold; the great Elohim has made known to the king what must happen hereafter: and the dream is true, and the interpretation thereof sure.

(Dan 2:46) Then king Nabuchodonosor fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and gave orders to offer to him gifts and incense.

(Dan 2:47) And the king answered and said to Daniel, Of a truth your Elohim is a Elohim of gods, and Lord of kings, who reveals mysteries; for thou has been able to reveal this mystery.

(Dan 2:48) And the king promoted Daniel, and gave him great and abundant gifts, and set him over the whole province of Babylon, and made him chief satrap over all the wise men of Babylon.

(Dan 2:49) And Daniel asked of the king, and he appointed Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the king's palace.

(Dan 3:1) In his eighteenth year Nabuchodonosor the king made a golden image, its height was sixty cubits, its breadth six cubits: and he set it up in the plain of Deira, in the province of Babylon.

(Dan 3:2) And he sent forth to gather the governors, and the captains, and the heads of provinces, chiefs, and princes, and those who were in authority, and all the rulers of districts, to come to the dedication of the image.

(Dan 3:3) So the heads of provinces, the governors, the captains, the chiefs, the great princes, those who were in authority, and all the rulers of districts, were gathered to the dedication of the image which king Nabuchodonosor had set up; and they stood before the image.

(Dan 3:4) Then a herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, ye peoples, tribes, and languages, (Dan 3:5) at what hour ye shall hear the sound of the trumpet, and pipe, and harp, and sackbut, and psaltery, and every kind of music, ye shall fall down and worship the golden image which king Nabuchodonosor has set up.

(Dan 3:6) And whosoever shall not fall down and worship, in the same hour he shall be cast into the burning fiery furnace.

(Dan 3:7) And it came to pass when the nations heard the sound of the trumpet, and pipe, and harp, and sackbut, and psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the nations, tribes, and languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image which king Nabuchodonosor had set up.

(Dan 3:8) Then came near certain Chaldeans, and accused the Jews to the king, saying, (Dan 3:9) O king, live for ever.

(Dan 3:10) Thou, O king, has made a decree that every man who shall hear the sound of the trumpet, and pipe, and harp, sackbut, and psaltery, and all kinds of music, (Dan 3:11) and shall not fall down and worship the golden image, shall be cast into the burning fiery furnace.

(Dan 3:12) There are certain Jews whom thou has appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, who have not obeyed thy decree, O king: they serve not thy gods, and worship not the golden image which thou hast set up.

(Dan 3:13) Then Nabuchodonosor in wrath and anger commanded to bring Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago: and they were brought before the king.

(Dan 3:14) And Nabuchodonosor answered and said to them, Is it true, Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, that ye serve not my gods, and worship not the golden image which I have set up?

(Dan 3:15) Now then if ye be ready, whensoever ye shall hear the sound of the trumpet, and pipe, and harp, and sackbut, and psaltery, and harmony, and every kind of music, to fall down and worship the golden image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, in the same hour ye shall be cast into the burning fiery furnace; and who is the Elohim that shall deliver you out of my hand?

(Dan 3:16) Then answered Sedrach, Misach and Abdenago and said to king Nabuchodonosor, We have no need to answer thee concerning this matter.

(Dan 3:17) For our Elohim whom we serve is in the heavens, able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will rescue us from thy hands, O king.

(Dan 3:18) But if not, be it known to thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the image which thou hast set up.

(Dan 3:19) Then Nabuchodonosor was filled with wrath, and the form of his countenance was changed toward Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago: and he gave orders to heat the furnace seven times more than usual, until it should burn to the uttermost.

(Dan 3:20) And he commanded mighty men to bind Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

(Dan 3:21) Then those men were bound with their coats, and caps, and hose, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace, (Dan 3:22) forasmuch as the king's word prevailed; and the furnace was made exceeding hot.

(Dan 3:23) Then these three men, Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, fell bound into the midst of the burning furnace, and walked in the midst of the flame, singing praise to Elohim, and blessing YHVH.

Then Azarias stood up, and prayed on this manner; and opening his mouth in the midst of the fire said, Blessed art thou, YHVH Elohim of our fathers: thy name is worthy to be praised and glorified for evermore: For thou art righteous in all the things that thou hast done to us: yea, true are all thy works, thy ways are right, and all thy judgments truth.

In all the things that thou hast brought upon us, and upon the holy city of our fathers, even Jerusalem, thou hast executed true judgment: for according to truth and judgment didst thou bring all these things upon us because of our sins. For we have sinned and committed iniquity, departing from thee. In all things have we trespassed, and not obeyed thy commandments, nor kept them, neither done as thou hast commanded us, that it might go well with us. Wherefore all that thou hast brought upon us, and every thing that thou hast done to us, thou hast done in true judgment.

And thou didst deliver us into the hands of lawless enemies, most hateful forsakers of Elohim, and to an unjust king, and the most wicked in all the world. And now we cannot open our mouths, we are become a shame and reproach to thy servants; and to them that worship thee.

Yet deliver us not up wholly, for thy name's sake, neither disannul thou thy covenant: And cause not thy mercy to depart from us, for thy beloved Abraham's sake, for thy servant Isaac's sake, and for thy holy Israel's sake; To whom thou hast spoken and promised, that thou wouldest multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that lieth upon the seashore. For we, YHVH, are become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the world because of our sins. Neither is there at this time prince, or prophet, or leader, or burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to sacrifice before thee, and to find mercy.

Nevertheless in a contrite heart and an humble spirit let us be accepted. Like as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs: so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and grant that we may wholly go after thee: for they shall not be confounded that put their trust in thee.

And now we follow thee with all our heart, we fear thee, and seek thy face. Put us not to shame: but deal with us after thy lovingkindness, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

Deliver us also according to thy marvellous works, and give glory to thy name, YHVH: and let all them that do thy servants hurt be ashamed; And let them be confounded in all their power and might, and let their strength be broken; And let them know that thou art Elohim, the only Elohim, and glorious over the whole world. And the king's servants, that put them in, ceased not to make the oven hot with rosin, pitch, tow, and small wood; So that the flame streamed forth above the furnace forty and nine cubits. And it passed through, and burned those Chaldeans it found about the furnace.

But the angel of YHVH came down into the oven together with Azarias and his fellows, and smote the flame of the fire out of the oven; And made the midst of the furnace as it had been a moist whistling wind, so that the fire touched them not at all, neither hurt nor troubled them. Then the three, as out of one mouth, praised, glorified, and blessed, Elohim in the furnace, saying, Blessed art thou, YHVH Elohim of our fathers: and to be praised and exalted above all for ever. And blessed is thy glorious and holy name: and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou in the temple of thine holy glory: and to be praised and glorified above all for ever. Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths, and sittest upon the cherubims: and to be praised and exalted above all for ever. Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy kingdom: and to be praised and glorified above all for ever. Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven: and above all to be praised and glorified for ever.

O all ye works of YHVH, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever, O ye heavens, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye angels of YHVH, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O all ye waters that be above the heaven, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O all ye powers of YHVH, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye sun and moon, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye stars of heaven, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O every shower and dew, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O all ye winds, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever, O ye fire and heat, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye winter and summer, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye dews and storms of snow, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye nights and days, bless ye YHVH: bless and exalt him above all for ever. O ye light and darkness, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye ice and cold, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye frost and snow, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye lightnings and clouds, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O let the earth bless YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye mountains and little hills, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O all ye things that grow in the earth, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye mountains, bless ye YHVH: Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye seas and rivers, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye whales, and all that move in the waters, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O all ye fowls of the air, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O all ye beasts and cattle, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye children of men, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O Israel, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye priests of YHVH, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye servants of YHVH, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye spirits and souls of the righteous, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye holy and humble men of heart, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, bless ye YHVH: praise and exalt him above all for ever: for he hath delivered us from hell, and saved us from the hand of death, and delivered us out of the midst of the furnace and burning flame: even out of the midst of the fire hath he delivered us. O give thanks unto YHVH, because he is gracious: for his mercy endureth for ever.

O all ye that worship YHVH, bless the Elohim of gods, praise him, and give him thanks: for his mercy endureth for ever.

(Dan 3:24) And Nabuchodonosor heard them singing praises; and he wondered, and rose up in haste, and said to his nobles, Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? and they said to the king, Yes, O king.

(Dan 3:25) And the king said, But I see four men loose, and walking in the midst of the fire, and there has no harm happened to them; and the appearance of the fourth is like the Son of Elohim.

(Dan 3:26) Then Nabuchodonosor drew near to the door of the burning fiery furnace, and said, Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, ye servants of the most high Elohim, proceed forth, and come hither. So Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, came forth out of the midst of the fire.

(Dan 3:27) Then were assembled the satraps, and captains, and heads of provinces, and the royal princes; and they saw the men, and perceived that the fire had not had power against their bodies, and the hair of their head was not burnt, and their coats were not scorched, nor was the smell of fire upon them.

(Dan 3:28) And king Nabuchodonosor answered and said, Blessed be the Elohim of Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants, because they trusted in him; and they have changed the king's word, and delivered their bodies to be burnt, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own Elohim.

(Dan 3:29) Wherefore I publish a decree: Every people, tribe, or language, that shall speak reproachfully against the Elohim of Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago shall be destroyed, and their houses shall be plundered: because there is no other Elohim who shall be able to deliver thus.

(Dan 3:30) Then the king promoted Sedrach, Misach, and Abdenago, in the province of Babylon, and advanced them, and gave them authority to rule over all the Jews who were in his kingdom.

(Dan 3:31) King Nabuchodonosor to all nations, tribes, and tongues, who dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied to you.

(Dan 3:32) It seemed good to me to declare to you the signs and wonders which the most high Elohim has wrought with me, (Dan 3:33) how great and mighty they are: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his power to all generations.

(Dan 4:1) I Nabuchodonosor was thriving in my house, and prospering.

(Dan 4:2) I saw a vision, and it terrified me, and I was troubled on my bed, and the visions of my head troubled me.

(Dan 4:3) And I made a decree to bring in before me all the wise men of Babylon, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

(Dan 4:4) So the enchanters, magicians, soothsayers, and Chaldeans came in: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me the interpretation thereof;

(Dan 4:5) until Daniel came, whose name is Baltasar, according to the name of my Elohim, who has within him the Holy Spirit of Elohim; to whom I said, (Dan 4:6) O Baltasar, chief of the enchanters, of whom I know that the Holy Spirit of Elohim is in thee, and no mystery is too hard for thee, hear the vision of my dream which I had, and tell me the interpretation of it.

(Dan 4:7) I had a vision upon my bed; and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height was great.

(Dan 4:8) The tree grew large and strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its extent to the extremity of the whole earth:

(Dan 4:9) its leaves were fair, and its fruit abundant, and in it was meat for all; and under it the wild beasts of the field took shelter, and the birds of the sky lodged in the branches of it, and all flesh was fed of it.

(Dan 4:10) I beheld in the night vision upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven and cried aloud, and thus he said, (Dan 4:11) Cut down the tree, and pluck off its branches, and shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the wild beasts be removed from under it, and the birds from its branches.

(Dan 4:12) Only leave the stump of its roots in the earth, and bind it with an iron and brass band; and it shall lie in the grass that is without and in the dew of heaven, and its portion shall be with the wild beasts in the grass of the field.

(Dan 4:13) His heart shall be changed from that of man, and the heart of a wild beast shall be given to him; and seven times shall pass over him.

(Dan 4:14) The matter is by the decree of the watcher, and the demand is a word of the holy ones; that the living may know that YHVH is most high over the kingdom of men, and he will give it to whomsoever he shall please, and will set up over it that which is set at nought of men.

(Dan 4:15) This is the vision which I king Nabuchodonosor saw: and do thou, Baltasar, declare the interpretation, for none of the wise men of my kingdom are able to shew me the interpretation of it: but thou, Daniel, art able; for the Holy Spirit of Elohim is in thee.

(Dan 4:16) Then Daniel, whose name is Baltasar, was amazed about one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. And Baltasar answered and said, My lord, let the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation of it to thine enemies.

(Dan 4:17) The tree which thou sawest, that grew large and strong, whose height reached to the sky and its extent to all the earth;

(Dan 4:18) and whose leaves were flourishing, and its fruit abundant, (and it was meat for all; under it the wild beasts lodged, and the birds of the sky took shelter in its branches:)

(Dan 4:19) is thyself, O king; for thou art grown great and powerful, and thy greatness has increased and reached to heaven, and thy dominion to the ends of the earth.

(Dan 4:20) And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and he said, Strip the tree, and destroy it; only leave the stump of its roots in the ground, and bind it with a band of iron and brass; and it shall lie in the grass that is without, and in the dew of heaven, and its portion shall be with wild beasts, until seven times have passed over it;

(Dan 4:21) this is the interpretation of it, O king, and it is a decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king.

(Dan 4:22) And they shall drive thee forth from men, and thy dwelling shall be with wild beasts, and they shall feed thee with grass as an ox, and thou shall have thy lodging under the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High is Lord of the kingdom of men, and will give it to whom he shall please.

(Dan 4:23) And whereas they said, Leave the stumps of the roots of the tree; thy kingdom abides sure to thee from the time that thou shalt know the power of the heavens.

(Dan 4:24) Therefore, O king, let my counsel please thee, and atone for thy sins by alms, and thine iniquities by compassion on the poor: it may be Elohim will be long-suffering to thy trespasses.

(Dan 4:25) All these things came upon king Nabuchodonosor.

(Dan 4:26) After a twelvemonth, as he walked in his palace in Babylon,

(Dan 4:27) the king answered and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for a royal residence, by the might of my power, for the honour of my glory?

(Dan 4:28) While the word was yet in the king's mouth, there came a voice from heaven, saying, To thee, king Nabuchodonosor, they say, The kingdom has departed from thee.

(Dan 4:29) And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the wild beasts of the field, and they shall feed thee with grass as an ox: and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High is Lord of the kingdom of men, and he will give it to whomsoever he shall please.

(Dan 4:30) In the same hour the word was fulfilled upon Nabuchodonosor: and he was driven forth from men, and he ate grass as an ox, and his body was bathed with the dew of heaven, until his hairs were grown like lions' hairs, and his nails as birds' claws.

(Dan 4:31) And at the end of the time I Nabuchodonosor lifted up mine eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised him that lives for ever, and gave him glory; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom lasts to all generations:

(Dan 4:32) and all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and there is none who shall withstand his power, and say to him, What has thou done?

(Dan 4:33) At the same time my reason returned to me, and I came to the honour of my kingdom; and my natural form returned to me, and my princes, and my nobles, sought me, and I was established in my kingdom, and more abundant majesty was added to me.

(Dan 4:34) Now therefore I Nabuchodonosor praise and greatly exalt and glorify the King of heaven; for all his works are true, and his paths are judgment: and all that walk in pride he is able to abase.

(Dan 5:1) Baltasar the king made a great supper for his thousand nobles, and there was wine before the thousand.

(Dan 5:2) And Baltasar drinking gave orders as he tasted the wine that they should bring the gold and silver vessels, which Nabuchodonosor his father had brought forth from the temple in Jerusalem; that the king, and his nobles, and his mistresses, and his concubines, should drink out of them.

(Dan 5:3) So the gold and silver vessels were brought which Nabuchodonosor had taken out of the temple of Elohim in Jerusalem; and the king, and his nobles, and his mistresses, and his concubines, drank out of them.

(Dan 5:4) They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of iron, and of wood, and of stone.

(Dan 5:5) In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote in front of the lamp on the plaster of the wall of the king's house: and the king saw the knuckles of the hand that wrote.

(Dan 5:6) Then the king's countenance changed, and his thoughts troubled him, and the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one another.

(Dan 5:7) And the king cried aloud to bring in the magicians, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; and he said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and make known to me the interpretation, shall be clothed with scarlet, and there shall be a golden chain upon his neck, and he shall be the third ruler in my kingdom.

(Dan 5:8) Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known the interpretation to the king.

(Dan 5:9) And king Baltasar was troubled, and his countenance changed upon him, and his nobles were troubled with him.

(Dan 5:10) Then the queen came into the banquet house, and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, and let not thy countenance be changed.

(Dan 5:11) There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the Spirit of Elohim; and in the days of thy father watchfulness and understanding were found in him; and king Nabuchodonosor thy father made him chief of the enchanters, magicians, Chaldeans, and soothsayers.

(Dan 5:12) For there is an excellent spirit in him, and sense and understanding in him, interpreting dreams as he does, and answering hard questions, and solving difficulties: it is Daniel, and the king gave him the name of Baltasar: now then let him be called, and he shall tell thee the interpretation of the writing.

(Dan 5:13) Then Daniel was brought in before the king: and the king said to Daniel, Art thou Daniel, of the children of the captivity of Judea, which the king my father brought?

(Dan 5:14) I have heard concerning thee, that the Spirit of Elohim is in thee, and that watchfulness and understanding and excellent wisdom have been found in thee.

(Dan 5:15) And now, the wise men, magicians, and soothsayers, have come in before me, to read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation: but they could not tell it me.

(Dan 5:16) And I have heard concerning thee, that thou art able to make interpretations: now then if thou shalt be able to read the writing, and to make known to me the interpretation of it, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and there shall be a golden chain upon thy neck, and thou shalt be third ruler in my kingdom.

(Dan 5:17) And Daniel said, before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give the present of thine house to another; but I will read the writing, and will make known to thee the interpretation of it.

(Dan 5:18) O king, the most high Elohim gave to thy father Nabuchodonosor a kingdom, and majesty, and honour, and glory:

(Dan 5:19) and by reason of the majesty which he gave to him, all nations, tribes, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he smote; and whom he would he exalted; and whom he would he abased.

(Dan 5:20) But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was emboldened to act proudly, he was deposed from his royal throne, and his honour was taken from him.

(Dan 5:21) And he was driven forth from men; and his heart was given him after the nature of wild beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; and they fed him with grass as an ox, and his body was bathed with the dew of heaven; until he knew that the most high Elohim is Lord of the kingdom of men, and will give it to whomsoever he shall please.

(Dan 5:22) And thou accordingly, his son, O Baltasar, has not humbled thine heart before Elohim: knowest thou not all this?

(Dan 5:23) And thou has been exalted against YHVH Elohim of heaven; and they have brought before thee the vessels of his house, and thou, and thy nobles, and thy mistresses, and thy concubines, have drunk wine out of them; and thou has praised the gods of gold, and silver, and brass, and iron, and wood, and stone, which see not, and which hear not, and know not: and the Elohim in whose hand are thy breath, and all thy ways has thou not glorified.

(Dan 5:24) Therefore from his presence has been sent forth the knuckle of a hand; and he has ordered the writing.

(Dan 5:25) And this is the ordered writing, Mane, Thekel, Phares.

(Dan 5:26) This is the interpretation of the sentence: Mane; Elohim has measured thy kingdom, and finished it.

(Dan 5:27) Thekel; it has been weighed in the balance, and found wanting.

(Dan 5:28) Phares; thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

(Dan 5:29) Then Baltasar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put the golden chain about his neck, and proclaimed concerning him that he was the third ruler in the kingdom.

(Dan 5:30) In the same night was Baltasar the Chaldean king slain.

(Dan 5:31) And Darius the Mede succeeded to the kingdom, being sixty-two years old.

(Dan 6:1) And it pleased Darius, and he set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, to be in all his kingdom;

(Dan 6:2) and over them three governors, of whom one was, Daniel; for the satraps to give account to them, that the king should not be troubled.

(Dan 6:3) And Daniel was over them, for there was an excellent spirit in him; and the king set him over all his kingdom.

(Dan 6:4) Then the governors and satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel; but they found against him no occasion, nor trespass, nor error, because he was faithful.

(Dan 6:5) And the governors said, We shall not find occasion against Daniel, except in the ordinances of his Elohim.

(Dan 6:6) Then the governors and satraps stood by the king, and said to him, King Darius, live for ever.

(Dan 6:7) All who preside over thy kingdom, captains and satraps, chiefs and local governors, have taken counsel together, to establish by a royal statue and to confirm a decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions.

(Dan 6:8) Now then, O king, establish the decree, and publish a writ, that the decree of the Persians and Medes be not changed.

(Dan 6:9) Then king Darius commanded the decree to be written.

(Dan 6:10) And when Daniel knew that the decree was ordered, he went into his house; and his windows were opened in his chambers toward Jerusalem, and three times in the day he knelt upon his knees, and prayed and gave thanks before his Elohim, as he used to do before.

(Dan 6:11) Then these men watched, and found Daniel praying and supplicating to his Elohim.

(Dan 6:12) And they came and said to the king, O king, has thou not made a decree, that whatsoever man shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, but of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? And the king said, The word is true, and the decree of the Medes and Persians shall not pass.

(Dan 6:13) Then they answered and said before the king, Daniel of the children of the captivity of Judea, has not submitted to thy decree; and three times in the day he makes his requests of his Elohim.

(Dan 6:14) Then the king, when he heard the saying, was much grieved for Daniel and he greatly exerted himself for Daniel to deliver him: and he exerted himself till evening to deliver him.

(Dan 6:15) Then those men said to the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is that we must not change any decree of statue which the king shall make.

(Dan 6:16) Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. But the king said to Daniel, Thy Elohim whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

(Dan 6:17) And they brought a stone, and put it on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his ring, and with the ring of his nobles; that the case might not be altered with regard to Daniel.

(Dan 6:18) And the king departed to his house, and lay down fasting, and they brought him no food; and his sleep departed from him. But Elohim shut the mouths of the lions, and they not molest Daniel.

(Dan 6:19) Then the king arose very early in the morning, and came in hast to the den of lions.

(Dan 6:20) And when he drew near to the den, he cried with a loud voice, Daniel, servant of the living Elohim, has thy Elohim, whom thou servest continually, been able to deliver thee from the lion's mouth?

(Dan 6:21) And Daniel said to the king, O king, live for ever.

(Dan 6:22) My Elohim has sent his angel, and stopped the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me: for uprightness was found in me before him; and moreover before thee, O king, I have committed no trespass.

(Dan 6:23) Then the king was very glad for him, and he commanded to bring Daniel out of the den. So Daniel was brought out of the den, and there was found no hurt upon him, because he believed in his Elohim.

(Dan 6:24) And the king commanded, and they brought the men that had accused Daniel, and they were cast into the den of lions, they, and their children, and their wives: and they reached not the bottom of the den before the lions had the mastery of them, and utterly broke to pieces all their bones.

(Dan 6:25) Then king Darius wrote to all nations, tribes, and languages, who dwell in all the earth, saying, Peace be multiplied to you.

(Dan 6:26) This decree has been set forth by me in every dominion of my kingdom, that men tremble and fear before the Elohim of Daniel: for he is the living and eternal Elohim, and his kingdom shall not be destroyed, and his dominion is for ever.

(Dan 6:27) He helps and delivers, and works signs and wonders in the heaven and on the earth, who has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.

(Dan 6:28) And Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

(Dan 7:1) In the first year of Baltasar, king of the Chaldeans Daniel had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed: and he wrote his dream.

(Dan 7:2) I Daniel beheld, and, lo, the four winds of heaven blew violently upon the great sea.

(Dan 7:3) And there came up four great beasts out of the sea, differing from one another.

(Dan 7:4) The first was as a lioness, and her wings as an eagle's; I beheld until her wings were plucked, and she was lifted off from the earth, and she stood on human feet, and a man's heart was given to her.

(Dan 7:5) And, behold, a second beast like a bear, and it supported itself on one side, and there were three ribs in its mouth, between its teeth: and thus they said to it, Arise, devour much flesh.

(Dan 7:6) After this one I looked, and behold another wild beast as a leopard, and it had four wings of a bird upon it: and the wild beast had four heads, and power was given to it.

(Dan 7:7) After this one I looked, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong, and its teeth were of iron; devouring and crushing to atoms, and it trampled the remainder with its feet: and it was altogether different from the beasts that were before it; and it had ten hours.

(Dan 7:8) I noticed his horns, and behold, another little horn came up in the midst of them, and before it three of the former horns were rooted out: and, behold, there were eyes as the eyes of a man in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things.

(Dan 7:9) I beheld until the thrones were set, and the Ancient of days sat; and his raiment was white as snow, and the hair of his head, as pure wool: his throne was a flame of fire, and his wheels burning fire.

(Dan 7:10) A stream of fire rushed forth before him: thousand thousands ministered to him, and ten thousands of myriads, attended upon him: the judgment sat, and the books were opened.

(Dan 7:11) I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which that horn spoke, until the wild beast was slain and destroyed, and his body given to be burnt with fire.

(Dan 7:12) And the dominion of the rest of the wild beasts was taken away; but a prolonging of life was given them for certain times.

(Dan 7:13) I beheld in the night vision, and, lo, one coming with the clouds of heaven as the Son of man, and he came on to the Ancient of days, and was brought near to him.

(Dan 7:14) And to him was given the dominion, and the honour, and the kingdom; and all nations, tribes, and languages, shall serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom shall not be destroyed.

(Dan 7:15) As for me Daniel, my spirit in my body trembled, and the visions of my head troubled me.

(Dan 7:16) And I drew near to one of them that stood by, and I sought to learn of him the truth of all these things: and he told me the truth, and made known to me the interpretation of the things.

(Dan 7:17) These four beasts are four kingdoms that shall rise up on the earth:

(Dan 7:18) which shall be taken away; and the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess it for ever and ever.

(Dan 7:19) Then I enquired carefully concerning the fourth beast; for it differed from every other beast, exceeding dreadful: its teeth were of iron, and its claws of brass, devouring, and utterly breaking to pieces, and it trampled the remainder with its feet:

(Dan 7:20) and concerning it ten horns that were in its head, and the other that came up, and rooted up some of the former, which had eyes, and a mouth speaking great things, and his look was bolder than the rest.

(Dan 7:21) I beheld, and that horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

(Dan 7:22) until the Ancient of days came, and he gave judgment to the saints of the Most High; and the time came on, and the saints possessed the kingdom.

(Dan 7:23) And he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom on the earth, which shall excel all other kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and trample and destroy it.

(Dan 7:24) And his ten horns are ten kings that shall arise: and after them shall arise another, who shall exceed all the former ones in wickedness and he shall subdue three kings.

(Dan 7:25) And he shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change times and law: and power shall be given into his hand for a time and times and half a time.

(Dan 7:26) And the judgment has sat, and they shall remove his dominion to abolish it, and to destroy it utterly.

(Dan 7:27) And the kingdom and the power and the greatness of the kings that are under the whole heaven were given to the saints of the Most High; and his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all powers shall serve and obey him.

(Dan 7:28) Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me, and my countenance was changed: but I kept the matter in my heart.

(Dan 8:1) In the third year of the reign of king Baltasar a vision appeared to me, even to me Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first.

(Dan 8:2) And I was in Susa the palace, which is in the land of Ælam, and I was on the bank of Ubal.

(Dan 8:3) And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, a ram standing in front of the Ubal; and he had high horns; and one was higher than the other, and the high one came up last.

(Dan 8:4) And I saw the ram butting westward, and northward, and southward; and no beast could stand before him, and there was none that could deliver out of his hand; and he did according to his will, and became great.

(Dan 8:5) And I was considering, and, behold, a he-goat came from the south-west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the earth: and the goat had a horn between his eyes.

(Dan 8:6) And he came to the ram that had the horns, which I had seen standing in front of the Ubal, and he ran at him with the violence of his strength.

(Dan 8:7) And I saw him coming up close to the ram, and he was furiously enraged against him, and he smote the ram, and broke both his horns: and there was no strength in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him on the ground, and trampled on him; and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

(Dan 8:8) And the he-goat grew exceedingly great: and when he was strong, his great horn was broken; and four other horns rose up in its place toward the four winds of heaven.

(Dan 8:9) And out of one of them came forth one strong horn, and it grew very great toward the south, and toward the host:

(Dan 8:10) and it magnified itself to the host of heaven; and there fell to the earth some of the host of heaven and of the stars, and they trampled on them.

(Dan 8:11) And this shall be until the chief captain shall have delivered the captivity: and by reason of him the sacrifice was disturbed, and he prospered; and the holy place shall be made desolate.

(Dan 8:12) And a sin-offering was given for the sacrifice, and righteousness was cast down to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

(Dan 8:13) And I heard one saint speaking, and a saint said to a certain one speaking, How long shall the vision continue, even the removal of the sacrifice, and the bringing in of the sin of desolation; and how long shall the sanctuary and host be trampled?

(Dan 8:14) And he said to him, Evening and morning there shall be two thousand and four hundred days; and then the sanctuary shall be cleansed.

(Dan 8:15) And it came to pass, as I, even I Daniel, saw the vision, and sought to understand it, that, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

(Dan 8:16) And I heard the voice of a man between the banks of the Ubal; and he called, and said, Gabriel, cause that man to understand the vision.

(Dan 8:17) And he came and stood near where I stood: and when he came, I was struck with awe, and fell upon my face: but he said to me, Understand, son of man: for yet the vision is for an appointed time.

(Dan 8:18) And while he spoke with me, I fell upon my face to the earth: and he touched me, and set me on my feet.

(Dan 8:19) And he said, Behold, I make thee know the things that shall come to pass at the end of the wrath: for the vision is yet for an appointed time.

(Dan 8:20) The ram which thou sawest that had the horns is the king of the Medes and Persians.

(Dan 8:21) The he-goat is the King of the Greeks: and the great horn which was between his eyes, he is the first king.

(Dan 8:22) And as for the one that was broken, in whose place there stood up four horns, four kings shall arise out of his nation, but not in their own strength.

(Dan 8:23) And at the latter time of their kingdom, when their sins are coming to the full, there shall arise a king bold in countenance, and understanding riddles.

(Dan 8:24) And his power shall be great, and he shall destroy wonderfully, and prosper, and practise, and shall destroy mighty men, and the holy people.

(Dan 8:25) And the yoke of his chain shall prosper: there is craft in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by craft shall destroy many, and he shall stand up for the destruction of many, and shall crush them as eggs in his hand.

(Dan 8:26) And the vision of the evening and morning that was mentioned is true: and do thou seal the vision; for it is for many days.

(Dan 8:27) And I Daniel fell asleep, and was sick: then I arose, and did the king's business; and I wondered at the vision, and there was none that understood it.

(Dan 9:1) In the first year of Darius the son of Assuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who reigned over the kingdom of the Chaldeans, (Dan 9:2) I Daniel understood by books the number of the years which was the word of YHVH to the prophet Jeremias, even seventy years for the accomplishment of the desolation of Jerusalem.

(Dan 9:3) And I set my face toward YHVH Elohim, to seek him diligently by prayer and supplications, with fastings and sackcloth.

(Dan 9:4) And I prayed to YHVH my Elohim, and confessed, and said, YHVH, the great and wonderful Elohim, keeping thy covenant and thy mercy to them that love thee, and to them that keep thy commandments; we have sinned,

(Dan 9:5) we have done iniquity, we have transgressed, and we have departed and turned aside from thy commandments and from thy judgments:

(Dan 9:6) and we have not hearkened to thy servants the prophets, who spoke in thy name to our kings, and our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

(Dan 9:7) To thee, YHVH, belongs righteousness, and to us confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Juda, and to the dwellers in Jerusalem, and to all Israel, to them that are near, and to them that are far off in all the earth, wherever thou has scattered them, for the sin which they committed.

(Dan 9:8) In thee, YHVH, is our righteousness, and to us belongs confusion of face, and to our kings, and to our princes, and to our fathers, forasmuch as we have sinned.

(Dan 9:9) To thee, YHVH our Elohim, belong compassions and forgivenesses, whereas we have departed from thee;

(Dan 9:10) neither have we hearkened to the voice of YHVH our Elohim, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by the hands of his servants the prophets.

(Dan 9:11) Moreover all Israel have transgressed thy law, and have refused to hearken to thy voice; so the curse has come upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of Elohim, because we have sinned against him.

(Dan 9:12) And he has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us great evils, such as have not happened under the whole heaven, according to what has happened in Jerusalem.

(Dan 9:13) As it is written in the law of Moses, all these evils have come upon us: yet we have not besought YHVH our Elohim, that we might turn away from our iniquities, and have understanding in all thy truth.

(Dan 9:14) YHVH also has watched, and brought the evils upon us: for YHVH our Elohim is righteous in all his work which he has executed, but we have not hearkened to his voice.

(Dan 9:15) And now, YHVH our Elohim, who broughtest thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and madest to thyself a name, as at this day; we have sinned, we have transgressed.

(Dan 9:16) YHVH, thy mercy is over all: let, I pray thee, thy wrath turn away, and thine anger from thy city Jerusalem, even thy holy mountain: for we have sinned, and because of our iniquities, and those of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach among all that are round about us.

(Dan 9:17) And now, O lord our Elohim, hearken to the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine on thy desolate sanctuary, for thine own sake, YHVH.

(Dan 9:18) Incline thine ear, O my Elohim, and hear; open thine eyes and behold our desolation, and that of thy city on which thy name is called: for we do not bring our pitiful case before thee on the ground of our righteousness, but on the ground of thy manifold compassions, YHVH.

(Dan 9:19) Hearken, YHVH; be propitious, YHVH; attend, YHVH; delay not, O my Elohim, for thine own sake: for thy name is called upon thy city and upon thy people.

(Dan 9:20) And while I was yet speaking, and praying, and confessing my sins and the sins of my people Israel, and bringing my pitiful case before YHVH my Elohim concerning the holy mountain;

(Dan 9:21) yea, while I was yet speaking in prayer, behold the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, came flying, and he touched me about the hour of the evening sacrifice.

(Dan 9:22) And he instructed me, and spoke with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to impart to thee understanding.

(Dan 9:23) At the beginning of thy supplication the word came forth, and I am come to tell thee; for thou art a man much beloved: therefore consider the matter, understand the vision.

(Dan 9:24) Seventy weeks have been determined upon thy people, and upon the holy city, for sin to be ended, and to seal up transgressions, and to blot out the iniquities, and to make atonement for iniquities, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal the vision and the prophet, and to anoint the Most Holy.

(Dan 9:25) And thou shalt know and understand, that from the going forth of the command for the answer and for the building of Jerusalem until Christ the prince there shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks; and then the time shall return, and the street shall be built, and the wall, and the times shall be exhausted.

(Dan 9:26) And after the sixty-two weeks, the anointed one shall be destroyed, and there is no judgment in him: and he shall destroy the city and the sanctuary with the prince that is coming: they shall be cut off with a flood, and to the end of the war which is rapidly completed he shall appoint the city to desolations.

(Dan 9:27) And one week shall establish the covenant with many: and in the midst of the week my sacrifice and drink-offering shall be taken away: and on the temple shall be the abomination of desolations; and at the end of time an end shall be put to the desolation.

(Dan 10:1) In the third year of Cyrus king of the Persians a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Baltasar; and the thing was true, and great power and understanding in the vision was given to him.

(Dan 10:2) In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

(Dan 10:3) I ate no pleasant bread, and no flesh or wine entered into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself with oil, until three whole weeks were accomplished.

(Dan 10:4) On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I was near the great river, which is Tigris Eddekel.

(Dan 10:5) And I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a man clothed in linen, and his loins were girt with gold of Ophaz:

(Dan 10:6) and his body was as Tharsis, and his face was as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his legs as the appearance of shining brass, and the voice of his words as the voice of a multitude.

(Dan 10:7) And I Daniel only saw the vision: and the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great amazement fell upon them, and they fled in fear.

(Dan 10:8) So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there was no strength left in me, and my glory was turned into corruption, and I retained no strength.

(Dan 10:9) Yet I heard the voice of his words: and when I heard him I was pricked in the heart, and I fell with my face to the earth.

(Dan 10:10) And, behold, a hand touched me, and it raised me on my knees.

(Dan 10:11) And he said to me, O Daniel, man greatly beloved, understand the words which I speak to thee, and stand upright: for I am now sent to thee. And when he had spoken to me this word, I stood trembling.

(Dan 10:12) And he said to me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to afflict thyself before YHVH thy Elohim, thy words were heard, and I am come because of thy words.

(Dan 10:13) But the prince of the kingdom of the Persians withstood me twenty-one days: and behold, Michael, one of the princes, came to help me; and I left him there with the chief of the kingdom of the Persians:

(Dan 10:14) and I have come to inform thee of all that shall befall thy people in the last days: for the vision is yet for many days.

(Dan 10:15) And when he had spoken with me according to these words, I turned my face to the ground, and was pricked in the heart.

(Dan 10:16) And, behold, as it were the likeness of a son of man touched my lips; and I opened my mouth, and spoke, and said to him that stood before me, O my lord, at the sight of thee my bowels were turned within me, and I had no strength.

(Dan 10:17) And how shall thy servant be able, O my lord, to speak with this my lord? and as for me, from henceforth strength will not remain in me, and there is no breath left in me.

(Dan 10:18) And there touched me again as it were the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,

(Dan 10:19) and said to me, Fear not, man greatly beloved: peace be to thee, quit thyself like a man, and be strong. And when he had spoken with me, I received strength, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

(Dan 10:20) And he said, Knowest thou, wherefore I am come to thee? and now I will return to fight with the prince of the Persians: and I was going in, and the prince of the Greeks came.

(Dan 10:21) But I will tell thee that which is ordained in the scripture of truth: and there is no one that holds with me in these matters but Michael your prince.

(Dan 11:1) And I in the first year of Cyrus stood to strengthen and confirm him.

(Dan 11:2) And now I will tell thee the truth. Behold, there shall yet rise up three kings in Persia: and the fourth shall be very far richer than all: and after that he is master of his wealth, he shall rise up against all the kingdoms of the Greeks.

(Dan 11:3) And there shall rise up a mighty king, and he shall be lord of a great empire, and shall do according to his will.

(Dan 11:4) And when his kingdom shall stand up, it shall be broken, and shall be divided to the four winds of heaven; but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled over: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, and given to others beside these.

(Dan 11:5) And the king of the south shall be strong; and one of their princes shall prevail against him, and shall obtain a great dominion.

(Dan 11:6) And after his years they shall associate; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north, to make agreements with him: but she shall not retain power of arm; neither shall his seed stand: and she shall be delivered up, and they that brought her, and the maiden, and he that strengthened her in these times.

(Dan 11:7) But out of the flower of her root there shall arise one on his place, and shall come against the host, and shall enter into the strongholds of the king of the north, and shall fight against them, and prevail.

(Dan 11:8) Yea, he shall carry with a body of captives into Egypt their gods with their molten images, and all their precious vessels of silver and gold; and he shall last longer than the king of the north.

(Dan 11:9) And he shall enter into the kingdom of the king of the south, and shall return to his own land.

(Dan 11:10) And his sons shall gather a multitude among many: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through, and he shall rest, and collect his strength.

(Dan 11:11) And the king of the south shall be greatly enraged, and shall come forth, and shall war with the king of the north: and he shall raise a great multitude; but the multitude shall be delivered into his hand.

(Dan 11:12) And he shall take the multitude, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down many thousands; but he shall not prevail.

(Dan 11:13) For the king of the north shall return, and bring a multitude greater than the former, and at the end of the times of years an invading army shall come with a great force, and with much substance.

(Dan 11:14) And in those times many shall rise up against the king of the south; and the children of the spoilers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; and they shall fail.

(Dan 11:15) And the king of the north shall come in, and cast up a mound, and take strong cities: and the arms of the king of the south shall withstand, and his chosen ones shall rise up, but there shall be no strength to stand.

(Dan 11:16) And he that comes in against him shall do according to his will, and there is no one to stand before him: and he shall stand in the land of beauty, and it shall be consumed by his hand.

(Dan 11:17) And he shall set his face to come in with the force of his whole kingdom, and shall cause everything to prosper with him: and he shall give him the daughter of women to corrupt her: but she shall not continue, neither be on his side.

(Dan 11:18) And he shall turn his face to the islands, and shall take many, and cause princes to cease from their reproach: nevertheless his own reproach shall return to him.

(Dan 11:19) Then he shall turn back his face to the strength of his own land: but he shall become weak, and fall, and not be found.

(Dan 11:20) And there shall arise out of his root one that shall cause a plant of the kingdom to pass over his place, earning kingly glory: and yet in those days shall he be broken, yet not openly, nor in war.

(Dan 11:21) One shall stand on his place, who has been set a nought, and they have not put upon him the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in prosperously, and obtain the kingdom by deceitful ways.

(Dan 11:22) And the arms of him that overflows shall be washed away as with a flood from before him, and shall be broken, and so shall be the head of the covenant.

(Dan 11:23) And because of the leagues made with him he shall work deceit: and he shall come up, and overpower them with a small nation.

(Dan 11:24) And he shall enter with prosperity, and that into fertile districts; and he shall do what his fathers and his fathers' fathers have not done; he shall scatter among them plunder, and spoils, and wealth; and he shall devise plans against Egypt, even for a time.

(Dan 11:25) And his strength and his heart shall be stirred up against the king of the south with a great force; and the king of the south shall engage in war with a great and very strong force; but his forces shall not stand, for they shall devise plans against him:

(Dan 11:26) and they shall eat his provisions, and shall crush him, and he shall carry away armies as with a flood, and many shall fall down slain.

(Dan 11:27) And as for both the kings, their hearts are set upon mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper; for yet the end is for a fixed time.

(Dan 11:28) And he shall return to his land with much substance; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall perform great deeds, and return to his own land.

(Dan 11:29) At the set time he shall return, and shall come into the south, but the last expedition shall not be as the first.

(Dan 11:30) For the Citians issuing forth shall come against him, and he shall be brought low, and shall return, and shall be incensed against the holy covenant: and he shall do thus, and shall return, and have intelligence with them that have forsaken the holy covenant.

(Dan 11:31) And seeds shall spring up out of him, and they shall profane the sanctuary of strength, and they shall remove the perpetual sacrifice, and make the abomination desolate.

(Dan 11:32) And the transgressors shall bring about a covenant by deceitful ways: but a people knowing their Elohim shall prevail, and do valiantly.

(Dan 11:33) And the intelligent of the people shall understand much: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, and by captivity, and by spoil of many days.

(Dan 11:34) And when they are weak they shall be helped with a little help: but many shall attach themselves to them with treachery.

(Dan 11:35) And some of them that understand shall fall, to try them as with fire, and to test them, and that they may be manifested at the time of the end, for the matter is yet for a set time.

(Dan 11:36) And he shall do according to his will, and the king shall exalt and magnify himself against every god, and shall speak great swelling words, and shall prosper until the indignation shall be accomplished: for it is coming to an end.

(Dan 11:37) And he shall not regard any gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, neither shall he regard any deity: for he shall magnify himself above all.

(Dan 11:38) And he shall honour the god of forces on his place: and a god whom his fathers knew not he shall honour with gold, and silver, and precious stones, and desirable things.

(Dan 11:39) And he shall do thus in the strong places of refuge with a strange god, and shall increase his glory: and he shall subject many to them, and shall distribute the land in gifts.

(Dan 11:40) And at the end of the time he shall conflict with the king of the south: and the king of the north shall come against him with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and they shall enter into the land: and he shall break in pieces, and pass on:

(Dan 11:41) and he shall enter into the land of beauty, and many shall fail: but these shall escape out of his hand, Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

(Dan 11:42) And he shall stretch forth his hand over the land; and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

(Dan 11:43) And he shall have the mastery over the secret treasures of gold and silver, and over all the desirable possessions of Egypt, and of the Libyans and Ethiopians in their strongholds.

(Dan 11:44) But rumors and anxieties out of the east and from the north shall trouble him; and he shall come with great wrath to destroy many.

(Dan 11:45) And he shall pitch the tabernacle of his palace between the seas in the holy mountain of beauty: but he shall come to his portion, and there is none to deliver him.

(Dan 12:1) And at that time Michael the great prince shall stand up, that stands over the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of tribulation, such tribulation as has not been from the time that there was a nation on the earth until that time: at that time thy people shall be delivered, even every one that is written in the book.

(Dan 12:2) And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to reproach and everlasting shame.

(Dan 12:3) And the wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and some of the many righteous as the stars for ever and ever.

(Dan 12:4) And thou, Daniel, close the words, and seal the book to the time of the end; until many are taught, and knowledge is increased.

(Dan 12:5) And I Daniel saw, and, behold, two others stood, on one side of the bank of the river, and the other on the other side of the bank of the river.

(Dan 12:6) And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was over the water of the river, When will be the end of the wonders which thou has mentioned?

(Dan 12:7) And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was over the water of the river, and he lifted up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him that lives for ever, that it should be for a time of times and half a time: when the dispersion is ended they shall know all these things.

(Dan 12:8) And I heard, but I understood not: and I said, YHVH, what will be the end of these things?

(Dan 12:9) And he said, Go, Daniel: for the words are closed and sealed up to the time of the end.

(Dan 12:10) Many must be tested, and thoroughly whitened, and tried with fire, and sanctified; but the transgressors shall transgress: and none of the transgressors shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

(Dan 12:11) And from the time of the removal of the perpetual sacrifice, when the abomination of desolation shall be set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

(Dan 12:12) Blessed is he that waits, and comes to the thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.

(Dan 12:13) But go thou, and rest; for there are yet days and seasons to the fulfillment of the end; and thou shalt stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

(Dan 13:1) There dwelt a man in Babylon, called Joacim:

(Dan 13:2) And he took a wife, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, a very fair woman, and one that feared YHVH.

(Dan 13:3) Her parents also were righteous, and taught their daughter according to the law of Moses.

(Dan 13:4) Now Joacim was a great rich man, and had a fair garden joining unto his house: and to him resorted the Jews; because he was more honourable than all others.

(Dan 13:5) The same year were appointed two of the ancients of the people to be judges, such as YHVH spake of, that wickedness came from Babylon from ancient judges, who seemed to govern the people.

(Dan 13:6) These kept much at Joacim's house: and all that had any suits in law came unto them.

(Dan 13:7) Now when the people departed away at noon, Susanna went into her husband's garden to walk.

(Dan 13:8) And the two elders saw her going in every day, and walking; so that their lust was inflamed toward her.

(Dan 13:9) And they perverted their own mind, and turned away their eyes, that they might not look unto heaven, nor remember just judgments.

(Dan 13:10) And albeit they both were wounded with her love, yet durst not one shew another his grief.

(Dan 13:11) For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to have to do with her.

(Dan 13:12) Yet they watched diligently from day to day to see her.

(Dan 13:13) And the one said to the other, Let us now go home: for it is dinner time.

(Dan 13:14) So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning back again they came to the same place; and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust: then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone.

(Dan 13:15) And it fell out, as they watched a fit time, she went in as before with two maids only, and she was desirous to wash herself in the garden: for it was hot.

(Dan 13:16) And there was no body there save the two elders, that had hid themselves, and watched her.

(Dan 13:17) Then she said to her maids, Bring me oil and washing balls, and shut the garden doors, that I may wash me.

(Dan 13:18) And they did as she bade them, and shut the garden doors, and went out themselves at privy doors to fetch the things that she had commanded them: but they saw not the elders, because they were hid.

(Dan 13:19) Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders rose up, and ran unto her, saying, (Dan 13:20) Behold, the garden doors are shut, that no man can see us, and we are in love with thee; therefore consent unto us, and lie with us.

(Dan 13:21) If thou wilt not, we will bear witness against thee, that a young man was with thee: and therefore thou didst send away thy maids from thee.

(Dan 13:22) Then Susanna sighed, and said, I am straitened on every side: for if I do this thing, it is death unto me: and if I do it not I cannot escape your hands.

(Dan 13:23) It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than to sin in the sight of YHVH.

(Dan 13:24) With that Susanna cried with a loud voice: and the two elders cried out against her.

(Dan 13:25) Then ran the one, and opened the garden door.

(Dan 13:26) So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at the privy door, to see what was done unto her.

(Dan 13:27) But when the elders had declared their matter, the servants were greatly ashamed: for there was never such a report made of Susanna.

(Dan 13:28) And it came to pass the next day, when the people were assembled to her husband Joacim, the two elders came also full of mischievous imagination against Susanna to put her to death;

(Dan 13:29) And said before the people, Send for Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, Joacim's wife. And so they sent.

(Dan 13:30) So she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred.

(Dan 13:31) Now Susanna was a very delicate woman, and beauteous to behold.

(Dan 13:32) And these wicked men commanded to uncover her face, (for she was covered) that they might be filled with her beauty.

(Dan 13:33) Therefore her friends and all that saw her wept.

(Dan 13:34) Then the two elders stood up in the midst of the people, and laid their hands upon her head.

(Dan 13:35) And she weeping looked up toward heaven: for her heart trusted in YHVH.

(Dan 13:36) And the elders said, As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden doors, and sent the maids away.

(Dan 13:37) Then a young man, who there was hid, came unto her, and lay with her.

(Dan 13:38) Then we that stood in a corner of the garden, seeing this wickedness, ran unto them.

(Dan 13:39) And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold: for he was stronger than we, and opened the door, and leaped out.

(Dan 13:40) But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us: these things do we testify.

(Dan 13:41) Then the assembly believed them as those that were the elders and judges of the people: so they condemned her to death.

(Dan 13:42) Then Susanna cried out with a loud voice, and said, O everlasting Elohim, that knowest the secrets, and knowest all things before they be:

(Dan 13:43) Thou knowest that they have borne false witness against me, and, behold, I must die; whereas I never did such things as these men have maliciously invented against me.

(Dan 13:44) And YHVH heard her voice.

(Dan 13:45) Therefore when she was led to be put to death, YHVH raised up the holy spirit of a young youth whose name was Daniel:

(Dan 13:46) Who cried with a loud voice, I am clear from the blood of this woman.

(Dan 13:47) Then all the people turned them toward him, and said, What mean these words that thou hast spoken?

(Dan 13:48) So he standing in the midst of them said, Are ye such fools, ye sons of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth ye have condemned a daughter of Israel?

(Dan 13:49) Return again to the place of judgment: for they have borne false witness against her.

(Dan 13:50) Wherefore all the people turned again in haste, and the elders said unto him, Come, sit down among us, and shew it us, seeing Elohim hath given thee the honour of an elder.

(Dan 13:51) Then said Daniel unto them, Put these two aside one far from another, and I will examine them.

(Dan 13:52) So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them, and said unto him, O thou that art waxen old in wickedness, now thy sins which thou hast committed aforetime are come to light.

(Dan 13:53) For thou hast pronounced false judgment and hast condemned the innocent and hast let the guilty go free; albeit YHVH saith, The innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay.

(Dan 13:54) Now then, if thou hast seen her, tell me, Under what tree sawest thou them companying together? Who answered, Under a mastick tree.

(Dan 13:55) And Daniel said, Very well; thou hast lied against thine own head; for even now the angel of Elohim hath received the sentence of Elohim to cut thee in two.

(Dan 13:56) So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said unto him, O thou seed of Chanaan, and not of Juda, beauty hath deceived thee, and lust hath perverted thine heart.

(Dan 13:57) Thus have ye dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for fear companied with you: but the daughter of Juda would not abide your wickedness.

(Dan 13:58) Now therefore tell me, Under what tree didst thou take them companying together? Who answered, Under an holm tree.

(Dan 13:59) Then said Daniel unto him, Well; thou hast also lied against thine own head: for the angel of Elohim waiteth with the sword to cut thee in two, that he may destroy you.

(Dan 13:60) With that all the assembly cried out with a loud voice, and praised Elohim, who saveth them that trust in him.

(Dan 13:61) And they arose against the two elders, for Daniel had convicted them of false witness by their own mouth:

(Dan 13:62) And according to the law of Moses they did unto them in such sort as they maliciously intended to do to their neighbour: and they put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was saved the same day.

(Dan 13:63) Therefore Chelcias and his wife praised Elohim for their daughter Susanna, with Joacim her husband, and all the kindred, because there was no dishonesty found in her.

(Dan 13:64) From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

(Dan 14:2) And Daniel conversed with the king, and was honoured above all his friends.

(Dan 14:3) Now the Babylonians had an idol, called Bel, and there were spent upon him every day twelve great measures of fine flour, and forty sheep, and six vessels of wine.

(Dan 14:4) And the king worshipped it and went daily to adore it: but Daniel worshipped his own Elohim. And the king said unto him, Why dost not thou worship Bel?

(Dan 14:5) Who answered and said, Because I may not worship idols made with hands, but the living Elohim, who hath created the heaven and the earth, and hath sovereignty over all flesh.

(Dan 14:6) Then said the king unto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a living Elohim? seest thou not how much he eateth and drinketh every day?

(Dan 14:7) Then Daniel smiled, and said, O king, be not deceived: for this is but clay within, and brass without, and did never eat or drink any thing.

(Dan 14:8) So the king was wroth, and called for his priests, and said unto them, If ye tell me not who this is that devoureth these expenses, ye shall die.

(Dan 14:9) But if ye can certify me that Bel devoureth them, then Daniel shall die: for he hath spoken blasphemy against Bel. And Daniel said unto the king, Let it be according to thy word.

(Dan 14:10) Now the priests of Bel were threescore and ten, beside their wives and children. And the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel.

(Dan 14:11) So Bel's priests said, Lo, we go out: but thou, O king, set on the meat, and make ready the wine, and shut the door fast and seal it with thine own signet;

(Dan 14:12) And to morrow when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten up all, we will suffer death: or else Daniel, that speaketh falsely against us.

(Dan 14:13) And they little regarded it: for under the table they had made a privy entrance, whereby they entered in continually, and consumed those things.

(Dan 14:14) So when they were gone forth, the king set meats before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his servants to bring ashes, and those they strewed throughout all the temple in the presence of the king alone: then went they out, and shut the door, and sealed it with the king's signet, and so departed.

(Dan 14:15) Now in the night came the priests with their wives and children, as they were wont to do, and did eat and drink up all.

(Dan 14:16) In the morning betime the king arose, and Daniel with him.

(Dan 14:17) And the king said, Daniel, are the seals whole? And he said, Yea, O king, they be whole.

(Dan 14:18) And as soon as he had opened the dour, the king looked upon the table, and cried with a loud voice, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit at all.

(Dan 14:19) Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the pavement, and mark well whose footsteps are these.

(Dan 14:20) And the king said, I see the footsteps of men, women, and children. And then the king was angry, (Dan 14:21) And took the priests with their wives and children, who shewed him the privy doors, where they came in, and consumed such things as were upon the table.

(Dan 14:22) Therefore the king slew them, and delivered Bel into Daniel's power, who destroyed him and his temple.

(Dan 14:23) And in that same place there was a great dragon, which they of Babylon worshipped.

(Dan 14:24) And the king said unto Daniel, Wilt thou also say that this is of brass? lo, he liveth, he eateth and drinketh; thou canst not say that he is no living god: therefore worship him.

(Dan 14:25) Then said Daniel unto the king, I will worship YHVH my Elohim: for he is the living Elohim.

(Dan 14:26) But give me leave, O king, and I shall slay this dragon without sword or staff. The king said, I give thee leave.

(Dan 14:27) Then Daniel took pitch, and fat, and hair, and did seethe them together, and made lumps thereof: this he put in the dragon's mouth, and so the dragon burst in sunder: and Daniel said, Lo, these are the gods ye worship.

(Dan 14:28) When they of Babylon heard that, they took great indignation, and conspired against the king, saying, The king is become a Jew, and he hath destroyed Bel, he hath slain the dragon, and put the priests to death.

(Dan 14:29) So they came to the king, and said, Deliver us Daniel, or else we will destroy thee and thine house.

(Dan 14:30) Now when the king saw that they pressed him sore, being constrained, he delivered Daniel unto them:

(Dan 14:31) Who cast him into the lions' den: where he was six days.

(Dan 14:32) And in the den there were seven lions, and they had given them every day two carcasses, and two sheep: which then were not given to them, to the intent they might devour Daniel.

(Dan 14:33) Now there was in Jewry a prophet, called Habbacuc, who had made pottage, and had broken bread in a bowl, and was going into the field, for to bring it to the reapers.

(Dan 14:34) But the angel of YHVH said unto Habbacuc, Go, carry the dinner that thou hast into Babylon unto Daniel, who is in the lions' den.

(Dan 14:35) And Habbacuc said, Lord, I never saw Babylon; neither do I know where the den is.

(Dan 14:36) Then the angel of YHVH took him by the crown, and bare him by the hair of his head, and through the vehemency of his spirit set him in Babylon over the den.

(Dan 14:37) And Habbacuc cried, saying, O Daniel, Daniel, take the dinner which Elohim hath sent thee.

(Dan 14:38) And Daniel said, Thou hast remembered me, O Elohim: neither hast thou forsaken them that seek thee and love thee.

(Dan 14:39) So Daniel arose, and did eat: and the angel of YHVH set Habbacuc in his own place again immediately.

(Dan 14:40) Upon the seventh day the king went to bewail Daniel: and when he came to the den, he looked in, and behold, Daniel was sitting.

(Dan 14:41) Then cried the king with a loud voice, saying, Great art Lord Elohim of Daniel, and there is none other beside thee.

(Dan 14:42) And he drew him out, and cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the den: and they were devoured in a moment before his face.

Hosea/Osee

(Hos 1:1) The word of YHVH which came to Osee the son of Beerī, in the days of Ozias, and Joatham, and Achaz, and Ezekias, kings of Juda, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joas, king of Israel.

(Hos 1:2) The beginning of the word of YHVH by Osee. And YHVH said to Osee, Go, take to thyself a wife of fornication, and children of fornication: for the land will surely go a-whoring in departing from YHVH.

(Hos 1:3) So he went and took Gomer, daughter of Debelaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

(Hos 1:4) And YHVH said to him, Call his name Jezrael; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezrael on the house of Juda, and will make to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

(Hos 1:5) And it shall be, in that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezrael.

(Hos 1:6) And she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And he said to him, Call her name, Unpitied: for I will no more have mercy on the house of Israel, but will surely set myself in array against them.

(Hos 1:7) But I will have mercy on the house of Juda, and will save them by YHVH their Elohim, and will not save them with bow, nor with sword, nor by war, nor by horses, nor by horsemen.

(Hos 1:8) And she weaned Unpitied; and she conceived again, and bore a son.

(Hos 1:9) And he said, Call his name, Not my people: for ye are not my people, and I am not your Elohim.

(Hos 1:10) Yet the number of the children of Israel was as the sand of the sea, which shall not be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, Ye are not my people, even they shall be called the sons of the living Elohim.

(Hos 1:11) And the children of Juda shall be gathered, and the children of Israel together, and shall appoint themselves one head, and shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezrael.

(Hos 2:1) Say to your brother, My people, and to your sister, Pitied.

(Hos 2:2) Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband: and I will remove her fornication out of my presence, and her adultery from between her breasts:

(Hos 2:3) that I may strip her naked, and make her again as she was at the day of her birth: and I will make her desolate, and make her as a dry land, and will kill her with thirst.

(Hos 2:4) And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they are children of fornication.

(Hos 2:5) And their mother went a-whoring: she that bore them disgraced them: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, and my garments, and my linen clothes, my oil and my necessaries.

(Hos 2:6) Therefore, behold, I hedge up her way with thorns, and I will stop the ways, and she shall not find her path.

(Hos 2:7) And she shall follow after her lovers, and shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: and she shall say, I will go, and return to my former husband; for it was better with me than now.

(Hos 2:8) And she knew not that I gave her her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied silver to her: but she made silver and gold images for Baal.

(Hos 2:9) Therefore I will return, and take away my corn in its season, and my wine in its time; and I will take away my raiment and my linen clothes, so that she shall not cover her nakedness.

(Hos 2:10) And now I will expose her uncleanness before her lovers, and no one shall by any means deliver her out of my hand.

(Hos 2:11) And I will take away all her gladness, her feasts, and her festivals at the new moon, and her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.

(Hos 2:12) And I will utterly destroy her vines, and her fig-trees, all things of which she said, These are my hire which my lovers have given me: and I will make them a testimony, and the wild beasts of the field, and the birds of the sky, and the reptiles of the earth shall devour them.

(Hos 2:13) And I will recompense on her the days of Baalim, wherein she sacrificed to them, and put on her ear-rings, and her necklaces, and went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith YHVH.

(Hos 2:14) Therefore, behold, I will cause her to err, and will make her as desolate, and will speak comfortably to her.

(Hos 2:15) And I will give her possessions from thence, and the valley of Achor to open her understanding: and she shall be afflicted there according to the days of her infancy, and according to the days of her coming up out of the land of Egypt.

(Hos 2:16) And it shall come to pass in that day, saith YHVH, that she shall call me, My husband, and shall no longer call me Baalim.

(Hos 2:17) And I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and their names shall be remembered no more at all.

(Hos 2:18) And I will make for them in that day a covenant with the wild beasts of the field, and with the birds of the sky, and with the reptiles of the earth: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle from off the earth, and will cause thee to dwell safely.

(Hos 2:19) And I will betroth thee to myself for ever; yea, I will betroth thee to myself in righteousness, and in judgment, and in mercy, and in tender compassions;

(Hos 2:20) and I will betroth thee to myself in faithfulness: and thou shalt know YHVH.

(Hos 2:21) And it shall come to pass in that day, saith YHVH, I will hearken to the heaven, and it shall hearken to the earth;

(Hos 2:22) and the earth shall hearken to the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hearken to Jezrael.

(Hos 2:23) And I will sow her to me on the earth; and will love her that was not loved, and will say to that which was not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art YHVH my Elohim.

(Hos 3:1) And YHVH said to me, Go yet, and love a woman that loves evil things, an adulteress, even as YHVH loves the children of Israel, and they have respect to strange gods, and love cakes of dried grapes.

(Hos 3:2) So I hired her to myself for fifteen pieces of silver, and a homer of barley, and a flagon of wine.

(Hos 3:3) And I said unto her, Thou shalt wait for me many days; and thou shalt not commit fornication, neither shalt thou be for another man; and I will be for thee.

(Hos 3:4) For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an altar, and without a priesthood, and without manifestations.

(Hos 3:5) And afterward shall the children of Israel return, and shall seek YHVH their Elohim, and David their king; and shall be amazed at YHVH and at his goodness in the latter days.

(Hos 4:1) Hear the word of YHVH, ye children of Israel: for YHVH has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of Elohim in the land.

(Hos 4:2) Cursing, and lying, and murder, and theft, and adultery abound in the land, and they mingle blood with blood.

(Hos 4:3) Therefore shall the land mourn, and shall be diminished with all that dwell in it, with the wild beasts of the field, and the reptiles of the earth, and with the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea shall fail:

(Hos 4:4) that neither any one may plead, nor any one reprove another; but my people are as a priest spoken against.

(Hos 4:5) Therefore they shall fall by day, and the prophet with thee shall fall: I have compared thy mother unto night.

(Hos 4:6) My people are like as if they had no knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt not minister as priest to me: and as thou has forgotten the law of thy Elohim, I also will forget thy children.

(Hos 4:7) According to their multitude, so they sinned against me: I will turn their glory into shame.

(Hos 4:8) They will devour the sins of my people, and will set their hearts on their iniquities.

(Hos 4:9) And the priest shall be as the people: and I will avenge on them their ways, and I will recompense to them their counsels.

(Hos 4:10) And they shall eat, and shall not be satisfied: they have gone a-whoring, and shall by no means prosper: because they have left off to take heed to YHVH.

(Hos 4:11) The heart of my people has gladly engaged in fornication and wine and strong drink.

(Hos 4:12) They asked counsel by means of signs, and they reported answer to them by their staves: they have gone astray in a spirit of whoredom, and gone grievously a-whoring from their Elohim.

(Hos 4:13) They have sacrificed on the tops of the mountains, and on the hills they have sacrificed under the oak and poplar, and under the shady tree, because the shade was good: therefore your daughters shall go a-whoring, and your daughters-in-law shall commit adultery.

(Hos 4:14) And I will not visit upon your daughters when they shall commit fornication, nor your daughters-in-law when they shall commit adultery: for they themselves mingled themselves with harlots, and sacrificed with polluted ones, and the people that understood not entangled itself with a harlot.

(Hos 4:15) But thou, O Israel, be not ignorant, and go ye not, men of Juda, to Galgala; and go not up to the house of On, and swear not by the living Lord.

(Hos 4:16) For Israel was maddened like a mad heifer: now YHVH will feed them as a lamb in a wide place.

(Hos 4:17) Ephraim, joined with idols, has laid stumbling-blocks in his own way.

(Hos 4:18) He has chosen the Chananites: they have grievously gone a-whoring: they have loved dishonour through her insolence.

(Hos 4:19) Thou art a blast of wind in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their altars.

(Hos 5:1) Hear these things, ye priests; and attend, O house of Israel; and hearken, O house of the king; for the controversy is with you, because ye have been a snare in Scotia, and as a net spread on Itabyrium, (Hos 5:2) which they that hunt the prey have fixed: but I will correct you.

(Hos 5:3) I know Ephraim, and Israel is not far from me: for now Ephraim has gone grievously a-whoring, Israel is defiled.

(Hos 5:4) They have not framed their counsels to return to their Elohim, for the spirit of fornication is in them, and they have not known YHVH.

(Hos 5:5) And the pride of Israel shall be brought low before his face; and Israel and Ephraim shall fall in their iniquities; and Judas also shall fall with them.

(Hos 5:6) They shall go with sheep and calves diligently to seek YHVH; but they shall not find him, for he has withdrawn himself from them.

(Hos 5:7) For they have forsaken YHVH; for strange children have been born to them: now shall the cankerworm devour them and their heritages.

(Hos 5:8) Blow ye the trumpet on the hills, sound aloud on the heights: proclaim in the house of On, Benjamin is amazed.

(Hos 5:9) Ephraim has come to nought in the days of reproof: in the tribes of Israel I have shown faithful dealings.

(Hos 5:10) The princes of Juda became as they that removed the bounds: I will pour out upon them my fury as water.

(Hos 5:11) Ephraim altogether prevailed against his adversary, he trod judgment under foot, for he began to go after vanities.

(Hos 5:12) Therefore I will be as consternation to Ephraim, and as a goad to the house of Juda.

(Hos 5:13) And Ephraim saw his disease, and Judas his pain; then Ephraim went to the Assyrians, and sent ambassadors to king Jarim: but he could not heal you, and your pain shall in nowise cease from you.

(Hos 5:14) Wherefore I am as a panther to Ephraim, and as a lion to the house of Juda: and I will tear, and go away; and I will take, and there shall be none to deliver.

(Hos 5:15) I will go and return to my place, until they are brought to nought, and then shall they seek my face.

(Hos 6:1) In their affliction they will seek me early, saying, Let us go, and return to YHVH our Elohim; for he has torn, and will heal us;

(Hos 6:2) he will smite, and bind us up.

(Hos 6:3) After two days he will heal us: in the third day we shall arise, and live before him, and shall know him:

(Hos 6:4) let us follow on to know YHVH: we shall find him ready as the morning, and he will come to us as the early and latter rain to the earth.

(Hos 6:5) What shall I do unto thee, Ephraim? What shall I do to thee, Juda? whereas your mercy is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew that goes away.

(Hos 6:6) Therefore have I mown down your prophets; I have slain them with the word of my mouth: and my judgment shall go forth as the light.

(Hos 6:7) For I will have mercy rather than sacrifice, and the knowledge of Elohim rather than whole-burnt-offerings.

(Hos 6:8) But they are as a man transgressing a covenant:

(Hos 6:9) there the city Galaad despised me, working vanity, troubling water.

(Hos 6:10) And thy strength is that of a robber: the priests have hid the way, they have murdered the people of Sicima; for they have wrought iniquity in the house of Israel.

(Hos 6:11) I have seen horrible things there, even the fornication of Ephraim: Israel and Juda are defiled; (Hos 6:12) begin together grapes for thysself, when I turn the captivity of my people.

(Hos 7:1) When I have healed Israel, then shall the iniquity of Ephraim be revealed, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they have wrought falsehood: and a thief shall come in to him, even a robber spoiling in his way;

(Hos 7:2) that they may concert together as men singing in their heart: I remember all their wickedness: now have their own counsels compassed them about; they came before my face.

(Hos 7:3) They gladdened kings with their wickedness, and princes with their lies.

(Hos 7:4) They are all adulterers, as an oven glowing with flame for hot-baking, on account of the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.

(Hos 7:5) In the days of our kings, the princes began to be inflamed with wine: he stretched out his hand with pestilent fellows.

(Hos 7:6) Wherefore their hearts are inflamed as an oven, while they rage all the night: Ephraim is satisfied with sleep; the morning is come; he is burnt up as a flame of fire.

(Hos 7:7) They are all heated like an oven, and have devoured their judges: all their kings are fallen; there was not among them one that called on me.

(Hos 7:8) Ephraim is mixed among his people; Ephraim became a cake not turned.

(Hos 7:9) Strangers devoured his strength, and he knew it not; and grey hairs came upon him, and he knew it not.

(Hos 7:10) And the pride of Israel shall be brought down before his face: yet they have not returned to YHVH their Elohim, neither have they diligently sought him for all this.

(Hos 7:11) And Ephraim was as a silly dove, not having a heart: he called to Egypt, and they went to the Assyrians.

(Hos 7:12) Whenever they shall go, I will cast my net upon them; I will bring them down as the birds of the sky, I will chasten them with the rumor of their coming affliction.

(Hos 7:13) Woe to them! for they have started aside from me: they are cowards; for they have sinned against me: yet I redeemed them, but they spoke falsehoods against me.

(Hos 7:14) And their hearts did not cry to me, but they howled on their beds: they pined for oil and wine.

(Hos 7:15) They were instructed by me, and I strengthened their arms; and they devised evils against me.

(Hos 7:16) They turned aside to that which is not, they became as a bent bow: their princes shall fall by the sword, by reason of the unbridled state of their tongue: this is their setting at nought in the land of Egypt.

(Hos 8:1) He shall come into their midst as the land, as an eagle against the house of YHVH, because they have transgressed my covenant, and have sinned against my law.

(Hos 8:2) They shall soon cry out to me, saying, O Elohim, we know thee.

(Hos 8:3) For Israel has turned away from good things; they have pursued an enemy.

(Hos 8:4) They have made kings for themselves, but not by me: they have ruled, but they did not make it known to me: of their silver and their gold they have made images to themselves, that they might be destroyed.

(Hos 8:5) Cast off thy calf, O Samaria; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will they be unable to purge themselves in Israel?

(Hos 8:6) Whereas the workman made it, and it is not Elohim; wherefore thy calf, Samaria, was a deceiver:

(Hos 8:7) for they sowed blighted seed, and their destruction shall await them, a sheaf of corn that avails not to make meal; and even if it should produce it, strangers shall devour it.

(Hos 8:8) Israel is swallowed up: now is he become among the nations as a worthless vessel.

(Hos 8:9) For they have gone up to the Assyrians: Ephraim has been strengthened against himself; they loved gifts.

(Hos 8:10) Therefore shall they be delivered to the nations: now I will receive them, and they shall cease a little to anoint a king and princes.

(Hos 8:11) Because Ephraim has multiplied altars, his beloved altars are become sins to him.

(Hos 8:12) I will write down a multitude of commands for him; but his statutes are accounted strange things, even the beloved altars.

(Hos 8:13) For if they should offer a sacrifice, and eat flesh, the lord will not accept them: now will he remember their iniquities, and will take vengeance on their sins: they have returned to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things among the Assyrians.

(Hos 8:14) And Israel has forgotten him that made him, and they have built fanes, and Juda has multiplied walled cities: but I will send fire on his cities, and it shall devour their foundations.

(Hos 9:1) Rejoice not, O Israel, neither make merry, as other nations: for thou hast gone a-whoring from thy Elohim; thou hast loved gifts upon every threshing-floor.

(Hos 9:2) The threshing-floor and wine-press knew them not, and the wine disappointed them.

(Hos 9:3) They dwelt not in YHVH's land: Ephraim dwelt in Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things among the Assyrians.

(Hos 9:4) They have not offered wine to YHVH, neither have their sacrifices been sweet to him, but as the bread of mourning to them; all that eat them shall be defiled; for their bread for their soul shall not enter into the house of YHVH.

(Hos 9:5) What will ye do in the day of the general assembly, and in the day of the feast of YHVH?

(Hos 9:6) Therefore, behold, they go forth from the trouble of Egypt, and Memphis shall receive them, and Machmas shall bury them: as for their silver, destruction shall inherit it; thorns shall be in their tents.

(Hos 9:7) The days of vengeance are come, the days of thy recompense are come; and Israel shall be afflicted as the prophet that is mad, as a man deranged: by reason of the multitude of thine iniquities thy madness has abounded.

(Hos 9:8) The watchman of Ephraim was with Elohim: the prophet is a crooked snare in all his ways: they have established madness in the house of Elohim.

(Hos 9:9) They have corrupted themselves according to the days of the hill: he will remember their iniquities, he will take vengeance on their sins.

(Hos 9:10) I found Israel as grapes in the wilderness, and I saw their fathers as an early watchman in a fig-tree: they went in to Beel-phegor, and were shamefully estranged, and the abominable became as the beloved.

(Hos 9:11) Ephraim has flown away as a bird; their glories from the birth, and the travail, and the conception.

(Hos 9:12) For even if they should rear their children, yet shall they be utterly bereaved: wherefore also there is woe to them, though my flesh is of them.

(Hos 9:14) Give them, YHVH: what wilt thou give them? a miscarrying womb, and dry breasts.

(Hos 9:15) All their wickedness is in Galgal: for there I hated them: because of the wickedness of their practices, I will cast them out of my house, I will not love them any more: all their princes are disobedient.

(Hos 9:16) Ephraim is sick, he is dried up at his roots, he shall in no wise any more bear fruit: wherefore even if they should beget children, I will kill the desired fruit of their womb.

(Hos 9:17) Elohim shall reject them, because they have not hearkened to him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

(Hos 10:1) Israel is a vine with goodly branches, her fruit is abundant: according to the multitude of her fruits she has multiplied her altars; according to the wealth of his land, he has set up pillars.

(Hos 10:2) They have divided their hearts; now shall they be utterly destroyed: he shall dig down their altars, their pillars shall mourn.

(Hos 10:3) Because now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not YHVH:

(Hos 10:4) and what should a king do for us, speaking false professions as his words? he will make a covenant: judgment shall spring up as a weed on the soil of the field.

(Hos 10:5) The inhabitants of Samaria shall dwell near the calf of the house of On; for the people of it mourned for it: and as they provoked him, they shall rejoice at his glory, because he has departed from them.

(Hos 10:6) And having bound it for the Assyrians, they carried it away as presents to king Jarim: Ephraim shall receive a gift, and Israel shall be ashamed of his counsel.

(Hos 10:7) Samaria has cast off her king as a twig on the surface of the water.

(Hos 10:8) And the altars of On, the sins of Israel, shall be taken away: thorns and thistles shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

(Hos 10:9) From the time the hills existed Israel has sinned: there they stood: war waged against the children of iniquity

(Hos 10:10) to chastise them shall not overtake them on the hill, the nations shall be gathered against them, when they are chastened for their two sins,

(Hos 10:11) Ephraim is a heifer taught to love victory, but I will come upon the fairest part of her neck: I will mount Ephraim; I will pass over Juda in silence; Jacob shall prevail against him.

(Hos 10:12) Sow to yourselves for righteousness, gather in for the fruit of life: light ye for yourselves the light of knowledge; seek YHVH till the fruits of righteousness come upon you.

(Hos 10:13) Wherefore have ye passed over ungodliness in silence, and reaped the sins of it? ye have eaten false fruit; for thou has trusted in thy sins, in the abundance of thy power.

(Hos 10:14) Therefore shall destruction rise up among thy people, and all thy strong places shall be ruined: as a prince Solomon departed out of the house of Jeroboam, in the days of battle they dashed the mother to the ground upon the children, (Hos 10:15) thus will I do to you, O house of Israel, because of the unrighteousness of your sins.

(Hos 11:1) Early in the morning were they cast off, the king of Israel has been cast off: for Israel is a child, and I loved him, and out of Egypt have I called his children.

(Hos 11:2) As I called them, so they departed from my presence: they sacrificed to Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

(Hos 11:3) Yet I bound the feet of Ephraim, I took him on my arm; but they knew not that I healed them.

(Hos 11:4) When men were destroyed, I drew them with the bands of my love: and I will be to them as a man smiting another on his cheek: and I will have respect to him, I will prevail with him.

(Hos 11:5) Ephraim dwelt in Egypt; and as for the Assyrian, he was his king, because he would not return.

(Hos 11:6) And in his cities he prevailed not with the sword, and he ceased to war with his hands: and they shall eat of the fruit of their own devices:

(Hos 11:7) and his people shall cleave fondly to their habitation; but Elohim shall be angry with his precious things, and shall not at all exalt him.

(Hos 11:8) How shall I deal with thee, Ephraim? how shall I protect thee, Israel? what shall I do with thee? I will make thee as Adama, and as Seboim; my heart is turned at once, my repentance is powerfully excited.

(Hos 11:9) I will not act according to the fury of my wrath, I will not abandon Ephraim to be utterly destroyed: for I am Elohim, and not man; the Holy One within thee: and I will not enter into the city.

(Hos 11:10) I will go after YHVH: he shall utter his voice as a lion: for he shall roar, and the children of the waters shall be amazed.

(Hos 11:11) They shall be amazed and fly as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of the Assyrians: and I will restore them to their houses, saith YHVH.

(Hos 11:12) Ephraim has compassed me with falsehood, and the house of Israel and Juda with ungodliness: but now Elohim knows them, and they shall be called Elohim's holy people.

(Hos 12:1) But Ephraim is an evil spirit, he has chased the east wind all the day: he has multiplied empty and vain things, and made a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil has gone in the way of traffic into Egypt.

(Hos 12:2) And YHVH has a controversy with Juda, in order to punish Jacob: according to his ways and according to his practices will he recompense him.

(Hos 12:3) He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and in his labours he had power with Elohim.

(Hos 12:4) And he prevailed with the angel and was strong: they wept, and intreated me: they found me in the house of On, and there a word was spoken to them.

(Hos 12:5) But YHVH Elohim Almighty shall be his memorial.

(Hos 12:6) Thou therefore shalt return to thy Elohim: keep thou mercy and judgment, and draw nigh to thy Elohim continually.

(Hos 12:7) As for Chanaan, in his hand is a balance of unrighteousness: he has loved to tyrannize.

(Hos 12:8) And Ephraim said, Nevertheless I am rich, I have found refreshment to myself. None of his labours shall be found available to him, by reason of the sins which he has committed.

(Hos 12:9) But I YHVH thy Elohim brought thee up out of the land of Egypt: I will yet cause thee to dwell in tabernacles, according to the days of the feast.

(Hos 12:10) And I will speak to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and by the means of the prophets I was represented.

(Hos 12:11) If Galaad exists not, then the chiefs in Galaad when they sacrificed were false, and their altars were as heaps on the ground of the field.

(Hos 12:12) And Jacob retreated into the plain of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and waited for a wife.

(Hos 12:13) And YHVH brought Israel out of the land of Egypt by a prophet, and by a prophet was he preserve.

(Hos 12:14) Ephraim was angry and excited, therefore his blood shall be poured out upon him, and YHVH shall recompense to him his reproach.

(Hos 13:1) According to the word of Ephraim he adopted ordinances for himself in Israel; and he established them for Baal, and died.

(Hos 13:2) And now they have sinned increasingly, and have made for themselves a molten image of their silver, according to the fashion of idols, the work of artificers accomplished for them: they say, Sacrifice men, for the calves have come to an end.

(Hos 13:3) Therefore shall they be as a morning cloud, and as the early dew that passes away, as chaff blown away from the threshing-floor, and as a vapor from tears.

(Hos 13:4) But I am YHVH thy Elohim that establishes the heaven, and creates the earth, whose hands have framed the whole host of heaven: but I shewed them not to thee that thou shouldest go after them: and I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no Elohim but me; and there is no Saviour beside me.

(Hos 13:5) I tended thee as a shepherd in the wilderness, in an uninhabited land.

(Hos 13:6) According to their pastures, so they were completely filled; and their hearts were exalted; therefore they forgot me.

(Hos 13:7) And I will be to them as a panther, and as a leopard.

(Hos 13:8) I will meet them by the way of the Assyrians, as a she-bear excited, and I will rend the caul of their heart, and the lions' whelps of the thicket shall devour them there; the wild beasts of the field shall rend them in pieces.

(Hos 13:9) O Israel, who will aid thee in thy destruction?

(Hos 13:10) Where is this thy king? let him even save thee in all thy cities: let him judge thee, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and a prince.

(Hos 13:11) And I gave thee a king in mine anger, and kept him back in my wrath.

(Hos 13:12) Ephraim has framed a conspiracy of unrighteousness, his sin is hidden.

(Hos 13:13) Pains as of a woman in travail shall come upon him: he is thy wise son, because he shall not stay in the destruction of thy children.

(Hos 13:14) I will deliver them out of the power of Hades, and will redeem them from death: where is thy penalty, O death? O Hades, where is thy sting? comfort is hidden from mine eyes.

(Hos 13:15) Forasmuch as he will cause a division among his brethren, YHVH shall bring upon him an east wind from the desert, and shall dry up his veins and quite drain his fountains: he shall dry up his land, and spoil all his precious vessels.

(Hos 14:1) Samaria shall be utterly destroyed: for she has resisted her Elohim; they shall fall by the sword, and their sucklings shall be dashed against the ground, and their women with child ripped up.

(Hos 14:2) Return, O Israel, to YHVH thy Elohim; for the people have fallen through thine iniquities.

(Hos 14:3) Take with you words, and turn to YHVH your Elohim: speak to him, that ye may not receive the reward of unrighteousness, but that ye may receive good things: and we will render in return the fruit of our lips.

(Hos 14:4) Assur shall never save us; we will not mount on horseback; we will no longer say to the works of our hands, Our gods. He who is in thee shall pity the orphan.

(Hos 14:5) I will restore their dwellings, I will love them truly: for he has turned away my wrath from him.

(Hos 14:6) I will be as dew to Israel: he shall bloom as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Libanus.

(Hos 14:7) His branches shall spread, and he shall be as a fruitful olive, and his smell shall be as the smell of Libanus.

(Hos 14:8) They shall return, and dwell under his shadow: they shall live and be satisfied with corn, and he shall flower as a vine: his memorial shall be to Ephraim as the wine of Libanus.

(Hos 14:9) What has he to do any more with idols? I have afflicted him, and I will strengthen him: I am as a leafy juniper tree. From me is thy fruit found.

(Hos 14:10) Who is wise, and will understand these things? or prudent, and will know them? for the ways of YHVH are straight, and the righteous shall walk in them: but the ungodly shall fall therein.

Joel.

(Joe 1:1) The word of YHVH which came to Joel the son of Bathuel.

(Joe 1:2) Hear these words, ye elders, and hearken all ye that inhabit the land. Have such things happen in your days, or in the days of your fathers?

(Joe 1:3) Tell your children concerning them, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

(Joe 1:4) The leavings of the caterpillar has the locust eaten, and the leavings of the locust has the palmerworm eaten, and the leavings of the palmerworm has the cankerworm eaten.

(Joe 1:5) Awake, ye drunkards, from your wine, and weep: mourn, all ye that drink wine to drunkenness: for joy and gladness and removed are from your mouth.

(Joe 1:6) For a strong and innumerable nation is come up against my land, their teeth are lion's teeth, and their back teeth those of a lion's whelp.

(Joe 1:7) He has ruined my vine, and utterly broken my fig-trees: he has utterly searched my vine, and cast it down; he has peeled its branches.

(Joe 1:8) Lament to me more than a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

(Joe 1:9) The meat-offering and drink-offering are removed from the house of YHVH: mourn, ye priests that serve at the altar of YHVH.

(Joe 1:10) For the plains languish: let the land mourn, for the corn languishes; the wine is dried up, the oil becomes scarce;

(Joe 1:11) the husbandmen are consumed: mourn your property on account of the wheat and barley; for the harvest has perished from off the field.

(Joe 1:12) The vine is dried up, and the fig-trees are become few; the pomegranate, and palm-tree, and apple, and all trees of the field are dried up: for the sons of men have have abolished joy.

(Joe 1:13) Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, ye priests: mourn, ye that serve at the altar: go in, sleep in sackcloths, ye that minister to Elohim: for the meat-offering and drink-offering are withheld from the house of your Elohim.

(Joe 1:14) Sanctify a fast, proclaim a solemn service, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of your Elohim, and cry earnestly to YHVH, (Joe 1:15) Alas, Alas, Alas for the day! for the day of YHVH is nigh, and it will come as trouble upon trouble.

(Joe 1:16) Your meat has been destroyed before your eyes, joy and gladness from out of the house of your Elohim.

(Joe 1:17) The heifers have started at their mangers, the treasures are abolished, the wine-presses are broken down; for the corn is withered.

(Joe 1:18) What shall we store up for ourselves? the herds of cattle have mourned, because they had no pasture; and the flocks of sheep have been utterly destroyed.

(Joe 1:19) To thee, YHVH, will I cry: for fire has devoured the fair places of the wilderness, and a flame has burnt up all the trees of the field.

(Joe 1:20) And the cattle of the field have looked up to thee: for the fountains of waters have been dried up, and fire has devoured the fair places of the wilderness.

(Joe 2:1) Sound the trumpet in Sion, make a proclamation in my holy mountain, and let all the inhabitants of the land be confounded: for the day of YHVH is near;

(Joe 2:2) for a day of darkness and gloominess is near, a day of cloud and mist: a numerous and strong people shall be spread upon the mountains as the morning; there has not been from the beginning one like it, and after it there shall not be again even to the years of many generations.

(Joe 2:3) Before them is a consuming fire, and behind them is a flame kindled: the land before them is as a paradise of delight, and behind them a desolate plain: and there shall none of them escape.

(Joe 2:4) Their appearance is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they pursue.

(Joe 2:5) As the sound of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, and as the sound of a flame of fire devouring stubble, and as a numerous and strong people setting themselves in array for battle.

(Joe 2:6) Before them shall the people be crushed: every face shall be as the blackness of a caldron.

(Joe 2:7) As warriors shall they run, and as men of war shall they mount on the walls; and each shall move in his right path, and they shall not turn aside from their tracks:

(Joe 2:8) and not one shall stand aloof from his brother: they shall go on weighed down with their arms, and they fall upon their weapons, yet shall they in no wise be destroyed.

(Joe 2:9) They shall seize upon the city, and run upon the walls, and go up upon the houses, and enter in through the windows as thieves.

(Joe 2:10) Before them the earth shall be confounded, and the sky shall be shaken: the sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their light.

(Joe 2:11) And YHVH shall utter his voice before his host: for his camp is very great: for the execution of his words is mighty: for the day of YHVH is great, very glorious, and who shall be able to resist it?

(Joe 2:12) Now therefore, saith YHVH your Elohim, turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with lamentation:

(Joe 2:13) and rend your hearts, and not your garments, and turn to YHVH your Elohim: for he is merciful and compassionate, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy, and repents of evils.

(Joe 2:14) Who knows if he will return, and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering and a drink-offering to YHVH your Elohim?

(Joe 2:15) Sound the trumpet in Sion, sanctify a fast, proclaim a solemn service:

(Joe 2:16) gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the infants at the breast: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

(Joe 2:17) Between the porch and the altar let the priests that minister to YHVH weep, and say, Spare thy people, YHVH, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them, lest they should say among the heathen, Where is their Elohim?

(Joe 2:18) But YHVH was jealous of his land, and spared his people.

(Joe 2:19) And YHVH answered and said to his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied with them: and I will no longer make you a reproach among the Gentiles.

(Joe 2:20) And I will chase away from you the northern adversary, and will drive him away into a dry land, and I will sink his face in the former sea, and his back parts in the latter sea, and his ill savour shall come up, and his stink come up, because he has wrought great things.

(Joe 2:21) Be of good courage, O land; rejoice and be glad: for YHVH has done great things.

(Joe 2:22) Be of good courage, ye beasts of the plain, for the plains of the wilderness have budded, for the trees have borne their fruit, the fig tree and the vine have yielded their strength.

(Joe 2:23) Rejoice then and be glad, ye children of Sion, in YHVH your Elohim: for he has given you food fully, and he will rain on you the early and the latter rain, as before.

(Joe 2:24) And the floors shall be filled with corn, and the presses shall overflow with wine and oil.

(Joe 2:25) And I will recompense you for the years which the locust, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, and the cankerworm have eaten, even my great army, which I sent against you.

(Joe 2:26) And ye shall eat abundantly, and be satisfied, and shall praise the name of YHVH your Elohim for the things which he has wrought wonderfully with you: and my people shall not be ashamed for ever.

(Joe 2:27) And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am YHVH your Elohim, and that there is none else beside me; and my people shall no more be ashamed for ever.

(Joe 2:28) And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

(Joe 2:29) And on my servants and on my handmaids in those days will I pour out of my Spirit.

(Joe 2:30) And I will shew wonders in heaven, and upon the earth, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke.

(Joe 2:31) The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and glorious day of YHVH come.

(Joe 2:32) And it shall come to pass that whosoever shall call on the name of YHVH shall be saved: for in mount Sion and in Jerusalem shall the saved one be as YHVH has said, and they that have glad tidings preached to them, whom YHVH has called.

(Joe 3:1) For, behold, in those days and at that time, when I shall have turned the captivity of Juda and Jerusalem,

(Joe 3:2) I will also gather all the Gentiles, and bring them down to the valley of Josaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and my heritage Israel, who have been dispersed among the Gentiles; and these Gentiles have divided my land, (Joe 3:3) and cast lots over my people, and have given their boys to harlots, and sold their girls for wine, and have drunk.

(Joe 3:4) And what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Sidon, and all Galilee of the Gentiles? do ye render me a recompense? or do ye bear malice against me? quickly and speedily will I return your recompense on your own heads:

(Joe 3:5) because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and ye have brought my choice ornaments into your temples;

(Joe 3:6) and ye have sold the children of Juda and the children of Jerusalem to the children of the Greeks, that ye might expel them from their coasts.

(Joe 3:7) Therefore, behold, I will raise them up out of the place whither ye have sold them, and I will return your recompense on your own heads.

(Joe 3:8) And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Juda, and they shall sell them into captivity to a far distant nation: for YHVH has spoken it.

(Joe 3:9) Proclaim these things among the Gentiles; declare war, arouse the warriors, draw near and go up, all ye men of war.

(Joe 3:10) Beat your ploughshares into swords, and your sickles into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

(Joe 3:11) Gather yourselves together, and go in, all ye nations round about, and gather yourselves there; let the timid become a warrior.

(Joe 3:12) Let them be aroused, let all the nations go up to the valley of Josaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the Gentiles round about.

(Joe 3:13) Bring forth the sickles, for the vintage is come: go in, tread the grapes, for the press is full: cause the vats to overflow; for their wickedness is multiplied.

(Joe 3:14) Noises have resounded in the valley of judgment: for the day of YHVH is near in the valley of judgment.

(Joe 3:15) The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their light.

(Joe 3:16) And YHVH shall cry out of Sion, and shall utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heaven and the earth shall be shaken, but YHVH shall spare his people, and shall strengthen the children of Israel.

(Joe 3:17) And ye shall know that I am YHVH your Elohim, who dwell in Sion my holy mountain: and Jerusalem shall be holy, and strangers shall not pass through her anymore.

(Joe 3:18) And it shall come to pass in that day that the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the fountains of Juda shall flow with water, and a fountain shall go forth of the house of YHVH, and water the valley of flags.

(Joe 3:19) Egypt shall be a desolation, and Idumea shall be a desolate plain, because of the wrongs of the children of Juda, because they have shed righteous blood in their land.

(Joe 3:20) But Judea shall be inhabited for ever, and Jerusalem to all generations.

(Joe 3:21) And I will make inquisition for their blood, and will by no means leave it unavenged: and YHVH shall dwell in Sion.

Amos.

(Amo 1:1) The words of Amos which came to him in Accarim out of Thecue, which he saw concerning Jerusalem, in the days of Ozias king of Juda, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joas king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

(Amo 1:2) And he said, YHVH has spoken out of Sion, and has uttered his voice out of Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds have mourned, and the top of Carmel is dried up.

(Amo 1:3) And YHVH said, For three sins of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away from it; because they sawed with iron saws the women with child of the Galaadites.

(Amo 1:4) And I will send a fire on the house of Azael, and it shall devour the foundations of the son of Ader.

(Amo 1:5) And I will break to pieces the bars of Damascus, and will destroy the inhabitants out of the plain of On, and will cut in pieces a tribe out of the men of Charrhan: and the famous people of Syria shall be led captive, saith YHVH.

(Amo 1:6) Thus saith YHVH; For three sins of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away from them; because they took prisoners the captivity of Solomon, to shut them up into Idumea.

(Amo 1:7) And I will send forth a fire on the walls of Gaza, and it shall devour its foundations.

(Amo 1:8) And I will destroy the inhabitants out of Azotus, and a tribe shall be cut off from Ascalon, and I will stretch out my hand upon Accaron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith YHVH.

(Amo 1:9) Thus saith YHVH; For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not turn away from it; because they shut up the prisoners of Solomon into Idumea, and remembered not the covenant of brethren.

(Amo 1:10) And I will send forth a fire on the walls of Tyre, and it shall devour the foundations of it.

(Amo 1:11) Thus saith YHVH; For three sins of Idumea, and for four, I will not turn away from them; because they pursued their brother with the sword, and destroyed the mother upon the earth, and summoned up his anger for a testimony, and kept up his fury to the end.

(Amo 1:12) And I will send forth a fire upon Thaman, and it shall devour the foundations of her walls.

(Amo 1:13) Thus saith YHVH; For three sins of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away from him; because they ripped up the women with child of the Galaadites, that they might widen their coasts.

(Amo 1:14) And I will kindle a fire on the walls of Rabbath, and it shall devour her foundations with shouting in the day of war, and she shall be shaken in the days of her destruction:

(Amo 1:15) and her kings shall go into captivity, their priests and their rulers together, saith YHVH.

(Amo 2:1) Thus saith YHVH; For three sins of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away from it; because they burnt the bones of the king of Idumea to lime.

(Amo 2:2) But I will send forth a fire on Moab, and it shall devour the foundations of its cities: and Moab shall perish in weakness, with a shout, and with the sound of a trumpet.

(Amo 2:3) And I will destroy the judge out of her, and slay all her princes with him, saith YHVH.

(Amo 2:4) Thus saith YHVH; For three sins of the children of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away from him; because they have rejected the law of YHVH, and have not kept his ordinances, and their vain idols which they made, which their fathers followed, caused them to err.

(Amo 2:5) And I will send a fire on Juda, and it shall devour the foundations of Jerusalem.

(Amo 2:6) Thus saith YHVH; for three sins of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away from him; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for sandals, (Amo 2:7) wherewith to tread on the dust of the earth, and they have smitten upon the heads of the poor, and have perverted the way of the lowly: and a son and his father have gone into the same maid, that they might profane the name of their Elohim.

(Amo 2:8) And binding their clothes with cords they have made them curtains near the altar, and they have drunk wine gained by extortion in the house of their Elohim.

(Amo 2:9) Nevertheless I cut off the Amorite from before them, whose height was as the height of a cedar, and he was strong as an oak; and I dried up his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

(Amo 2:10) And I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you about in the desert forty years, that ye should inherit the land of the Amorites.

(Amo 2:11) And I took of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for consecration. Are not these things so, ye sons of Israel? saith YHVH.

(Amo 2:12) But ye gave the consecrated ones wine to drink; and ye commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not.

(Amo 2:13) Therefore, behold, I roll under you, as a waggon full of straw is rolled.

(Amo 2:14) And flight shall perish from the runner, and the strong shall not hold fast his strength, and the warrior shall not save his life:

(Amo 2:15) and the archer shall not withstand, and he that is swift of foot shall in no wise escape; and the horseman shall not save his life.

(Amo 2:16) And the strong shall find no confidence in power: the naked shall flee away in that day, saith YHVH.

(Amo 3:1) Hear ye this word, O house of Israel, which YHVH has spoken concerning you, and against the whole family whom I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying, (Amo 3:2) You especially have I known out of all the families of the earth: therefore will I take vengeance upon you for all your sins.

(Amo 3:3) Shall two walk together at all, if they do not know one another?

(Amo 3:4) Will a lion roar out of his thicket if he has no prey? will a lion's whelp utter his voice at all out of his lair, if he have taken nothing?

(Amo 3:5) Will a bird fall on the earth without a fowler? will a snare be taken up from the earth without having taken anything?

(Amo 3:6) Shall the trumpet sound in the city, and the people not be alarmed? shall there be evil in a city which YHVH has not wrought?

(Amo 3:7) For YHVH Elohim will do nothing, without revealing instruction to his servants the prophets.

(Amo 3:8) A lion shall roar, and who will not be alarmed? YHVH Elohim has spoken, and who will not prophesy?

(Amo 3:9) Proclaim it to the regions among the Assyrians, and to the regions of Egypt, and say, Gather yourselves to the mountain of Samaria, and behold many wonderful things in the midst of it, and the oppression that is in it.

(Amo 3:10) And she knew not what things would come against her, saith YHVH, even those that store up wrong and misery in their countries.

(Amo 3:11) Therefore thus saith YHVH Elohim; O Tyre, thy land shall be made desolate round about thee; and he shall bring down thy strength out of thee, and thy countries shall be spoiled.

(Amo 3:12) Thus saith YHVH; As when a shepherd rescues from the mouth of a lion two legs or a piece of an ear, so shall be drawn forth the children of Israel who dwell in Samaria in the presence of a foreign tribe, and in Damascus.

(Amo 3:13) Hear, O ye priests, and testify to the house of Jacob, saith YHVH Elohim Almighty.

(Amo 3:14) For in the day wherein I shall take vengeance of the sins of Israel upon him, I will also take vengeance on the altars of Bethel: and the horns of the altar shall be broken down, and they shall fall upon the ground.

(Amo 3:15) I will crush and smite the turreted-house upon the summer-house; and the ivory-houses shall be destroyed, and many other houses also, saith YHVH.

(Amo 4:1) Hear ye this word, ye heifers of the land of Basan that are in the mountain of Samaria, that oppress the poor, and trample on the needy, which say to their masters, Give us that we may drink.

(Amo 4:2) YHVH swears by his holiness, that, behold, the days come upon you, when they shall take you with weapons, and fiery destroyers shall cast those with you into boiling caldrons.

(Amo 4:3) And ye shall be brought forth naked in the presence of each other; and ye shall be cast forth on the mountain Romman, saith YHVH.

(Amo 4:4) Ye went into Bethel, and sinned, and ye multiplied sin at Galgala; and ye brought your meat-offerings in the morning, and your tithes every third day.

(Amo 4:5) And they read the law without, and called for public professions: proclaim aloud that the children of Israel have loved these things, saith YHVH.

(Amo 4:6) And I will give you dulness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet ye returned not to me, saith YHVH.

(Amo 4:7) Also I withheld from you the rain three months before the harvest: and I will rain upon one city, and on another city I will not rain: one part shall be rained upon, and the part on which I shall not rain shall be dried up.

(Amo 4:8) And the inhabitants of two or three cities shall be gathered to one city to drink water, and they shall not be satisfied: yet ye have not returned to me, saith YHVH.

(Amo 4:9) I smote you with parching, and with blight: ye multiplied your gardens, your vineyards, and your fig-grounds, and the cankerworm devoured your olive-yards: yet not even thus did ye return to me, saith YHVH.

(Amo 4:10) I sent pestilence among you by the way of Egypt, and slew your young men with the sword, together with thy horses that were taken captive; and in my wrath against you I set fire to your camps: yet not even thus did ye return to me, saith YHVH.

(Amo 4:11) I overthrew you, as Elohim overthrew Sodoma and Gomorrha, and ye became as a brand plucked out of the fire: yet not even thus did ye return to me, saith YHVH.

(Amo 4:12) Therefore thus will I do to thee, O Israel: nay because I will do thus to thee, prepare to call on thy Elohim, O Israel.

(Amo 4:13) For, behold, I am he that strengthens the thunder, and creates the wind, and proclaims to men his Christ, forming the morning and the darkness, and mounting on the high places of the earth, YHVH Elohim Almighty is his name.

(Amo 5:1) Hear ye this word of YHVH, even a lamentation, which I take up against you. The house of Israel is fallen; it shall no more rise.

(Amo 5:2) The virgin of Israel has fallen upon his land; there is none that shall raise her up.

(Amo 5:3) Therefore thus saith YHVH Elohim; The city out of which there went forth a thousand, in it there shall be left a hundred, and in that out of which there went forth a hundred, there shall be left ten to the house of Israel.

(Amo 5:4) Wherefore thus saith YHVH to the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live.

(Amo 5:5) But seek not Bethel, and go not into Galgala, and cross not over to the Well of the Oath: for Galgala shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall be as that which is not.

(Amo 5:6) Seek ye YHVH, and ye shall live; lest the house of Joseph blaze as fire, and it devour him, and there shall be none to quench it for the house of Israel.

(Amo 5:7) It is he that executes judgment in the height above, and he has established justice on the earth:

(Amo 5:8) who makes all things, and changes them, and turns darkness into the morning, and darkens the day into night: who calls for the water of the sea, and pours it out on the face of the earth: YHVH is his name:

(Amo 5:9) who dispenses ruin to strength, and brings distress upon the fortress.

(Amo 5:10) They hated him that reproveth in the gates, and abhorred holy speech.

(Amo 5:11) Therefore because they have smitten the poor with their fists, and ye have received of them choice gifts; ye have built polished houses, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted desirable vineyards, but ye shall not drink the wine of them.

(Amo 5:12) For I know your many transgressions, and your sins are great, trampling on the just, taking bribes, and turning aside the judgment of the poor in the gates.

(Amo 5:13) Therefore the prudent shall be silent at that time; for it is a time of evils.

(Amo 5:14) Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so YHVH Elohim Almighty shall be with you, as ye have said, (Amo 5:15) We have hated evil, and loved good: and restore ye judgment in the gates; that YHVH Elohim Almighty may have mercy on the remnant of Joseph.

(Amo 5:16) Therefore thus saith YHVH Elohim Almighty; In all the streets shall be lamentations; and in all the ways shall it be said, Woe, woe! the husbandman shall be called to mourning and lamentation, and to them that are skilled in complaining.

(Amo 5:17) And there shall be lamentation in all the ways; because I will pass through the midst of thee, saith YHVH.

(Amo 5:18) Woe to you that desire the day of YHVH! what is this day of YHVH to you? whereas it is darkness, and not light.

(Amo 5:19) As if a man should flee from the face of a lion, and a bear should meet him; and he should spring into his house, and lean his hands upon the wall, and a serpent should bite him.

(Amo 5:20) Is not the day of YHVH darkness, and not light? and is not this day gloom without brightness?

(Amo 5:21) I hate, I reject your feasts, and I will not smell your meat-offerings in your general assemblies.

(Amo 5:22) Wherefore if ye should bring me your whole-burnt-sacrifices and meat-offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I have respect to your grand peace-offerings.

(Amo 5:23) Remove from me the sound of thy songs, and I will not hear the music of thine instruments.

(Amo 5:24) But let judgment roll down as water, and righteousness as an impassable torrent.

(Amo 5:25) Have ye offered to me victims and sacrifices, O house of Israel, forty years in the wilderness?

(Amo 5:26) Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Raephan, the images of them which ye made for yourselves.

(Amo 5:27) And I will carry you away beyond Damascus, saith YHVH, the Almighty Elohim is his name.

(Amo 6:1) Woe to them that set at nought Sion, and that trust in the mountain of Samaria: they have gathered the harvest of the heads of the nations, and they have gone in themselves.

(Amo 6:2) O house of Israel, pass by all of you, and see; and pass by thence to Ematrabba; and thence descend to Geth of the Philistines, the chief of all these kingdoms, see if their coasts are greater than your coasts.

(Amo 6:3) Ye who are approaching the evil day, who are drawing near and adopting false Sabbaths;

(Amo 6:4) who sleep upon beds of ivory, and live delicately on their couches, and eat kids out of the flocks, and sucking calves out of the midst of the stalls;

(Amo 6:5) who excel in the sound of musical instruments; they have regarded them as abiding, not as fleeting pleasures;

(Amo 6:6) who drink strained wine, and anoint themselves with the best ointment; and have suffered nothing on occasion of the calamity of Joseph.

(Amo 6:7) Therefore now shall they depart into captivity from the dominion of princes, and the neighing of horses shall be cut off from Ephraim.

(Amo 6:8) For YHVH has sworn by himself, saying, Because I abhor all the pride of Jacob, I do also hate his countries, and I will cut off his city with all who inhabit it.

(Amo 6:9) And it shall come to pass, if there be ten men left in one house, that they shall die.

(Amo 6:10) But a remnant shall be left behind, and their relations shall take them, and shall strenuously endeavor to carry forth their bones from the house: and one shall say to the heads of the house, Is there yet any one else with thee?

(Amo 6:11) And he shall say, No one else. And the other shall say, Be silent, that thou name not the name of YHVH.

(Amo 6:12) For, behold, YHVH commands, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with rents.

(Amo 6:13) Will horses run upon rocks? will they refrain from neighing at mares? for ye have turned judgment into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness:

(Amo 6:14) ye who rejoice at vanity, who say, Have we not possessed horns by our own strength?

(Amo 6:15) For behold, O house of Israel, I will raise up against you a nation, saith YHVH of hosts; and they shall afflict you so that ye shall not enter into Æmath, and as it were from the river of the wilderness.

(Amo 7:1) Thus has YHVH Elohim shewed me; and, behold, a swarm of locusts coming from the east; and, behold, one caterpillar, king Gog.

(Amo 7:2) And it came to pass when he had finished devouring the grass of the land, that I said, Lord Elohim, be merciful; who shall raise up Jacob? for he is small in number.

(Amo 7:3) Repent, YHVH, for this. And this shall not be, saith YHVH.

(Amo 7:4) Thus has YHVH shewed me; and, behold, YHVH called for judgment by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and devoured YHVH's portion.

(Amo 7:5) Then I said, YHVH, cease, I pray thee: who shall raise up Jacob? for he is small in number. Repent, YHVH, for this.

(Amo 7:6) This also shall not be, saith YHVH.

(Amo 7:7) Thus YHVH shewed me; and behold, he stood upon a wall of adamant, and in his hand was an adamant.

(Amo 7:8) And YHVH said to me, What seest thou, Amos? And I said, An adamant. And YHVH said to me, Behold, I appoint an adamant in the midst of my people Israel: I will not pass by them any more.

(Amo 7:9) And the joyful altars shall be abolished, and the sacrifices of Israel shall be set aside; and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

(Amo 7:10) Then Amasias the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos is forming conspiracies against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land will be utterly unable to bear all his words.

(Amo 7:11) For thus says Amos, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall be led away captive from his land.

(Amo 7:12) And Amasias said to Amos, Go, seer, remove thou into the land of Juda, and live there, and thou shalt prophesy there:

(Amo 7:13) but thou shalt no longer prophesy at Bethel: for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is the royal house.

(Amo 7:14) And Amos answered, and said to Amasias, I was not a prophet, nor the son of a prophet; but I was a herdman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruits.

(Amo 7:15) And YHVH took me from the sheep, and YHVH said to me, Go, and prophesy to my people Israel.

(Amo 7:16) And now hear the word of YHVH: Thou sayest, Prophecy not to Israel, and raise not a tumult against the house of Jacob.

(Amo 7:17) Therefore thus saith YHVH; Thy wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be measured with the line; and thou shalt die in an unclean land; and Israel shall be led captive out of his land. Thus has YHVH Elohim shewed me.

(Amo 8:1) And behold a fowler's basket.

(Amo 8:2) And he said, What seest thou, Amos? And I said, A fowler's basket. And YHVH said to me, The end is come upon my people Israel; I will not pass by them any more.

(Amo 8:3) And the ceilings of the temple shall howl in that day, saith YHVH Elohim: there shall be many a fallen one in every place; I will bring silence upon them.

(Amo 8:4) Hear now this, ye that oppress the poor in the morning, and drive the needy ones by tyranny from the earth, (Amo 8:5) saying, When will the month pass away, and we shall sell, and the Sabbath, and we shall open the treasure, to make the measure small, and to enlarge the weight, and make the balance unfair?

(Amo 8:6) That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for shoes; and we will trade in every kind of fruit.

(Amo 8:7) YHVH swears against the pride of Jacob, None of your works shall ever be forgotten.

(Amo 8:8) And shall not the land be troubled for these things, and shall not every one who dwells in it mourn? whereas destruction shall come up as a river, and shall descend as the river of Egypt.

(Amo 8:9) And it shall come to pass in that day, saith YHVH Elohim, that the sun shall go down at noon, and the light shall be darkened on the earth by day:

(Amo 8:10) and I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; and I will make them as the mourning of a beloved friend, and those with them as a day of grief.

(Amo 8:11) Behold, the days come, saith YHVH, that I will send forth a famine on the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the word of YHVH.

(Amo 8:12) And the waters shall be troubled from sea to sea, and from the north to the east shall men run hither and thither, seeking the word of YHVH, and they shall not find it.

(Amo 8:13) In that day shall the fair virgins and the young men faint for thirst;

(Amo 8:14) they who swear by the propitiation of Samaria, and who say, Thy god, O Dan, lives; and, Thy god, O Bersabee, lives; and they shall fall, and shall no more rise again.

(Amo 9:1) I saw YHVH standing on the altar: and he said, Smite the mercy-seat, and the porch shall be shaken: and cut through into the heads of all; and I will slay the remnant of them with the sword: no one of them fleeing shall escape, and no one of them, striving to save himself shall be delivered.

(Amo 9:2) Though they hid themselves in hell, thence shall my hand drag them forth; and though they go up to heaven, thence will I bring them down.

(Amo 9:3) If they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, thence will I search them out and take them; and if they should go down from my presence into the depths of the sea, there will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

(Amo 9:4) And if they should go into captivity before the face of their enemies, there will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes against them for evil, and not for good.

(Amo 9:5) And YHVH, YHVH Elohim Almighty, is he that takes hold of the land, and causes it to shake, and all that inhabit it shall mourn; and its destruction shall go up as a river, and shall descend as the river of Egypt.

(Amo 9:6) It is he that builds his ascent up to the sky, and establishes his promise on the earth; who calls the water of the sea, and pours it out on the face of the earth; YHVH Almighty is his name.

(Amo 9:7) Are not ye to me as the sons of the Ethiopians, O children of Israel? saith YHVH. Did I not bring Israel up out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Cappadocia, and the Syrians out of the deep?

(Amo 9:8) Behold, the eyes of YHVH Elohim are upon the kingdom of sinners, and I will cut it off from the face of the earth; only I will not utterly cut off the house of Jacob, saith YHVH.

(Amo 9:9) For I will give commandment, and sift the house of Israel among all the Gentiles, as corn is sifted in a sieve, and yet a fragment shall not in any wise fall upon the earth.

(Amo 9:10) All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, who say, Calamities shall certainly not draw near, nor come upon us.

(Amo 9:11) In that day I will raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and will rebuild the ruins of it, and will set up the parts thereof that have been broken down, and will build it up as in the ancient days:

(Amo 9:12) that the remnant of men, and all the Gentiles upon whom my name is called, may earnestly seek me, saith YHVH who does all these things.

(Amo 9:13) Behold, the days come, saith YHVH, when the harvest shall overtake the vintage, and the grapes shall ripen at seedtime; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall be planted.

(Amo 9:14) And I will turn the captivity of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities, and shall inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and shall drink the wine from them; and they shall form gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

(Amo 9:15) And I will plant them on their land, and they shall no more be plucked up from the land which I have given them, saith YHVH Elohim Almighty.

ObadiYAH/Obdias.

(Oba 1:1) The vision of Obdias. Thus saith YHVH Elohim to Idumea; I have heard a report from YHVH, and he has sent forth a message to the nations.

(Oba 1:2) Arise ye, and let us rise up against her to war.

(Oba 1:3) Behold, I have made thee small among the Gentiles: thou art greatly dishonoured. The pride of thine heart has elated thee, dwelling as thou dost in the holes of the rocks, as one that exalts his habitation, saying in his heart, Who will bring me down to the ground?

(Oba 1:4) If thou shouldest mount up as the eagle, and if thou shouldest make thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith YHVH.

(Oba 1:5) If thieves came in to thee, or robbers by night, where wouldest thou have been cast away? would they not have stolen just enough for themselves? and if grape-gatherers went in to thee, would they not leave a gleaning?

(Oba 1:6) How has Esau been searched out, and how have his hidden things been detected?

(Oba 1:8) In that day, saith YHVH, I will destroy the wise men out of Idumea, and understanding out of the mount of Esau.

(Oba 1:9) And thy warriors from Thaeman shall be dismayed, to the end that man may be cut off from the mount of Esau.

(Oba 1:10) Because of the slaughter and the sin committed against thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

(Oba 1:11) From the day that thou stoodest in opposition to him, in the days when foreigners were taking captive his forces, and strangers entered into his gates, and cast lots on Jerusalem, thou also wast as one of them.

(Oba 1:12) And thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day of strangers; nor shouldest thou have rejoiced against the children of Juda in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have boasted in the day of their affliction.

(Oba 1:13) Neither shouldest thou have gone into the gates of the people in the day of their troubles; nor yet shouldest thou have looked upon their gathering in the day of their destruction, nor shouldest thou have attacked their host in the day of their perishing.

(Oba 1:14) Neither shouldest thou have stood at the opening of their passages, to destroy utterly those of them that were escaping; neither shouldest thou have shut up his fugitives in the day of affliction.

(Oba 1:15) For the day of YHVH is near upon all the Gentiles: as thou have done, so shall it be done to thee: thy recompense shall be returned on thine own head.

(Oba 1:16) For as thou hast drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the nations drink wine; they shall drink, and go down, and be as if they were not.

(Oba 1:17) But on mount Sion there shall be deliverance, and there shall be a sanctuary; and the house of Jacob shall take for an inheritance those that took them for an inheritance.

(Oba 1:18) And the house of Jacob shall be fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau shall be for stubble; and Israel shall flame forth against them, and shall devour them, and there shall not be a corn-field left to the house of Esau; because YHVH has spoken.

(Oba 1:19) And they that dwell in the south shall inherit the mount of Esau, and they in the plain the Philistines: and they shall inherit the mount of Ephraim, and the plain of Samaria, and Benjamin, and the land of Galaad.

(Oba 1:20) And this shall be the domain of the captivity of the children of Israel, the land of the Chananites as far as Sarepta; and the captives of Jerusalem shall inherit as far as Ephratha; they shall inherit the cities of the south.

(Oba 1:21) And they that escape shall come up from mount Sion, to take vengeance on the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be YHVH's.

Jonah/Jonas.

(Jon 1:1) Now the word of YHVH came to Jonas the son of Amathi, saying, (Jon 1:2) Rise, and go to Nineve, the great city, and preach in it; for the cry of its wickedness is come up to me.

(Jon 1:3) But Jonas rose up to flee to Tharsis from the presence of YHVH. And he went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tharsis: and he paid his fare, and went up into it, to sail with them to Tharsis from the presence of YHVH.

(Jon 1:4) And YHVH raised up a wind on the sea; and there was a great storm on the sea, and the ship was in danger of being broken.

(Jon 1:5) And the sailors were alarmed, and cried every one to his god, and cast out the wares that were in the ship into the sea, that it might be lightened of them. But Jonas was gone down into the hold of the ship, and was asleep, and snored.

(Jon 1:6) And the shipmaster came to him, and said to him, Why snoorest thou? arise, and call upon thy Elohim, that Elohim may save us, and we perish not.

(Jon 1:7) And each man said to his neighbour, Come, let us cast lots, and find out for whose sake this mischief is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonas.

(Jon 1:8) And they said to him, Tell us what is thine occupation, and whence comest thou, and of what country and what people art thou?

(Jon 1:9) And he said to them, I am a servant of YHVH; and I worship YHVH Elohim of heaven, who made the sea, and the dry land.

(Jon 1:10) Then the men feared exceedingly, and said to him, What is this that thou hast done? for the men knew that he was fleeing from the face of YHVH, because he had told them.

(Jon 1:11) And they said to him, What shall we do to thee, that the sea may be calm to us? for the sea rose, and lifted its wave exceedingly.

(Jon 1:12) And Jonas said to them, Take me up, and cast me into the sea, and the sea shall be calm to you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

(Jon 1:13) And the men tried hard to return to the land, and were not able: for the sea rose and grew more and more tempestuous against them.

(Jon 1:14) And they cried to YHVH, and said, Forbid it, Lord: let us not perish for the sake of this man's life, and bring not righteous blood upon us: for thou, Lord, hast done as thou wouldest.

(Jon 1:15) So they took Jonas, and cast him out into the sea: and the sea ceased from its raging.

(Jon 1:16) And the men feared YHVH very greatly, and offered a sacrifice to YHVH, and vowed vows.

(Jon 2:1) Now YHVH had commanded a great whale to swallow up Jonas: and Jonas was in the belly of the whale three days and three nights.

(Jon 2:2) And Jonas prayed to YHVH his Elohim out of the belly of the whale,

(Jon 2:3) and said, I cried in my affliction to YHVH my Elohim, and he hearkened to me, even to my cry out of the belly of hell: thou heardest my voice.

(Jon 2:4) Thou didst cast me into the depths of the heart of the sea, and the floods compassed me: all thy billows and thy waves have passed upon me.

(Jon 2:5) And I said, I am cast out of thy presence: shall I indeed look again toward thy holy temple?

(Jon 2:6) Water was poured around me to the soul: the lowest deep compassed me, my head went down

(Jon 2:7) to the clefts of the mountains; I went down into the earth, whose bars are the everlasting barriers: yet, YHVH my Elohim, let my ruined life be restored.

(Jon 2:8) When my soul was failing me, I remembered YHVH; and may my prayer come to thee into thy holy temple.

(Jon 2:9) They that observe vanities and lies have forsaken their own mercy.

(Jon 2:10) But I will sacrifice to thee with the voice of praise and thanksgiving: all that I have vowed I will pay to thee, YHVH of my salvation.

(Jon 2:11) And the whale was commanded by YHVH, and it cast up Jonas on the dry land.

(Jon 3:1) And the word of YHVH came to Jonas the second time, saying, (Jon 3:2) Rise, go to Nineve, the great city, and preach in it according to the former preaching which I spoke to thee of.

(Jon 3:3) And Jonas arose, and went to Nineve, as YHVH had spoken. Now Nineve was an exceeding great city, of about three days' journey.

(Jon 3:4) And Jonas began to enter into the city about a day's journey, and he proclaimed, and said, Yet three days, and Nineve shall be overthrown.

(Jon 3:5) And the men of Nineve believed Elohim, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloths, from the greatest of them to the least of them.

(Jon 3:6) And the word reached the king of Nineve, and he arose from off his throne, and took off his raiment from him, and put on sackcloth, and sat on ashes.

(Jon 3:7) And proclamation was made, and it was commanded in Nineve by the king and by his great men, saying, Let not men, or cattle, or oxen, or sheep, taste any thing, nor feed, nor drink water.

(Jon 3:8) So men and cattle were clothed with sackcloths, and cried earnestly to Elohim; and they turned every one from their evil way, and from the iniquity that was in their hands, saying,

(Jon 3:9) Who knows if Elohim will repent, and turn from his fierce anger, and so we shall not perish?

(Jon 3:10) And Elohim saw their works, that they turned from their evil ways; and Elohim repented of the evil which he had said he would do to them; and he did it not.

(Jon 4:1) But Jonas was very deeply grieved, and he was confounded.

(Jon 4:2) And he prayed to YHVH, and said, YHVH, were not these my words when I was yet in my land? therefore I made haste to flee to Tharsis; because I knew that thou are merciful and compassionate, long-suffering, and abundant in kindness, and repentest of evil.

(Jon 4:3) And now, Lord Elohim, take my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

(Jon 4:4) And YHVH said to Jonas, Art thou very much grieved?

(Jon 4:5) And Jonas went out from the city, and sat over against the city; and he made for himself there a booth, and he sat under it, until he should perceive what would become of the city.

(Jon 4:6) And YHVH Elohim commanded a gourd, and it came up over the head of Jonas, to be a shadow over his head, to shade him from his calamities: and Jonas rejoiced with great joy for the gourd.

(Jon 4:7) And Elohim commanded a worm the next morning, and it smote the gourd, and it withered away.

(Jon 4:8) And it came to pass at the rising of the sun, that Elohim commanded a burning east wind; and the sun smote on the head of Jonas, and he fainted, and despaired of his life, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

(Jon 4:9) And Elohim said to Jonas, Art thou very much grieved for the gourd? And he said, I am very much grieved, even to death.

(Jon 4:10) And YHVH said, Thou hadst pity on the gourd, for which thou has not suffered, neither didst thou rear it; which came up before night, and perished before another night:

(Jon 4:11) and shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand; and also much cattle?

Micah/ Michaeas.

(Mic 1:1) And the word of YHVH came to Michaeas the son of Morasthi, in the days of Joatham, and Achaz, and Ezekias, kings of Juda, concerning what he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem.

(Mic 1:2) Hear these words, ye people; and let the earth give heed, and all that are in it: and YHVH Elohim shall be among you for a testimony, YHVH out of his holy habitation.

(Mic 1:3) For, behold, YHVH comes forth out of his place, and will come down, and will go upon the high places of the earth.

(Mic 1:4) And the mountains shall be shaken under him, and the valleys shall melt like wax before the fire, and as water rushing down a declivity.

(Mic 1:5) All these calamities are for the transgression of Jacob, and for the sin of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what is the sin of the house of Juda? is it not Jerusalem?

(Mic 1:6) Therefore I will make Samaria as a store-house of the fruits of the field, and as a planting of a vineyard: and I will utterly demolish her stones, and I will expose her foundations.

(Mic 1:7) And they shall cut in pieces all the graven images, and all that she has hired they shall burn with fire, and I will utterly destroy all her idols: because she has gathered of the hires of fornication, and of the hires of fornication has she amassed wealth.

(Mic 1:8) Therefore shall she lament and wail, she shall go barefooted, and being naked she shall make lamentation as that of serpents, and mourning as of the daughters of sirens.

(Mic 1:9) For her plague has become grievous; for it has come even to Juda; and has reached to the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

(Mic 1:10) Ye that are in Geth, exalt not yourselves, and ye Enakim, do not rebuild from the ruins of the house in derision: sprinkle dust in the place of your laughter.

(Mic 1:11) The inhabitant of Sennaar, fairly inhabiting her cities, came not forth to mourn for the house next to her: she shall receive of you the stroke of grief.

(Mic 1:12) Who has begun to act for good to her that dwells in sorrow? for calamities have come down from YHVH upon the gates of Jerusalem, (Mic 1:13) even a sound of chariots and horsemen: the inhabitants of Lachis, she is the leader of sin to the daughter of Sion: for in thee were found the transgressions of Israel.

(Mic 1:14) Therefore shall he cause men to be sent forth as far as the inheritance of Geth, even vain houses; they are become vanity to the kings of Israel;

(Mic 1:15) until they bring the heirs, O inhabitant of Lachis: the inheritance shall reach to Odollam, even the glory of the daughter of Israel.

(Mic 1:16) Shave thine hair, and make thyself bald for thy delicate children; increase thy widowhood as an eagle; for thy people are gone into captivity from thee.

(Mic 2:1) They meditated troubles, and wrought wickedness on their beds, and they put it in execution with the daylight; for they have not lifted up their hands to Elohim.

(Mic 2:2) And they desired fields, and plundered orphans, and oppressed families, and spoiled a man and his house, even a man and his inheritance.

(Mic 2:3) Therefore thus saith YHVH; Behold, I devise evils against this family, out of which ye shall not lift up your necks, neither shall ye walk upright speedily: for the time is evil.

(Mic 2:4) In that day shall a parable be taken up against you, and a plaintive lamentation shall be uttered, saying, We are thoroughly miserable: the portion of my people has been measured out with a line, and there was none to hinder him so as to turn him back; your fields have been divided.

(Mic 2:5) Therefore thou shalt have no one to cast a line for the lot.

(Mic 2:6) Weep not with tears in the assembly of YHVH, neither let any weep for these things; for he shall not remove the reproaches, (Mic 2:7) who says, The house of Jacob has provoked the Spirit of YHVH; are not these his practices? Are not YHVH's words right with him? and have they not proceeded correctly?

(Mic 2:8) Even beforetime my people withstood him as an enemy against his peace; they have stripped off his skin to remove hope in the conflict of war.

(Mic 2:9) The leaders of my people shall be cast forth from their luxurious houses; they are rejected because of their evil practices; draw ye near to the everlasting mountains.

(Mic 2:10) Arise thou, and depart; for this is not thy rest because of uncleanness: ye have been utterly destroyed;

(Mic 2:11) ye have fled, no one pursuing you: thy spirit has framed falsehood, it has dropped on thee for wine and strong drink. But it shall come to pass, that out of the dropping of this people,

(Mic 2:12) Jacob shall be completely gathered with all his people: I will surely receive the remnant of Israel; I will cause them to return together, as sheep in trouble, as a flock in the midst of their fold: they shall rush forth from among men through the breach made before them:

(Mic 2:13) they have broken through, and passed the gate, and gone out by it: and their king has gone out before them, and YHVH shall lead them.

(Mic 3:1) And he shall say, Hear now these words, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and ye remnant of the house of Israel; is it not for you to know judgment?

(Mic 3:2) who hate good, and seek evil; who tear their skins off them, and their flesh off their bones:

(Mic 3:3) even as they devoured the flesh of my people, and stripped their skins off them, and broke their bones, and divided them as flesh for the caldron, and as meat for the pot,

(Mic 3:4) thus they shall cry to YHVH, but he shall not hearken to them; and he shall turn away his face from them at that time, because they have done wickedly in their practices against themselves.

(Mic 3:5) Thus saith YHVH concerning the prophets that lead my people astray, that bit with their teeth, and proclaim peace to them; and when nothing was put into their mouth, they raised up war against them:

(Mic 3:6) therefore there shall be night to you instead of a vision, and there shall be to you darkness instead of prophecy; and the sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be dark upon them.

(Mic 3:7) And the seers of night-visions shall be ashamed, and the prophets shall be laughed to scorn: and all the people shall speak against them, because there shall be none to hearken to them.

(Mic 3:8) Surely I will strengthen myself with the Spirit of YHVH, and of judgment, and of power, to declare to Jacob his transgressions, and to Israel his sins.

(Mic 3:9) Hear now these words, ye chiefs of the house of Jacob, and the remnant of the house of Israel, who hate judgment, and pervert all righteousness;

(Mic 3:10) who build up Sion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

(Mic 3:11) The heads thereof have judged for gifts, and the priests thereof have answered for hire, and her prophets have divined for silver: and yet they have rested on YHVH, saying, Is not YHVH among us? no evil shall come upon us.

(Mic 3:12) Therefore on your account Sion shall be ploughed as a field, and Jerusalem shall be as a storehouse of fruits, and the mountain of the house as a grove of the forest.

(Mic 4:1) And at the last days the mountain of YHVH shall be manifest, established on the tops of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and the peoples shall hasten to it.

(Mic 4:2) And many nations shall go, and say, Come, let us go up to the mountain of YHVH, and to the house of the Elohim of Jacob; and they shall shew us his way, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Sion shall go forth a law, and the word of YHVH from Jerusalem.

(Mic 4:3) And he shall judge among many peoples, and shall rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into sickles; and nation shall no more lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn to war any more.

(Mic 4:4) And every one shall rest under his vine, and every one under his fig-tree; and there shall be none to alarm them: for the mouth of YHVH Almighty has spoken these words.

(Mic 4:5) For all other nations shall walk everyone in his own way, but we will walk in the name of YHVH our Elohim for ever and ever.

(Mic 4:6) In that day, saith YHVH, I will gather her that is bruised, and will receive her that is cast out, and those whom I rejected.

(Mic 4:7) And I will make her that was bruised a remnant, and her that was rejected a mighty nation: and YHVH shall reign over them in mount Sion from henceforth, even for ever.

(Mic 4:8) And thou, dark tower of the flock, daughter of Sion, on thee the dominion shall come and enter in, even the first kingdom from Babylon to the daughter of Jerusalem.

(Mic 4:9) And now, why hast thou known calamities? was there not a king to thee? or has thy counsel perished that pangs as of a woman in travail have seized upon thee?

(Mic 4:10) Be in pain, and strengthen thyself, and draw near, O daughter of Sion, as a woman in travail: for now thou shalt go forth out of the city, and shalt lodge in the plain, and shalt reach even to Babylon: thence shall YHVH thy Elohim deliver thee, and thence shall he redeem thee out of the hand of thine enemies.

(Mic 4:11) And now have many nations gathered against thee, saying, We will rejoice, and our eyes shall look upon Sion.

(Mic 4:12) But they know not the thought of YHVH, and have not understood his counsel: for he has gathered them as sheaves of the floor.

(Mic 4:13) Arise, and thresh them, O daughter of Sion: for I will make thine horns iron, and I will make thine hoofs brass: and thou shalt utterly destroy many nations, and shalt consecrate their abundance to YHVH, and their strength to YHVH of all the earth.

(Mic 5:1) Now shall the daughter of Sion be completely hedged in: he has laid siege against us: they shall smite the tribes of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

(Mic 5:2) And thou, Bethlehem, house of Ephratha, art few in number to be reckoned among the thousands of Juda; yet out of thee shall one come forth to me, to be a ruler of Israel; and his goings forth were from the beginning, even from eternity.

(Mic 5:3) Therefore shall he appoint them to wait till the time of her that travails: she shall bring forth, and then the remnant of their brethren shall return to the children of Israel.

(Mic 5:4) And YHVH shall stand, and see, and feed his flock with power, and they shall dwell in the glory of the name of YHVH their Elohim: for now shall they be magnified to the ends of the earth.

(Mic 5:5) And she shall have peace when Assur shall come into your land, and when he shall come up upon your country; and there shall be raised up against him seven shepherds, and eight attacks of men.

(Mic 5:6) And they shall tend the Assyrian with a sword, and the land of Nebrod with her trench: and he shall deliver you from the Assyrian, when he shall come upon your land, and when he shall invade your coasts.

(Mic 5:7) And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many peoples, as dew falling from YHVH, and as lambs on the grass; that none may assemble nor resist among the sons of men.

(Mic 5:8) And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many nations, as a lion in the forest among cattle, and as a lion's whelp among the flocks of sheep, even as when he goes through, and selects, and carries off his prey, and there is none to deliver.

(Mic 5:9) Thine hand shall be lifted up against them that afflict thee, and all thine enemies shall be utterly destroyed.

(Mic 5:10) And it shall come to pass in that day, saith YHVH, that I will utterly destroy the horses out of the midst of thee, and destroy thy chariots;

(Mic 5:11) and I will utterly destroy the cities of thy land, and demolish all thy strong-holds:

(Mic 5:12) and I will utterly destroy thy sorceries out of thine hands; and there shall be no soothsayers in thee.

(Mic 5:13) And I will utterly destroy thy graven images, and thy statues out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt never any more worship the works of thine hands.

(Mic 5:14) And I will cut off the groves out of the midst of thee, and I will abolish thy cities.

(Mic 5:15) and I will execute vengeance on the heathen in anger and wrath, because they hearkened not.

(Mic 6:1) Hear now a word: YHVH Elohim has said; Arise, plead with the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

(Mic 6:2) Hear ye, O mountains, the controversy of YHVH, and ye valleys even the foundations of the earth: for YHVH has a controversy with his people, and will plead with Israel.

(Mic 6:3) O my people, what have I done to thee? or wherein have I grieved thee? or wherein have I troubled thee? answer me.

(Mic 6:4) For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of bondage, and sent before thee Moses, and Aaron, and Mariam.

(Mic 6:5) O my people, remember now, what counsel Balac king of Moab took against thee, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him, from the reeds to Galgal; that the righteousness of YHVH might be known.

(Mic 6:6) Wherewithal shall I reach YHVH, and lay hold of my Elohim most high? shall I reach him by whole-burnt-offerings, by calves of a year old?

(Mic 6:7) Will YHVH accept thousands of rams, or ten thousands of fat goats? should I give my first-born for ungodliness, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

(Mic 6:8) Has it not been told thee, O man, what is good? or what does YHVH require of thee, but to do justice, and love mercy, and be ready to walk with YHVH thy Elohim?

(Mic 6:9) YHVH's voice shall be proclaimed in the city, and he shall save those that fear his name: hear, O tribe; and who shall order the city?

(Mic 6:10) Is there not fire, and the house of the wicked heaping up wicked treasures, and that with the pride of unrighteousness?

(Mic 6:11) Shall the wicked be justified by the balanced, or deceitful weights in the bag, (Mic 6:12) whereby they have accumulated their ungodly wealth, and they that dwell in the city have uttered falsehoods, and their tongue has been exalted in their mouth?

(Mic 6:13) Therefore will I begin to smite thee; I will destroy thee in thy sins.

(Mic 6:14) Thou shalt eat, and shalt not be satisfied; and there shall be darkness upon thee; and he shall depart from thee, and thou shalt not escape; and all that shall escape shall be delivered over to the sword.

(Mic 6:15) Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt press the olive, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with oil; and shalt make wine, but ye shall drink no wine: and the ordinances of my people shall be utterly abolished.

(Mic 6:16) For thou hast kept the statutes of Zambri, and done all the works of the house of Achaab; and ye have walked in their ways, that I might deliver thee to utter destruction, and those that inhabit the city to hissing: and ye shall bear the reproach of nations.

(Mic 7:1) Alas for me! for I am become as one gathering straw in harvest, and as one gathering grape-gleanings in the vintage, when there is no cluster for me to eat the first-ripe fruit: alas my soul!

(Mic 7:2) For the godly is perished from the earth; and there is none among men that orders his way aright: they all quarrel even to blood: they grievously afflict every one his neighbour:

(Mic 7:3) they prepare their hands for mischief, the prince asks a reward, and the judge speaks flattering words; it is the desire of their soul:

(Mic 7:4) therefore I will take away their goods as a devouring moth, and as one who acts by a rigid rule in a day of visitation. Woe, woe, thy times of vengeance are come; now shall be their lamentations.

(Mic 7:5) Trust not in friends, and confide not in guides: beware of thy wife, so as not to commit anything to her.

(Mic 7:6) For the son dishonours his father, the daughter will rise up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law: those in his house shall be all a man's enemies.

(Mic 7:7) But I will look to YHVH; I will wait upon Elohim my Saviour: my Elohim will hearken to me.

(Mic 7:8) Rejoice not against me, mine enemy; for I have fallen yet shall arise; for though I should sit in darkness, YHVH shall be a light to me.

(Mic 7:9) I will bear the indignation of YHVH, because I have sinned against him, until he make good my cause: he also shall maintain my right, and shall bring me out to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

(Mic 7:10) And she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shall clothe herself with shame, who says, Where is YHVH thy Elohim? mine eyes shall look upon her: now shall she be for trampling as mire in the ways.

(Mic 7:11) It is the day of making of brick; that day shall be thine utter destruction, and that day shall utterly abolish thine ordinances.

(Mic 7:12) And thy cities shall be levelled, and parted among the Assyrians; and thy strong cities shall be parted from Tyre to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

(Mic 7:13) And the land shall be utterly desolate together with them that inhabit it, because of the fruit of their doings.

(Mic 7:14) Tend thy people with thy rod, the sheep of thine inheritance, those that inhabit by themselves the thicket in the midst of Carmel: they shall feed in the land of Basan, and in the land of Galaad, as in the days of old.

(Mic 7:15) And according to the days of thy departure out of Egypt shall ye see marvellous things.

(Mic 7:16) The nations shall see and be ashamed; and at all their might they shall lay their hands upon their mouth, their ears shall be deafened.

(Mic 7:17) They shall lick the dust as serpents crawling on the earth, they shall be confounded in their holes; they shall be amazed at YHVH our Elohim, and will be afraid of thee.

(Mic 7:18) Who is a Elohim like thee, cancelling iniquities, and passing over the sins of the remnant of his inheritance? and he has not kept his anger for a testimony, for he delights in mercy.

(Mic 7:19) He will return and have mercy upon us; he will sink our iniquities, and they shall be cast into the depth of the sea, even all our sins.

(Mic 7:20) He shall give blessings truly to Jacob, and mercy to Abraam, as thou swarest to our fathers, according to the former days.

Nahum/Naum.

(Nah 1:1) The burden of Nineve: the book of the vision of Naum the Elkesite.

(Nah 1:2) Elohim is jealous, and YHVH avenges; YHVH avenges with wrath; YHVH takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he cuts off his enemies.

(Nah 1:3) YHVH is long-suffering, and his power is great, and YHVH will not hold any guiltless: his way is in destruction and in the whirlwind, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

(Nah 1:4) He threatens the sea, and dries it up, and exhausts all the rivers: the land of Basan, and Carmel are brought low, and the flourishing trees of Libanus have come to nought.

(Nah 1:5) The mountains quake at him, and the hills are shaken, and the earth recoils at his presence, even the world, and all that dwell in it.

(Nah 1:6) Who shall stand before his anger? and who shall withstand in the anger of his wrath? his wrath brings to nought kingdoms, and the rocks are burst asunder by him.

(Nah 1:7) YHVH is good to them that wait on him in the day of affliction; and he knows them that reverence him.

(Nah 1:8) But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end: darkness shall pursue those that rise up against him and his enemies.

(Nah 1:9) What do ye devise against YHVH? he will make a complete end: he will not take vengeance by affliction twice at the same time.

(Nah 1:10) For the enemy shall be laid bare even to the foundation, and shall be devoured as twisted yew, and as stubble fully dry.

(Nah 1:11) Out of thee shall proceed a device against YHVH, counselling evil things hostile to him.

(Nah 1:12) Thus saith YHVH who rules over many waters, Even thus shall they be sent away, and the report of thee shall not be heard any more.

(Nah 1:13) And now will I break his rod from off thee, and will burst thy bonds.

(Nah 1:14) And YHVH shall give a command concerning thee; there shall no more of thy name be scattered: I will utterly destroy the graven images out of the house of thy god, and the molten images: I will make thy grave; for they are swift.

(Nah 1:15) Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that brings glad tidings, and publishes peace! O Juda, keep thy feasts, pay thy vows: for they shall no more pass through thee to thy decay.

(Nah 2:1) It is all over with him, he has been removed, one who has been delivered from affliction has come up panting into thy presence, watch the way, strengthen thy loins, be very valiant in thy strength.

(Nah 2:2) For YHVH has turned aside the pride of Jacob, as the pride of Israel: for they have utterly rejected them, and have destroyed their branches.

(Nah 2:3) They have destroyed the arms of their power from among men, their mighty men sporting with fire: the reins of their chariots shall be destroyed in the day of his preparation, and the horsemen shall be thrown into confusion

(Nah 2:4) in the ways, and the chariots shall clash together, and shall be entangled in each other in the broad ways: their appearance is as lamps of fire, and as gleaming lightnings.

(Nah 2:5) And their mighty men shall bethink themselves and flee by day; and they shall be weak as they go; and they shall hasten to her walls, and shall prepare their defences.

(Nah 2:6) The gates of the cities have been opened, and the palaces have fallen into ruin, (Nah 2:7) and the foundation has been exposed; and she has gone up, and her maid-servants were led away as doves moaning in their hearts.

(Nah 2:8) And as for Nineve, her waters shall be as a pool of water: and they fled, and staid not, and there was none to look back.

(Nah 2:9) They plundered the silver, they plundered the gold, and there was no end of their adorning; they were loaded with it upon all their pleasant vessels.

(Nah 2:10) There is thrusting forth, and shaking, and tumult, and heart-breaking, and loosing of knees, and pangs on all loins; and the faces of all are as the blackening of a pot.

(Nah 2:11) Where is the dwelling-place of the lions, and the pasture that belonged to the whelps? where did the lion go, that the lion's whelp should enter in there, and there was none to scare him away?

(Nah 2:12) The lion seized enough prey for his whelps, and strangled for his young lions, and filled his lair with prey, and his dwelling-place with spoil.

(Nah 2:13) Behold, I am against thee, saith YHVH Almighty, and I will burn up thy multitude in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy lions; and I will utterly destroy thy prey from off the land, and thy deeds shall no more at all be heard of.

(Nah 3:1) O city of blood, wholly false, full of unrighteousness; the prey shall not be handled.

(Nah 3:2) The noise of whips, and the noise of the rumbling of wheels, and of the pursuing horse, and of the bounding chariot,

(Nah 3:3) and of the mounting rider, and of the glittering sword, and of the gleaming arms, and of a multitude of slain, and of heavy falling: and there was no end to her nations, but they shall be weak in their bodies

(Nah 3:4) because of the abundance of fornication: she is a fair harlot, and well-favoured, skilled in sorcery, that sells the nations by her fornication, and peoples by her sorceries.

(Nah 3:5) Behold, I am against thee, saith YHVH Elohim Almighty, and I will uncover thy skirts in thy presence, and I will shew the nations thy shame, and the kingdoms thy disgrace.

(Nah 3:6) And I will cast abominable filth upon thee according to thine unclean ways, and will make thee a public example.

(Nah 3:7) And it shall be that every one that sees thee shall go down from thee, and shall say, Wretched Nineve! who shall lament for her? whence shall I seek comfort for her?

(Nah 3:8) Prepare thee a portion, tune the chord, prepare a portion for Ammon: she that dwells among the rivers, water is round about her, whose dominion is the sea, and whose walls are water.

(Nah 3:9) And Ethiopia is her strength, and Egypt; and there was no limit of the flight of her enemies; and the Libyans became her helpers.

(Nah 3:10) Yet she shall go as a prisoner into captivity, and they shall dash her infants against the ground at the top of all her ways: and they shall cast lots upon all her glorious possessions, and all her nobles shall be bound in chains.

(Nah 3:11) And thou shalt be drunken, and shalt be overlooked; and thou shalt seek for thyself strength because of thine enemies.

(Nah 3:12) All thy strong-holds are as fig-trees having watchers: if they be shaken, they shall fall into the mouth of the eater.

(Nah 3:13) Behold, thy people within thee are as women: the gates of thy land shall surely be opened to thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

(Nah 3:14) Draw thee water for a siege, and well secure thy strong-holds: enter into the clay, and be thou trodden in the chaff, make the fortifications stronger than brick.

(Nah 3:15) There the fire shall devour thee; the sword shall utterly destroy thee, it shall devour thee as the locust, and thou shalt be pressed down as a palmerworm.

(Nah 3:16) Thou hast multiplied thy merchandise beyond the stars of heaven: the palmerworm has attacked it, and has flown away.

(Nah 3:17) Thy mixed multitude has suddenly departed as the grasshopper, as the locust perched on a hedge in a frosty day; the sun arises, and it flies off, and knows not its place: woe to them!

(Nah 3:18) Thy shepherds have slumbered, the Assyrian king has laid low thy mighty men: thy people departed to the mountains, and there was none to receive them.

(Nah 3:19) There is no healing for thy bruise; thy wound has rankled: all that hear the report of thee shall clap their hands against thee; for upon whom has not thy wickedness passed continually?

Habakkuk/Ambacum.

(Hab 1:1) The burden which the prophet Ambacum saw.

(Hab 1:2) How long, O YHVH, shall I cry out, and thou wilt not hearken? how long shall I cry out to thee being injured, and thou wilt not save?

(Hab 1:3) Wherefore hast thou shown me troubles and griefs to look upon, misery and ungodliness? judgment is before me, and the judge receives a reward.

(Hab 1:4) Therefore the law is frustrated, and judgment proceeds not effectually, for the ungodly man prevails over the just; therefore perverse judgment will proceed.

(Hab 1:5) Behold, ye despisers, and look, and wonder marvelously, and vanish: for I work a work in your days, which ye will in no wise believe, though a man declare it to you.

(Hab 1:6) Wherefore, behold, I stir up the Chaldeans, the bitter and hasty nation, that walks upon the breadth of the earth, to inherit tabernacles not his own.

(Hab 1:7) He is terrible and famous; his judgment shall proceed of himself, and his dignity shall come out of himself.

(Hab 1:8) And his horses shall bound more swiftly than leopards, and they are fiercer than the wolves of Arabia: and his horsemen shall ride forth, and shall rush from far; and they shall fly as an eagle hasting to eat.

(Hab 1:9) Destruction shall come upon ungodly men, resisting with their adverse front, and he shall gather the captivity as the sand.

(Hab 1:10) And he shall be at his ease with kings, and princes are his toys, and he shall mock at every strong-hold, and shall cast a mound, and take possession of it.

(Hab 1:11) Then shall he change his spirit, and he shall pass through, and make an atonement, saying, This strength belongs to my god.

(Hab 1:12) Art not thou from the beginning, O YHVH Elohim, my Holy One? and surely we shall not die. O YHVH, thou hast established it for judgment, and he has formed me to chasten with his correction.

(Hab 1:13) His eye is too pure to behold evil doings, and to look upon grievous afflictions: wherefore dost thou look upon despisers? wilt thou be silent when the ungodly swallows up the just?

(Hab 1:14) And wilt thou make men as the fishes of the sea, and as the reptiles which have no guide?

(Hab 1:15) He has brought up destruction with a hook, and drawn one with a casting net, and caught another in his drags: therefore shall his heart rejoice and be glad.

(Hab 1:16) Therefore will he sacrifice to his drag, and burn incense to his casting-net, because by them he has made his portion fat, and his meats choice.

(Hab 1:17) Therefore will he cast his net, and will not spare to slay the nations continually.

(Hab 2:1) I will stand upon my watch, and mount upon the rock, and watch to see what he will say by me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

(Hab 2:2) And YHVH answered me and said, Write the vision, and that plainly on a tablet, that he that reads it may run.

(Hab 2:3) For the vision is yet for a time, and it shall shoot forth at the end, and not in vain: though he should tarry, wait for him; for he will surely come, and will not tarry.

(Hab 2:4) If he should draw back, my soul has no pleasure in him: but the just shall live by my faith.⁵ But the arrogant man and the scorner, the boastful man, shall not finish anything; who has enlarged his desire as the grave, and like death he is never satisfied, and he will gather to himself all the nations, and will receive to himself all the peoples.

(Hab 2:6) Shall not all these take up a parable against him? and a proverb to tell against him? and they shall say, Woe to him that multiplies to himself the possessions which are not his! how long? and who heavily loads his yoke.

(Hab 2:7) For suddenly there shall arise up those that bite him, and they that plot against thee shall awake, and thou shalt be a plunder to them.

(Hab 2:8) Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the nations that are left shall spoil thee, because of the blood of men, and the sins of the land and city, and of all that dwell in it.

(Hab 2:9) Woe to him that covets an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evils.

(Hab 2:10) Thou hast devised shame to thy house, thou hast utterly destroyed many nations, and thy soul has sinned.

(Hab 2:11) For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beetle out of the timber shall speak.

(Hab 2:12) Woe to him that builds a city with blood, and establishes a city by unrighteousness.

(Hab 2:13) Are not these things of YHVH Almighty? surely many people have been exhausted in the fire, and many nations have fainted.

(Hab 2:14) For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of YHVH; it shall cover them as water.

(Hab 2:15) Woe to him that gives his neighbour to drink the thick lees of wine, and intoxicates him, that he may look upon their secret parts.

(Hab 2:16) Drink thou also thy fill of disgrace instead of glory: shake, O heart, and quake, the cup of the right hand of YHVH has come round upon thee, and dishonour has gathered upon thy glory.

(Hab 2:17) For the ungodliness of Libanus shall cover thee, and distress because of wild beasts shall dismay thee, because of the blood of men, and the sins of the land and city, and of all that dwell in it.

(Hab 2:18) What profit it the graven image, that they have graven it? one has made it a molten work, a false image; for the maker has trusted in his work, to make dumb idols.

(Hab 2:19) Woe to him that says to the wood, Awake, arise; and to the stone, Be thou exalted! whereas it is an image, and this is a casting of gold and silver, and there is no breath in it.

(Hab 2:20) But YHVH is in his holy temple: let all the earth fear before him.

(Hab 3:1) A prayer of the prophet Ambacum, with a song.

(Hab 3:2) O YHVH, I have heard thy report, and was afraid: I considered thy works, and was amazed: thou shalt be known between the two living creatures, thou shalt be acknowledged when the years draw nigh; thou shalt be manifested when the time is come; when my soul is troubled, thou wilt in wrath remember mercy.

(Hab 3:3) Elohim shall come from Theman, and the Holy One from the dark shady mount Pharan. Pause.

(Hab 3:4) His excellence covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. And his brightness shall be as light; there were horns in his hands, and he caused a mighty love of his strength.

(Hab 3:5) Before his face shall go a report, and it shall go forth into the plains, (Hab 3:6) the earth stood at his feet and trembled: he beheld, and the nations melted away: the mountains were violently burst through, the everlasting hills melted at his everlasting going forth.

(Hab 3:7) Because of troubles I looked upon the tents of the Ethiopians: the tabernacles also of the land of Madian shall be dismayed.

(Hab 3:8) Wast thou angry, O YHVH, with the rivers? or was thy wrath against the rivers, or thine anger against the sea? for thou wilt mount on thine horses, and thy chariots are salvation.

(Hab 3:9) Surely thou didst bend their bow at scepters, saith YHVH. Pause. The land of rivers shall be torn asunder.

(Hab 3:10) The nations shall see thee and be in pain, as thou dost divide the moving waters: the deep uttered her voice, and raised her form on high.

(Hab 3:11) The sun was exalted, and the moon stood still in her course: thy darts shall go forth at the light, at the brightness of the gleaming of thine arms.

(Hab 3:12) Thou wilt bring low the land with threatening, and in wrath thou wilt break down the nations.

(Hab 3:13) Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, to save thine anointed: thou shalt bring death on the heads of transgressors; thou has brought bands upon their neck. Pause.

(Hab 3:14) Thou didst cut asunder the heads of princes with amazement, they shall tremble in it; they shall burst their bridles, they shall be as a poor man devouring in secret.

(Hab 3:15) And thou dost cause thine horses to enter the sea, disturbing much water.

(Hab 3:16) I watched, and my belly trembled at the sound of the prayer of my lips, and trembling entered into my bones, and my frame was troubled within me; I will rest in the day of affliction, from going up to the people of my sojourning.

(Hab 3:17) For though the fig-tree shall bear no fruit, and there shall be no produce on the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall produce no food: the sheep have failed from the pasture, and there are no oxen at the cribs;

(Hab 3:18) yet I will exult in YHVH, I will joy in Elohim my Saviour.

(Hab 3:19) YHVH Elohim is my strength, and he will perfectly strengthen my feet; he mounts me upon high places, that I may conquer by his song.

ZephaniYAH/Sophonias.

(Zep 1:1) The word of YHVH which came to Sophonias the son of Chusi, the son of Elohimolias, the son of Amorias, the son of Ezekias, in the days of Josias son of Amon, king of Juda.

(Zep 1:2) Let there be an utter cutting off from the face of the land, saith YHVH.

(Zep 1:3) Let man and cattle be cut off; let the birds of the air and the fishes of the sea be cut off; and the ungodly shall fail, and I will take away the transgressors from the face of the land, saith YHVH.

(Zep 1:4) And I will stretch out mine hand upon Juda, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will remove the names of Baal out of this place, and the names of the priests;

(Zep 1:5) and them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship and swear by YHVH, and them that swear by their king;

(Zep 1:6) and them that turn aside from YHVH, and them that seek not YHVH, and them that cleave not to YHVH.

(Zep 1:7) Fear ye before YHVH Elohim; for the day of YHVH is near; for YHVH has prepared his sacrifice, and has sanctified his guests.

(Zep 1:8) And it shall come to pass in the day of YHVH's sacrifice, that I will take vengeance on the princes, and on the king's house, and upon all that wear strange apparel.

(Zep 1:9) And I will openly take vengeance on the porches in that day, on the men that fill the house of YHVH their Elohim with ungodliness and deceit.

(Zep 1:10) And there shall be in that day, saith YHVH, the sound of a cry from the gate of men slaying, and a howling from the second gate, and a great crashing from the hills.

(Zep 1:11) Lament, ye that inhabit the city that has been broken down, for all the people has become like Chanaan; and all that were exalted by silver have been utterly destroyed.

(Zep 1:12) And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will search Jerusalem with a candle, and will take vengeance on the men that despise the things committed to them; but they say in their hearts, YHVH will not do any good, neither will he do any evil.

(Zep 1:13) And their power shall be for a spoil, and their houses for utter desolation; and they shall build houses, but shall not dwell in them; and they shall plant vineyards, but shall not drink the wine of them.

(Zep 1:14) For the great day of YHVH is near, it is near, and very speedy; the sound of the day of YHVH is made bitter and harsh.

(Zep 1:15) A mighty day of wrath is that day, a day of affliction and distress, a day of desolation and destruction, a day of gloominess and darkness, a day of cloud and vapour, (Zep 1:16) a day of the trumpet and cry against the strong cities, and against the high towers.

(Zep 1:17) And I will greatly afflict the men, and they shall walk as blind men, because they have sinned against YHVH; therefore he shall pour out their blood as dust, and their flesh as dung.

(Zep 1:18) And their silver and their gold shall in nowise be able to rescue them in the day of YHVH's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will bring a speedy destruction on all them that inhabit the land.

(Zep 2:1) Be ye gathered and closely joined together, O unchastened nation;

(Zep 2:2) before ye become as the flower that passes away, before the anger of YHVH come upon you, before the day of the wrath of YHVH come upon you.

(Zep 2:3) Seek ye YHVH, all ye meek of the earth; do judgment, and seek justice, and answer accordingly; that ye may be hid in the day of the wrath of YHVH.

(Zep 2:4) For Gaza shall be utterly spoiled, and Ascalon shall be destroyed; and Azotus shall be cast forth at noon-day, and Accaron shall be rooted up.

(Zep 2:5) Woe to them that dwell on the border of the sea, neighbours of the Cretans! the word of YHVH is against you, O Chanaan, land of the Philistines, and I will destroy you out of your dwelling-place.

(Zep 2:6) And Crete shall be a pasture of flocks, and a fold of sheep.

(Zep 2:7) And the sea coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Juda; they shall pasture upon them in the houses of Ascalon; they shall rest in the evening because of the children of Juda; for YHVH their Elohim has visited them, and he will turn away their captivity.

(Zep 2:8) I have heard the revilings of Moab, and the insults of the children of Ammon, wherewith they have reviled my people, and magnified themselves against my coasts.

(Zep 2:9) Therefore, as I live, saith YHVH of hosts, the Elohim of Israel, Moab shall be as Sodoma, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrha; and Damascus shall be left as a heap of the threshing-floor, and desolate for ever: and the remnant of my people shall plunder them, and the remnant of my nations shall inherit them.

(Zep 2:10) This is their punishment in return for their haughtiness, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against YHVH Almighty.

(Zep 2:11) YHVH shall appear against them, and shall utterly destroy all the gods of the nations of the earth; and they shall worship him every one from his place, even all the islands of the nations.

(Zep 2:12) Ye Ethiopians also are the slain of my sword.

(Zep 2:13) And he shall stretch forth his hand against the north and destroy the Assyrian, and make Nineve a dry wilderness, even as a desert.

(Zep 2:14) And flocks, and all the wild beasts of the land, and chameleons shall feed in the midst thereof: and hedgehogs shall lodge in the ceilings thereof; and wild beasts shall cry in the breaches thereof, and ravens in her porches, whereas her loftiness was as as cedar.

(Zep 3:1) This is the scornful city that dwells securely, that says in her heart, I am, and there is no longer any to be after me: how is she become desolate, a habitation of wild beasts! every one that passes through her shall hiss, and shake his hands. Alas the glorious and ransomed city.

(Zep 3:2) The dove hearkened not to the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in YHVH, and she drew not near to her Elohim.

(Zep 3:3) Her princes within her were as roaring lions, her judges as the wolves of Arabia; they remained not till the morrow.

(Zep 3:4) Her prophets are light and scornful men: her priests profane the holy things, and sinfully transgress the law.

(Zep 3:5) But the just Lord is in the midst of her, and he will never do an unjust thing: morning by morning he will bring out his judgment to the light, and it is not hidden, and he knows not injustice by extortion, nor injustice in strife.

(Zep 3:6) I have brought down the proud with destruction; their corners are destroyed: I will make their ways completely waste, so that none shall go through: their cities are come to an end, by reason of no man living or dwelling in them.

(Zep 3:7) I said, But do ye fear me, and receive instruction, and ye shall not be cut off from the face of the land for all the vengeance I have brought upon her: prepare thou, rise early: all their produce is spoilt.

(Zep 3:8) Therefore wait upon me, saith YHVH, until the day when I rise up for a witness: because my judgment shall be on the gatherings of the nations, to draw to me kings, to pour out upon them all my fierce anger: for the whole earth shall be consumed with the fire of my jealousy.

(Zep 3:9) For then will I turn to the peoples a tongue for her generation, that all may call on the name of YHVH, to serve him under one yoke.

(Zep 3:10) From the boundaries of the rivers of Ethiopia will I receive my dispersed ones; they shall offer sacrifices to me.

(Zep 3:11) In that day thou shalt not be ashamed of all thy practices, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then will I take away from thee thy disdainful pride, and thou shalt no more magnify thyself upon my holy mountain.

(Zep 3:12) And I will leave in thee a meek and lowly people;

(Zep 3:13) and the remnant of Israel shall fear the name of YHVH, and shall do no iniquity, neither shall they speak vanity; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed, and lie down, and there shall be none to terrify them.

(Zep 3:14) Rejoice, O daughter of Sion; cry aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem; rejoice and delight thyself with all thine heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

(Zep 3:15) YHVH has taken away thine iniquities, he has ransomed thee from the hand of thine enemies: YHVH, the King of Israel, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

(Zep 3:16) At that time YHVH shall say to Jerusalem, Be of good courage, Sion; let not thine hands be slack.

(Zep 3:17) YHVH thy Elohim is in thee; the Mighty One shall save thee: he shall bring joy upon thee, and shall refresh thee with his love; and he shall rejoice over thee with delight as in a day of feasting.

(Zep 3:18) And I will gather thine afflicted ones. Alas! who has taken up a reproach against her?

(Zep 3:19) Behold, I will work in thee for thy sake at that time, saith YHVH: and I will save her that was oppressed, and receive her that was rejected; and

I will make them a praise, and honoured in all the earth.

(Zep 3:20) And their enemies shall be ashamed at that time, when I shall deal well with you, and at the time when I shall receive you: for I will make you honoured and a praise among all the nations of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before you, saith YHVH.

Haggai/Aggaeus.

(Hag 1:1) In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of YHVH came by the hand of the prophet Aggaeus, saying, Speak to Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, of the tribe of Juda, and to Jesus the son of Josedec, the high priest, saying, (Hag 1:2) Thus saith YHVH Almighty, saying, This people say, The time is not come to build the house of YHVH.

(Hag 1:3) And the word of YHVH came by the hand of the prophet Aggaeus, saying, (Hag 1:4) Is it time for you to dwell in your ceiled houses, whereas our house is desolate?

(Hag 1:5) And now thus saith YHVH Almighty; Consider your ways, I pray you.

(Hag 1:6) Ye have sown much, but brought in little; ye have eaten, and are not satisfied; ye have drunk, and are not satisfied with drink, ye have clothed yourselves, and have not become warm thereby: and he that earns wages has gathered them into a bag full of holes.

(Hag 1:7) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; Consider your ways.

(Hag 1:8) Go up to the mountain, and cut timber; build the house, and I will take pleasure in it, and be glorified, saith YHVH.

(Hag 1:9) Ye looked for much, and there came little; and it was brought into the house, and I blew it away. Therefore thus saith YHVH Almighty, Because my house is desolate, and ye run everyone into his own house;

(Hag 1:10) therefore shall the sky withhold dew, and the earth shall keep back her produce.

(Hag 1:11) And I will bring a sword upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the wine, and upon the oil, and all that the earth produces, and upon the men, and upon the cattle, and upon all the labours of their hands.

(Hag 1:12) And Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, of the tribe of Juda, and Jesus the son of Josedec, the high priest, and all the remnant of the people, hearkened to the voice of YHVH their Elohim, and the words of the prophet Aggaeus, according as YHVH their Elohim had sent him to them, and the people feared before YHVH.

(Hag 1:13) And Aggaeus YHVH's messenger spoke among the messengers of YHVH to the people, saying, I am with you, saith YHVH.

(Hag 1:14) And YHVH stirred up the spirit of Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, of the tribe of Juda, and the spirit of Jesus the son of Josedec, the high priest, and the spirit of the remnant of all the people; and they went in, and wrought in the house of YHVH Almighty their Elohim, (Hag 1:15) on the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

(Hag 2:2) In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, YHVH spoke by Aggaeus the prophet, saying,

(Hag 2:3) Speak now to Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, of the tribe of Juda, and to Jesus the son of Josedec, the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, saying,

(Hag 2:4) Who is there of you that saw this house in her former glory? and how do ye now look upon it, as it were nothing before your eyes?

(Hag 2:5) Yet now be strong, O Zorobabel, saith YHVH; and strengthen thyself, O Jesus the high priest, the son of Josedec; and let all the people of the land strengthen themselves, saith YHVH, and work, for I am with you, saith YHVH Almighty;

(Hag 2:6) and my Spirit remains in the midst of you; be of good courage.

(Hag 2:7) For thus saith YHVH Almighty; Yet once I will shake the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

(Hag 2:8) and I will shake all nations, and the choice portions of all the nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Hag 2:9) Mine is the silver, and mine the gold, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Hag 2:10) For the glory of this house shall be great, the latter more than the former, saith YHVH Almighty: and in this place will I give peace, saith YHVH Almighty, even peace of soul for a possession to every one that builds, to raise up this temple.

(Hag 2:11) On the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of YHVH came to Aggaeus the prophet, saying,

(Hag 2:12) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; Inquire now of the priest concerning the law, saying,

(Hag 2:13) If a man should take holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and the skirt of his garment should touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

(Hag 2:14) And Aggaeus said, If a defiled person who is unclean by reason of a dead body, touch any of these, shall it be defiled? And the priests answered and said, It shall be defiled.

(Hag 2:15) And Aggaeus answered and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith YHVH; and so are all the works of their hands: and whosoever shall approach them, shall be defiled [because of their early burdens: they shall be pained because of their toils; and ye have hated him that reproved in the gates].

(Hag 2:16) And now consider, I pray you, from this day and beforetime, before they laid a stone on a stone in the temple of YHVH, what manner of men ye were.

(Hag 2:17) When ye cast into the corn-bin twenty measures of barley, and there were only ten measures of barley: and ye went to the vat to draw out fifty measures, and there were but twenty.

(Hag 2:18) I smote you with barrenness, and with blasting, and all the works of your hands with hail; yet ye returned not to me, saith YHVH.

(Hag 2:19) Set your hearts now to think from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day when the foundation of the temple of YHVH was laid;

(Hag 2:20) consider in your hearts, whether this shall be known on the corn-floor, and whether yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-trees that bear no fruit are with you: from this day will I bless you.

(Hag 2:21) And the word of YHVH came the second time to Aggaeus the prophet, on the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

(Hag 2:22) Speak to Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, of the tribe of Juda, saying, I shake the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

(Hag 2:23) and I will overthrow the thrones of kings, and I will destroy the power of the kings of the nations; and I will overthrow chariots and riders; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword striving against his brother.

(Hag 2:24) In that day, saith YHVH Almighty, I will take thee, O Zorobabel, the son of Salathiel, my servant, saith YHVH, and will make thee as a seal: for I have chosen thee, saith YHVH Almighty.

ZechariYAH/Zacharias.

(Zec 1:1) In the eighth month, in the second year of the reign of Darius, the word of YHVH came to Zacharias, the son of Barachias, the son of Addo, the prophet, saying, (Zec 1:2) YHVH has been very angry with your fathers.

(Zec 1:3) And thou shalt say to them, Thus saith YHVH Almighty: Turn to me, saith YHVH of hosts, and I will turn to you, saith YHVH of hosts.

(Zec 1:4) And be ye not as your fathers, whom the prophets before charged, saying, Thus saith YHVH Almighty: Turn ye from your evil ways, and from your evil practices: but they hearkened not, and attended not to hearken to me, saith YHVH.

(Zec 1:5) Where are your fathers, and the prophets? Will they live for ever?

(Zec 1:6) But do ye receive my words and mine ordinances, all that I command by my Spirit to my servants the prophets, who lived in the days of your fathers; and they answered and said, As YHVH Almighty determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so has he done to us.

(Zec 1:7) On the twenty-fourth day in the eleventh month, this is the month Sabat, in the second year of the reign of Darius, the word of YHVH came to Zacharias, the son of Barachias, the son of Addo, the prophet, saying, (Zec 1:8) I saw by night, and behold a man mounted on a red horse, and he stood between the shady mountains; and behind him were red horses, and grey, and piebald, and white.

(Zec 1:9) And I said, What are these, my lord? And the angel spoke with me said to me, I will shew thee what these things are.

(Zec 1:10) And the man that stood between the mountains answered, and said to me, These are they whom YHVH has sent forth to go round the earth.

(Zec 1:11) And they answered the angel of YHVH that stood between the mountains, and said, We have gone round all the earth, and, behold, all the earth is inhabited, and is at rest.

(Zec 1:12) Then the angel of YHVH answered and said, O YHVH Almighty, how long wilt thou have no mercy on Jerusalem, and the cities of Juda, which thou has disregarded these seventy years?

(Zec 1:13) And YHVH Almighty answered the angel that spoke with me good words and consolatory sayings.

(Zec 1:14) And the angel that spoke with me said to me, Cry out and say, Thus saith YHVH Almighty; I have been jealous for Jerusalem and Sion with great jealousy.

(Zec 1:15) And I am very angry with the heathen that combine to attack her: forasmuch as I indeed was a little angry, but they combined to attack her for evil.

(Zec 1:16) Therefore thus saith YHVH: I will return to Jerusalem with compassion; and my house shall be rebuilt in her, saith YHVH Almighty, and a measuring line shall yet be stretched out over Jerusalem.

(Zec 1:17) And the angel that spoke with me said to me, Cry yet, and say, Thus saith YHVH Almighty; Yet shall cities be spread abroad through prosperity; and YHVH shall yet have mercy upon Sion, and shall choose Jerusalem.

(Zec 1:18) And I lifted up mine eyes and looked, and behold four horns.

(Zec 1:19) And I said to the angel that spoke with me, What are these things, my lord? And he said to me, These are the horns that have scattered Juda, and Israel, and Jerusalem.

(Zec 1:20) And YHVH shewed me four artificers.

(Zec 1:21) And I said, What are these coming to do? And he said, These are the horns that scattered Juda, and they broke Israel in pieces, and none of them lifted up his head: and these are come forth to sharpen them for their hands, even the four horns, the nations that lifted up the horn against the land of YHVH to scatter it.

(Zec 2:1) And I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a man, and in his hand a measuring line.

(Zec 2:2) And I said to him, Whither goest thou? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth of it, and what is the length of it.

(Zec 2:3) And, behold, the angel that spoke with me stood by, and another angel went forth to meet him, (Zec 2:4) and spoke to him, saying, Run and speak to that young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be fully inhabited by reason of the abundance of men and cattle in the midst of her.

(Zec 2:5) And I will be to her, saith YHVH, a wall of fire round about, and I will be for a glory in the midst of her.

(Zec 2:6) Ho, ho, flee from the land of the north, saith YHVH: for I will gather you from the four winds of heaven, saith YHVH, (Zec 2:7) even to Sion: deliver yourselves, ye that dwell with the daughter of Babylon.

(Zec 2:8) For thus saith YHVH Almighty; After the glory has he sent me to the nations that spoiled you: for he that touches you is as one that touches the apple of his eye.

(Zec 2:9) For, behold, I bring my hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to them that serve them: and ye shall know that YHVH Almighty has sent me.

(Zec 2:10) Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Sion: for, behold, I come, and will dwell in the midst of thee, saith YHVH.

(Zec 2:11) And many nations shall flee for refuge to YHVH in that day, and they shall be for a people to him, and they shall dwell in the midst of thee: and thou shalt know that YHVH Almighty has sent me to thee.

(Zec 2:12) And YHVH shall inherit Juda his portion in the holy land, and he will yet choose Jerusalem.

(Zec 2:13) Let all flesh fear before YHVH: for he has risen up from his holy clouds.

(Zec 3:1) And YHVH shewed me Jesus the high priest standing before the angel of YHVH, and the Devil stood on his right hand to resist him.

(Zec 3:2) And YHVH said to the Devil,

(Zec 3:3) YHVH rebuke thee, O Devil, even YHVH that has chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: behold! is not this as a brand plucked from the fire?

(Zec 3:4) Now Jesus was clothed in filthy raiment, and stood before the angel.

(Zec 3:5) And YHVH answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy raiment from him: and he said to him, Behold, I have taken away thine iniquities: and clothe ye him with a long robe, (Zec 3:6) and place a pure mitre upon his head. So they placed a pure mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments: and the angel of YHVH stood by.

(Zec 3:7) And the angel of YHVH testified to Jesus, saying,

(Zec 3:8) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and take heed to my charges, then shalt thou judge my house: and if thou wilt diligently keep my court, then will I give thee men to walk in the midst of these that stand here.

(Zec 3:9) Hear now, Jesus the high priest, thou, and thy neighbours that are sitting before thee: for they are diviners, for, behold, I bring forth my servant The Branch.

(Zec 3:10) For as for the stone which I have set before the face of Jesus, on the one stone are seven eyes: behold, I am digging a trench, saith YHVH Almighty, and I will search out all the iniquity of that land in one day.

(Zec 3:11) In that day, saith YHVH Almighty, ye shall call together every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig-tree.

(Zec 4:1) And the angel that talked with me returned, and awakened me, as when a man is awakened out of his sleep.

(Zec 4:2) And he said to me, What seest thou? And I said, I have seen, and behold a candlestick all of gold, and its bowl upon it, and seven lamps upon it, and seven oil funnels to the lamps upon it:

(Zec 4:3) and two olive-trees above it, one on the right of the bowl, and one on the left.

(Zec 4:4) And I inquired, and spoke to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these things, my lord?

(Zec 4:5) And the angel that talked with me answered, and spoke to me, saying, Knowest thou not what these things are? And I said, No, my lord.

(Zec 4:6) And he answered and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of YHVH to Zorobabel, saying, Not by mighty power, nor by strength, but by my Spirit, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Zec 4:7) Who art thou, the great mountain before Zorobabel, that thou shouldest prosper? whereas I will bring out the stone of the inheritance, the grace of it the equal of my grace.

(Zec 4:8) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Zec 4:9) The hands of Zorobabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands shall finish it: and thou shalt know that YHVH Almighty has sent me to thee.

(Zec 4:10) For who has despised the small days? surely they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet of tin in the hand of Zorobabel: these are the seven eyes that look upon all the earth.

(Zec 4:11) And I answered, and said to him, What are these two olive-trees, which are on the right and left hand of the candlestick?

(Zec 4:12) And I asked the second time, and said to him, What are the two branches of the olive-trees that are by the side of the two golden pipes that pour into and communicate with the golden oil funnels?

(Zec 4:13) And he said to me, Knowest thou not what these are? and I said, No, my lord.

(Zec 4:14) And he said, These are the two anointed ones that stand by YHVH of the whole earth.

(Zec 5:1) And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked and behold a flying sickle.

(Zec 5:2) And he said to me, What seest thou? And I said, I see a flying sickle, of the length of twenty cubits, and of the breadth of ten cubits.

(Zec 5:3) And he said to me, This is the curse that goes forth over the face of the whole earth: for every thief shall be punished with death on this side, and every false swearer shall be punished on that side.

(Zec 5:4) And I will bring it forth, saith YHVH Almighty, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that swears falsely by my name: and it shall rest in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, and the timber of it, and the stones of it.

(Zec 5:5) And the angel that talked with me went forth, and said to me, Lift up thine eyes, and see this that goes forth.

(Zec 5:6) And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the measure that goes forth. And he said, This is their iniquity in all the earth.

(Zec 5:7) And behold a talent of lead lifted up: and behold a woman sat in the midst of the measure.

(Zec 5:8) And he said, This is iniquity. And he cast it into the midst of the measure, and cast the weight of lead on the mouth of it.

(Zec 5:9) And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, two women coming forth, and the wind was in their wings; and they had stork's wings: and they lifted up the measure between the earth and the sky.

(Zec 5:10) And I said to the angel that spoke with me, Whither do these carry away the measure?

(Zec 5:11) And he said to me, To build it a house in the land of Babylon, and to prepare a place for it; and they shall set it there on its own base.

(Zec 6:1) And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, four chariots coming out from between two mountains; and the mountains were brazen mountains.

(Zec 6:2) In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

(Zec 6:3) and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot piebald and ash-coloured horses.

(Zec 6:4) And I answered and said to the angel that talked with me, What are these, my Lord?

(Zec 6:5) And the angel that talked with me answered and said, These are the four winds of heaven, and they are going forth to stand before YHVH of all the earth.

(Zec 6:6) As for the chariot in which were the black horses, they went out to the land of the north; and the white went out after them; and the piebald went out to the land of the south.

(Zec 6:7) And the ash-coloured went out, and looked to go and compass the earth: and he said, Go, and compass the earth. And they compassed the earth.

(Zec 6:8) And he cried out and spoke to me, saying, Behold, these go out to the land of the north, and they have quieted mine anger in the land of the north.

(Zec 6:9) And the word of YHVH came to me, saying,

(Zec 6:10) Take the things of the captivity from the chief men, and from the useful men of it, and from them that have understood it; and thou shalt enter in that day into the house of Josias the son of Sophonias that came out of Babylon.

(Zec 6:11) And thou shalt take silver and gold, and make crowns, and thou shalt put them upon the head of Jesus the son of Josedec the high priest;

(Zec 6:12) and thou shalt say to him, Thus saith YHVH Almighty; Behold the man whose name is The Branch; and he shall spring up from his stem, and build the house of YHVH.

(Zec 6:13) And he shall receive power, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and there shall be a priest on his right hand, and a peaceable counsel shall be between them both.

(Zec 6:14) And the crown shall be to them that wait patiently, and to the useful men of the captivity, and to them that have known it, and for the favour of the son of Sophonias, and for a psalm in the house of YHVH.

(Zec 6:15) And they that are far from them shall come and build in the house of YHVH, and ye shall know that YHVH Almighty has sent me to you: and this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently hearken to the voice of YHVH your Elohim.

(Zec 7:1) And it came to pass in the fourth year of Darius the king, that the word of YHVH came to Zacharias on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Cheseleu.

(Zec 7:2) And Sarasar and Arbeseer the king and his men sent to Bethel, and that to propitiate YHVH, (Zec 7:3) speaking to the priests that were in the house of YHVH Almighty, and to the prophets, saying, The holy offering has come in hither in the fifth month, as it has done already many years.

(Zec 7:4) And the word of YHVH of hosts came to me, saying,

(Zec 7:5) Speak to the whole people of the land, and to the priests, saying, Though ye fasted or lamented in the fifth or seventh months (yea, behold, these seventy years) have ye at all fasted to me?

(Zec 7:6) And if ye eat or drink, do ye not eat and drink for yourselves?

(Zec 7:7) Are not these the words which YHVH spoke by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and her cities round about her, and the hill country and the low country was inhabited?

(Zec 7:8) And the word of YHVH came to Zacharias, saying,

(Zec 7:9) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; Judge righteous judgment, and deal mercifully and compassionately every one with his brother:

(Zec 7:10) and oppress not the widow, or the fatherless, or the stranger, or the poor; and let not one of you remember in his heart the injury of his brother.

(Zec 7:11) But they refused to attend, and madly turned their back, and made their ears heavy, so that they should not hear.

(Zec 7:12) And they made their heart disobedient, so as not to hearken to my law, and the words which YHVH Almighty sent forth by his Spirit by the former prophets: so there was great wrath from YHVH Almighty.

(Zec 7:13) And it shall come to pass, that as he spoke, and they hearkened not, so they shall cry, and I will not hearken, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Zec 7:14) And I will cast them out among all the nations, whom they know not; and the land behind them shall be made utterly destitute of any going through or returning: yea they have made the choice land a desolation.

(Zec 8:1) And the word of YHVH Almighty came, saying,

(Zec 8:2) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Sion with great jealousy, and I have been jealous for her with great fury.

(Zec 8:3) Thus saith YHVH; I will return to Sion, and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a true city, and the mountain of YHVH Almighty a holy mountain.

(Zec 8:4) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; There shall yet dwell old men and old women in the streets of Jerusalem, every one holding his staff in his hand for age.

(Zec 8:5) And the broad places of the city shall be filled with boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

(Zec 8:6) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; If it shall be impossible in the sight of the remnant of this people in those days, shall it also be impossible in my sight? saith YHVH Almighty.

(Zec 8:7) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and the west country;

(Zec 8:8) and I will bring them in, and cause them to dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be to me a people, and I will be to them a Elohim, in truth and in righteousness.

(Zec 8:9) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words out of the mouth of the prophets, from the day that the house of YHVH Almighty was founded, and from the time that the temple was built.

(Zec 8:10) For before those days the wages of men could not be profitable, and there could be no hire of cattle, and there could be no peace by reason of the affliction to him that went out or to him that came in: for I would have let loose all men, every one against his neighbour.

(Zec 8:11) But now I will not do to the remnant of this people according to the former days, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Zec 8:12) But I will shew peace: the vine shall yield her fruit, and the land shall yield her produce, and the heaven shall give its dew: and I will give as an inheritance all these things to the remnant of my people.

(Zec 8:13) And it shall come to pass, as ye were a curse among the nations, O house of Juda, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: be of good courage, and strengthen your hands.

(Zec 8:14) For thus saith YHVH Almighty; As I took counsel to afflict you when your fathers provoked me, saith YHVH Almighty, and I repented not:

(Zec 8:16) These are the things which ye shall do; speak truth every one with his neighbour; judge truth and peaceable judgment in your gates:

(Zec 8:17) and let none of you devise evil in his heart against his neighbour; and love not a false oath: for all these things I hate, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Zec 8:18) And the word of YHVH Almighty came to me, saying,

(Zec 8:19) Thus saith YHVH Almighty, The fourth fast, and the fifth fast, and the seventh fast, and the tenth fast, shall be to the house of Juda for joy and gladness, and for good feasts; and ye shall rejoice; and love ye the truth and peace.

(Zec 8:20) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; Yet shall many peoples come, and the inhabitants of many cities;

(Zec 8:21) and the inhabitants of five cities shall come together to one city, saying, Let us go to make supplication to YHVH, and to seek the face of YHVH Almighty; I will go also.

(Zec 8:22) And many peoples and many nations shall come to seek earnestly the face of YHVH Almighty in Jerusalem, and to obtain favour of YHVH.

(Zec 8:23) Thus saith YHVH Almighty; In those days my word shall be fulfilled if ten men of all the languages of the nations should take hold—even take hold of the hem of a Jew, saying, We will go with thee; for we have heard that Elohim is with you.

(Zec 9:1) The burden of the word of YHVH, in the land of Sedrach, and his sacrifice shall be in Damascus; for YHVH looks upon men, and upon all the tribes of Israel.

(Zec 9:2) And in Emath, even in her coasts, are Tyre and Sidon, because they were very wise.

(Zec 9:3) And Tyrus built strong-holds for herself, and heaped up silver as dust, and gathered gold as the mire of the ways.

(Zec 9:4) And therefore YHVH will take them for a possession, and will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be consumed with fire.

(Zec 9:5) Ascalon shall see, and fear; Gaza also, and shall be greatly pained, and Accaron; for she is ashamed at her trespass; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ascalon shall not be inhabited.

(Zec 9:6) And aliens shall dwell in Azotus, and I will bring down the pride of the Philistines.

(Zec 9:7) And I will take their blood out of their mouth, and their abominations from between their teeth; and these also shall be left to our Elohim, and they shall be as a captain of a thousand in Juda, and Accaron as a Jebusite.

(Zec 9:8) And I will set up a defence for my house, that they may not pass through, nor turn back, neither shall there any more come upon them one to drive them away: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

(Zec 9:9) Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Sion; proclaim it aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, the King is coming to thee, just, and a Saviour; he is meek and riding on an ass, and a young foal.

(Zec 9:10) And he shall destroy the chariots out of Ephraim, and the horse out of Jerusalem, and the bow of war shall be utterly destroyed; and there shall be abundance and peace out of the nations; and he shall rule over the waters as far as the sea, and the rivers to the ends of the earth.

(Zec 9:11) And thou by the blood of thy covenant has sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit that has no water.

(Zec 9:12) Ye shall dwell in strongholds, ye prisoners of the congregation: and for one day of thy captivity I will recompense thee double.

(Zec 9:13) For I have bent thee, O Juda, for myself as a bow, I have filled Ephraim; and I will raise up thy children, O Sion, against the children of the Greeks, and I will handle thee as the sword of a warrior.

(Zec 9:14) And YHVH shall be over them, and his arrow shall go forth as lightning: and YHVH Almighty shall blow with the trumpet; and shall proceed with the tumult of his threatening.

(Zec 9:15) YHVH Almighty shall protect them, and they shall destroy them, and overwhelm them with sling-stones; and they shall swallow them down as wine, and fill the bowls as the altar.

(Zec 9:16) And YHVH their Elohim shall save them in that day, even his people as a flock; for holy stones are rolled upon his land.

(Zec 9:17) For if he has anything good, and if he has anything fair, the young men shall have corn, and there shall be fragrant wine to the virgins.

(Zec 10:1) Ask ye of YHVH rain in season, the early and the latter: YHVH has given bright signs, and will give them abundant rain, to every one grass in the field.

(Zec 10:2) For the speakers have uttered grievous things, and the diviners have seen false visions, and they have spoken false dreams, they have given vain comfort: therefore have they fallen away like sheep, and been afflicted, because there was no healing.

(Zec 10:3) Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I will visit the lambs; and YHVH Elohim Almighty shall visit his flock, the house of Juda, and he shall make them as his goodly horse in war.

(Zec 10:4) And from him he looked, and from him he set the battle in order, and from him came the bow in anger, and from him shall come forth every oppressor together.

(Zec 10:5) And they shall be as warriors treading clay in the ways in war; and they shall set the battle in array, because YHVH is with them, and the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

(Zec 10:6) And I will strengthen the house of Juda, and save the house of Joseph, and I will settle them; because I have loved them: and they shall be as if I had not cast them off: for I am YHVH their Elohim, and I will hear them.

(Zec 10:7) And they shall be as the warriors of Ephraim, and their heart shall rejoice as with wine: and their children also shall see it, and be glad; and their heart shall rejoice in YHVH.

(Zec 10:8) I will make a sign to them, and gather them in; for I will redeem them, and they shall be multiplied according to their number before.

(Zec 10:9) And I will sow them among the people; and they that are afar off shall remember me: they shall nourish their children, and they shall return.

(Zec 10:10) And I will bring them again from the land of Egypt, and I will gather them in from among the Assyrians; and I will bring them into the land of Galaad and to Libanus; and there shall not even one of them be left behind.

(Zec 10:11) And they shall pass through a narrow sea, they shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deep places of the rivers shall be dried up: and all the pride of the Assyrians shall be taken away, and the sceptre of Egypt shall be removed.

(Zec 10:12) And I will strengthen them in YHVH their Elohim; and they shall boast in his name, saith YHVH.

(Zec 11:1) Open thy doors, O Libanus, and let the fire devour thy cedars.

(Zec 11:2) Let the pine howl, because the cedar has fallen; for the mighty men have been greatly afflicted: howl, ye oaks of the land of Basan; for the thickly planted forest has been torn down.

(Zec 11:4) Thus saith YHVH Almighty, Feed the sheep of the slaughter;

(Zec 11:5) which their possessors have slain, and have not repented: and they that sold them said, Blessed be YHVH; for we have become rich: and their shepherds have suffered no sorrow for them.

(Zec 11:6) Therefore I will no longer have mercy upon the inhabitants of the land, saith YHVH: but, behold, I will deliver up the men every one into the hand of his neighbour, and into the hand of his king; and they shall destroy the land, and I will not rescue out of their hand.

(Zec 11:7) And I will tend the flock of slaughter in the land of Chanaan: and I will take for myself two rods; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Line; and I will tend the flock.

(Zec 11:8) And I will cut off three shepherds in one month; and my soul shall grieve over them, for their souls cried out against me.

(Zec 11:9) And I said, I will not tend you: that which dies, let it die; and that which falls off, let it fall off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of his neighbour.

(Zec 11:10) And I will take my beautiful staff, and cast it away, that I may break my covenant which I made with all the people.

(Zec 11:11) And it shall be broken in that day; and the Chananites, the sheep that are kept for me, shall know that it is the word of YHVH.

(Zec 11:12) And I will say to them, If it be good in your eyes, give me my price, or refuse it. And they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

(Zec 11:13) And YHVH said to me, Drop them into the furnace, and I will see if it is good metal, as I was proved for their sakes. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them into the furnace in the house of YHVH.

(Zec 11:14) And I cast away my second rod, even Line, that I might break the possession between Juda and Israel.

(Zec 11:15) And YHVH said to me, Take yet to thee shepherd's implements belonging to an unskillful shepherd.

(Zec 11:16) For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd against the land: he shall not visit that which is perishing, and he shall not seek that which is scattered, and he shall not heal that which is bruised, nor guide that which is whole: but he shall devour the flesh of the choice ones, and shall dislocate the joints of their necks.

(Zec 11:17) Alas for the vain shepherds that have forsaken the sheep! the sword shall be upon the arms of such a one, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be completely withered, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

(Zec 12:1) The burden of the word of YHVH for Israel; saith YHVH, that stretches out the sky, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him.

(Zec 12:2) Behold, I will make Jerusalem as trembling door-posts to all the nations round about, and in Judea there shall be a siege against Jerusalem.

(Zec 12:3) And it shall come to pass in that day that I will make Jerusalem a trodden stone to all the nations: every one that tramples on it shall utterly mock at it, and all the nations of the earth shall be gathered together against it.

(Zec 12:4) In that day, saith YHVH Almighty, I will smite every horse with amazement, and his rider with madness: but I will open mine eyes upon the house of Juda, and I will smite all the horses of the nations with blindness.

(Zec 12:5) And the captains of thousands of Juda shall say in their hearts, We shall find for ourselves the inhabitants of Jerusalem in YHVH Almighty their Elohim.

(Zec 12:6) In that day I will make the captains of thousands of Juda as a firebrand among wood, and as a torch of fire in stubble; and they shall devour on the right hand and on the left all the nations round about: and Jerusalem shall dwell again by herself, even in Jerusalem.

(Zec 12:7) And YHVH shall save the tabernacles of Juda as at the beginning, that the boast of the house of David, and the pride of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, may not magnify themselves against Juda.

(Zec 12:8) And it shall come to pass in that day, that YHVH shall defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and the weak one among them in that day shall be as David, and the house of David as the house of Elohim, as the angel of YHVH before them.

(Zec 12:9) And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

(Zec 12:10) And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and compassion: and they shall look upon me, because they have mocked me, and they shall make lamentation for him, as for a beloved friend, and they shall grieve intensely, as for a firstborn son.

(Zec 12:11) In that day the lamentation in Jerusalem shall be very great, as the mourning for the pomegranate grove cut down in the plain.

(Zec 12:12) And the land shall lament in separate families, the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

(Zec 12:13) the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of Symeon by itself, and their wives by themselves;

(Zec 12:14) all the families that are left, each family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

(Zec 13:1) In that day every place shall be opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for removal and for separation.

(Zec 13:2) And it shall come to pass in that day, saith YHVH of hosts, that I will utterly destroy the names of the idols from off the land, and there shall be no longer any remembrance of them: and I will cut off the false prophets and the evil spirit from the land.

(Zec 13:3) And it shall come to pass, if a man will yet prophesy, that his father and his mother which gave birth to him shall say to him, Thou shalt not live; for thou has spoken lies in the name of YHVH: and his father and his mother who gave him birth shall bind him as he is prophesying.

(Zec 13:4) And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision when he prophesies; and they shall clothe themselves with a garment of hair, because they have lied.

(Zec 13:5) And one shall say, I am not a prophet, for I am a tiller of the ground, for a man brought me up thus from my youth.

(Zec 13:6) And I will say to him, What are these wounds between thine hands? and he shall say, Those with which I was wounded in my beloved house.

(Zec 13:7) Awake, O sword, against my shepherds, and against the man who is my citizen, saith YHVH Almighty: smite the shepherds, and draw out the sheep: and I will bring mine hand upon the little ones.

(Zec 13:8) And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith YHVH, two parts thereof shall be cut off and perish; but the third shall be left therein.

(Zec 13:9) And I will bring the third part through the fire, and I will try them as silver is tried, and I will prove them as gold is proved: they shall call upon my name, and I will hear them, and say, This is my people: and they shall say, YHVH is my Elohim.

(Zec 14:1) Behold, the days of YHVH come, and thy spoils shall be divided in thee.

(Zec 14:2) And I will gather all the Gentiles to Jerusalem to war, and the city shall be taken, and the houses plundered, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, but the rest of my people shall not be utterly cut off from the city.

(Zec 14:3) And YHVH shall go forth, and fight with those Gentiles as when he fought in the day of war.

(Zec 14:4) And his feet shall stand in that day on the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave asunder, half of it toward the east and the west, a very great division; and half the mountain shall lean to the north, and half of it to the south.

(Zec 14:5) And the valley of my mountains shall be closed up, and the valley of the mountains shall be joined on to Jasod, and shall be blocked up as it was blocked up in the days of the earthquake, in the days of Ozias king of Juda; and YHVH my Elohim shall come, and all the saints with him.

(Zec 14:6) And it shall come to pass in that day that there shall be no light, (Zec 14:7) and there shall be for one day cold and frost, and that day shall be known to YHVH, and it shall not be day nor night: but towards evening it shall be light.

(Zec 14:8) And in that day living water shall come forth out of Jerusalem; half of it toward the former sea, and half of it toward the latter sea: and so shall it be in summer and spring.

(Zec 14:9) And YHVH shall be king over all the earth: in that day there shall be one Lord, and his name one,

(Zec 14:10) compassing all the earth, and the wilderness from Gabe unto Remmon south of Jerusalem. And Rama shall remain in its place. From the gate of Benjamin to the place of the first gate, to the gate of the corners, and to the tower of Anameel, as far as the king's winepresses, (Zec 14:11) they shall dwell in the city; and there shall be no more any curse, and Jerusalem shall dwell securely.

(Zec 14:12) And this shall be the overthrow with which YHVH will smite all the nations, as many as have fought against Jerusalem; their flesh shall consume away while they are standing upon their feet, and their eyes shall melt out of their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

(Zec 14:13) And there shall be in that day a great panic from YHVH upon them; and they shall lay hold every man of the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall be clasped with the hand of his neighbour.

(Zec 14:14) Juda also shall fight in Jerusalem; and Elohim shall gather the strength of all the nations round about, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

(Zec 14:15) And this shall be the overthrow of the horses, and mules, and camels, and asses, and all the beasts that are in those camps, according to this overthrow.

(Zec 14:16) And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall be left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem, shall even come up every year to worship the king, YHVH Almighty, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

(Zec 14:17) And it shall come to pass, that whosoever of all the families of the earth shall not come up to Jerusalem to worship the king, YHVH Almighty, even these shall be added to the others.

(Zec 14:18) And if the family of Egypt shall not go up, nor come; then upon them shall be the overthrow with which YHVH shall smite all the nations, whichever of them shall not come up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

(Zec 14:19) This shall be the sin of Egypt, and the sin of all the nations, whosoever shall not come up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

(Zec 14:20) In that day there shall be upon the bridle of every horse Holiness to YHVH Almighty; and the caldrons in the house of YHVH shall be as bowls before the altar.

(Zec 14:21) And every pot in Jerusalem and in Juda shall be holy to YHVH Almighty: and all that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and shall seethe meat in them: and in that day there shall be no more the Chananite in the house of YHVH Almighty.

Malachi.

(Mal 1:1) The burden of the word of YHVH to Israel by the hand of his messenger. Lay it, I pray you, to heart.

(Mal 1:2) I have loved you, saith YHVH. And ye said, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith YHVH: yet I loved Jacob, (Mal 1:3) and hated Esau and laid waste his borders, and made his heritage as dwellings of the wilderness?

(Mal 1:4) Because one will say, Idumea has been overthrown, but let us return and rebuild the desolate places; thus saith YHVH Almighty, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall be called The borders of wickedness, and, The people against whom YHVH has set himself for ever.

(Mal 1:5) And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, YHVH has been magnified upon the borders of Israel.

(Mal 1:6) A son honours his father, and a servant his master: if then I am a father, where is mine honour? and if I am a master, where is my fear? saith YHVH Almighty. Ye the priests are they that despise my name: yet ye said, Wherein have we despised thy name?

(Mal 1:7) In that ye bring to mine altar polluted bread; and ye said, Wherein have ye polluted it? In that ye say, The table of YHVH is polluted, and that which was set thereon ye have despised.

(Mal 1:8) For if ye bring a blind victim for sacrifices, is it not evil? and if ye bring the lame or the sick, is it not evil? offer it now to thy ruler, and see if he will receive thee, if he will accept thy person, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 1:9) And now intreat the face of your Elohim, and make supplication to him. These things have been done by your hands; shall I accept you? saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 1:10) Because even among you the doors shall be shut, and one will not kindle the fire of mine altar for nothing, I have no pleasure in you, saith YHVH Almighty, and I will not accept a sacrifice at your hands.

(Mal 1:11) For from the rising of the sun even to the going down thereof my name has been glorified among the Gentiles; and in every place incense is offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the Gentiles, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 1:12) But ye profane it, in that ye say, The table of YHVH is polluted, and his meats set thereon are despised.

(Mal 1:13) And ye said, These services are troublesome: therefore I have utterly rejected them with scorn, saith YHVH Almighty: and ye brought in torn victims, and lame, and sick: if then ye should bring an offering, shall I accept them at your hands? saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 1:14) And cursed is the man who had the power, and possessed a male in his flock, and whose vow is upon him, and who sacrifices a corrupt thing to YHVH: for I am a great King, saith YHVH Almighty, and my name is glorious among the nations.

(Mal 2:1) And now, O priests, this commandment is to you.

(Mal 2:2) If ye will not hearken, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name, saith YHVH Almighty, then I will send forth the curse upon you, and I will bring a curse upon your blessing: yea, I will curse it, and I will scatter your blessing, and it shall not exist among you, because ye lay not this to heart.

(Mal 2:3) Behold, I turn my back upon you, and I will scatter dung upon your faces, the dung of your feasts, and I will carry you away at the same time.

(Mal 2:4) And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant might be with the sons of Levi, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 2:5) My covenant of life and peace was with him, and I gave it him that he might reverently fear me, and that he might be awe-struck at my name.

(Mal 2:6) The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked before me directing his way in peace, and he turned many from unrighteousness.

(Mal 2:7) For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 2:8) But ye have turned aside from the way, and caused many to fail in following the law: ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 2:9) And I have made you despised and cast out among all the people, because ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

(Mal 2:10) Have ye not all one father? Did not one Elohim create you? why have ye forsaken every man his brother, to profane the covenant of your fathers?

(Mal 2:11) Juda has been forsaken, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Juda has profaned the holy things of YHVH, which he delighted in, and has gone after other gods.

(Mal 2:12) YHVH will utterly destroy the man that does these things, until he be even cast down from out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and from among them that offer sacrifice to YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 2:13) And these things which I hated, ye did: ye covered with tears the altar of YHVH, and with weeping and groaning because of troubles: is it meet for me to have respect to your sacrifice, or to receive anything from your hands as welcome?

(Mal 2:14) Yet ye said, Wherefore? Because YHVH has borne witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, whom thou has forsaken, and yet she was thy partner, and the wife of thy covenant.

(Mal 2:15) And did he not do well? and there was the residue of his spirit. But ye said, What does Elohim seek but a seed? But take ye heed to your spirit, and forsake not the wife of thy youth.

(Mal 2:16) But if thou shouldest hate thy wife and put her away, saith YHVH Elohim of Israel, then ungodliness shall cover thy thoughts, saith YHVH Almighty: therefore take ye heed to your spirit, and forsake them not,

(Mal 2:17) ye that have provoked Elohim with your words. But ye said, Wherein have we provoked him? In that ye say, Every one that does evil is a pleasing object in the sight of YHVH, and he takes pleasure in such; and where is the Elohim of justice?

(Mal 3:1) Behold, I send forth my messenger, and he shall survey the way before me: and YHVH, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come into his temple, even the angel of the covenant, whom ye take pleasure in: behold, he is coming, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 3:2) And who will abide the day of his coming? or who will withstand at his appearing? for he is coming in as the fire of a furnace and as the herb of fullers.

(Mal 3:3) He shall sit to melt and purify as it were silver, and as it were gold: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver, and they shall offer to YHVH an offering in righteousness.

(Mal 3:4) And the sacrifice of Juda and Jerusalem shall be pleasing to YHVH, according to the former days, and according to the former years.

(Mal 3:5) And I will draw near to you in judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the witches, and against the adulteresses, and against them that swear falsely by my name, and against them that keep back the hireling's wages, and them that oppress the widow, and afflict orphans, and that wrest the judgment of the stranger, and fear not me, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 3:6) For I am YHVH your Elohim, and I am not changed:

(Mal 3:7) but ye, the sons of Jacob, have not refrained from the iniquities of your fathers: ye have perverted my statutes, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, saith YHVH Almighty. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

(Mal 3:8) Will a man insult Elohim? for ye insult me. But ye say, Wherein have we insulted thee? In that the tithes and first-fruits are with you still.

(Mal 3:9) And ye do surely look off from me, and ye insult me.

(Mal 3:10) The year is completed, and ye have brought all the produce into the storehouses; but there shall be the plunder thereof in its house: return now on this behalf, saith YHVH Almighty, see if I will not open to you the torrents of heaven, and pour out my blessing upon you, until ye are satisfied.

(Mal 3:11) And I will appoint food for you, and I will not destroy the fruit of your land; and your vine in the field shall not fail, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 3:12) And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a desirable land, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 3:13) Ye have spoken grievous words against me, saith YHVH. Yet ye said, Wherein have we spoken against thee?

(Mal 3:14) Ye said, He that serves Elohim labours in vain: and what have we gained in that we have kept his ordinances, and in that we have walked as suppliants before the face of YHVH Almighty?

(Mal 3:15) And now we pronounce strangers blessed; and all they who act unlawfully are built up; and they have resisted Elohim, and yet have been delivered.

(Mal 3:16) Thus spoke they that feared YHVH, every one to his neighbour: and YHVH gave heed, and hearkened, and he wrote a book of remembrance before him for them that feared YHVH and revered his name.

(Mal 3:17) And they shall be mine, saith YHVH Almighty, in the day which I appoint for a peculiar possession; and I will make choice of them, as a man makes choice of his son that serves him.

(Mal 3:18) Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, and between him that serves Elohim, and him that serves him not.

(Mal 4:1) For, behold, a day comes burning as an oven, and it shall consume them; and all the aliens, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that is coming shall set them on fire, saith YHVH Almighty, and there shall not be left of them root or branch.

(Mal 4:2) But to you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise, and healing shall be in his wings: and ye shall go forth, and bound as young calves let loose from bonds.

(Mal 4:3) And ye shall trample the wicked; for they shall be ashes underneath your feet in the day which I appoint, saith YHVH Almighty.

(Mal 4:4) Remember the law of my servant Moses, accordingly as I charged him with it in Choreb for all Israel, even the commandments and ordinances.

(Mal 4:5) And, behold, I will send to you Elias the Thesbite, before the great and glorious day of YHVH comes;

(Mal 4:6) who shall turn again the heart of the father to the son, and the heart of a man to his neighbour, lest I come and smite the earth grievously.

Matthew.

(Mat 1:1) The book of the generation of YAHshua Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

(Mat 1:2) Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

(Mat 1:3) And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

(Mat 1:4) And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

(Mat 1:5) And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

(Mat 1:6) And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her of Urias;

(Mat 1:7) And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

(Mat 1:8) And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

(Mat 1:9) And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

(Mat 1:10) And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

(Mat 1:11) And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

(Mat 1:12) And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

(Mat 1:13) And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

(Mat 1:14) And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

(Mat 1:15) And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

(Mat 1:16) And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born YAHshua, who is called Christ.

(Mat 1:17) So all the generations from Abraham to David fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ fourteen generations.

(Mat 1:18) Now the birth of YAHshua Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Spirit.

(Mat 1:19) Then Joseph her husband, being a just, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

(Mat 1:20) But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of YHVH appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

(Mat 1:21) And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name YAHshua: for he shall save his people from their sins.

(Mat 1:22) Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, (Mat 1:23) Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, Elohim with us.

(Mat 1:24) Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of YHVH had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

(Mat 1:25) And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name YAHshua.

(Mat 2:1) Now when YAHshua was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, (Mat 2:2) Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

(Mat 2:3) When Herod the king had heard, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

(Mat 2:4) And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

(Mat 2:5) And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, (Mat 2:6) And thou Bethlehem, the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

(Mat 2:7) Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

(Mat 2:8) And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

(Mat 2:9) When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

(Mat 2:10) When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

(Mat 2:11) And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

(Mat 2:12) And being warned of Elohim in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

(Mat 2:13) And when they were departed, behold, the angel of YHVH appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

(Mat 2:14) When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

(Mat 2:15) And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

(Mat 2:16) Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wrath, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

(Mat 2:17) Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, (Mat 2:18) In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

(Mat 2:19) But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of YHVH appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, (Mat 2:20) Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

(Mat 2:21) And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

(Mat 2:22) But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of Elohim in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

(Mat 2:23) And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

(Mat 3:1) In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, (Mat 3:2) And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

(Mat 3:3) For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of YHVH, make his paths straight.

(Mat 3:4) And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

(Mat 3:5) Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan, (Mat 3:6) And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

(Mat 3:7) But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

(Mat 3:8) Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

(Mat 3:9) And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to father: for I say unto you, that Elohim is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

(Mat 3:10) And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

(Mat 3:11) I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and fire:

(Mat 3:12) Whose fan in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

(Mat 3:13) Then cometh YAHshua from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

(Mat 3:14) But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

(Mat 3:15) And YAHshua answering said unto him, Suffer now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

(Mat 3:16) And YAHshua, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of Elohim descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

(Mat 3:17) And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

(Mat 4:1) Then was YAHshua led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

(Mat 4:2) And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

(Mat 4:3) And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of Elohim, command that these stones be made bread.

(Mat 4:4) But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of Elohim.

(Mat 4:5) Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, (Mat 4:6) And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of Elohim, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

(Mat 4:7) YAHshua said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt YHVH thy Elohim.

(Mat 4:8) Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

(Mat 4:9) And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

(Mat 4:10) Then saith YAHshua unto him, Get thee hence, satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship YHVH thy Elohim, and him only shalt thou serve.

(Mat 4:11) Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

(Mat 4:12) Now when YAHshua had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;

(Mat 4:13) And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

(Mat 4:14) That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

(Mat 4:15) The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

(Mat 4:16) The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

(Mat 4:17) From that time YAHshua began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

(Mat 4:18) And YAHshua, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

(Mat 4:19) And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

(Mat 4:20) And they straightway left nets, and followed him.

(Mat 4:21) And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

(Mat 4:22) And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

(Mat 4:23) And YAHshua went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

(Mat 4:24) And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

(Mat 4:25) And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judaea, and beyond Jordan.

(Mat 5:1) And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

(Mat 5:2) And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

(Mat 5:3) Blessed the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 5:4) Blessed they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

(Mat 5:5) Blessed the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

(Mat 5:6) Blessed they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

(Mat 5:7) Blessed the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

(Mat 5:8) Blessed the pure in heart: for they shall see Elohim.

(Mat 5:9) Blessed the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of Elohim.

(Mat 5:10) Blessed they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 5:11) Blessed are ye, when shall revile you, and persecute, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

(Mat 5:12) Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

(Mat 5:13) Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

(Mat 5:14) Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

(Mat 5:15) Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

(Mat 5:16) Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

(Mat 5:17) Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

(Mat 5:18) For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

(Mat 5:19) Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 5:20) For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 5:21) Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

(Mat 5:22) But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

(Mat 5:23) Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

(Mat 5:24) Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

(Mat 5:25) Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

(Mat 5:26) Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

(Mat 5:27) Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

(Mat 5:28) But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

(Mat 5:29) And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body should be cast into hell.

(Mat 5:30) And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body should be cast into hell.

(Mat 5:31) It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

(Mat 5:32) But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

(Mat 5:33) Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto YHWH thine oaths:

(Mat 5:34) But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is Elohim's throne:

(Mat 5:35) Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

(Mat 5:36) Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

(Mat 5:37) But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

(Mat 5:38) Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

(Mat 5:39) But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

(Mat 5:40) And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have cloke also.

(Mat 5:41) And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

(Mat 5:42) Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

(Mat 5:43) Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

(Mat 5:44) But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

(Mat 5:45) That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

(Mat 5:46) For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

(Mat 5:47) And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more? do not even the publicans so?

(Mat 5:48) Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

(Mat 6:1) Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

(Mat 6:2) Therefore when thou doest alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

(Mat 6:3) But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

(Mat 6:4) That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

(Mat 6:5) And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

(Mat 6:6) But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

(Mat 6:7) But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

(Mat 6:8) Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

(Mat 6:9) After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

(Mat 6:10) Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

(Mat 6:11) Give us this day our daily bread.

(Mat 6:12) And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

(Mat 6:13) And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

(Mat 6:14) For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

(Mat 6:15) But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

(Mat 6:16) Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

(Mat 6:17) But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

(Mat 6:18) That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

(Mat 6:19) Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

(Mat 6:20) But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

(Mat 6:21) For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

(Mat 6:22) The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

(Mat 6:23) But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great that darkness!

(Mat 6:24) No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve Elohim and mammon.

(Mat 6:25) Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

(Mat 6:26) Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

(Mat 6:27) Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

(Mat 6:28) And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

(Mat 6:29) And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

(Mat 6:30) Wherefore, if Elohim so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, not much more you, O ye of little faith?

(Mat 6:31) Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

(Mat 6:32) (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

(Mat 6:33) But seek ye first the kingdom of Elohim, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

(Mat 6:34) Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day the evil thereof.

(Mat 7:1) Judge not, that ye be not judged.

(Mat 7:2) For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

(Mat 7:3) And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

(Mat 7:4) Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam in thine own eye?

(Mat 7:5) Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

(Mat 7:6) Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

(Mat 7:7) Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

(Mat 7:8) For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

(Mat 7:9) Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

(Mat 7:10) Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

(Mat 7:11) If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

(Mat 7:12) Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

(Mat 7:13) Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide the gate, and broad the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

(Mat 7:14) Because strait the gate, and narrow the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

(Mat 7:15) Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

(Mat 7:16) Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

(Mat 7:17) Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

(Mat 7:18) A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

(Mat 7:19) Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

(Mat 7:20) Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

(Mat 7:21) Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

(Mat 7:22) Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

(Mat 7:23) And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

(Mat 7:24) Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

(Mat 7:25) And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

(Mat 7:26) And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

(Mat 7:27) And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

(Mat 7:28) And it came to pass, when YAHshua had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

(Mat 7:29) For he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes.

(Mat 8:1) When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

(Mat 8:2) And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

(Mat 8:3) And YAHshua put forth hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

(Mat 8:4) And YAHshua saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

(Mat 8:5) And when YAHshua was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, (Mat 8:6) And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

(Mat 8:7) And YAHshua saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

(Mat 8:8) The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

(Mat 8:9) For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth.

(Mat 8:10) When YAHshua heard, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

(Mat 8:11) And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 8:12) But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(Mat 8:13) And YAHshua said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

(Mat 8:14) And when YAHshua was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

(Mat 8:15) And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

(Mat 8:16) When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with word, and healed all that were sick:

(Mat 8:17) That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare sicknesses.

(Mat 8:18) Now when YAHshua saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

(Mat 8:19) And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

(Mat 8:20) And YAHshua saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay head.

(Mat 8:21) And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

(Mat 8:22) But YAHshua said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

(Mat 8:23) And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

(Mat 8:24) And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

(Mat 8:25) And his disciples came to, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

(Mat 8:26) And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

(Mat 8:27) But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

(Mat 8:28) And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

(Mat 8:29) And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, YAHshua, thou Son of Elohim? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

(Mat 8:30) And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

(Mat 8:31) So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

(Mat 8:32) And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

(Mat 8:33) And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

(Mat 8:34) And, behold, the whole city came out to meet YAHshua: and when they saw him, they besought that he would depart out of their coasts.

(Mat 9:1) And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

(Mat 9:2) And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and YAHshua seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

(Mat 9:3) And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This blasphemeth.

(Mat 9:4) And YAHshua knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

(Mat 9:5) For whether is easier, to say, sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

(Mat 9:6) But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

(Mat 9:7) And he arose, and departed to his house.

(Mat 9:8) But when the multitudes saw, they marvelled, and glorified Elohim, which had given such power unto men.

(Mat 9:9) And as YAHshua passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

(Mat 9:10) And it came to pass, as YAHshua sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

(Mat 9:11) And when the Pharisees saw, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

(Mat 9:12) But when YAHshua heard, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

(Mat 9:13) But go ye and learn what meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

(Mat 9:14) Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

(Mat 9:15) And YAHshua said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

(Mat 9:16) No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

(Mat 9:17) Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

(Mat 9:18) While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

(Mat 9:19) And YAHshua arose, and followed him, and his disciples.

(Mat 9:20) And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind, and touched the hem of his garment:

(Mat 9:21) For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

(Mat 9:22) But YAHshua turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

(Mat 9:23) And when YAHshua came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, (Mat 9:24) He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

(Mat 9:25) But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

(Mat 9:26) And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

(Mat 9:27) And when YAHshua departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Son of David, have mercy on us.

(Mat 9:28) And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and YAHshua saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

(Mat 9:29) Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

(Mat 9:30) And their eyes were opened; and YAHshua straitly charged them, saying, See no man know.

(Mat 9:31) But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

(Mat 9:32) As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

(Mat 9:33) And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

(Mat 9:34) But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

(Mat 9:35) And YAHshua went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

(Mat 9:36) But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

(Mat 9:37) Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly plenteous, but the labourers few;

(Mat 9:38) Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

(Mat 10:1) And when he had called unto his twelve disciples, he gave them power, unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

(Mat 10:2) Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James of Zebedee, and John his brother;

(Mat 10:3) Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus;

(Mat 10:4) Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

(Mat 10:5) These twelve YAHshua sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into city of the Samaritans enter ye not:

(Mat 10:6) But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

(Mat 10:7) And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

(Mat 10:8) Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

(Mat 10:9) Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses, (Mat 10:10) Nor scrip for journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat.

(Mat 10:11) And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

(Mat 10:12) And when ye come into an house, salute it.

(Mat 10:13) And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

(Mat 10:14) And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

(Mat 10:15) Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrhah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

(Mat 10:16) Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

(Mat 10:17) But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

(Mat 10:18) And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

(Mat 10:19) But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

(Mat 10:20) For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

(Mat 10:21) And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.

(Mat 10:22) And ye shall be hated of all for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

(Mat 10:23) But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

(Mat 10:25) It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more them of his household?

(Mat 10:26) Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

(Mat 10:27) What I tell you in darkness, speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, preach ye upon the housetops.

(Mat 10:28) And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

(Mat 10:29) Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

(Mat 10:30) But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

(Mat 10:31) Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

(Mat 10:32) Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

(Mat 10:33) But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

(Mat 10:34) Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

(Mat 10:35) For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

(Mat 10:36) And a man's foes they of his own household.

(Mat 10:37) He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

(Mat 10:38) And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

(Mat 10:39) He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

(Mat 10:40) He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

(Mat 10:41) He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

(Mat 10:42) And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

(Mat 11:1) And it came to pass, when YAHshua had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

(Mat 11:2) Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, (Mat 11:3) And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

(Mat 11:4) YAHshua answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

(Mat 11:5) The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

(Mat 11:6) And blessed is, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

(Mat 11:7) And as they departed, YAHshua began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

(Mat 11:8) But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft are in kings' houses.

(Mat 11:9) But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

(Mat 11:10) For this is, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

(Mat 11:11) Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

(Mat 11:12) And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

(Mat 11:13) For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

(Mat 11:14) And if ye will receive, this is Elias, which was for to come.

(Mat 11:15) He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(Mat 11:16) But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, (Mat 11:17) And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

(Mat 11:18) For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

(Mat 11:19) The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.

(Mat 11:20) Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

(Mat 11:21) Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

(Mat 11:22) But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

(Mat 11:23) And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

(Mat 11:24) But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

(Mat 11:25) At that time YAHshua answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

(Mat 11:26) Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

(Mat 11:27) All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and to whomsoever the Son will reveal.

(Mat 11:28) Come unto me, all that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

(Mat 11:29) Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

(Mat 11:30) For my yoke easy, and my burden is light.

(Mat 12:1) At that time YAHshua went on the Sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

(Mat 12:2) But when the Pharisees saw, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the Sabbath day.

(Mat 12:3) But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

(Mat 12:4) How he entered into the house of Elohim, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

(Mat 12:5) Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the Sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless?

(Mat 12:6) But I say unto you, That in this place is greater than the temple.

(Mat 12:7) But if ye had known what meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

(Mat 12:8) For the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath day.

(Mat 12:9) And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

(Mat 12:10) And, behold, there was a man which had hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

(Mat 12:11) And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift out?

(Mat 12:12) How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath days.

(Mat 12:13) Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

(Mat 12:14) Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

(Mat 12:15) But when YAHshua knew, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

(Mat 12:16) And charged them that they should not make him known:

(Mat 12:17) That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

(Mat 12:18) Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

(Mat 12:19) He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

(Mat 12:20) A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

(Mat 12:21) And in his Name shall the Gentiles trust.

(Mat 12:22) Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

(Mat 12:23) And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

(Mat 12:24) But when the Pharisees heard, they said, This doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

(Mat 12:25) And YAHshua knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

(Mat 12:26) And if satan cast out satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

(Mat 12:27) And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast out? therefore they shall be your judges.

(Mat 12:28) But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of Elohim, then the kingdom of Elohim is come unto you.

(Mat 12:29) Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

(Mat 12:30) He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

(Mat 12:31) Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy the Spirit shall not be forgiven unto men.

(Mat 12:32) And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the to come.

(Mat 12:33) Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by fruit.

(Mat 12:34) O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

(Mat 12:35) A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

(Mat 12:36) But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

(Mat 12:37) For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

(Mat 12:38) Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

(Mat 12:39) But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

(Mat 12:40) For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

(Mat 12:41) The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

(Mat 12:42) The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

(Mat 12:43) When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

(Mat 12:44) Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth empty, swept, and garnished.

(Mat 12:45) Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

(Mat 12:46) While he yet talked to the people, behold, mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

(Mat 12:47) Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

(Mat 12:48) But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

(Mat 12:49) And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

(Mat 12:50) For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

(Mat 13:1) The same day went YAHshua out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

(Mat 13:2) And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

(Mat 13:3) And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

(Mat 13:4) And when he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

(Mat 13:5) Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

(Mat 13:6) And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

(Mat 13:7) And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

(Mat 13:8) But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

(Mat 13:9) Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(Mat 13:10) And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

(Mat 13:11) He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

(Mat 13:12) For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

(Mat 13:13) Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

(Mat 13:14) And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

(Mat 13:15) For this people's heart is waxed gross, and ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with eyes, and hear with ears, and should understand with heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

(Mat 13:16) But blessed your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

(Mat 13:17) For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous have desired to see which ye see, and have not seen; and to hear which ye hear, and have not heard.

(Mat 13:18) Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

(Mat 13:19) When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth not, then cometh the wicked, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

(Mat 13:20) But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;

(Mat 13:21) Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

(Mat 13:22) He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

(Mat 13:23) But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

(Mat 13:24) Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

(Mat 13:25) But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

(Mat 13:26) But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

(Mat 13:27) So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

(Mat 13:28) He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

(Mat 13:29) But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

(Mat 13:30) Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

(Mat 13:31) Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

(Mat 13:32) Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

(Mat 13:33) Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

(Mat 13:34) All these things spake YAHshua unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

(Mat 13:35) That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

(Mat 13:36) Then YAHshua sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

(Mat 13:37) He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

(Mat 13:38) The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

(Mat 13:39) The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

(Mat 13:40) As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

(Mat 13:41) The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

(Mat 13:42) And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

(Mat 13:43) Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(Mat 13:44) Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

(Mat 13:45) Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

(Mat 13:46) Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

(Mat 13:47) Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

(Mat 13:48) Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

(Mat 13:49) So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

(Mat 13:50) And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

(Mat 13:51) YAHshua saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

(Mat 13:52) Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure new and old.

(Mat 13:53) And it came to pass, when YAHshua had finished these parables, he departed thence.

(Mat 13:54) And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this this wisdom, and mighty works?

(Mat 13:55) Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

(Mat 13:56) And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this all these things?

(Mat 13:57) And they were offended in him. But YAHshua said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

(Mat 13:58) And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

(Mat 14:1) At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of YAHshua, (Mat 14:2) And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

(Mat 14:3) For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

(Mat 14:4) For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

(Mat 14:5) And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

(Mat 14:6) But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

(Mat 14:7) Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

(Mat 14:8) And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

(Mat 14:9) And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded to be given.

(Mat 14:10) And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

(Mat 14:11) And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

(Mat 14:12) And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told YAHshua.

(Mat 14:13) When YAHshua heard, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

(Mat 14:14) And YAHshua went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

(Mat 14:15) And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

(Mat 14:16) But YAHshua said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

(Mat 14:17) And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

(Mat 14:18) He said, Bring them hither to me.

(Mat 14:19) And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

(Mat 14:20) And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

(Mat 14:21) And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

(Mat 14:22) And straightway YAHshua constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

(Mat 14:23) And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

(Mat 14:24) But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

(Mat 14:25) And in the fourth watch of the night YAHshua went unto them, walking on the sea.

(Mat 14:26) And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

(Mat 14:27) But straightway YAHshua spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

(Mat 14:28) And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

(Mat 14:29) And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to YAHshua.

(Mat 14:30) But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

(Mat 14:31) And immediately YAHshua stretched forth hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

(Mat 14:32) And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

(Mat 14:33) Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of Elohim.

(Mat 14:34) And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

(Mat 14:35) And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

(Mat 14:36) And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

(Mat 15:1) Then came to YAHshua scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying, (Mat 15:2) Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

(Mat 15:3) But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of Elohim by your tradition?

(Mat 15:4) For Elohim commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

(Mat 15:5) But ye say, Whosoever shall say to father or mother, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

(Mat 15:6) And honour not his father or his mother. Thus have ye made the commandment of Elohim of none effect by your tradition.

(Mat 15:7) Hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

(Mat 15:8) This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with lips; but their heart is far from me.

(Mat 15:9) But in vain they do worship me, teaching doctrines the commandments of men.

(Mat 15:10) And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

(Mat 15:11) Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

(Mat 15:12) Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

(Mat 15:13) But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

(Mat 15:14) Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

(Mat 15:15) Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

(Mat 15:16) And YAHshua said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

(Mat 15:17) Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

(Mat 15:18) But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

(Mat 15:19) For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

(Mat 15:20) These are which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

(Mat 15:21) Then YAHshua went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

(Mat 15:22) And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

(Mat 15:23) But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

(Mat 15:24) But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

(Mat 15:25) Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

(Mat 15:26) But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast to dogs.

(Mat 15:27) And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

(Mat 15:28) Then YAHshua answered and said unto her, O woman, great thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

(Mat 15:29) And YAHshua departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

(Mat 15:30) And great multitudes came unto him, having with them lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at YAHshua' feet; and he healed them:

(Mat 15:31) Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the Elohim of Israel.

(Mat 15:32) Then YAHshua called his disciples, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

(Mat 15:33) And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

(Mat 15:34) And YAHshua saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

(Mat 15:35) And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

(Mat 15:36) And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

(Mat 15:37) And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken that was left seven baskets full.

(Mat 15:38) And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

(Mat 15:39) And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

(Mat 16:1) The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

(Mat 16:2) He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, fair weather: for the sky is red.

(Mat 16:3) And in the morning, foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not the signs of the times?

(Mat 16:4) A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

(Mat 16:5) And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

(Mat 16:6) Then YAHshua said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

(Mat 16:7) And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

(Mat 16:8) When YAHshua perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

(Mat 16:9) Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

(Mat 16:10) Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

(Mat 16:11) How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

(Mat 16:12) Then understood they how that he bade not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

(Mat 16:13) When YAHshua came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

(Mat 16:14) And they said, Some John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

(Mat 16:15) He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

(Mat 16:16) And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living Elohim.

(Mat 16:17) And YAHshua answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

(Mat 16:18) And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

(Mat 16:19) And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

(Mat 16:20) Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was YAHshua the Christ.

(Mat 16:21) From that time forth began YAHshua to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

(Mat 16:22) Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

(Mat 16:23) But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of Elohim, but those that be of men.

(Mat 16:24) Then said YAHshua unto his disciples, If any will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

(Mat 16:25) For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

(Mat 16:26) For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

(Mat 16:27) For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

(Mat 16:28) Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

(Mat 17:1) And after six days YAHshua taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, (Mat 17:2) And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

(Mat 17:3) And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

(Mat 17:4) Then answered Peter, and said unto YAHshua, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

(Mat 17:5) While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

(Mat 17:6) And when the disciples heard, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

(Mat 17:7) And YAHshua came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

(Mat 17:8) And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save YAHshua only.

(Mat 17:9) And as they came down from the mountain, YAHshua charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

(Mat 17:10) And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

(Mat 17:11) And YAHshua answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

(Mat 17:12) But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

(Mat 17:13) Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

(Mat 17:14) And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

(Mat 17:15) Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

(Mat 17:16) And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

(Mat 17:17) Then YAHshua answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

(Mat 17:18) And YAHshua rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

(Mat 17:19) Then came the disciples to YAHshua apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

(Mat 17:20) And YAHshua said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

(Mat 17:21) Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

(Mat 17:22) And while they abode in Galilee, YAHshua said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

(Mat 17:23) And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

(Mat 17:24) And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

(Mat 17:25) He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, YAHshua prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

(Mat 17:26) Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. YAHshua saith unto him, Then are the children free.

(Mat 17:27) Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

(Mat 18:1) At the same time came the disciples unto YAHshua, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

(Mat 18:2) And YAHshua called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

(Mat 18:3) And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 18:4) Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 18:5) And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

(Mat 18:6) But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

(Mat 18:7) Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

(Mat 18:8) Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

(Mat 18:9) And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

(Mat 18:10) Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

(Mat 18:11) For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

(Mat 18:12) How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

(Mat 18:13) And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

(Mat 18:14) Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

(Mat 18:15) Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

(Mat 18:16) But if he will not hear take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

(Mat 18:17) And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

(Mat 18:18) Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

(Mat 18:19) Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

(Mat 18:20) For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

(Mat 18:21) Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

(Mat 18:22) YAHshua saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

(Mat 18:23) Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

(Mat 18:24) And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

(Mat 18:25) But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

(Mat 18:26) The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

(Mat 18:27) Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

(Mat 18:28) But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

(Mat 18:29) And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

(Mat 18:30) And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

(Mat 18:31) So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

(Mat 18:32) Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

(Mat 18:33) Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

(Mat 18:34) And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

(Mat 18:35) So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

(Mat 19:1) And it came to pass, when YAHshua had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judaea beyond Jordan;

(Mat 19:2) And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

(Mat 19:3) The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

(Mat 19:4) And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made at the beginning made them male and female,

(Mat 19:5) And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

(Mat 19:6) Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore Elohim hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

(Mat 19:7) They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

(Mat 19:8) He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

(Mat 19:9) And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

(Mat 19:10) His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with wife, it is not good to marry.

(Mat 19:11) But he said unto them, All cannot receive this saying, save to whom it is given.

(Mat 19:12) For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive, let him receive.

(Mat 19:13) Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

(Mat 19:14) But YAHshua said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 19:15) And he laid hands on them, and departed thence.

(Mat 19:16) And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

(Mat 19:17) And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? None good but one, Elohim: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

(Mat 19:18) He saith unto him, Which? YAHshua said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, (Mat 19:19) Honour thy father and mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

(Mat 19:20) The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

(Mat 19:21) YAHshua said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come follow me.

(Mat 19:22) But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

(Mat 19:23) Then said YAHshua unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

(Mat 19:24) And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of Elohim.

(Mat 19:25) When his disciples heard, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

(Mat 19:26) But YAHshua beheld, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with Elohim all things are possible.

(Mat 19:27) Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

(Mat 19:28) And YAHshua said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

(Mat 19:29) And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

(Mat 19:30) But many first shall be last; and the last first.

(Mat 20:1) For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

(Mat 20:2) And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

(Mat 20:3) And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, (Mat 20:4) And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

(Mat 20:5) Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

(Mat 20:6) And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

(Mat 20:7) They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, shall ye receive.

(Mat 20:8) So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

(Mat 20:9) And when they came that about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

(Mat 20:10) But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

(Mat 20:11) And when they had received, they murmured against the goodman of the house, (Mat 20:12) Saying, These last have wrought one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

(Mat 20:13) But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

(Mat 20:14) Take thine, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

(Mat 20:15) Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

(Mat 20:16) So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

(Mat 20:17) And YAHshua going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

(Mat 20:18) Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

(Mat 20:19) And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify: and the third day he shall rise again.

(Mat 20:20) Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping, and desiring a certain thing of him.

(Mat 20:21) And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

(Mat 20:22) But YAHshua answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

(Mat 20:23) And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but for whom it is prepared of my Father.

(Mat 20:24) And when the ten heard, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

(Mat 20:25) But YAHshua called them, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

(Mat 20:26) But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

(Mat 20:27) And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

(Mat 20:28) Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

(Mat 20:29) And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

(Mat 20:30) And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that YAHshua passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David.

(Mat 20:31) And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David.

(Mat 20:32) And YAHshua stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

(Mat 20:33) They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

(Mat 20:34) So YAHshua had compassion, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

(Mat 21:1) And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent YAHshua two disciples, (Mat 21:2) Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose, and bring unto me.

(Mat 21:3) And if any say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

(Mat 21:4) All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

(Mat 21:5) Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

(Mat 21:6) And the disciples went, and did as YAHshua commanded them, (Mat 21:7) And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set thereon.

(Mat 21:8) And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed in the way.

(Mat 21:9) And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed he that cometh in the name of YHVH; Hosanna in the highest.

(Mat 21:10) And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

(Mat 21:11) And the multitude said, This is YAHshua the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

(Mat 21:12) And YAHshua went into the temple of Elohim, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, (Mat 21:13) And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

(Mat 21:14) And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

(Mat 21:15) And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased, (Mat 21:16) And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And YAHshua saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

(Mat 21:17) And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there.

(Mat 21:18) Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

(Mat 21:19) And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

(Mat 21:20) And when the disciples saw, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

(Mat 21:21) YAHshua answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

(Mat 21:22) And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

(Mat 21:23) And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

(Mat 21:24) And YAHshua answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

(Mat 21:25) The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

(Mat 21:26) But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

(Mat 21:27) And they answered YAHshua, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

(Mat 21:28) But what think ye? A man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

(Mat 21:29) He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

(Mat 21:30) And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I, sir: and went not.

(Mat 21:31) Whether of them twain did the will of father? They say unto him, The first. YAHshua saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of Elohim before you.

(Mat 21:32) For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

(Mat 21:33) Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

(Mat 21:34) And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

(Mat 21:35) And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

(Mat 21:36) Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

(Mat 21:37) But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

(Mat 21:38) But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

(Mat 21:39) And they caught him, and cast out of the vineyard, and slew.

(Mat 21:40) When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

(Mat 21:41) They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

(Mat 21:42) YAHshua saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is YHVH's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

(Mat 21:43) Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of Elohim shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

(Mat 21:44) And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

(Mat 21:45) And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

(Mat 21:46) But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

(Mat 22:1) And YAHshua answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

(Mat 22:2) The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, (Mat 22:3) And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

(Mat 22:4) Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and fatlings killed, and all things ready: come unto the marriage.

(Mat 22:5) But they made light of, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

(Mat 22:6) And the remnant took his servants, and entreated spitefully, and slew.

(Mat 22:7) But when the king heard, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

(Mat 22:8) Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

(Mat 22:9) Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

(Mat 22:10) So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

(Mat 22:11) And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

(Mat 22:12) And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

(Mat 22:13) Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(Mat 22:14) For many are called, but few chosen.

(Mat 22:15) Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in talk.

(Mat 22:16) And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of Elohim in truth, neither carest thou for any: for thou regardest not the person of men.

(Mat 22:17) Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not?

(Mat 22:18) But YAHshua perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, hypocrites?

(Mat 22:19) Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

(Mat 22:20) And he saith unto them, Whose this image and superscription?

(Mat 22:21) They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto Elohim the things that are Elohim's.

(Mat 22:22) When they had heard, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

(Mat 22:23) The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, (Mat 22:24) Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

(Mat 22:25) Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

(Mat 22:26) Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

(Mat 22:27) And last of all the woman died also.

(Mat 22:28) Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

(Mat 22:29) YAHshua answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of Elohim.

(Mat 22:30) For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of Elohim in heaven.

(Mat 22:31) But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by Elohim, saying, (Mat 22:32) I am the Elohim of Abraham, and the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob? Elohim is not the Elohim of the dead, but of the living.

(Mat 22:33) And when the multitude heard, they were astonished at his doctrine.

(Mat 22:34) But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

(Mat 22:35) Then one of them, a lawyer, asked, tempting him, and saying, (Mat 22:36) Master, which the great commandment in the law?

(Mat 22:37) YAHshua said unto him, Thou shalt love YHVH thy Elohim with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

(Mat 22:38) This is the first and great commandment.

(Mat 22:39) And the second like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

(Mat 22:40) On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

(Mat 22:41) While the Pharisees were gathered together, YAHshua asked them, (Mat 22:42) Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, of David.

(Mat 22:43) He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, (Mat 22:44) YHVH said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

(Mat 22:45) If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

(Mat 22:46) And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any from that day forth ask him any more questions.

(Mat 23:1) Then spake YAHshua to the multitude, and to his disciples,

(Mat 23:2) Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

(Mat 23:3) All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

(Mat 23:4) For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay on men's shoulders; but they will not move them with one of their fingers.

(Mat 23:5) But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

(Mat 23:6) And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, (Mat 23:7) And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

(Mat 23:8) But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, Christ; and all ye are brethren.

(Mat 23:9) And call no your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

(Mat 23:10) Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, Christ.

(Mat 23:11) But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

(Mat 23:12) And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

(Mat 23:13) But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

(Mat 23:14) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

(Mat 23:15) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

(Mat 23:16) Woe unto you, blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

(Mat 23:17) Fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

(Mat 23:18) And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

(Mat 23:19) Ye fools and blind: for whether greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

(Mat 23:20) Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

(Mat 23:21) And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

(Mat 23:22) And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of Elohim, and by him that sitteth thereon.

(Mat 23:23) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

(Mat 23:24) Blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

(Mat 23:25) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

(Mat 23:26) Blind Pharisee, cleanse first that within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

(Mat 23:27) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead bones, and of all uncleanness.

(Mat 23:28) Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

(Mat 23:29) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, (Mat 23:30) And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

(Mat 23:31) Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

(Mat 23:32) Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

(Mat 23:33) Serpents, generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

(Mat 23:34) Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and of them ye shall kill and crucify; and of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city:

(Mat 23:35) That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

(Mat 23:36) Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

(Mat 23:37) O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under wings, and ye would not!

(Mat 23:38) Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

(Mat 23:39) For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed he that cometh in the name of YHVH.

(Mat 24:1) And YAHshua went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

(Mat 24:2) And YAHshua said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

(Mat 24:3) And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

(Mat 24:4) And YAHshua answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

(Mat 24:5) For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

(Mat 24:6) And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

(Mat 24:7) For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

(Mat 24:8) All these the beginning of sorrows.

(Mat 24:9) Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

(Mat 24:10) And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

(Mat 24:11) And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

(Mat 24:12) And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

(Mat 24:13) But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

(Mat 24:14) And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

(Mat 24:15) When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

(Mat 24:16) Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains:

(Mat 24:17) Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

(Mat 24:18) Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

(Mat 24:19) And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

(Mat 24:20) But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day:

(Mat 24:21) For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

(Mat 24:22) And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

(Mat 24:23) Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here Christ, or there; believe not.

(Mat 24:24) For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

(Mat 24:25) Behold, I have told you before.

(Mat 24:26) Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, in the secret chambers; believe not.

(Mat 24:27) For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

(Mat 24:28) For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

(Mat 24:29) Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

(Mat 24:30) And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

(Mat 24:31) And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

(Mat 24:32) Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

(Mat 24:33) So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, at the doors.

(Mat 24:34) Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

(Mat 24:35) Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

(Mat 24:36) But of that day and hour knoweth no, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

(Mat 24:37) But as the days of Noe, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

(Mat 24:38) For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, (Mat 24:39) And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

(Mat 24:40) Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

(Mat 24:41) Two grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

(Mat 24:43) But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

(Mat 24:44) Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

(Mat 24:45) Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

(Mat 24:46) Blessed that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

(Mat 24:47) Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

(Mat 24:48) But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

(Mat 24:49) And shall begin to smite fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

(Mat 24:50) The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

(Mat 24:51) And shall cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(Mat 25:1) Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

(Mat 25:2) And five of them were wise, and five foolish.

(Mat 25:3) They that foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

(Mat 25:5) While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

(Mat 25:6) And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

(Mat 25:7) Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

(Mat 25:8) And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

(Mat 25:9) But the wise answered, saying; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

(Mat 25:10) And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

(Mat 25:11) Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

(Mat 25:12) But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

(Mat 25:13) Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

(Mat 25:14) For as a man travelling into a far country, called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

(Mat 25:15) And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

(Mat 25:16) Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made other five talents.

(Mat 25:17) And likewise he that two, he also gained other two.

(Mat 25:18) But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

(Mat 25:19) After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

(Mat 25:20) And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

(Mat 25:21) His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

(Mat 25:22) He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

(Mat 25:23) His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

(Mat 25:24) Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

(Mat 25:25) And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, thou hast thine.

(Mat 25:26) His lord answered and said unto him, wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

(Mat 25:27) Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

(Mat 25:28) Take therefore the talent from him, and give unto him which hath ten talents.

(Mat 25:29) For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

(Mat 25:30) And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(Mat 25:31) When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

(Mat 25:32) And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth sheep from the goats:

(Mat 25:33) And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

(Mat 25:34) Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

(Mat 25:35) For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

(Mat 25:36) Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

(Mat 25:37) Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed? or thirsty, and gave drink?

(Mat 25:38) When saw we thee a stranger, and took in? or naked, and clothed?

(Mat 25:39) Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

(Mat 25:40) And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done unto me.

(Mat 25:41) Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

(Mat 25:42) For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

(Mat 25:43) I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

(Mat 25:44) Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

(Mat 25:45) Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did not to one of the least of these, ye did not to me.

(Mat 25:46) And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

(Mat 26:1) And it came to pass, when YAHshua had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples, (Mat 26:2) Ye know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

(Mat 26:3) Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, (Mat 26:4) And consulted that they might take YAHshua by subtilty, and kill.

(Mat 26:5) But they said, Not on the feast, lest there be an uproar among the people.

(Mat 26:6) Now when YAHshua was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, (Mat 26:7) There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat.

(Mat 26:8) But when his disciples saw, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose this waste?

(Mat 26:9) For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

(Mat 26:10) When YAHshua understood, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

(Mat 26:11) For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always.

(Mat 26:12) For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

(Mat 26:13) Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

(Mat 26:14) Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, (Mat 26:15) And said, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

(Mat 26:16) And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

(Mat 26:17) Now the first of the unleavened bread the disciples came to YAHshua, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

(Mat 26:18) And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

(Mat 26:19) And the disciples did as YAHshua had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

(Mat 26:20) Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

(Mat 26:21) And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

(Mat 26:22) And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

(Mat 26:23) And he answered and said, He that dippeth hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

(Mat 26:24) The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

(Mat 26:25) Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

(Mat 26:26) And as they were eating, YAHshua took bread, and blessed, and brake, and gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

(Mat 26:27) And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

(Mat 26:28) For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

(Mat 26:29) But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

(Mat 26:30) And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

(Mat 26:31) Then saith YAHshua unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

(Mat 26:32) But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

(Mat 26:33) Peter answered and said unto him, Though all shall be offended because of thee, will I never be offended.

(Mat 26:34) YAHshua said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

(Mat 26:35) Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

(Mat 26:36) Then cometh YAHshua with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

(Mat 26:37) And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

(Mat 26:38) Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

(Mat 26:39) And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou.

(Mat 26:40) And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

(Mat 26:41) Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed willing, but the flesh weak.

(Mat 26:42) He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

(Mat 26:43) And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

(Mat 26:44) And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

(Mat 26:45) Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

(Mat 26:46) Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

(Mat 26:47) And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

(Mat 26:48) Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

(Mat 26:49) And forthwith he came to YAHshua, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

(Mat 26:50) And YAHshua said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on YAHshua, and took him.

(Mat 26:51) And, behold, one of them which were with YAHshua stretched out hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

(Mat 26:52) Then said YAHshua unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

(Mat 26:53) Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

(Mat 26:54) But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

(Mat 26:55) In that same hour said YAHshua to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

(Mat 26:56) But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

(Mat 26:57) And they that had laid hold on YAHshua led away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

(Mat 26:58) But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

(Mat 26:59) Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against YAHshua, to put him to death;

(Mat 26:60) But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, (Mat 26:61) And said, This said, I am able to destroy the temple of Elohim, and to build it in three days.

(Mat 26:62) And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what these witness against thee?

(Mat 26:63) But YAHshua held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living Elohim, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of Elohim.

(Mat 26:64) YAHshua saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

(Mat 26:65) Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

(Mat 26:66) What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

(Mat 26:67) Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote with the palms of their hands, (Mat 26:68) Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

(Mat 26:69) Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with YAHshua of Galilee.

(Mat 26:70) But he denied before all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

(Mat 26:71) And when he was gone out into the porch, another saw him, and said unto them that were there, This was also with YAHshua of Nazareth.

(Mat 26:72) And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

(Mat 26:73) And after a while came unto them that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

(Mat 26:74) Then began he to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

(Mat 26:75) And Peter remembered the word of YAHshua, which said unto him, Before the cock crew, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

(Mat 27:1) When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against YAHshua to put him to death:

(Mat 27:2) And when they had bound him, they led away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

(Mat 27:3) Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, (Mat 27:4) Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What to us? see thou.

(Mat 27:5) And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

(Mat 27:6) And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

(Mat 27:7) And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

(Mat 27:8) Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

(Mat 27:9) Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

(Mat 27:10) And gave them for the potter's field, as YHVH appointed me.

(Mat 27:11) And YAHshua stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And YAHshua said unto him, Thou sayest.

(Mat 27:12) And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

(Mat 27:13) Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

(Mat 27:14) And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

(Mat 27:15) Now at feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

(Mat 27:16) And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

(Mat 27:17) Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or YAHshua which is called Christ?

(Mat 27:18) For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

(Mat 27:19) When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

(Mat 27:20) But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy YAHshua.

(Mat 27:21) The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

(Mat 27:22) Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with YAHshua which is called Christ? All say unto him, Let him be crucified.

(Mat 27:23) And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

(Mat 27:24) When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye.

(Mat 27:25) Then answered all the people, and said, His blood on us, and on our children.

(Mat 27:26) Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged YAHshua, he delivered to be crucified.

(Mat 27:27) Then the soldiers of the governor took YAHshua into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band.

(Mat 27:28) And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

(Mat 27:29) And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

(Mat 27:30) And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

(Mat 27:31) And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify.

(Mat 27:32) And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

(Mat 27:33) And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, (Mat 27:34) They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted, he would not drink.

(Mat 27:35) And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

(Mat 27:36) And sitting down they watched him there;

(Mat 27:37) And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS YAHSHUA THE KING OF THE JEWS.

(Mat 27:38) Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

(Mat 27:39) And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, (Mat 27:40) And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of Elohim, come down from the cross.

(Mat 27:41) Likewise also the chief priests mocking, with the scribes and elders, said, (Mat 27:42) He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

(Mat 27:43) He trusted in Elohim; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of Elohim.

(Mat 27:44) The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

(Mat 27:45) Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

(Mat 27:46) And about the ninth hour YAHshua cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My Elohim, my Elohim, why hast thou forsaken me?

(Mat 27:47) Some of them that stood there, when they heard, said, This calleth for Elias.

(Mat 27:48) And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled with vinegar, and put on a reed, and gave him to drink.

(Mat 27:49) The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

(Mat 27:50) YAHshua, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the spirit.

(Mat 27:51) And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

(Mat 27:52) And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, (Mat 27:53) And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

(Mat 27:54) Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching YAHshua, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of Elohim.

(Mat 27:55) And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed YAHshua from Galilee, ministering unto him:

(Mat 27:56) Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

(Mat 27:57) When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was YAHshua' disciple:

(Mat 27:58) He went to Pilate, and begged the body of YAHshua. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

(Mat 27:59) And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, (Mat 27:60) And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

(Mat 27:61) And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

(Mat 27:62) Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, (Mat 27:63) Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

(Mat 27:64) Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

(Mat 27:65) Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make as sure as ye can.

(Mat 27:66) So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

(Mat 28:1) In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

(Mat 28:2) And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of YHVH descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

(Mat 28:3) His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

(Mat 28:4) And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead.

(Mat 28:5) And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek YAHshua, which was crucified.

(Mat 28:6) He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

(Mat 28:7) And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

(Mat 28:8) And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

(Mat 28:9) And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, YAHshua met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

(Mat 28:10) Then said YAHshua unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

(Mat 28:11) Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

(Mat 28:12) And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, (Mat 28:13) Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him while we slept.

(Mat 28:14) And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

(Mat 28:15) So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

(Mat 28:16) Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where YAHshua had appointed them.

(Mat 28:17) And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

(Mat 28:18) And YAHshua came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

(Mat 28:19) Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit:

(Mat 28:20) Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, unto the end of the world. Amen.

Mark.

(Mar 1:1) The beginning of the gospel of YAHshua Christ, the Son of Elohim;

(Mar 1:2) As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

(Mar 1:3) The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of YHVH, make his paths straight.

(Mar 1:4) John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

(Mar 1:5) And there went out unto him all the land of Judaea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

(Mar 1:6) And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

(Mar 1:7) And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

(Mar 1:8) I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit.

(Mar 1:9) And it came to pass in those days, that YAHshua came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

(Mar 1:10) And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

(Mar 1:11) And there came a voice from heaven,, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

(Mar 1:12) And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

(Mar 1:13) And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

(Mar 1:14) Now after that John was put in prison, YAHshua came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of Elohim, (Mar 1:15) And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of Elohim is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

(Mar 1:16) Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

(Mar 1:17) And YAHshua said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

(Mar 1:18) And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

(Mar 1:19) And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

(Mar 1:20) And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

(Mar 1:21) And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the Sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

(Mar 1:22) And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

(Mar 1:23) And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, (Mar 1:24) Saying, Let alone; what have we to do with thee, thou YAHshua of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of Elohim.

(Mar 1:25) And YAHshua rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

(Mar 1:26) And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

(Mar 1:27) And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

(Mar 1:28) And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

(Mar 1:29) And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

(Mar 1:30) But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

(Mar 1:31) And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

(Mar 1:32) And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

(Mar 1:33) And all the city was gathered together at the door.

(Mar 1:34) And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

(Mar 1:35) And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

(Mar 1:36) And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

(Mar 1:37) And when they had found him, they said unto him, All seek for thee.

(Mar 1:38) And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

(Mar 1:39) And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

(Mar 1:40) And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

(Mar 1:41) And YAHshua, moved with compassion, put forth hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

(Mar 1:42) And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

(Mar 1:43) And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

(Mar 1:44) And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

(Mar 1:45) But he went out, and began to publish much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that YAHshua could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

(Mar 2:1) And again he entered into Capernaum after days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

(Mar 2:2) And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

(Mar 2:3) And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

(Mar 2:4) And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

(Mar 2:5) When YAHshua saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

(Mar 2:6) But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, (Mar 2:7) Why doth this thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but Elohim only?

(Mar 2:8) And immediately when YAHshua perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

(Mar 2:9) Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

(Mar 2:10) But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

(Mar 2:11) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

(Mar 2:12) And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified Elohim, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

(Mar 2:13) And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

(Mar 2:14) And as he passed by, he saw Levi the of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

(Mar 2:15) And it came to pass, that, as YAHshua sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with YAHshua and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

(Mar 2:16) And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

(Mar 2:17) When YAHshua heard, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

(Mar 2:18) And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

(Mar 2:19) And YAHshua said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

(Mar 2:20) But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

(Mar 2:21) No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

(Mar 2:22) And no man putteth new wine into old skins: else the new wine doth burst the skins, and the wine is spilled, and the skins will be marred: but new wine must be put into new skins.

(Mar 2:23) And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the Sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

(Mar 2:24) And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the Sabbath day that which is not lawful?

(Mar 2:25) And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

(Mar 2:26) How he went into the house of Elohim in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

(Mar 2:27) And he said unto them, The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath:

(Mar 2:28) Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

(Mar 3:1) And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

(Mar 3:2) And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

(Mar 3:3) And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

(Mar 3:4) And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

(Mar 3:5) And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

(Mar 3:6) And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

(Mar 3:7) But YAHshua withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judaea, (Mar 3:8) And from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

(Mar 3:9) And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

(Mar 3:10) For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

(Mar 3:11) And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of Elohim.

(Mar 3:12) And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

(Mar 3:13) And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth whom he would: and they came unto him.

(Mar 3:14) And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

(Mar 3:15) And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

(Mar 3:16) And Simon he surnamed Peter;

(Mar 3:17) And James the of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder:

(Mar 3:18) And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite, (Mar 3:19) And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house.

(Mar 3:20) And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

(Mar 3:21) And when his friends heard, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself.

(Mar 3:22) And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

(Mar 3:23) And he called them, and said unto them in parables, How can satan cast out satan?

(Mar 3:24) And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

(Mar 3:25) And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

(Mar 3:26) And if satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

(Mar 3:27) No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

(Mar 3:28) Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

(Mar 3:29) But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

(Mar 3:30) Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

(Mar 3:31) There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

(Mar 3:32) And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

(Mar 3:33) And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

(Mar 3:34) And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

(Mar 3:35) For whosoever shall do the will of Elohim, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

(Mar 4:1) And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

(Mar 4:2) And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

(Mar 4:3) Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

(Mar 4:4) And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

(Mar 4:5) And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

(Mar 4:6) But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

(Mar 4:7) And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

(Mar 4:8) And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

(Mar 4:9) And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(Mar 4:10) And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

(Mar 4:11) And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of Elohim: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

(Mar 4:12) That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and sins should be forgiven them.

(Mar 4:13) And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

(Mar 4:14) The sower soweth the word.

(Mar 4:15) And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

(Mar 4:16) And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

(Mar 4:17) And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

(Mar 4:18) And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, (Mar 4:19) And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

(Mar 4:20) And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

(Mar 4:21) And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

(Mar 4:22) For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

(Mar 4:23) If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

(Mar 4:24) And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

(Mar 4:25) For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

(Mar 4:26) And he said, So is the kingdom of Elohim, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

(Mar 4:27) And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

(Mar 4:28) For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

(Mar 4:29) But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

(Mar 4:30) And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of Elohim? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

(Mar 4:31) Like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

(Mar 4:32) But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

(Mar 4:33) And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear.

(Mar 4:34) But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

(Mar 4:35) And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

(Mar 4:36) And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

(Mar 4:37) And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

(Mar 4:38) And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

(Mar 4:39) And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

(Mar 4:40) And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

(Mar 4:41) And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

(Mar 5:1) And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

(Mar 5:2) And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

(Mar 5:3) Who had dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

(Mar 5:4) Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any tame him.

(Mar 5:5) And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

(Mar 5:6) But when he saw YAHshua afar off, he ran and worshipped him, (Mar 5:7) And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, YAHshua, Son of the most high Elohim? I adjure thee by Elohim, that thou torment me not.

(Mar 5:8) For he said unto him, Come out of the man, unclean spirit.

(Mar 5:9) And he asked him, What thy name? And he answered, saying, My name Legion: for we are many.

(Mar 5:10) And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

(Mar 5:11) Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

(Mar 5:12) And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

(Mar 5:13) And forthwith YAHshua gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

(Mar 5:14) And they that fed the swine fled, and told in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

(Mar 5:15) And they come to YAHshua, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

(Mar 5:16) And they that saw told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and concerning the swine.

(Mar 5:17) And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

(Mar 5:18) And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

(Mar 5:19) Howbeit YAHshua suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

(Mar 5:20) And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things YAHshua had done for him: and all did marvel.

(Mar 5:21) And when YAHshua was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

(Mar 5:22) And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, (Mar 5:23) And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death:; come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

(Mar 5:24) And went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

(Mar 5:25) And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

(Mar 5:26) And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

(Mar 5:27) When she had heard of YAHshua, came in the press behind, and touched his garment.

(Mar 5:28) For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

(Mar 5:29) And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in body that she was healed of that plague.

(Mar 5:30) And YAHshua, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

(Mar 5:31) And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

(Mar 5:32) And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

(Mar 5:33) But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

(Mar 5:34) And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

(Mar 5:35) While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

(Mar 5:36) As soon as YAHshua heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

(Mar 5:37) And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

(Mar 5:38) And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

(Mar 5:39) And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

(Mar 5:40) And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

(Mar 5:41) And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

(Mar 5:42) And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

(Mar 5:43) And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

(Mar 6:1) And he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

(Mar 6:2) And when the Sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing were astonished, saying, From whence hath this these things? and what wisdom this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

(Mar 6:3) Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

(Mar 6:4) But YAHshua said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

(Mar 6:5) And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed.

(Mar 6:6) And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

(Mar 6:7) And he called the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

(Mar 6:8) And commanded them that they should take nothing for journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in purse:

(Mar 6:9) But shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

(Mar 6:10) And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

(Mar 6:11) And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrhah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

(Mar 6:12) And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

(Mar 6:13) And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed.

(Mar 6:14) And king Herod heard; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

(Mar 6:15) Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

(Mar 6:16) But when Herod heard, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

(Mar 6:17) For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

(Mar 6:18) For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

(Mar 6:19) Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

(Mar 6:20) For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

(Mar 6:21) And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief of Galilee;

(Mar 6:22) And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give thee.

(Mar 6:23) And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

(Mar 6:24) And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

(Mar 6:25) And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

(Mar 6:26) And the king was exceeding sorry; for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

(Mar 6:27) And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, (Mar 6:28) And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

(Mar 6:29) And when his disciples heard, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

(Mar 6:30) And the apostles gathered themselves together unto YAHshua, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

(Mar 6:31) And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

(Mar 6:32) And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

(Mar 6:33) And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

(Mar 6:34) And YAHshua, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

(Mar 6:35) And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time far passed:

(Mar 6:36) Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

(Mar 6:37) He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

(Mar 6:38) He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

(Mar 6:39) And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

(Mar 6:40) And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

(Mar 6:41) And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

(Mar 6:42) And they did all eat, and were filled.

(Mar 6:43) And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

(Mar 6:44) And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

(Mar 6:45) And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

(Mar 6:46) And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

(Mar 6:47) And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

(Mar 6:48) And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

(Mar 6:49) But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

(Mar 6:50) For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

(Mar 6:51) And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

(Mar 6:52) For they considered not of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

(Mar 6:53) And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

(Mar 6:54) And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, (Mar 6:55) And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

(Mar 6:56) And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

(Mar 7:1) Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

(Mar 7:2) And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

(Mar 7:3) For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

(Mar 7:4) And from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.

(Mar 7:5) Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

(Mar 7:6) He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with lips, but their heart is far from me.

(Mar 7:7) Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching doctrines the commandments of men.

(Mar 7:8) For laying aside the commandment of Elohim, ye hold the tradition of men, the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

(Mar 7:9) And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of Elohim, that ye may keep your own tradition.

(Mar 7:10) For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

(Mar 7:11) But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me.

(Mar 7:12) And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

(Mar 7:13) Making the word of Elohim of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

(Mar 7:14) And when he had called all the people, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one, and understand:

(Mar 7:15) There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

(Mar 7:16) If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

(Mar 7:17) And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

(Mar 7:18) And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, cannot defile him;

(Mar 7:19) Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

(Mar 7:20) And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

(Mar 7:21) For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

(Mar 7:22) Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

(Mar 7:23) All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

(Mar 7:24) And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know: but he could not be hid.

(Mar 7:25) For a woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

(Mar 7:26) The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

(Mar 7:27) But YAHshua said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast unto the dogs.

(Mar 7:28) And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

(Mar 7:29) And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

(Mar 7:30) And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

(Mar 7:31) And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

(Mar 7:32) And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

(Mar 7:33) And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;

(Mar 7:34) And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

(Mar 7:35) And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

(Mar 7:36) And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published;

(Mar 7:37) And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

(Mar 8:1) In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, YAHshua called his disciples, and saith unto them,

(Mar 8:2) I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

(Mar 8:3) And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

(Mar 8:4) And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these with bread here in the wilderness?

(Mar 8:5) And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

(Mar 8:6) And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before; and they did set before the people.

(Mar 8:7) And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before.

(Mar 8:8) So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken that was left seven baskets.

(Mar 8:9) And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

(Mar 8:10) And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

(Mar 8:11) And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

(Mar 8:12) And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

(Mar 8:13) And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

(Mar 8:14) Now had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

(Mar 8:15) And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and the leaven of Herod.

(Mar 8:16) And they reasoned among themselves, saying, because we have no bread.

(Mar 8:17) And when YAHshua knew, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

(Mar 8:18) Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

(Mar 8:19) When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

(Mar 8:20) And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

(Mar 8:21) And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

(Mar 8:22) And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

(Mar 8:23) And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

(Mar 8:24) And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

(Mar 8:25) After that he put hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

(Mar 8:26) And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell to any in the town.

(Mar 8:27) And YAHshua went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

(Mar 8:28) And they answered, John the Baptist: but some, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

(Mar 8:29) And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

(Mar 8:30) And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

(Mar 8:31) And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

(Mar 8:32) And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

(Mar 8:33) But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying,

Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of Elohim, but the things that be of men.

(Mar 8:34) And when he had called the people with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

(Mar 8:35) For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

(Mar 8:36) For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

(Mar 8:37) Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

(Mar 8:38) Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

(Mar 9:1) And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of Elohim come with power.

(Mar 9:2) And after six days YAHshua taketh Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

(Mar 9:3) And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

(Mar 9:4) And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with YAHshua.

(Mar 9:5) And Peter answered and said to YAHshua, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

(Mar 9:6) For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

(Mar 9:7) And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

(Mar 9:8) And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save YAHshua only with themselves.

(Mar 9:9) And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

(Mar 9:10) And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

(Mar 9:11) And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?

(Mar 9:12) And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

(Mar 9:13) But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

(Mar 9:14) And when he came to disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

(Mar 9:15) And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to saluted him.

(Mar 9:16) And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

(Mar 9:17) And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

(Mar 9:18) And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

(Mar 9:19) He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

(Mar 9:20) And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

(Mar 9:21) And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

(Mar 9:22) And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

(Mar 9:23) YAHshua said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things possible to him that believeth.

(Mar 9:24) And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

(Mar 9:25) When YAHshua saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

(Mar 9:26) And cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

(Mar 9:27) But YAHshua took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

(Mar 9:28) And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

(Mar 9:29) And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

(Mar 9:30) And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know.

(Mar 9:31) For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

(Mar 9:32) But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

(Mar 9:33) And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

(Mar 9:34) But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who the greatest.

(Mar 9:35) And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, shall be last of all, and servant of all.

(Mar 9:36) And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, (Mar 9:37) Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

(Mar 9:38) And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

(Mar 9:39) But YAHshua said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

(Mar 9:40) For he that is not against us is on our part.

(Mar 9:41) For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

(Mar 9:42) And whosoever shall offend one of little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

(Mar 9:43) And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

(Mar 9:44) Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

(Mar 9:45) And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

(Mar 9:46) Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

(Mar 9:47) And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of Elohim with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

(Mar 9:48) Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

(Mar 9:49) For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

(Mar 9:50) Salt good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

(Mar 10:1) And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

(Mar 10:2) And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away wife? tempting him.

(Mar 10:3) And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

(Mar 10:4) And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put away.

(Mar 10:5) And YAHshua answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

(Mar 10:6) But from the beginning of the creation Elohim made them male and female.

(Mar 10:7) For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

(Mar 10:8) And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

(Mar 10:9) What therefore Elohim hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

(Mar 10:10) And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same.

(Mar 10:11) And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

(Mar 10:12) And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

(Mar 10:13) And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and disciples rebuked those that brought.

(Mar 10:14) But when YAHshua saw, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of Elohim.

(Mar 10:15) Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of Elohim as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

(Mar 10:16) And he took them up in his arms, put hands upon them, and blessed them.

(Mar 10:17) And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

(Mar 10:18) And YAHshua said unto him, Why callest thou me good? None good but one, Elohim.

(Mar 10:19) Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

(Mar 10:20) And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

(Mar 10:21) Then YAHshua beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

(Mar 10:22) And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

(Mar 10:23) And YAHshua looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of Elohim!

(Mar 10:24) And the disciples were astonished at his words. But YAHshua answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of Elohim!

(Mar 10:25) It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of Elohim.

(Mar 10:26) And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

(Mar 10:27) And YAHshua looking upon them saith, With men impossible, but not with Elohim: for with Elohim all things are possible.

(Mar 10:28) Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

(Mar 10:29) And YAHshua answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, (Mar 10:30) But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

(Mar 10:31) But many first shall be last; and the last first.

(Mar 10:32) And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and YAHshua went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

(Mar 10:33) Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

(Mar 10:34) And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

(Mar 10:35) And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

(Mar 10:36) And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

(Mar 10:37) They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

(Mar 10:38) But YAHshua said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

(Mar 10:39) And they said unto him, We can. And YAHshua said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

(Mar 10:40) But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but for whom it is prepared.

(Mar 10:41) And when the ten heard, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

(Mar 10:42) But YAHshua called them, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

(Mar 10:43) But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

(Mar 10:44) And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

(Mar 10:45) For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

(Mar 10:46) And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging.

(Mar 10:47) And when he heard that it was YAHshua of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, YAHshua, Son of David, have mercy on me.

(Mar 10:48) And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Son of David, have mercy on me.

(Mar 10:49) And YAHshua stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

(Mar 10:50) And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to YAHshua.

(Mar 10:51) And YAHshua answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

(Mar 10:52) And YAHshua said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed YAHshua in the way.

(Mar 11:1) And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples, (Mar 11:2) And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring.

(Mar 11:3) And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

(Mar 11:4) And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

(Mar 11:5) And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

(Mar 11:6) And they said unto them even as YAHshua had commanded: and they let them go.

(Mar 11:7) And they brought the colt to YAHshua, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

(Mar 11:8) And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed in the way.

(Mar 11:9) And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed he that cometh in the name of YHVH:

(Mar 11:10) Blessed the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of YHVH: Hosanna in the highest.

(Mar 11:11) And YAHshua entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

(Mar 11:12) And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

(Mar 11:13) And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not.

(Mar 11:14) And YAHshua answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard.

(Mar 11:15) And they come to Jerusalem: and YAHshua went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

(Mar 11:16) And would not suffer that any man should carry vessel through the temple.

(Mar 11:17) And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

(Mar 11:18) And the scribes and chief priests heard, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

(Mar 11:19) And when even was come, he went out of the city.

(Mar 11:20) And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

(Mar 11:21) And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

(Mar 11:22) And YAHshua answering saith unto them, Have faith in Elohim.

(Mar 11:23) For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

(Mar 11:24) Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive, and ye shall have.

(Mar 11:25) And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

(Mar 11:26) But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

(Mar 11:27) And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, (Mar 11:28) And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

(Mar 11:29) And YAHshua answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

(Mar 11:30) The baptism of John, was from heaven, or of men? answer me.

(Mar 11:31) And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

(Mar 11:32) But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

(Mar 11:33) And they answered and said unto YAHshua, We cannot tell. And YAHshua answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

(Mar 12:1) And he began to speak unto them by parables. A man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about, and digged the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

(Mar 12:2) And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

(Mar 12:3) And they caught, and beat him, and sent away empty.

(Mar 12:4) And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded in the head, and sent away shamefully handled.

(Mar 12:5) And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

(Mar 12:6) Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

(Mar 12:7) But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

(Mar 12:8) And they took him, and killed, and cast out of the vineyard.

(Mar 12:9) What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

(Mar 12:10) And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

(Mar 12:11) This was YHVH's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

(Mar 12:12) And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

(Mar 12:13) And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in words.

(Mar 12:14) And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of Elohim in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?

(Mar 12:15) Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see.

(Mar 12:16) And they brought. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's.

(Mar 12:17) And YAHshua answering said unto them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to Elohim the things that are Elohim's. And they marvelled at him.

(Mar 12:18) Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, (Mar 12:19) Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave wife, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

(Mar 12:20) Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

(Mar 12:21) And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

(Mar 12:22) And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

(Mar 12:23) In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

(Mar 12:24) And YAHshua answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of Elohim?

(Mar 12:25) For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

(Mar 12:26) And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush Elohim spake unto him, saying, I the Elohim of Abraham, and the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob?

(Mar 12:27) He is not the Elohim of the dead, but the Elohim of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

(Mar 12:28) And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

(Mar 12:29) And YAHshua answered him, The first of all the commandments, Hear, O Israel; YHVH our Elohim is one Lord:

(Mar 12:30) And thou shalt love YHVH thy Elohim with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this the first commandment.

(Mar 12:31) And the second like, this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

(Mar 12:32) And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one Elohim; and there is none other but he:

(Mar 12:33) And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

(Mar 12:34) And when YAHshua saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of Elohim. And no man after that durst ask him.

(Mar 12:35) And YAHshua answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the Son of David?

(Mar 12:36) For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, YHVH said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

(Mar 12:37) David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

(Mar 12:38) And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and salutations in the marketplaces,

(Mar 12:39) And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

(Mar 12:40) Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

(Mar 12:41) And YAHshua sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

(Mar 12:42) And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

(Mar 12:43) And he called his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

(Mar 12:44) For all did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, all her living.

(Mar 13:1) And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings.

(Mar 13:2) And YAHshua answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

(Mar 13:3) And as he sat upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, (Mar 13:4) Tell us, when shall these things be? and what the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

(Mar 13:5) And YAHshua answering them began to say, Take heed lest any deceive you:

(Mar 13:6) For many shall come in my name, saying, I am; and shall deceive many.

(Mar 13:7) And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for must needs be; but the end not yet.

(Mar 13:8) For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these the beginnings of sorrows.

(Mar 13:9) But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

(Mar 13:10) And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

(Mar 13:11) But when they shall lead, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit.

(Mar 13:12) Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

(Mar 13:13) And ye shall be hated of all for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

(Mar 13:14) But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains:

(Mar 13:15) And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter, to take any thing out of his house:

(Mar 13:16) And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

(Mar 13:17) But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

(Mar 13:18) And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

(Mar 13:19) For those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which Elohim created unto this time, neither shall be.

(Mar 13:20) And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

(Mar 13:21) And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here Christ; or, lo, there; believe not:

(Mar 13:22) For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if possible, even the elect.

(Mar 13:23) But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

(Mar 13:24) But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, (Mar 13:25) And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

(Mar 13:26) And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

(Mar 13:27) And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

(Mar 13:28) Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

(Mar 13:29) So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, at the doors.

(Mar 13:30) Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

(Mar 13:31) Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

(Mar 13:32) But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

(Mar 13:33) Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

(Mar 13:34) As a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

(Mar 13:35) Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

(Mar 13:36) Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

(Mar 13:37) And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

(Mar 14:1) After two days was the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put to death.

(Mar 14:2) But they said, Not on the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people.

(Mar 14:3) And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured on his head.

(Mar 14:4) And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

(Mar 14:5) For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

(Mar 14:6) And YAHshua said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

(Mar 14:7) For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

(Mar 14:8) She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

(Mar 14:9) Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

(Mar 14:10) And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

(Mar 14:11) And when they heard, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

(Mar 14:12) And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

(Mar 14:13) And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

(Mar 14:14) And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

(Mar 14:15) And he will shew you a large upper room furnished prepared: there make ready for us.

(Mar 14:16) And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

(Mar 14:17) And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

(Mar 14:18) And as they sat and did eat, YAHshua said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

(Mar 14:19) And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, it I? and another, it I?

(Mar 14:20) And he answered and said unto them, one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

(Mar 14:21) The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

(Mar 14:22) And as they did eat, YAHshua took bread, and blessed, and brake, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

(Mar 14:23) And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them: and they all drank of it.

(Mar 14:24) And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

(Mar 14:25) Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of Elohim.

(Mar 14:26) And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

(Mar 14:27) And YAHshua saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

(Mar 14:28) But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

(Mar 14:29) But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet not I.

(Mar 14:30) And YAHshua saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

(Mar 14:31) But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

(Mar 14:32) And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

(Mar 14:33) And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

(Mar 14:34) And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

(Mar 14:35) And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

(Mar 14:36) And he said, Abba, Father, all things possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

(Mar 14:37) And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

(Mar 14:38) Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly ready, but the flesh weak.

(Mar 14:39) And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

(Mar 14:40) And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

(Mar 14:41) And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

(Mar 14:42) Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

(Mar 14:43) And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

(Mar 14:44) And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead away safely.

(Mar 14:45) And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

(Mar 14:46) And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

(Mar 14:47) And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

(Mar 14:48) And YAHshua answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves to take me?

(Mar 14:49) I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

(Mar 14:50) And they all forsook him, and fled.

(Mar 14:51) And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about naked; and the young men laid hold on him:

(Mar 14:52) And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

(Mar 14:53) And they led YAHshua away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

(Mar 14:54) And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

(Mar 14:55) And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against YAHshua to put him to death; and found none.

(Mar 14:56) For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

(Mar 14:57) And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

(Mar 14:58) We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

(Mar 14:59) But neither so did their witness agree together.

(Mar 14:60) And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked YAHshua, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what these witness against thee?

(Mar 14:61) But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

(Mar 14:62) And YAHshua said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

(Mar 14:63) Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

(Mar 14:64) Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

(Mar 14:65) And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

(Mar 14:66) And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

(Mar 14:67) And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with YAHshua of Nazareth.

(Mar 14:68) But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

(Mar 14:69) And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is of them.

(Mar 14:70) And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art of them: for thou art a Galilaean, and thy speech agreeth.

(Mar 14:71) But he began to curse and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

(Mar 14:72) And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that YAHshua said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

(Mar 15:1) And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound YAHshua, and carried away, and delivered to Pilate.

(Mar 15:2) And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest.

(Mar 15:3) And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

(Mar 15:4) And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

(Mar 15:5) But YAHshua yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

(Mar 15:6) Now at feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

(Mar 15:7) And there was named Barabbas, bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

(Mar 15:8) And the multitude crying aloud began to desire as he had ever done unto them.

(Mar 15:9) But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

(Mar 15:10) For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

(Mar 15:11) But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

(Mar 15:12) And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do whom ye call the King of the Jews?

(Mar 15:13) And they cried out again, Crucify him.

(Mar 15:14) Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

(Mar 15:15) And Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered YAHshua, when he had scourged, to be crucified.

(Mar 15:16) And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole band.

(Mar 15:17) And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his,

(Mar 15:18) And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

(Mar 15:19) And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing knees worshipped him.

(Mar 15:20) And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

(Mar 15:21) And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

(Mar 15:22) And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

(Mar 15:23) And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received not.

(Mar 15:24) And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

(Mar 15:25) And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

(Mar 15:26) And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

(Mar 15:27) And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

(Mar 15:28) And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

(Mar 15:29) And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest in three days, (Mar 15:30) Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

(Mar 15:31) Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

(Mar 15:32) Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

(Mar 15:33) And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

(Mar 15:34) And at the ninth hour YAHshua cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My Elohim, my Elohim, why hast thou forsaken me?

(Mar 15:35) And some of them that stood by, when they heard, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

(Mar 15:36) And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

(Mar 15:37) And YAHshua cried with a loud voice, and gave up the Spirit.

(Mar 15:38) And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

(Mar 15:39) And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the Spirit, he said, Truly this man was the Son of Elohim.

(Mar 15:40) There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;

(Mar 15:41) (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

(Mar 15:42) And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath,

(Mar 15:43) Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of Elohim, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of YAHshua.

(Mar 15:44) And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

(Mar 15:45) And when he knew of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

(Mar 15:46) And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

(Mar 15:47) And Mary Magdalene and Mary of Joses beheld where he was laid.

(Mar 16:1) And when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

(Mar 16:2) And very early in the morning the first of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

(Mar 16:3) And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

(Mar 16:4) And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

(Mar 16:5) And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

(Mar 16:6) And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek YAHshua of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

(Mar 16:7) But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

(Mar 16:8) And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any; for they were afraid.

(Mar 16:9) Now when was risen early the first of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

(Mar 16:10) She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

(Mar 16:11) And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

(Mar 16:12) After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

(Mar 16:13) And they went and told unto the residue: neither believed they them.

(Mar 16:14) Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

(Mar 16:15) And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

(Mar 16:16) He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

(Mar 16:17) And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

(Mar 16:18) They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

(Mar 16:19) So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of Elohim.

(Mar 16:20) And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

Luke.

(Luk 1:1) Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

(Luk 1:2) Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

(Luk 1:3) It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus, (Luk 1:4) That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

(Luk 1:5) There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name Elisabeth.

(Luk 1:6) And they were both righteous before Elohim, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of YHVH blameless.

(Luk 1:7) And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were well stricken in years.

(Luk 1:8) And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before Elohim in the order of his course, (Luk 1:9) According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

(Luk 1:10) And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

(Luk 1:11) And there appeared unto him an angel of YHVH standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

(Luk 1:12) And when Zacharias saw, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

(Luk 1:13) But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

(Luk 1:14) And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

(Luk 1:15) For he shall be great in the sight of YHVH, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb.

(Luk 1:16) And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to YHVH their Elohim.

(Luk 1:17) And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for YHVH.

(Luk 1:18) And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

(Luk 1:19) And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of Elohim; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

(Luk 1:20) And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

(Luk 1:21) And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

(Luk 1:22) And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

(Luk 1:23) And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

(Luk 1:24) And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, (Luk 1:25) Thus hath YHVH dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on, to take away my reproach among men.

(Luk 1:26) And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from Elohim unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, (Luk 1:27) To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name Mary.

(Luk 1:28) And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, highly favoured, YHVH with thee: blessed thou among women.

(Luk 1:29) And when she saw, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

(Luk 1:30) And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with Elohim.

(Luk 1:31) And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name YAHshua.

(Luk 1:32) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and YHVH Elohim shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

(Luk 1:33) And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

(Luk 1:34) Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

(Luk 1:35) And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of Elohim.

(Luk 1:36) And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

(Luk 1:37) For with Elohim nothing shall be impossible.

(Luk 1:38) And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of YHVH; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

(Luk 1:39) And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda; (Luk 1:40) And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

(Luk 1:41) And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit:

(Luk 1:42) And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed thou among women, and blessed the fruit of thy womb.

(Luk 1:43) And whence this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

(Luk 1:44) For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

(Luk 1:45) And blessed she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from YHVH.

(Luk 1:46) And Mary said, My soul doth magnify YHVH, (Luk 1:47) And my spirit hath rejoiced in Elohim my Saviour.

(Luk 1:48) For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

(Luk 1:49) For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and Holy His Name.

(Luk 1:50) And his mercy on them that fear him from generation to generation.

(Luk 1:51) He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

(Luk 1:52) He hath put down the mighty from seats, and exalted them of low degree.

(Luk 1:53) He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

(Luk 1:54) He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of mercy;

(Luk 1:55) As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

(Luk 1:56) And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

(Luk 1:57) Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

(Luk 1:58) And her neighbours and her cousins heard how YHVH had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

(Luk 1:59) And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

(Luk 1:60) And his mother answered and said, Not; but he shall be called John.

(Luk 1:61) And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

(Luk 1:62) And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

(Luk 1:63) And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

(Luk 1:64) And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue, and he spake, and praised Elohim.

(Luk 1:65) And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea.

(Luk 1:66) And all they that heard laid up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of YHVH was with him.

(Luk 1:67) And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,

(Luk 1:68) Blessed YHVH Elohim of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

(Luk 1:69) And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

(Luk 1:70) As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

(Luk 1:71) That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

(Luk 1:72) To perform the mercy to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

(Luk 1:73) The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

(Luk 1:74) That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, (Luk 1:75) In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

(Luk 1:76) And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of YHVH to prepare his ways;

(Luk 1:77) To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,

(Luk 1:78) Through the tender mercy of our Elohim; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, (Luk 1:79) To give light to them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

(Luk 1:80) And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

(Luk 2:1) And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

(Luk 2:2) (This taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

(Luk 2:3) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

(Luk 2:4) And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

(Luk 2:5) To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

(Luk 2:6) And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

(Luk 2:7) And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

(Luk 2:8) And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

(Luk 2:9) And, lo, the angel of YHVH came upon them, and the glory of YHVH shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

(Luk 2:10) And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

(Luk 2:11) For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

(Luk 2:12) And this a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

(Luk 2:13) And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising Elohim, and saying, (Luk 2:14) Glory to Elohim in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

(Luk 2:15) And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which YHVH hath made known unto us.

(Luk 2:16) And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

(Luk 2:17) And when they had seen, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

(Luk 2:18) And all they that heard wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

(Luk 2:19) But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

(Luk 2:20) And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising Elohim for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

(Luk 2:21) And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called YAHshua, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

(Luk 2:22) And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present to YHVH;

(Luk 2:23) (As it is written in the law of YHVH, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to YHVH;)

(Luk 2:24) And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of YHVH, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

(Luk 2:25) And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name Simeon; and the same man just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

(Luk 2:26) And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen YHVH's Christ.

(Luk 2:27) And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child YAHshua, to do for him after the custom of the law,

(Luk 2:28) Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed Elohim, and said,

(Luk 2:29) YHVH, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

(Luk 2:30) For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

(Luk 2:31) Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

(Luk 2:32) A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

(Luk 2:33) And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

(Luk 2:34) And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;

(Luk 2:35) (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

(Luk 2:36) And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

(Luk 2:37) And she a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served with fastings and prayers night and day.

(Luk 2:38) And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

(Luk 2:39) And when they had performed all things according to the law of YHVH, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

(Luk 2:40) And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of Elohim was upon him.

(Luk 2:41) Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.

(Luk 2:42) And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

(Luk 2:43) And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child YAHshua tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not.

(Luk 2:44) But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

(Luk 2:45) And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

(Luk 2:46) And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

(Luk 2:47) And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

(Luk 2:48) And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

(Luk 2:49) And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

(Luk 2:50) And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

(Luk 2:51) And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

(Luk 2:52) And YAHshua increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with Elohim and man.

(Luk 3:1) Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judaea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene, (Luk 3:2) Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of Elohim came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

(Luk 3:3) And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;

(Luk 3:4) As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of YHVH, make his paths straight.

(Luk 3:5) Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth;

(Luk 3:6) And all flesh shall see the salvation of Elohim.

(Luk 3:7) Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

(Luk 3:8) Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to father: for I say unto you, That Elohim is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

(Luk 3:9) And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

(Luk 3:10) And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

(Luk 3:11) He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

(Luk 3:12) Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

(Luk 3:13) And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

(Luk 3:14) And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse falsely; and be content with your wages.

(Luk 3:15) And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;

(Luk 3:16) John answered, saying unto all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire:

(Luk 3:17) Whose fan in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

(Luk 3:18) And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

(Luk 3:19) But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, (Luk 3:20) Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

(Luk 3:21) Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that YAHshua also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,
(Luk 3:22) And the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.
(Luk 3:23) And YAHshua himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, which was of Heli,
(Luk 3:24) Which was of Matthat, which was of Levi, which was of Melchi, which was of Janna, which was of Joseph,
(Luk 3:25) Which was of Mattathias, which was of Amos, which was of Naum, which was of Esli, which was of Nagge,
(Luk 3:26) Which was of Maath, which was of Mattathias, which was of Semei, which was of Joseph, which was of Juda,
(Luk 3:27) Which was of Joanna, which was of Rhesa, which was of Zorobabel, which was of Salathiel, which was of Neri,
(Luk 3:28) Which was of Melchi, which was of Addi, which was of Cosam, which was of Elmodam, which was of Er,
(Luk 3:29) Which was of Jose, which was of Eliezer, which was of Jorim, which was of Matthat, which was of Levi,
(Luk 3:30) Which was of Simeon, which was of Juda, which was of Joseph, which was of Jonan, which was of Eliakim,
(Luk 3:31) Which was of Melea, which was of Menan, which was of Mattatha, which was of Nathan, which was of David,
(Luk 3:32) Which was of Jesse, which was of Obed, which was of Booz, which was of Salmon, which was of Naasson,
(Luk 3:33) Which was of Aminadab, which was of Aram, which was of Esrom, which was of Phares, which was of Juda,
(Luk 3:34) Which was of Jacob, which was of Isaac, which was of Abraham, which was of Thara, which was of Nachor,
(Luk 3:35) Which was of Saruch, which was of Ragau, which was of Phalec, which was of Heber, which was of Sala,
(Luk 3:36) Which was of Cainan, which was of Arphaxad, which was of Sem, which was of Noe, which was of Lamech,
(Luk 3:37) Which was of Mathusala, which was of Enoch, which was of Jared, which was of Maleleel, which was of Cainan, (Luk 3:38) Which was of Enos, which was of Seth, which was of Adam, which was of Elohim.
(Luk 4:1) And YAHshua being full of the Holy Spirit returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,
(Luk 4:2) Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.
(Luk 4:3) And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of Elohim, command this stone that it be made bread.

(Luk 4:4) And YAHshua answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of Elohim.

(Luk 4:5) And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

(Luk 4:6) And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

(Luk 4:7) If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

(Luk 4:8) And YAHshua answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship YHVH thy Elohim, and Him only shalt thou serve.

(Luk 4:9) And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of Elohim, cast thyself down from hence:

(Luk 4:10) For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

(Luk 4:11) And in hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

(Luk 4:12) And YAHshua answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt YHVH thy Elohim.

(Luk 4:13) And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

(Luk 4:14) And YAHshua returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

(Luk 4:15) And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

(Luk 4:16) And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

(Luk 4:17) And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

(Luk 4:18) The Spirit of YHVH upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, (Luk 4:19) To preach the acceptable year of YHVH.

(Luk 4:20) And he closed the book, and he gave again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

(Luk 4:21) And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

(Luk 4:22) And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

(Luk 4:23) And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

(Luk 4:24) And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

(Luk 4:25) But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

(Luk 4:26) But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, of Sidon, unto a woman a widow.

(Luk 4:27) And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

(Luk 4:28) And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, (Luk 4:29) And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

(Luk 4:30) But he passing through the midst of them went his way, (Luk 4:31) And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the Sabbath days.

(Luk 4:32) And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

(Luk 4:33) And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, (Luk 4:34) Saying, Let alone; what have we to do with thee, YAHshua of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of Elohim.

(Luk 4:35) And YAHshua rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

(Luk 4:36) And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

(Luk 4:37) And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

(Luk 4:38) And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

(Luk 4:39) And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

(Luk 4:40) Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

(Luk 4:41) And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of Elohim. And he rebuking suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

(Luk 4:42) And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

(Luk 4:43) And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of Elohim to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

(Luk 4:44) And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

(Luk 5:1) And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of Elohim, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret, (Luk 5:2) And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing nets.

(Luk 5:3) And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

(Luk 5:4) Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

(Luk 5:5) And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

(Luk 5:6) And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

(Luk 5:7) And they beckoned unto partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

(Luk 5:8) When Simon Peter saw, he fell down at YAHshua' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

(Luk 5:9) For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

(Luk 5:10) And so also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And YAHshua said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

(Luk 5:11) And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

(Luk 5:12) And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing YAHshua fell on face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

(Luk 5:13) And he put forth hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

(Luk 5:14) And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

(Luk 5:15) But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

(Luk 5:16) And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

(Luk 5:17) And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of YHVH was to heal them.

(Luk 5:18) And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought to bring him in, and to lay before him.

(Luk 5:19) And when they could not find by what they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with couch into the midst before YAHshua.

(Luk 5:20) And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

(Luk 5:21) And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but Elohim alone?

(Luk 5:22) But when YAHshua perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

(Luk 5:23) Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

(Luk 5:24) But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

(Luk 5:25) And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying Elohim.

(Luk 5:26) And they were all amazed, and they glorified Elohim, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

(Luk 5:27) And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

(Luk 5:28) And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

(Luk 5:29) And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

(Luk 5:30) But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

(Luk 5:31) And YAHshua answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

(Luk 5:32) I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

(Luk 5:33) And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

(Luk 5:34) And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

(Luk 5:35) But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

(Luk 5:36) And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was out of the new agreeth not with the old.

(Luk 5:37) And no man putteth new wine into old skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and be spilled, and the skins shall perish.

(Luk 5:38) But new wine must be put into new skins; and both are preserved.

(Luk 5:39) No man also having drunk old straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

(Luk 6:1) And it came to pass on the second Sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing in hands.

(Luk 6:2) And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath days?

(Luk 6:3) And YAHshua answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

(Luk 6:4) How he went into the house of Elohim, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

(Luk 6:5) And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

(Luk 6:6) And it came to pass also on another Sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

(Luk 6:7) And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the Sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

(Luk 6:8) But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

(Luk 6:9) Then said YAHshua unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the Sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy?

(Luk 6:10) And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

(Luk 6:11) And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to YAHshua.

(Luk 6:12) And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to Elohim.

(Luk 6:13) And when it was day, he called his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

(Luk 6:14) Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

(Luk 6:15) Matthew and Thomas, James the of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, (Luk 6:16) And Judas of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

(Luk 6:17) And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

(Luk 6:18) And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

(Luk 6:19) And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed all.

(Luk 6:20) And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed poor: for yours is the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 6:21) Blessed that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

(Luk 6:22) Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you, and shall reproach, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

(Luk 6:23) Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

(Luk 6:24) But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

(Luk 6:25) Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

(Luk 6:26) Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

(Luk 6:27) But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, (Luk 6:28) Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

(Luk 6:29) And unto him that smiteth thee on the cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not coat also.

(Luk 6:30) Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask not again.

(Luk 6:31) And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

(Luk 6:32) For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

(Luk 6:33) And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

(Luk 6:34) And if ye lend of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

(Luk 6:35) But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and the evil.

(Luk 6:36) Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

(Luk 6:37) Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

(Luk 6:38) Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

(Luk 6:39) And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

(Luk 6:40) The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.

(Luk 6:41) And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

(Luk 6:42) Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

(Luk 6:43) For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

(Luk 6:44) For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

(Luk 6:45) A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

(Luk 6:46) And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

(Luk 6:47) Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

(Luk 6:48) He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

(Luk 6:49) But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

(Luk 7:1) Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

(Luk 7:2) And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

(Luk 7:3) And when he heard of YAHshua, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

(Luk 7:4) And when they came to YAHshua, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

(Luk 7:5) For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

(Luk 7:6) Then YAHshua went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof:

(Luk 7:7) Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

(Luk 7:8) For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth.

(Luk 7:9) When YAHshua heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

(Luk 7:10) And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

(Luk 7:11) And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

(Luk 7:12) Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

(Luk 7:13) And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

(Luk 7:14) And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

(Luk 7:15) And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

(Luk 7:16) And there came a fear on all: and they glorified Elohim, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That Elohim hath visited his people.

(Luk 7:17) And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about.

(Luk 7:18) And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

(Luk 7:19) And John calling two of his disciples sent to YAHshua, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

(Luk 7:20) When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

(Luk 7:21) And in that same hour he cured many of infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto man blind he gave sight.

(Luk 7:22) Then YAHshua answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

(Luk 7:23) And blessed is, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

(Luk 7:24) And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

(Luk 7:25) But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

(Luk 7:26) But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

(Luk 7:27) This is, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

(Luk 7:28) For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of Elohim is greater than he.

(Luk 7:29) And all the people that heard, and the publicans, justified Elohim, being baptized with the baptism of John.

(Luk 7:30) But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of Elohim against themselves, being not baptized of him.

(Luk 7:31) And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

(Luk 7:32) They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

(Luk 7:33) For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

(Luk 7:34) The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

(Luk 7:35) But wisdom is justified of all her children.

(Luk 7:36) And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

(Luk 7:37) And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, (Luk 7:38) And stood at his feet behind weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed with the ointment.

(Luk 7:39) Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

(Luk 7:40) And YAHshua answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

(Luk 7:41) There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

(Luk 7:42) And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

(Luk 7:43) Simon answered and said, I suppose that, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

(Luk 7:44) And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped with the hairs of her head.

(Luk 7:45) Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

(Luk 7:46) My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

(Luk 7:47) Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, loveth little.

(Luk 7:48) And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

(Luk 7:49) And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

(Luk 7:50) And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

(Luk 8:1) And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of Elohim: and the twelve with him,

(Luk 8:2) And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils, (Luk 8:3) And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

(Luk 8:4) And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

(Luk 8:5) A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

(Luk 8:6) And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

(Luk 8:7) And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

(Luk 8:8) And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(Luk 8:9) And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

(Luk 8:10) And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of Elohim: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

(Luk 8:11) Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of Elohim.

(Luk 8:12) Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

(Luk 8:13) They on the rock, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

(Luk 8:14) And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

(Luk 8:15) But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

(Luk 8:16) No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth under a bed; but setteth on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

(Luk 8:17) For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

(Luk 8:18) Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

(Luk 8:19) Then came to him mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

(Luk 8:20) And it was told him which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

(Luk 8:21) And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of Elohim, and do it.

(Luk 8:22) Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

(Luk 8:23) But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

(Luk 8:24) And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

(Luk 8:25) And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

(Luk 8:26) And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

(Luk 8:27) And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the tombs.

(Luk 8:28) When he saw YAHshua, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, YAHshua, thou Son of Elohim most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

(Luk 8:29) (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

(Luk 8:30) And YAHshua asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

(Luk 8:31) And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

(Luk 8:32) And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

(Luk 8:33) Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

(Luk 8:34) When they that fed saw what was done, they fled, and went and told in the city and in the country.

(Luk 8:35) Then they went out to see what was done; and came to YAHshua, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of YAHshua, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

(Luk 8:36) They also which saw told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

(Luk 8:37) Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

(Luk 8:38) Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but YAHshua sent him away, saying, (Luk 8:39) Return to thine own house, and shew how great things Elohim hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things YAHshua had done unto him.

(Luk 8:40) And it came to pass, that, when YAHshua was returned, the people received him: for they were all waiting for him.

(Luk 8:41) And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at YAHshua' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

(Luk 8:42) For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

(Luk 8:43) And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

(Luk 8:44) Came behind, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanchèd.

(Luk 8:45) And YAHshua said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

(Luk 8:46) And YAHshua said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

(Luk 8:47) And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

(Luk 8:48) And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

(Luk 8:49) While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

(Luk 8:50) But when YAHshua heard, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

(Luk 8:51) And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

(Luk 8:52) And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

(Luk 8:53) And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

(Luk 8:54) And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

(Luk 8:55) And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

(Luk 8:56) And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

(Luk 9:1) Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

(Luk 9:2) And he sent them to preach the kingdom of Elohim, and to heal the sick.

(Luk 9:3) And he said unto them, Take nothing for journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

(Luk 9:4) And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

(Luk 9:5) And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

(Luk 9:6) And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

(Luk 9:7) Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

(Luk 9:8) And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

(Luk 9:9) And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

(Luk 9:10) And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

(Luk 9:11) And the people, when they knew, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of Elohim, and healed them that had need of healing.

(Luk 9:12) And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

(Luk 9:13) But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

(Luk 9:14) For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

(Luk 9:15) And they did so, and made them all sit down.

(Luk 9:16) Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

(Luk 9:17) And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

(Luk 9:18) And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

(Luk 9:19) They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

(Luk 9:20) He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of Elohim.

(Luk 9:21) And he straitly charged them, and commanded to tell no man that thing;

(Luk 9:22) Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

(Luk 9:23) And he said to all, If any will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

(Luk 9:24) For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

(Luk 9:25) For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

(Luk 9:26) For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and Father's, and of the holy angels.

(Luk 9:27) But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 9:28) And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

(Luk 9:29) And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment white glistering.

(Luk 9:30) And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

(Luk 9:31) Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

(Luk 9:32) But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

(Luk 9:33) And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto YAHshua, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

(Luk 9:34) While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

(Luk 9:35) And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

(Luk 9:36) And when the voice was past, YAHshua was found alone. And they kept close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

(Luk 9:37) And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

(Luk 9:38) And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

(Luk 9:39) And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

(Luk 9:40) And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

(Luk 9:41) And YAHshua answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

(Luk 9:42) And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare. And YAHshua rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

(Luk 9:43) And they were all amazed at the mighty power of Elohim. But while they wondered every one at all things which YAHshua did, he said unto his disciples, (Luk 9:44) Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

(Luk 9:45) But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

(Luk 9:46) Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

(Luk 9:47) And YAHshua, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, (Luk 9:48) And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

(Luk 9:49) And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

(Luk 9:50) And YAHshua said unto him, Forbid not: for he that is not against us is for us.

(Luk 9:51) And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, (Luk 9:52) And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

(Luk 9:53) And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

(Luk 9:54) And when his disciples James and John saw, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

(Luk 9:55) But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

(Luk 9:56) For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save. And they went to another village.

(Luk 9:57) And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

(Luk 9:58) And YAHshua said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay head.

(Luk 9:59) And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

(Luk 9:60) YAHshua said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 9:61) And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

(Luk 9:62) And YAHshua said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 10:1) After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

(Luk 10:2) Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly great, but the labourers few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

(Luk 10:3) Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

(Luk 10:4) Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

(Luk 10:5) And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

(Luk 10:6) And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

(Luk 10:7) And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

(Luk 10:8) And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

(Luk 10:9) And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of Elohim is come nigh unto you.

(Luk 10:10) But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

(Luk 10:11) Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of Elohim is come nigh unto you.

(Luk 10:12) But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

(Luk 10:13) Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

(Luk 10:14) But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

(Luk 10:15) And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

(Luk 10:16) He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

(Luk 10:17) And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

(Luk 10:18) And he said unto them, I beheld satan as lightning fall from heaven.

(Luk 10:19) Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

(Luk 10:20) Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

(Luk 10:21) In that hour YAHshua rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

(Luk 10:22) All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and to whom the Son will reveal.

(Luk 10:23) And he turned him unto disciples, and said privately, Blessed the eyes which see the things that ye see:

(Luk 10:24) For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard.

(Luk 10:25) And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

(Luk 10:26) He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

(Luk 10:27) And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy Elohim with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

(Luk 10:28) And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

(Luk 10:29) But he, willing to justify himself, said unto YAHshua, And who is my neighbour?

(Luk 10:30) And YAHshua answering said, A certain went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded, and departed, leaving half dead.

(Luk 10:31) And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

(Luk 10:32) And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side.

(Luk 10:33) But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion, (Luk 10:34) And went to, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

(Luk 10:35) And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

(Luk 10:36) Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

(Luk 10:37) And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said YAHshua unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

(Luk 10:38) Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.

(Luk 10:39) And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at YAHshua' feet, and heard his word.

(Luk 10:40) But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

(Luk 10:41) And YAHshua answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

(Luk 10:42) But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

(Luk 11:1) And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

(Luk 11:2) And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

(Luk 11:3) Give us day by day our daily bread.

(Luk 11:4) And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

(Luk 11:5) And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

(Luk 11:6) For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

(Luk 11:7) And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

(Luk 11:8) I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

(Luk 11:9) And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

(Luk 11:10) For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

(Luk 11:11) If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

(Luk 11:12) Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

(Luk 11:13) If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

(Luk 11:14) And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

(Luk 11:15) But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

(Luk 11:16) And others, tempting, sought of him a sign from heaven.

(Luk 11:17) But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house against a house falleth.

(Luk 11:18) If satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

(Luk 11:19) And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast out? therefore shall they be your judges.

(Luk 11:20) But if I with the finger of Elohim cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of Elohim is come upon you.

(Luk 11:21) When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

(Luk 11:22) But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

(Luk 11:23) He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

(Luk 11:24) When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

(Luk 11:25) And when he cometh, he findeth swept and garnished.

(Luk 11:26) Then goeth he, and taketh seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last of that man is worse than the first.

(Luk 11:27) And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

(Luk 11:28) But he said, Yea rather, blessed they that hear the word of Elohim, and keep it.

(Luk 11:29) And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

(Luk 11:30) For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

(Luk 11:31) The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon here.

(Luk 11:32) The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas here.

(Luk 11:33) No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

(Luk 11:34) The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also full of darkness.

(Luk 11:35) Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

(Luk 11:36) If thy whole body therefore full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

(Luk 11:37) And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

(Luk 11:38) And when the Pharisee saw, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

(Luk 11:39) And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

(Luk 11:40) Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

(Luk 11:41) But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

(Luk 11:42) But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of Elohim: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

(Luk 11:43) Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

(Luk 11:44) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over are not aware.

(Luk 11:45) Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

(Luk 11:46) And he said, Woe unto you also, lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

(Luk 11:47) Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

(Luk 11:48) Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

(Luk 11:49) Therefore also said the wisdom of Elohim, I will send them prophets and apostles, and of them they shall slay and persecute:

(Luk 11:50) That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

(Luk 11:51) From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

(Luk 11:52) Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

(Luk 11:53) And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

(Luk 11:54) Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

(Luk 12:1) In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

(Luk 12:2) For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

(Luk 12:3) Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

(Luk 12:4) And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

(Luk 12:5) But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

(Luk 12:6) Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before Elohim?

(Luk 12:7) But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

(Luk 12:8) Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of Elohim:

(Luk 12:9) But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of Elohim.

(Luk 12:10) And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven.

(Luk 12:11) And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

(Luk 12:12) For the Holy Spirit shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

(Luk 12:13) And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

(Luk 12:14) And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

(Luk 12:15) And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

(Luk 12:16) And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

(Luk 12:17) And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

(Luk 12:18) And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

(Luk 12:19) And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry.

(Luk 12:20) But Elohim said unto him, fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

(Luk 12:21) So he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward Elohim.

(Luk 12:22) And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

(Luk 12:23) The life is more than meat, and the body than raiment.

(Luk 12:24) Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and Elohim feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

(Luk 12:25) And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

(Luk 12:26) If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

(Luk 12:27) Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

(Luk 12:28) If then Elohim so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more you, O ye of little faith?

(Luk 12:29) And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

(Luk 12:30) For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

(Luk 12:31) But rather seek ye the kingdom of Elohim; and all these things shall be added unto you.

(Luk 12:32) Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

(Luk 12:33) Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

(Luk 12:34) For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

(Luk 12:35) Let your loins be girded about, and lights burning;

(Luk 12:36) And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

(Luk 12:37) Blessed those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

(Luk 12:38) And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find so, blessed are those servants.

(Luk 12:39) And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

(Luk 12:40) Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

(Luk 12:41) Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

(Luk 12:42) And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom lord shall make ruler over his household, to give portion of meat in due season?

(Luk 12:43) Blessed that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

(Luk 12:44) Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

(Luk 12:45) But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

(Luk 12:46) The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

(Luk 12:47) And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many.

(Luk 12:48) But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

(Luk 12:49) I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?

(Luk 12:50) But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!

(Luk 12:51) Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

(Luk 12:52) For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

(Luk 12:53) The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

(Luk 12:54) And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

(Luk 12:55) And when the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.

(Luk 12:56) Hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

(Luk 12:57) Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

(Luk 12:58) When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

(Luk 12:59) I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

(Luk 13:1) There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

(Luk 13:2) And YAHshua answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?

(Luk 13:3) I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

(Luk 13:4) Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

(Luk 13:5) I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

(Luk 13:6) He spake also this parable; A certain had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

(Luk 13:7) Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

(Luk 13:8) And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung:

(Luk 13:9) And if it bear fruit, and if not, after that thou shalt cut it down.

(Luk 13:10) And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

(Luk 13:11) And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up.

(Luk 13:12) And when YAHshua saw her, he called, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

(Luk 13:13) And he laid hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified Elohim.

(Luk 13:14) And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that YAHshua had healed on the Sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

(Luk 13:15) The Lord then answered him, and said, hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or ass from the stall, and lead away to watering?

(Luk 13:16) And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

(Luk 13:17) And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

(Luk 13:18) Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of Elohim like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

(Luk 13:19) It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

(Luk 13:20) And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of Elohim?

(Luk 13:21) It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

(Luk 13:22) And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

(Luk 13:23) Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, (Luk 13:24) Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

(Luk 13:25) When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

(Luk 13:26) Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

(Luk 13:27) But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all workers of iniquity.

(Luk 13:28) There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of Elohim, and you thrust out.

(Luk 13:29) And they shall come from the east, and the west, and from the north, and the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 13:30) And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

(Luk 13:31) The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

(Luk 13:32) And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third I shall be perfected.

(Luk 13:33) Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

(Luk 13:34) O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen her brood under wings, and ye would not!

(Luk 13:35) Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until come when ye shall say, Blessed he that cometh in the name of YHVH.

(Luk 14:1) And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath day, that they watched him.

(Luk 14:2) And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

(Luk 14:3) And YAHshua answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?

(Luk 14:4) And they held their peace. And he took, and healed him, and let him go;

(Luk 14:5) And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

(Luk 14:6) And they could not answer him again to these things.

(Luk 14:7) And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

(Luk 14:8) When thou art bidden of any to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

(Luk 14:9) And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

(Luk 14:10) But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

(Luk 14:11) For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

(Luk 14:12) Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

(Luk 14:13) But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

(Luk 14:14) And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

(Luk 14:15) And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 14:16) Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

(Luk 14:17) And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

(Luk 14:18) And they all with one began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

(Luk 14:19) And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

(Luk 14:20) And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

(Luk 14:21) So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

(Luk 14:22) And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

(Luk 14:23) And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel to come in, that my house may be filled.

(Luk 14:24) For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

(Luk 14:25) And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, (Luk 14:26) If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

(Luk 14:27) And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

(Luk 14:28) For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have to finish?

(Luk 14:29) Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, (Luk 14:30) Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

(Luk 14:31) Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

(Luk 14:32) Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

(Luk 14:33) So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

(Luk 14:34) Salt good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

(Luk 14:35) It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(Luk 15:1) Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

(Luk 15:2) And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

(Luk 15:3) And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

(Luk 15:4) What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

(Luk 15:5) And when he hath found, he layeth on his shoulders, rejoicing.

(Luk 15:6) And when he cometh home, he calleth together friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

(Luk 15:7) I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

(Luk 15:8) Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find?

(Luk 15:9) And when she hath found, she calleth friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

(Luk 15:10) Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of Elohim over one sinner that repenteth.

(Luk 15:11) And he said, A certain man had two sons:

(Luk 15:12) And the younger of them said to father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth. And he divided unto them living.

(Luk 15:13) And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

(Luk 15:14) And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

(Luk 15:15) And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

(Luk 15:16) And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

(Luk 15:17) And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

(Luk 15:18) I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, (Luk 15:19) And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

(Luk 15:20) And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

(Luk 15:21) And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

(Luk 15:22) But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on feet:

(Luk 15:23) And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill; and let us eat, and be merry:

(Luk 15:24) For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

(Luk 15:25) Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

(Luk 15:26) And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

(Luk 15:27) And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

(Luk 15:28) And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

(Luk 15:29) And he answering said to father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

(Luk 15:30) But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

(Luk 15:31) And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

(Luk 15:32) It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

(Luk 16:1) And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

(Luk 16:2) And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

(Luk 16:3) Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

(Luk 16:4) I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

(Luk 16:5) So he called every one of his lord's debtors, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

(Luk 16:6) And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

(Luk 16:7) Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

(Luk 16:8) And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

(Luk 16:9) And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

(Luk 16:10) He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

(Luk 16:11) If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true?

(Luk 16:12) And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

(Luk 16:13) No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve Elohim and mammon.

(Luk 16:14) And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

(Luk 16:15) And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but Elohim knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of Elohim.

(Luk 16:16) The law and the prophets until John: since that time the kingdom of Elohim is preached, and every man presseth into it.

(Luk 16:17) And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

(Luk 16:18) Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from husband committeth adultery.

(Luk 16:19) There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

(Luk 16:20) And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, (Luk 16:21) And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

(Luk 16:22) And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

(Luk 16:23) And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

(Luk 16:24) And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

(Luk 16:25) But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

(Luk 16:26) And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that from thence.

(Luk 16:27) Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

(Luk 16:28) For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

(Luk 16:29) Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

(Luk 16:30) And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

(Luk 16:31) And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

(Luk 17:1) Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe, through whom they come!

(Luk 17:2) It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

(Luk 17:3) Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

(Luk 17:4) And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

(Luk 17:5) And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

(Luk 17:6) And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

(Luk 17:7) But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

(Luk 17:8) And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

(Luk 17:9) Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

(Luk 17:10) So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

(Luk 17:11) And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

(Luk 17:12) And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

(Luk 17:13) And they lifted up voices, and said, YAHshua, Master, have mercy on us.

(Luk 17:14) And when he saw, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

(Luk 17:15) And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified Elohim, (Luk 17:16) And fell down on face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

(Luk 17:17) And YAHshua answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where the nine?

(Luk 17:18) There are not found that returned to give glory to Elohim, save this stranger.

(Luk 17:19) And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

(Luk 17:20) And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of Elohim should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of Elohim cometh not with observation:

(Luk 17:21) Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of Elohim is within you.

(Luk 17:22) And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see.

(Luk 17:23) And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after, nor follow.

(Luk 17:24) For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

(Luk 17:25) But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

(Luk 17:26) And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

(Luk 17:27) They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

(Luk 17:28) Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

(Luk 17:29) But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed all.

(Luk 17:30) Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

(Luk 17:31) In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

(Luk 17:32) Remember Lot's wife.

(Luk 17:33) Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

(Luk 17:34) I tell you, in that night there shall be two in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

(Luk 17:35) Two shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

(Luk 17:36) Two shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

(Luk 17:37) And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

(Luk 18:1) And he spake a parable unto them, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

(Luk 18:2) Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not Elohim, neither regarded man:

(Luk 18:3) And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

(Luk 18:4) And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not Elohim, nor regard man;

(Luk 18:5) Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

(Luk 18:6) And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

(Luk 18:7) And shall not Elohim avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

(Luk 18:8) I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

(Luk 18:9) And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

(Luk 18:10) Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

(Luk 18:11) The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, Elohim, I thank thee, that I am not as other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

(Luk 18:12) I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

(Luk 18:13) And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, Elohim be merciful to me a sinner.

(Luk 18:14) I tell you, this man went down to his house justified than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

(Luk 18:15) And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when disciples saw, they rebuked them.

(Luk 18:16) But YAHshua called them, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 18:17) Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of Elohim as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

(Luk 18:18) And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

(Luk 18:19) And YAHshua said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none good, save one, Elohim.

(Luk 18:20) Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

(Luk 18:21) And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

(Luk 18:22) Now when YAHshua heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

(Luk 18:23) And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

(Luk 18:24) And when YAHshua saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of Elohim!

(Luk 18:25) For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 18:26) And they that heard said, Who then can be saved?

(Luk 18:27) And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with Elohim.

(Luk 18:28) Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

(Luk 18:29) And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of Elohim's sake, (Luk 18:30) Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

(Luk 18:31) Then he took the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

(Luk 18:32) For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

(Luk 18:33) And they shall scourge, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

(Luk 18:34) And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

(Luk 18:35) And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

(Luk 18:36) And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

(Luk 18:37) And they told him, that YAHshua of Nazareth passeth by.

(Luk 18:38) And he cried, saying, YAHshua, Son of David, have mercy on me.

(Luk 18:39) And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Son of David, have mercy on me.

(Luk 18:40) And YAHshua stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, (Luk 18:41) Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

(Luk 18:42) And YAHshua said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.

(Luk 18:43) And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying Elohim: and all the people, when they saw, gave praise unto Elohim.

(Luk 19:1) And entered and passed through Jericho.

(Luk 19:2) And, behold, a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

(Luk 19:3) And he sought to see YAHshua who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

(Luk 19:4) And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that.

(Luk 19:5) And when YAHshua came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

(Luk 19:6) And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

(Luk 19:7) And when they saw, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

(Luk 19:8) And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore fourfold.

(Luk 19:9) And YAHshua said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

(Luk 19:10) For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

(Luk 19:11) And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of Elohim should immediately appear.

(Luk 19:12) He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

(Luk 19:13) And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

(Luk 19:14) But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this to reign over us.

(Luk 19:15) And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

(Luk 19:16) Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

(Luk 19:17) And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

(Luk 19:18) And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

(Luk 19:19) And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

(Luk 19:20) And another came, saying, Lord, behold, thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

(Luk 19:21) For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

(Luk 19:22) And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

(Luk 19:23) Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

(Luk 19:24) And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give to him that hath ten pounds.

(Luk 19:25) (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

(Luk 19:26) For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

(Luk 19:27) But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay before me.

(Luk 19:28) And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

(Luk 19:29) And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, (Luk 19:30) Saying, Go ye into the village over against; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring.

(Luk 19:31) And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

(Luk 19:32) And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

(Luk 19:33) And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

(Luk 19:34) And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

(Luk 19:35) And they brought him to YAHshua: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set YAHshua thereon.

(Luk 19:36) And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

(Luk 19:37) And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise Elohim with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

(Luk 19:38) Saying, Blessed the King that cometh in the name of YHVH: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

(Luk 19:39) And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

(Luk 19:40) And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

(Luk 19:41) And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, (Luk 19:42) Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

(Luk 19:43) For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, (Luk 19:44) And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

(Luk 19:45) And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

(Luk 19:46) Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

(Luk 19:47) And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, (Luk 19:48) And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

(Luk 20:1) And it came to pass, on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon with the elders,

(Luk 20:2) And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

(Luk 20:3) And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

(Luk 20:4) The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

(Luk 20:5) And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

(Luk 20:6) But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

(Luk 20:7) And they answered, that they could not tell whence.

(Luk 20:8) And YAHshua said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

(Luk 20:9) Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

(Luk 20:10) And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent away empty.

(Luk 20:11) And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated shamefully, and sent away empty.

(Luk 20:12) And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast out.

(Luk 20:13) Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence when they see him.

(Luk 20:14) But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

(Luk 20:15) So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

(Luk 20:16) He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard, they said, Elohim forbid.

(Luk 20:17) And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

(Luk 20:18) Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

(Luk 20:19) And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

(Luk 20:20) And they watched, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

(Luk 20:21) And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person, but teachest the way of Elohim truly:

(Luk 20:22) Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no?

(Luk 20:23) But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

(Luk 20:24)

Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Caesar's.

(Luk 20:25) And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto Elohim the things which be Elohim's.

(Luk 20:26) And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

(Luk 20:27) Then came to certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him, (Luk 20:28) Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

(Luk 20:29) There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

(Luk 20:30) And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

(Luk 20:31) And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

(Luk 20:32) Last of all the woman died also.

(Luk 20:33) Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

(Luk 20:34) And YAHshua answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

(Luk 20:35) But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

(Luk 20:36) Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of Elohim, being the children of the resurrection.

(Luk 20:37) Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth YHVH the Elohim of Abraham, and the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob.

(Luk 20:38) For he is not a Elohim of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.

(Luk 20:39) Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

(Luk 20:40) And after that they durst not ask him any.

(Luk 20:41) And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son?

(Luk 20:42) And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, YHVH said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, (Luk 20:43) Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

(Luk 20:44) David therefore calleth him YHVH, how is he then his son?

(Luk 20:45) Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

(Luk 20:46) Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

(Luk 20:47) Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

(Luk 21:1) And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

(Luk 21:2) And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

(Luk 21:3) And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

(Luk 21:4) For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of Elohim: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

(Luk 21:5) And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, (Luk 21:6) These things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

(Luk 21:7) And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign when these things shall come to pass?

(Luk 21:8) And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

(Luk 21:9) But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

(Luk 21:10) Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

(Luk 21:11) And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

(Luk 21:12) But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute, delivering up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

(Luk 21:13) And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

(Luk 21:14) Settle therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

(Luk 21:15) For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

(Luk 21:16) And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and of you shall they cause to be put to death.

(Luk 21:17) And ye shall be hated of all for my Name's sake.

(Luk 21:18) But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

(Luk 21:19) In your patience possess ye your souls.

(Luk 21:20) And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

(Luk 21:21) Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

(Luk 21:22) For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

(Luk 21:23) But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

(Luk 21:24) And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

(Luk 21:25) And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

(Luk 21:26) Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

(Luk 21:27) And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

(Luk 21:28) And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

(Luk 21:29) And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

(Luk 21:30) When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

(Luk 21:31) So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of Elohim is nigh at hand.

(Luk 21:32) Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

(Luk 21:33) Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

(Luk 21:34) And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day come upon you unawares.

(Luk 21:35) For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

(Luk 21:36) Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

(Luk 21:37) And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called of Olives.

(Luk 21:38) And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

(Luk 22:1) Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

(Luk 22:2) And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

(Luk 22:3) Then entered satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

(Luk 22:4) And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

(Luk 22:5) And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

(Luk 22:6) And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

(Luk 22:7) Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

(Luk 22:8) And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

(Luk 22:9) And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

(Luk 22:10) And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

(Luk 22:11) And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

(Luk 22:12) And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

(Luk 22:13) And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

(Luk 22:14) And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

(Luk 22:15) And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

(Luk 22:16) For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 22:17) And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide among yourselves:

(Luk 22:18) For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of Elohim shall come.

(Luk 22:19) And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

(Luk 22:20) Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

(Luk 22:21) But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

(Luk 22:22) And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

(Luk 22:23) And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

(Luk 22:24) And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

(Luk 22:25) And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

(Luk 22:26) But ye not so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

(Luk 22:27) For whether greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

(Luk 22:28) Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations.

(Luk 22:29) And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

(Luk 22:30) That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

(Luk 22:31) And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, satan hath desired you, that he may sift as wheat:

(Luk 22:32) But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

(Luk 22:33) And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

(Luk 22:34) And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

(Luk 22:35) And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

(Luk 22:36) Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take, and likewise scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

(Luk 22:37) For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

(Luk 22:38) And they said, Lord, behold, here two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

(Luk 22:39) And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

(Luk 22:40) And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

(Luk 22:41) And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, (Luk 22:42) Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

(Luk 22:43) And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

(Luk 22:44) And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

(Luk 22:45) And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, (Luk 22:46) And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

(Luk 22:47) And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto YAHshua to kiss him.

(Luk 22:48) But YAHshua said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

(Luk 22:49) When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

(Luk 22:50) And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

(Luk 22:51) And YAHshua answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

(Luk 22:52) Then YAHshua said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

(Luk 22:53) When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

(Luk 22:54) Then took they him, and led, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

(Luk 22:55) And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

(Luk 22:56) But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

(Luk 22:57) And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

(Luk 22:58) And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

(Luk 22:59) And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this also was with him: for he is a Galilaean.

(Luk 22:60) And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

(Luk 22:61) And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

(Luk 22:62) And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

(Luk 22:63) And the men that held YAHshua mocked him, and smote.

(Luk 22:64) And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

(Luk 22:65) And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

(Luk 22:66) And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

(Luk 22:67) Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

(Luk 22:68) And if I also ask, ye will not answer me, nor let go.

(Luk 22:69) Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of Elohim.

(Luk 22:70) Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of Elohim? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

(Luk 22:71) And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

(Luk 23:1) And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

(Luk 23:2) And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

(Luk 23:3) And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest.

(Luk 23:4) Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

(Luk 23:5) And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

(Luk 23:6) When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean.

(Luk 23:7) And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

(Luk 23:8) And when Herod saw YAHshua, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

(Luk 23:9) Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

(Luk 23:10) And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

(Luk 23:11) And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

(Luk 23:12) And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together:

for before they were at enmity between themselves.

(Luk 23:13) And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

(Luk 23:14) Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

(Luk 23:15) No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

(Luk 23:16) I will therefore chastise him, and release.

(Luk 23:17) (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

(Luk 23:18) And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this, and release unto us Barabbas:

(Luk 23:19) (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

(Luk 23:20) Pilate therefore, willing to release YAHshua, spake again to them.

(Luk 23:21) But they cried, saying, Crucify, crucify him.

(Luk 23:22) And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let go.

(Luk 23:23) And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

(Luk 23:24) And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

(Luk 23:25) And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered YAHshua to their will.

(Luk 23:26) And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear after YAHshua.

(Luk 23:27) And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

(Luk 23:28) But YAHshua turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

(Luk 23:29) For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

(Luk 23:30) Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

(Luk 23:31) For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

(Luk 23:32) And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

(Luk 23:33) And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

(Luk 23:34) Then said YAHshua, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

(Luk 23:35) And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of Elohim.

(Luk 23:36) And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, (Luk 23:37) And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

(Luk 23:38) And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

(Luk 23:39) And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

(Luk 23:40) But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear Elohim, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

(Luk 23:41) And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

(Luk 23:42) And he said unto YAHshua, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

(Luk 23:43) And YAHshua said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

(Luk 23:44) And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

(Luk 23:45) And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

(Luk 23:46) And when YAHshua had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

(Luk 23:47) Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified Elohim, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

(Luk 23:48) And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

(Luk 23:49) And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

(Luk 23:50) And, behold, a man named Joseph, a counsellor; a good man, and a just:

(Luk 23:51) (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of Elohim.

(Luk 23:52) This went unto Pilate, and begged the body of YAHshua.

(Luk 23:53) And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

(Luk 23:54) And that day was the preparation, and the Sabbath drew on.

(Luk 23:55) And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

(Luk 23:56) And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the Sabbath day according to the commandment.

(Luk 24:1) Now upon the first of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain with them.

(Luk 24:2) And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

(Luk 24:3) And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord YAHshua.

(Luk 24:4) And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

(Luk 24:5) And as they were afraid, and bowed down faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

(Luk 24:6) He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, (Luk 24:7) Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

(Luk 24:8) And they remembered his words,

(Luk 24:9) And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

(Luk 24:10) It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary of James, and other with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

(Luk 24:11) And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

(Luk 24:12) Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

(Luk 24:13) And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem threescore furlongs.

(Luk 24:14) And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

(Luk 24:15) And it came to pass, that, while they communed and reasoned, YAHshua himself drew near, and went with them.

(Luk 24:16) But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

(Luk 24:17) And he said unto them, What manner of communications these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

(Luk 24:18) And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

(Luk 24:19) And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning YAHshua of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before Elohim and all the people:

(Luk 24:20) And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

(Luk 24:21) But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

(Luk 24:22) Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

(Luk 24:23) And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

(Luk 24:24) And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

(Luk 24:25) Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

(Luk 24:26) Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

(Luk 24:27) And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

(Luk 24:28) And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

(Luk 24:29) But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

(Luk 24:30) And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed, and brake, and gave to them.

(Luk 24:31) And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

(Luk 24:32) And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

(Luk 24:33) And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, (Luk 24:34) Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

(Luk 24:35) And they told what things in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

(Luk 24:36) And as they thus spake, YAHshua himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace unto you.

(Luk 24:37) But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

(Luk 24:38) And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

(Luk 24:39) Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

(Luk 24:40) And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

(Luk 24:41) And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

(Luk 24:42) And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

(Luk 24:43) And he took, and did eat before them.

(Luk 24:44) And he said unto them, These the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me.

(Luk 24:45) Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

(Luk 24:46) And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

(Luk 24:47) And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

(Luk 24:48) And ye are witnesses of these things.

(Luk 24:49) And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

(Luk 24:50) And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

(Luk 24:51) And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

(Luk 24:52) And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

(Luk 24:53) And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing Elohim. Amen.

John.

(Joh 1:1) In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with Elohim, and the Word was Elohim.

(Joh 1:2) The same was in the beginning with Elohim.

(Joh 1:3) All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

(Joh 1:4) In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

(Joh 1:5) And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

(Joh 1:6) There was a man sent from Elohim, whose name John.

(Joh 1:7) The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might believe.

(Joh 1:8) He was not that Light, but to bear witness of that Light.

(Joh 1:9) Was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

(Joh 1:10) He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

(Joh 1:11) He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

(Joh 1:12) But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of Elohim, to them that believe on His Name:

(Joh 1:13) Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of Elohim.

(Joh 1:14) And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

(Joh 1:15) John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

(Joh 1:16) And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

(Joh 1:17) For the law was given by Moses, grace and truth came by YAHshua Christ.

(Joh 1:18) No man hath seen Elohim at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared.

(Joh 1:19) And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

(Joh 1:20) And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

(Joh 1:21) And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

(Joh 1:22) Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

(Joh 1:23) He said, I the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

(Joh 1:24) And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

(Joh 1:25) And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

(Joh 1:26) John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

(Joh 1:27) He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

(Joh 1:28) These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

(Joh 1:29) The next day John seeth YAHshua coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of Elohim, which taketh away the sin of the world.

(Joh 1:30) This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

(Joh 1:31) And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

(Joh 1:32) And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

(Joh 1:33) And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Spirit.

(Joh 1:34) And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of Elohim.

(Joh 1:35) Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

(Joh 1:36) And looking upon YAHshua as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of Elohim!

(Joh 1:37) And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed YAHshua.

(Joh 1:38) Then YAHshua turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

(Joh 1:39) He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

(Joh 1:40) One of the two which heard John, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

(Joh 1:41) He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

(Joh 1:42) And he brought him to YAHshua. And when YAHshua beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

(Joh 1:43) The day following YAHshua would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

(Joh 1:44) Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

(Joh 1:45) Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, YAHshua of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

(Joh 1:46) And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

(Joh 1:47) YAHshua saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

(Joh 1:48) Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? YAHshua answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

(Joh 1:49) Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of Elohim; thou art the King of Israel.

(Joh 1:50) YAHshua answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

(Joh 1:51) And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of Elohim ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

(Joh 2:1) And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of YAHshua was there:

(Joh 2:2) And both YAHshua was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

(Joh 2:3) And when they wanted wine, the mother of YAHshua saith unto him, They have no wine.

(Joh 2:4) YAHshua saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

(Joh 2:5) His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do.

(Joh 2:6) And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

(Joh 2:7) YAHshua saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

(Joh 2:8) And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare.

(Joh 2:9) When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

(Joh 2:10) And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now.

(Joh 2:11) This beginning of miracles did YAHshua in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

(Joh 2:12) After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

(Joh 2:13) And the Jews' passover was at hand, and YAHshua went up to Jerusalem,

(Joh 2:14) And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

(Joh 2:15) And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

(Joh 2:16) And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

(Joh 2:17) And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

(Joh 2:18) Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

(Joh 2:19) YAHshua answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

(Joh 2:20) Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

(Joh 2:21) But he spake of the temple of his body.

(Joh 2:22) When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which YAHshua had said.

(Joh 2:23) Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast, many believed in His Name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

(Joh 2:24) But YAHshua did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all,

(Joh 2:25) And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

(Joh 3:1) There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

(Joh 3:2) The same came to YAHshua by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from Elohim: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except Elohim be with him.

(Joh 3:3) YAHshua answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of Elohim.

(Joh 3:4) Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

(Joh 3:5) YAHshua answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of Elohim.

(Joh 3:6) That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

(Joh 3:7) Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

(Joh 3:8) The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

(Joh 3:9) Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

(Joh 3:10) YAHshua answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

(Joh 3:11) Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

(Joh 3:12) If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you heavenly things?

(Joh 3:13) And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, the Son of man which is in heaven.

(Joh 3:14) And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

(Joh 3:15) That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

(Joh 3:16) For Elohim so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

(Joh 3:17) For Elohim sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

(Joh 3:18) He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the only begotten Son of Elohim.

(Joh 3:19) And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

(Joh 3:20) For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

(Joh 3:21) But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in Elohim.

(Joh 3:22) After these things came YAHshua and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

(Joh 3:23) And John also was baptizing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

(Joh 3:24) For John was not yet cast into prison.

(Joh 3:25) Then there arose a question between of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

(Joh 3:26) And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all come to him.

(Joh 3:27) John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

(Joh 3:28) Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

(Joh 3:29) He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

(Joh 3:30) He must increase, but I decrease.

(Joh 3:31) He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

(Joh 3:32) And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

(Joh 3:33) He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that Elohim is true.

(Joh 3:34) For he whom Elohim hath sent speaketh the words of Elohim: for Elohim giveth not the Spirit by measure.

(Joh 3:35) The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

(Joh 3:36) He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of Elohim abideth on him.

(Joh 4:1) When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that YAHshua made and baptized more disciples than John,

(Joh 4:2) (Though YAHshua himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

(Joh 4:3) He left Judaea, and departed again into Galilee.

(Joh 4:4) And he must needs go through Samaria.

(Joh 4:5) Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

(Joh 4:6) Now Jacob's well was there. YAHshua therefore, being wearied with journey, sat thus on the well: it was about the sixth hour.

(Joh 4:7) There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: YAHshua saith unto her, Give me to drink.

(Joh 4:8) (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

(Joh 4:9) Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

(Joh 4:10) YAHshua answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of Elohim, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

(Joh 4:11) The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

(Joh 4:12) Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

(Joh 4:13) YAHshua answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

(Joh 4:14) But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

(Joh 4:15) The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

(Joh 4:16) YAHshua saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

(Joh 4:17) The woman answered and said, I have no husband. YAHshua said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

(Joh 4:18) For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

(Joh 4:19) The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

(Joh 4:20) Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

(Joh 4:21) YAHshua saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

(Joh 4:22) Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

(Joh 4:23) But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

(Joh 4:24) Elohim a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.

(Joh 4:25) The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

(Joh 4:26) YAHshua saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am.

(Joh 4:27) And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

(Joh 4:28) The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, (Joh 4:29) Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

(Joh 4:30) Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

(Joh 4:31) In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

(Joh 4:32) But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

(Joh 4:33) Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him to eat?

(Joh 4:34) YAHshua saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

(Joh 4:35) Say not ye, There are yet four months, and cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

(Joh 4:36) And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

(Joh 4:37) And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

(Joh 4:38) I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

(Joh 4:39) And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

(Joh 4:40) So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

(Joh 4:41) And many more believed because of his own word;

(Joh 4:42) And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

(Joh 4:43) Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

(Joh 4:44) For YAHshua himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

(Joh 4:45) Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

(Joh 4:46) So YAHshua came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

(Joh 4:47) When he heard that YAHshua was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

(Joh 4:48) Then said YAHshua unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

(Joh 4:49) The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

(Joh 4:50) YAHshua saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that YAHshua had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

(Joh 4:51) And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told, saying, Thy son liveth.

(Joh 4:52) Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

(Joh 4:53) So the father knew that at the same hour, in the which YAHshua said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

(Joh 4:54) This again the second miracle YAHshua did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

(Joh 5:1) After this there was a feast of the Jews; and YAHshua went up to Jerusalem.

(Joh 5:2) Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

(Joh 5:3) In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

(Joh 5:4) For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

(Joh 5:5) And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

(Joh 5:6) When YAHshua saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

(Joh 5:7) The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

(Joh 5:8) YAHshua saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

(Joh 5:9) And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the Sabbath.

(Joh 5:10) The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry bed.

(Joh 5:11) He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

(Joh 5:12) Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

(Joh 5:13) And he that was healed wist not who it was: for YAHshua had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in place.

(Joh 5:14) Afterward YAHshua findeth him in the temple, and said unto him,

Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

(Joh 5:15) The man departed, and told the Jews that it was YAHshua, which had made him whole.

(Joh 5:16) And therefore did the Jews persecute YAHshua, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

(Joh 5:17) But YAHshua answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

(Joh 5:18) Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the Sabbath, but said also that Elohim was his Father, making himself equal with Elohim.

(Joh 5:19) Then answered YAHshua and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

(Joh 5:20) For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

(Joh 5:21) For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

(Joh 5:22) For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

(Joh 5:23) That all should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

(Joh 5:24) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on Him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

(Joh 5:25) Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of Elohim: and they that hear shall live.

(Joh 5:26) For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

(Joh 5:27) And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

(Joh 5:28) Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

(Joh 5:29) And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

(Joh 5:30) I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

(Joh 5:31) If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

(Joh 5:32) There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

(Joh 5:33) Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

(Joh 5:34) But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

(Joh 5:35) He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

(Joh 5:36) But I have greater witness than of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

(Joh 5:37) And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

(Joh 5:38) And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

(Joh 5:39) Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

(Joh 5:40) And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

(Joh 5:41) I receive not honour from men.

(Joh 5:42) But I know you, that ye have not the love of Elohim in you.

(Joh 5:43) I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

(Joh 5:44) How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that from Elohim only?

(Joh 5:45) Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is that accuseth you, Moses, in whom ye trust.

(Joh 5:46) For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.

(Joh 5:47) But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

(Joh 6:1) After these things YAHshua went over the sea of Galilee, which is Tiberias.

(Joh 6:2) And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

(Joh 6:3) And YAHshua went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

(Joh 6:4) And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

(Joh 6:5) When YAHshua then lifted up eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

(Joh 6:6) And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

(Joh 6:7) Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

(Joh 6:8) One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, (Joh 6:9) There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

(Joh 6:10) And YAHshua said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

(Joh 6:11) And YAHshua took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

(Joh 6:12) When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

(Joh 6:13) Therefore they gathered together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

(Joh 6:14) Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that YAHshua did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

(Joh 6:15) When YAHshua therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

(Joh 6:16) And when even was come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

(Joh 6:17) And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and YAHshua was not come to them.

(Joh 6:18) And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

(Joh 6:19) So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see YAHshua walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

(Joh 6:20) But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

(Joh 6:21) Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

(Joh 6:22) The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that YAHshua went not with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples were gone away alone;

(Joh 6:23) (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

(Joh 6:24) When the people therefore saw that YAHshua was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for YAHshua.

(Joh 6:25) And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

(Joh 6:26) YAHshua answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

(Joh 6:27) Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath Elohim the Father sealed.

(Joh 6:28) Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of Elohim?

(Joh 6:29) YAHshua answered and said unto them, This is the work of Elohim, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

(Joh 6:30) They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

(Joh 6:31) Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

(Joh 6:32) Then YAHshua said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

(Joh 6:33) For the bread of Elohim is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

(Joh 6:34) Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

(Joh 6:35) And YAHshua said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

(Joh 6:36) But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

(Joh 6:37) All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

(Joh 6:38) For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

(Joh 6:39) And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

(Joh 6:40) And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

(Joh 6:41) The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

(Joh 6:42) And they said, Is not this YAHshua, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

(Joh 6:43) YAHshua therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

(Joh 6:44) No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

(Joh 6:45) It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of Elohim. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

(Joh 6:46) Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of Elohim, he hath seen the Father.

(Joh 6:47) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

(Joh 6:48) I am that bread of life.

(Joh 6:49) Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

(Joh 6:50) This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

(Joh 6:51) I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

(Joh 6:52) The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us flesh to eat?

(Joh 6:53) Then YAHshua said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

(Joh 6:54) Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

(Joh 6:55) For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

(Joh 6:56) He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

(Joh 6:57) As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

(Joh 6:58) This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

(Joh 6:59) These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

(Joh 6:60) Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

(Joh 6:61) When YAHshua knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

(Joh 6:62) And if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

(Joh 6:63) It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, are spirit, and are life.

(Joh 6:64) But there are some of you that believe not. For YAHshua knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

(Joh 6:65) And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

(Joh 6:66) From that many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

(Joh 6:67) Then said YAHshua unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

(Joh 6:68) Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

(Joh 6:69) And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living Elohim.

(Joh 6:70) YAHshua answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

(Joh 6:71) He spake of Judas Iscariot of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

(Joh 7:1) After these things YAHshua walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

(Joh 7:2) Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

(Joh 7:3) His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

(Joh 7:4) For no man doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

(Joh 7:5) For neither did his brethren believe in him.

(Joh 7:6) Then YAHshua said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

(Joh 7:7) The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

(Joh 7:8) Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

(Joh 7:9) When he had said these words unto them, he abode in Galilee.

(Joh 7:10) But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

(Joh 7:11) Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

(Joh 7:12) And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

(Joh 7:13) Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

(Joh 7:14) Now about the midst of the feast YAHshua went up into the temple, and taught.

(Joh 7:15) And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

(Joh 7:16) YAHshua answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

(Joh 7:17) If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of Elohim, or I speak of myself.

(Joh 7:18) He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

(Joh 7:19) Did not Moses give you the law, and none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

(Joh 7:20) The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

(Joh 7:21) YAHshua answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

(Joh 7:22) Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.

(Joh 7:23) If a man on the Sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the Sabbath day?

(Joh 7:24) Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

(Joh 7:25) Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

(Joh 7:26) But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

(Joh 7:27) Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

(Joh 7:28) Then cried YAHshua in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

(Joh 7:29) But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

(Joh 7:30) Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

(Joh 7:31) And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this hath done?

(Joh 7:32) The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

(Joh 7:33) Then said YAHshua unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and I go unto him that sent me.

(Joh 7:34) Ye shall seek me, and shall not find: and where I am, ye cannot come.

(Joh 7:35) Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

(Joh 7:36) What saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find: and where I am, ye cannot come?

(Joh 7:37) In the last day, that great of the feast, YAHshua stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

(Joh 7:38) He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

(Joh 7:39) (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Spirit was not yet; because that YAHshua was not yet glorified.)

(Joh 7:40) Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

(Joh 7:41) Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

(Joh 7:42) Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

(Joh 7:43) So there was a division among the people because of him.

(Joh 7:44) And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

(Joh 7:45) Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

(Joh 7:46) The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

(Joh 7:47) Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

(Joh 7:48) Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

(Joh 7:49) But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

(Joh 7:50) Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to YAHshua by night, being one of them,)

(Joh 7:51) Doth our law judge man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

(Joh 7:52) They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

(Joh 7:53) And every man went unto his own house.

(Joh 8:1) YAHshua went unto the mount of Olives.

(Joh 8:2) And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

(Joh 8:3) And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, (Joh 8:4) They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

(Joh 8:5) Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

(Joh 8:6) This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But YAHshua stooped down, and with finger wrote on the ground.

(Joh 8:7) So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

(Joh 8:8) And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

(Joh 8:9) And they which heard, being convicted by conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, unto the last: and YAHshua was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

(Joh 8:10) When YAHshua had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

(Joh 8:11) She said, No man, Lord. And YAHshua said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

(Joh 8:12) Then spake YAHshua again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

(Joh 8:13) The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

(Joh 8:14) YAHshua answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

(Joh 8:15) Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

(Joh 8:16) And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

(Joh 8:17) It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

(Joh 8:18) I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

(Joh 8:19) Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? YAHshua answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

(Joh 8:20) These words spake YAHshua in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

(Joh 8:21) Then said YAHshua again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

(Joh 8:22) Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

(Joh 8:23) And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

(Joh 8:24) I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am, ye shall die in your sins.

(Joh 8:25) Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And YAHshua saith unto them, Even that I said unto you from the beginning.

(Joh 8:26) I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

(Joh 8:27) They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

(Joh 8:28) Then said YAHshua unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am, and I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

(Joh 8:29) And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

(Joh 8:30) As he spake these words, many believed on him.

(Joh 8:31) Then said YAHshua to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, are ye my disciples indeed;

(Joh 8:32) And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

(Joh 8:33) They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

(Joh 8:34) YAHshua answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

(Joh 8:35) And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

(Joh 8:36) If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

(Joh 8:37) I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

(Joh 8:38) I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

(Joh 8:39) They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. YAHshua saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

(Joh 8:40) But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of Elohim: this did not Abraham.

(Joh 8:41) Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, Elohim.

(Joh 8:42) YAHshua said unto them, If Elohim were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from Elohim; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

(Joh 8:43) Why do ye not understand my speech? because ye cannot hear my word.

(Joh 8:44) Ye are of father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

(Joh 8:45) And because I tell the truth, ye believe me not.

(Joh 8:46) Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

(Joh 8:47) He that is of Elohim heareth Elohim's words: ye therefore hear not, because ye are not of Elohim.

(Joh 8:48) Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

(Joh 8:49) YAHshua answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

(Joh 8:50) And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

(Joh 8:51) Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

(Joh 8:52) Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

(Joh 8:53) Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

(Joh 8:54) YAHshua answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your Elohim:

(Joh 8:55) Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

(Joh 8:56) Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw, and was glad.

(Joh 8:57) Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

(Joh 8:58) YAHshua said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

(Joh 8:59) Then took they up stones to cast at him: but YAHshua hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

(Joh 9:1) And as passed by, he saw a man which was blind from birth.

(Joh 9:2) And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

(Joh 9:3) YAHshua answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of Elohim should be made manifest in him.

(Joh 9:4) I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

(Joh 9:5) As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

(Joh 9:6) When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, (Joh 9:7) And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

(Joh 9:8) The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

(Joh 9:9) Some said, This is he: others, He is like him: he said, I am.

(Joh 9:10) Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

(Joh 9:11) He answered and said, A man that is called YAHshua made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

(Joh 9:12) Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

(Joh 9:13) They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

(Joh 9:14) And it was the Sabbath day when YAHshua made the clay, and opened his eyes.

(Joh 9:15) Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

(Joh 9:16) Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of Elohim, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

(Joh 9:17) They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

(Joh 9:18) But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

(Joh 9:19) And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

(Joh 9:20) His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

(Joh 9:21) But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

(Joh 9:22) These spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

(Joh 9:23) Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

(Joh 9:24) Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give Elohim the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

(Joh 9:25) He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

(Joh 9:26) Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

(Joh 9:27) He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear:

wherefore would ye hear again? will ye also be his disciples?

(Joh 9:28) Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

(Joh 9:29) We know that Elohim spake unto Moses: this, we know not from whence he is.

(Joh 9:30) The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and he hath opened mine eyes.

(Joh 9:31) Now we know that Elohim heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of Elohim, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

(Joh 9:32) Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

(Joh 9:33) If this man were not of Elohim, he could do nothing.

(Joh 9:34) They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

(Joh 9:35) YAHshua heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of Elohim?

(Joh 9:36) He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

(Joh 9:37) And YAHshua said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

(Joh 9:38) And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

(Joh 9:39) And YAHshua said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

(Joh 9:40) And of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

(Joh 9:41) YAHshua said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

(Joh 10:1) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

(Joh 10:2) But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

(Joh 10:3) To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

(Joh 10:4) And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

(Joh 10:5) And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

(Joh 10:6) This parable spake YAHshua unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

(Joh 10:7) Then said YAHshua unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

(Joh 10:8) All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

(Joh 10:9) I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

(Joh 10:10) The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have more abundantly.

(Joh 10:11) I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

(Joh 10:12) But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

(Joh 10:13) The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

(Joh 10:14) I am the good shepherd, and know my, and am known of mine.

(Joh 10:15) As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

(Joh 10:16) And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, one shepherd.

(Joh 10:17) Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

(Joh 10:18) No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

(Joh 10:19) There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

(Joh 10:20) And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

(Joh 10:21) Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

(Joh 10:22) And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

(Joh 10:23) And YAHshua walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.

(Joh 10:24) Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

(Joh 10:25) YAHshua answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

(Joh 10:26) But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

(Joh 10:27) My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

(Joh 10:28) And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

(Joh 10:29) My Father, which gave me, is greater than all; and no is able to pluck out of my Father's hand.

(Joh 10:30) I and Father are one.

(Joh 10:31) Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

(Joh 10:32) YAHshua answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

(Joh 10:33) The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself Elohim.

(Joh 10:34) YAHshua answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

(Joh 10:35) If he called them gods, unto whom the word of Elohim came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

(Joh 10:36) Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of Elohim?

(Joh 10:37) If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

(Joh 10:38) But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father in me, and I in him.

(Joh 10:39) Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, (Joh 10:40) And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

(Joh 10:41) And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true.

(Joh 10:42) And many believed on him there.

(Joh 11:1) Now a certain was sick, Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

(Joh 11:2) (It was Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

(Joh 11:3) Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

(Joh 11:4) When YAHshua heard, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of Elohim, that the Son of Elohim might be glorified thereby.

(Joh 11:5) Now YAHshua loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

(Joh 11:6) When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

(Joh 11:7) Then after that saith he to disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.

(Joh 11:8) Disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

(Joh 11:9) YAHshua answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

(Joh 11:10) But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

(Joh 11:11) These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

(Joh 11:12) Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

(Joh 11:13) Howbeit YAHshua spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

(Joh 11:14) Then said YAHshua unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

(Joh 11:15) And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

(Joh 11:16) Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

(Joh 11:17) Then when YAHshua came, he found that he had in the grave four days already.

(Joh 11:18) Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

(Joh 11:19) And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

(Joh 11:20) Then Martha, as soon as she heard that YAHshua was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat in the house.

(Joh 11:21) Then said Martha unto YAHshua, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

(Joh 11:22) But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of Elohim, Elohim will give thee.

(Joh 11:23) YAHshua saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

(Joh 11:24) Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

(Joh 11:25) YAHshua said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

(Joh 11:26) And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

(Joh 11:27) She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of Elohim, which should come into the world.

(Joh 11:28) And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

(Joh 11:29) As soon as she heard, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

(Joh 11:30) Now YAHshua was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

(Joh 11:31) The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

(Joh 11:32) Then when Mary was come where YAHshua was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

(Joh 11:33) When YAHshua therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, (Joh 11:34) And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

(Joh 11:35) YAHshua wept.

(Joh 11:36) Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

(Joh 11:37) And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

(Joh 11:38) YAHshua therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

(Joh 11:39) YAHshua said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been four days.

(Joh 11:40) YAHshua saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of Elohim?

(Joh 11:41) Then they took away the stone where the dead was laid. And YAHshua lifted up eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

(Joh 11:42) And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

(Joh 11:43) And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

(Joh 11:44) And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. YAHshua saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

(Joh 11:45) Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which YAHshua did, believed on him.

(Joh 11:46) But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things YAHshua had done.

(Joh 11:47) Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

(Joh 11:48) If we let him thus alone, all will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

(Joh 11:49) And one of them, Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

(Joh 11:50) Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

(Joh 11:51) And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that YAHshua should die for that nation;

(Joh 11:52) And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of Elohim that were scattered abroad.

(Joh 11:53) Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

(Joh 11:54) YAHshua therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

(Joh 11:55) And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

(Joh 11:56) Then sought they for YAHshua, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

(Joh 11:57) Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew, that they might take him.

(Joh 12:1) Then YAHshua six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

(Joh 12:2) There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

(Joh 12:3) Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of YAHshua, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

(Joh 12:4) Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's, which should betray him, (Joh 12:5) Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

(Joh 12:6) This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

(Joh 12:7) Then said YAHshua, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

(Joh 12:8) For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

(Joh 12:9) Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for YAHshua' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

(Joh 12:10) But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

(Joh 12:11) Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on YAHshua.

(Joh 12:12) On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that YAHshua was coming to Jerusalem, (Joh 12:13) Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

(Joh 12:14) And YAHshua, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

(Joh 12:15) Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

(Joh 12:16) These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when YAHshua was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and they had done these things unto him.

(Joh 12:17) The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

(Joh 12:18) For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

(Joh 12:19) The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

(Joh 12:20) And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

(Joh 12:21) The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see YAHshua.

(Joh 12:22) Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell YAHshua.

(Joh 12:23) And YAHshua answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

(Joh 12:24) Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

(Joh 12:25) He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

(Joh 12:26) If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will Father honour.

(Joh 12:27) Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

(Joh 12:28) Father, glorify thy Name. Then came there a voice from heaven, I have both glorified, and will glorify again.

(Joh 12:29) The people therefore, that stood by, and heard, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

(Joh 12:30) YAHshua answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

(Joh 12:31) Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

(Joh 12:32) And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all unto me.

(Joh 12:33) This he said, signifying what death he should die.

(Joh 12:34) The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

(Joh 12:35) Then YAHshua said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

(Joh 12:36) While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake YAHshua, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

(Joh 12:37) But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

(Joh 12:38) That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, YHVH, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of YHVH been revealed?

(Joh 12:39) Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

(Joh 12:40) He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with eyes, nor understand with heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

(Joh 12:41) These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

(Joh 12:42) Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

(Joh 12:43) For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of Elohim.

(Joh 12:44) YAHshua cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

(Joh 12:45) And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

(Joh 12:46) I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

(Joh 12:47) And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

(Joh 12:48) He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

(Joh 12:49) For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

(Joh 12:50) And I know that His Commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

(Joh 13:1) Now before the feast of the passover, when YAHshua knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

(Joh 13:2) And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's, to betray him;

(Joh 13:3) YAHshua knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from Elohim, and went to Elohim;

(Joh 13:4) He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

(Joh 13:5) After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe with the towel wherewith he was girded.

(Joh 13:6) Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

(Joh 13:7) YAHshua answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

(Joh 13:8) Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. YAHshua answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

(Joh 13:9) Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also hands and head.

(Joh 13:10) YAHshua saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

(Joh 13:11) For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

(Joh 13:12) So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

(Joh 13:13) Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for I am.

(Joh 13:14) If I then, Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

(Joh 13:15) For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

(Joh 13:16) Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

(Joh 13:17) If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

(Joh 13:18) I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

(Joh 13:19) Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am.

(Joh 13:20) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

(Joh 13:21) When YAHshua had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

(Joh 13:22) Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

(Joh 13:23) Now there was leaning on YAHshua' bosom one of his disciples, whom YAHshua loved.

(Joh 13:24) Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

(Joh 13:25) He then lying on YAHshua' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

(Joh 13:26) YAHshua answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave to Judas Iscariot, of Simon.

(Joh 13:27) And after the sop satan entered into him. Then said YAHshua unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

(Joh 13:28) Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

(Joh 13:29) For some thought, because Judas had the bag, that YAHshua had said unto him, Buy that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

(Joh 13:30) He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

(Joh 13:31) Therefore, when he was gone out, YAHshua said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and Elohim is glorified in him.

(Joh 13:32) If Elohim be glorified in him, Elohim shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

(Joh 13:33) Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

(Joh 13:34) A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

(Joh 13:35) By this shall all know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

(Joh 13:36) Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? YAHshua answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

(Joh 13:37) Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

(Joh 13:38) YAHshua answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

(Joh 14:1) Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in Elohim, believe also in me.

(Joh 14:2) In my Father's house are many mansions: if not, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

(Joh 14:3) And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

(Joh 14:4) And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

(Joh 14:5) Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

(Joh 14:6) YAHshua saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

(Joh 14:7) If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

(Joh 14:8) Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

(Joh 14:9) YAHshua saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou, Shew us the Father?

(Joh 14:10) Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

(Joh 14:11) Believe me that I in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

(Joh 14:12) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

(Joh 14:13) And whatsoever ye shall ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

(Joh 14:14) If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do.

(Joh 14:15) If ye love me, keep my commandments.

(Joh 14:16) And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

(Joh 14:17) The Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

(Joh 14:18) I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

(Joh 14:19) Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

(Joh 14:20) At that day ye shall know that I in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

(Joh 14:21) He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

(Joh 14:22) Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

(Joh 14:23) YAHshua answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

(Joh 14:24) He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

(Joh 14:25) These things have I spoken unto you, being present with you.

(Joh 14:26) But the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

(Joh 14:27) Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

(Joh 14:28) Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

(Joh 14:29) And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

(Joh 14:30) Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

(Joh 14:31) But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

(Joh 15:1) I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

(Joh 15:2) Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

(Joh 15:3) Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

(Joh 15:4) Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

(Joh 15:5) I am the vine, ye the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

(Joh 15:6) If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast into the fire, and they are burned.

(Joh 15:7) If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

(Joh 15:8) Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

(Joh 15:9) As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

(Joh 15:10) If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

(Joh 15:11) These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and your joy might be full.

(Joh 15:12) This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

(Joh 15:13) Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

(Joh 15:14) Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

(Joh 15:15) Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

(Joh 15:16) Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

(Joh 15:17) These things I command you, that ye love one another.

(Joh 15:18) If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before you.

(Joh 15:19) If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

(Joh 15:20) Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

(Joh 15:21) But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

(Joh 15:22) If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.

(Joh 15:23) He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

(Joh 15:24) If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

(Joh 15:25) But, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

(Joh 15:26) But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

(Joh 15:27) And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

(Joh 16:1) These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

(Joh 16:2) They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth Elohim service.

(Joh 16:3) And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

(Joh 16:4) But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

(Joh 16:5) But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

(Joh 16:6) But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

(Joh 16:7) Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

(Joh 16:8) And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

(Joh 16:9) Of sin, because they believe not on me;

(Joh 16:10) Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

(Joh 16:11) Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

(Joh 16:12) I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

(Joh 16:13) Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

(Joh 16:14) He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew unto you.

(Joh 16:15) All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew unto you.

(Joh 16:16) A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

(Joh 16:17) Then said of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

(Joh 16:18) They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

(Joh 16:19) Now YAHshua knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

(Joh 16:20) Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

(Joh 16:21) A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

(Joh 16:22) And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

(Joh 16:23) And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give you.

(Joh 16:24) Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

(Joh 16:25) These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

(Joh 16:26) At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

(Joh 16:27) For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from Elohim.

(Joh 16:28) I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

(Joh 16:29) His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

(Joh 16:30) Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from Elohim.

(Joh 16:31) YAHshua answered them, Do ye now believe?

(Joh 16:32) Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

(Joh 16:33) These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

(Joh 17:1) These words spake YAHshua, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

(Joh 17:2) As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

(Joh 17:3) And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true Elohim, and YAHshua Christ, whom thou hast sent.

(Joh 17:4) I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

(Joh 17:5) And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

(Joh 17:6) I have manifested thy Name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

(Joh 17:7) Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

(Joh 17:8) For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

(Joh 17:9) I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

(Joh 17:10) And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

(Joh 17:11) And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we.

(Joh 17:12) While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

(Joh 17:13) And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

(Joh 17:14) I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

(Joh 17:15) I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

(Joh 17:16) They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

(Joh 17:17) Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

(Joh 17:18) As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

(Joh 17:19) And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

(Joh 17:20) Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

(Joh 17:21) That they all may be one; as thou, Father, in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

(Joh 17:22) And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

(Joh 17:23) I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

(Joh 17:24) Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

(Joh 17:25) O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

(Joh 17:26) And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

(Joh 18:1) When YAHshua had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

(Joh 18:2) And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for YAHshua oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

(Joh 18:3) Judas then, having received a band and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

(Joh 18:4) YAHshua therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

(Joh 18:5) They answered him, YAHshua of Nazareth. YAHshua saith unto them, I am. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

(Joh 18:6) As soon then as he had said unto them, I am, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

(Joh 18:7) Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, YAHshua of Nazareth.

(Joh 18:8) YAHshua answered, I have told you that I am: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

(Joh 18:9) That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

(Joh 18:10) Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

(Joh 18:11) Then said YAHshua unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

(Joh 18:12) Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took YAHshua, and bound him, (Joh 18:13) And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

(Joh 18:14) Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

(Joh 18:15) And Simon Peter followed YAHshua, and another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with YAHshua into the palace of the high priest.

(Joh 18:16) But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

(Joh 18:17) Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

(Joh 18:18) And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

(Joh 18:19) The high priest then asked YAHshua of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

(Joh 18:20) YAHshua answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

(Joh 18:21) Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

(Joh 18:22) And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck YAHshua with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

(Joh 18:23) YAHshua answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

(Joh 18:24) Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

(Joh 18:25) And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not.

(Joh 18:26) One of the servants of the high priest, being kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

(Joh 18:27) Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

(Joh 18:28) Then led they YAHshua from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

(Joh 18:29) Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

(Joh 18:30) They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

(Joh 18:31) Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

(Joh 18:32) That the saying of YAHshua might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

(Joh 18:33) Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called YAHshua, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

(Joh 18:34) YAHshua answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

(Joh 18:35) Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

(Joh 18:36) YAHshua answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

(Joh 18:37) Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? YAHshua answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

(Joh 18:38) Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault.

(Joh 18:39) But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

(Joh 18:40) Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

(Joh 19:1) Then Pilate therefore took YAHshua, and scourged.

(Joh 19:2) And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, (Joh 19:3) And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

(Joh 19:4) Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

(Joh 19:5) Then came YAHshua forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And saith unto them, Behold the man!

(Joh 19:6) When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify, crucify. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify: for I find no fault in him.

(Joh 19:7) The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of Elohim.

(Joh 19:8) When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

(Joh 19:9) And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto YAHshua, Whence art thou? But YAHshua gave him no answer.

(Joh 19:10) Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

(Joh 19:11) YAHshua answered, Thou couldest have no power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

(Joh 19:12) And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.

(Joh 19:13) When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought YAHshua forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

(Joh 19:14) And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

(Joh 19:15) But they cried out, Away with, away with, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.

(Joh 19:16) Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took YAHshua, and led away.

(Joh 19:17) And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

(Joh 19:18) Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and YAHshua in the midst.

(Joh 19:19) And Pilate wrote a title, and put on the cross. And the writing was, YAHSHUA OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

(Joh 19:20) This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where YAHshua was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, Latin.

(Joh 19:21) Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

(Joh 19:22) Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

(Joh 19:23) Then the soldiers, when they had crucified YAHshua, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

(Joh 19:24) They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

(Joh 19:25) Now there stood by the cross of YAHshua his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

(Joh 19:26) When YAHshua therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

(Joh 19:27) Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own.

(Joh 19:28) After this, YAHshua knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

(Joh 19:29) Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put to his mouth.

(Joh 19:30) When YAHshua therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

(Joh 19:31) The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath day, (for that Sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and they might be taken away.

(Joh 19:32) Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

(Joh 19:33) But when they came to YAHshua, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

(Joh 19:34) But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

(Joh 19:35) And he that saw bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

(Joh 19:36) For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

(Joh 19:37) And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

(Joh 19:38) And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of YAHshua, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of YAHshua: and Pilate gave leave. He came therefore, and took the body of YAHshua.

(Joh 19:39) And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to YAHshua by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound.

(Joh 19:40) Then took they the body of YAHshua, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

(Joh 19:41) Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

(Joh 19:42) There laid they YAHshua therefore because of the Jews' preparation; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

(Joh 20:1) The first of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

(Joh 20:2) Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom YAHshua loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

(Joh 20:3) Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

(Joh 20:4) So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

(Joh 20:5) And he stooping down, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

(Joh 20:6) Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

(Joh 20:7) And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

(Joh 20:8) Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

(Joh 20:9) For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

(Joh 20:10) Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

(Joh 20:11) But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, into the sepulchre, (Joh 20:12) And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of YAHshua had lain.

(Joh 20:13) And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

(Joh 20:14) And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw YAHshua standing, and knew not that it was YAHshua.

(Joh 20:15) YAHshua saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

(Joh 20:16) YAHshua saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

(Joh 20:17) YAHshua saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and my Elohim, and your Elohim.

(Joh 20:18) Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and he had spoken these things unto her.

(Joh 20:19) Then the same day at evening, being the first of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came YAHshua and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace unto you.

(Joh 20:20) And when he had so said, he shewed unto them hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

(Joh 20:21) Then said YAHshua to them again, Peace unto you: as Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

(Joh 20:22) And when he had said this, he breathed on, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Spirit:

(Joh 20:23) Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; whose soever ye retain, they are retained.

(Joh 20:24) But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when YAHshua came.

(Joh 20:25) The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

(Joh 20:26) And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: came YAHshua, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace unto you.

(Joh 20:27) Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

(Joh 20:28) And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my Elohim.

(Joh 20:29) YAHshua saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed they that have not seen, and have believed.

(Joh 20:30) And many other signs truly did YAHshua in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

(Joh 20:31) But these are written, that ye might believe that YAHshua is the Christ, the Son of Elohim; and that believing ye might have life through his Name.

(Joh 21:1) After these things YAHshua shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he.

(Joh 21:2) There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

(Joh 21:3) Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

(Joh 21:4) But when the morning was now come, YAHshua stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was YAHshua.

(Joh 21:5) Then YAHshua saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

(Joh 21:6) And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

(Joh 21:7) Therefore that disciple whom YAHshua loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt fisher's coat, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

(Joh 21:8) And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

(Joh 21:9) As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

(Joh 21:10) YAHshua saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

(Joh 21:11) Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

(Joh 21:12) YAHshua saith unto them, Come dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

(Joh 21:13) YAHshua then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

(Joh 21:14) This is now the third time that YAHshua shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

(Joh 21:15) So when they had dined, YAHshua saith to Simon Peter, Simon, of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

(Joh 21:16) He saith to him again the second time, Simon, of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

(Joh 21:17) He saith unto him the third time, Simon, of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. YAHshua saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

(Joh 21:18) Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry whither thou wouldest not.

(Joh 21:19) This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify Elohim. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

(Joh 21:20) Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom YAHshua loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

(Joh 21:21) Peter seeing him saith to YAHshua, Lord, and what this man?

(Joh 21:22) YAHshua saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what to thee? follow thou me.

(Joh 21:23) Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet YAHshua said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what to thee?

(Joh 21:24) This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

(Joh 21:25) And there are also many other things which YAHshua did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

Acts.

(Act 1:1) The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that YAHshua began both to do and teach,

(Act 1:2) Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Spirit had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

(Act 1:3) To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of Elohim:

(Act 1:4) And, being assembled together with, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, ye have heard of me.

(Act 1:5) For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence.

(Act 1:6) When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

(Act 1:7) And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

(Act 1:8) But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

(Act 1:9) And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

(Act 1:10) And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

(Act 1:11) Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same YAHshua, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

(Act 1:12) Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a Sabbath day's journey.

(Act 1:13) And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas of James.

(Act 1:14) These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of YAHshua, and with his brethren.

(Act 1:15) And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

(Act 1:16) Men brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took YAHshua.

(Act 1:17) For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

(Act 1:18) Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

(Act 1:19) And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

(Act 1:20) For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take.

(Act 1:21) Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord YAHshua went in and out among us, (Act 1:22) Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

(Act 1:23) And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

(Act 1:24) And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, (Act 1:25) That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

(Act 1:26) And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

(Act 2:1) And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

(Act 2:2) And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

(Act 2:3) And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

(Act 2:4) And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

(Act 2:5) And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

(Act 2:6) Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

(Act 2:7) And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?

(Act 2:8) And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

(Act 2:9) Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

(Act 2:10) Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, (Act 2:11) Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of Elohim.

(Act 2:12) And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

(Act 2:13) Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

(Act 2:14) But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

(Act 2:15) For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

(Act 2:16) But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

(Act 2:17) And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith Elohim, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

(Act 2:18) And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

(Act 2:19) And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

(Act 2:20) The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of YHVH come:

(Act 2:21) And it shall come to pass, whosoever shall call on the name of YHVH shall be saved.

(Act 2:22) Ye men of Israel, hear these words; YAHshua of Nazareth, a man approved of Elohim among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which Elohim did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

(Act 2:23) Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of Elohim, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

(Act 2:24) Whom Elohim hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

(Act 2:25) For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw YHVH always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

(Act 2:26) Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

(Act 2:27) Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

(Act 2:28) Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

(Act 2:29) Men brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

(Act 2:30) Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that Elohim had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

(Act 2:31) He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

(Act 2:32) This YAHshua hath Elohim raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

(Act 2:33) Therefore being by the right hand of Elohim exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

(Act 2:34) For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, YHVH said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, (Act 2:35) Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

(Act 2:36) Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that Elohim hath made that same YAHshua, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

(Act 2:37) Now when they heard, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men brethren, what shall we do?

(Act 2:38) Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of YAHshua Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

(Act 2:39) For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, as many as YHVH our Elohim shall call.

(Act 2:40) And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

(Act 2:41) Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added about three thousand souls.

(Act 2:42) And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

(Act 2:43) And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

(Act 2:44) And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

(Act 2:45) And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, as every man had need.

(Act 2:46) And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, (Act 2:47) Praising Elohim, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

(Act 3:1) Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth.

(Act 3:2) And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

(Act 3:3) Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

(Act 3:4) And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

(Act 3:5) And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

(Act 3:6) Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of YAHshua Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

(Act 3:7) And he took him by the right hand, and lifted up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

(Act 3:8) And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising Elohim.

(Act 3:9) And all the people saw him walking and praising Elohim:

(Act 3:10) And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

(Act 3:11) And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

(Act 3:12) And when Peter saw, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

(Act 3:13) The Elohim of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the Elohim of our fathers, hath glorified his Son YAHshua; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let go.

(Act 3:14) But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

(Act 3:15) And killed the Prince of life, whom Elohim hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

(Act 3:16) And His name through faith in His name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

(Act 3:17) And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did, as also your rulers.

(Act 3:18) But those things, which Elohim before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

(Act 3:19) Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of YHVH;

(Act 3:20) And he shall send YAHshua Christ, which before was preached unto you:

(Act 3:21) Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which Elohim hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

(Act 3:22) For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your Elohim raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

(Act 3:23) And it shall come to pass, every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

(Act 3:24) Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

(Act 3:25) Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which Elohim made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

(Act 3:26) Unto you first Elohim, having raised up his Son YAHshua, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

(Act 4:1) And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, (Act 4:2) Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through YAHshua the resurrection from the dead.

(Act 4:3) And they laid hands on them, and put in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

(Act 4:4) Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

(Act 4:5) And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, (Act 4:6) And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

(Act 4:7) And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what Name, have ye done this?

(Act 4:8) Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

(Act 4:9) If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

(Act 4:10) Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of YAHshua Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom Elohim raised from the dead, by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

(Act 4:11) This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

(Act 4:12) Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

(Act 4:13) Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with YAHshua.

(Act 4:14) And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

(Act 4:15) But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, (Act 4:16) Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny.

(Act 4:17) But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this Name.

(Act 4:18) And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of YAHshua.

(Act 4:19) But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of Elohim to hearken unto you more than unto Elohim, judge ye.

(Act 4:20) For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

(Act 4:21) So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all glorified Elohim for that which was done.

(Act 4:22) For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

(Act 4:23) And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

(Act 4:24) And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to Elohim with one accord, and said, Lord, thou Elohim, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

(Act 4:25) Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

(Act 4:26) The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against YHVH, and against his Christ.

(Act 4:27) For of a truth against thy holy child YAHshua, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, (Act 4:28) For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

(Act 4:29) And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, (Act 4:30) By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child YAHshua.

(Act 4:31) And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spake the word of Elohim with boldness.

(Act 4:32) And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

(Act 4:33) And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord YAHshua: and great grace was upon them all.

(Act 4:34) Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

(Act 4:35) And laid down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

(Act 4:36) And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, of the country of Cyprus, (Act 4:37) Having land, sold, and brought the money, and laid at the apostles' feet.

(Act 5:1) But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, (Act 5:2) And kept back of the price, his wife also being privy, and brought a certain part, and laid at the apostles' feet.

(Act 5:3) But Peter said, Ananias, why hath satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back of the price of the land?

(Act 5:4) Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto Elohim.

(Act 5:5) And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost:

and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

(Act 5:6) And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried out, and buried.

(Act 5:7) And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

(Act 5:8) And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

(Act 5:9) Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband at the door, and shall carry thee out.

(Act 5:10) Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying forth, buried by her husband.

(Act 5:11) And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

(Act 5:12) And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

(Act 5:13) And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.

(Act 5:14) And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

(Act 5:15) Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

(Act 5:16) There came also a multitude of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

(Act 5:17) Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, (Act 5:18) And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

(Act 5:19) But the angel of YHVH by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, (Act 5:20) Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

(Act 5:21) And when they heard, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

(Act 5:22) But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

(Act 5:23) Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

(Act 5:24) Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

(Act 5:25) Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

(Act 5:26) Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

(Act 5:27) And when they had brought them, they set before the council: and the high priest asked them,

(Act 5:28) Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

(Act 5:29) Then Peter and the apostles answered and said, We ought to obey Elohim rather than men.

(Act 5:30) The Elohim of our fathers raised up YAHshua, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

(Act 5:31) Him hath Elohim exalted with his right hand a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

(Act 5:32) And we are his witnesses of these things; and also the Holy Spirit, whom Elohim hath given to them that obey him.

(Act 5:33) When they heard, they were cut, and took counsel to slay them.

(Act 5:34) Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

(Act 5:35) And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

(Act 5:36) For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

(Act 5:37) After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

(Act 5:38) And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

(Act 5:39) But if it be of Elohim, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against Elohim.

(Act 5:40) And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of YAHshua, and let them go.

(Act 5:41) And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His Name.

(Act 5:42) And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach YAHshua Christ.

(Act 6:1) And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministrations.

(Act 6:2) Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of Elohim, and serve tables.

(Act 6:3) Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

(Act 6:4) But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

(Act 6:5) And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

(Act 6:6) Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid hands on them.

(Act 6:7) And the word of Elohim increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

(Act 6:8) And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

(Act 6:9) Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

(Act 6:10) And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

(Act 6:11) Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and Elohim.

(Act 6:12) And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon, and caught him, and brought to the council,

(Act 6:13) And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

(Act 6:14) For we have heard him say, that this YAHshua of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

(Act 6:15) And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

(Act 7:1) Then said the high priest, Are these things so?

(Act 7:2) And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The Elohim of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, (Act 7:3) And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

(Act 7:4) Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

(Act 7:5) And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when he had no child.

(Act 7:6) And Elohim spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat evil four hundred years.

(Act 7:7) And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said Elohim: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

(Act 7:8) And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac Jacob; and Jacob the twelve patriarchs.

(Act 7:9) And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but Elohim was with him, (Act 7:10) And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

(Act 7:11) Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

(Act 7:12) But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

(Act 7:13) And at the second Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

(Act 7:14) Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

(Act 7:15) So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, (Act 7:16) And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor of Sychem.

(Act 7:17) But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which Elohim had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, (Act 7:18) Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

(Act 7:19) The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

(Act 7:20) In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

(Act 7:21) And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

(Act 7:22) And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

(Act 7:23) And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

(Act 7:24) And seeing one suffer wrong, he defended, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

(Act 7:25) For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that Elohim by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

(Act 7:26) And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

(Act 7:27) But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

(Act 7:28) Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

(Act 7:29) Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

(Act 7:30) And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of YHVH in a flame of fire in a bush.

(Act 7:31) When Moses saw, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, the voice of YHVH came unto him, (Act 7:32) I the Elohim of thy fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, and the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

(Act 7:33) Then said YHVH to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

(Act 7:34) I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

(Act 7:35) This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did Elohim send a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

(Act 7:36) He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

(Act 7:37) This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall YHVH your Elohim raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

(Act 7:38) This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us:

(Act 7:39) To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

(Act 7:40) Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

(Act 7:41) And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

(Act 7:42) Then Elohim turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness?

(Act 7:43) Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

(Act 7:44) Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

(Act 7:45) Which also our fathers that came after brought in with YAHshua into the possession of the Gentiles, whom Elohim drove out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

(Act 7:46) Who found favour before Elohim, and desired to find a tabernacle for the Elohim of Jacob.

(Act 7:47) But Solomon built him an house.

(Act 7:48) Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, (Act 7:49) Heaven my throne, and earth my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith YHVH: or what the place of my rest?

(Act 7:50) Hath not my hand made all these things?

(Act 7:51) Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Spirit: as your fathers, so ye.

(Act 7:52) Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

(Act 7:53) Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept.

(Act 7:54) When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with teeth.

(Act 7:55) But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of Elohim, and YAHshua standing on the right hand of Elohim, (Act 7:56) And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of Elohim.

(Act 7:57) Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, (Act 7:58) And cast out of the city, and stoned: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

(Act 7:59) And they stoned Stephen, calling upon, and saying, Lord YAHshua, receive my spirit.

(Act 7:60) And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

(Act 8:1) And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles.

(Act 8:2) And devout men carried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him.

(Act 8:3) As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed to prison.

(Act 8:4) Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

(Act 8:5) Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

(Act 8:6) And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

(Act 8:7) For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

(Act 8:8) And there was great joy in that city.

(Act 8:9) But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

(Act 8:10) To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of Elohim.

(Act 8:11) And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

(Act 8:12) But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of Elohim, and the name of YAHshua Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

(Act 8:13) Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

(Act 8:14) Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of Elohim, they sent unto them Peter and John:

(Act 8:15) Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit:

(Act 8:16) (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord YAHshua.)

(Act 8:17) Then laid they hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

(Act 8:18) And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, (Act 8:19) Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.

(Act 8:20) But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of Elohim may be purchased with money.

(Act 8:21) Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of Elohim.

(Act 8:22) Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray Elohim, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

(Act 8:23) For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and the bond of iniquity.

(Act 8:24) Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

(Act 8:25) And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

(Act 8:26) And the angel of YHVH spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

(Act 8:27) And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, (Act 8:28) Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

(Act 8:29) Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

(Act 8:30) And Philip ran thither to, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

(Act 8:31) And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

(Act 8:32) The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

(Act 8:33) In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

(Act 8:34) And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

(Act 8:35) Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him YAHshua.

(Act 8:36) And as they went on way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

(Act 8:37) And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that YAHshua Christ is the Son of Elohim.

(Act 8:38) And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

(Act 8:39) And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

(Act 8:40) But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

(Act 9:1) And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, (Act 9:2) And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

(Act 9:3) And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

(Act 9:4) And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

(Act 9:5) And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am YAHshua whom thou persecutest: hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

(Act 9:6) And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

(Act 9:7) And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

(Act 9:8) And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought into Damascus.

(Act 9:9) And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

(Act 9:10) And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I, Lord.

(Act 9:11) And the Lord unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, (Act 9:12) And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

(Act 9:13) Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

(Act 9:14) And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

(Act 9:15) But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel:

(Act 9:16) For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my Name's sake.

(Act 9:17) And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, YAHshua, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.

(Act 9:18) And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

(Act 9:19) And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

(Act 9:20) And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of Elohim.

(Act 9:21) But all that heard were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

(Act 9:22) But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

(Act 9:23) And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

(Act 9:24) But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

(Act 9:25) Then the disciples took him by night, and let down by the wall in a basket.

(Act 9:26) And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

(Act 9:27) But Barnabas took him, and brought to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of YAHshua.

(Act 9:28) And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

(Act 9:29) And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord YAHshua, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

(Act 9:30) When the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

(Act 9:31) Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of YHVH, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied.

(Act 9:32) And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

(Act 9:33) And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

(Act 9:34) And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, YAHshua Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

(Act 9:35) And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

(Act 9:36) Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

(Act 9:37) And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid in an upper chamber.

(Act 9:38) And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring that he would not delay to come to them.

(Act 9:39) Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

(Act 9:40) But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

(Act 9:41) And he gave her hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

(Act 9:42) And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

(Act 9:43) And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

(Act 10:1) There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian, (Act 10:2) Devout, and one that feared Elohim with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to Elohim alway.

(Act 10:3) He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of Elohim coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

(Act 10:4) And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it,

Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before Elohim.

(Act 10:5) And now send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter:

(Act 10:6) He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

(Act 10:7) And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

(Act 10:8) And when he had declared all things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

(Act 10:9) On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:

(Act 10:10) And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

(Act 10:11) And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

(Act 10:12) Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

(Act 10:13) And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

(Act 10:14) But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

(Act 10:15) And the voice unto him again the second time, What Elohim hath cleansed, call not thou common.

(Act 10:16) This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

(Act 10:17) Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, (Act 10:18) And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

(Act 10:19) While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

(Act 10:20) Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

(Act 10:21) Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what the cause wherefore ye are come?

(Act 10:22) And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth Elohim, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from Elohim by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

(Act 10:23) Then called he them in, and lodged. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

(Act 10:24) And the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

(Act 10:25) And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped.

(Act 10:26) But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

(Act 10:27) And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

(Act 10:28) And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but Elohim hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

(Act 10:29) Therefore came I without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

(Act 10:30) And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, (Act 10:31) And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of Elohim.

(Act 10:32) Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

(Act 10:33) Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before Elohim, to hear all things that are commanded thee of Elohim.

(Act 10:34) Then Peter opened mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that Elohim is no respecter of persons:

(Act 10:35) But in every nation he that feareth Him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with Him.

(Act 10:36) The word which sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by YAHshua Christ: (he is Lord of all:)

(Act 10:37) That word, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;

(Act 10:38) How Elohim anointed YAHshua of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for Elohim was with him.

(Act 10:39) And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

(Act 10:40) Him Elohim raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

(Act 10:41) Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of Elohim, to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

(Act 10:42) And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is He which was ordained of Elohim the Judge of quick and dead.

(Act 10:43) To him give all the prophets witness, that through His name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

(Act 10:44) While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all them which heard the word.

(Act 10:45) And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit.

(Act 10:46) For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify Elohim. Then answered Peter, (Act 10:47) Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Spirit as well as we?

(Act 10:48) And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

(Act 11:1) And the apostles and brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of Elohim.

(Act 11:2) And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, (Act 11:3) Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

(Act 11:4) But Peter rehearsed from the beginning, and expounded by order unto them, saying,

(Act 11:5) I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

(Act 11:6) Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

(Act 11:7) And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

(Act 11:8) But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

(Act 11:9) But the voice answered me again from heaven, What Elohim hath cleansed, call not thou common.

(Act 11:10) And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

(Act 11:11) And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Caesarea unto me.

(Act 11:12) And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

(Act 11:13) And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

(Act 11:14) Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

(Act 11:15) And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

(Act 11:16) Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.

(Act 11:17) Forasmuch then as Elohim gave them the like gift as unto us, who believed on the Lord YAHshua Christ; what was I, that I could withstand Elohim?

(Act 11:18) When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified Elohim, saying, Then hath Elohim also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

(Act 11:19) Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

(Act 11:20) And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord YAHshua.

(Act 11:21) And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

(Act 11:22) Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

(Act 11:23) Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of Elohim, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

(Act 11:24) For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

(Act 11:25) Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

(Act 11:26) And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

(Act 11:27) And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

(Act 11:28) And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar.

(Act 11:29) Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea:

(Act 11:30) Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

(Act 12:1) Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth hands to vex certain of the church.

(Act 12:2) And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

(Act 12:3) And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

(Act 12:4) And when he had apprehended him, he put in prison, and delivered to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Passover to bring him forth to the people.

(Act 12:5) Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto Elohim for him.

(Act 12:6) And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night

Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

(Act 12:7) And, behold, the angel of YHVH came upon, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from hands.

(Act 12:8) And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

(Act 12:9) And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

(Act 12:10) When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

(Act 12:11) And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

(Act 12:12) And when he had considered, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

(Act 12:13) And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

(Act 12:14) And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

(Act 12:15) And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

(Act 12:16) But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened, and saw him, they were astonished.

(Act 12:17) But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

(Act 12:18) Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

(Act 12:19) And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that should be put to death. And he went down from Judaea to Caesarea, and abode.

(Act 12:20) And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's.

(Act 12:21) And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

(Act 12:22) And the people gave a shout, the voice of a god, and not of a man.

(Act 12:23) And immediately the angel of YHVH smote him, because he gave not Elohim the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

(Act 12:24) But the word of Elohim grew and multiplied.

(Act 12:25) And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

(Act 13:1) Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

(Act 13:2) As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

(Act 13:3) And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent away.

(Act 13:4) So they, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

(Act 13:5) And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of Elohim in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to minister.

(Act 13:6) And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name BarYahshua:

(Act 13:7) Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of Elohim.

(Act 13:8) But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

(Act 13:9) Then Saul, (who also Paul,) filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him, (Act 13:10) And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, child of the devil, enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

(Act 13:11) And now, behold, the hand of the Lord upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

(Act 13:12) Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

(Act 13:13) Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

(Act 13:14) But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down.

(Act 13:15) And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, men brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

(Act 13:16) Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear Elohim, give audience.

(Act 13:17) The Elohim of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

(Act 13:18) And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

(Act 13:19) And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

(Act 13:20) And after that he gave judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

(Act 13:21) And afterward they desired a king: and Elohim gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

(Act 13:22) And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

(Act 13:23) Of this man's seed hath Elohim according to promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, YAHshua:

(Act 13:24) When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

(Act 13:25) And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of feet I am not worthy to loose.

(Act 13:26) Men brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth Elohim, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

(Act 13:27) For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath day, they have fulfilled in condemning.

(Act 13:28) And though they found no cause of death, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

(Act 13:29) And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took down from the tree, and laid in a sepulchre.

(Act 13:30) But Elohim raised him from the dead:

(Act 13:31) And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

(Act 13:32) And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, (Act 13:33) Elohim hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up YAHshua again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

(Act 13:34) And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

(Act 13:35) Wherefore he saith also in another, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

(Act 13:36) For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of Elohim, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

(Act 13:37) But he, whom Elohim raised again, saw no corruption.

(Act 13:38) Be it known unto you therefore, men brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

(Act 13:39) And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

(Act 13:40) Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;

(Act 13:41) Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

(Act 13:42) And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.

(Act 13:43) Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of Elohim.

(Act 13:44) And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of Elohim.

(Act 13:45) But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

(Act 13:46) Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of Elohim should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

(Act 13:47) For so hath the Lord commanded us, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

(Act 13:48) And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

(Act 13:49) And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

(Act 13:50) But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

(Act 13:51) But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

(Act 13:52) And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Spirit.

(Act 14:1) And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

(Act 14:2) But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

(Act 14:3) Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

(Act 14:4) But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

(Act 14:5) And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use despitefully, and to stone them, (Act 14:6) They were ware of, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

(Act 14:7) And there they preached the gospel.

(Act 14:8) And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

(Act 14:9) The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, (Act 14:10) Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

(Act 14:11) And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

(Act 14:12) And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

(Act 14:13) Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

(Act 14:14) When the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

(Act 14:15) And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living Elohim, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

(Act 14:16) Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

(Act 14:17) Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

(Act 14:18) And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

(Act 14:19) And there came thither Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

(Act 14:20) Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

(Act 14:21) And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and Iconium, and Antioch, (Act 14:22) Confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of Elohim.

(Act 14:23) And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

(Act 14:24) And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

(Act 14:25) And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

(Act 14:26) And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of Elohim for the work which they fulfilled.

(Act 14:27) And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that Elohim had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

(Act 14:28) And there they abode long time with the disciples.

(Act 15:1) And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

(Act 15:2) When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

(Act 15:3) And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

(Act 15:4) And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that Elohim had done with them.

(Act 15:5) But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command to keep the law of Moses.

(Act 15:6) And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

(Act 15:7) And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men brethren, ye know how that a good while ago Elohim made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

(Act 15:8) And Elohim, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as unto us; (Act 15:9) And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

(Act 15:10) Now therefore why tempt ye Elohim, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

(Act 15:11) But we believe that through the grace of the Lord YAHshua Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

(Act 15:12) Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders Elohim had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

(Act 15:13) And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men brethren, hearken unto me:

(Act 15:14) Simeon hath declared how Elohim at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for His Name.

(Act 15:15) And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

(Act 15:16) After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

(Act 15:17) That the residue of men might seek after YHVH, and all the Gentiles, upon whom My Name is called, saith YHVH, who doeth all these things.

(Act 15:18) Known unto Elohim are all his works from the beginning of the world.

(Act 15:19) Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to Elohim:

(Act 15:20) But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and fornication, and things strangled, and blood.

(Act 15:21) For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath day.

(Act 15:22) Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

(Act 15:23) And they wrote by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

(Act 15:24) Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no commandment:

(Act 15:25) It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

(Act 15:26) Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Act 15:27) We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell the same things by mouth.

(Act 15:28) For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

(Act 15:29) That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

(Act 15:30) So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

(Act 15:31) When they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

(Act 15:32) And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed.

(Act 15:33) And after they had tarried a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

(Act 15:34) Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

(Act 15:35) Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

(Act 15:36) And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, how they do.

(Act 15:37) And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

(Act 15:38) But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

(Act 15:39) And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

(Act 15:40) And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of Elohim.

(Act 15:41) And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

(Act 16:1) Then came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father a Greek:

(Act 16:2) Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

(Act 16:3) Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

(Act 16:4) And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

(Act 16:5) And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

(Act 16:6) Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia, (Act 16:7) After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

(Act 16:8) And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.

(Act 16:9) And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

(Act 16:10) And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

(Act 16:11) Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next to Neapolis;

(Act 16:12) And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

(Act 16:13) And on the Sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted.

(Act 16:14) And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped Elohim, heard: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

(Act 16:15) And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide. And she constrained us.

(Act 16:16) And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

(Act 16:17) The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high Elohim, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

(Act 16:18) And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of YAHshua Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

(Act 16:19) And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew into the marketplace unto the rulers,

(Act 16:20) And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, (Act 16:21) And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

(Act 16:22) And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat.

(Act 16:23) And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

(Act 16:24) Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

(Act 16:25) And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto Elohim: and the prisoners heard them.

(Act 16:26) And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

(Act 16:27) And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

(Act 16:28) But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

(Act 16:29) Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, (Act 16:30) And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

(Act 16:31) And they said, Believe on the Lord YAHshua Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

(Act 16:32) And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

(Act 16:33) And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

(Act 16:34) And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in Elohim with all his house.

(Act 16:35) And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

(Act 16:36) And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

(Act 16:37) But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

(Act 16:38) And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

(Act 16:39) And they came and besought them, and brought out, and desired to depart out of the city.

(Act 16:40) And they went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

(Act 17:1) Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

(Act 17:2) And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three Sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

(Act 17:3) Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this YAHshua, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

(Act 17:4) And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

(Act 17:5) But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

(Act 17:6) And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

(Act 17:7) Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, YAHshua.

(Act 17:8) And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

(Act 17:9) And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

(Act 17:10) And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming went into the synagogue of the Jews.

(Act 17:11) These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

(Act 17:12) Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

(Act 17:13) But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of Elohim was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

(Act 17:14) And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

(Act 17:15) And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

(Act 17:16) Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

(Act 17:17) Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

(Act 17:18) Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them YAHshua, and the resurrection.

(Act 17:19) And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest?

(Act 17:20) For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

(Act 17:21) (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

(Act 17:22) Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

(Act 17:23) For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

(Act 17:24) Elohim that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

(Act 17:25) Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

(Act 17:26) And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

(Act 17:27) That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

(Act 17:28) For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

(Act 17:29) Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of Elohim, we ought not to think that the Elohimhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

(Act 17:30) And the times of this ignorance Elohim winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

(Act 17:31) Because he hath appointed a day, in the which He will judge the world in righteousness by man whom he hath ordained; he hath given assurance unto all, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

(Act 17:32) And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this.

(Act 17:33) So Paul departed from among them.

(Act 17:34) Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

(Act 18:1) After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

(Act 18:2) And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

(Act 18:3) And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

(Act 18:4) And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

(Act 18:5) And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews YAHshua Christ.

(Act 18:6) And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook raiment, and said unto them, Your blood upon your own heads; I clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

(Act 18:7) And he departed thence, and entered into a certain house, named Justus, that worshipped Elohim, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

(Act 18:8) And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

(Act 18:9) Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

(Act 18:10) For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

(Act 18:11) And he continued a year and six months, teaching the word of Elohim among them.

(Act 18:12) And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, (Act 18:13) Saying, This persuadeth men to worship Elohim contrary to the law.

(Act 18:14) And when Paul was now about to open mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

(Act 18:15) But if it be a question of words and names, and your law, look ye; for I will be no judge of such.

(Act 18:16) And he drave them from the judgment seat.

(Act 18:17) Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

(Act 18:18) And Paul tarried yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

(Act 18:19) And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

(Act 18:20) When they desired to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

(Act 18:21) But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if Elohim will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

(Act 18:22) And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

(Act 18:23) And after he had spent some time, he departed, and went over the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

(Act 18:24) And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

(Act 18:25) This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

(Act 18:26) And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto, and expounded unto him the way of Elohim more perfectly.

(Act 18:27) And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

(Act 18:28) For he mightily convinced the Jews, publicly, shewing by the scriptures that YAHshua was Christ.

(Act 19:1) And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, (Act 19:2) He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Spirit since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Spirit.

(Act 19:3) And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.

(Act 19:4) Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ YAHshua.

(Act 19:5) When they heard, they were baptized in the name of the Lord YAHshua.

(Act 19:6) And when Paul had laid hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

(Act 19:7) And all the men were about twelve.

(Act 19:8) And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of Elohim.

(Act 19:9) But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

(Act 19:10) And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord YAHshua, both Jews and Greeks.

(Act 19:11) And Elohim wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

(Act 19:12) So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

(Act 19:13) Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord YAHshua, saying, We adjure you by YAHshua whom Paul preacheth.

(Act 19:14) And there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jew, chief of the priests, which did so.

(Act 19:15) And the evil spirit answered and said, YAHshua I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

(Act 19:16) And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

(Act 19:17) And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord YAHshua was magnified.

(Act 19:18) And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

(Act 19:19) Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all: and they counted the price of them, and found fifty thousand of silver.

(Act 19:20) So mightily grew the word of Elohim and prevailed.

(Act 19:21) After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

(Act 19:22) So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

(Act 19:23) And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

(Act 19:24) For a certain named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

(Act 19:25) Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

(Act 19:26) Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

(Act 19:27) So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

(Act 19:28) And when they heard, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great Diana of the Ephesians.

(Act 19:29) And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

(Act 19:30) And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

(Act 19:31) And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

(Act 19:32) Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

(Act 19:33) And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

(Act 19:34) But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great Diana of the Ephesians.

(Act 19:35) And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of which fell down from Jupiter?

(Act 19:36) Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

(Act 19:37) For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

(Act 19:38) Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

(Act 19:39) But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

(Act 19:40) For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

(Act 19:41) And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

(Act 20:1) And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto the disciples, and embraced, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

(Act 20:2) And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece, (Act 20:3) And abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

(Act 20:4) And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

(Act 20:5) These going before tarried for us at Troas.

(Act 20:6) And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

(Act 20:7) And upon the first of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and

(Act 20:8) And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

(Act 20:9) And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

(Act 20:10) And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

(Act 20:11) When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

(Act 20:12) And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

(Act 20:13) And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

(Act 20:14) And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

(Act 20:15) And we sailed thence, and came the next over against Chios; and the next we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next we came to Miletus.

(Act 20:16) For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

(Act 20:17) And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

(Act 20:18) And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

(Act 20:19) Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

(Act 20:20) How I kept back nothing that was profitable, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,

(Act 20:21) Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward Elohim, and faith toward our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Act 20:22) And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

(Act 20:23) Save that the Holy Spirit witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

(Act 20:24) But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord YAHshua, to testify the gospel of the grace of Elohim.

(Act 20:25) And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of Elohim, shall see my face no more.

(Act 20:26) Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I pure from the blood of all.

(Act 20:27) For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of Elohim.

(Act 20:28) Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Spirit hath made you overseers, to feed the church of Elohim, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

(Act 20:29) For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

(Act 20:30) Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

(Act 20:31) Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

(Act 20:32) And now, brethren, I commend you to Elohim, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

(Act 20:33) I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

(Act 20:34) Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

(Act 20:35) I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord YAHshua, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

(Act 20:36) And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

(Act 20:37) And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, (Act 20:38) Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

(Act 21:1) And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

(Act 21:2) And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

(Act 21:3) Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

(Act 21:4) And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

(Act 21:5) And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

(Act 21:6) And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

(Act 21:7) And when we had finished course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

(Act 21:8) And the next we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was of the seven; and abode with him.

(Act 21:9) And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

(Act 21:10) And as we tarried many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus.

(Act 21:11) And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver into the hands of the Gentiles.

(Act 21:12) And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

(Act 21:13) Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord YAHshua.

(Act 21:14) And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

(Act 21:15) And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

(Act 21:16) There went with us also of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

(Act 21:17) And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

(Act 21:18) And the following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.

(Act 21:19) And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things Elohim had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

(Act 21:20) And when they heard, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

(Act 21:21) And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise children, neither to walk after the customs.

(Act 21:22) What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

(Act 21:23) Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

(Act 21:24) Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

(Act 21:25) As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

(Act 21:26) Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

(Act 21:27) And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, (Act 21:28) Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

(Act 21:29) (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

(Act 21:30) And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

(Act 21:31) And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

(Act 21:32) Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

(Act 21:33) Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

(Act 21:34) And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

(Act 21:35) And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

(Act 21:36) For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

(Act 21:37) And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

(Act 21:38) Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

(Act 21:39) But Paul said, I am a man a Jew of Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

(Act 21:40) And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

(Act 22:1) Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

(Act 22:2) (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

(Act 22:3) I am verily a man a Jew, born in Tarsus, in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward Elohim, as ye all are this day.

(Act 22:4) And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

(Act 22:5) As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

(Act 22:6) And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

(Act 22:7) And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

(Act 22:8) And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am YAHshua of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

(Act 22:9) And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

(Act 22:10) And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

(Act 22:11) And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

(Act 22:12) And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt.

(Act 22:13) Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

(Act 22:14) And he said, The Elohim of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

(Act 22:15) For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

(Act 22:16) And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

(Act 22:17) And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

(Act 22:18) And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

(Act 22:19) And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

(Act 22:20) And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

(Act 22:21) And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

(Act 22:22) And they gave him audience unto this word, and lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

(Act 22:23) And as they cried out, and cast off clothes, and threw dust into the air,

(Act 22:24) The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

(Act 22:25) And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

(Act 22:26) When the centurion heard, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

(Act 22:27) Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

(Act 22:28) And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was born.

(Act 22:29) Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

(Act 22:30) On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

(Act 23:1) And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before Elohim until this day.

(Act 23:2) And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

(Act 23:3) Then said Paul unto him, Elohim shall smite thee, whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

(Act 23:4) And they that stood by said, Revilest thou Elohim's high priest?

(Act 23:5) Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

(Act 23:6) But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

(Act 23:7) And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

(Act 23:8) For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

(Act 23:9) And there arose a great cry: and the scribes of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against Elohim.

(Act 23:10) And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring into the castle.

(Act 23:11) And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

(Act 23:12) And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

(Act 23:13) And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

(Act 23:14) And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

(Act 23:15) Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

(Act 23:16) And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

(Act 23:17) Then Paul called one of the centurions unto, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

(Act 23:18) So he took him, and brought to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

(Act 23:19) Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went aside privately, and asked, What is that thou hast to tell me?

(Act 23:20) And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

(Act 23:21) But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

(Act 23:22) So the chief captain let the young man depart, and charged, tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

(Act 23:23) And he called unto two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

(Act 23:24) And provide beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring safe unto Felix the governor.

(Act 23:25) And he wrote a letter after this manner:

(Act 23:26) Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix greeting.

(Act 23:27) This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

(Act 23:28) And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

(Act 23:29) Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

(Act 23:30) And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what against him. Farewell.

(Act 23:31) Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought by night to Antipatris.

(Act 23:32) On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

(Act 23:33) Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

(Act 23:34) And when the governor had read, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that of Cilicia;

(Act 23:35) I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

(Act 24:1) And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and a certain orator Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

(Act 24:2) And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, (Act 24:3) We accept always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

(Act 24:4) Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

(Act 24:5) For we have found this man pestilent, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

(Act 24:6) Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

(Act 24:7) But the chief captain Lysias came, and with great violence took away out of our hands, (Act 24:8) Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

(Act 24:9) And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

(Act 24:10) Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

(Act 24:11) Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

(Act 24:12) And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

(Act 24:13) Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

(Act 24:14) But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the Elohim of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

(Act 24:15) And have hope toward Elohim, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

(Act 24:16) And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward Elohim, and men.

(Act 24:17) Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

(Act 24:18) Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

(Act 24:19) Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

(Act 24:20) Or else let these same say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, (Act 24:21) Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

(Act 24:22) And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

(Act 24:23) And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

(Act 24:24) And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

(Act 24:25) And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

(Act 24:26) He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

(Act 24:27) But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

(Act 25:1) Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem.

(Act 25:2) Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, (Act 25:3) And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

(Act 25:4) But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly.

(Act 25:5) Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

(Act 25:6) And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

(Act 25:7) And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

(Act 25:8) While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.

(Act 25:9) But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

(Act 25:10) Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

(Act 25:11) For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.

(Act 25:12) Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go.

(Act 25:13) And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus.

(Act 25:14) And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

(Act 25:15) About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed, desiring judgment against him.

(Act 25:16) To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

(Act 25:17) Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

(Act 25:18) Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

(Act 25:19) But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one YAHshua, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

(Act 25:20) And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

(Act 25:21) But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.

(Act 25:22) Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

(Act 25:23) And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

(Act 25:24) And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

(Act 25:25) But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

(Act 25:26) Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

(Act 25:27) For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes against him.

(Act 26:1) Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

(Act 26:2) I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

(Act 26:3) Especially thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

(Act 26:4) My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

(Act 26:5) Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

(Act 26:6) And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of Elohim unto our fathers:

(Act 26:7) Unto which our twelve tribes, instantly serving day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

(Act 26:8) Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that Elohim should raise the dead?

(Act 26:9) I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of YAHshua of Nazareth.

(Act 26:10) Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against.

(Act 26:11) And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted even unto strange cities.

(Act 26:12) Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, (Act 26:13) At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

(Act 26:14) And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

(Act 26:15) And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am YAHshua whom thou persecutest.

(Act 26:16) But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

(Act 26:17) Delivering thee from the people, and the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

(Act 26:18) To open their eyes, to turn from darkness to light, and the power of satan unto Elohim, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

(Act 26:19) Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

(Act 26:20) But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to Elohim, and do works meet for repentance.

(Act 26:21) For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill.

(Act 26:22) Having therefore obtained help of Elohim, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

(Act 26:23) That Christ should suffer, that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

(Act 26:24) And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

(Act 26:25) But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

(Act 26:26) For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

(Act 26:27) King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

(Act 26:28) Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

(Act 26:29) And Paul said, I would to Elohim, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

(Act 26:30) And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

(Act 26:31) And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

(Act 26:32) Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Caesar.

(Act 27:1) And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

(Act 27:2) And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

(Act 27:3) And the next we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

(Act 27:4) And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

(Act 27:5) And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, of Lycia.

(Act 27:6) And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

(Act 27:7) And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone;

(Act 27:8) And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city Lasea.

(Act 27:9) Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished, (Act 27:10) And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

(Act 27:11) Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

(Act 27:12) And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, to winter; an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

(Act 27:13) And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained purpose, loosing, they sailed close by Crete.

(Act 27:14) But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

(Act 27:15) And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let drive.

(Act 27:16) And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

(Act 27:17) Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

(Act 27:18) And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next they lightened the ship;

(Act 27:19) And the third we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

(Act 27:20) And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

(Act 27:21) But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

(Act 27:22) And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but of the ship.

(Act 27:23) For there stood by me this night the angel of Elohim, whose I am, and whom I serve, (Act 27:24) Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, Elohim hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

(Act 27:25) Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe Elohim, that it shall be even as it was told me.

(Act 27:26) Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

(Act 27:27) But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

(Act 27:28) And sounded, and found twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms.

(Act 27:29) Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

(Act 27:30) And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, (Act 27:31) Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

(Act 27:32) Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

(Act 27:33) And while the day was coming on, Paul besought all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

(Act 27:34) Wherefore I pray you to take meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

(Act 27:35) And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to Elohim in presence of them all: and when he had broken, he began to eat.

(Act 27:36) Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took meat.

(Act 27:37) And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

(Act 27:38) And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

(Act 27:39) And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

(Act 27:40) And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

(Act 27:41) And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

(Act 27:42) And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

(Act 27:43) But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast first, and get to land:

(Act 27:44) And the rest, some on boards, and some on of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

(Act 28:1) And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

(Act 28:2) And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

(Act 28:3) And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

(Act 28:4) And when the barbarians saw the beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

(Act 28:5) And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

(Act 28:6) Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

(Act 28:7) In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

(Act 28:8) And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

(Act 28:9) So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

(Act 28:10) Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded with such things as were necessary.

(Act 28:11) And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

(Act 28:12) And landing at Syracuse, we tarried three days.

(Act 28:13) And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

(Act 28:14) Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

(Act 28:15) And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked Elohim, and took courage.

(Act 28:16) And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

(Act 28:17) And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

(Act 28:18) Who, when they had examined me, would have let go, because there was no cause of death in me.

(Act 28:19) But when the Jews spake against, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

(Act 28:20) For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see, and to speak with: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

(Act 28:21) And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

(Act 28:22) But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

(Act 28:23) And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of Elohim, persuading them concerning YAHshua, both out of the law of Moses, and the prophets, from morning till evening.

(Act 28:24) And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

(Act 28:25) And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Spirit by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

(Act 28:26) Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

(Act 28:27) For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with eyes, and hear with ears, and understand with heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

(Act 28:28) Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of Elohim is sent unto the Gentiles, and they will hear it.

(Act 28:29) And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

(Act 28:30) And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, (Act 28:31) Preaching the kingdom of Elohim, and teaching those things which concern the Lord YAHshua Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

Romans.

(Rom 1:1) Paul, a servant of YAHshua Christ, called an apostle, separated unto the gospel of Elohim,

(Rom 1:2) (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

(Rom 1:3) Concerning his Son YAHshua Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

(Rom 1:4) And declared the Son of Elohim with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

(Rom 1:5) By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his Name:

(Rom 1:6) Among whom are ye also the called of YAHshua Christ:

(Rom 1:7) To all that be in Rome, beloved of Elohim, called saints: Grace to you and peace from Elohim our Father, and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Rom 1:8) First, I thank my Elohim through YAHshua Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

(Rom 1:9) For Elohim is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

(Rom 1:10) Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of Elohim to come unto you.

(Rom 1:11) For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

(Rom 1:12) That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

(Rom 1:13) Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

(Rom 1:14) I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

(Rom 1:15) So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

(Rom 1:16) For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of Elohim unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

(Rom 1:17) For therein is the righteousness of Elohim revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

(Rom 1:18) For the wrath of Elohim is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

(Rom 1:19) Because that which may be known of Elohim is manifest in them; for Elohim hath shewed unto them.

(Rom 1:20) For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

(Rom 1:21) Because that, when they knew Elohim, they glorified not as Elohim, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

(Rom 1:22) Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

(Rom 1:23) And changed the glory of the uncorruptible Elohim into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

(Rom 1:24) Wherefore Elohim also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

(Rom 1:25) Who changed the truth of Elohim into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

(Rom 1:26) For this cause Elohim gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

(Rom 1:27) And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

(Rom 1:28) And even as they did not like to retain Elohim in knowledge, Elohim gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

(Rom 1:29) Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

(Rom 1:30) Backbiters, haters of Elohim, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

(Rom 1:31) Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

(Rom 1:32) Who knowing the judgment of Elohim, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

(Rom 2:1) Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

(Rom 2:2) But we are sure that the judgment of Elohim is according to truth against them which commit such things.

(Rom 2:3) And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of Elohim?

(Rom 2:4) Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of Elohim leadeth thee to repentance?

(Rom 2:5) But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of Elohim;

(Rom 2:6) Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

(Rom 2:7) To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

(Rom 2:8) But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

(Rom 2:9) Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

(Rom 2:10) But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

(Rom 2:11) For there is no respect of persons with Elohim.

(Rom 2:12) For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

(Rom 2:13) (For not the hearers of the law just before Elohim, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

(Rom 2:14) For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

(Rom 2:15) Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

(Rom 2:16) In the day when Elohim shall judge the secrets of men by YAHshua Christ according to my gospel.

(Rom 2:17) Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of Elohim,

(Rom 2:18) And knowest will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

(Rom 2:19) And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

(Rom 2:20) An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

(Rom 2:21) Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

(Rom 2:22) Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

(Rom 2:23) Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou Elohim?

(Rom 2:24) For the Name of Elohim is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

(Rom 2:25) For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

(Rom 2:26) Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

(Rom 2:27) And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

(Rom 2:28) For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

(Rom 2:29) But he a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter; whose praise not of men, but of Elohim.

(Rom 3:1) What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit of circumcision?
(Rom 3:2) Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of Elohim.
(Rom 3:3) For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of Elohim without effect?
(Rom 3:4) Elohim forbid: yea, let Elohim be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.
(Rom 3:5) But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of Elohim, what shall we say? Elohim unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)
(Rom 3:6) Elohim forbid: for then how shall Elohim judge the world?
(Rom 3:7) For if the truth of Elohim hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
(Rom 3:8) And not (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.
(Rom 3:9) What then? are we better? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;
(Rom 3:10) As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:
(Rom 3:11) There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after Elohim.
(Rom 3:12) They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.
(Rom 3:13) Their throat an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps under their lips:
(Rom 3:14) Whose mouth full of cursing and bitterness:
(Rom 3:15) Their feet swift to shed blood:
(Rom 3:16) Destruction and misery in their ways:
(Rom 3:17) And the way of peace have they not known:
(Rom 3:18) There is no fear of Elohim before their eyes.
(Rom 3:19) Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before Elohim.
(Rom 3:20) Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law the knowledge of sin.
(Rom 3:21) But now the righteousness of Elohim without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
(Rom 3:22) Even the righteousness of Elohim by faith of YAHshua Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
(Rom 3:23) For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of Elohim;
(Rom 3:24) Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ YAHshua:
(Rom 3:25) Whom Elohim hath set forth a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of Elohim;

(Rom 3:26) To declare, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in YAHshua.

(Rom 3:27) Where boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

(Rom 3:28) Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

(Rom 3:29) The Elohim of the Jews only? not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

(Rom 3:30) Seeing one Elohim, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

(Rom 3:31) Do we then make void the law through faith? Elohim forbid: yea, we establish the law.

(Rom 4:1) What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

(Rom 4:2) For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath to glory; but not before Elohim.

(Rom 4:3) For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed Elohim, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

(Rom 4:4) Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

(Rom 4:5) But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

(Rom 4:6) Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom Elohim imputeth righteousness without works, (Rom 4:7) Blessed they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

(Rom 4:8) Blessed the man to whom YHVH will not impute sin.

(Rom 4:9) This blessedness then upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

(Rom 4:10) How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

(Rom 4:11) And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

(Rom 4:12) And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which being uncircumcised.

(Rom 4:13) For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

(Rom 4:14) For if they which are of the law heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

(Rom 4:15) Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, no transgression.

(Rom 4:16) Therefore of faith, that by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

(Rom 4:17) (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, Elohim, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

(Rom 4:18) Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

(Rom 4:19) And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb:

(Rom 4:20) He staggered not at the promise of Elohim through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to Elohim;

(Rom 4:21) And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

(Rom 4:22) And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

(Rom 4:23) Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

(Rom 4:24) But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up YAHshua our Lord from the dead;

(Rom 4:25) Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

(Rom 5:1) Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with Elohim through our Lord YAHshua Christ:

(Rom 5:2) By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of Elohim.

(Rom 5:3) And not only, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

(Rom 5:4) And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

(Rom 5:5) And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of Elohim is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit which is given unto us.

(Rom 5:6) For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

(Rom 5:7) For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

(Rom 5:8) But Elohim commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

(Rom 5:9) Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

(Rom 5:10) For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to Elohim by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

(Rom 5:11) And not only, but we also joy in Elohim through our Lord YAHshua Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

(Rom 5:12) Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

(Rom 5:13) (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

(Rom 5:14) Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

(Rom 5:15) But not as the offence, so also the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of Elohim, and the gift by grace, by one man, YAHshua Christ, hath abounded unto many.

(Rom 5:16) And not as by one that sinned, the gift: for the judgment by one to condemnation, but the free gift of many offences unto justification.

(Rom 5:17) For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, YAHshua Christ.)

(Rom 5:18) Therefore as by the offence of one upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one upon all men unto justification of life.

(Rom 5:19) For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

(Rom 5:20) Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

(Rom 5:21) That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by YAHshua Christ our Lord.

(Rom 6:1) What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

(Rom 6:2) Elohim forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

(Rom 6:3) Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into YAHshua Christ were baptized into his death?

(Rom 6:4) Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

(Rom 6:5) For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also of resurrection:

(Rom 6:6) Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

(Rom 6:7) For he that is dead is freed from sin.

(Rom 6:8) Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

(Rom 6:9) Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

(Rom 6:10) For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto Elohim.

(Rom 6:11) Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto Elohim through YAHshua Christ our Lord.

(Rom 6:12) Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

(Rom 6:13) Neither yield ye your members instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto Elohim, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members instruments of righteousness unto Elohim.

(Rom 6:14) For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

(Rom 6:15) What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? Elohim forbid.

(Rom 6:16) Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

(Rom 6:17) But Elohim be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

(Rom 6:18) Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

(Rom 6:19) I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

(Rom 6:20) For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

(Rom 6:21) What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things death.

(Rom 6:22) But now being made free from sin, and become servants to Elohim, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

(Rom 6:23) For the wages of sin death; but the gift of Elohim eternal life through YAHshua Christ our Lord.

(Rom 7:1) Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

(Rom 7:2) For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of husband.

(Rom 7:3) So then if, while husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

(Rom 7:4) Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto Elohim.

(Rom 7:5) For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

(Rom 7:6) But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not the oldness of the letter.

(Rom 7:7) What shall we say then? the law sin? Elohim forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

(Rom 7:8) But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin dead.

(Rom 7:9) For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

(Rom 7:10) And the commandment, which to life, I found unto death.

(Rom 7:11) For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew.

(Rom 7:12) Wherefore the law holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

(Rom 7:13) Was then that which is good made death unto me? Elohim forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

(Rom 7:14) For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.

(Rom 7:15) For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

(Rom 7:16) If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that good.

(Rom 7:17) Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

(Rom 7:18) For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

(Rom 7:19) For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

(Rom 7:20) Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

(Rom 7:21) I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

(Rom 7:22) For I delight in the law of Elohim after the inward man:

(Rom 7:23) But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

(Rom 7:24) O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

(Rom 7:25) I thank Elohim through YAHshua Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of Elohim; but with the flesh the law of sin.

(Rom 8:1) Therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ YAHshua, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

(Rom 8:2) For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ YAHshua hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

(Rom 8:3) For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, Elohim sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

(Rom 8:4) That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

(Rom 8:5) For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

(Rom 8:6) For to be carnally minded death; but to be spiritually minded life and peace.

(Rom 8:7) Because the carnal mind enmity against Elohim: for it is not subject to the law of Elohim, neither indeed can be.

(Rom 8:8) So then they that are in the flesh cannot please Elohim.

(Rom 8:9) But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of Elohim dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

(Rom 8:10) And if Christ in you, the body dead because of sin; but the Spirit life because of righteousness.

(Rom 8:11) But if the Spirit of him that raised up YAHshua from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

(Rom 8:12) Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

(Rom 8:13) For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

(Rom 8:14) For as many as are led by the Spirit of Elohim, they are the sons of Elohim.

(Rom 8:15) For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

(Rom 8:16) The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of Elohim:

(Rom 8:17) And if children, then heirs; heirs of Elohim, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with, that we may be also glorified together.

(Rom 8:18) For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

(Rom 8:19) For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of Elohim.

(Rom 8:20) For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected in hope,

(Rom 8:21) Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of Elohim.

(Rom 8:22) For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

(Rom 8:23) And not only, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body.

(Rom 8:24) For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

(Rom 8:25) But if we hope for that we see not, do we with patience wait for.

(Rom 8:26) Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

(Rom 8:27) And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to Elohim.

(Rom 8:28) And we know that all things work together for good to them that love Elohim, to them who are the called according to purpose.

(Rom 8:29) For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

(Rom 8:30) Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

(Rom 8:31) What shall we then say to these things? If Elohim for us, who against us?

(Rom 8:32) He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

(Rom 8:33) Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Elohim's elect? Elohim that justifieth.

(Rom 8:34) Who he that condemneth? Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of Elohim, who also maketh intercession for us.

(Rom 8:35) Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

(Rom 8:36) As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

(Rom 8:37) Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

(Rom 8:38) For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

(Rom 8:39) Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of Elohim, which is in Christ YAHshua our Lord.

(Rom 9:1) I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit, (Rom 9:2) That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

(Rom 9:3) For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

(Rom 9:4) Who are Israelites; to whom the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service, and the promises;

(Rom 9:5) Whose the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ, who is over all, Elohim blessed for ever. Amen.

(Rom 9:6) Not as though the word of Elohim hath taken none effect. For they not all Israel, which are of Israel:

(Rom 9:7) Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

(Rom 9:8) That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these not the children of Elohim: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

(Rom 9:9) For this the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.

(Rom 9:10) And not only; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, by our father Isaac;

(Rom 9:11) (For being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of Elohim according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

(Rom 9:12) It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

(Rom 9:13) As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

(Rom 9:14) What shall we say then? Unrighteousness with Elohim? Elohim forbid.

(Rom 9:15) For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

(Rom 9:16) So then not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of Elohim that sheweth mercy.

(Rom 9:17) For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the earth.

(Rom 9:18) Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.

(Rom 9:19) Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

(Rom 9:20) Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against Elohim? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed, Why hast thou made me thus?

(Rom 9:21) Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

(Rom 9:22) If Elohim, willing to shew wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

(Rom 9:23) And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, (Rom 9:24) Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

(Rom 9:25) As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

(Rom 9:26) And it shall come to pass, in the place where it was said unto them, Ye not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living Elohim.

(Rom 9:27) Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

(Rom 9:28) For he will finish the work, and cut short in righteousness: because a short work will YHVH make upon the earth.

(Rom 9:29) And as Esaias said before, Except YHVH of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

(Rom 9:30) What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

(Rom 9:31) But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

(Rom 9:32) Wherefore? Because not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

(Rom 9:33) As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

(Rom 10:1) Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to Elohim for Israel is, that they might be saved.

(Rom 10:2) For I bear them record that they have a zeal of Elohim, but not according to knowledge.

(Rom 10:3) For they being ignorant of Elohim's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of Elohim.

(Rom 10:4) For Christ the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

(Rom 10:5) For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

(Rom 10:6) But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:)

(Rom 10:7) Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

(Rom 10:8) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

(Rom 10:9) That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord YAHshua, and shalt believe in thine heart that Elohim hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

(Rom 10:10) For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

(Rom 10:11) For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

(Rom 10:12) For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

(Rom 10:13) For whosoever shall call upon the Name of YHVH shall be saved.

(Rom 10:14) How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

(Rom 10:15) And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

(Rom 10:16) But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, YHVH, who hath believed our report?

(Rom 10:17) So then faith by hearing, and hearing by the word of Elohim.

(Rom 10:18) But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

(Rom 10:19) But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by no people, by a foolish nation I will anger you.

(Rom 10:20) But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

(Rom 10:21) But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

(Rom 11:1) I say then, Hath Elohim cast away his people? Elohim forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, the tribe of Benjamin.

(Rom 11:2) Elohim hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to Elohim against Israel, saying, (Rom 11:3) YHVH, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

(Rom 11:4) But what saith the answer of Elohim unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.

(Rom 11:5) Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

(Rom 11:6) And if by grace, then no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

(Rom 11:7) What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded

(Rom 11:8) (According as it is written, Elohim hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

(Rom 11:9) And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

(Rom 11:10) Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

(Rom 11:11) I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? Elohim forbid: but through their fall salvation unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

(Rom 11:12) Now if the fall of them the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

(Rom 11:13) For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

(Rom 11:14) If by any means I may provoke to emulation my flesh, and might save some of them.

(Rom 11:15) For if the casting away of them the reconciling of the world, what the receiving, but life from the dead?

(Rom 11:16) For if the firstfruit holy, the lump also: and if the root holy, so the branches.

(Rom 11:17) And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

(Rom 11:18) Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

(Rom 11:19) Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

(Rom 11:20) Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:

(Rom 11:21) For if Elohim spared not the natural branches, lest he also spare not thee.

(Rom 11:22) Behold therefore the goodness and severity of Elohim: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

(Rom 11:23) And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for Elohim is able to graff them in again.

(Rom 11:24) For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural, be grafted into their own olive tree?

(Rom 11:25) For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

(Rom 11:26) And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

(Rom 11:27) For this my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

(Rom 11:28) As concerning the gospel, enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, beloved for the fathers' sakes.

(Rom 11:29) For the gifts and calling of Elohim without repentance.

(Rom 11:30) For as ye in times past have not believed Elohim, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

(Rom 11:31) Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

(Rom 11:32) For Elohim hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

(Rom 11:33) O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of Elohim! how unsearchable his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

(Rom 11:34) For who hath known the mind of YHVH? or who hath been his counsellor?

(Rom 11:35) Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

(Rom 11:36) For of him, and through him, and to him, all things: to whom glory for ever. Amen.

(Rom 12:1) I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of Elohim, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto Elohim, your reasonable service.

(Rom 12:2) And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of Elohim.

(Rom 12:3) For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as Elohim hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

(Rom 12:4) For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

(Rom 12:5) So we, many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

(Rom 12:6) Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, according to the proportion of faith;

(Rom 12:7) Or ministry, on ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching;

(Rom 12:8) Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

(Rom 12:9) Love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

(Rom 12:10) Kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

(Rom 12:11) Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

(Rom 12:12) Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

(Rom 12:13) Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

(Rom 12:14) Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

(Rom 12:15) Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

(Rom 12:16) Of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

(Rom 12:17) Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

(Rom 12:18) If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

(Rom 12:19) Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance mine; I will repay, saith YHVH.

(Rom 12:20) Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

(Rom 12:21) Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

(Rom 13:1) Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of Elohim: the powers that be are ordained of Elohim.

(Rom 13:2) Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of Elohim: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

(Rom 13:3) For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

(Rom 13:4) For he is the minister of Elohim to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of Elohim, a revenger to wrath upon him that doeth evil.

(Rom 13:5) Wherefore must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

(Rom 13:6) For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are Elohim's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

(Rom 13:7) Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

(Rom 13:8) Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

(Rom 13:9) For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

(Rom 13:10) Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

(Rom 13:11) And that, knowing the time, that now high time to awake out of sleep: for now our salvation nearer than when we believed.

(Rom 13:12) The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

(Rom 13:13) Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

(Rom 13:14) But put ye on the Lord YAHshua Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to the lusts.

(Rom 14:1) Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, not to doubtful disputations.

(Rom 14:2) For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

(Rom 14:3) Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for Elohim hath received him.

(Rom 14:4) Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for Elohim is able to make him stand.

(Rom 14:5) One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

(Rom 14:6) He that regardeth the day, regardeth unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth Elohim thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth Elohim thanks.

(Rom 14:7) For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

(Rom 14:8) For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

(Rom 14:9) For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

(Rom 14:10) But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

(Rom 14:11) For it is written, I live, saith YHVH, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to Elohim.

(Rom 14:12) So then every one of us shall give account of himself to Elohim.

(Rom 14:13) Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in brother's way.

(Rom 14:14) I know, and am persuaded by the Lord YAHshua, that nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him unclean.

(Rom 14:15) But if thy brother be grieved with meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

(Rom 14:16) Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

(Rom 14:17) For the kingdom of Elohim is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

(Rom 14:18) For he that in these things serveth Christ acceptable to Elohim, and approved of men.

(Rom 14:19) Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

(Rom 14:20) For meat destroy not the work of Elohim. All things indeed pure; but evil for that man who eateth with offence.

(Rom 14:21) Good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

(Rom 14:22) Hast thou faith? have to thyself before Elohim. Happy he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

(Rom 14:23) And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because not of faith: for whatsoever not of faith is sin.

(Rom 15:1) We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

(Rom 15:2) Let every one of us please neighbour for good to edification.

(Rom 15:3) For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

(Rom 15:4) For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

(Rom 15:5) Now the Elohim of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ YAHshua:

(Rom 15:6) That ye may with one mind one mouth glorify Elohim, even the Father of our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Rom 15:7) Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of Elohim.

(Rom 15:8) Now I say that YAHshua Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of Elohim, to confirm the promises unto the fathers:

(Rom 15:9) And that the Gentiles might glorify Elohim for mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name.

(Rom 15:10) And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

(Rom 15:11) And again, Praise YHVH, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

(Rom 15:12) And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

(Rom 15:13) Now the Elohim of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

(Rom 15:14) And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

(Rom 15:15) Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of Elohim, (Rom 15:16) That I should be the minister of YAHshua Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of Elohim, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

(Rom 15:17) I have therefore whereof I may glory through YAHshua Christ in those things which pertain to Elohim.

(Rom 15:18) For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

(Rom 15:19) Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of Elohim; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

(Rom 15:20) Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

(Rom 15:21) But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

(Rom 15:22) For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

(Rom 15:23) But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

(Rom 15:24) Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your.

(Rom 15:25) But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

(Rom 15:26) For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

(Rom 15:27) It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

(Rom 15:28) When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

(Rom 15:29) And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

(Rom 15:30) Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord YAHshua Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in prayers to Elohim for me;

(Rom 15:31) That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea; and that my service which for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

(Rom 15:32) That I may come unto you with joy by the will of Elohim, and may with you be refreshed.

(Rom 15:33) Now the Elohim of peace with you all. Amen.

(Rom 16:1) I commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchræa:

(Rom 16:2) That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

(Rom 16:3) Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ YAHshua:

(Rom 16:4) Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

(Rom 16:5) Likewise the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ.

(Rom 16:6) Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

(Rom 16:7) Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

(Rom 16:8) Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

(Rom 16:9) Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

(Rom 16:10) Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus'.

(Rom 16:11) Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

(Rom 16:12) Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

(Rom 16:13) Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

(Rom 16:14) Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

(Rom 16:15) Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

(Rom 16:16) Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

(Rom 16:17) Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

(Rom 16:18) For they that are such serve not our Lord YAHshua Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

(Rom 16:19) For your obedience is come abroad unto all. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

(Rom 16:20) And the Elohim of peace shall bruise satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with you. Amen.

(Rom 16:21) Timotheus my workfellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.

(Rom 16:22) I Tertius, who wrote epistle, salute you in the Lord.

(Rom 16:23) Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

(Rom 16:24) The grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with you all. Amen.

(Rom 16:25) Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of YAHshua Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,

(Rom 16:26) But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting Elohim, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:

(Rom 16:27) To Elohim only wise, glory through YAHshua Christ for ever. Amen. Written to the Romans from Corinthus, and sent by Phebe servant of the church at Cencrea.

1 Corinthians.

(1Co 1:1) Paul, called an apostle of YAHshua Christ through the will of Elohim, and Sosthenes brother,

(1Co 1:2) Unto the church of Elohim which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ YAHshua, called saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of YAHshua Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

(1Co 1:3) Grace unto you, and peace, from Elohim our Father, and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(1Co 1:4) I thank my Elohim always on your behalf, for the grace of Elohim which is given you by YAHshua Christ;

(1Co 1:5) That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and all knowledge;

(1Co 1:6) Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

(1Co 1:7) So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord YAHshua Christ:

(1Co 1:8) Who shall also confirm you unto the end, blameless in the day of our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(1Co 1:9) Elohim faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son YAHshua Christ our Lord.

(1Co 1:10) Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord YAHshua Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and there be no divisions among you; but ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

(1Co 1:11) For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

(1Co 1:12) Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

(1Co 1:13) Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

(1Co 1:14) I thank Elohim that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius; (1Co 1:15) Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

(1Co 1:16) And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

(1Co 1:17) For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

(1Co 1:18) For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of Elohim.

(1Co 1:19) For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

(1Co 1:20) Where the wise? where the scribe? where the disputer of this world? hath not Elohim made foolish the wisdom of this world?

(1Co 1:21) For after that in the wisdom of Elohim the world by wisdom knew not Elohim, it pleased Elohim by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

(1Co 1:22) For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

(1Co 1:23) But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; (1Co 1:24) But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of Elohim, and the wisdom of Elohim.

(1Co 1:25) Because the foolishness of Elohim is wiser than men; and the weakness of Elohim is stronger than men.

(1Co 1:26) For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble:

(1Co 1:27) But Elohim hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and Elohim hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

(1Co 1:28) And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath Elohim chosen, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

(1Co 1:29) That no flesh should glory in his presence.

(1Co 1:30) But of him are ye in Christ YAHshua, who of Elohim is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

(1Co 1:31) That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in YHVH.

(1Co 2:1) And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of Elohim.

(1Co 2:2) For I determined not to know any thing among you, save YAHshua Christ, and him crucified.

(1Co 2:3) And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

(1Co 2:4) And my speech and my preaching not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

(1Co 2:5) That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of Elohim.

(1Co 2:6) Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

(1Co 2:7) But we speak the wisdom of Elohim in a mystery, the hidden, which Elohim ordained before the world unto our glory:

(1Co 2:8) Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

(1Co 2:9) But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which Elohim hath prepared for them that love him.

(1Co 2:10) But Elohim hath revealed unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of Elohim.

(1Co 2:11) For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of Elohim knoweth no man, but the Spirit of Elohim.

(1Co 2:12) Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of Elohim; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of Elohim.

(1Co 2:13) Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Spirit teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

(1Co 2:14) But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of Elohim: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know, because they are spiritually discerned.

(1Co 2:15) But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

(1Co 2:16) For who hath known the mind of YHVH, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

(1Co 3:1) And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, as unto babes in Christ.

(1Co 3:2) I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able, neither yet now are ye able.

(1Co 3:3) For ye are yet carnal: for whereas among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

(1Co 3:4) For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

(1Co 3:5) Who then is Paul, and who Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

(1Co 3:6) I have planted, Apollos watered; but Elohim gave the increase.

(1Co 3:7) So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but Elohim that giveth the increase.

(1Co 3:8) Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

(1Co 3:9) For we are labourers together with Elohim: ye are Elohim's husbandry, Elohim's building.

(1Co 3:10) According to the grace of Elohim which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

(1Co 3:11) For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is YAHshua Christ.

(1Co 3:12) Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

(1Co 3:13) Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

(1Co 3:14) If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

(1Co 3:15) If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

(1Co 3:16) Know ye not that ye are the temple of Elohim, and the Spirit of Elohim dwelleth in you?

(1Co 3:17) If any man defile the temple of Elohim, him shall Elohim destroy; for the temple of Elohim is holy, which ye are.

(1Co 3:18) Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

(1Co 3:19) For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with Elohim. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

(1Co 3:20) And again, YHVH knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

(1Co 3:21) Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours;

(1Co 3:22) Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

(1Co 3:23) And ye are Christ's; and Christ Elohim's.

(1Co 4:1) Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of Elohim.

(1Co 4:2) Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

(1Co 4:3) But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

(1Co 4:4) For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

(1Co 4:5) Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of Elohim.

(1Co 4:6) And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

(1Co 4:7) For who maketh thee to differ? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received?

(1Co 4:8) Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to Elohim ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

(1Co 4:9) For I think that Elohim hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

(1Co 4:10) We fools for Christ's sake, but ye wise in Christ; we weak, but ye strong; ye honourable, but we despised.

(1Co 4:11) Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

(1Co 4:12) And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

(1Co 4:13) Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things unto this day.

(1Co 4:14) I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn.

(1Co 4:15) For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet not many fathers: for in Christ YAHshua I have begotten you through the gospel.

(1Co 4:16) Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

(1Co 4:17) For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

(1Co 4:18) Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

(1Co 4:19) But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

(1Co 4:20) For the kingdom of Elohim not in word, but in power.

(1Co 4:21) What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and the spirit of meekness?

(1Co 5:1) It is reported commonly fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

(1Co 5:2) And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

(1Co 5:3) For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, him that hath so done this deed,

(1Co 5:4) In the name of our Lord YAHshua Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord YAHshua Christ, (1Co 5:5) To deliver such an one unto satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord YAHshua.

(1Co 5:6) Your glorying not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

(1Co 5:7) Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

(1Co 5:8) Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened of sincerity and truth.

(1Co 5:9) I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators:

(1Co 5:10) Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

(1Co 5:11) But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

(1Co 5:12) For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

(1Co 5:13) But them that are without Elohim judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

(1Co 6:1) Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

(1Co 6:2) Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

(1Co 6:3) Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

(1Co 6:4) If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

(1Co 6:5) I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

(1Co 6:6) But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

(1Co 6:7) Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather be defrauded?

(1Co 6:8) Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that brethren.

(1Co 6:9) Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of Elohim? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, (1Co 6:10) Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of Elohim.

(1Co 6:11) And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord YAHshua, and by the Spirit of our Elohim.

(1Co 6:12) All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

(1Co 6:13) Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but Elohim shall destroy both it and them. Now the body not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

(1Co 6:14) And Elohim hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

(1Co 6:15) Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make the members of an harlot? Elohim forbid.

(1Co 6:16) What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

(1Co 6:17) But he that is joined unto the Lord is one Spirit.

(1Co 6:18) Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

(1Co 6:19) What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit in you, which ye have of Elohim, and ye are not your own?

(1Co 6:20) For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify Elohim in your body, and in your spirit, which are Elohim's.

(1Co 7:1) Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: good for a man not to touch a woman.

(1Co 7:2) Nevertheless, fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

(1Co 7:3) Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

(1Co 7:4) The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

(1Co 7:5) Defraud ye not one the other, except with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

(1Co 7:6) But I speak this by permission, not of commandment.

(1Co 7:7) For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of Elohim, one after this manner, and another after that.

(1Co 7:8) I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

(1Co 7:9) But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

(1Co 7:10) And unto the married I command, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

(1Co 7:11) But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to husband: and let not the husband put away wife.

(1Co 7:12) But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

(1Co 7:13) And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

(1Co 7:14) For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

(1Co 7:15) But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such: but Elohim hath called us to peace.

(1Co 7:16) For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save wife?

(1Co 7:17) But as Elohim hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.

(1Co 7:18) Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

(1Co 7:19) Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of Elohim.

(1Co 7:20) Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

(1Co 7:21) Art thou called a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use rather.

(1Co 7:22) For he that is called in the Lord, a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, free, is Christ's servant.

(1Co 7:23) Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

(1Co 7:24) Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with Elohim.

(1Co 7:25) Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

(1Co 7:26) I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, that good for a man so to be.

(1Co 7:27) Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

(1Co 7:28) But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

(1Co 7:29) But this I say, brethren, the time short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

(1Co 7:30) And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

(1Co 7:31) And they that use this world, as not abusing: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

(1Co 7:32) But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

(1Co 7:33) But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please wife.

(1Co 7:34) There is difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please husband.

(1Co 7:35) And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

(1Co 7:36) But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

(1Co 7:37) Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

(1Co 7:38) So then he that giveth in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth not in marriage doeth better.

(1Co 7:39) The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

(1Co 7:40) But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of Elohim.

(1Co 8:1) Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

(1Co 8:2) And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

(1Co 8:3) But if any man love Elohim, the same is known of him.

(1Co 8:4) As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol nothing in the world, and that none other Elohim but one.

(1Co 8:5) For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

(1Co 8:6) But to us one Elohim, the Father, of whom all things, and we in him; and one Lord YAHshua Christ, by whom all things, and we by him.

(1Co 8:7) Howbeit not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

(1Co 8:8) But meat commendeth us not to Elohim: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

(1Co 8:9) But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

(1Co 8:10) For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

(1Co 8:11) And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

(1Co 8:12) But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

(1Co 8:13) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

(1Co 9:1) Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen YAHshua Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

(1Co 9:2) If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

(1Co 9:3) Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

(1Co 9:4) Have we not power to eat and to drink?

(1Co 9:5) Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

(1Co 9:6) Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

(1Co 9:7) Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

(1Co 9:8) Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

(1Co 9:9) For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth Elohim take care for oxen?

(1Co 9:10) Or saith he altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

(1Co 9:11) If we have sown unto you spiritual things, a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

(1Co 9:12) If others be partakers of power over you, not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

(1Co 9:13) Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

(1Co 9:14) Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

(1Co 9:15) But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

(1Co 9:16) For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

(1Co 9:17) For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation is committed unto me.

(1Co 9:18) What is my reward then? that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

(1Co 9:19) For though I be free from all, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

(1Co 9:20) And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

(1Co 9:21) To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to Elohim, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

(1Co 9:22) To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all, that I might by all means save some.

(1Co 9:23) And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with.

(1Co 9:24) Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

(1Co 9:25) And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

(1Co 9:26) I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

(1Co 9:27) But I keep under my body, and bring into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

(1Co 10:1) Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;

(1Co 10:2) And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

(1Co 10:3) And did all eat the same spiritual meat;

(1Co 10:4) And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

(1Co 10:5) But with many of them Elohim was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

(1Co 10:6) Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

(1Co 10:7) Neither be ye idolaters, as some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

(1Co 10:8) Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

(1Co 10:9) Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

(1Co 10:10) Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

(1Co 10:11) Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

(1Co 10:12) Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

(1Co 10:13) There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but Elohim faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

(1Co 10:14) Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

(1Co 10:15) I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

(1Co 10:16) The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

(1Co 10:17) For we many are one bread, one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

(1Co 10:18) Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

(1Co 10:19) What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

(1Co 10:20) But, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to Elohim: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

(1Co 10:21) Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

(1Co 10:22) Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

(1Co 10:23) All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

(1Co 10:24) Let no man seek his own, but every man another's.

(1Co 10:25) Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

(1Co 10:26) For the earth YHVH's, and the fulness thereof.

(1Co 10:27) If any of them that believe not bid you , and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

(1Co 10:28) But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth YHVH's, and the fulness thereof:

(1Co 10:29) Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another conscience?

(1Co 10:30) For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

(1Co 10:31) Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of Elohim.

(1Co 10:32) Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of Elohim:

(1Co 10:33) Even as I please all in all, not seeking mine own profit, but the of many, that they may be saved.

(1Co 11:1) Be ye followers of me, even as I also of Christ.

(1Co 11:2) Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered to you.

(1Co 11:3) But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman the man; and the head of Christ Elohim.

(1Co 11:4) Every man praying or prophesying, having head covered, dishonoureth his head.

(1Co 11:5) But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

(1Co 11:6) For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

(1Co 11:7) For a man indeed ought not to cover head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of Elohim: but the woman is the glory of the man.

(1Co 11:8) For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

(1Co 11:9) Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

(1Co 11:10) For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.

(1Co 11:11) Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

(1Co 11:12) For as the woman of the man, even so the man also by the woman; but all things of Elohim.

(1Co 11:13) Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto Elohim uncovered?

(1Co 11:14) Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

(1Co 11:15) But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

(1Co 11:16) But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of Elohim.

(1Co 11:17) Now in this that I declare I praise not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

(1Co 11:18) For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

(1Co 11:19) For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

(1Co 11:20) When ye come together therefore into one place, is not to eat the Lord's supper.

(1Co 11:21) For in eating every one taketh before his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

(1Co 11:22) What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of Elohim, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise not.

(1Co 11:23) For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord YAHshua the night in which he was betrayed took bread:

(1Co 11:24) And when he had given thanks, he brake , and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

(1Co 11:25) After the same manner also the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink, in remembrance of me.

(1Co 11:26) For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

(1Co 11:27) Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

(1Co 11:28) But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of bread, and drink of cup.

(1Co 11:29) For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

(1Co 11:30) For this cause many weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

(1Co 11:31) For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

(1Co 11:32) But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

(1Co 11:33) Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

(1Co 11:34) And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

(1Co 12:1) Now concerning spiritual, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

(1Co 12:2) Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

(1Co 12:3) Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of Elohim calleth YAHshua accursed: and no man can say that YAHshua is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit.

(1Co 12:4) Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

(1Co 12:5) And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

(1Co 12:6) And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same Elohim which worketh all in all.

(1Co 12:7) But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

(1Co 12:8) For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

(1Co 12:9) To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

(1Co 12:10) To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

(1Co 12:11) But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

(1Co 12:12) For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also Christ.

(1Co 12:13) For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

(1Co 12:14) For the body is not one member, but many.

(1Co 12:15) If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

(1Co 12:16) And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

(1Co 12:17) If the whole body an eye, where the hearing? If the whole hearing, where the smelling?

(1Co 12:18) But now hath Elohim set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

(1Co 12:19) And if they were all one member, where the body?

(1Co 12:20) But now many members, yet but one body.

(1Co 12:21) And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

(1Co 12:22) Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

(1Co 12:23) And those of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely have more abundant comeliness.

(1Co 12:24) For our comely have no need: but Elohim hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that which lacked:

(1Co 12:25) That there should be no schism in the body; but the members should have the same care one for another.

(1Co 12:26) And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

(1Co 12:27) Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

(1Co 12:28) And Elohim hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

(1Co 12:29) All apostles? all prophets? all teachers? all workers of miracles?

(1Co 12:30) Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

(1Co 12:31) But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

(1Co 13:1) Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

(1Co 13:2) And though I have prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

(1Co 13:3) And though I bestow all my goods to feed, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

(1Co 13:4) Charity suffereth long, is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

(1Co 13:5) Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

(1Co 13:6) Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

(1Co 13:7) Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

(1Co 13:8) Charity never faileth: but whether prophecies, they shall fail; whether tongues, they shall cease; whether knowledge, it shall vanish away.

(1Co 13:9) For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

(1Co 13:10) But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

(1Co 13:11) When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

(1Co 13:12) For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

(1Co 13:13) And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these charity.

(1Co 14:1) Follow after charity, and desire spiritual, but rather that ye may prophesy.

(1Co 14:2) For he that speaketh in an tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto Elohim: for no man understandeth; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

(1Co 14:3) But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

(1Co 14:4) He that speaketh in an tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

(1Co 14:5) I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

(1Co 14:6) Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

(1Co 14:7) And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

(1Co 14:8) For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

(1Co 14:9) So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

(1Co 14:10) There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them without signification.

(1Co 14:11) Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh a barbarian unto me.

(1Co 14:12) Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

(1Co 14:13) Wherefore let him that speaketh in an tongue pray that he may interpret.

(1Co 14:14) For if I pray in an tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

(1Co 14:15) What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

(1Co 14:16) Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

(1Co 14:17) For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

(1Co 14:18) I thank my Elohim, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

(1Co 14:19) Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

(1Co 14:20) Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

(1Co 14:21) In the law it is written, With other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith YHVH.

(1Co 14:22) Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

(1Co 14:23) If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

(1Co 14:24) But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

(1Co 14:25) And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on face he will worship Elohim, and report that Elohim is in you of a truth.

(1Co 14:26) How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

(1Co 14:27) If any man speak in an tongue, by two, or at the most three, and by course; and let one interpret.

(1Co 14:28) But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to Elohim.

(1Co 14:29) Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

(1Co 14:30) If be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

(1Co 14:31) For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

(1Co 14:32) And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

(1Co 14:33) For Elohim is not of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

(1Co 14:34) Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

(1Co 14:35) And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

(1Co 14:36) What? came the word of Elohim out from you? or came it unto you only?

(1Co 14:37) If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

(1Co 14:38) But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

(1Co 14:39) Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

(1Co 14:40) Let all things be done decently and in order.

(1Co 15:1) Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

(1Co 15:2) By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

(1Co 15:3) For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

(1Co 15:4) And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

(1Co 15:5) And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:

(1Co 15:6) After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

(1Co 15:7) After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

(1Co 15:8) And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

(1Co 15:9) For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of Elohim.

(1Co 15:10) But by the grace of Elohim I am what I am: and his grace which upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of Elohim which was with me.

(1Co 15:11) Therefore whether I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

(1Co 15:12) Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

(1Co 15:13) But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

(1Co 15:14) And if Christ be not risen, then our preaching vain, and your faith also vain.

(1Co 15:15) Yea, and we are found false witnesses of Elohim; because we have testified of Elohim that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

(1Co 15:16) For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

(1Co 15:17) And if Christ be not raised, your faith vain; ye are yet in your sins.

(1Co 15:18) Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

(1Co 15:19) If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

(1Co 15:20) But now is Christ risen from the dead, become the firstfruits of them that slept.

(1Co 15:21) For since by man death, by man also the resurrection of the dead.

(1Co 15:22) For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

(1Co 15:23) But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

(1Co 15:24) Then the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to Elohim, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

(1Co 15:25) For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

(1Co 15:26) The last enemy shall be destroyed death.

(1Co 15:27) For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

(1Co 15:28) And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that Elohim may be all in all.

(1Co 15:29) Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

(1Co 15:30) And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

(1Co 15:31) I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ YAHshua our Lord, I die daily.

(1Co 15:32) If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

(1Co 15:33) Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

(1Co 15:34) Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of Elohim: I speak to your shame.

(1Co 15:35) But some will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

(1Co 15:36) Fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

(1Co 15:37) And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other:

(1Co 15:38) But Elohim giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

(1Co 15:39) All flesh is not the same flesh: but one flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, another of birds.

(1Co 15:40) Also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial one, and of the terrestrial another.

(1Co 15:41) One glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for star differeth from star in glory.

(1Co 15:42) So also the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

(1Co 15:43) It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

(1Co 15:44) It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

(1Co 15:45) And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam a quickening spirit.

(1Co 15:46) Howbeit that not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

(1Co 15:47) The first man of the earth, earthy: the second man the Lord from heaven.

(1Co 15:48) As the earthy, such they also that are earthy: and as the heavenly, such they also that are heavenly.

(1Co 15:49) And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

(1Co 15:50) Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of Elohim; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

(1Co 15:51) Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, (1Co 15:52) In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

(1Co 15:53) For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal put on immortality.

(1Co 15:54) So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

(1Co 15:55) O death, where thy sting? O grave, where thy victory?

(1Co 15:56) The sting of death sin; and the strength of sin the law.

(1Co 15:57) But thanks to Elohim, which giveth us the victory through our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(1Co 15:58) Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

(1Co 16:1) Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

(1Co 16:2) Upon the first of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

(1Co 16:3) And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

(1Co 16:4) And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

(1Co 16:5) Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

(1Co 16:6) And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

(1Co 16:7) For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

(1Co 16:8) But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

(1Co 16:9) For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and many adversaries.

(1Co 16:10) Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also.

(1Co 16:11) Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

(1Co 16:12) As touching brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

(1Co 16:13) Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

(1Co 16:14) Let all your things be done with charity.

(1Co 16:15) I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

(1Co 16:16) That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with, and laboureth.

(1Co 16:17) I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

(1Co 16:18) For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

(1Co 16:19) The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

(1Co 16:20) All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

(1Co 16:21) The salutation of Paul with mine own hand.

(1Co 16:22) If any man love not the Lord YAHshua Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

(1Co 16:23) The grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with you.

(1Co 16:24) My love with you all in Christ YAHshua. Amen. The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus and Timotheus.

2 Corinthians.

(2Co 1:1) Paul, an apostle of YAHshua Christ by the will of Elohim, and Timothy brother, unto the church of Elohim which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

(2Co 1:2) Grace to you and peace from Elohim our Father, and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(2Co 1:3) Blessed Elohim, even the Father of our Lord YAHshua Christ, the Father of mercies, and the Elohim of all comfort;

(2Co 1:4) Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of Elohim.

(2Co 1:5) For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

(2Co 1:6) And whether we be afflicted, for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, for your consolation and salvation.

(2Co 1:7) And our hope of you stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also of the consolation.

(2Co 1:8) For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

(2Co 1:9) But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in Elohim which raiseth the dead:

(2Co 1:10) Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver;

(2Co 1:11) Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

(2Co 1:12) For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of Elohim, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

(2Co 1:13) For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

(2Co 1:14) As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also ours in the day of the Lord YAHshua.

(2Co 1:15) And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;

(2Co 1:16) And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea.

(2Co 1:17) When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

(2Co 1:18) But Elohim true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

(2Co 1:19) For the Son of Elohim, YAHshua Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

(2Co 1:20) For all the promises of Elohim in him yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of Elohim by us.

(2Co 1:21) Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, Elohim;

(2Co 1:22) Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

(2Co 1:23) Moreover I call Elohim for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

(2Co 1:24) Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

(2Co 2:1) But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

(2Co 2:2) For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

(2Co 2:3) And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is of you all.

(2Co 2:4) For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

(2Co 2:5) But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

(2Co 2:6) Sufficient to such a man this punishment, which of many.

(2Co 2:7) So that contrariwise ye rather to forgive, and comfort, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

(2Co 2:8) Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm love toward him.

(2Co 2:9) For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

(2Co 2:10) To whom ye forgive any thing, I also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave, for your sakes in the person of Christ;

(2Co 2:11) Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

(2Co 2:12) Furthermore, when I came to Troas to Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, (2Co 2:13) I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

(2Co 2:14) Now thanks unto Elohim, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

(2Co 2:15) For we are unto Elohim a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

(2Co 2:16) To the one the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who sufficient for these things?

(2Co 2:17) For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of Elohim: but as of sincerity, but as of Elohim, in the sight of Elohim speak we in Christ.

(2Co 3:1) Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some, epistles of commendation to you, or of commendation from you?

(2Co 3:2) Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

(2Co 3:3) Manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living Elohim; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

(2Co 3:4) And such trust have we through Christ to Elohim-ward:

(2Co 3:5) Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency of Elohim;

(2Co 3:6) Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

(2Co 3:7) But if the ministration of death, written engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which was to be done away:

(2Co 3:8) How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

(2Co 3:9) For if the ministration of condemnation glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

(2Co 3:10) For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

(2Co 3:11) For if that which is done away glorious, much more that which remaineth glorious.

(2Co 3:12) Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

(2Co 3:13) And not as Moses, put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

(2Co 3:14) But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which is done away in Christ.

(2Co 3:15) But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

(2Co 3:16) Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

(2Co 3:17) Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord, there liberty.

(2Co 3:18) But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

(2Co 4:1) Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

(2Co 4:2) But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of Elohim deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of Elohim.

(2Co 4:3) But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

(2Co 4:4) In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of Elohim, should shine unto them.

(2Co 4:5) For we preach not ourselves, but Christ YAHshua the Lord; and ourselves your servants for YAHshua' sake.

(2Co 4:6) For Elohim, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to the light of the knowledge of the glory of Elohim in the face of YAHshua Christ.

(2Co 4:7) But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of Elohim, and not of us.

(2Co 4:8) Troubled on every side, yet not distressed; perplexed, but not in despair;

(2Co 4:9) Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

(2Co 4:10) Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord YAHshua, that the life also of YAHshua might be made manifest in our body.

(2Co 4:11) For we which live are alway delivered unto death for YAHshua' sake, that the life also of YAHshua might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

(2Co 4:12) So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

(2Co 4:13) We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

(2Co 4:14) Knowing that he which raised up the Lord YAHshua shall raise up us also by YAHshua, and shall present with you.

(2Co 4:15) For all things for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of Elohim.

(2Co 4:16) For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward is renewed day by day.

(2Co 4:17) For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding eternal weight of glory;

(2Co 4:18) While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen temporal; but the things which are not seen eternal.

(2Co 5:1) For we know that if our earthly house of tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of Elohim, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

(2Co 5:2) For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

(2Co 5:3) If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

(2Co 5:4) For we that are in tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

(2Co 5:5) Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing Elohim, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

(2Co 5:6) Therefore always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

(2Co 5:7) (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

(2Co 5:8) We are confident, , and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

(2Co 5:9) Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

(2Co 5:10) For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things in body, according to that he hath done, whether good or bad.

(2Co 5:11) Knowing therefore the terror of YHVH, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto Elohim; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

(2Co 5:12) For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

(2Co 5:13) For whether we be beside ourselves, to Elohim: or whether we be sober, for your cause.

(2Co 5:14) For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

(2Co 5:15) And he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

(2Co 5:16) Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we no more.

(2Co 5:17) Therefore if any man in Christ, a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

(2Co 5:18) And all things of Elohim, who hath reconciled us to himself by YAHshua Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

(2Co 5:19) To wit, that Elohim was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

(2Co 5:20) Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though Elohim did beseech by us: we pray in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to Elohim.

(2Co 5:21) For he hath made him sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of Elohim in him.

(2Co 6:1) We then, workers together beseech also that ye receive not the grace of Elohim in vain.

(2Co 6:2) (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now the accepted time; behold, now the day of salvation.)

(2Co 6:3) Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

(2Co 6:4) But in all approving ourselves as the ministers of Elohim, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

(2Co 6:5) In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

(2Co 6:6) By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love unfeigned,

(2Co 6:7) By the word of truth, by the power of Elohim, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

(2Co 6:8) By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and true;

(2Co 6:9) As unknown, and well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

(2Co 6:10) As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and possessing all things.

(2Co 6:11) O Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

(2Co 6:12) Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

(2Co 6:13) Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto children,) be ye also enlarged.

(2Co 6:14) Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

(2Co 6:15) And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

(2Co 6:16) And what agreement hath the temple of Elohim with idols? for ye are the temple of the living Elohim; as Elohim hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in; and I will be their Elohim, and they shall be my people.

(2Co 6:17) Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith YHVH, and touch not the unclean; and I will receive you, (2Co 6:18) And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith YHVH Almighty.

(2Co 7:1) Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of Elohim.

(2Co 7:2) Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

(2Co 7:3) I speak not to condemn: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with.

(2Co 7:4) Great my boldness of speech toward you, great my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

(2Co 7:5) For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without fightings, within fears.

(2Co 7:6) Nevertheless Elohim, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

(2Co 7:7) And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

(2Co 7:8) For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though but for a season.

(2Co 7:9) Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

(2Co 7:10) For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

(2Co 7:11) For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, clearing of yourselves, yea, indignation, yea, fear, yea, vehement desire, yea, zeal, yea, revenge! In all ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

(2Co 7:12) Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of Elohim might appear unto you.

(2Co 7:13) Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

(2Co 7:14) For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which before Titus, is found a truth.

(2Co 7:15) And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

(2Co 7:16) I rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all.

(2Co 8:1) Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of Elohim bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

(2Co 8:2) How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

(2Co 8:3) For to power, I bear record, yea, and beyond power willing of themselves;

(2Co 8:4) Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

(2Co 8:5) And, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of Elohim.

(2Co 8:6) Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

(2Co 8:7) Therefore, as ye abound in every faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and all diligence, and your love to us, that ye abound in this grace also.

(2Co 8:8) I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

(2Co 8:9) For ye know the grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

(2Co 8:10) And herein I give advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

(2Co 8:11) Now therefore perform the doing; that as a readiness to will, so a performance also out of that which ye have.

(2Co 8:12) For if there be first a willing mind, accepted according to that a man hath, not according to that he hath not.

(2Co 8:13) For not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

(2Co 8:14) But by an equality, now at this time your abundance for their want, that their abundance also may be for your want: that there may be equality:

(2Co 8:15) As it is written, He that much had nothing over; and he that little had no lack.

(2Co 8:16) But thanks to Elohim, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

(2Co 8:17) For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

(2Co 8:18) And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise in the gospel throughout all the churches;

(2Co 8:19) And not only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and your ready mind:

(2Co 8:20) Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

(2Co 8:21) Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

(2Co 8:22) And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which in you.

(2Co 8:23) Whether of Titus, my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren the messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.

(2Co 8:24) Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

(2Co 9:1) For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

(2Co 9:2) For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

(2Co 9:3) Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

(2Co 9:4) Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

(2Co 9:5) Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as bounty, and not as covetousness.

(2Co 9:6) But this, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

(2Co 9:7) Every man according as he purposeth in his heart; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for Elohim loveth a cheerful giver.

(2Co 9:8) And Elohim able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all, may abound to every good work:

(2Co 9:9) (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

(2Co 9:10) Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

(2Co 9:11) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to Elohim.

(2Co 9:12) For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto Elohim;

(2Co 9:13) Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify Elohim for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for liberal distribution unto them, and unto all;

(2Co 9:14) And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of Elohim in you.

(2Co 9:15) Thanks unto Elohim for his unspeakable gift.

(2Co 10:1) Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

(2Co 10:2) But I beseech, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

(2Co 10:3) For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

(2Co 10:4) (For the weapons of our warfare not carnal, but mighty through Elohim to the pulling down of strong holds;)

(2Co 10:5) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of Elohim, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

(2Co 10:6) And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

(2Co 10:7) Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he Christ's, even so we Christ's.

(2Co 10:8) For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

(2Co 10:9) That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

(2Co 10:10) For letters, say they, weighty and powerful; but bodily presence weak, and speech contemptible.

(2Co 10:11) Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such also in deed when we are present.

(2Co 10:12) For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

(2Co 10:13) But we will not boast of things without measure, but according to the measure of the rule which Elohim hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

(2Co 10:14) For we stretch not ourselves beyond, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in the gospel of Christ:

(2Co 10:15) Not boasting of things without measure, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, (2Co 10:16) To preach the gospel in the beyond you, not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

(2Co 10:17) But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

(2Co 10:18) For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

(2Co 11:1) Would to Elohim ye could bear with me a little in folly: and indeed bear with me.

(2Co 11:2) For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present a chaste virgin to Christ.

(2Co 11:3) But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

(2Co 11:4) For if he that cometh preacheth another YAHshua, whom we have not preached, or ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with.

(2Co 11:5) For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

(2Co 11:6) But though rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

(2Co 11:7) Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of Elohim freely?

(2Co 11:8) I robbed other churches, taking wages, to do you service.

(2Co 11:9) And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and will I keep.

(2Co 11:10) As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

(2Co 11:11) Wherefore? because I love you not? Elohim knoweth.

(2Co 11:12) But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

(2Co 11:13) For such false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

(2Co 11:14) And no marvel; for satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

(2Co 11:15) Therefore no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

(2Co 11:16) I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

(2Co 11:17) That which I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

(2Co 11:18) Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

(2Co 11:19) For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye are wise.

(2Co 11:20) For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour, if a man take, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

(2Co 11:21) I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

(2Co 11:22) Are they Hebrews? so I. Are they Israelites? so I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so I.

(2Co 11:23) Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

(2Co 11:24) Of the Jews five times received I forty save one.

(2Co 11:25) Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

(2Co 11:26) Journeyings often, perils of waters, perils of robbers, perils by countrymen, perils by the heathen, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brethren;

(2Co 11:27) In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

(2Co 11:28) Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

(2Co 11:29) Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

(2Co 11:30) If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

(2Co 11:31) The Elohim and Father of our Lord YAHshua Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

(2Co 11:32) In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

(2Co 11:33) And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

(2Co 12:1) It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

(2Co 12:2) I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: Elohim knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

(2Co 12:3) And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: Elohim knoweth;)

(2Co 12:4) How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

(2Co 12:5) Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

(2Co 12:6) For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me, or he heareth of me.

(2Co 12:7) And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

(2Co 12:8) For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

(2Co 12:9) And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

(2Co 12:10) Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

(2Co 12:11) I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

(2Co 12:12) Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

(2Co 12:13) For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

(2Co 12:14) Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

(2Co 12:15) And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

(2Co 12:16) But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

(2Co 12:17) Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

(2Co 12:18) I desired Titus, and with I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? not in the same steps?

(2Co 12:19) Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before Elohim in Christ: but all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

(2Co 12:20) For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

(2Co 12:21) Lest, when I come again, my Elohim will humble me among you, and I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

(2Co 13:1) This the third I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

(2Co 13:2) I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

(2Co 13:3) Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

(2Co 13:4) For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of Elohim. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of Elohim toward you.

(2Co 13:5) Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that YAHshua Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

(2Co 13:6) But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

(2Co 13:7) Now I pray to Elohim that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

(2Co 13:8) For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

(2Co 13:9) For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, your perfection.

(2Co 13:10) Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

(2Co 13:11) Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the Elohim of love and peace shall be with you.

(2Co 13:12) Greet one another with an holy kiss.

(2Co 13:13) All the saints salute you.

(2Co 13:14) The grace of the Lord YAHshua Christ, and the love of Elohim, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, with you all. Amen. The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

Galatians.

(Gal 1:1) Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by YAHshua Christ, and Elohim the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

(Gal 1:2) And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:

(Gal 1:3) Grace to you and peace from Elohim the Father, and our Lord YAHshua Christ,

(Gal 1:4) Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of Elohim and our Father:

(Gal 1:5) To whom glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(Gal 1:6) I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

(Gal 1:7) Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

(Gal 1:8) But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

(Gal 1:9) As we said before, so say I now again, If any preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

(Gal 1:10) For do I now persuade men, or Elohim? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

(Gal 1:11) But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

(Gal 1:12) For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught, but by the revelation of YAHshua Christ.

(Gal 1:13) For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of Elohim, and wasted it:

(Gal 1:14) And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

(Gal 1:15) But when it pleased Elohim, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called by his grace,

(Gal 1:16) To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

(Gal 1:17) Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

(Gal 1:18) Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

(Gal 1:19) But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

(Gal 1:20) Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before Elohim, I lie not.

(Gal 1:21) Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

(Gal 1:22) And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ:

(Gal 1:23) But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

(Gal 1:24) And they glorified Elohim in me.

(Gal 2:1) Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with also.

(Gal 2:2) And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

(Gal 2:3) But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

(Gal 2:4) And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ YAHshua, that they might bring us into bondage:

(Gal 2:5) To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

(Gal 2:6) But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: Elohim accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed in conference added nothing to me:

(Gal 2:7) But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as of the circumcision unto Peter;

(Gal 2:8) (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

(Gal 2:9) And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

(Gal 2:10) Only that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

(Gal 2:11) But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

(Gal 2:12) For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

(Gal 2:13) And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

(Gal 2:14) But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

(Gal 2:15) We Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

(Gal 2:16) Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of YAHshua Christ, even we have believed in YAHshua Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

(Gal 2:17) But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, therefore Christ the minister of sin? Elohim forbid.

(Gal 2:18) For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

(Gal 2:19) For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto Elohim.

(Gal 2:20) I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of Elohim, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

(Gal 2:21) I do not frustrate the grace of Elohim: for if righteousness by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

(Gal 3:1) O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes YAHshua Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

(Gal 3:2) This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

(Gal 3:3) Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

(Gal 3:4) Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if yet in vain.

(Gal 3:5) He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

(Gal 3:6) Even as Abraham believed Elohim, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

(Gal 3:7) Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

(Gal 3:8) And the scripture, foreseeing that Elohim would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

(Gal 3:9) So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

(Gal 3:10) For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

(Gal 3:11) But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of Elohim, evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

(Gal 3:12) And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

(Gal 3:13) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed every one that hangeth on a tree:

(Gal 3:14) That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through YAHshua Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

(Gal 3:15) Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though but a man's covenant, yet confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

(Gal 3:16) Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

(Gal 3:17) And this I say, the covenant, that was confirmed before of Elohim in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

(Gal 3:18) For if the inheritance of the law, no more of promise: but Elohim gave to Abraham by promise.

(Gal 3:19) Wherefore then the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

(Gal 3:20) Now a mediator is not of one, but Elohim is one.

(Gal 3:21) The law then against the promises of Elohim? Elohim forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

(Gal 3:22) But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of YAHshua Christ might be given to them that believe.

(Gal 3:23) But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

(Gal 3:24) Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

(Gal 3:25) But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

(Gal 3:26) For ye are all the children of Elohim by faith in Christ YAHshua.

(Gal 3:27) For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

(Gal 3:28) There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ YAHshua.

(Gal 3:29) And if ye Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

(Gal 4:1) Now I say, the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

(Gal 4:2) But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

(Gal 4:3) Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

(Gal 4:4) But when the fulness of the time was come, Elohim sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

(Gal 4:5) To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

(Gal 4:6) And because ye are sons, Elohim hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

(Gal 4:7) Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of Elohim through Christ.

(Gal 4:8) Howbeit then, when ye knew not Elohim, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

(Gal 4:9) But now, after that ye have known Elohim, or rather are known of Elohim, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

(Gal 4:10) Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

(Gal 4:11) I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

(Gal 4:12) Brethren, I beseech you, be as I; for I as ye: ye have not injured me at all.

(Gal 4:13) Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

(Gal 4:14) And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of Elohim, as Christ YAHshua.

(Gal 4:15) Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

(Gal 4:16) Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

(Gal 4:17) They zealously affect you, not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

(Gal 4:18) But good to be zealously affected always in good, and not only when I am present with you.

(Gal 4:19) My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, (Gal 4:20) I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

(Gal 4:21) Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

(Gal 4:22) For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.

(Gal 4:23) But he of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman by promise.

(Gal 4:24) Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

(Gal 4:25) For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

(Gal 4:26) But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

(Gal 4:27) For it is written, Rejoice, barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

(Gal 4:28) Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

(Gal 4:29) But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him after the Spirit, even so now.

(Gal 4:30) Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

(Gal 4:31) So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

(Gal 5:1) Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

(Gal 5:2) Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

(Gal 5:3) For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

(Gal 5:4) Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

(Gal 5:5) For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

(Gal 5:6) For in YAHshua Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

(Gal 5:7) Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

(Gal 5:8) This persuasion not of him that calleth you.

(Gal 5:9) A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

(Gal 5:10) I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

(Gal 5:11) And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

(Gal 5:12) I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

(Gal 5:13) For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

(Gal 5:14) For all the law is fulfilled in one word, in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

(Gal 5:15) But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

(Gal 5:16) I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

(Gal 5:17) For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

(Gal 5:18) But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

(Gal 5:19) Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

(Gal 5:20) Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, (Gal 5:21) Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of Elohim.

(Gal 5:22) But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, (Gal 5:23) Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

(Gal 5:24) And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

(Gal 5:25) If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

(Gal 5:26) Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

(Gal 6:1) Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

(Gal 6:2) Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

(Gal 6:3) For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

(Gal 6:4) But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

(Gal 6:5) For every man shall bear his own burden.

(Gal 6:6) Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

(Gal 6:7) Be not deceived; Elohim is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

(Gal 6:8) For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

(Gal 6:9) And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

(Gal 6:10) As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

(Gal 6:11) Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

(Gal 6:12) As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

(Gal 6:13) For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

(Gal 6:14) But Elohim forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord YAHshua Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

(Gal 6:15) For in Christ YAHshua neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

(Gal 6:16) And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of Elohim.

(Gal 6:17) From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord YAHshua.

(Gal 6:18) Brethren, the grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with your spirit. Amen. To the Galatians written from Rome.

Ephesians.

(Eph 1:1) Paul, an apostle of YAHshua Christ by the will of Elohim, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ YAHshua:

(Eph 1:2) Grace to you, and peace, from Elohim our Father, and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Eph 1:3) Blessed the Elohim and Father of our Lord YAHshua Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly in Christ:

(Eph 1:4) According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:

(Eph 1:5) Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by YAHshua Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

(Eph 1:6) To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

(Eph 1:7) In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

(Eph 1:8) Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

(Eph 1:9) Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:

(Eph 1:10) That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; in him:

(Eph 1:11) In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

(Eph 1:12) That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

(Eph 1:13) In whom ye also, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, (Eph 1:14) Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

(Eph 1:15) Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord YAHshua, and love unto all the saints,

(Eph 1:16) Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

(Eph 1:17) That the Elohim of our Lord YAHshua Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

(Eph 1:18) The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

(Eph 1:19) And what the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

(Eph 1:20) Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set at his own right hand in the heavenly,

(Eph 1:21) Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

(Eph 1:22) And hath put all under his feet, and gave him the head over all to the church,

(Eph 1:23) Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

(Eph 2:1) And you, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

(Eph 2:2) Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

(Eph 2:3) Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

(Eph 2:4) But Elohim, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

(Eph 2:5) Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

(Eph 2:6) And hath raised up together, and made sit together in heavenly in Christ YAHshua:

(Eph 2:7) That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us through Christ YAHshua.

(Eph 2:8) For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: the gift of Elohim:

(Eph 2:9) Not of works, lest any man should boast.

(Eph 2:10) For we are his workmanship, created in Christ YAHshua unto good works, which Elohim hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

(Eph 2:11) Wherefore remember, that ye in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

(Eph 2:12) That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without Elohim in the world:

(Eph 2:13) But now in Christ YAHshua ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

(Eph 2:14) For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition;

(Eph 2:15) Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, the law of commandments in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, making peace;

(Eph 2:16) And that he might reconcile both unto Elohim in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

(Eph 2:17) And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

(Eph 2:18) For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

(Eph 2:19) Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of Elohim;

(Eph 2:20) And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, YAHshua Christ himself being the chief corner;

(Eph 2:21) In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

(Eph 2:22) In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of Elohim through the Spirit.

(Eph 3:1) For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of YAHshua Christ for you Gentiles,

(Eph 3:2) If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of Elohim which is given me to you-ward:

(Eph 3:3) How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, (Eph 3:4) Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

(Eph 3:5) Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

(Eph 3:6) That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

(Eph 3:7) Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of Elohim given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

(Eph 3:8) Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

(Eph 3:9) And to make all see what the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in Elohim, who created all things by YAHshua Christ:

(Eph 3:10) To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of Elohim,

(Eph 3:11) According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ YAHshua our Lord:

(Eph 3:12) In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

(Eph 3:13) Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

(Eph 3:14) For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord YAHshua Christ,

(Eph 3:15) Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

(Eph 3:16) That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

(Eph 3:17) That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

(Eph 3:18) May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

(Eph 3:19) And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of Elohim.

(Eph 3:20) Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

(Eph 3:21) Unto him glory in the church by Christ YAHshua throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

(Eph 4:1) I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

(Eph 4:2) With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

(Eph 4:3) Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

(Eph 4:4) One body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

(Eph 4:5) One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

(Eph 4:6) One Elohim and Father of all, who above all, and through all, and in you all.

(Eph 4:7) But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

(Eph 4:8) Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

(Eph 4:9) (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

(Eph 4:10) He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

(Eph 4:11) And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

(Eph 4:12) For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

(Eph 4:13) Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of Elohim, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

(Eph 4:14) That we be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

(Eph 4:15) But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, Christ:

(Eph 4:16) From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

(Eph 4:17) This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

(Eph 4:18) Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of Elohim through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

(Eph 4:19) Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

(Eph 4:20) But ye have not so learned Christ;

(Eph 4:21) If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in YAHshua:

(Eph 4:22) That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

(Eph 4:23) And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

(Eph 4:24) And that ye put on the new man, which after Elohim is created in righteousness and true holiness.

(Eph 4:25) Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

(Eph 4:26) Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

(Eph 4:27) Neither give place to the devil.

(Eph 4:28) Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

(Eph 4:29) Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

(Eph 4:30) And grieve not the Holy Spirit of Elohim, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

(Eph 4:31) Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

(Eph 4:32) And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as Elohim for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

(Eph 5:1) Be ye therefore followers of Elohim, as dear children;

(Eph 5:2) And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to Elohim for a sweetsmelling savour.

(Eph 5:3) But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

(Eph 5:4) Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

(Eph 5:5) For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of Elohim.

(Eph 5:6) Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of Elohim upon the children of disobedience.

(Eph 5:7) Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

(Eph 5:8) For ye were sometimes darkness, but now light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

(Eph 5:9) (For the fruit of the Spirit in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

(Eph 5:10) Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

(Eph 5:11) And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove.

(Eph 5:12) For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

(Eph 5:13) But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

(Eph 5:14) Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

(Eph 5:15) See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, (Eph 5:16) Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

(Eph 5:17) Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord.

(Eph 5:18) And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

(Eph 5:19) Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

(Eph 5:20) Giving thanks always for all things unto Elohim and the Father in the name of our Lord YAHshua Christ;

(Eph 5:21) Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of Elohim.

(Eph 5:22) Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

(Eph 5:23) For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

(Eph 5:24) Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

(Eph 5:25) Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

(Eph 5:26) That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

(Eph 5:27) That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

(Eph 5:28) So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

(Eph 5:29) For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

(Eph 5:30) For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

(Eph 5:31) For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

(Eph 5:32) This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

(Eph 5:33) Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife that she reverence husband.

(Eph 6:1) Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

(Eph 6:2) Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;)

(Eph 6:3) That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

(Eph 6:4) And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

(Eph 6:5) Servants, be obedient to them that are masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

(Eph 6:6) Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of Elohim from the heart;

(Eph 6:7) With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

(Eph 6:8) Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether bond or free.

(Eph 6:9) And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

(Eph 6:10) Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

(Eph 6:11) Put on the whole armour of Elohim, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

(Eph 6:12) For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high.

(Eph 6:13) Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of Elohim, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

(Eph 6:14) Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

(Eph 6:15) And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

(Eph 6:16) Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

(Eph 6:17) And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of Elohim:

(Eph 6:18) Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

(Eph 6:19) And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

(Eph 6:20) For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

(Eph 6:21) But that ye also may know my affairs, how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

(Eph 6:22) Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and he might comfort your hearts.

(Eph 6:23) Peace to the brethren, and love with faith, from Elohim the Father and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Eph 6:24) Grace with all them that love our Lord YAHshua Christ in sincerity.
Amen. To the Ephesians written from Rome, by Tychicus.

Philippians.

(Php 1:1) Paul and Timotheus, the servants of YAHshua Christ, to all the saints in Christ YAHshua which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

(Php 1:2) Grace unto you, and peace, from Elohim our Father, and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Php 1:3) I thank my Elohim upon every remembrance of you,

(Php 1:4) Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

(Php 1:5) For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

(Php 1:6) Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform until the day of YAHshua Christ:

(Php 1:7) Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

(Php 1:8) For Elohim is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of YAHshua Christ.

(Php 1:9) And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all judgment;

(Php 1:10) That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

(Php 1:11) Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by YAHshua Christ, unto the glory and praise of Elohim.

(Php 1:12) But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

(Php 1:13) So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other;

(Php 1:14) And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

(Php 1:15) Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

(Php 1:16) The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

(Php 1:17) But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

(Php 1:18) What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

(Php 1:19) For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of YAHshua Christ,

(Php 1:20) According to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death.

(Php 1:21) For to me to live Christ, and to die gain.

(Php 1:22) But if I live in the flesh, this the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

(Php 1:23) For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

(Php 1:24) Nevertheless to abide in the flesh more needful for you.

(Php 1:25) And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

(Php 1:26) That your rejoicing may be more abundant in YAHshua Christ for me by my coming to you again.

(Php 1:27) Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

(Php 1:28) And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of Elohim.

(Php 1:29) For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

(Php 1:30) Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear in me.

(Php 2:1) If therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

(Php 2:2) Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, of one accord, of one mind.

(Php 2:3) Nothing through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

(Php 2:4) Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

(Php 2:5) Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ YAHshua:

(Php 2:6) Who, being in the form of Elohim, thought it not robbery to be equal with Elohim:

(Php 2:7) But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

(Php 2:8) And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

(Php 2:9) Wherefore Elohim also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

(Php 2:10) That at the name of YAHshua every knee should bow, of in heaven, and in earth, and under the earth;

(Php 2:11) And every tongue should confess that YAHshua Christ Lord, to the glory of Elohim the Father.

(Php 2:12) Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

(Php 2:13) For it is Elohim which worketh in you both to will and to do of good pleasure.

(Php 2:14) Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

(Php 2:15) That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of Elohim, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

(Php 2:16) Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

(Php 2:17) Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

(Php 2:18) For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

(Php 2:19) But I trust in the Lord YAHshua to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

(Php 2:20) For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

(Php 2:21) For all seek their own, not the things which are YAHshua Christ's.

(Php 2:22) But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

(Php 2:23) Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

(Php 2:24) But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

(Php 2:25) Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

(Php 2:26) For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

(Php 2:27) For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but Elohim had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

(Php 2:28) I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

(Php 2:29) Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

(Php 2:30) Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

(Php 3:1) Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed not grievous, but for you safe.

(Php 3:2) Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

(Php 3:3) For we are the circumcision, which worship Elohim in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ YAHshua, and have no confidence in the flesh.

(Php 3:4) Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

(Php 3:5) Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

(Php 3:6) Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

(Php 3:7) But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

(Php 3:8) Yea doubtless, and I count all things loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ YAHshua my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them dung, that I may win Christ,

(Php 3:9) And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of Elohim by faith:

(Php 3:10) That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

(Php 3:11) If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

(Php 3:12) Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ YAHshua.

(Php 3:13) Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but one thing, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

(Php 3:14) I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of Elohim in Christ YAHshua.

(Php 3:15) Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, Elohim shall reveal even this unto you.

(Php 3:16) Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

(Php 3:17) Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

(Php 3:18) (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, the enemies of the cross of Christ:

(Php 3:19) Whose end destruction, whose god belly, and glory in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

(Php 3:20) For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord YAHshua Christ:

(Php 3:21) Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

(Php 4:1) Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, dearly beloved.

(Php 4:2) I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

(Php 4:3) And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and other my fellowlabourers, whose names in the book of life.

(Php 4:4) Rejoice in the Lord alway: again I say, Rejoice.

(Php 4:5) Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord at hand.

(Php 4:6) Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto Elohim.

(Php 4:7) And the peace of Elohim, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ YAHshua.

(Php 4:8) Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things honest, whatsoever things just, whatsoever things pure, whatsoever things lovely, whatsoever things of good report; if any virtue, and if any praise, think on these things.

(Php 4:9) Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the Elohim of peace shall be with you.

(Php 4:10) But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

(Php 4:11) Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, to be content.

(Php 4:12) I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

(Php 4:13) I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

(Php 4:14) Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

(Php 4:15) Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

(Php 4:16) For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

(Php 4:17) Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

(Php 4:18) But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to Elohim.

(Php 4:19) But my Elohim shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ YAHshua.

(Php 4:20) Now unto Elohim and our Father glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(Php 4:21) Salute every saint in Christ YAHshua. The brethren which are with me greet you.

(Php 4:22) All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.

(Php 4:23) The grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with you all. Amen. To the Philippians written from Rome, by Epaphroditus.

Colossians.

(Col 1:1) Paul, an apostle of YAHshua Christ by the will of Elohim, and Timotheus brother, (Col 1:2) To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace unto you, and peace, from Elohim our Father and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Col 1:3) We give thanks to Elohim and the Father of our Lord YAHshua Christ, praying always for you,

(Col 1:4) Since we heard of your faith in Christ YAHshua, and of the love to all the saints,

(Col 1:5) For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

(Col 1:6) Which is come unto you, as in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as also in you, since the day ye heard, and knew the grace of Elohim in truth:

(Col 1:7) As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

(Col 1:8) Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

(Col 1:9) For this cause we also, since the day we heard, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

(Col 1:10) That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of Elohim;

(Col 1:11) Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;

(Col 1:12) Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

(Col 1:13) Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated into the kingdom of his dear Son:

(Col 1:14) In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins:

(Col 1:15) Who is the image of the invisible Elohim, the firstborn of every creature:

(Col 1:16) For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

(Col 1:17) And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

(Col 1:18) And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all he might have the preeminence.

(Col 1:19) For it pleased that in him should all fulness dwell;

(Col 1:20) And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, whether things in earth, or things in heaven.

(Col 1:21) And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

(Col 1:22) In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprieveable in his sight:

(Col 1:23) If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

(Col 1:24) Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church:

(Col 1:25) Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of Elohim which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of Elohim;

(Col 1:26) The mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

(Col 1:27) To whom Elohim would make known what the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

(Col 1:28) Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ YAHshua:

(Col 1:29) Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

(Col 2:1) For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and them at Laodicea, and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

(Col 2:2) That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of Elohim, and of the Father, and of Christ;

(Col 2:3) In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

(Col 2:4) And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

(Col 2:5) For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

(Col 2:6) As ye have therefore received Christ YAHshua the Lord, walk ye in him:

(Col 2:7) Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

(Col 2:8) Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

(Col 2:9) For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Elohimhead bodily.

(Col 2:10) And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

(Col 2:11) In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

(Col 2:12) Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with through the faith of the operation of Elohim, who hath raised him from the dead.

(Col 2:13) And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

(Col 2:14) Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

(Col 2:15) Having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

(Col 2:16) Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath:

(Col 2:17) Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body of Christ.

(Col 2:18) Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

(Col 2:19) And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of Elohim.

(Col 2:20) Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

(Col 2:21) (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

(Col 2:22) Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

(Col 2:23) Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

(Col 3:1) If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of Elohim.

(Col 3:2) Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

(Col 3:3) For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in Elohim.

(Col 3:4) When Christ, our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

(Col 3:5) Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

(Col 3:6) For which things' sake the wrath of Elohim cometh on the children of disobedience:

(Col 3:7) In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

(Col 3:8) But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

(Col 3:9) Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

(Col 3:10) And have put on the new, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

(Col 3:11) Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ all, and in all.

(Col 3:12) Put on therefore, as the elect of Elohim, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

(Col 3:13) Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also ye.

(Col 3:14) And above all these things charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

(Col 3:15) And let the peace of Elohim rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

(Col 3:16) Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

(Col 3:17) And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, all in the name of the Lord YAHshua, giving thanks to Elohim and the Father by him.

(Col 3:18) Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

(Col 3:19) Husbands, love wives, and be not bitter against them.

(Col 3:20) Children, obey parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

(Col 3:21) Fathers, provoke not your children, lest they be discouraged.

(Col 3:22) Servants, obey in all things masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing Elohim:

(Col 3:23) And whatsoever ye do, do heartily, as to YHVH, and not unto men;

(Col 3:24) Knowing that of YHVH ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

(Col 3:25) But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

(Col 4:1) Masters, give unto servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

(Col 4:2) Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

(Col 4:3) Withal praying also for us, that Elohim would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

(Col 4:4) That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

(Col 4:5) Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

(Col 4:6) Let your speech alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

(Col 4:7) All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:

(Col 4:8) Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

(Col 4:9) With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is of you. They shall make known unto you all things which here.

(Col 4:10) Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

(Col 4:11) And YAHshua, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only fellowworkers unto the kingdom of Elohim, which have been a comfort unto me.

(Col 4:12) Epaphras, who is of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of Elohim.

(Col 4:13) For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

(Col 4:14) Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.

(Col 4:15) Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

(Col 4:16) And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the from Laodicea.

(Col 4:17) And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

(Col 4:18) The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace with you. Amen. Written from Rome to Colossians by Tychicus and Onesimus.

1 Thessalonians.

(1Th 1:1) Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in Elohim the Father and the Lord YAHshua Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, from Elohim our Father, and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(1Th 1:2) We give thanks to Elohim always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

(1Th 1:3) Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord YAHshua Christ, in the sight of Elohim and our Father;

(1Th 1:4) Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of Elohim.

(1Th 1:5) For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

(1Th 1:6) And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit:

(1Th 1:7) So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

(1Th 1:8) For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to Elohim-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

(1Th 1:9) For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to Elohim from idols to serve the living and true Elohim;

(1Th 1:10) And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, YAHshua, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

(1Th 2:1) For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

(1Th 2:2) But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our Elohim to speak unto you the gospel of Elohim with much contention.

(1Th 2:3) For our exhortation not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

(1Th 2:4) But as we were allowed of Elohim to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but Elohim, which trieth our hearts.

(1Th 2:5) For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; Elohim witness:

(1Th 2:6) Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

(1Th 2:7) But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

(1Th 2:8) So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of Elohim only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

(1Th 2:9) For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of Elohim.

(1Th 2:10) Ye witnesses, and Elohim, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

(1Th 2:11) As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father his children,

(1Th 2:12) That ye would walk worthy of Elohim, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

(1Th 2:13) For this cause also thank we Elohim without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of Elohim which ye heard of us, ye received not the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of Elohim, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

(1Th 2:14) For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of Elohim which in Judaea are in Christ YAHshua: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they of the Jews:

(1Th 2:15) Who both killed the Lord YAHshua, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not Elohim, and are contrary to all men:

(1Th 2:16) Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

(1Th 2:17) But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

(1Th 2:18) Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

(1Th 2:19) For what our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Not even ye in the presence of our Lord YAHshua Christ at his coming?

(1Th 2:20) For ye are our glory and joy.

(1Th 3:1) Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

(1Th 3:2) And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of Elohim, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

(1Th 3:3) That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

(1Th 3:4) For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

(1Th 3:5) For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

(1Th 3:6) But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also you:

(1Th 3:7) Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

(1Th 3:8) For now we live, if ye stand fast in YHVH.

(1Th 3:9) For what thanks can we render to Elohim again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our Elohim;

(1Th 3:10) Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

(1Th 3:11) Now Elohim himself and our Father, and our Lord YAHshua Christ, direct our way unto you.

(1Th 3:12) And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all, even as we toward you:

(1Th 3:13) To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before Elohim, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord YAHshua Christ with all his saints.

(1Th 4:1) Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort by the Lord YAHshua, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please Elohim, ye would abound more and more.

(1Th 4:2) For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord YAHshua.

(1Th 4:3) For this is the will of Elohim, your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

(1Th 4:4) That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

(1Th 4:5) Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not Elohim:

(1Th 4:6) That no go beyond and defraud his brother in matter: because that YHVH the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

(1Th 4:7) For Elohim hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

(1Th 4:8) He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but Elohim, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

(1Th 4:9) But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of Elohim to love one another.

(1Th 4:10) And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

(1Th 4:11) And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

(1Th 4:12) That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and ye may have lack of nothing.

(1Th 4:13) But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

(1Th 4:14) For if we believe that YAHshua died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in YAHshua will Elohim bring with him.

(1Th 4:15) For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

(1Th 4:16) For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of Elohim: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

(1Th 4:17) Then we which are alive remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

(1Th 4:18) Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

(1Th 5:1) But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

(1Th 5:2) For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

(1Th 5:3) For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

(1Th 5:4) But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

(1Th 5:5) Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

(1Th 5:6) Therefore let us not sleep, as others; but let us watch and be sober.

(1Th 5:7) For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

(1Th 5:8) But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

(1Th 5:9) For Elohim hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord YAHshua Christ, (1Th 5:10) Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

(1Th 5:11) Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

(1Th 5:12) And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

(1Th 5:13) And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves.

(1Th 5:14) Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all.

(1Th 5:15) See that none render evil for evil unto any; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all.

(1Th 5:16) Rejoice evermore.

(1Th 5:17) Pray without ceasing.

(1Th 5:18) In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of Elohim in Christ YAHshua concerning you.

(1Th 5:19) Quench not the Spirit.

(1Th 5:20) Despise not prophesyings.

(1Th 5:21) Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

(1Th 5:22) Abstain from all appearance of evil.

(1Th 5:23) And the very Elohim of peace sanctify you wholly; and your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(1Th 5:24) Faithful he that calleth you, who also will do.

(1Th 5:25) Brethren, pray for us.

(1Th 5:26) Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

(1Th 5:27) I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

(1Th 5:28) The grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with you. Amen. The first epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

2 Thessalonians.

(2Th 1:1) Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in Elohim our Father and the Lord YAHshua Christ:

(2Th 1:2) Grace unto you, and peace, from Elohim our Father and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(2Th 1:3) We are bound to thank Elohim always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

(2Th 1:4) So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of Elohim for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

(2Th 1:5) A manifest token of the righteous judgment of Elohim, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of Elohim, for which ye also suffer:

(2Th 1:6) Seeing a righteous thing with Elohim to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

(2Th 1:7) And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord YAHshua shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

(2Th 1:8) In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not Elohim, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord YAHshua Christ:

(2Th 1:9) Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

(2Th 1:10) When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

(2Th 1:11) Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our Elohim would count you worthy of calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of goodness, and the work of faith with power:

(2Th 1:12) That the name of our Lord YAHshua Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our Elohim and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(2Th 2:1) Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord YAHshua Christ, and our gathering together unto him, (2Th 2:2) That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

(2Th 2:3) Let no man deceive you by any means: for except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

(2Th 2:4) Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called Elohim, or that is worshipped; so that he as Elohim sitteth in the temple of Elohim, shewing himself that he is Elohim.

(2Th 2:5) Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

(2Th 2:6) And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

(2Th 2:7) For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth, until he be taken out of the way.

(2Th 2:8) And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

(2Th 2:9) Whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

(2Th 2:10) And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

(2Th 2:11) And for this cause Elohim shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

(2Th 2:12) That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

(2Th 2:13) But we are bound to give thanks alway to Elohim for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because Elohim hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

(2Th 2:14) Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(2Th 2:15) Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

(2Th 2:17) Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

(2Th 3:1) Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have course, and be glorified, even as with you:

(2Th 3:2) And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all have not faith.

(2Th 3:3) But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep from evil.

(2Th 3:4) And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

(2Th 3:5) And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of Elohim, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

(2Th 3:6) Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord YAHshua Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

(2Th 3:7) For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

(2Th 3:8) Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

(2Th 3:9) Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

(2Th 3:10) For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

(2Th 3:11) For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.

(2Th 3:12) Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord YAHshua Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

(2Th 3:13) But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

(2Th 3:14) And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

(2Th 3:15) Yet count not as an enemy, but admonish as a brother.

(2Th 3:16) Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord with you all.

(2Th 3:17) The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

(2Th 3:18) The grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with you all. Amen. The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

1 Timothy.

(1Ti 1:1) Paul, an apostle of YAHshua Christ by the commandment of Elohim our Saviour, and Lord YAHshua Christ, our hope;

(1Ti 1:2) Unto Timothy, own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from Elohim our Father and YAHshua Christ our Lord.

(1Ti 1:3) As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, (1Ti 1:4) Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith:.

(1Ti 1:5) Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and a good conscience, and faith unfeigned:

(1Ti 1:6) From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

(1Ti 1:7) Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

(1Ti 1:8) But we know that the law good, if a man use it lawfully;

(1Ti 1:9) Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

(1Ti 1:10) For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

(1Ti 1:11) According to the glorious gospel of the blessed Elohim, which was committed to my trust.

(1Ti 1:12) And I thank Christ YAHshua our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

(1Ti 1:13) Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did ignorantly in unbelief.

(1Ti 1:14) And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ YAHshua.

(1Ti 1:15) This a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ YAHshua came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

(1Ti 1:16) Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first YAHshua Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

(1Ti 1:17) Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise Elohim, honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(1Ti 1:18) This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

(1Ti 1:19) Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

(1Ti 1:20) Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

(1Ti 2:1) I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, giving of thanks, be made for all men;

(1Ti 2:2) For kings, and all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

(1Ti 2:3) For this good and acceptable in the sight of Elohim our Saviour;

(1Ti 2:4) Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

(1Ti 2:5) For one Elohim, and one mediator between Elohim and men, the man Christ YAHshua; (1Ti 2:6) Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

(1Ti 2:7) Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

(1Ti 2:8) I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

(1Ti 2:9) In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

(1Ti 2:10) But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

(1Ti 2:11) Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

(1Ti 2:12) But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

(1Ti 2:13) For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

(1Ti 2:14) And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

(1Ti 2:15) Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

(1Ti 3:1) This a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

(1Ti 3:2) A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

(1Ti 3:3) Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

(1Ti 3:4) One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

(1Ti 3:5) (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of Elohim?)

(1Ti 3:6) Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

(1Ti 3:7) Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

(1Ti 3:8) Likewise the deacons grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

(1Ti 3:9) Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

(1Ti 3:10) And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being blameless.

(1Ti 3:11) Even so wives grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

(1Ti 3:12) Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

(1Ti 3:13) For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ YAHshua.

(1Ti 3:14) These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

(1Ti 3:15) But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of Elohim, which is the church of the living Elohim, the pillar and ground of the truth.

(1Ti 3:16) And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: Elohim was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

(1Ti 4:1) Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

(1Ti 4:2) Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

(1Ti 4:3) Forbidding to marry, to abstain from meats, which Elohim hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

(1Ti 4:4) For every creature of Elohim good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

(1Ti 4:5) For it is sanctified by the word of Elohim and prayer.

(1Ti 4:6) If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of YAHshua Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

(1Ti 4:7) But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself unto godliness.

(1Ti 4:8) For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

(1Ti 4:9) This a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

(1Ti 4:10) For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living Elohim, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

(1Ti 4:11) These things command and teach.

(1Ti 4:12) Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

(1Ti 4:13) Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

(1Ti 4:14) Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

(1Ti 4:15) Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

(1Ti 4:16) Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

(1Ti 5:1) Rebuke not an elder, but intreat as a father; the younger men as brethren;

(1Ti 5:2) The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

(1Ti 5:3) Honour widows that are widows indeed.

(1Ti 5:4) But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before Elohim.

(1Ti 5:5) Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in Elohim, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

(1Ti 5:6) But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

(1Ti 5:7) And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

(1Ti 5:8) But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

(1Ti 5:9) Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, (1Ti 5:10) Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

(1Ti 5:11) But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

(1Ti 5:12) Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

(1Ti 5:13) And withal they learn idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

(1Ti 5:14) I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

(1Ti 5:15) For some are already turned aside after Satan.

(1Ti 5:16) If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

(1Ti 5:17) Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

(1Ti 5:18) For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer worthy of his reward.

(1Ti 5:19) Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

(1Ti 5:20) Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

(1Ti 5:21) I charge before Elohim, and the Lord YAHshua Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

(1Ti 5:22) Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

(1Ti 5:23) Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

(1Ti 5:24) Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some they follow after.

(1Ti 5:25) Likewise also the good works are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

(1Ti 6:1) Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of Elohim and doctrine be not blasphemed.

(1Ti 6:2) And they that have believing masters, let them not despise, because they are brethren; but rather do service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

(1Ti 6:3) If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, the words of our Lord YAHshua Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

(1Ti 6:4) He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, (1Ti 6:5) Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

(1Ti 6:6) But godliness with contentment is great gain.

(1Ti 6:7) For we brought nothing into world, certain we can carry nothing out.

(1Ti 6:8) And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

(1Ti 6:9) But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

(1Ti 6:10) For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

(1Ti 6:11) But thou, O man of Elohim, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

(1Ti 6:12) Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

(1Ti 6:13) I give thee charge in the sight of Elohim, who quickeneth all things, and Christ YAHshua, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

(1Ti 6:14) That thou keep commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord YAHshua Christ:

(1Ti 6:15) Which in his times he shall shew, the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

(1Ti 6:16) Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom honour and power everlasting. Amen.

(1Ti 6:17) Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living Elohim, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

(1Ti 6:18) That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

(1Ti 6:19) Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

(1Ti 6:20) O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: (1Ti 6:21) Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace with thee. Amen. The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

2 Timothy.

(2Ti 1:1) Paul, an apostle of YAHshua Christ by the will of Elohim, according to the promise of life which is in Christ YAHshua, (2Ti 1:2) To Timothy, dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, peace, from Elohim the Father and Christ YAHshua our Lord.

(2Ti 1:3) I thank Elohim, whom I serve from forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

(2Ti 1:4) Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

(2Ti 1:5) When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

(2Ti 1:6) Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of Elohim, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

(2Ti 1:7) For Elohim hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

(2Ti 1:8) Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of Elohim;

(2Ti 1:9) Who hath saved us, and called with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ YAHshua before the world began,

(2Ti 1:10) But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour YAHshua Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

(2Ti 1:11) Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

(2Ti 1:12) For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

(2Ti 1:13) Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ YAHshua.

(2Ti 1:14) That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Spirit which dwelleth in us.

(2Ti 1:15) This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

(2Ti 1:16) The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

(2Ti 1:17) But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found.

(2Ti 1:18) The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of YHVH in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

(2Ti 2:1) Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ YAHshua.

(2Ti 2:2) And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

(2Ti 2:3) Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of YAHshua Christ.

(2Ti 2:4) No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

(2Ti 2:5) And if a man also strive for masteries, is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

(2Ti 2:6) The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

(2Ti 2:7) Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

(2Ti 2:8) Remember that YAHshua Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

(2Ti 2:9) Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, unto bonds; but the word of Elohim is not bound.

(2Ti 2:10) Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ YAHshua with eternal glory.

(2Ti 2:11) A faithful saying: For if we be dead with, we shall also live with:

(2Ti 2:12) If we suffer, we shall also reign with: if we deny, he also will deny us:

(2Ti 2:13) If we believe not, he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

(2Ti 2:14) Of these things put in remembrance, charging before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, to the subverting of the hearers.

(2Ti 2:15) Study to shew thyself approved unto Elohim, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

(2Ti 2:16) But shun profane vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

(2Ti 2:17) And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;

(2Ti 2:18) Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

(2Ti 2:19) Nevertheless the foundation of Elohim standeth sure, having this seal, YHVH knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

(2Ti 2:20) But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

(2Ti 2:21) If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, prepared unto every good work.

(2Ti 2:22) Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

(2Ti 2:23) But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

(2Ti 2:24) And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all, apt to teach, patient,

(2Ti 2:25) In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if Elohim peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; (2Ti 2:26) And they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

(2Ti 3:1) This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

(2Ti 3:2) For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

(2Ti 3:3) Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

(2Ti 3:4) Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of Elohim;

(2Ti 3:5) Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

(2Ti 3:6) For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, (2Ti 3:7) Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

(2Ti 3:8) Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

(2Ti 3:9) But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all, as theirs also was.

(2Ti 3:10) But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, (2Ti 3:11) Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of all the Lord delivered me.

(2Ti 3:12) Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ YAHshua shall suffer persecution.

(2Ti 3:13) But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

(2Ti 3:14) But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned;

(2Ti 3:15) And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ YAHshua.

(2Ti 3:16) All scripture given by inspiration of Elohim, and profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

(2Ti 3:17) That the man of Elohim may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

(2Ti 4:1) I charge therefore before Elohim, and the Lord YAHshua Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

(2Ti 4:2) Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

(2Ti 4:3) For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

(2Ti 4:4) And they shall turn away ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

(2Ti 4:5) But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

(2Ti 4:6) For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

(2Ti 4:7) I have fought a good fight, I have finished course, I have kept the faith:

(2Ti 4:8) Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

(2Ti 4:9) Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

(2Ti 4:10) For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

(2Ti 4:11) Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

(2Ti 4:12) And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

(2Ti 4:13) The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring, and the books, especially the parchments.

(2Ti 4:14) Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

(2Ti 4:15) Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

(2Ti 4:16) At my first answer no man stood with me, but all forsook me: that it may not be laid to their charge.

(2Ti 4:17) Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

(2Ti 4:18) And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(2Ti 4:19) Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

(2Ti 4:20) Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.

(2Ti 4:21) Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

(2Ti 4:22) The Lord YAHshua Christ with thy spirit. Grace with you. Amen. The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before Nero the second time.

Titus.

(Tit 1:1) Paul, a servant of Elohim, and an apostle of YAHshua Christ, according to the faith of Elohim's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

(Tit 1:2) In hope of eternal life, which Elohim, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

(Tit 1:3) But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of Elohim our Saviour;

(Tit 1:4) To Titus, own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from Elohim the Father and the Lord YAHshua Christ our Saviour.

(Tit 1:5) For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

(Tit 1:6) If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

(Tit 1:7) For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of Elohim; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

(Tit 1:8) But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

(Tit 1:9) Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

(Tit 1:10) For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

(Tit 1:11) Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

(Tit 1:12) One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

(Tit 1:13) This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

(Tit 1:14) Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

(Tit 1:15) Unto the pure all things pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

(Tit 1:16) They profess that they know Elohim; but in works they deny, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

(Tit 2:1) But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

(Tit 2:2) That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

(Tit 2:3) The aged women likewise, that in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

(Tit 2:4) That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, (Tit 2:5) discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of Elohim be not blasphemed.

(Tit 2:6) Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

(Tit 2:7) In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, (Tit 2:8) Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

(Tit 2:9) Servants to be obedient unto their own masters, to please well in all; not answering again;

(Tit 2:10) Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of Elohim our Saviour in all things.

(Tit 2:11) For the grace of Elohim that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

(Tit 2:12) Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

(Tit 2:13) Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great Elohim and our Saviour YAHshua Christ;

(Tit 2:14) Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

(Tit 2:15) These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

(Tit 3:1) Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work, (Tit 3:2) To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

(Tit 3:3) For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another.

(Tit 3:4) But after that the kindness and love of Elohim our Saviour toward man appeared,

(Tit 3:5) Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit;

(Tit 3:6) Which he shed on us abundantly through YAHshua Christ our Saviour;

(Tit 3:7) That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

(Tit 3:8) A faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in Elohim might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

(Tit 3:9) But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

(Tit 3:10) A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

(Tit 3:11) Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

(Tit 3:12) When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

(Tit 3:13) Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

(Tit 3:14) And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

(Tit 3:15) All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace with you all. Amen. It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

Philemon.

(Phm 1:1) Paul, a prisoner of YAHshua Christ, and Timothy brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer, (Phm 1:2) And to beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house:

(Phm 1:3) Grace to you, and peace, from Elohim our Father and the Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Phm 1:4) I thank my Elohim, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

(Phm 1:5) Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Elohim, and toward all saints;

(Phm 1:6) That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Elohim.

(Phm 1:7) For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

(Phm 1:8) Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient, (Phm 1:9) Yet for love's sake I rather beseech being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Elohim Christ.

(Phm 1:10) I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds:

(Phm 1:11) Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

(Phm 1:12) Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

(Phm 1:13) Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

(Phm 1:14) But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

(Phm 1:15) For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

(Phm 1:16) Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

(Phm 1:17) If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

(Phm 1:18) If he hath wronged thee, or oweth ought, put that on mine account;

(Phm 1:19) I Paul have written with mine own hand, I will repay: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

(Phm 1:20) Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

(Phm 1:21) Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

(Phm 1:22) But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

(Phm 1:23) There salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ YAHshua; (Phm 1:24) Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers.

(Phm 1:25) The grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with your spirit. Amen.
Written from Rome to Philemon, by Onesimus a servant.

Hebrews

(Heb 1:1) Elohim, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

(Heb 1:2) Hath in these last days spoken unto us by Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

(Heb 1:3) Who being the brightness of glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

(Heb 1:4) Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

(Heb 1:5) For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

(Heb 1:6) And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of Elohim worship him.

(Heb 1:7) And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

(Heb 1:8) But unto the Son, Thy throne, O Elohim, for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness the sceptre of thy kingdom.

(Heb 1:9) Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore Elohim, thy Elohim, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

(Heb 1:10) And, Thou, YHVH, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

(Heb 1:11) They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

(Heb 1:12) And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

(Heb 1:13) But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

(Heb 1:14) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

(Heb 2:1) Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let slip.

(Heb 2:2) For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

(Heb 2:3) How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by YHVH, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard;

(Heb 2:4) Elohim also bearing witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will?

(Heb 2:5) For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

(Heb 2:6) But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

(Heb 2:7) Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

(Heb 2:8) Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

(Heb 2:9) But we see YAHshua, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of Elohim should taste death for every man.

(Heb 2:10) For it became him, for whom all things, and by whom all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

(Heb 2:11) For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, (Heb 2:12) Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

(Heb 2:13) And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which Elohim hath given me.

(Heb 2:14) Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

(Heb 2:15) And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

(Heb 2:16) For verily he took not on angels; but he took on the seed of Abraham.

(Heb 2:17) Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things to Elohim, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

(Heb 2:18) For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

(Heb 3:1) Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ YAHshua;

(Heb 3:2) Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses in all his house.

(Heb 3:3) For this was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

(Heb 3:4) For every house is builded by some; but he that built all things Elohim.

(Heb 3:5) And Moses verily faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

(Heb 3:6) But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

(Heb 3:7) Wherefore (as the Holy Spirit saith, To day if ye will hear his voice,

(Heb 3:8) Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

(Heb 3:9) When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

(Heb 3:10) Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in heart; and they have not known my ways.

(Heb 3:11) So I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

(Heb 3:12) Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living Elohim.

(Heb 3:13) But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

(Heb 3:14) For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

(Heb 3:15) While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

(Heb 3:16) For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

(Heb 3:17) But with whom was he grieved forty years? not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?

(Heb 3:18) And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

(Heb 3:19) So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

(Heb 4:1) Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

(Heb 4:2) For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard.

(Heb 4:3) For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

(Heb 4:4) For he spake in a certain place of the seventh on this wise, And Elohim did rest the seventh day from all his works.

(Heb 4:5) And in this again, If they shall enter into my rest.

(Heb 4:6) Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

(Heb 4:7) Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

(Heb 4:8) For if YAHshua had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

(Heb 4:9) There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of Elohim.

(Heb 4:10) For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as Elohim from his.

(Heb 4:11) Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

(Heb 4:12) For the word of Elohim quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

(Heb 4:13) Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

(Heb 4:14) Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, YAHshua the Son of Elohim, let us hold fast profession.

(Heb 4:15) For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as without sin.

(Heb 4:16) Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

(Heb 5:1) For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things to Elohim, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

(Heb 5:2) Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

(Heb 5:3) And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

(Heb 5:4) And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of Elohim, as Aaron.

(Heb 5:5) So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

(Heb 5:6) As he saith also in another, Thou a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

(Heb 5:7) Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

(Heb 5:8) Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

(Heb 5:9) And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

(Heb 5:10) Called of Elohim an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

(Heb 5:11) Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

(Heb 5:12) For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which the first principles of the oracles of Elohim; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

(Heb 5:13) For every one that useth milk unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

(Heb 5:14) But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

(Heb 6:1) Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward Elohim, (Heb 6:2) Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

(Heb 6:3) And this will we do, if Elohim permit.

(Heb 6:4) For impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, (Heb 6:5) And have tasted the good word of Elohim, and the powers of the world to come,

(Heb 6:6) If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of Elohim afresh, and put to an open shame.

(Heb 6:7) For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from Elohim:

(Heb 6:8) But that which beareth thorns and briers rejected, and nigh unto cursing; whose end to be burned.

(Heb 6:9) But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

(Heb 6:10) For Elohim not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his Name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

(Heb 6:11) And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

(Heb 6:12) That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

(Heb 6:13) For when Elohim made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself, (Heb 6:14) Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

(Heb 6:15) And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

(Heb 6:16) For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation to them an end of all strife.

(Heb 6:17) Wherein Elohim, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed by an oath:

(Heb 6:18) That by two immutable things, in which impossible for Elohim to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

(Heb 6:19) Which we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

(Heb 6:20) Whither the forerunner is for us entered, YAHshua, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

(Heb 7:1) For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high Elohim, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

(Heb 7:2) To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

(Heb 7:3) Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of Elohim; abideth a priest continually.

(Heb 7:4) Now consider how great this man, unto whom even the patriarch

Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

(Heb 7:5) And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

(Heb 7:6) But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

(Heb 7:7) And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

(Heb 7:8) And here men that die receive tithes; but there he, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

(Heb 7:9) And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

(Heb 7:10) For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

(Heb 7:11) If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

(Heb 7:12) For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

(Heb 7:13) For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

(Heb 7:14) For evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

(Heb 7:15) And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, (Heb 7:16) Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

(Heb 7:17) For he testifieth, Thou a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

(Heb 7:18) For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

(Heb 7:19) For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope; by the which we draw nigh unto Elohim.

(Heb 7:20) And inasmuch as not without an oath:

(Heb 7:21) (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, YHVH sware and will not repent, Thou a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

(Heb 7:22) By so much was YAHshua made a surety of a better testament.

(Heb 7:23) And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

(Heb 7:24) But this, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

(Heb 7:25) Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto Elohim by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

(Heb 7:26) For such an high priest became us, holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

(Heb 7:27) Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

(Heb 7:28) For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

(Heb 8:1) Now of the things which we have spoken the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

(Heb 8:2) A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which YHVH pitched, and not man.

(Heb 8:3) For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

(Heb 8:4) For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

(Heb 8:5) Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of Elohim when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

(Heb 8:6) But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

(Heb 8:7) For if that first had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

(Heb 8:8) For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith YHVH, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

(Heb 8:9) Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith YHVH.

(Heb 8:10) For this the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith YHVH; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a Elohim, and they shall be to me a people:

(Heb 8:11) And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know YHVH: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

(Heb 8:12) For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

(Heb 8:13) In that he saith, A new, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old ready to vanish away.

(Heb 9:1) Then verily the first had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

(Heb 9:2) For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

(Heb 9:3) And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

(Heb 9:4) Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

(Heb 9:5) And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

(Heb 9:6) Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service.

(Heb 9:7) But into the second the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and the errors of the people:

(Heb 9:8) The Holy Spirit this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

(Heb 9:9) Which a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

(Heb 9:10) Only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed until the time of reformation.

(Heb 9:11) But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

(Heb 9:12) Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption.

(Heb 9:13) For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

(Heb 9:14) How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to Elohim, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living Elohim?

(Heb 9:15) And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

(Heb 9:16) For where a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

(Heb 9:17) For a testament of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

(Heb 9:18) Whereupon neither the first was dedicated without blood.

(Heb 9:19) For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, (Heb 9:20) Saying, This the blood of the testament which Elohim hath enjoined unto you.

(Heb 9:21) Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

(Heb 9:22) And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

(Heb 9:23) Therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

(Heb 9:24) For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of Elohim for us:

(Heb 9:25) Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

(Heb 9:26) For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

(Heb 9:27) And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

(Heb 9:28) So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

(Heb 10:1) For the law having a shadow of good things to come, not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

(Heb 10:2) For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

(Heb 10:3) But in those a remembrance again of sins every year.

(Heb 10:4) For not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

(Heb 10:5) Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

(Heb 10:6) In burnt offerings and for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

(Heb 10:7) Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O Elohim.

(Heb 10:8) Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure; which are offered by the law;

(Heb 10:9) Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O Elohim. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

(Heb 10:10) By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of YAHshua Christ once.

(Heb 10:11) And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

(Heb 10:12) But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of Elohim;

(Heb 10:13) From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

(Heb 10:14) For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

(Heb 10:15) The Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

(Heb 10:16) This the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith YHVH, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

(Heb 10:17) And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

(Heb 10:18) Now where remission of these no more offering for sin.

(Heb 10:19) Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of YAHshua,

(Heb 10:20) By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

(Heb 10:21) And an high priest over the house of Elohim;

(Heb 10:22) Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

(Heb 10:23) Let us hold fast the profession of faith without wavering; (for he faithful that promised;)

(Heb 10:24) And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

(Heb 10:25) Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some; but exhorting: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

(Heb 10:26) For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, (Heb 10:27) But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

(Heb 10:28) He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

(Heb 10:29) Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of Elohim, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

(Heb 10:30) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance unto me, I will recompense, saith YHVH. And again, YHVH shall judge his people.

(Heb 10:31) A fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living Elohim.

(Heb 10:32) But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

(Heb 10:33) Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

(Heb 10:34) For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

(Heb 10:35) Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

(Heb 10:36) For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of Elohim, ye might receive the promise.

(Heb 10:37) For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

(Heb 10:38) Now the just shall live by faith: but if draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

(Heb 10:39) But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

(Heb 11:1) Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

(Heb 11:2) For by it the elders obtained a good report.

(Heb 11:3) Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of Elohim, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

(Heb 11:4) By faith Abel offered unto Elohim a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, Elohim testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

(Heb 11:5) By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because Elohim had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased Elohim.

(Heb 11:6) But without faith impossible to please: for he that cometh to Elohim must believe that he is, and he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

(Heb 11:7) By faith Noah, being warned of Elohim of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

(Heb 11:8) By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

(Heb 11:9) By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

(Heb 11:10) For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker Elohim.

(Heb 11:11) Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

(Heb 11:12) Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

(Heb 11:13) These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of, and embraced, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

(Heb 11:14) For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

(Heb 11:15) And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

(Heb 11:16) But now they desire a better, that is, an heavenly: wherefore Elohim is not ashamed to be called their Elohim: for he hath prepared for them a city.

(Heb 11:17) By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten,

(Heb 11:18) Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

(Heb 11:19) Accounting that Elohim able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

(Heb 11:20) By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

(Heb 11:21) By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, upon the top of his staff.

(Heb 11:22) By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

(Heb 11:23) By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

(Heb 11:24) By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

(Heb 11:25) Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of Elohim, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

(Heb 11:26) Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

(Heb 11:27) By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

(Heb 11:28) Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

(Heb 11:29) By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

(Heb 11:30) By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

(Heb 11:31) By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

(Heb 11:32) And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and Barak, and Samson, and Jephthae; David also, and Samuel, and the prophets:

(Heb 11:33) Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

(Heb 11:34) Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

(Heb 11:35) Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

(Heb 11:36) And others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

(Heb 11:37) They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

(Heb 11:38) (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and mountains, and dens and caves of the earth.

(Heb 11:39) And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

(Heb 11:40) Elohim having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

(Heb 12:1) Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

(Heb 12:2) Looking unto YAHshua the author and finisher of faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of Elohim.

(Heb 12:3) For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

(Heb 12:4) Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

(Heb 12:5) And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of YHVH, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

(Heb 12:6) For whom YHVH loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

(Heb 12:7) If ye endure chastening, Elohim dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

(Heb 12:8) But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

(Heb 12:9) Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected, and we gave reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

(Heb 12:10) For they verily for a few days chastened after their own pleasure; but he for profit, that might be partakers of his holiness.

(Heb 12:11) Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

(Heb 12:12) Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

(Heb 12:13) And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

(Heb 12:14) Follow peace with all, and holiness, without which no man shall see YHVH:

(Heb 12:15) Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of Elohim; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble, and thereby many be defiled;

(Heb 12:16) Lest there any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

(Heb 12:17) For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

(Heb 12:18) For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

(Heb 12:19) And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

(Heb 12:20) (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

(Heb 12:21) And so terrible was the sight, Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

(Heb 12:22) But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living Elohim, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

(Heb 12:23) To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to Elohim the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, (Heb 12:24) And to YAHshua the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than Abel.

(Heb 12:25) See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more we, if we turn away from him that from heaven:

(Heb 12:26) Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

(Heb 12:27) And this, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

(Heb 12:28) Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve Elohim acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

(Heb 12:29) For our Elohim a consuming fire.

(Heb 13:1) Let brotherly love continue.

(Heb 13:2) Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

(Heb 13:3) Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

(Heb 13:4) Marriage honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers Elohim will judge.

(Heb 13:5) Conversation without covetousness; content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

(Heb 13:6) So that we may boldly say, YHVH my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

(Heb 13:7) Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of Elohim: whose faith follow, considering the end of conversation.

(Heb 13:8) YAHshua Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

(Heb 13:9) Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

(Heb 13:10) We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

(Heb 13:11) For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

(Heb 13:12) Wherefore YAHshua also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

(Heb 13:13) Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

(Heb 13:14) For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

(Heb 13:15) By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to Elohim continually, that is, the fruit of lips giving thanks to his Name.

(Heb 13:16) But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices Elohim is well pleased.

(Heb 13:17) Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that unprofitable for you.

(Heb 13:18) Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

(Heb 13:19) But I beseech the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

(Heb 13:20) Now the Elohim of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord YAHshua, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, (Heb 13:21) Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through YAHshua Christ; to whom glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(Heb 13:22) And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

(Heb 13:23) Know ye that brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

(Heb 13:24) Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

(Heb 13:25) Grace with you all. Amen. Written to the Hebrews from Italy, by Timothy.

James.

(Jas 1:1) James, a servant of Elohim and of the Lord YAHshua Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

(Jas 1:2) My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

(Jas 1:3) Knowing, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

(Jas 1:4) But let patience have perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

(Jas 1:5) If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of Elohim, that giveth to all liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

(Jas 1:6) But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

(Jas 1:7) For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

(Jas 1:8) A double minded man unstable in all his ways.

(Jas 1:9) Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

(Jas 1:10) But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

(Jas 1:11) For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

(Jas 1:12) Blessed the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

(Jas 1:13) Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of Elohim: for Elohim cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

(Jas 1:14) But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

(Jas 1:15) Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

(Jas 1:16) Do not err, my beloved brethren.

(Jas 1:17) Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

(Jas 1:18) Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

(Jas 1:19) Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

(Jas 1:20) For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of Elohim.

(Jas 1:21) Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

(Jas 1:22) But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

(Jas 1:23) For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

(Jas 1:24) For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

(Jas 1:25) But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

(Jas 1:26) If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion vain.

(Jas 1:27) Pure religion and undefiled before Elohim and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, to keep himself unspotted from the world.

(Jas 2:1) My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord YAHshua Christ, of glory, with respect of persons.

(Jas 2:2) For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

(Jas 2:3) And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

(Jas 2:4) Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

(Jas 2:5) Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not Elohim chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

(Jas 2:6) But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

(Jas 2:7) Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

(Jas 2:8) If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

(Jas 2:9) But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

(Jas 2:10) For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one, he is guilty of all.

(Jas 2:11) For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

(Jas 2:12) So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

(Jas 2:13) For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

(Jas 2:14) What profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

(Jas 2:15) If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

(Jas 2:16) And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what profit?

(Jas 2:17) Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

(Jas 2:18) Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

(Jas 2:19) Thou believest that there is one Elohim; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

(Jas 2:20) But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

(Jas 2:21) Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

(Jas 2:22) Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

(Jas 2:23) And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed Elohim, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of Elohim.

(Jas 2:24) Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

(Jas 2:25) Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent out another way?

(Jas 2:26) For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

(Jas 3:1) My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

(Jas 3:2) For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.

(Jas 3:3) Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

(Jas 3:4) Behold also the ships, which though so great, and driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

(Jas 3:5) Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

(Jas 3:6) And the tongue a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

(Jas 3:7) For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

(Jas 3:8) But the tongue can no man tame; an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

(Jas 3:9) Therewith bless we Elohim, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of Elohim.

(Jas 3:10) Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

(Jas 3:11) Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

(Jas 3:12) Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

(Jas 3:13) Who a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

(Jas 3:14) But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

(Jas 3:15) This wisdom descendeth not from above, but earthly, sensual, devilish.

(Jas 3:16) For where envying and strife, there confusion and every evil work.

(Jas 3:17) But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

(Jas 3:18) And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

(Jas 4:1) From whence wars and fightings among you? Not hence, of your lusts that war in your members?

(Jas 4:2) Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

(Jas 4:3) Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume upon your lusts.

(Jas 4:4) Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with Elohim? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of Elohim.

(Jas 4:5) Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

(Jas 4:6) But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, Elohim resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

(Jas 4:7) Submit yourselves therefore to Elohim. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

(Jas 4:8) Draw nigh to Elohim, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse hands, sinners; and purify hearts, double minded.

(Jas 4:9) Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and joy to heaviness.

(Jas 4:10) Humble yourselves in the sight of YHVH, and he shall lift you up.

(Jas 4:11) Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

(Jas 4:12) There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

(Jas 4:13) Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

(Jas 4:14) Whereas ye know not what on the morrow. For what your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

(Jas 4:15) For that ye to say, If YHVH will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

(Jas 4:16) But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

(Jas 4:17) Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

(Jas 5:1) Go to now, rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon.

(Jas 5:2) Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten.

(Jas 5:3) Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

(Jas 5:4) Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of YHVH of sabaoth.

(Jas 5:5) Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

(Jas 5:6) Ye have condemned killed the just; he doth not resist you.

(Jas 5:7) Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

(Jas 5:8) Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

(Jas 5:9) Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

(Jas 5:10) Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of YHVH, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

(Jas 5:11) Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of YHVH; that YHVH is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

(Jas 5:12) But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

(Jas 5:13) Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

(Jas 5:14) Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of YHVH:

(Jas 5:15) And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and YHVH shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

(Jas 5:16) Confess faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

(Jas 5:17) Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

(Jas 5:18) And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

(Jas 5:19) Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

(Jas 5:20) Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

1 Peter.

(1Pe 1:1) Peter, an apostle of YAHshua Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, (1Pe 1:2) Elect according to the foreknowledge of Elohim the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of YAHshua Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

(1Pe 1:3) Blessed the Elohim and Father of our Lord YAHshua Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of YAHshua Christ from the dead,

(1Pe 1:4) To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

(1Pe 1:5) Who are kept by the power of Elohim through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

(1Pe 1:6) Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

(1Pe 1:7) That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of YAHshua Christ:

(1Pe 1:8) Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

(1Pe 1:9) Receiving the end of your faith, the salvation of souls.

(1Pe 1:10) Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace unto you:

(1Pe 1:11) Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

(1Pe 1:12) Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

(1Pe 1:13) Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of YAHshua Christ;

(1Pe 1:14) As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

(1Pe 1:15) But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

(1Pe 1:16) Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

(1Pe 1:17) And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning in fear:

(1Pe 1:18) Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, silver and gold, from your vain conversation by tradition from your fathers;

(1Pe 1:19) But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

(1Pe 1:20) Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

(1Pe 1:21) Who by him do believe in Elohim, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in Elohim.

(1Pe 1:22) Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, love one another with a pure heart fervently:

(1Pe 1:23) Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of Elohim, which liveth and abideth for ever.

(1Pe 1:24) For all flesh as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

(1Pe 1:25) But the word of YHVH endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

(1Pe 2:1) Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

(1Pe 2:2) As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

(1Pe 2:3) If so be ye have tasted that YHVH gracious.

(1Pe 2:4) To whom coming, a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of Elohim, precious, (1Pe 2:5) Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to Elohim by YAHshua Christ.

(1Pe 2:6) Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

(1Pe 2:7) Unto you therefore which believe precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

(1Pe 2:8) And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

(1Pe 2:9) But ye a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

(1Pe 2:10) Which in time past not a people, but now the people of Elohim: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

(1Pe 2:11) Dearly beloved, I beseech as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

(1Pe 2:12) Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by good works, which they shall behold, glorify Elohim in the day of visitation.

(1Pe 2:13) Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

(1Pe 2:14) Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

(1Pe 2:15) For so is the will of Elohim, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

(1Pe 2:16) As free, and not using liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of Elohim.

(1Pe 2:17) Honour all. Love the brotherhood. Fear Elohim. Honour the king.

(1Pe 2:18) Servants, subject to masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

(1Pe 2:19) For this thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward Elohim endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

(1Pe 2:20) For what glory, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer, ye take it patiently, this acceptable with Elohim.

(1Pe 2:21) For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

(1Pe 2:22) Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

(1Pe 2:23) Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed to him that judgeth righteously:

(1Pe 2:24) Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

(1Pe 2:25) For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

(1Pe 3:1) Likewise, ye wives, in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

(1Pe 3:2) While they behold your chaste conversation with fear.

(1Pe 3:3) Whose adorning let it not be that outward of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

(1Pe 3:4) But the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of Elohim of great price.

(1Pe 3:5) For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in Elohim, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

(1Pe 3:6) Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

(1Pe 3:7) Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

(1Pe 3:8) Finally, all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, pitiful, courteous:

(1Pe 3:9) Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

(1Pe 3:10) For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

(1Pe 3:11) Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

(1Pe 3:12) For the eyes of YHVH over the righteous, and his ears unto their prayers: but the face of YHVH against them that do evil.

(1Pe 3:13) And who he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

(1Pe 3:14) But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

(1Pe 3:15) But sanctify YHVH Elohim in your hearts: and ready always to an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

(1Pe 3:16) Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

(1Pe 3:17) For better, if the will of Elohim be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

(1Pe 3:18) For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to Elohim, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

(1Pe 3:19) By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

(1Pe 3:20) Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of Elohim waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

(1Pe 3:21) The like figure whereunto baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward Elohim,) by the resurrection of YAHshua Christ:

(1Pe 3:22) Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of Elohim; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

(1Pe 4:1) Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

(1Pe 4:2) That he no longer should live the rest of time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of Elohim.

(1Pe 4:3) For the time past of life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

(1Pe 4:4) Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of.

(1Pe 4:5) Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

(1Pe 4:6) For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to Elohim in the spirit.

(1Pe 4:7) But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

(1Pe 4:8) And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

(1Pe 4:9) Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

(1Pe 4:10) As every man hath received the gift, minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of Elohim.

(1Pe 4:11) If any man speak, as the oracles of Elohim; if any man minister, as of the ability which Elohim giveth: that Elohim in all things may be glorified through YAHshua Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

(1Pe 4:12) Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

(1Pe 4:13) But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

(1Pe 4:14) If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy for the spirit of glory and of Elohim resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

(1Pe 4:15) But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

(1Pe 4:16) Yet if as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify Elohim on this behalf.

(1Pe 4:17) For the time that judgment must begin at the house of Elohim: and if first at us, what shall the end of them that obey not the gospel of Elohim?

(1Pe 4:18) And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

(1Pe 4:19) Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of Elohim commit the keeping of their souls in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

(1Pe 5:1) The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

(1Pe 5:2) Feed the flock of Elohim which is among you, taking the oversight, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

(1Pe 5:3) Neither as being lords over heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

(1Pe 5:4) And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

(1Pe 5:5) Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for Elohim resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

(1Pe 5:6) Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of Elohim, that he may exalt you in due time:

(1Pe 5:7) Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

(1Pe 5:8) Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

(1Pe 5:9) Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

(1Pe 5:10) But the Elohim of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ YAHshua, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle.

(1Pe 5:11) To him glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

(1Pe 5:12) By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of Elohim wherein ye stand.

(1Pe 5:13) The at Babylon, elected together with , saluteth you; and Marcus my son.

(1Pe 5:14) Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace with you all that are in Christ YAHshua. Amen.

2 Peter.

(2Pe 1:1) Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of YAHshua Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of Elohim and our Saviour YAHshua Christ:

(2Pe 1:2) Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of Elohim, and of YAHshua our Lord,

(2Pe 1:3) According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

(2Pe 1:4) Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

(2Pe 1:5) And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

(2Pe 1:6) And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

(2Pe 1:7) And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

(2Pe 1:8) For if these things be in you, and abound, they make neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(2Pe 1:9) But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

(2Pe 1:10) Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

(2Pe 1:11) For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour YAHshua Christ.

(2Pe 1:12) Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know and be established in the present truth.

(2Pe 1:13) Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting in remembrance;

(2Pe 1:14) Knowing that shortly I must put off my tabernacle, even as our Lord YAHshua Christ hath shewed me.

(2Pe 1:15) Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

(2Pe 1:16) For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord YAHshua Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

(2Pe 1:17) For he received from Elohim the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

(2Pe 1:18) And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

(2Pe 1:19) We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

(2Pe 1:20) Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

(2Pe 1:21) For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of Elohim spake moved by the Holy Spirit.

(2Pe 2:1) But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

(2Pe 2:2) And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

(2Pe 2:3) And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

(2Pe 2:4) For if Elohim spared not the angels that sinned, but cast down to hell, and delivered into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

(2Pe 2:5) And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

(2Pe 2:6) And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned with an overthrow, making an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

(2Pe 2:7) And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

(2Pe 2:8) (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed righteous soul from day to day with unlawful deeds;)

(2Pe 2:9) YHVH knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

(2Pe 2:10) But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

(2Pe 2:11) Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before YHVH.

(2Pe 2:12) But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

(2Pe 2:13) And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;

(2Pe 2:14) Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

(2Pe 2:15) Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

(2Pe 2:16) But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

(2Pe 2:17) These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

(2Pe 2:18) For when they speak great swelling of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

(2Pe 2:19) While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

(2Pe 2:20) For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour YAHshua Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

(2Pe 2:21) For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

(2Pe 2:22) But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

(2Pe 3:1) This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

(2Pe 3:2) That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

(2Pe 3:3) Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

(2Pe 3:4) And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as from the beginning of the creation.

(2Pe 3:5) For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of Elohim the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

(2Pe 3:6) Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

(2Pe 3:7) But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

(2Pe 3:8) But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day with YHVH as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

(2Pe 3:9) YHVH is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

(2Pe 3:10) But the day of YHVH will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

(2Pe 3:11) Then all these things shall be dissolved, what manner ought ye to be in holy conversation and godliness,

(2Pe 3:12) Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of Elohim, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

(2Pe 3:13) Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

(2Pe 3:14) Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

(2Pe 3:15) And account the longsuffering of our Lord salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

(2Pe 3:16) As also in all epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

(2Pe 3:17) Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

(2Pe 3:18) But grow in grace, and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour YAHshua Christ. To him glory both now and for ever. Amen.

1 John.

(1Jn 1:1) That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

(1Jn 1:2) (For the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

(1Jn 1:3) That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship with the Father, and with his Son YAHshua Christ.

(1Jn 1:4) And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

(1Jn 1:5) This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that Elohim is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

(1Jn 1:6) If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

(1Jn 1:7) But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of YAHshua Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

(1Jn 1:8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

(1Jn 1:9) If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(1Jn 1:10) If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

(1Jn 2:1) My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, YAHshua Christ the righteous:

(1Jn 2:2) And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.

(1Jn 2:3) And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

(1Jn 2:4) He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

(1Jn 2:5) But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of Elohim perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

(1Jn 2:6) He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

(1Jn 2:7) Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

(1Jn 2:8) Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

(1Jn 2:9) He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

(1Jn 2:10) He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

(1Jn 2:11) But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

(1Jn 2:12) I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

(1Jn 2:13) I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

(1Jn 2:14) I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of Elohim abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

(1Jn 2:15) Love not the world, neither the things in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

(1Jn 2:16) For all that in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

(1Jn 2:17) And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of Elohim abideth for ever.

(1Jn 2:18) Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

(1Jn 2:19) They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

(1Jn 2:20) But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.

(1Jn 2:21) I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

(1Jn 2:22) Who is a liar but he that denieth that YAHshua is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

(1Jn 2:23) Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father.

(1Jn 2:24) Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

(1Jn 2:25) And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

(1Jn 2:26) These have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

(1Jn 2:27) But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

(1Jn 2:28) And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

(1Jn 2:29) If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

(1Jn 3:1) Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of Elohim: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

(1Jn 3:2) Beloved, now are we the sons of Elohim, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

(1Jn 3:3) And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

(1Jn 3:4) Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

(1Jn 3:5) And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

(1Jn 3:6) Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

(1Jn 3:7) Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

(1Jn 3:8) He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Elohim was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

(1Jn 3:9) Whosoever is born of Elohim doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of Elohim.

(1Jn 3:10) In this the children of Elohim are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of Elohim, neither he that loveth not his brother.

(1Jn 3:11) For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

(1Jn 3:12) Not as Cain, was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

(1Jn 3:13) Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

(1Jn 3:14) We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not brother abideth in death.

(1Jn 3:15) Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

(1Jn 3:16) Hereby perceive we the love because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down lives for the brethren.

(1Jn 3:17) But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels from him, how dwelleth the love of Elohim in him?

(1Jn 3:18) My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

(1Jn 3:19) And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

(1Jn 3:20) For if our heart condemn us, Elohim is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

(1Jn 3:21) Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, have we confidence toward Elohim.

(1Jn 3:22) And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

(1Jn 3:23) And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son YAHshua Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

(1Jn 3:24) And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

(1Jn 4:1) Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of Elohim: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

(1Jn 4:2) Hereby know ye the Spirit of Elohim: Every spirit that confesseth that YAHshua Christ is come in the flesh is of Elohim:

(1Jn 4:3) And every spirit that confesseth not that YAHshua Christ is come in the flesh is not of Elohim: and this is that of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

(1Jn 4:4) Ye are of Elohim, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

(1Jn 4:5) They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

(1Jn 4:6) We are of Elohim: he that knoweth Elohim heareth us; he that is not of Elohim heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

(1Jn 4:7) Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of Elohim; and every one that loveth is born of Elohim, and knoweth Elohim.

(1Jn 4:8) He that loveth not knoweth not Elohim; for Elohim is love.

(1Jn 4:9) In this was manifested the love of Elohim toward us, because that Elohim sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

(1Jn 4:10) Herein is love, not that we loved Elohim, but that he loved us, and sent his Son the propitiation for our sins.

(1Jn 4:11) Beloved, if Elohim so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

(1Jn 4:12) No man hath seen Elohim at any time. If we love one another, Elohim dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

(1Jn 4:13) Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

(1Jn 4:14) And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son the Saviour of the world.

(1Jn 4:15) Whosoever shall confess that YAHshua is the Son of Elohim, Elohim dwelleth in him, and he in Elohim.

(1Jn 4:16) And we have known and believed the love that Elohim hath to us. Elohim is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in Elohim, and Elohim in him.

(1Jn 4:17) Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

(1Jn 4:18) There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

(1Jn 4:19) We love him, because he first loved us.

(1Jn 4:20) If a man say, I love Elohim, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love Elohim whom he hath not seen?

(1Jn 4:21) And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth Elohim love his brother also.

(1Jn 5:1) Whosoever believeth that YAHshua is the Christ is born of Elohim: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

(1Jn 5:2) By this we know that we love the children of Elohim, when we love Elohim, and keep his commandments.

(1Jn 5:3) For this is the love of Elohim, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

(1Jn 5:4) For whatsoever is born of Elohim overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, our faith.

(1Jn 5:5) Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that YAHshua is the Son of Elohim?

(1Jn 5:6) This is he that came by water and blood, YAHshua Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

(1Jn 5:7) For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirt: and these three are one.

(1Jn 5:8) And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

(1Jn 5:9) If we receive the witness of men, the witness of Elohim is greater: for this is the witness of Elohim which he hath testified of his Son.

(1Jn 5:10) He that believeth on the Son of Elohim hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not Elohim hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that Elohim gave of his Son.

(1Jn 5:11) And this is the record, that Elohim hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

(1Jn 5:12) He that hath the Son hath life; he that hath not the Son of Elohim hath not life.

(1Jn 5:13) These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of Elohim; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of Elohim.

(1Jn 5:14) And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

(1Jn 5:15) And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

(1Jn 5:16) If any man see his brother sin a sin not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

(1Jn 5:17) All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

(1Jn 5:18) We know that whosoever is born of Elohim sinneth not; but he that is begotten of Elohim keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

(1Jn 5:19) we know that we are of Elohim, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

(1Jn 5:20) And we know that the Son of Elohim is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, in his Son YAHshua Christ. This is the true Elohim, and eternal life.

(1Jn 5:21) Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

2 John.

(2Jn 1:1) The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

(2Jn 1:2) For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

(2Jn 1:3) Grace be with you, mercy, peace, from Elohim the Father, and from the Lord YAHshua Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

(2Jn 1:4) I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

(2Jn 1:5) And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

(2Jn 1:6) And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

(2Jn 1:7) For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that YAHshua Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

(2Jn 1:8) Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

(2Jn 1:9) Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not Elohim. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

(2Jn 1:10) If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into house, neither bid him Elohim speed:

(2Jn 1:11) For he that biddeth him Elohim speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

(2Jn 1:12) Having many things to write unto you, I would not with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

(2Jn 1:13) The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

3 John.

(3Jn 1:1) The elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

(3Jn 1:2) Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

(3Jn 1:3) For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

(3Jn 1:4) I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

(3Jn 1:5) Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

(3Jn 1:6) Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

(3Jn 1:7) Because that for His Name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

(3Jn 1:8) We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

(3Jn 1:9) I wrote unto the church: but Diotrefes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

(3Jn 1:10) Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth out of the church.

(3Jn 1:11) Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of Elohim: but he that doeth evil hath not seen Elohim.

(3Jn 1:12) Demetrius hath good report of all, and of the truth itself: yea, and we bear record; and ye know that our record is true.

(3Jn 1:13) I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

(3Jn 1:14) But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace to thee. friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

Jude.

(Jud 1:1) Jude, the servant of YAHshua Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by Elohim the Father, and preserved in YAHshua Christ, called:

(Jud 1:2) Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

(Jud 1:3) Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

(Jud 1:4) For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our Elohim into lasciviousness, and denying the only YHVH Elohim, and our Lord YAHshua Christ.

(Jud 1:5) I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that YHVH, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

(Jud 1:6) And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

(Jud 1:7) Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

(Jud 1:8) Likewise also these dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

(Jud 1:9) Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, YHVH rebuke thee.

(Jud 1:10) But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

(Jud 1:11) Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

(Jud 1:12) These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

(Jud 1:13) Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

(Jud 1:14) And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, YHVH cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

(Jud 1:15) To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

(Jud 1:16) These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

(Jud 1:17) But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord YAHshua Christ;

(Jud 1:18) How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

(Jud 1:19) These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

(Jud 1:20) But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, (Jud 1:21) Keep yourselves in the love of Elohim, looking for the mercy of our Lord YAHshua Christ unto eternal life.

(Jud 1:22) And of some have compassion, making a difference:

(Jud 1:23) And others save with fear, pulling out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

(Jud 1:24) Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, (Jud 1:25) To the only wise Elohim our Saviour, glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

Revelation.

(Rev 1:1) The Revelation of YAHshua Christ, which Elohim gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified by his angel unto his servant John:

(Rev 1:2) Who bare record of the word of Elohim, and of the testimony of YAHshua Christ, and of all things that he saw.

(Rev 1:3) Blessed he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time at hand.

(Rev 1:4) John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

(Rev 1:5) And from YAHshua Christ, the faithful witness, the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

(Rev 1:6) And hath made us kings and priests unto Elohim and his Father; to him glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

(Rev 1:7) Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

(Rev 1:8) I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

(Rev 1:9) I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of YAHshua Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of Elohim, and for the testimony of YAHshua Christ.

(Rev 1:10) I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

(Rev 1:11) Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

(Rev 1:12) And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

(Rev 1:13) And in the midst of the seven candlesticks like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

(Rev 1:14) His head and hairs white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes as a flame of fire;

(Rev 1:15) And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

(Rev 1:16) And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance as the sun shineth in his strength.

(Rev 1:17) And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

(Rev 1:18) He that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

(Rev 1:19) Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

(Rev 1:20) The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

(Rev 2:1) Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

(Rev 2:2) I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

(Rev 2:3) And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

(Rev 2:4) Nevertheless I have against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

(Rev 2:5) Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

(Rev 2:6) But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

(Rev 2:7) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of Elohim.

(Rev 2:8) And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

(Rev 2:9) I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but the synagogue of Satan.

(Rev 2:10) Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

(Rev 2:11) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

(Rev 2:12) And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

(Rev 2:13) I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, where Satan's seat: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

(Rev 2:14) But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

(Rev 2:15) So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

(Rev 2:16) Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

(Rev 2:17) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth.

(Rev 2:18) And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of Elohim, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet like fine brass;

(Rev 2:19) I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last more than the first.

(Rev 2:20) Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

(Rev 2:21) And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

(Rev 2:22) Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

(Rev 2:23) And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

(Rev 2:24) But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

(Rev 2:25) But that which ye have hold fast till I come.

(Rev 2:26) And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

(Rev 2:27) And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

(Rev 2:28) And I will give him the morning star.

(Rev 2:29) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(Rev 3:1) And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of Elohim, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

(Rev 3:2) Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before Elohim.

(Rev 3:3) Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

(Rev 3:4) Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

(Rev 3:5) He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

(Rev 3:6) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(Rev 3:7) And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

(Rev 3:8) I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

(Rev 3:9) Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

(Rev 3:10) Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

(Rev 3:11) Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

(Rev 3:12) Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my Elohim, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my Elohim, and the name of the city of my Elohim, new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my Elohim: and my new name.

(Rev 3:13) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(Rev 3:14) And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of Elohim;

(Rev 3:15) I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

(Rev 3:16) So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

(Rev 3:17) Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

(Rev 3:18) I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

(Rev 3:19) As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

(Rev 3:20) Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

(Rev 3:21) To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

(Rev 3:22) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(Rev 4:1) After this I looked, and, behold, a door opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

(Rev 4:2) And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and sat on the throne.

(Rev 4:3) And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

(Rev 4:4) And round about the throne four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

(Rev 4:5) And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of Elohim.

(Rev 4:6) And before the throne a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

(Rev 4:7) And the first beast like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast like a flying eagle.

(Rev 4:8) And the four beasts had each of them six wings about; and full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, YHVH Elohim Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

(Rev 4:9) And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

(Rev 4:10) The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

(Rev 4:11) Thou art worthy, O YHVH, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

(Rev 5:1) And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

(Rev 5:2) And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

(Rev 5:3) And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

(Rev 5:4) And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

(Rev 5:5) And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

(Rev 5:6) And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of Elohim sent forth into all the earth.

(Rev 5:7) And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

(Rev 5:8) And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

(Rev 5:9) And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to Elohim by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

(Rev 5:10) And hast made us unto our Elohim kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

(Rev 5:11) And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

(Rev 5:12) Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

(Rev 5:13) And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

(Rev 5:14) And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

(Rev 6:1) And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

(Rev 6:2) And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

(Rev 6:3) And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

(Rev 6:4) And there went out another horse red: and was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

(Rev 6:5) And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

(Rev 6:6) And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

(Rev 6:7) And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

(Rev 6:8) And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

(Rev 6:9) And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of Elohim, and for the testimony which they held:

(Rev 6:10) And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O YHVH, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

(Rev 6:11) And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they, should be fulfilled.

(Rev 6:12) And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

(Rev 6:13) And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

(Rev 6:14) And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

(Rev 6:15) And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

(Rev 6:16) And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

(Rev 6:17) For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

(Rev 7:1) And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

(Rev 7:2) And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living Elohim: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

(Rev 7:3) Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our Elohim in their foreheads.

(Rev 7:4) And I heard the number of them which were sealed: sealed an hundred forty four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

(Rev 7:5) Of the tribe of Juda sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad sealed twelve thousand.

(Rev 7:6) Of the tribe of Aser sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtalim sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses sealed twelve thousand.

(Rev 7:7) Of the tribe of Simeon sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar sealed twelve thousand.

(Rev 7:8) Of the tribe of Zabulon sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin sealed twelve thousand.

(Rev 7:9) After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

(Rev 7:10) And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our Elohim which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

(Rev 7:11) And all the angels stood round about the throne, and the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped Elohim,

(Rev 7:12) Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, unto our Elohim for ever and ever. Amen.

(Rev 7:13) And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

(Rev 7:14) And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

(Rev 7:15) Therefore are they before the throne of Elohim, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

(Rev 7:16) They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

(Rev 7:17) For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and Elohim shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

(Rev 8:1) And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

(Rev 8:2) And I saw the seven angels which stood before Elohim; and to them were given seven trumpets.

(Rev 8:3) And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

(Rev 8:4) And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before Elohim out of the angel's hand.

(Rev 8:5) And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

(Rev 8:6) And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

(Rev 8:7) The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

(Rev 8:8) And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

(Rev 8:9) And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

(Rev 8:10) And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

(Rev 8:11) And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

(Rev 8:12) And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

(Rev 8:13) And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

(Rev 9:1) And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

(Rev 9:2) And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

(Rev 9:3) And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

(Rev 9:4) And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of Elohim in their foreheads.

(Rev 9:5) And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

(Rev 9:6) And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

(Rev 9:7) And the shapes of the locusts like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads as it were crowns like gold, and their faces as the faces of men.

(Rev 9:8) And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as of lions.

(Rev 9:9) And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

(Rev 9:10) And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power to hurt men five months.

(Rev 9:11) And they had a king over them, the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath name Apollyon.

(Rev 9:12) One woe is past, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

(Rev 9:13) And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before Elohim, (Rev 9:14) Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

(Rev 9:15) And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

(Rev 9:16) And the number of the army of the horsemen two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

(Rev 9:17) And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

(Rev 9:18) By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

(Rev 9:19) For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

(Rev 9:20) And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

(Rev 9:21) Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

(Rev 10:1) And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow upon his head, and his face as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

(Rev 10:2) And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and left on the earth,

(Rev 10:3) And cried with a loud voice, as a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

(Rev 10:4) And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

(Rev 10:5) And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

(Rev 10:6) And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

(Rev 10:7) But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of Elohim should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

(Rev 10:8) And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

(Rev 10:9) And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

(Rev 10:10) And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

(Rev 10:11) And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

(Rev 11:1) And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of Elohim, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

(Rev 11:2) But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty two months.

(Rev 11:3) And I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

(Rev 11:4) These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the Elohim of the earth.

(Rev 11:5) And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

(Rev 11:6) These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

(Rev 11:7) And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

(Rev 11:8) And their dead bodies in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

(Rev 11:9) And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

(Rev 11:10) And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

(Rev 11:11) And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from Elohim entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

(Rev 11:12) And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

(Rev 11:13) And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the Elohim of heaven.

(Rev 11:14) The second woe is past, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

(Rev 11:15) And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become of our YHVH, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

(Rev 11:16) And the four and twenty elders, which sat before Elohim on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped Elohim, (Rev 11:17) Saying, We give thee thanks, O YHVH Elohim Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

(Rev 11:18) And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy Name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

(Rev 11:19) And the temple of Elohim was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

(Rev 12:1) And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

(Rev 12:2) And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

(Rev 12:3) And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

(Rev 12:4) And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

(Rev 12:5) And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto Elohim, and his throne.

(Rev 12:6) And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of Elohim, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred threescore days.

(Rev 12:7) And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, (Rev 12:8) And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

(Rev 12:9) And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

(Rev 12:10) And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our Elohim, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our Elohim day and night.

(Rev 12:11) And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

(Rev 12:12) Therefore rejoice, heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

(Rev 12:13) And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man.

(Rev 12:14) And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

(Rev 12:15) And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

(Rev 12:16) And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

(Rev 12:17) And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of Elohim, and have the testimony of YAHshua Christ.

(Rev 13:1) And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

(Rev 13:2) And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

(Rev 13:3) And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

(Rev 13:4) And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

(Rev 13:5) And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty two months.

(Rev 13:6) And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against Elohim, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

(Rev 13:7) And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

(Rev 13:8) And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

(Rev 13:9) If any man have an ear, let him hear.

(Rev 13:10) He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

(Rev 13:11) And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

(Rev 13:12) And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

(Rev 13:13) And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

(Rev 13:14) And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

(Rev 13:15) And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

(Rev 13:16) And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

(Rev 13:17) And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

(Rev 13:18) Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number Six hundred threescore six.

(Rev 14:1) And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

(Rev 14:2) And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

(Rev 14:3) And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred forty four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

(Rev 14:4) These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, the firstfruits unto Elohim and to the Lamb.

(Rev 14:5) And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of Elohim.

(Rev 14:6) And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

(Rev 14:7) Saying with a loud voice, Fear Elohim, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

(Rev 14:8) And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

(Rev 14:9) And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

(Rev 14:10) The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of Elohim, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

(Rev 14:11) And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

(Rev 14:12) Here is the patience of the saints: here they that keep the commandments of Elohim, and the faith of YAHshua.

(Rev 14:13) And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

(Rev 14:14) And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

(Rev 14:15) And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

(Rev 14:16) And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

(Rev 14:17) And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

(Rev 14:18) And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

(Rev 14:19) And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast into the great winepress of the wrath of Elohim.

(Rev 14:20) And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand six hundred furlongs.

(Rev 15:1) And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of Elohim.

(Rev 15:2) And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of Elohim.

(Rev 15:3) And they sing the song of Moses the servant of Elohim, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous thy works, YHVH Elohim Almighty; just and true thy ways, thou King of saints.

(Rev 15:4) Who shall not fear thee, O YHVH, and glorify thy name? for only holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

(Rev 15:5) And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

(Rev 15:6) And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

(Rev 15:7) And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of Elohim, who liveth for ever and ever.

(Rev 15:8) And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of Elohim, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

(Rev 16:1) And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of Elohim upon the earth.

(Rev 16:2) And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and them which worshipped his image.

(Rev 16:3) And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead: and every living soul died in the sea.

(Rev 16:4) And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

(Rev 16:5) And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O YHVH, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

(Rev 16:6) For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

(Rev 16:7) And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, YHVH Elohim Almighty, true and righteous thy judgments.

(Rev 16:8) And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

(Rev 16:9) And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of Elohim, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

(Rev 16:10) And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

(Rev 16:11) And blasphemed the Elohim of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

(Rev 16:12) And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

(Rev 16:13) And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

(Rev 16:14) For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of Elohim Almighty.

(Rev 16:15) Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

(Rev 16:16) And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

(Rev 16:17) And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

(Rev 16:18) And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, so great.

(Rev 16:19) And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before Elohim, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

(Rev 16:20) And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

(Rev 16:21) And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed Elohim because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

(Rev 17:1) And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

(Rev 17:2) With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

(Rev 17:3) So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

(Rev 17:4) And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

(Rev 17:5) And upon her forehead a name written, mystery, Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and abominations of the earth.

(Rev 17:6) And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of YAHshua: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

(Rev 17:7) And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

(Rev 17:8) The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

(Rev 17:9) And here the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

(Rev 17:10) And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

(Rev 17:11) And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

(Rev 17:12) And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

(Rev 17:13) These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

(Rev 17:14) These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him called, and chosen, and faithful.

(Rev 17:15) And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

(Rev 17:16) And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

(Rev 17:17) For Elohim hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of Elohim shall be fulfilled.

(Rev 17:18) And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

(Rev 18:1) And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

(Rev 18:2) And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

(Rev 18:3) For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

(Rev 18:4) And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

(Rev 18:5) For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Elohim hath remembered her iniquities.

(Rev 18:6) Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

(Rev 18:7) How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

(Rev 18:8) Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong YHVH Elohim who judgeth her.

(Rev 18:9) And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

(Rev 18:10) Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

(Rev 18:11) And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

(Rev 18:12) The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

(Rev 18:13) And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

(Rev 18:14) And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

(Rev 18:15) The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

(Rev 18:16) And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

(Rev 18:17) For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

(Rev 18:18) And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What like unto this great city!

(Rev 18:19) And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

(Rev 18:20) Rejoice over her, heaven, and holy apostles and prophets; for Elohim hath avenged you on her.

(Rev 18:21) And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

(Rev 18:22) And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

(Rev 18:23) And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

(Rev 18:24) And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

(Rev 19:1) And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, HalleluYAH; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto YHVH our Elohim:

(Rev 19:2) For true and righteous his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

(Rev 19:3) And again they said, HalleluYAH. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

(Rev 19:4) And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped Elohim that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; HalleluYAH.

(Rev 19:5) And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our Elohim, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

(Rev 19:6) And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, HalleluYAH: for YHVH Elohim omnipotent reigneth.

(Rev 19:7) Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

(Rev 19:8) And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

(Rev 19:9) And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of Elohim.

(Rev 19:10) And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of YAHshua: worship Elohim: for the testimony of YAHshua is the spirit of prophecy.

(Rev 19:11) And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

(Rev 19:12) His eyes as a flame of fire, and on his head many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

(Rev 19:13) And he clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of Elohim.

(Rev 19:14) And the armies in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

(Rev 19:15) And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty Elohim.

(Rev 19:16) And he hath on vesture and on his thigh a name written, King of kings, and Lord of lords.

(Rev 19:17) And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great Elohim;

(Rev 19:18) That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all, free and bond, both small and great.

(Rev 19:19) And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

(Rev 19:20) And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

(Rev 19:21) And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

(Rev 20:1) And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

(Rev 20:2) And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

(Rev 20:3) And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

(Rev 20:4) And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of YAHshua, and for the word of Elohim, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

(Rev 20:5) But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This the first resurrection.

(Rev 20:6) Blessed and holy he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of Elohim and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

(Rev 20:7) And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

(Rev 20:8) And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom as the sand of the sea.

(Rev 20:9) And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from Elohim out of heaven, and devoured them.

(Rev 20:10) And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

(Rev 20:11) And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

(Rev 20:12) And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before Elohim; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

(Rev 20:13) And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

(Rev 20:14) And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

(Rev 20:15) And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

(Rev 21:1) And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

(Rev 21:2) And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from Elohim out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

(Rev 21:3) And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of Elohim with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and Elohim himself shall be with them, their Elohim.

(Rev 21:4) And Elohim shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

(Rev 21:5) And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

(Rev 21:6) And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

(Rev 21:7) He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his Elohim, and he shall be my son.

(Rev 21:8) But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

(Rev 21:9) And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

(Rev 21:10) And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from Elohim,

(Rev 21:11) Having the glory of Elohim: and her light like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

(Rev 21:12) And had a wall great and high, had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

(Rev 21:13) On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

(Rev 21:14) And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

(Rev 21:15) And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

(Rev 21:16) And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

(Rev 21:17) And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred forty four cubits, the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

(Rev 21:18) And the building of the wall of it was jasper: and the city pure gold, like unto clear glass.

(Rev 21:19) And the foundations of the wall of the city garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

(Rev 21:20) The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

(Rev 21:21) And the twelve gates twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

(Rev 21:22) And I saw no temple therein: for YHVH Elohim Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

(Rev 21:23) And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of Elohim did lighten it, and the Lamb the light thereof.

(Rev 21:24) And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

(Rev 21:25) And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

(Rev 21:26) And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

(Rev 21:27) And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither worketh abomination, or a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

(Rev 22:1) And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of Elohim and of the Lamb.

(Rev 22:2) In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, the tree of life, which bare twelve fruits, yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree for the healing of the nations.

(Rev 22:3) And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of Elohim and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

(Rev 22:4) And they shall see his face; and his Name in their foreheads.

(Rev 22:5) And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for YHVH Elohim giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

(Rev 22:6) And he said unto me, These sayings faithful and true: and YHVH Elohim of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

(Rev 22:7) Behold, I come quickly: blessed he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

(Rev 22:8) And I John saw these things, and heard. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

(Rev 22:9) Then saith he unto me, See not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship Elohim.

(Rev 22:10) And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

(Rev 22:11) He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

(Rev 22:12) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

(Rev 22:13) I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

(Rev 22:14) Blessed they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

(Rev 22:15) For without dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

(Rev 22:16) I YAHshua have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright and morning star.

(Rev 22:17) And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

(Rev 22:18) For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, Elohim shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

(Rev 22:19) And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, Elohim shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and the things which are written in this book.

(Rev 22:20) He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord YAHshua.

(Rev 22:21) The grace of our Lord YAHshua Christ with you all. Amen.
