Introduction

Many companies offering writing services are available on a regular basis. This makes it difficult to pick a trustworthy one. There have been numerous issues that have occurred when I ordered paper help. Some services offer low-quality content and falsify customer reviews. Certain services have high costs, but do not finish orders in time.

I've begun to share my experiences with others to protect them from fraudsters. I've tried a variety of options, and will share my opinions and recommendations that will help you pick the best one.

This page is dedicated to ExtraEssay.com reviews. I will give my honest opinion on this business.

Because I have been researching services for a while, I am capable of identifying the good and bad companies. I take note of numerous details when I check that a service is reliable.

Story

I don't rely entirely on feedback from customers. I like to investigate companies on my own. ExtraEssay wasn't an exception. I've ordered a sample paper in order to test the quality of the service.

I would rate the overall experience of the service as good. The paper was completed on time and with an excellent quality. The company has some problems that we will discuss in our article.

Pros And Cons

For quite some time, I've been analyzing writing companies and have yet to find the right one. Each one has its pros and disadvantages.

Essay Extra is a trustworthy business with a lot of advantages. However, there are certain disadvantages that need to be taken into consideration when choosing this particular service.

The website of the service is that is modern and user-friendly. It's simple to make an order or verify any details even if you're an amateur user

The company offers support through various channels. The support team is quick to respond.

Online samples are plentiful. Students have the chance to check the quality of the papers prior to making an order

The business is available 24/7 and is glad to provide any paper help and assist with any questions anytime

The business is legitimate, reliable, and secure. It promotes academic integrity and ensures the quality of services provided.

The company guarantees complete confidentiality, anonymity and privacy to its users

Customers can count on discounts, and the company also offers a subscription program for courses. Students pay one-time tuition for all homework classes. This reduces the price and allows you to save money.

It's impossible to learn more about the authors. Students can't determine if the writers are natives of the country. The company claims that all authors are educated, and must confirm this before becoming a member of the team.

There are some free revisions available with the order. If you require significant alterations to your paper, you will have to be prepared to pay an additional fee

The company has only one social media profile. Even this profile on Facebook is abandoned since it only has a few posts, the most recent one being published in 2018.

Additional editing as well as the chance to select an experienced writer could be available at an additional cost

It appears that the business offers a top-quality service and guarantees to its customers. It collaborates with professional writers and provides the most plagiarism-free paper. There are other options that may be added to the order. This can affect the final cost.
