Bed Wars

Unique Gameplay Mechanics

Bed Wars provide players with a multiplayer experience that is unique to the voxel game genre. This game is not like Minecraft, where you can create whatever you like for other players to see however, it is focused on team battles. It's focused on protecting and destroying beds, as the name suggests. Your goal is to keep the bed safe from being destroyed or taken over by other teams. You could also take over the beds of other teams and also kill its inhabitants by building a bridge over the island of your adversaries. In this game, the sole team that survives the match wins. If you're a fan of exciting gameplay that offers many unique challenges and tests your strategy skills you can expect a thrilling experience playing this game.

Fun Game Modes to Pick From

Another amazing feature of this game is the possibility to choose between three game modes. In Bed Wars, you can choose between three game modes-Solo Doubles, 4v4v4v4. These modes let you decide how you would like to play the game.

You can select the 4v4v4v4v4v4v4 game mode if prefer playing in teams. In this mode, the four teams are split in four different islands. Each island also has its own base and bed. However, if you want to fight against a single player you can select the Doubles mode. You can also choose Solo mode for those who prefer to fight against AIs in-game. With the variety of PVP game modes, you have the freedom to choose the one that best suits your preferences.

Customization Options

This epic game also comes with a myriad of customization options that are not only for aesthetics but also to increase your character's stats. Bed Wars is a multiplayer game that lets you alter your character's appearance both outside and inside the arena. This means that you can power-up your characters before entering an arena or inside the arena. The best part is that the game ensures that every player on the field is perfectly matched to each other to ensure a balanced gameplay.
