Activity 2 – National Forest Reference Level
Task 4 – Refinement

The aim of Activity 2 is the development of the National Forest Reference Level (NFRL) and its submission to the UNFCCC. The submission of the NFRL is one of the key requirements under the UNFCCC for countries to be eligible to receive results-based payments as agreed in several COP decisions. The NFRL will be developed consistent with all relevant UNFCCC decisions and IPCC Good Practice Guidance and Guidelines and in the context of national development objectives. The submission of the NFRL to the REDD+ Info Hub on the UNFCCC REDD+ Web Platform will comply with existing international guidance on REDD+.

One of the tasks under Activity 2 is Refinement. Considering the inputs and comments from the stakeholders consultation on a refinement of the draft NFRL will be undertaken. In particular, areas of improvement will be identified and considered in relation to data, policy development, technology, etc.

Term: 22 Days

Refinement is based on the following sub-actions:

- 1) Consideration and analysis of comments and inputs collected during the Demonstration phase
- 2) Addressing the inputs from stakeholders in the draft NFRL

Methodology

- Review of comments and inputs collected during the stakeholders consultation phase (10 days)
- Consideration of areas for refinement, improvements & prioritisation (7 days)
- Prepare a report including recommendations to improve and enhance the draft NFRL on the basis of inputs collected (5 days)
