CASE NO. BD 455 662

KEECH DECLARATION OF MARK VINCENT KAPLAN IN SUPPORT OF RESPONDENT'S OSC REQUEST FOR PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY

Comr. Scott Gordon

CONDITIONALLY UNDER SEAL

Marriage of SPEARS/FEDERLINE LASC Case No. BD 455 662

DECLARATION OF MARK VINCENT KAPLAN

I, MARK VINCENT KAPLAN, hereby declare as follows:

- 1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law before all the courts of the State of California, and am a partner of Kaplan & Simon, L.L.P., attorneys of record for Respondent Kevin Federline herein. The below facts are within my personal knowledge and I could and would competently testify thereto if called upon to do so.
- 2. At the hearing on September 17, 2007, the court ordered that each party shall file and serve a current Income and Expense Declaration; that Respondent may file and serve an updated "Keech" declaration; that Petitioner may file a responsive declaration to the "Keech" within 10 days thereafter; and that the issue of Respondent's attorney fees and costs shall then be taken under submission for ruling by the Court. Per stipulation of counsel, the date for submission of the Income and Expense Declarations and Respondent's "Keech" declaration is October 10, 2007.
- 3. At Kaplan & Simon, L.L.P., we practice exclusively family law. I have handled over 1,000 family law cases and routinely handle complex divorce litigation. I am a Certified Family Law Specialist and have been practicing family law for 35 years. My partner, James M. Simon, has been practicing law for 24 years and family law has been his primary area of practice. Mr. Simon and I have primary responsibility for representation of Respondent in this matter, with our associates doing as much as they can to keep fees to a minimum. We are both competent, experienced family law attorneys. My current hourly rate is $550 and Mr. Simon's is $500.
- 4. Primary counsel for Petitioner Britney Spears have been Laura Wasser and Dennis Wasser of Wasser, Cooperman & Carter, PC; Mel Goldsman and Marci Levine of Freid & Goldsman (for a few days), and Sorrell Trope, Tara Scott and Lori Howe of Trope and Trope. They are all excellent and experienced family law attorneys. In connection with this OSC, there has been and will be substantial legal work required of us on behalf of Respondent. With competent counsel on both sides of this custody

In re Marriage of SPEARS/FEDERLINE LASC Case No. BD 455 662 litigation, the pleadings are voluminous and all hearings have been contested and expensive.

- 5. Set forth below and in the attached billing statements are a description of the services we performed and the number of hours worked, how much work has been done and what work needs to be done and the reasons therefor, and why Respondent's requested amount for fees and costs is "just and reasonable" under the parties' relative circumstances. Respondent further refers the Court to Respondent's Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support of his entitlement to "need" based attorney fees and costs attached to his initial moving papers filed on August 8, 2007.
- a. For Respondent's initial filing on August 8, 2007 of the subject OSC to modify custody, we conducted an extensive investigation, interviewed numerous witnesses and prepared five declarations with 29 exhibits and memorandum of points and authorities. The declarations submitted on behalf of Respondent provided the Court with material evidence to substantiate Respondent's requests for relief including, without limitation, the following:
- Petitioner's mental stability, lack of judgment, drinking, drug use, inappropriate behavior, and lack of routine and structure in regard to the children's daily activities;
- Petitioner's prior refusal to provide Respondent with any type of regular schedule for him to see the children and information pertaining to their location and well being;
- Petitioner's extensive travel with the children and repeated removal of the children from California in violation of the ATROs and over the express objections of Respondent that she not do so;
- Petitioner's failure to provide appropriate medical and dental care for the children and to follow medical advice and prescriptions;

- Petitioner's revolving door of nannies, "mannies," assistants and security guards to take care of the children which, to our knowledge, includes at least 10 nannies in the last year; and
- Petitioner's in-and-out trips to rehab and ongoing failure to provide required proof of her compliance with her discharge recommendations from Promises Treatment Center. (For several months prior to filing the OSC, we attempted, without success, to obtain from Petitioner her discharge records from Promises and proof of her compliance therewith from Dr. Wyman.)
- b. We appeared for three hearings with regard to sealing of the file alone.
- c. On August 16, 2007, responsive to Petitioner's request that we stipulate to continue the September 17 OSC hearing, we sent a detailed proposal to Petitioner's former counsel for a stipulation to continue the OSC hearing. Petitioner rejected all conditions and did not make a counter-proposal. On August 17, 2007, we made a written offer to Petitioner's former counsel to exchange witness lists and to obtain voluntary acceptance of service of deposition subpoenas, to which we never received a response. On August 27, 2007, we filed written opposition and appeared in Court to successfully oppose Petitioner's ex parte application to continue the September 17 hearing date.
- d. On September 4, 2007, the Court ordered that there be a 730 custody evaluation, which we had initially proposed in writing to Petitioner back on June 28, 2007 (see Exhibit V to moving papers). Petitioner did not manifest her consent to Respondent's requested 730 evaluation until the filing of her responsive papers on September 4, 2007.
- e. Depositions are expensive but unavoidable discovery in the course of custody litigation of this size and complexity, given our duties of competence as family law attorneys. We are very careful in planning depositions owing to the high cost thereof and do not undertake depositions unless they are necessary. Despite repeated requests to Petitioner's former counsel, no date was ever offered for the taking of Petitioner's deposition. We then proceeded with deposition subpoenas to relevant nonparty witnesses in preparation for the hearing. With respect to such non-party witnesses, I believed it would not be prudent to attempt to arrange service through Petitioner's counsel, who did not have nor claimed to have the authority to act or speak on behalf of such persons with respect to service. In fact, in paragraph 3 of Laura Wasser's responsive declaration filed August 31, 2007, she states: "As Petitioner's attorneys, we have little or no say in the scheduling of third-party deponents and will simply appear whenever the deposition ultimately takes place in order to represent Petitioner." I was also concerned with respect to the potential of alerting such witnesses to a forthcoming service, who I believed would then be inclined to avoid service. Accordingly, private investigators were retained to locate and serve subpoenas on the non-party witnesses. I felt justified in my decision when I viewed the videotape of the service on Petitioner's former assistant, Alli Sims, during which she claimed she never touched the subpoena. Thereafter, Petitioner's requested that I send her another copy of the Sims' subpoena because Petitioner tore it up.

- f. On September 6, 2007, we took the deposition of Petitioner's former business manager, Larry Rudolph. On September 7, 2007, we took the deposition of Petitioner's former assistant, Shannon Funk. On September 11, 2007, we took the deposition of Petitioner's former assistant, Alli Sims.
- g. On September 11, 2007, we filed Respondent's reply brief and declarations of James Simon, Mark Kaplan and Kevin Federline in support of Respondent's OSC to modify custody. We further filed Respondent's evidentiary objections to the responsive declarations filed on behalf of Petitioner (the Court granted the majority of Respondent's objections).
- h. On September 12, 2007, we took the deposition of Petitioner's former bodyguard and part-time nanny, Damen Shippen. Also on September 12, 2007, in re Marriage of SPEARS/FEDERLINE LASC Case No. BD 455 662

we attended a voluntary settlement conference with Judge Stephen Lachs, from which Petitioner departed prior to the conclusion of the conference.

- i. On September 13, 2007, we filed the declaration of James M. Simon Re Appointment of Evaluator (though ordered by the Court, Petitioner failed to meet and confer with regard to selection of the evaluator and did not timely submit her list of proposed evaluators).
- j. At the hearing on September 17, 2007, the Court made certain specific and detailed orders with regard to the minor children, including that Petitioner submit to random drug and alcohol testing, engage in individual counseling to address parenting issues at least once per week, and meet with a parenting coach for at least two sessions per week during her custodial time. Following the Court's ruling, there were delays in obtaining Petitioner's compliance with the aforementioned orders that were effective on September 17, 2007.
- k. On September 20, 2007, we participated in a conference call with the Court and Petitioner's counsel in an attempt to resolve the selection of the drug testing facility and the methodology for testing. Petitioner's counsel required a court appearance to address the issues. On September 24, 2007, we appeared in Court and the Court appointed the testing facility and the methodology of urine analysis requested by Respondent.
- I. Subsequently, Petitioner did not stipulate that three attempts by the drug testing facility over the course of at least one hour without a response from Petitioner shall constitute a failure to test. Petitioner also failed and refused to provide proof of her valid California driver's license and insurance. Accordingly, on September 28, 2007, Respondent brought separate written ex parte applications for entry of the order re drug and alcohol drug testing of Petitioner and entry of an order re proof of Petitioner's valid license and insurance. The Court entered each of the aforementioned orders with minor modification. We further advised the Court that Petitioner had failed and refused to execute the order after hearing on Respondent's OSC and the Stipulation and Order re Child Custody Evaluation, each prepared by Respondent's counsel and orally approved by Petitioner's counsel. The Court ordered Petitioner to either sign the orders or appear in Court on October 1, 2007.

- m. On October 1, 2007, we appeared in Court and Petitioner did not appear. Based on the argument of counsel and evidence presented at the hearing, the Court ordered that the minor children shall remain in Respondent's custody pending the hearing on Respondent's ex parte application to modify custody we noticed at that hearing and set for October 3, 2007 at 1:30 p.m.
- n. On October 2, 2007, we filed and served Respondent's ex parte application to be heard the next day to modify child custody and visitation based on Petitioner's ongoing failure to comply with various orders made by the Court, including her failure to submit to a properly requested alcohol and drug test. Our ex parte papers included three declarations to establish Petitioner's non-compliance and memorandum of points and authorities. We also subpoenaed to the hearing two witnesses to Petitioner driving the children after she failed to provide Respondent proof of her valid license and insurance, which the court had ordered be a condition to her driving the children.
- o. On October 3, 2007, we appeared at the over three-hour hearing on Respondent's ex parte application to modify custody. The Court modified the custody order and made certain specific additional orders for the protection of the minor children, including that Petitioner's parenting time shall be in the presence of a professional monitor and the parenting coach pending further order of Court.
- 6. As described above, for each application we made to the Court on behalf of Respondent, the Court granted material relief and made specific orders for the protection of the children and to stabilize the situation pending completion of the 730 evaluation and presentation of additional evidence. Respondent's litigation expenses incurred in connection with his OSC to modify custody for the period July 31, 2007 forward is in the sum of $148,472 for attorney fees and $42,956 for costs, of which

$31,913 has been paid, leaving a balance due of $159,515 as of October 8, 2007.

Attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by this reference are true and correct (redacted) copies of the itemized statements of Respondent's aforementioned attorney fees and costs.

- 7. There will be significant additional attorney fees and costs to be incurred by Respondent. As of the writing of this declaration, we received notice from Petitioner's counsel that she will bring an ex parte application on October 11, 2007 to modify the order made by the court on October 3, 2007. We are now scheduled to commence Petitioner's deposition on October 22, 2007. We anticipate that several additional non-party depositions will be necessary as described in my priori moving declaration. We have already experienced opposition to outstanding non-party deposition subpoenas, including blanket objections received from counsel representing Betty Wyman and Promises Treatment Center. We expect Respondent will incur attorney fees and costs in "meet and confer" efforts as well as discovery motions in order to obtain compliance with these subpoenas.
- 8. We will continue to communicate and negotiate with Petitioner's counsel to amicably resolve issues, many of which have been resolved by stipulations between counsel.
- 9. Per Respondent's current Income & Expense Declaration filed herewith, he has no net income after business expenses. Respondent's currently receives child support of $15,000 per month and Respondent's receipt of spousal support of $20,000 per month will end on November 15, 2007. Per Petitioner's Income & Expense Declaration dated May 21, 2007, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit CC to Respondent's original moving papers filed on August 8, 2007, her average monthly income is $737,868 and Petitioner lists that she spends $102,000 per month on entertainment, gifts and vacations alone. In addition, I have reviewed Petitioner's schedule of assets and debts dated May 31, 2007, in which she lists that her net worth is approximately $30 million, which includes real properties believed to be listed at cost.

Thus, Petitioner clearly has discretionary financial resources available to contribute to Respondent's reasonable and necessary attorney fees and costs incurred in seeking relief for the protection of the minor children.

10. Petitioner's former attorneys, Laura Wasser and Mel Goldsman, have each informed me that their firms have been paid in full. Further, Petitioner presumably paid a retainer to the Trope office when they entered this case on September 20, 2007. While Petitioner is presumably current in the payment of her litigation expenses and has the financial resources to stay current, Respondent should at least be in the position to have Petitioner pay his counsel's present balance due for fees and costs incurred in obtaining orders for the protection of the children based on the conduct of Petitioner. Based upon the relative financial circumstances of the parties and the other relevant factors pursuant to Family Code sections 2030 and 2032 and Marriage of Keech, Respondent respectfully requests that the Court order Petitioner to pay his counsel a pendente lite award of attorney fees and costs in the sum of $160,000.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on October 10, 2007.
