

I'M CHRIS QUINLAN.

ENTREPRENEUR. SPEAKER.
INNOVATOR.

Chris Quinlan is the founder and Managing Director of the Wheelchair Grand Prix, CEO of Krios, and has numerous business interests in healthcare, technology, hospitality and recruitment. As an expert in developing and scaling businesses, Chris grew his latest business, Krios, to over $20 million in growth in under a year.

ABOUT CHRIS

Chris has an extensive knowledge around building and scaling businesses within healthcare, technology, hospitality and recruitment, working alongside some of the biggest names in these industries.

Chris is the managing director of the Wheelchair Grand Prix which provides motor racing opportunities to people with a disability. In 2017, WGP scaled to hosting events across 3 different continents and was also announced by Fairfax Media as the most reported on disability organisation the year! In fact, Chris managed to secure over $6 million of growth through partnerships alone for WGP.

Additionally, Chris was recently featured in the Sydney Morning Herald for his newest business, Krios, which has already grown to over $20 million revenue in it's first year. Krios is a digital marketing platform which incorporates its own cryptocurrency, launching in early 2018. In fact, over 300 million Krios tokens were sold during the Initial Coin Offering (ICO).
