LA PAMPAS Steakhouse offers only Argentinean beef steak from Aberdeen Angus, Hereford, including their cross breeds. The animals are free range and only feed on juicy pastures. No supplementary food is given. The quality meat is freshly vacuum-sealed, not deep-frozen, and gets just the right amount of time to mature during its transportation by sea. This way it turns especially tender and develops its aromatic taste and its hearty texture.

Choose your steak according to your taste:

english: red and soft in the centre, slightly browned
medium: pink and firm in the centre, exterior well browned well done: cooked all the way through, exterior intensely browned

The weights indicated refer to the weight before preparation.
