

LAAAC

Los Angeles Aging Advocacy Coalition

Our Long-Term Policy Priorities

Because ignoring the aging population is unscrupulous, the Los Angeles Aging Advocacy Coalition (LAAAC) works diligently to combat such neglect and make a positive impact on Los Angeles County by pushing for policies and laws that make quality care more accessible for seniors. Follow the links below to find more information on our aging advocacy priorities. Download the one-page summary of our previous policy priorities.

Help Us Champion the Change

Affordable Housing

We believe that the aging community should be supplied with more affordable housing to reduce homelessness in LA County. Read more about this issue here. Read More >>

Transportation

We believe that the aging community should have more access to affordable and reliable transportation methods, which correlates specifically to senior's needs in terms of mobility and quality. Read more about this issue here. Read More >>

Issues of Poverty

We believe that it is of utmost importance to raise awareness about poverty, food instability and other related issues affecting the seniors, their families, caregivers and aging service providers in Los Angeles County. Read more about this issue here. Read More >>

Advocacy Perceptions & Tips

To find out more information on the perceptions of advocacy by elected officials, please click here. Also, you can check out LAAAC's latest infographic, which features four practical approaches to urging your elected officials to step forward and take action on any above mentioned issues or any other issues of importance to you. View the infographic here >>