

Southerly Korea's curling 'Garlic Girls' say they were abused

The darlings of South Korea's Winter weather Olympics are back in the headlines eight months after their particular stimulating run to a being different silver medal in Pyeongchang.

South Korea's sports ministry on Wednesday announced a joint investigation with typically the indigenous Olympic committee in to allegations by the so-called Garlic Girls of neglect.

Sweden best Korea's 'Garlic Girls' for curling gold

The five-member women's curling team that will shot for you to international well known in February and resulted in unprecedented country specific attention for his or her sport sent a letter to typically the Korean Sport and Olympic Committee last few days to outline their allegations.

Often the women, from a new far off province famous for it has the garlic oil, captured hearts and minds throughout a nation that rarely knew curling prior to together with became sought-after types with regard to commercials and inspired plenty of online memes plus catch-phrases.

The attention was so excellent during the games of which their very own coach took at a distance their cell phones to defend the curlers from just about any pressure. The particular Garlic Women ultimately missing to Sweden in the gold medal match.

'Human privileges currently being violated'

In the letter, Kim Eun-jung, Kim Seon-yeong, Kim Yeong-ae, Kim Cho-hee and Kim Yeong-mi reproached former Korean Curling Federation (KCF) vice-president Kim Kyong-doo of hablado abuse and even team coaches of offering unreasonable orders and revealing their private lives for you to excessive control.

"The human being rights of the sports athletes are being violated, " the runners, the first Asian kitchenware team to help win the curling gold, wrote. "We've gotten to a place where this has become incredible. "

The curlers in addition respondent coaches of positioning rear prize money and trying to help sideline captain .k Eun-jung after learning of your ex plans to start children.

The coaches "tried to be able to rule Kim Eun-jung over team after she got married in July, " often the letter said. "They split up the skip and the particular staff captain's role to minimize Kim Eun-jung's position on the group. They also tried not for you to contain Kim Eun-jung within group training. "

Typically the learning staff have declined this allegations.

The inspection will start next 1 week together with will include officials through the ministry, the country specific Olympic committee plus the team's home domain associated with N . . .