

Hope For Three, a Greater Houston-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit and autism advocacy group, and its Teen Huddle volunteers are revving up for the Annual Car Wash for Kids on Sunday, April 7th from 10 am to 2 pm at C & C Dental, 17003 Southwest Fwy. in Sugar Land.

Car Wash for Kids is a free, Eco-friendly, waterless car wash presented by Sugar Land Baptist Church and hosted by C & C Dental. Donations are welcome. Student volunteers from across the county come together to raise awareness, acceptance, and inclusion for their peers with autism. The event is one-way teens give back to their community and support local families living with autism.

Hope For Three Teen Huddle is a group of 25 teen volunteers offering two programs: 1) Caregivers Time Out - Hope For Three, the Huddle and qualified volunteers entertain all children in the family while caregivers receive three hours of respite; and 2) Sibling Sessions - teen volunteers serve as a mentor to siblings of autistic children through a variety of activities; friendships are formed and bonds created—the teens serve for a duration of a school year with many volunteers volunteering for three-four consecutive years. Applications are now being accepted for the 2024 – 2025 school year.

This year the Huddle has created a challenge among their peers to raise at least $10,000 to help the families Hope For Three serves. Sugar Land Baptist Church is matching donations up to $5,000 and OCuSOFT set the set the pace to a successful challenge with a generous donation of $1,000! Can you help us reach our goal?
