

Board Members Challenge Legality Of Appointed Seats

by Maria Girvin
 A comparatively quiet Kennedy Center Board meeting exploded toward the end, Monday night, when several board members began questioning the right of the board to fill two vacant appointed seats.
 Board Member Anne Considine walked out of the board meeting after Chairman James Cushman ignored her complaint that the board was acting illegally when he asked for nominations to fill the two seats which were vacated by the resignations of Representative Richard Voke (D- Chelsea/Charlestown) and Sheriff Dennis Kearney.

Considine explained that the appointed seats were established in the by-laws designating members of the original Board of Directors of the Kennedy Center as lifetime members of the Board (subscribers). Following the death or resignation of those subscribers, the seat should have been abolished, according to Considine who said she and other board members had met with a parliamentarian who interpreted the Kennedy Center's By-Laws. Considine also said that according to his interpretation, the only legal board members were Gerard Doherty and the 16 elected board members.
 The elected members include: Joseph Kent, Anne Considine, Bobby Wallace, Helen Lawler, Theresa Doherty, Pat Walsh, Phil Coleman, Matty O'Neil, Brian Hickey, James Cushman, Joseph Foley, Joseph Blaikie, Charles Johnson, Mike Donovan, John Walsh and Tom Jackson.

 Those appointed for 3 year terms are: Reverend Isaiah Sears, Moe Gillen, Jean Babcock, Joseph Owens, Susan Werman-Dole, Gus Charbonnier and Eileen McClellan.
 Gerard Doherty by virtue of being an original subscriber of the board of directors is a life-time member. Other life-time members who were subsequently appointed to the board are Frederic Maloof, Mary Noyes, Joseph Owens and Mary Sexton.
 "I'd like to see where in the by-laws it states that when someone appointed resigns, that seat is filled," said Considine.

Life Focus Center To Hold Open House

The Board of Directors of the Life Focus Center invites the Charlestown community to an Open House at its new program site, former Police Station 15, at 12 noon on Saturday, October 2nd.
 After six months of volunteer labor, the first phase of the building rehabilitation is complete. The retarded and handicapped children and adults of Charlestown finally have a permanent program site dedicated to their needs.

Jack Millerick, Life Focus Center Director, has expressed gratitude for the exceptional generosity of the many Charlestown volunteers who have participated in the labor of the past six months.
 With its large site, the Life Focus Center is expanding its program base and now can offer an increasingly larger variety of special services to the community. This expansion widens the service range of volunteers and leaves the Center in the position of offering more volunteer experiences. If you wish to provide special needs volunteer time, call the Center at 242-3423 for an appointment.

 tion so long as they respectively remain members and of such other persons as shall be hereafter elected members to the Board of Directors, and they shall include the sixteen duly elected members by the APAC." Cushman tried to argue that the board's conduct was authorized.

"A board is the election of 16 people," said Considine. "It doesn't say you can replace the subscribers (original members)."

"I spoke to a parliamentarian last night and I gave him these by-laws and he told me, legally, there are only 17 members of the board, according to these by-laws. The first one would be Gerard Doherty and the other 16 were the ones elected. That is in the 1973 by-laws. According to this parliamentarian who is legally registered with the American Institute of Parliamentarians and the National Association of Parliamentarians, we are holding these meetings illegally," said Considine, who also said that Cornelius Sullivan who was hired by Cushman to serve as parliamentarian for the last two Board meetings, was not a registered parliamentarian.

Board member Moe Gillen took the floor and then explained to the board how it came about that appointed seats were re-appointed after the resignation or death of a subscriber. According to him, the board agreed to keep filling these seats for a period of 20 years in order to maintain a large board.

"That's illegal," said Considine. "In order for the board to do that, you have to make mandatory changes in your by-laws. You (the board) didn't do that. No matter what the intent was, it is illegal. You've got to change the by-laws or you're hung. According to what the parliamentarian told me, if I wanted to take this board to court I'd win. But who wants to do that? I want to do it right. Nobody should have a lifetime membership."

Ignoring Considine's comments, Cushman continued with the nomination process in which board member Michael Donovan nominated Thomas Cunha, Past Grand Knight of Bunker Hill Council No. 62, K. of C. and a resident of Russell Street, with board member Joseph Owens seconding the motion. Owens then proceeded to nominate Francine Gannon, Secretary to U.S. Congressman Thomas P. O'Neill, and this motion was seconded by Donovan. Trying to raise a point of order, Bobby Wallace was repeatedly denied. Meanwhile Considine said she would have no involvement in the nominations as she thought them illegal and walked out of the meeting. During the hubbub of argument over the board's conduct in this matter, Owens made a motion to close the nominations and Donovan seconded it. Without due discussion and before order was restored, the nominations were closed, and Gannon and Cunha were elected the new board members.

Throughout the meeting, Owens rushed the board discussion several times, with motions. Owens made a motion to waive the minutes, which were not prepared after four months since the last meeting, and to waive the Treasurer's report, despite a cry from several board members.

It was Owens who made a motion to have the Executive Committee's report, which suggested how the board should select a candidate to replace Executive Director John Gardiner whose letter of resignation was accepted at this meeting, approved as a whole, rather than by item.

At one point in the meeting, three motions were on the floor, one by Owens to accept the Executive Committee's report as a whole, one by Brian Hickey to accept the Executive Committee's report, item by item and a motion by Joseph Kent to have at least nine board members on the screening committee to select the new director.

The situation was corrected at a later point with Hickey's motion, remaining, Owens motion withdrawn and Kent's motion ignored. Board member Jean Babcock, who was acting as recorder of the minutes said Kent had not made a motion but had only entered in the discussion. She was in error.

It was finally agreed that the board would select a new executive director, following the below criteria:

—The president will name the screening committee that will represent a broad range of the board's interests. (However, no committee was named at the board meeting and thus not approved by the board);

—Beginning September 29, or as soon as possible, the screening committee will meet every Wednesday night until a final selection is made;

—These meetings will be held in executive session;

—Final selection will be made by secret ballot and with all board members present to vote. There will be no proxy vote;

—All hand delivered resumes will be date and time stamped;

—The Screening committee will read and grade all resumes and that a total of not less than 12 will be interviewed by the committee with not less than four finalists selected, to be interviewed by the full board and in executive session.

As of Monday night the Center had received 155 resumes.

Other business included:

—Board member Bobby Wallace's questioning of the board's right to elect board officers in January when the by-laws state it should be done at the board's General Meeting held in May. The comments were directed to By-Law Committee Chairman Joseph Owens, to be investigated.

—The board was told nomination papers were ready for those residents who wish to run in the October 19 APAC Elections which means that those elected will serve on the Kennedy Center Board. Deadline for submission of nomination papers is Tuesday, October 12, at 5 p.m.

—The board agreed to donate $500 to the Elderly Thanksgiving Dinner which will predominantly be funded by the Charlestown Board of Trade.

—The board agreed to buy a table at the annual ABCD Awards Dinner at which Charlestown resident and Kennedy Center Board Member Helen Lawler will be honored. The tickets purchased for this dinner will be given to Lawler for distribution as she sees fit.

—Babcock informed members of a program, being sponsored by Shawmut Bank which will begin an October session. The program is designed to teach banking services and anyone interested or without a job can contact Leo Carey at the Kennedy Center.

Just Thinking Out Loud . . .

J.J. Smith

Probably nobody cares, but:

What will we do without Eddie King to kick around anymore?

Rep. Andy Card, failed GOP gubernatorial hopeful, discovered his role as arch-critic of the Legislature wasn't as productive vote-wise as he hoped.

Dukakis and King will never sell in a new production of "Kiss and Make Up."

The WITS transformer must have been relaying election night returns to King headquarters.

Mayor White wants ferry boats between East Boston and Atlantic Avenue. Will Kathy Kane serve as caterer? If autos are carried, will there be parking meters? (Quarters, of course.)

Whatever happened to Kitty Dukakis?

Would you know Rep. Leon Lombardi, the GOP lieutenant governor nominee, if you fell across him?

Mike Dukakis DOES have a new image. He didn't shop Filene's basement's Brooks Brothers sale just before the primary.

Now that Mike's got the nomination will Kevin's support remain an issue?

A poll shows that half the people supporting Ray Shamie for U.S. Senator don't even know, or like, him. Somehow, that's not surprising.

Stanley J. Barczak will be the Bill Massiello of 1983.

Channel 5's news operation and personnel have a class that Channel 7's mega-bucks so far have failed to match.

People who vote for candidates on "one issue" considerations get what they asked for.

Congrats to Gerry Morris, King's top press honcho, for a masterful job in his "Letters to the Editor" in behalf of the campaign. Thumbs down to neophyte King press aide Roy Lyon's who doesn't realize he should keep personalities out of his job. He might have another candidate some day.

Sam Rotondi, Lou Nickinello and Lois Pines deserved better fates.

Somehow or another, I can't picture Peggy Heckler and Barney Frank double-dating.

Gov. King has a better barber than Mike Dukakis. Dukakis has a better tailor than John Sears.

Will Revenue Commissioner L. Joyce Hampers now sink into the anonymity from which she sprang?

Peter Mehegan, Don Gillis, Clark Booth and Dick Flavin have class.

Jodie King radiated all that is best about a First Lady.

Jack Davoren is alive and well at the Mass. State Building and Construction Trades Council (AFL-CIO).

Would Governor Mike see to it that a third harbor

Supervisors To Meet

A Unified Meeting of the Traffic Supervisors of Boston will be held on Monday, October 4, 1982, at 7:30 a.m. at the McKeon Post, Hilltop Street, Dorchester, Ma. Invitations have also been extended to Police Commissioner Jordan and the Boston City Councillors as well as Mayor White.

tunnel pops up near Governor Ed's Winthrop home? For convenience, of course.

It doesn't pay to be too successful at your job. Ask Chet Broderick, ousted chairman of the Boston Police Patrolmen's Assn.

Mike Barnicle makes the rest of us columnists look like first year journalism students. Ditto for sports columnist Leigh Montville.

Where does Tom O'Neill go from here?

James Carlin as Masport executive director? Somebody must have something against that now-booming agency.

If elected, please Mike, ride a limo to work.

Who would have thought that Mike Dukakis would spend all that campaign money? On an election primary, yet!

John Kerry's campaign ads had me thinking he was running for U.S. Ambassador.

Frank Bellotti should have been an actor. He's almost convinced me he's worried about his GOP opposition.

Independent candidate Frank Rich showed he's got Chtzpah when he muscled into Mike and Ed's TV makeup extravaganza.

(J.J. Smith's comments appear in 62 Massachusetts newspapers)

Holy Name To Meet

Lt. Col. Joseph Amadore, USAR, Engineering Inspector for the M.B.T.A., will be the speaker at the Holy Name Meeting to be held on Sunday, October 10, 1982 in Bishop Lawton Hall, St. Francis de Sales Church, 305 Bunker Hill Street following the 8:30 a.m. Mass.

TETRACYCLINE STAINED TEETH

Tetracyclines - a group of infection-fighting antibiotics - can produce staining of children's teeth if they are given during the time when the primary teeth are forming. According to the National Institute of Health, if tetracycline is given to a woman during her last trimester of pregnancy, or to an infant during the first three months of life, discoloration of the dentin of baby's teeth could occur. The resulting stains are then visible as soon as the baby teeth erupt. The sensitive period of tetracycline-induced staining of the permanent teeth occurs between the ages of 3 months and 8 years. These stains may not become visible for several years.

Although the stains are permanent, the enamel of the teeth is seldom weakened, and, therefore, the teeth function well. It is not a health hazard and if properly cared for, teeth - stained or not - can last a lifetime.

There are some cosmetic treatments for tetracycline-stained teeth, however, the best treatment is prevention. Parents should discuss with their doctors the use of alternative drugs during late pregnancy or early childhood.

"He Lent A Helping Hand To All"

"Townie" Vets Mourn The Death Of H. Vincent "Vinnie" Strout

by Jimmy Harrington

"He lent a helping hand to all."

Though he fought back the tears of sorrow running down his cheeks, Thomas F. "Skeets" Gallagher in seven words summed up the passing of H. Vincent "Vinnie" Strout in a sentence which will be long remembered by scores of American Legion members of Post 26 and the hundreds of people all over Boston that "Vinnie" helped throughout his life.

"Skeets", a "Townie" resident of 7 Prescott Street, was one "Vinnie's" closest pals and called me at my Salem, New Hampshire home to tell me "Vinnie" died unexpectedly in Marblehead.

My personal friendship with "Vinnie" Strout goes back over four decades and through my Navy Department service I knew of his good deeds, never publicized, that he performed sometimes daily, often weekly and even into the early morning hours. He befriended the homeless, the lonely, the blind & disabled and especially veterans lying alone in hospitals beds — men and women who served this Nation in all wars — and "Vinnie", often accompanied by "Skeets" Gallagher, made it a ritual to visit all of them.

When "Vinnie" was Civilian Administrator of the Chelsea Naval Hospital, I often got a call from him stating there was need of a television set in the patient's "Recreation Room" or a tape recorder was essential so that wounded men and women, unable to write a letter, could send a message tape to their relatives.

The Lord was good to me and I had friends in right places who immediately came to bat and provided the television set or tape recorder. The hospitalized veterans never knew that "Vinnie" Strout was the moving factor in obtaining the much-needed equipment. And I often stifled a laugh when I saw photographers taking photos of Navy captains and admirals presenting the television sets or tape recorders in the wards.

"Let the brass take the credit," Vinnie often told me, "they need the publicity more than you and I."

But "Vinnie" was not to stay too long at Chelsea Naval Hospital. The First Naval District Industrial Relations Office at the "Fargo Building" on Summer Street needed him urgently because of his administrative experience.

And his talents were in greater demand for eventually he became the director of regional office of the Navy's Civilian Manpower Management Office, a position he retired from three years ago following over 30 years of service. "Vinnie" and I worked closely together when I was the Civilian Public Information Officer for the First Naval District.

Though I'm nearing my 70th birthday I'll always remember one good deed he did for a "Townie", a retired Navy Chief Petty Officer, who died at the Chelsea Naval Hospital. The Chief, a bachelor, died broke and he had one brother, the father of five children who could not afford to bury the Chief.

"Vinnie" called the Veterans Administration, made a later call to the State Veterans Services office and to the Veterans Services Dept. in the City of Boston. To make a long story short, "Vinnie" was able to come up with $750.00. T'was then another "Townie", John "Huck" Sawyer, came to the rescue with his funeral parlor.

Senator Doris Meets With Speaker O'Neill On Local Issues

STATE SENATOR FRANCIS D. DORIS (D-Revere), Chairman of the Legislative Committee on Federal Financial Assistance, was in Washington recently. Senator Doris conferred with U.S. House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr. on two items of great importance to the Charlestown Community—the pending UDAG application for the modernization of the Schrafft's Candy Company facility, and the Central Artery North Area project. The UDAG award is central to Schrafft's ability to maintain its operation in Charlestown, and would preserve the existing 600 jobs, and create 200 new permanent positions. Senator Doris also stressed the importance of the inclusion of the proposed City Square tunnels in final design plans of the I-93 Central Artery North Area highway project. The Speaker has been working to his end, and with Senator Doris, will continue to do so.

"We'll give the Chief a good sendoff," John told Vinnie, "I'll make up the difference."

The Mass was held at Saint Francis de Sales Church and the deceased Navy Chief had a funeral detail of retired Navy Chief Petty Officers. How in the world Vinnie located 10 retired Chiefs is still a mystery to me — yet he did it. We both went to the Veterans Cemetery in West Roxbury with "Skeets" Gallagher.

Riding back to Charlestown, I was curious and started to question "Vinnie."

"Jim, never mind the details" he answered, "the Chief served this country for 20 years and fought in two wars. He died broke and that's no dishonor. For all we know he might have been recommended for the Medal of Honor. I'm just going to sleep a little better tonight for I helped a comrade. Though he's gone to his Eternal Reward and lies in the Veterans Cemetery in West Roxbury his heart will always remain in Charlestown for he's a 'Townie'."

"Vinnie" will be sorely missed by comrades of Bunker Hill Post 26 of the American Legion, members of the Charlestown Historical Society, the Bunker Hill Monument Association, the Genealogical Society, and the Sons of the Union Veterans of Massachusetts. But most of all, there are hundreds throughout Boston who will remember H.

Vincent "Vinnie" Strout, a man "who lent a helping hand to all."

I know two people who are crying tonight because "Vinnie" went to another Legion Post in Heaven. No doubt there's a corner Up Above where he'll be telling stories to Topy Lowney, Vinty Foley, the former Congressman Tom Flaherty and a horde of "Townies" who paid the Supreme Sacrifice in the Battle of Bunker Hill, the War of 1812, the Spanish-American War, the Mexican Rebellion, Chateau Thierry and Meuse Argonne of World War One, the Asiatic-Pacific and European campaigns of World War Two, the Bunker Hill of Korea and the jungles of Vietnam.

And the two people who are crying tonight will pray for H. Vincent "Vinnie" Strout. They're former Legion State Commander James W. "Jim" Conway and his wife, Gloria, publisher of the Patriot. And no doubt "Skeets" Gallagher has muffled more than one sob.

Jim, Gloria and Skeets, cry all you want. You're not alone in tears. Three sons, seven daughters and the wife of "Vinnie" have lost a loving husband and a devoted father.

It's not raining inside my Salem, New Hampshire home tonight for there's a wet blob running down my cheek. I guess I'm crying too.

I'll go to bed tonight with one thought in mind. Though H. Vincent "Vinnie" Strout is laid to rest in Marblehead's Waterside Cemetery, his heart remains in Charlestown. He was a "Townie" who lent a helping hand to all.

Columbus Rolls Past St. Pat's

by Bob DeCristoforo

If you thought last week's story was a lot of bull, YOU WERE WRONG. We said this Friar football game was going to win some football games this season, and on Sunday the wins began, as Christopher Columbus of Boston convincingly defeated St. Patrick's of Watertown 28-0 in Columbus' Catholic Suburban League opener.

The difference was a Columbus offense that got moving and a Columbus defense that just got better. Assistant Coach Don Stevens' "inspirational" pregame speech also helped (when Stevens talks, teams not only listen, they act).

A moving Columbus offense, to say the least! Captain QB Michael Yandle of Charlestown was spectacular both offensively and defensively. A definite "star of the week", Yandle threw passes of 22 yards, 43 yards, and 12 yards, and he was just as successful on the ground, several times going himself for a long yardage. Defensively Yandle intercepted two St. Patrick passes.

If Yandle would be Charlestown's game hero, Dorchester would have some much tougher choices to make, because the "Dot" Columbus men did their thing in this one.

A jubilant Paul Gillis

was Dorchester's first hero, scoring the opening winning TD on the 22 yard pass in the second quarter. His Dorchester neighbor was responsible for the next two Columbus touchdowns. Paul Papay took the 43 yard Yandle bomb beautifully into the end zone with Ronny Riccioli of East Boston rushing for the extra two giving the Friars a 14-0 first half lead. Riccioli had a fine day picking up much yardage.

After a scoreless third quarter Papay put the Friars back on the board making another fine catch out of Yandle's 12 yard pass. Dorchester's Jimmy O'Brien rushed for the extra two of this game clincher.

The Friars and the Dorchester contingent were not through yet. Paul's brother David Gillis was now quarterbacking and he went right to work, handing off to Dorchester's Brian O'Donnell, who went in from the eight on a nice run to close the scoring.

Amongst all this offense was Columbus' hard noses defense, digging in and ripping solidly, causing many things to happen like Yandle's two interceptions and fumble recoveries by Brian O'Donnell and Kevin Lynch of South Boston.

The final 28-0 was very indicative of the way the Friars played. Watch out CYO you might get a few more letters about the "Big, Bad, Columbus team."

Notes from the FRIAR-ing Pan: The last time

Coach Donny Stevens gave a fiery pregame speech Columbus captured the Catholic Suburban League crown. A GOOSE EGG is a Columbus defensive shut out. The "Squirrel" is Brian O'Donnell. Co-Athletic Director Brother Joe LaGressa OFM set a record returning from a wedding in Connecticut just in time for the team prayer before the Sunday win.

Freshman Michael Nee of South Boston did a superb job starting his first varsity game at the center spot. Mike is the brother of Columbus speedster Billy Nee, who'll be back in action in another week.

'81 Captain Angelo LaPaglia's Bridgewater State team won their opener defeating Framingham State, and you don't need to be reminded of what '80 Jimmy Costigan's BC Eagles are doing.

The Columbus Under Classmen schedule begins this Friday when the Friars host Dom Savio in a 3:15 p.m. game at the Charles.

In the stands were Bobby Fullam of the '80 Champion Football Friars, Jimmy Clark of the '81 squad, who is now attending Northeastern University and Columbus Head Basketball Coach Dan McGoff is anxiously awaiting the start of his third Columbus season.

This Sunday Christopher Columbus will be hosting Hudson Catholic in a 1:30 p.m. game at Hormel Stadium in Medford.

Check your wallet. There may be a fortune in it.

Over $447,000 in winning Wonderland tickets have yet to be cashed this year—including many worth hundreds or even thousands of dollars each!

And that's a shame...because you can't spend a ticket at the supermarket. (Usually, however, stores will honor cash.)

Remember, winning tickets as much as a year old are still cashable, as well as any for this year. You can redeem them here any night prior to the fifth race.

So check your wallet, your jacket pockets, the stuff buried in the back of the desk drawer...and you could just find yourself a fortune.

And if you don't...well, there's always tonight.

Play the Favorite. 12 races nightly, Monday through Saturday, post time 8 p.m. Glass-enclosed grandstand, climate controlled for your all-weather comfort. For dining room reservations or reserved Clubhouse box seats, call 284-1300. (Dinner is served from 6 p.m. on, and your table—with a great view of the action—is yours for the night.) Free or reserved parking, or take the Blue Line direct to Wonderland, Revere.

McNelley Gives Boost To Stock At Wonderland

Four years ago, an avid greyhound racing fan, Bill McNelley, called Wonderland Park to inquire about the possibility of purchasing some racing greyhounds. Wonderland's assistant general manager Paul Hennessey referred him to Paul Discolo, a veteran kennel operator who has become sort of a greyhound guru.

Paul is a promotionally minded owner who's the first person to help a serious fan interested in how the other half of the business lives. McNelley, a very successful electrical contractor from Charlestown, now living in Wakefield, purchased a few dogs from Discolo and is about to become Wonderland's newest full booking.

He has 22 dogs housed at Discolo's kennel and another 54 on farms in Kansas and Texas. "You have to go first-class," Bill says. "I'll continue to breed my dogs—everything Robert Redding has on his farm in Waco, Texas, is mine—that's about 40-50 a year. I'll continue to search out top greyhounds to purchase."

Bill is currently negotiating to purchase three Grade A greyhounds racing in Arizona from Joe Staggs for $10,000 each, one at each distance - 5/16ths, 3/8ths, and 7/16ths. "If their lines are good enough and Paul advises me to buy 'em," Bill explains, "I'll buy them. If the marathoner is as good as they tell me, I'll accept the challenge D.Q. Williams has made against his Ijusplanowinner for a $20,000 match race. The sprinter is supposed to be good enough to compete in the $100,000 Grady Sprint Championship next month.

"Winning at Wonderland is my fantasy," said McNelley.

Pop Warner Corner

In the second week of Pop Warner Football, the "D" Team lost 14 - 0 in a game played in Belmont. The Board would like to thank all the parents of the players and the cheerleaders on the D Team for getting them to the game.

The C Team lost to Everett 12 - 0. The defense played well and the offense showed some improvement.

Charlestown won the B Team game 32 - 0. The first touchdown was scored on a pass from Eddie Sullivan to Jim Donovan. The second touchdown came on a long run by Jimmy Donovan. The third touchdown was scored on a pass from Eddie Sullivan to Scott Sheehan. The fourth touchdown was scored on a bootleg by Eddie Sullivan and the final touchdown was on an interception by Pat Hogan.

This is the second straight shutout by the B Team defense.

In the A Team game, Charlestown lost 26 - 0. This team can do a lot better if they start showing up at practice instead of hanging around the corners or playing video games somewhere. Lets get with it. A Team, and show some pride in your team and in your town!

Massport Aids Pop Warner Football

Massport Executive Director David W. Davis recently announced that the Authority has donated $100 to help assist the Charlestown Pop Warner Football League.

Davis said that Massport was "pleased" to assist the Charlestown Pop Warner Football league and congratulated them on the "outstanding" job they've done over the years in providing much needed recreational activities for the youth of Charlestown.

Assisting groups like the Charlestown Pop Warner Football League is just one example of Davis' commitment to work with Charlestown residents for the betterment of their community.

Ninth Annual World Halfball Championship

The Ninth Annual World Halfball Championship was held the last couple of weekends at the old Charlestown High School. Teams from Charlestown and several sections of the city were represented, with one team coming from Philadelphia, PA. The Phillie team, although eliminated early the first weekend, gave a good account of themselves, while adapting to a different style of play than they are used to in Philadelphia. They pitch underhanded at home.

The second weekend, as usual, produced some excellent games. There were great plays on both sides of the street in both hitting and fielding. The final game for the Championship was a repeat match between the 1981 finalists. The team of Jackie Sullivan, Leo Sullivan, Paul Chambers, Paul Cotter, Paul Doris and Willie O'Connor defeated an excellent team made up of Mike Sullivan, Slip Mahoney, Dennis Mahoney, Billy Duffy, Robert Morrison and Steve MacDonald for the second year in a row.

At this time, not knowing for sure the status of the old Charlestown High School for 1983, it is hoped that the tenth halfball tournament can be held at this same site. If for some reason it cannot, an alternative site will be found, and all players will be notified through the Charlestown Patriot.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many people without whom I could not have run this tournament. My grounds crew of Greg Nolan, Sean Reilly, Billy McKillop and Jimmy Cameron were a great asset. Thanks to Wayne Black for his many hours in a thankless job—umpiring. To my good friend Bob O'Neil, whose help and support made the job that much easier, a special thanks. Have a good winter and I hope to see you all in 1983.

Little League Meeting

There will be a Little League meeting on Wednesday, October 6, 1982 at 8:00 p.m. at Memorial Hall, 14 Green Street (across from the Boys Club).

It is important that a managers, coaches and officers attend. We will appreciate any suggestions regarding fund raising. We have a balance on our sporting goods bill because we over-bought. These supplies will be used for the coming year — nothing will be wasted, but the balance still remains. Hopefully we can clear it up before the new season begins.

Any newcomers interested in Little League will be most welcome.

New Schedule At Kent/Charlestown Community School

Effective Monday, October 4th, the Kent/Charlestown Community Schools will begin a new schedule that will include use of both the Kent and Charlestown High Athletic facilities and offer Ceramic, Aerobic, and Women's Exercise Classes in addition to a swim and athletic program for most ages. "We will not attempt anything fancy over the next several weeks," stated Michael Griffin, Program Coordinator. "It is our intention to see if we can bring more people into the two buildings while at the same time we build upon our successes of the summer."

The Athletic Program will evolve around extensive use of the swimming pool, gymnasium and weightroom at the athletic facility at the Charlestown High Community School. Swim teams for 6 to 12 and 13 to 18 years olds, a Supper Club and Free Recreational Swim will be scheduled. Swim lessons will be arranged for the afternoons.

The gym will be organized so that there is time for both free recreational use and gym hockey and basketball games. Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. will be set aside for free use of the gym. Tuesday nights will be reserved for three hours of gym hockey games. Wednesday nights will be reserved for three hours of basketball games. Teams will be able to sign up on a first come first served basis for an hour of floor time. A team representative must schedule the hour in person at the gym office. Any group of residents calling themselves a team capable of putting together a game can reserve time. This includes men and women and teenagers 14 years of age and older.

The weightroom will be open daily during Supper Club and Adult Swim periods. To defray the cost of rehabilitating and maintaining weightroom equipment there will be a charge of $1.00 per visit. The weightroom will be open for teenagers 13 to 17 every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

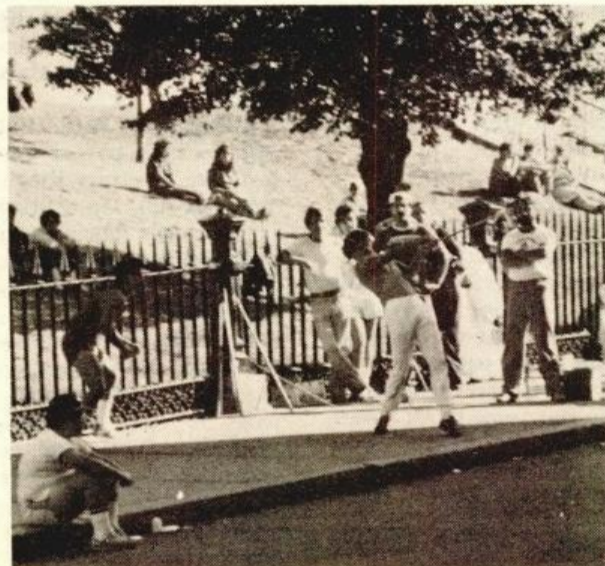

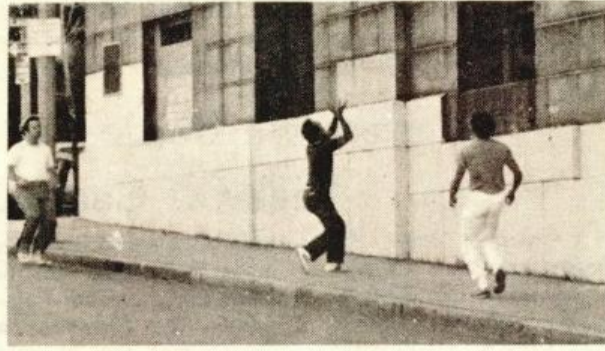

Two gymnastics classes for 6 to 12 year olds are scheduled for Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 3:30 - 4:30 p.m. Bob McGann of the Community School Staff will instruct. There will be a $10. fee for 12 weeks.

A Women's Exercise Class will meet each Wednesday evening from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. This class will be conducted by Bob McGann and there will be a $10. charge for 12 weeks.

Charlestown Resident To Receive Special Award

Sixteen outstanding volunteers will be honored by Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) at its eighth annual Community Awards Dinner on October 21.

This year's dinner will be an extra-special celebration because it is capping ABCD's 20th anniversary as Boston's anti-poverty agency.

ABCD's award recipients are men and women who have worked hard at neighborhood offices, including Area Planning Action Councils (APACs), and affiliated agencies. Thanks to their efforts, community programs such as Head Start, youth employment, health-care advocacy, and fuel assistance have been built and maintained.

Helen Lawler of Charlestown was selected as a community award recipient by the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center, where she is on the Board of Directors. Since 1973, she has worked as a neighborhood senior service worker for the Mayor's Commission on Affairs for the Elderly. She helps the elderly obtain emergency services, and organizes social activities, bus trips and weekend outings for them.

During Jubilee 350 in 1980, she was selected as one of Charlestown's Grand Bostonians. In 1979 she worked two weeks in the office of Speaker of the House Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill in Washington D.C. as a senior intern at the annual Congress on Aging.

She is a member of the Mayor's Advisory Council for the Elderly; Housing Task Force for the Elderly and Handicapped; Transportation Task Force; Emergency Transportation Task Force; and the Mayor's Charlestown Cable T.V. Task Force.

She has four children and 11 grandchildren, all living in Charlestown.

The Community Awards Dinner will take place at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel, beginning at 7:30 p.m. The evening includes dancing in the Sheraton's Grand Ballroom, guest speakers and other entertainment. Tickets are available at the Kennedy Center, 27 Winthrop Street and at ABCD, 178 Tremont Street, Boston, telephone 357-6000, ext. 275. Proceeds from the dinner will be used for ABCD special programs.

Charlestown Bottle Bill Supporters Kick-Off Campaign

A group of Bottle Bill supporters from all over Charlestown met Tuesday evening at the home of David Donovan to form the "Charlestown Save the Bottle Bill Committee" to support the recently enacted Bottle Law which is being voted on in a November 2 binding referendum.

Steve Spinetto, a spokesperson from the group, declared: "This law virtually eliminates container litter; it cuts waste of precious resources; when it's given a chance to work, the public loves it; and it is working effectively right now in six states. In short, there's every reason to vote Yes on Question 4 on November 2nd."

The Charlestown Committee is planning a neighborhood clean-up, called a Clean-a-thon, to dramatize the need for a more permanent solution to the area's litter problem — the Bottle Bill — and to raise funds for the Campaign. The Charlestown Clean-a-thon will be held on Saturday, October 9, in designated locations throughout Charlestown including sections of Main Street.

Although the Bottle Bill was recently passed into law over Governor King's veto last fall, the bottling industry has launched a heavily-financed campaign to repeal the measure in November.

The Charlestown Save the Bottle Bill Committee is associated with the Campaign to Save the Massachusetts Bottle Bill, a coalition of organizations that include the Massachusetts Public Interest Research Group (MAsPIRG), the League of Women Voters, the Mass. Audubon Society, Defenders of Wildlife, the

Massport Assists Gardening Program

Massport Executive Director David W. Davis recently announced that the Authority has for the second time this year donated $100 to Mrs. Bee's Garden in Charlestown.

Davis said that the "gardening program in the Bunker Hill Housing Project is a proven community endeavor that services both youth and adults." He also commended Mrs. Bee for the "great job" she does each year in coordinating the gardening program for Charlestown residents.

Recently, Mrs. Bee has received requests from both the South Boston and East Boston Housing Projects to help them start similar programs in their communities.

Children's Films

The Fall Films for School-Age Children Program at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street, will take place on Tuesday, October 5, 1982 at 3:30 p.m. Featured film is "Flash Gordon Conquers The Universe." All are welcome to attend.

On Vietnam Veterans Memorial

Dear Gloria,

We received this letter (see below) from the President of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund regarding some confusion that has arisen over the dedication of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial during the National Salute to Vietnam Veterans in Washington, D.C. from November 10-14, 1982. This cause is of extreme importance to our organization as well as to the relatives and friends of all the Charlestown veterans killed in action in Vietnam.

Thank you,
 Ronan Fitzpatrick

Ronan J. Fitzpatrick

The Michael P. Quinn Scholarship Fund

Dear Ronan:

Thank you for writing me again. There has been quite a bit of misunderstanding regarding the dedication and it is a difficult situation to explain.

We were allowed to break ground and begin construction by Interior Secretary James Watt, but we had to agree not to dedicate the memorial until the statue and flag were in place. The statue will not be completed for at least a year. The memorial, however, will be there for all to see and the names of those who died in Vietnam will be upon it.

The National Salute to Vietnam Veterans will continue to move forward and we will probably have 250,000 Vietnam veterans in town for the four days of activities.

Please continue with your plans to be in town for November 13, 1982. There is the possibility of a dedication at that date, but I am making no commitments at this time. I look forward to meeting you then and thanking you for all of the help that you have given to our cause.

My highest regard.

Sincerely,
 Jan C. Scruggs

Townie Tidbits

by Sal Giarratani DUMP THE DUKE!

The primary is history and the Duke of Brookline is back in Town with an encore presentation of four years ago. Democrats dissatisfied with Michael Dukakis have two alternatives this November with Republican John Winthrop Sears and Independent Frank Rich.

Sears is attempting to shed his liberal image and is more conservative than the Duke and Rich is a conservative Democrat running as an Independent, after having broke with King over philosophical principles of governing.

Conservative Democrats and Republicans are dividing on Sears and Rich as both candidates seek their votes. Dukakis hasn't gotten his re-election wrapped up yet and his arrogance is still sickening.

As Republican Ward Chairman in Charlestown, I have officially endorsed John Winthrop Sears. This is my personal endorsement and not that of the committee. I do so because I think a party nominee has a better chance of winning. However, about ten years ago in Maine, an Independent James B. Longley upset both party nominees and won the Governor's race. So, a Rich victory is possible in Massachusetts.

Either way, after eight years of Dukakis and King, it's time for real change, not a repeat performance. Sears and Rich are the alternatives!

KERRY NUMBER 2?

John Kerry won the Lieutenant Governor's race narrowly defeating Evelyn Murphy and won the right to join the Dukakis team which gives voters the candidate who promised to make the of-ice "the second most powerful one in the state."

Heard Kerry's next feat will be running for Vice President!

SPEECH WRITER WANTED

President Reagan responded to criticism of his Civil Rights record by saying, "NO MATTER HOW YOU SLICE IT, ITS STILL BALONEY!" There certainly is a lot of baloney coming out of the White House and things probably won't change until the President recognizes the baloney.

(R) NO NOMINATIONS

No Nominations seems to be the most popular Republican name running for office in November. Two political parties are needed badly in this state and the Massachusetts Republican Party still is not a force to be reckoned with. Giving up and letting people walk into office is politically dumb.

Thank God that Republican Frank McNamara won the GOP nomination in our congressional district. "Tip" O'Neill may have won big in September but come November, he may be singing a different tune. McNamara is the most serious threat to O'Neill since Ed Galotti in 1976.

Finally, Republicans have a motley crew for statewide offices and will once again prove true the old axiom that you can't beat somebody with nobody or in this case nobodies. Democratic candidates will roll over the opposition by default. Once you pass the Sears/Lombardi Team you are in River City...Ray Shamie may be a good guy but Ted will win on his name again. God help us if Kennedy goes national in '84.

Charlestown Police Line

From the desk of Deputy Superintendent Joseph V. Saia Jr. Commanding Officer District A Charlestown, East Boston, Downtown

After reading two "Letters to the Editor" in the 9-23-82 issue of the Patriot, I decided that they must be answered. The first one, from a concerned "Townie" who stated he witnessed car thefts, vandalisms, homes and cars broken into, and public drinking.

I wish he or she called the police when these acts were being committed. The police need the eyes and ears of the community. I certainly didn't claim that all the ills of society have been eliminated in Charlestown, but I do believe that substantial progress has been made and those responsible were apprehended as I stated. As for car thefts in Charlestown, Officers Donahue and Gleason apprehended a Charlestown individual who claims to have stolen 250 cars a year. So progress is being made there.

The gang squads (5 or 6 police motorcycles) spent enormous amounts of time this summer in Charlestown, specifically addressing Public Drinking, and gangs of youths.

Car breaks are in fact way down in Charlestown especially in the Monument area where the police have made a concentrated effort. Keep in mind that I am not stating that all these criminal acts have been eliminated, but that genuine effort is being put forward in Charlestown to do so. I respectfully request that the "concerned Townie" who wrote the Letter to the Editor contact me at District A and I will comment to him all that has been done and what is being done. Strict confidentiality will be maintained, no names will be given out. I want to meet the author of this letter and try to show him what has been accomplished in Charlestown.

Secondly, the author of "Where is Police Visibility", 20/20 Vision, should contact me also. Again, confidentiality will be maintained. Let us take a ride through Charlestown together and see what visibility is present. Do not give me prior warning. Just show up. If I can't take you out, I will assign a sergeant to do so. I will also document to you the coverage Charlestown has on any day you select. Please contact me, criticism is fine, but give me a chance to defend it.

As far as community meetings go, I changed them to the Charlestown Council because a number of residents requested this change. I can go back to the old format of a separate meeting, apart from the Charlestown Council if so decided.

In next week's edition, the date and location of the first community meeting since the summer will be published. Please attend and make your presence known. As far as a format for the meetings, whatever the community wants, I will do.

The following are incidents in the past week in Charlestown:

UNARMED ROBBERY

A female resident of Charlestown stated that on 9-17, she was walking down Lowney Way when she was approached by a white male who threw her down and grabbed her hand bag and ran up Tremont Street. Police apprehended the suspect a short time later, and he was arrested on charges of Unarmed Robbery.

ATTEMPTED LARCENY FROM A M/V

Two juveniles from Charlestown were arrested for attempting to break into a motor vehicle at Bunker Hill Community College. Found on the youths were burglary tools.

MOPED ACCIDENT

A youth from Charlestown stated that on 9-18 while riding his moped on Cambridge Street, he lost control of it and fell to the street causing lacerations to the right part of his head and pains in his chest. He was taken by ambulance to Mass. General to be treated.

M/V ACCIDENT

An operator of an International Truck stated that while he was driving his rig he came in contact with another motor vehicle which was being operated by a resident of Charlestown, at the intersections of Rutherford Avenue and Cambridge Street. The impact caused the second vehicle to hit a construction sign at the intersection causing it to fall into the construction hole hitting a worker. The victim was not seriously injured, and both vehicles were still operable.

RECOVERED MOTOR VEHICLES

Motor vehicles were recovered at the following locations in Charlestown this past week: 532 Medford Street; 66 Medford Street; 375 Main Street; 32 Old Ironsides Way and West School Street.

Coalition To Sponsor Meeting For Small Business Tax Relief

Councillor Raymond L. Flynn, Boston Fair Share, and the National Federation of Independent Business will co-sponsor an informational and strategy session to insure passage of legislation to protect small businesses from the potentially devastating increases in property taxes due to 100 percent revaluation. The meeting will be held Tuesday evening, October 5 from 7:00-9:00 p.m. at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston in Room AV-1 on the 4th floor.

In a letter to small businessmen in Boston, Councillor Raymond Flynn outlined the unique problem which the small business community will face in revaluation and classification. "As the law is presently written, small businesses are classified together with large downtown businesses for tax purposes. This means that a neighborhood 'mom and pop' store is taxed at the same rate as a multi-million dollar downtown business. Many small businesses will not be able to afford to remain in operation if forced to pay the vastly increased taxes which will result."

The National Federation of Independent Business, Massachusetts Fair Share, and the House and Senate chairmen of the Taxation

Committee have co-sponsored legislation in the State House which would allow local cities and towns to adopt a "small business exemption" similar to that already in existence for small homeowners. Passage of the legislation will mean thousands of dollars of tax relief to small business.

At the October 5 meeting, the coalition will explain to small businessmen how they will fare under revaluation and classification, and begin to organize support in the legislature for the small business exemption.

Councillor Flynn stated that the future strength of Boston's neighborhoods depends on the City Council's adoption of the lowest residential tax rate allowed under the classification law, and the passage of the small business exemption.

All small businessmen in Boston are encouraged to attend the meeting and join the effort to support this legislation.

received by the college from the State Division of Occupational Education.

The GOT program is aimed particularly at adults who wish to develop marketable skills in order to enter the job market.

It is a one year, two semester clerical skill and simulated office training program involving college credit work.
