

Benjamin Freedman Speaks:

A Jewish Defector Warns America by Benjamin H. Freedman

<http://www.jewwatch.com/jew-leaders-freedman.html>

Introductory Note: Benjamin H. Freedman was one of the most intriguing and amazing individuals of the 20th century. Mr. Freedman, born in 1890, was a successful Jewish businessman of New York City who was at one time the principal owner of the Woodbury Soap Company. He broke with organized Jewry after the Judeo-Communist victory of 1945, and spent the remainder of his life and the great preponderance of his considerable fortune, at least 2.5 million dollars, exposing the Jewish tyranny which has enveloped the United States. Mr. Freedman knew what he was talking about because he had been an insider at the highest levels of Jewish organizations and Jewish machinations to gain power over our nation. Mr. Freedman was personally acquainted with Bernard Baruch, Samuel Untermyer, Woodrow Wilson, Franklin Roosevelt, Joseph Kennedy, and John F. Kennedy, and many more movers and shakers of our times. This speech was given before a patriotic audience in 1961 at the Willard Hotel in Washington, D.C., on behalf of Conde McGinley's patriotic newspaper of that time, Common Sense. Though in some minor ways this wide-ranging and extemporaneous speech has become dated, Mr. Freedman's essential message to us -- his warning to the West -- is more urgent than ever before. -- K.A.S.

Benjamin H. Freedman

BENJAMIN FREEDMAN....

Here in the United States, the Zionists and their co-religionists have complete control of our government. For many reasons, too many and too complex to go into here at this time, the Zionists and their co-religionists rule these United States as though they were the absolute monarchs of this country. Now you may say that is a very broad statement, but let me show you what happened while we were all asleep.

What happened? World War I broke out in the summer of 1914. There are few people here my age who remember that. Now that war was waged on one side by Great Britain, France, and Russia; and on the other side by Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey.

Within two years Germany had won that war: not only won it nominally, but won it actually. The German submarines, which were a surprise to the world, had swept all the convoys from the Atlantic Ocean. Great Britain stood there without ammunition for her soldiers, with one week's food supply -- and after that, starvation. At that time, the French army had mutinied. They had lost 600,000 of the flower of French youth in the defense of Verdun on the Somme. The Russian army was defecting, they were picking up their toys and going home, they didn't want to play war anymore, they didn't like the Czar. And the Italian army had collapsed.

Not a shot had been fired on German soil. Not one enemy soldier had crossed the border into Germany. And yet, Germany was offering England peace terms. They offered England a negotiated peace on what the lawyers call a status quo ante basis. That means: "Let's call the war off, and let everything be as it was before the war started." England, in the summer of 1916 was considering that -- seriously. They had no choice. It was either accepting this negotiated peace that Germany was magnanimously offering them, or going on with the war and being totally defeated.

While that was going on, the Zionists in Germany, who represented the Zionists from Eastern Europe, went to the British War Cabinet and -- I am going to be brief because it's a long story, but I have all the documents to prove any statement that I make -- they said: "Look here. You can yet win this war. You don't have to give up. You don't have to accept the negotiated peace offered to you now by Germany. You can win this war if the United States will come in as your ally." The United States was not in the war at that time. We were fresh; we were young; we were rich; we were powerful. They told England: "We will guarantee to bring the United States into the war as your ally, to fight with you on your side, if you will promise us Palestine after you win the war." In other words, they made this deal: "We will get the United States into this war as your ally. The price you must pay is Palestine after you have won the war and defeated Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey." Now England had as much right to promise Palestine to anybody, as the United States would have to promise Japan to Ireland for any reason whatsoever. It's absolutely absurd that Great Britain, that never had any connection or any interest or any right in what is known as Palestine should offer it as coin of the realm to pay the Zionists for bringing the United States into the war. However, they did make that promise, in October of 1916. And shortly after that -- I don't know how many here remember it - - the United States, which was almost totally pro-German, entered the war as Britain's ally.

I say that the United States was almost totally pro-German because the newspapers here were controlled by Jews, the bankers were Jews, all the media of mass communications in this country were controlled by Jews; and they, the Jews, were pro-German. They were pro-German because many of them had come from Germany, and also they wanted to see Germany lick the Czar. The Jews didn't like the Czar, and they didn't want Russia to win this war. These German-Jew bankers, like Kuhn Loeb and the other big banking firms in the United States refused to finance France or England to the extent of one dollar. They stood aside and they said: "As long as France and England are tied up with Russia, not one cent!" But they poured money into Germany, they fought beside Germany against Russia, trying to lick the Czarist regime.

Now those same Jews, when they saw the possibility of getting Palestine, went to England and they made this deal. At that time, everything changed, like a traffic light that changes from red to green. Where the newspapers had been all pro-German, where they'd been telling the people of the difficulties that Germany was having fighting Great Britain commercially and in other respects, all of a sudden the Germans were no good. They were villains. They were Huns. They were shooting Red Cross nurses. They were cutting off babies' hands. They were no good. Shortly after that, Mr. Wilson declared war on Germany.

The Zionists in London had sent cables to the United States, to Justice Brandeis, saying "Go to work on President Wilson. We're getting from England what we want. Now you go to work on President Wilson and get the United States into the war." That's how the United States got into the war. We had no more interest in it; we had no more right to be in it than we have to be on the moon tonight instead of in this room. There was absolutely no reason for World War I to be our war. We were railroaded into -- if I can be vulgar, we were suckered into -- that war merely so that the Zionists of the world could obtain Palestine. That is something that the people of the United States have never been told. They never knew why we went into World War I.

After we got into the war, the Zionists went to Great Britain and they said: "Well, we performed our part of the agreement. Let's have something in writing that shows that you are going to keep your bargain and give us Palestine after you win the war." They didn't know whether the war would last another year or another ten years. So they started to work out a receipt. The receipt took the form of a letter, which was worded in very cryptic language so that the world at large wouldn't know what it was all about. And that was called the Balfour Declaration.

The Balfour Declaration was merely Great Britain's promise to pay the Zionists what they had agreed upon as a consideration for getting the United States into the war. So this great Balfour Declaration, that you hear so much about, is just as phony as a three dollar bill. I don't think I could make it more emphatic than that.

That is where all the trouble started. The United States got in the war. The United States crushed Germany. You know what happened. When the war ended, and the Germans went to Paris for the Paris Peace Conference in 1919 there were 117 Jews there, as a delegation representing the Jews, headed by Bernard Baruch. I was there: I ought to know. Now what happened? The Jews at that peace conference, when they were cutting up Germany and parceling out Europe to all these nations who claimed a right to a certain part of European territory, said, "How about Palestine for us?" And they produced, for the first time to the knowledge of the Germans, this Balfour Declaration. So the Germans, for the first time realized, "Oh, so that was the game! That's why the United States came into the war." The Germans for the first time realized that they were defeated, they suffered the terrific reparations that were slapped onto them, because the Zionists wanted Palestine and were determined to get it at any cost.

That brings us to another very interesting point. When the Germans realized this, they naturally resented it. Up to that time, the Jews had never been better off in any country in the world than they had been in Germany. You had Mr. Rathenau there, who was maybe 100 times as important in industry and finance as is Bernard Baruch in this country. You had Mr. Balin, who owned the two big steamship lines, the North German Lloyd's and the Hamburg-American Lines. You had Mr. Bleichroder, who was the banker for the Hohenzollern family. You had the Warburgs in Hamburg, who were the big merchant bankers -- the biggest in the world. The Jews were doing very well in Germany. No question about that. The Germans felt: "Well, that was quite a sellout."

It was a sellout that might be compared to this hypothetical situation: Suppose the United States was at war with the Soviet Union. And we were winning. And we told the Soviet Union: "Well, let's quit. We offer you peace terms. Let's forget the whole thing." And all of a sudden Red China came into the war as an ally of the Soviet Union. And throwing them into the war brought about our defeat. A crushing defeat, with reparations the likes of which man's imagination cannot encompass. Imagine, then, after that defeat, if we found out that it was the Chinese in this country, our Chinese citizens, who all the time we had thought were loyal citizens working with us, were selling us out to the Soviet Union and that it was through them that Red China was brought into the war against us. How would we feel, then, in the United States against Chinese? I don't think that one of them would dare show his face on any street. There wouldn't be enough convenient lampposts to take care of them. Imagine how we would feel.

Well, that's how the Germans felt towards these Jews. They'd been so nice to them: from 1905 on, when the first Communist revolution in Russia failed, and the Jews had to scramble out of Russia, they all went to Germany. And Germany gave them refuge. And they were treated very nicely. And here they had sold Germany down the river for no reason at all other than the fact that they wanted Palestine as a so-called "Jewish commonwealth."

Now Nahum Sokolow, and all the great leaders and great names that you read about in connection with Zionism today, in 1919, 1920, 1921, 1922, and 1923 wrote in all their papers -- and the press was filled with their statements -- that the feeling against the Jews in Germany is due to the fact that they realized that this great defeat was brought about by Jewish intercession in bringing the United States into the war. The Jews themselves admitted that. It wasn't that the Germans in 1919 discovered that a glass of Jewish blood tasted better than Coca-Cola or Muenschner Beer. There was no religious feeling. There was no sentiment against those people merely on account of their religious belief. It was all political. It was economic. It was anything but religious. Nobody cared in Germany whether a Jew went home and pulled down the shades and said "Shema' Yisroel" or "Our Father." Nobody cared in Germany any more than they do in the United States. Now this feeling that developed later in Germany was due to one thing: the Germans held the Jews responsible for their crushing defeat.

And World War I had been started against Germany for no reason for which Germany was responsible. They were guilty of nothing. Only of being successful. They built up a big navy. They built up world trade. You must remember that Germany at the time of the French Revolution consisted of 300 small city-states, principalities, dukedoms, and so forth. Three hundred separate little political entities. And between that time, between the times of Napoleon and Bismarck, they were consolidated into one state. And within 50 years they became one of the world's great powers. Their navy was rivaling Great Britain's, they were doing business all over the world, they could undersell anybody, they could make better products. What happened as a result of that?

There was a conspiracy between England, France, and Russia to slap down Germany. There isn't one historian in the world who can find a valid reason why those three countries decided to wipe Germany off the map politically.

When Germany realized that the Jews were responsible for her defeat, they naturally resented it. But not a hair on the head of any Jew was harmed. Not a single hair. Professor Tansill, of Georgetown University, who had access to all the secret papers of the State Department, wrote in his book, and quoted from a State Department document written by Hugo Schoenfelt, a Jew whom Cordell Hull sent to Europe in 1933 to investigate the so-called camps of political prisoners, who wrote back that he found them in very fine condition. They were in excellent shape, with everybody treated well. And they were filled with Communists. Well, a lot of them were Jews, because the Jews happened to comprise about 98 per cent of the Communists in Europe at that time. And there were some priests there, and ministers, and labor leaders, and Masons, and others who had international affiliations.

Some background is in order: In 1918-1919 the Communists took over Bavaria for a few days. Rosa Luxemburg and Karl Liebknecht and a group of other Jews took over the government for three days. In fact, when the Kaiser ended the war he fled to Holland because he thought the Communists were going to take over Germany as they did Russia and that he was going to meet the same fate as the Czar. So he fled to Holland for safety, for security. After the Communist threat in Germany was quashed, the Jews were still working, trying to get back into their former status, and the Germans fought them in every way they could without hurting a single hair on anyone's head. They fought them the same way that, in this country, the Prohibitionists fought anyone who was interested in liquor. They didn't fight one another with pistols. Well, that's the way they were fighting the Jews in Germany. And at that time, mind you, there were 80 to 90 million Germans, and there were only 460,000 Jews. About one half of one per cent of the population of Germany were Jews. And yet they controlled all the press, and they controlled most of the economy because they had come in with cheap money when the mark was devalued and bought up practically everything.

The Jews tried to keep a lid on this fact. They didn't want the world to really understand that they had sold out Germany, and that the Germans resented that.

The Germans took appropriate action against the Jews. They, shall I say, discriminated against them wherever they could. They shunned them. The same way that we would shun the Chinese, or the Negroes, or the Catholics, or anyone in this country who had sold us out to an enemy and brought about our defeat.

After a while, the Jews of the world called a meeting in Amsterdam. Jews from every country in the world attended this meeting in July 1933. And they said to Germany: "You fire Hitler, and you put every Jew back into his former position, whether he was a Communist or no matter what he was. You can't treat us that way. And we, the Jews of the world, are serving an ultimatum upon you." You can imagine what the Germans told them. So what did the Jews do?

In 1933, when Germany refused to surrender to the world conference of Jews in Amsterdam, the conference broke up, and Mr. Samuel Untermyer, who was the head of the American delegation and the president of the whole conference, came to the United States and went from the steamer to the studios of the Columbia Broadcasting System and made a radio broadcast throughout the United States in which he in effect said, "The Jews of the world now declare a Holy War against Germany. We are now engaged in a sacred conflict against the Germans. And we are going to starve them into surrender. We are going to use a world-wide boycott against them. That will destroy them because they are dependent upon their export business." And it is a fact that two thirds of Germany's food supply had to be imported, and it could only be imported with the proceeds of what they exported. So if Germany could not export, two thirds of Germany's population would have to starve. There was just not enough food for more than one third of the population. Now in this declaration, which I have here, and which was printed in the New York Times on August 7, 1933, Mr. Samuel Untermyer boldly stated that "this economic boycott is our means of self-defense. President Roosevelt has advocated its use in the National Recovery Administration," which some of you may remember, where everybody was to be boycotted unless he followed the rules laid down by the New Deal, and which was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of that time. Nevertheless, the Jews of the world declared a boycott against Germany, and it was so effective that you couldn't find one thing in any store anywhere in the world with the words "made in Germany" on it. In fact, an executive of the Woolworth Company told me that they had to dump millions of dollars worth of crockery and dishes into the river; that their stores were boycotted if anyone came in and found a dish marked "made in Germany," they were picketed with signs saying "Hitler," "murderer," and so forth, something like these sit-ins that are taking place in the South. At a store belonging to the R. H. Macy chain, which was controlled by a family called Strauss who also happen to be Jews, a woman found stockings there which came from Chemnitz, marked "made in Germany." Well, they were cotton stockings and they may have been there 20 years, since I've been observing women's legs for many years and it's been a long time since I've seen any cotton stockings on them. I saw Macy's boycotted, with hundreds of people walking around with signs saying "murderers," "Hitlerites," and so forth. Now up to that time, not one hair on the head of any Jew had been hurt in Germany. There was no suffering, there was no starvation, there was no murder, there was nothing.

Naturally, the Germans said, "Who are these people to declare a boycott against us and throw all our people out of work, and make our industries come to a standstill? Who are they to do that to us?" They naturally resented it. Certainly they painted swastikas on stores owned by Jews. Why should a German go in and give his money to a storekeeper who was part of a boycott that was going to starve Germany into surrendering to the Jews of the world, who were going to dictate who their premier or chancellor was to be? Well, it was ridiculous.

The boycott continued for some time, but it wasn't until 1938, when a young Jew from Poland walked into the German embassy in Paris and shot a German official, that the Germans really started to get rough with the Jews in Germany. And you found them then breaking windows and having street fights and so forth.

Now I don't like to use the word "anti-Semitism" because it's meaningless, but it means something to you still, so I'll have to use it. The only reason that there was any feeling in Germany against Jews was that they were responsible for World War I and for this world-wide boycott. Ultimately they were also responsible for World War II, because after this thing got out of hand, it was absolutely necessary for the Jews and Germany to lock horns in a war to see which one was going to survive. In the meanwhile, I had lived in Germany, and I knew that the Germans had decided that Europe is going to be Christian or Communist: there is no in between. And the Germans decided they were going to keep it Christian if possible. And they started to re-arm. In November 1933 the United States recognized the Soviet Union. The Soviet Union was becoming very powerful, and Germany realized that "Our turn was going to come soon, unless we are strong." The same as we in this country are saying today, "Our turn is going to come soon, unless we are strong." Our government is spending 83 or 84 billion dollars for defense. Defense against whom? Defense against 40,000 little Jews in Moscow that took over Russia, and then, in their devious ways, took over control of many other countries of the world.

For this country now to be on the verge of a Third World War, from which we cannot emerge a victor, is something that staggers my imagination. I know that nuclear bombs are measured in terms of megatons. A megaton is a term used to describe one million tons of TNT. Our nuclear bombs had a capacity of 10 megatons, or 10 million tons of TNT, when they were first developed. Now, the nuclear bombs that are being developed have a capacity of 200 megatons, and God knows how many megatons the nuclear bombs of the Soviet Union have.

What do we face now? If we trigger a world war that may develop into a nuclear war, humanity is finished. Why might such a war take place? It will take place as the curtain goes up on Act 3: Act 1 was World War I, Act 2 was World War II, Act 3 is going to be World War III. The Jews of the world, the Zionists and their co-religionists everywhere, are determined that they are going to again use the United States to help them permanently retain Palestine as their foothold for their world government. That is just as true as I am standing here. Not alone have I read it, but many here have also read it, and it is known all over the world.

What are we going to do? The life you save may be your son's. Your boys may be on their way to that war tonight; and you don't know it any more than you knew that in 1916 in London the Zionists made a deal with the British War Cabinet to send your sons to war in Europe. Did you know it at that time? Not a person in the United States knew it. You weren't permitted to know it. Who knew it? President Wilson knew it. Colonel House knew it. Other insiders knew it.

Did I know it? I had a pretty good idea of what was going on: I was liaison to Henry Morgenthau, Sr., in the 1912 campaign when President Wilson was elected, and there was talk around the office there. I was "confidential man" to Henry Morgenthau, Sr., who was chairman of the finance committee, and I was liaison between him and Rollo Wells, the treasurer. So I sat in these meetings with President Wilson at the head of the table, and all the others, and I heard them drum into President Wilson's brain the graduated income tax and what has become the Federal Reserve, and I heard them indoctrinate him with the Zionist movement. Justice Brandeis and President Wilson were just as close as the two fingers on this hand. President Woodrow Wilson was just as incompetent when it came to determining what was going on as a newborn baby. That is how they got us into World War I, while we all slept. They sent our boys over there to be slaughtered. For what? So the Jews can have Palestine as their "commonwealth." They've fooled you so much that you don't know whether you're coming or going.

Now any judge, when he charges a jury, says, "Gentlemen, any witness who you find has told a single lie, you can disregard all his testimony." I don't know what state you come from, but in New York state that is the way a judge addresses a jury. If that witness told one lie, disregard his testimony.

What are the facts about the Jews? (I call them Jews to you, because they are known as Jews. I don't call them Jews myself. I refer to them as so-called Jews, because I know what they are.) The eastern European Jews, who form 92 per cent of the world's population of those people who call themselves Jews, were originally Khazars. They were a warlike tribe who lived deep in the heart of Asia. And they were so warlike that even the Asiatics drove them out of Asia into eastern Europe. They set up a large Khazar kingdom of 800,000 square miles. At the time, Russia did not exist, nor did many other European countries. The Khazar kingdom was the biggest country in all Europe -- so big and so powerful that when the other monarchs wanted to go to war, the Khazars would lend them 40,000 soldiers. That's how big and powerful they were.

They were phallic worshippers, which is filthy and I do not want to go into the details of that now. But that was their religion, as it was also the religion of many other pagans and barbarians elsewhere in the world. The Khazar king became so disgusted with the degeneracy of his kingdom that he decided to adopt a so-called monotheistic faith -- either Christianity, Islam, or what is known today as Judaism, which is really Talmudism. By spinning a top, and calling out "eeny, meeny, miney, moe," he picked out so-called Judaism. And that became the state religion. He sent down to the Talmudic schools of Pumbedita and Sura and brought up thousands of rabbis, and opened up synagogues and schools, and his people became what we call Jews. There wasn't one of them who had an ancestor who ever put a toe in the Holy Land. Not only in Old Testament history, but back to the beginning of time. Not one of them! And yet they come to the Christians and ask us to support their armed insurrections in Palestine by saying, "You want to help repatriate God's Chosen People to their Promised Land, their ancestral home, don't you? It's your Christian duty. We gave you one of our boys as your Lord and Savior. You now go to church on Sunday, and you kneel and you worship a Jew, and we're Jews." But they are pagan Khazars who were converted just the same as the Irish were converted. It is as ridiculous to call them "people of the Holy Land," as it would be to call the 54 million Chinese Moslems "Arabs." Mohammed only died in 620 A.D., and since then 54 million Chinese have accepted Islam as their religious belief. Now imagine, in China, 2,000 miles away from Arabia, from Mecca and Mohammed's birthplace. Imagine if the 54 million Chinese decided to call themselves "Arabs." You would say they were lunatics. Anyone who believes that those 54 million Chinese are Arabs must be crazy. All they did was adopt as a religious faith a belief that had its origin in Mecca, in Arabia. The same as the Irish. When the Irish became Christians, nobody dumped them in the ocean and imported to the Holy Land a new crop of inhabitants. They hadn't become a different people. They were the same people, but they had accepted Christianity as a religious faith.

These Khazars, these pagans, these Asiatics, these Turko-Finns, were a Mongoloid race who were forced out of Asia into eastern Europe. Because their king took the Talmudic faith, they had no choice in the matter. Just the same as in Spain: If the king was Catholic, everybody had to be a Catholic. If not, you had to get out of Spain. So the Khazars became what we call today Jews. Now imagine how silly it was for the great Christian countries of the world to say, "We're going to use our power and prestige to repatriate God's Chosen People to their ancestral homeland, their Promised Land." Could there be a bigger lie than that? Because they control the newspapers, the magazines, the radio, the television, the book publishing business, and because they have the ministers in the pulpit and the politicians on the soapboxes talking the same language, it is not too surprising that you believe that lie. You'd believe black is white if you heard it often enough. You wouldn't call black black anymore -- you'd start to call black white. And nobody could blame you.

That is one of the great lies of history. It is the foundation of all the misery that has befallen the world.

Do you know what Jews do on the Day of Atonement, that you think is so sacred to them? I was one of them. This is not hearsay. I'm not here to be a rabble-rouser. I'm here to give you facts. When, on the Day of Atonement, you walk into a synagogue, you stand up for the very first prayer that you recite. It is the only prayer for which you stand. You repeat three times a short prayer called the Kol Nidre. In that prayer, you enter into an agreement with God Almighty that any oath, vow, or pledge that you may make during the next twelve months shall be null and void. The oath shall not be an oath; the vow shall not be a vow; the pledge shall not be a pledge. They shall have no force or effect. And further, the Talmud teaches that whenever you take an oath, vow, or pledge, you are to remember the Kol Nidre prayer that you recited on the Day of Atonement, and you are exempted from fulfilling them. How much can you depend on their loyalty? You can depend upon their loyalty as much as the Germans depended upon it in 1916. We are going to suffer the same fate as Germany suffered, and for the same reason. top of page

The Hidden Tyranny Revealed top of page

INTRODUCTION TO MR. FREEDMAN FROM NATIONAL VANGUARD... Benjamin H. Freedman was born in 1890, and, by an ironic twist of fate, the delivering physician at his birth was Dr. Simon Baruch, the father of arch-conspirator against America, Wall Street speculator, and advisor and handler of U.S. Presidents from World War I to 1965, Mr. Bernard M. Baruch. In Mr. Freedman's own words, writing during the years of the Nixon administration:

Mr. Bernard Baruch was a good friend of this author's family and would very often consult this author.... [I] have been in a position since 1912 to witness what was going on behind the scenes. This author served on the National Democratic Committee in the 1912 campaign that elected President Wilson to his first term. No doors have been closed to this author since then.

Benjamin Freedman was raised in a Jewish family and brought up in the Jewish religion. He lived in New York City, and was a wealthy and very successful businessman, eventually becoming the principal owner of the Woodbury Soap Company. He was a witness to and to some extent a participant in the political and financial manipulations that resulted in the rise of Communism, the establishment of Israel as a Zionist state, and the Jewish domination of American politics and American media. As an agent of Jewish interests, he had access to and interviewed at length seven presidents of the United States.

After the end of the War to Impose the New World Order in 1945, Mr. Freedman became convinced that he had a responsibility to speak out. He had been an agent of, and privy to the councils of, the Judaeo-Communist apparatus which was at that time about to launch two of its greatest projects: the creation of a one-world government under the name United Nations, and the establishment of Israel as a Zionist state over the dead bodies of thousands of Palestinians. He had been concerned over the increasing power of his co-religionists, and their irresponsible use of that power, for some time. He broke with Judaism and became a convert to Catholicism. His scholarship and research in the field of Jewish origins led him to believe that the popular conceptions about Jews and Judaism were so manifestly false that the words themselves should be rejected. In his writings you will often find him referring to so-called or self-styled Jews or to Talmudists, meaning the followers of the Talmud, a holy book of modern Judaism.

In 1946 he founded the League for Peace and Justice in Palestine. Arnold Forster, a high official of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith or ADL, in his 1988 autobiography Square One, called Benjamin Freedman an affluent, apostate, self-hating Jew. The magazine Commentary (published by the American Jewish Committee) for February, 1955, referred to him as Jewish anti-Semite Benjamin Freedman. Freedman himself stated in 1954:

The word anti-Semitism is another word which should be eliminated from the English language. [The word] anti-Semitism serves only one purpose today. It is used as a smear word. When so-called or self-styled Jews feel that anyone opposes any of their objectives they discredit their victims by applying the word anti-Semite or anti-Semitic through all the channels they have at their command and under their control. I can speak with great authority on that subject. Because so-called or self-styled Jews were unable to disprove my public statements in 1946 with regard to the situation in Palestine, they spent millions of dollars to smear me as an anti-Semite hoping thereby to discredit me in the eyes of the public who were very much interested in what I had to say. Until 1946 I was a little saint to all so-called or self-styled Jews. When I disagreed with them publicly on the Zionist intentions in Palestine I became suddenly Anti-Semite No. 1.

Benjamin H. Freedman was in truth a defector from the forces which have been working to destroy our Republic and our civilization. Let us see what he had to say. Today we will be exploring Mr. Freedman's amazing book The Hidden Tyranny, published in the early 1970s. The following are the words of Mr. Freedman:

The names of Presidents Woodrow Wilson, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy, Lyndon B. Johnson and Richard M. Nixon will certainly be found one day inscribed in big red letters in the official annals of the rise and fall of the United States. These seven masters of deception incurred their guilt by debasing their solemn oaths of office on behalf of undisclosed domestic and foreign principals without any apparent qualms or misgivings, to enhance their political fortunes totally oblivious to the threat to United States security and survival.

...The disclosures which follow here are now revealed for the first time anywhere. They now expose for the first time to the grass roots population of the United States the secret un-American, non-American, and anti-American strategy to which these seven masters of deception knowingly subscribed.

...Very early in their political careers, these seven masters of deception... acquired their proficient skill in detecting on which side their political bread was buttered. ...Throughout their political careers [they] demonstrated that political shrewdness invariably identified with the immoral dogma of 20th century politicians who preach and practice any means justifies all ends. Accordingly, future grass roots populations of the United States will one day find inscribed in the history of the rise and fall of the United States the verdict that the means ...advocated by these seven masters of deception were primarily responsible for the end of the United States.

It is today a well recognized fact of life in political circles in the United States that the censorship exercised by Zionists over the media for mass information constitutes a virtual monopoly. It is likewise today a well recognized fact of life in political circles in the United States since President Wilson won his first election in 1912 as President of the United States, that elections in the United States are seldom won or lost today based upon the candidates' qualification for office. Elections in the United States since 1912 are won or lost on the battlefields of the media for mass information....

Zionist ownership of media for mass communication, or by Zionist control exercised by some devious corporate device, in effect and in fact censors the news and editorial policies of all the leading daily and Sunday newspapers, all the weekly and monthly news magazines, all leading radio and television stations and networks, the entire motion picture industry, the entire entertainment world and the entire book publishing industry, in effect and in fact the entire complex of media for mass information in the United States, truly a brainwashing monopoly.

As a result of that condition in the United States, for approximately the past fifty years the grass roots population of the United States has only read, heard and seen what passed Zionist censorship and best served Zionist objectives....

The Zionist-ruled media for mass information in the United States never informed the grass roots population... how and why President Woodrow Wilson lied the United States into the desperate predicament in which the United States now finds itself in the Middle East.

...The United States declared war against Germany on April 6, 1917. On April 2, 1917, President Wilson addressed both houses of Congress and pleaded with them to declare war against Germany. President Wilson's appeal to Congress... was primarily President Wilson's liquidation of his obligation to his blackmailers. The following incontestable facts confirm that conclusion beyond all question of any doubt.

President Wilson's hand trembled as he read his address. The members of Congress present had no reason to suspect why President Wilson's hand trembled. ...By the time President Wilson finished reading his appeal to Congress, many of his listeners were in tears but not for the reason the grass roots population of the United States today will be in tears when they finish reading this manuscript.

...Congress only declared war against Germany because President Wilson informed Congress that a German submarine had sunk the S.S. Sussex in the English channel in violation of international law and that United States citizens aboard the S.S. Sussex had perished with the ship.

After General Pershing's troops were fighting in Europe, the hoax was exposed. ...The S.S. Sussex had not been sunk and no United States citizens had lost their lives. The United States was now at war in Europe as Great Britain's ally. That is what Great Britain and the Talmudist Jews of the world conspired to achieve in their crooked diplomatic underworld.

The discovery of the hoax by the British Navy shocked many honorable Englishmen. ...The S.S. Sussex was available for anyone to visit who might care to do so to see the S.S. Sussex for themselves with their own eyes. In that war the United States mobilized 4,734,991 men to serve in the armed forces, of whom 115,516 were killed and 202,002 were either injured or maimed for life.

This author crossed the English Channel many times on the S.S. Sussex. The alleged sinking of the S.S. Sussex was the figment of an over-worked Zionist imagination.

Shortly after President Wilson's first inauguration, President Wilson received a visitor in the White House by [the name of] Mr. Samuel Untermyer. Mr. Untermyer was a prominent New York City attorney who contributed generously to the National Democratic Committee that installed President Wilson in the White House....

Mr. Untermyer surprised President Wilson when he finally stated what brought him to the White House. Mr. Untermyer informed President Wilson that he had been retained to bring a breach of promise action against President Wilson. Mr. Untermyer informed President Wilson that his client was willing to accept $40,000 in lieu of commencing the breach of promise action. Mr. Untermyer's client was the former wife of a professor at Princeton University at the same time President Wilson was a professor at Princeton University.

Mr. Untermyer produced a packet of letters from his pocket, written by President Wilson to his colleague's wife when they were neighbors at Princeton University. These letters established the illicit relationship which had existed between President Wilson and the wife of his colleague neighbor. President Wilson had written many endearing letters to the wife of his colleague, many of which she never destroyed. President Wilson acknowledged his authorship of the letters after examining a few of them.

President Wilson left Princeton University to become the Governor of New Jersey. In 1912 President Wilson was elected to his first term as President of the United States. In the interim, President Wilson's former sweetheart had divorced her husband and married again. Her second husband resided in Washington with a grown son who was in the employ of one of the leading banks in Washington.

Mr. Untermyer explained to President Wilson that his former sweetheart was very fond of her husband's son. Mr. Untermyer explained that this son was in financial trouble. This son suddenly needed $40,000, as he told the story, to liquidate a pressing liability to the bank for which he worked. The details are not relevant here except that the son needed the $40,000 badly and he needed it quickly. President Wilson's former sweetheart thought that President Wilson was the logical prospect for that $40,000 to help her husband's son.

...President Wilson expressed himself as very fortunate that his former sweetheart went to Mr. Untermeyer to seek his assistance. The publicity could have proved very embarrassing to President Wilson if his former sweetheart had instead consulted a Republican attorney.

President Wilson quickly set Mr. Untermeyer's mind at rest by informing Mr. Untermeyer that he did not have $40,000 available for any purpose. Mr. Untermeyer suggested that President Wilson should think the matter over....

Mr. Untermeyer returned to President Wilson a few days later as they had agreed. President Wilson did not hesitate to inform Mr. Untermeyer that he did not have the $40,000 to pay his blackmailer. President Wilson appeared irritated. Mr. Untermeyer considered the matter a few moments and then volunteered a solution to President Wilson for his problem.

Mr. Untermeyer volunteered to give President Wilson's former sweetheart the $40,000 out of his own pocket on one condition. Mr. Untermeyer's condition was that President Wilson promise Mr. Untermeyer to appoint to the first vacancy on the United States Supreme Court a nominee to be recommended to President Wilson by Mr. Untermeyer.

Without further talk, President Wilson accepted Mr. Untermeyer's generous offer. Mr. Untermeyer promptly paid $40,000 in currency to President Wilson's former sweetheart. The contemplated breach of promise suit was never heard of after that. Mr. Untermeyer retained in his possession permanently the packet of letters.... President Wilson was most grateful to Mr. Untermeyer for everything he was doing to solve his problem.

Mr. Untermeyer was a man of great wealth. The law firm in New York of which Mr. Untermeyer was the leading partner, Messrs. Guggenheim, Untermeyer, and Marshall, is still today one of the nation's most prominent and prosperous law firms. Mr. Untermeyer organized the Bethlehem Steel Company for his friend Mr. Charles M. Schwab.

...Mr. Untermeyer paid $40,000 ...out of his own pocket in the hope it might bring to pass a dream close to his heart, a Talmudist Jew on the United States Supreme Court where none ever served.

The day soon arrived when President Wilson was presented with the necessity of appointing a new member of the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Untermeyer recommended Louis Dembitz Brandeis for the vacancy. President Wilson immediately appointed him.... President Wilson and Justice Brandeis became unusually intimate friends. Justice Brandeis knew the circumstances of his appointment by President Wilson....

In 1914 Justice Brandeis was the most prominent and most politically influential of all Zionists in the United States.

...Justice Brandeis volunteered his opinion to President Wilson that the sinking of the S.S. Sussex by a German submarine in the English channel with the loss of lives of United States citizens justified the declaration of war against Germany by the United States. Relying to a great extent upon the legal opinion of Justice Brandeis, President Wilson... appealed to Congress to declare war against Germany and they did on April 6, 1917.

The declaration of war against Germany by the United States guaranteed [to] the Talmudist Jews throughout the world that Palestine was to be turned over to them upon the defeat of Germany. The defeat of Germany was certain if the United States could be railroaded into the war in Europe as Great Britain's ally.

Prior to the October 1916 London Agreement, Talmudist Jews throughout the world were pro-German. The German Emancipation Edict of 1822 guaranteed Talmudist Jews in Germany all civil rights enjoyed by Germans. ...Germany was the only country in Europe which did not place restrictions on Talmudist Jews....

Talmudist Jews throughout the world were informed by cable from London about the October 1916 London Agreement. That information transformed Talmudist Jews throughout the world from pro-German to pro-British. Great Britain placed at the disposal of Talmudist Jews in London their secret codes and worldwide cable facilities to inform Talmudist Jews throughout the world about Great Britain's pledge to turn over Palestine to them as compensation for railroading the United States into the war in Europe as Great Britain's ally....

On April 6, 1917, President Wilson and Justice Brandeis knew something the grass roots population of the United States did not know. [They] knew the declaration of war by the United States against Germany discharged President Wilson from his obligation to his blackmailers....

There was seldom any address made to Congress that stirred the people of the United States and the world, as President Wilson's April 2, 1917, plea to Congress to declare war against Germany. President Wilson was aware when he addressed Congress that Germany had not committed any act against the United States which justified a declaration of war.... This author at that time knew President Wilson was informed to that effect before President Wilson made his plea to Congress....

Ladies and gentlemen, what you have been listening to is an excerpt from Jewish author Benjamin H. Freedman's manuscript entitled The Hidden Tyranny. We will continue with more amazing revelations by Mr. Freedman of the inner workings of the power elite on our next American Dissident Voices program.

Won't you help us in our patriotic work? Americans are apathetic and confused because they are misinformed and do not understand the nature of the tyranny that is destroying our country and our way of life. Alone among patriotic groups, we dare to tell the whole truth which the American people need to hear. You can make a real contribution to the future of your children and grandchildren and countless generations yet to come by supporting this program -- to say nothing of the priceless education which you and your friends and family can receive.

But this program is not free. We are totally dependent on the support of patriots like you to keep it on the air. It costs money, a great deal of money, to pay for the airing of this program every week. And it takes a great deal of money to publish the unique books we offer which are available nowhere else because of the dead hand of censorship in this land. We have a list of vital books which we would like to publish, but must wait for the availability of the funds to do so. In my opinion, Benjamin Freedman's book, long out of print, deserves to see the light of day again. If you will help us with a donation of $22 or more this week, I will send you a copy of our latest video tape featuring Dr. William Pierce, the Chairman of the National Alliance and a frequent speaker on this program. On this full color one-hour television program, recorded live in Richmond, Virginia, earlier this year, Dr. Pierce delves deeply into the political and social issues affecting White Americans, and answers live viewers' questions on a wide variety of topics. We offer this video as our Radio Offer Number 26, for any donation of $22 or more to National Vanguard Books, Department R, PO Box 90, Hillsboro WV 24946 USA. Remember to tell us the call letters of this station when you write and remember to ask for Radio Offer Number 26. We are here for you. Will you be there for us, now, while we still have the freedom to speak? Until the next broadcast, this is Kevin Alfred Strom reminding you that equal men are not free.

Program of 22d October, 1994

Today we continue the amazing revelations of one of the most astounding individuals of the 20th century, a man whose memory and writings have been almost entirely obliterated from the consciousness of most Americans. I am speaking of Benjamin H. Freedman, a man who was from the period of World War I until 1946 a member of the Jewish financial establishment which during those years instigated and funded Communist revolutions, subverted the American government, and sent American boys to die in wars for Zionist and Communist objectives.

Benjamin H. Freedman was a defector. He defected to the American side. And his story deserves to be told. Being of Jewish birth, he cannot be smeared as an anti-Semite. And having been a wealthy insider and witness to the machinations of America's enemies, his insights are of the highest value to all who would understand how America has fallen so low.

On our last program, we detailed his revelations of how Woodrow Wilson was manipulated by organized Jewry to bring America into World War I. When the British Empire was in desperate straits during that war, Zionist Jews dangled before the British government the possibility of using their influence in the United States to bring America into the war on Britain's side. Their price was a promise from Britain to cede Palestine to the Zionists after the war. Using their knowledge of a sordid instance of adultery in Woodrow Wilson's past, they forced him to appoint a Jew to the United States Supreme Court and forced him to send hundreds of thousands of young American soldiers to be crippled and killed in a war that did not concern the United States at all. Let us continue with these revelations from an insider in a position to know. The following are the words of Benjamin H. Freedman:

In referring to the declaration of war against Germany by the United States, Sir Winston Churchill said in an interview with a prominent editor published in Scribner's Commentator in 1936....

"America should have minded her own business and stayed out of the World War. If you hadn't entered the war the Allies would have made peace with Germany in the Spring of 1917."

Germany's peace offer to Great Britain asked for neither indemnities nor reparations. Germany offered to restore the territorial status and political independence of every country with whom Great Britain was at war, as they existed in August 1914 when the war in Europe started. Germany demanded no benefits.

Germany's October 1916 peace offer was on the table before the British War Cabinet. Germany's... peace offer needed only one signature to end the war. Great Britain would have quickly accepted... if the World Zionist Organization had not interfered....

When the British War Cabinet decided to accept Germany's October 1916 peace offer, the World Zionist Organization offered to railroad the United States into the war in Europe as Great Britain's ally if Great Britain promised the Talmudist Jews of the world Palestine as compensation after Germany's defeat....

Talmudist Jew pressure in London and Talmudist Jew pressure in New York prevailed. President Wilson had little choice in the matter it seemed. President Wilson was the captive of circumstances in his early life that could not be altered. President Wilson's April 2, 1917, address to Congress was about to decide the fate of the world.

...Germans regarded [these activities] as a double-cross by Talmudist Jews....

Talmudist Jews promise[d the] Germans victory, then stab[bed] them in the back....

The Kaiser provided the World Zionist Organization with the offices for their world headquarters in Berlin. The Kaiser, his family, and government officials were constantly extending assistance to Theodor Herzl [Note: Theodor Herzl, 1860-1904, was the founder of modern Zionism and the leader of the World Zionist Organization. -- Ed.]. Germany extended opportunities to Talmudist Jews not available in other European countries. The Kaiser himself arranged the personal meeting between the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire and Theodor Herzl.

Bleichroder and Company in Berlin were the private bankers of the Kaiser's family for generations. They were Talmudist Jews. Warburg and Company of Hamburg were the world's largest merchant bankers. They were Talmudist Jews. The head of the German General Electric Company, then the world's largest industrial enterprise, was a Talmudist Jew.

The attitude of Germans toward Talmudist Jews in Germany and throughout the world worsened much after the October 1916 stab in the back....

Talmudist Jews throughout the world made bad matters worse on August 7, 1933, when [they] declared their holy war to destroy the German nation by destroying their export trade upon which their very existence depends. Under the leadership of Mr. Samuel Untermyer, Talmudist Jews of the world declared a boycott on all German goods and services. They asked their Christian friends to join their worldwide boycott....

Mr. Samuel Untermyer arranged for the International Boycott Conference in Amsterdam in July 1933. Mr. Untermyer was elected there the president of the World Jewish Economic Federation.....

The New York Times of August 7, 1933, published the Talmudist Jews' declaration of their holy war against Germany in a three-column report of Mr. Untermyer's address to the nation from Columbia Broadcasting Company's studio on the night of his arrival home from Europe. Mr. Untermyer among other things stated:

" [The] holy war in which we are embarked... is a war which must be waged unremittingly....

" ...the Jews are the aristocrats of the world....

"...[This] economic boycott against all German goods, shipping, and services... is our only really effective weapon... [to] bring the German people to their senses by destroying their export trade on which their very existence depends... we shall force them to learn... we will drive the last nail in the coffin...."

This statement was made on August 7, 1933, when not a hair on the head of a Talmudist Jew in all Germany had been touched. Germany was plunged into a depression difficult to describe in a few words, Germany's export business suddenly ending as if by magic. Talmudist Jews hoped [in] that way to stop Germans from continuing to talk about why they lost the war.

The eminent Rabbi Maurice L. Perlman, head of the British section of the World Jewish Congress, stated to a Canadian audience as reported by the Toronto Evening Telegram of February 26, 1940, that The World Jewish Congress has been at war with Germany for seven years.

President Roosevelt was a captive of the Talmudist Jews from the time he went to Albany as Governor of the State of New York. ...President Roosevelt railroaded the United States into the Second World War.

Germany and Poland had agreed upon a formula giving Germany access across the Danzig Corridor. President Wilson in 1919 created the Danzig Corridor which separated Germany into two halves... separated by a strip of German territory granted to Poland ...in order to keep Germany weak... at the instigation of Talmudist Jews at the Versailles Peace Conference....

Crossing the Danzig Corridor from western Germany to eastern Germany or vice versa was like traveling from one country to another country. [Due to] the inconveniences, the delays and annoyances, Germany and Poland had finally worked out their acceptable arrangement that eliminated a majority of German objections to the Danzig Corridor. Germany and Poland reached a basis that would serve to prevent Germany's resort to more aggressive action.

Adolf Hitler was the head of the German government at the time. Talmudist Jews throughout the world opposed the peaceful adjustment between Germany and Poland of the Danzig Corridor situation. Unrestricted access of traffic between the western half and eastern half of Germany would soon make Germany again the most powerful country in the world. Talmudist Jews throughout the world dreaded the thought.

Shortly before the agreement with Germany was to be signed, Poland secretly signed a treaty with Great Britain dated August 25, 1939. Great Britain agreed in that treaty to hasten to the military assistance of Poland ...if Poland were attacked by Germany. With that assurance from Great Britain, Poland broke off negotiations with Germany. Germany did not understand the reason for Poland's sudden change of mind and decided to proceed with the terms of arrangement agreed upon with Poland. That was the start of World War II.

Great Britain knowingly deceived Poland when [they] promised military assistance.... Great Britain could not come to Poland's assistance and Great Britain knew it when [the] offer of military assistance... was made.

Poland's unexplained discontinuance of negotiations with Germany to complete the Danzig Corridor agreement resulted in Germany's troops moving into the Danzig Corridor without an agreement with Poland. Great Britain knew exactly what would take place in that event, that it would mean the beginning of World War II. The rest is history. Talmudist Jews of the world welcomed a war against Germany in 1939....

President Roosevelt tried his hardest in 1939 to railroad the United States into the war in Europe to accommodate Talmudist Jews in the United States. Germany learned by experience in World War I that the entry of the United States into the war in Europe in 1939 could prove equally disastrous to Germany.... Germany exercised extraordinary caution not to provide the United States with justification under international law to declare war against Germany. That situation presented President Roosevelt with a problem.

President Roosevelt decided if it were impossible for him to get into the war in Europe through the front door that he would railroad the United States into the war in Europe through the back door. Through the back door meant through Japan.

...Germany and Japan had a treaty under which if either Germany or Japan were attacked by a third power, the country which was not attacked by the third power automatically is at war with that third power. President Roosevelt planned to provoke Japan so Japan would attack the United States. Japan in December 1941 attacked Pearl Harbor. The United States immediately declared war against Japan and automatically was at war with Germany.

The personal diary of the Honorable Mr. Henry L. Stimson and all his papers are in Yale University library. Mr. Stimson each day entered in his personal diary in his own handwriting the important events in his life that day. Mr. Stimson was President Roosevelt's Secretary of War. Mr. Stimson's diary was introduced as evidence in the United States Senate investigation of the Pearl Harbor attack by Japan over the strong objections of friends of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Stimson entered in his diary on November 25, 1941, two weeks before Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor, that at a meeting with President Roosevelt and his Cabinet that morning at the White House, President Roosevelt told those present that he wished to be at war against Japan but that he did not want it to appear that the United States fired the first shot.

...President Roosevelt advised Japan they could purchase no more steel scrap or oil from the United States. Japan was in the midst of a war against China. Without scrap steel and without oil Japan would be unable to continue that war. Japan was totally dependent upon the United States for both steel scrap and oil. ...President Roosevelt knowingly provoked Japan to attack the United States.

President Harry S. Truman made his great contribution to the desperate predicament in which the United States today finds itself in the Middle East when he recognized as a sovereign state an armed uprising in Palestine by 800,000 armed aliens transplanted into Palestine in a conspiracy organized by Talmudist Jews throughout the world. President Truman in 1946 suffered from a pathological obsession that he must be elected President of the United States in 1948 on his own account.

Mr. Clark M. Clifford [Note: Clark M. Clifford, 1907- , attorney (Clifford and Warnke) and tired old establishment war horse, was the architect of Truman's 1948 campaign and himself a strong advocate of recognizing Israel. He also co-wrote the National Security Act, which created the Central Intelligence Agency; organized the transition between the Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations; and, until succeeded by Nicholas Katzenbach in 1991, was chairman of First American Bankshares, which had links to the infamous Bank of Credit and Commerce International (BCCI). He defended BCCI twice; in 1978 against the SEC regarding BCCI's takeover of Financial General Bankshares; and in 1989 against drug-related money-laundering charges in Florida. In the latter case, BCCI paid a $15 million fine; Clifford's retainer was $45.3 million. On July 29, 1992, Clifford was indicted on ten counts by a federal grand jury for his involvement in the BCCI affair. -- Ed.], Secretary of Defense under President Lyndon B. Johnson, deserves a great deal of credit for the recognition of the State of Israel on May 14, 1948, by the United States. Mr. Eliahu Epstein, the United States representative of the Jewish Agency in Washington in 1948, told the story in his three page article in the Jewish Chronicle of London in its 10th Anniversary issue... celebrating the founding of the State of Israel.

Mr. Clifford undoubtedly was anxious to help because President Truman had confided in his close friends that he wished to recognize the Zionist state in the first hour of its birth as he did.

The State of Israel was officially proclaimed in Tel Aviv at midnight on May 14, 1948. President Truman recognized the State of Israel eleven minutes after midnight.

President Truman finally advised this author that he did not wish to carry on the discussion of the Zionist question with him any further. He wrote to this author that he had turned over the entire Palestine question to the Honorable David Niles. Talmudist Jews were willing to carry out their part of the bargain with President Truman.... Although the odds in President Truman's election were 20 to 1 against his election, President Truman romped home the winner over Governor Dewey assisted by the invisible and invincible Zionist political steam-roller that always elects their candidates.

President Truman not only used the power and prestige of the United States to compel the United Nations to admit the State of Israel as a peace loving nation... but he made billions of United States taxpayer dollars available to Talmudist Jews to make the State of Israel powerful.

When the day to vote for the admission of the State of Israel arrived, they were short two votes.

The plan was about to collapse. In the emergency Mr. Charles H. Silver engaged Cardinal Spellman to make two trips to South America to change their votes in the United Nations....

The newspapers around the world on June 11, 1964, published Mr. Silver's confession of a secret I have kept for fifteen years. The secret Cardinal Spellman kept with Mr. Silver was that Cardinal Spellman was sent to South America by Mr. Silver on behalf of the Talmudist Jews in New York....

This author was a close personal friend of Cardinal Spellman for twenty-five years. Cardinal Spellman confessed to this author several years ago that he felt he had committed an irreparable sin by conspiring with the Talmudist Jews... to elect the State of Israel as a member of the United Nations. In the midst of that bloody fighting in the Middle East in June 1967, Cardinal Spellman told this author when alone with him in his study that he felt personally responsible for all the lives lost in the 1967 invasion of the United Arab Republic and Syria by the State of Israel.

You have been listening to the words of Jewish author Benjamin H. Freedman, a few excerpts from his hard-to-find manuscript The Hidden Tyranny. Mr. Freedman, who was born in 1890, was a witness to Zionist machinations for decades at the very highest level, but after the Judaeo-Communist victory in 1945 he became disgusted with the chicanery of his co-racialists and broke with the Jewish elite, and spent a substantial portion of his sizable fortune in an attempt to bring the truth to Americans. If you are curious why this Jewish author, Benjamin Freedman, invariably uses the term Talmudist Jews, you'll have to tune in to our next program.

Won't you please support our efforts to bring these hidden truths to the American people?

America is today an occupied nation, a victim of the ruthless aliens whose activities we detailed today. As a result of the control of our institutions and our media by these aliens, Americans have been conditioned to accept a moral code in which anything that tends to the extinction of our race is considered good, and anything which tends to our survival is regarded as evil. The situation we face is an emergency, and we must unite for the survival of our kind and the nation our forefathers bled and died for.

Our only chance for success is if the concerned Americans who are hearing my voice, who know that our nation has been on the wrong track for many years, will reach out to us, and respond to the opportunities for patriotic education and action which we offer. The window of truly free speech opened in 1776 may soon be closing if the present rulers of America have their way. If that happens, then all patriotic resistance will have to be underground resistance. If you will do nothing now, how likely is it that you will act when the Iron Curtain has completely descended? I ask all those who are made of the stuff with which this nation was formed to write to me today and join our crusade for truth.

Despite the fact that our nation is being bled white by foreign aid to Israel, the new Communist Haiti and Communist South Africa, and other foreign tyrannies; despite the fact that our people have been demoralized by anti-White propaganda lies on their televisions and in their newspapers every day for over a quarter century; despite the fact that the burden of supporting the growing non-White underclass has drained the American people of so much money that it would buy and rebuild the 500 largest corporations in the country with money to spare; despite all these things, the genius and hard work of our people have created the most advanced civilization ever to exist on this planet and so far as we know, possibly in the universe. Imagine what we could achieve if we regained our freedom, the freedom to be ourselves.

I'll leave you with that thought. We can achieve such a future. It is up to you. If you will educate yourself and awaken others of your acquaintance, you will make that possible future a reality. Of course, if you are satisfied with the present course of our nation, you need do nothing. Those of you who are still with me, I ask you tonight to send for our Radio Offer Number 4. It is the equivalent of a graduate course in history and modern political and social realities. One of our new supporters wrote and told me that after receiving this book, he found it to be more enlightening than all his graduate and post-graduate courses in history and political science combined. The book I am speaking of is entitled The Best of Attack and National Vanguard and it is a collection of the very best articles from our patriotic newspaper from over a twelve-year period. This is no ordinary book. Its 217 illustrated, newspaper-sized pages are filled with meticulously documented facts which the enemies of our nation most definitely do not want you to read. If you have the courage to examine what it has been our life's work to bring to light, then send a gift of $25 or more to keep this program on the air, and ask for our Radio Offer Number 4. Our address is National Vanguard Books, Department R, PO Box 90, Hillsboro WV 24946 USA. Remember to give us the call letters of this radio station when you write, and remember to ask for Radio Offer Number 4.

Until next time, this is Kevin Alfred Strom reminding you that freedom is not free.

Program of 29th October, 1994

Welcome to the third and final installment of our series on the amazing revelations of that insider to the forces which are destroying the United States of America, that insider who broke with those forces and exposed their machinations, Jewish financier and writer Benjamin H. Freedman.

We have been following the revelations of Mr. Freedman from his hard-to-find manuscript The Hidden Tyranny which details the means by which seven Presidents of the United States -- Wilson, Franklin Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon -- betrayed the American people to Zionist interests. Remember that Benjamin Freedman was more than just an historian researching these facts among the dry documents of yesterday -- he was a participant in history, and he was personally acquainted with Zionist leaders and every one of the seven Presidents whose actions he chronicles. Today we pick up this important document where we left off on our last broadcast. Remember as you hear these words that this document was written in 1971. The following are the words of Benjamin Freedman:

The story of how President Dwight D. Eisenhower lied the United States into the desperate predicament in which the United States today finds itself in the Middle East is not a complicated story. Talmudist Jews in the United States pressured President Eisenhower into sponsoring... House Joint Resolution 117 on January 5, 1957. President Eisenhower knew less about what he was then doing than a new born babe. It was pitiful for this author to witness a great General being figuratively pushed around by Talmudist Jews unfit to shine his shoes.

President Eisenhower was always friendly towards this author. This author met President Eisenhower when he was being considered by Mr. Thomas M. Watson, Sr. as a Presidential candidate on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Watson was the founder of the International Business Machines Company. Mr. Watson told this author at that time that he believed General Eisenhower as a civilian would make a great president.

As President of the United States, General Eisenhower was faithful to [the] Talmudist Jew supporters whose friendship he first cultivated in Europe during his political activities in Germany after the end of World War II.... Talmudist Jews knew that as President of the United States, General Eisenhower in their hands would be like clay in the hands of the potter.

In 1956 it appeared that the Middle East countries were undergoing changes in their governments. The Zionist illegal occupation of Palestine still existed. Populations in Middle East countries were growing restless. Talmudist Jews recognized that something must be done to silence the unrest. President Eisenhower obliged....

Lebanon is the heart of Middle East political activity. To nip action in the bud, by native populations aiming to assert their independence from domination by Talmudist Jews, Talmudist Jews arranged with President Eisenhower to occupy Lebanon with 14,000 troops and to station the Sixth Fleet off the coast. To make it legal Talmudist Jews had Congress pass a Joint Resolution like the Tonkin Bay Resolution passed by Congress to legalize the war in Viet Nam.

Present Eisenhower... satisfied Talmudist Jews in the United States at the expense of United States taxpayers. President Eisenhower was warning the Middle East nations not to attempt to regain Palestine from the Zionists....

President Eisenhower... had a consortium of the smartest Talmudist Jews in the State, Defense, and Justice Departments prepare that Joint Resolution. The intent of [its] unclear language is to conceal the purpose of the Joint Resolution, not to explain its purpose. The purpose was to have a Joint Resolution on record that would permit President Eisenhower to use the United States armed forces and navy to aid and abet the Zionist thieves to hold onto their stolen loot without any necessity to ask Congress to declare war.

Every word President Eisenhower uttered to defend the crooks in occupation of Palestine was a lie which contributed to the desperate predicament in which the United States today finds itself.... Talmudist Jews in the United States were able to camouflage their illegal aggression in the Middle East behind the glamour of President Eisenhower's record as a great soldier.

The story of how President John F. Kennedy lied the United States into the desperate predicament in which the United States today finds itself in the Middle East is very distressing. President Kennedy's future was uncertain after digressing on August 25, 1960, from the straight and narrow path he had followed all his life.

President Kennedy could not escape the consequences of his betrayal of the high principles to which he aimed to dedicate his life. President Kennedy surrendered to the lure of Talmudist Jews who pledged to put him in the White House as the President of the United States.

On August 23, 1960, in the United States Senate Office Building in Washington, President Kennedy, at that time a Senator, gave this author a copy of the address he was to deliver in New York City on August 25, 1960. In the copy of that address which he gave this author... President Kennedy stated among other things:

"Israel is here to stay...[Israel] will endure and flourish [and there is] a special obligation on the Democratic Party.... It was President Truman who first recognized the new State of Israel and gave it status in world affairs.... [It is] my hope and my pledge to continue this Democratic tradition.... if the Democratic platform is to have any meaning the White House must take the lead.... American intervention... will not now be easy... I propose that we make it crystal clear... we will act promptly and decisively.... ...our guarantee [is that] we will act with whatever force and speed are necessary...."

Senator Kennedy was giving Talmudist Jews his pledge that as the President of the United States he would send sons, husbands, and brothers of the grass roots population of the United States to fight in Palestine... to aid and abet thieves retain possession of their stolen plunder.

This author met President Kennedy for the first time in his father's office at 230 Park Avenue, in New York City, on the day after he was elected for the first time as a Congressman in November 1946. This author was in a conference with Ambassador Joseph Kennedy and Judge Landis, an associate of Ambassador Kennedy. In his private office they were consulting this author on the Middle East situation which had recently taken an ugly turn in the United Nations.

Suddenly the door to the private office flew open and in came the new Congressman. Congressman Kennedy was on his way from Boston to Washington and burst into his father's office bubbling with enthusiasm. Ambassador Kennedy introduced this author to the new Congressman and advised his son that he would do well to keep in touch with this author as a source of information he would need soon on the Palestine question.

Ambassador Kennedy discussed the subject matter for a short while with those present. The Congressman then asked to leave as he was catching a train for Washington. This author invited the Congressman to lunch and he accepted. After lunch Congressman Kennedy asked if this author had nothing else to do than ride to Washington with him on the train. This author was willing and rode to Washington with him.

From that day in November 1946 to August 23, 1960, this author saw the Congressman, and [later] Senator, countless times at his office in Washington and New York City. This author was happy to enlighten Senator Kennedy on the Palestine question. Without a doubt there were soon few people in the world who were better informed on this subject than Senator Kennedy.

In the fourteen years this author had the honor of enjoying the confidence of President Kennedy he never failed to express his appreciation for this author's interest in his career. President Kennedy also appreciated the friendship this author demonstrated for his father, Ambassador Kennedy. Ambassador Kennedy was blackmailed by President Roosevelt. President Roosevelt told Ambassador Kennedy not to write the book Ambassador Kennedy planned to write. President Roosevelt removed Ambassador Kennedy as Ambassador to the Court of St. James in London for circulating what Neville Chamberlain told Ambassador Kennedy in London in 1938.

...Neville Chamberlain told him that the United States and Talmudist Jews throughout the world [were forcing] Great Britain into... war. Chamberlain also told Ambassador Kennedy in 1938 that Great Britain had nothing with which to fight Germany, [and] that Great Britain should not risk going to war against Germany....

President Roosevelt recalled Ambassador Kennedy to silence him. Ambassador Kennedy planned... to write a book telling what he knew.... President Roosevelt sent for Ambassador Kennedy upon his return to the United States.... [He] told... Kennedy he had heard Ambassador Kennedy was planning to write a book which he asked him not to do.

After Ambassador Kennedy's unpleasant meeting with President Roosevelt in Washington, after his recall from London for daring to circulate what Chamberlain had told him about Talmudist Jews, Ambassador Kennedy's ambition in life was to see one of his sons in the White House as President of the United States.

The story of how President Lyndon Baines Johnson lied the United States in the desperate predicament in which the United States today finds itself in the Middle East is not a long story. It commences with a telephone call to this author in New York from Congressman Ed Gosset in Washington to come there at once. Congressman Gosset represented Amarillo, Texas in the House of Representatives.

Congressman Gosset was alarmed that the Senate Armed Services Committee the day before confirmed the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense without a public hearing....

Congressman Gosset took this author to Senator Johnson's office and explained to him the reason for the visit. Senator Johnson was a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee.... Senator Johnson was very much interested in learning about Anna Rosenberg's associations with communists.

Senator Johnson asked this author if he would assist him in looking into the matter further by producing a communist who knew Anna Rosenberg. Upon this author's return to New York that day, he mentioned Senator Johnson's request to his attorney, Mr. Hallam Richardson. Within a few hours, Mr. Richardson produced Mr. Ralph de Sola, a prominent Communist, the head of film photography of documents by communist organizations in the United States.

...In this author's meetings with Senator Johnson, this author had the occasion to discuss the Palestine question with him. Senator Johnson was very interested in the Palestine question. That subject was of great interest to the Senate Armed Services Committee....

As President of the United States, President Johnson was aware of the possibility of armed conflict in the Middle East in which the United States might become involved. President Johnson understood the power Talmudist Jews exerted in the United States and in the United Nations. One of his closest friends in Washington was Mr. Abe Fortas, a prominent Zionist, whom President Johnson appointed to the Supreme Court.

President Johnson knew he was violating the letter and spirit of his oath of office as the President of all the people of the United States when he filled the pipelines of the State of Israel with munitions of war paid for with the money of ...taxpayers in the United States. President Johnson cannot plead ignorance of the facts. Through a very close mutual friend, this author kept President Johnson constantly informed on developments in the Middle East.

...President Johnson now seeks to justify his generosity with United States taxpayers' money by referring to a commitment. President Johnson knows that he is in error. The only commitment the taxpayers in the United States recognize is President Johnson's commitment to serve the best interests of the grass roots population of the United States.

President Nixon is as guilty as the other six masters of deception who lied the United States into the desperate predicament in which the United States today finds itself in the Middle East. President Nixon is both an eminent lawyer and President of the United States.

President Nixon cannot produce any evidence of a legitimate commitment to anyone to support President Nixon's generous use of United States taxpayers' money for financing the permanent possession by thieves of their stolen loot. Does President Nixon mean the commitment by political leaders to the Talmudist Jews in the United States who control the media for mass information?

President Nixon belittles himself as well as the United States administration for whom he speaks when he talks about a commitment of the United States to underwrite the perpetual possession of the illegal and immoral theft of Palestine by Talmudist Jews. President Nixon's generosity has reached epidemic proportions. Each of the additional five hundred million dollars of United States taxpayers' money President Nixon donates to the so-called State of Israel are that many more nails in the coffin of the United States.

These seven masters of deception mock the elementary and equitable principles upon which the United States was founded when they throw hard-earned United States taxpayers' dollars by the billions to criminals in possession of their stolen loot as if it were stage money. Have they no shame or conscience?

This author has had the patience and the time to inform seven Presidents of the United States about the underlying reason for Middle East aggression by the Talmudist Jews throughout the world. These seven masters of deception were all briefed by this author on the reason for the aggression in Palestine. This author spent a small fortune acquainting members of Congress and political and industrial leaders in the United States with all these facts, supplying them with photostat reproductions of documentary evidence to support every statement made by this author.

If the Talmudist Jews of the world say they are willing to see another world war fought to establish God's chosen people in their promised land to rule the world from Palestine, then it is time to tell the grass roots of the United States population what all the excitement is about. This issue must be dragged into the light for the grass roots of the population of the United States to see why they are expected to die in a nuclear war with a smile on their face.

The time is growing late.... This author pleads with readers of this manuscript to purchase as many copies as their means will permit, to be circulated by them where they believe this information is needed and necessary. Sacrifice some little luxury, or even a necessity to purchase as many copies as possible. The truth contained in this manuscript can save America and the world. Let the readers resolve to put [this information] in the hands of every knowledgeable person of his acquaintance.

You have been listening to Jewish author Benjamin Freedman's manuscript The Hidden Tyranny, an expose of the covert power behind the facade of seven Presidents and administrations in this country.

On the last program, I mentioned the fact that Mr. Freedman constantly refers to members of the Jewish establishment as Talmudist Jews. He is undoubtedly drawing a distinction between those Jews like himself who reject the teachings of the Jewish holy book, the Talmud, and those who accept such teachings. I have only a few minutes left on the program today, so I haven't time for a full treatment of the subject which will have to wait for a future program, but Mr. Freedman explains himself fully on the matter in his 1954 book, Facts Are Facts. In essence, this second blockbuster by Mr. Freedman exposes the repugnant and anti-Gentile passages in this supposed holy book, the reverence of which is probably both a consequence and a cause of the aggressive mentality of organized Jewry. I will quote a few passages in a moment and some of them are shocking. Children and sensitive adults should turn off their radios now.

What is the Talmud? According to Rabbi Morris M. Kertzer "The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical, and historical writings of the ancient rabbis. ...It is a compendium of law and lore. It is the legal code which forms the basis of Jewish religious law and it is the textbook used in the training of rabbis."

The Talmud contains sanction of shocking sexual perversions. In Kethuboth 11a to 11b, the Talmud says:

When a grown up man has intercourse with a little girl, it is nothing, for when the girl is less than this [less than three years old] it is as if one puts the finger in the eye [tears come to the eyes again and again, so does virginity come back to the little girl under three years...] [Note: Items in brackets in Talmud extracts are notes in the original text. -- Ed.]

In the book Yebamoth 60b, the Talmud states:

There was a certain town in the land of Israel, the legitimacy of whose inhabitants was disputed, and Rabbi sent Rabbi Ramanos who conducted an enquiry and found in it the daughter of a proselyte who was under the age of three years and one day, and Rabbi declared her eligible to live with a priest, [and was married to a priest.]

That is one of many perverted passages. More than anything else, the shocking thing about the Talmud is its teaching of hatred toward all non-Jews. One passage even calls for the death of any Gentile who would read it or reveal its secrets. Benjamin Freedman's Facts Are Facts lists well over 100 anti-Gentile and anti-Christian passages in the Talmud, including accusations that non-Jews have sexual relations with animals; that only Jews are truly men while all other peoples are beasts in human form; that it is permitted to lie to us or kill us with impunity; that we exist only to serve the Chosen People; that our birth rate must be reduced materially; that we may not be saved by a Jew even if we are in danger of death; and that even the best among us should be killed.

The Talmud is truly a work of hatred. Strange indeed that it should come from a people whose leadership likes to pose as opponents of hatred as defined by them. Not so strange that Benjamin Freedman used the term Talmudist Jews to distinguish such persons from those Jews, like himself, who rejected the creed of the Talmud, from which poisoned soil grew Communism and Zionism.

ONE WONDERS WHAT IS THE PRICE PAID BY THE JEWS NOWADAYS FOR THE ROMANIAN TERRITORY???

WHAT CONTAINS THE NEW BALFOUR DECLARATION???

He who plays with the fire will get burned by the same fire !!!

top of page

Archived for Educational Purposes only Under U.S.C. Title 17 Section 107
by Jew Watch Library at www.jewwatch.com*COPYRIGHT NOTICE*