Mr. McMillan,

As President of the Junior League of Longview, it is my honor to write this letter of support for the City of Longview's pursuit of a cultural arts district designation. Over our 80 year history, the Junior League of Longview has seen the benefits that an emphasis on arts and culture has had on our East Texas community. We are proud to have founded the Longview Museum of Fine Arts and continue to support and encourage the arts in our community through organizations such as the Artsview Children's Theatre and the Longview World of Wonders children's museum. Here in the Piney Woods, we are proud of our vibrant culture of visual arts, performing arts, culinary arts and more.

Our nonprofit organization, as well as numerous others in the community, fully support the official designation and have worked hard over the years to ensure that Longview continues to be a cultural destination for our unique and diverse population in East Texas. As the Junior League of Longview strives to make a measurable impact in the community, we have learned over the years that some of the best ways to do this are through collaborations with other programs and organizations in our community. The ARTS!Longview Task Force has already done an amazing job connecting leaders across multiple sectors and has unified us with a common vision. The designation of Longview as a Cultural Arts District would reinforce the work that has already begun and strengthen our abilities to enhance the arts and culture in our community. Thank you for your consideration of Longview as a Cultural Arts District.

Respectfully,

Dear Jim Bob,

We are delighted to wholeheartedly support ARTS! Longview's application to the Texas Commission on the Arts to be designated a Cultural District! Our company has supported many arts and cultural events in Longview as sponsors, volunteers, and board members for 20+ years. Our community has a vibrant, hard working, and wide range of creative people who work diligently to hone their collective crafts. What an honor it would be to be recognized for all this hard work and open the door for so many more cultural opportunities for Longview!

We are excited about the new possibilities for Longview that this designation will encourage and inspire. There is no doubt that a Cultural District would benefit the arts and our overall economy, as well.

As a creative related business in Longview for over 20 years, we believe that supporting Longview's arts, history and culture is necessary for our community to continue to grow and encourage artists. We thank you for your consideration!

Sincerely,

Holly Forbes

Dear Jim Bob:

I am writing to you today regarding my interest in the Cultural Arts District designation for Longview, Texas. As a native of Longview, and a fourth generation resident of this City, I take great pride in Longview and East Texas. I have personally been involved in various arts groups for the last 35 years, and I am now very proud to see each of the various arts and culture organizations come together as one cohesive group. As the various arts groups work together, it will give a huge and synergistic boost to all of the organizations.

In addition to my previous Board memberships and financial contributions over the years, my firm, RBC Wealth Management, has made significant corporate and financial gifts in Longview. The RBC Foundation works hard to assist various non-profit groups in the cities in which we do business, and I can proudly say that we have made strong efforts in the areas of fine arts and in youth education.

Over the last twenty-one years that RBC Wealth Management has served the citizens of Longview, we have made financial contributions and grants to many organizations. A few of our past grant recipients have included the following: Longview Museum of Fine Arts, Gregg County Historical Museum, Longview Symphony League, Longview Ballet Theatre, Children's Theatre, and the Wonders of the World children's museum. Additionally, many of our employees are involved in the community and have given countless volunteer hours plus have made their own financial contributions. One of our Financial Advisors, Nancy Murray, has recently served as President of the Longview Museum of Fine Arts board, and is currently leading the task force for the Cultural Arts District designation.

Longview is a beautiful city, and we want to provide even more fine arts and cultural opportunities for our citizens and visitors. It would be such a tremendous asset to receive the Texas Commission on the Arts designation for Longview. Should you have any questions regarding Longview, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. McMillan,

This letter comes your way, expressing support of the designation of Longview, Texas as a Cultural Arts District. Personally, my family has supported the arts in Longview in many ways. Having served on boards and participation in many functions and events relating to the arts.

Professionally, I fully appreciate the arts offered in Longview and have witnessed a cultural shift in the growth and participation of East Texans in the many offerings of arts available. United Way seeks to improve lives in the community, and does so in a variety of ways. Incorporating the beauty of the arts is an essential part of improving lives. I am proud to live in Longview, and look forward to the designation of Longview, Texas ~ Cultural Arts District.

Thank you for your consideration.

Re: ARTS! Longview Cultural District Designation

Dear Mr. McMillan:

I would like to take this opportunity to offer my whole-hearted support to the ARTS! Longview application for designation as a cultural district.

As a local business owner involved with the visual arts, I know firsthand that Longview provides a vital and thriving cultural arts community through many sources including art, music, history, unique shopping opportunities, creative food and drink businesses, green spaces, local festivals and entertainment. It is also home to world class educational institutions such as LeTourneau University, The University of Texas at Tyler – Longview University Center and Kilgore College Longview Center. Through these venues Longview offers its residents, and the East Texas community, a wide array of high-quality cultural opportunities which are more than capable to support a cultural district designation. The designation will also provide fertile ground to promote tourism, attract new residents, and encourage new business to our city.

Longview will celebrate its Sesquicentennial Anniversary in 2020. The designation of ARTS! Longview as a Texas Cultural Arts District would be a fitting tribute to the City's first 150 years and a motivation for the next 150. Thank you in advance for your favorable consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

RE: Cultural Arts District designation for Longview, Texas

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in support of Longview, Texas' application to be designated a Cultural Arts District by the Texas Commission on the Arts. To that end, I am grateful for the foresight and vision of Arts!Longview and our Cultural District Task Force in pursuing this designation.

Having been reared in Longview and having spent the majority of my adult life as a resident of Longview, I have been privileged to observe, first-hand, the growth and expansion of the arts within our community and the unmistakable positive impact it has had on the quality of life of the citizens of Longview and surrounding areas.

As a representative of the largest banking organization headquartered in Longview, I am well aware of the positive impact that having a vibrant arts community has on our economy. Moreover, I can attest to the importance of cultural arts to the lives of both our employees and customers. Our bank has long been a proud financial supporter of the arts, but even more important has been the desire of our bankers to support the arts as both patrons and volunteers. Truly, support of the arts in Longview is one of the areas that consistently brings out a "passion for service" among our community bankers.

In conclusion, I heartily endorse and fully support Longview's application to receive a Cultural Arts District designation, and I, along with many others, look forward to enjoying the prosperity associated with the growth of the arts in Longview for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Rogers Pope, Jr.

Dear Mr. McMillan:

On behalf of the First United Methodist Church of Longview, it is my honor to write this letter of support for the City of Longview's application for the downtown's designation as a Cultural Arts District. Longview has many cultural events and activities that make it a cultural center for not only Longview, but also for entire this part of East Texas.

The First United Methodist Church, located in the heart of the area seeking this designation, has long contributed to this cultural focus. Our Music and Fine Arts Committee regularly brings in groups like Ballet Magnificat, The Aggie Singing Cadets, and the Annie Moses Band, among many other outstanding groups that add to our area's cultural offerings. The church additionally hosts Organ Concerts, Piano Recitals, Bach Lunches, and a host of other musical and fine arts productions that add to the cultural landscape of downtown Longview.

In addition to our efforts in this area, many different groups within the city have ramped up seasonal events and weekly offerings that enrich the cultural experience of a wide demographic in our area. Friday evening concerts, historical re-enactments, and many other theatrical and musical presentations augment an area growing with several new museums and art galleries appealing to all ages.

Having lived in places like Katy, Sugar Land, College Station, and Tyler, I personally find the Longview cultural offerings second to none. I highly commend their application with my enthusiastic personal support, as well as the communal support of our entire congregation.

Sincerely Yours,

Rev. Jay Jackson

Dear Mr. McMillan:

It is my honor to write you in support of the City of Longview's pursuit of a cultural arts district designation. We are proud of our company's strong heritage of service in our community. Eastman employees are known for contributing significant time and talent to organizations that make our city a better place to live; countless hours and resources have been given by Eastman folks to the numerous local organizations that fall into the arts category in Longview.

As a global company, we place a high priority on the quality of life available for citizens in any city where we do business, not only for our current employees but also to be able to attract high-caliber talent.

We know that a wide array of cultural offerings and programs is an integral component to any thriving city, and this cultural arts district designation will unify and enhance Longview's position as a true arts designation in our state.

Dear Arts Longview,

I am Chandalyn Lewis-Jenkins, one of the Cultural Activities Advisory Commissioner (CAAC), and I am writing this letter to express my full support for the submittal for a Cultural District designation to the Texas Commission on the Arts (TCA). Longview is a rapidly growing city intertwined with the arts that is moving at an unparalleled momentum. A designated cultural district would only excel this growth even more and the city is ready for it.

As a Cultural Activities Advisory Commissioner for the past 2 years, I get the opportunity to work hand in hand with our local artists and performance groups during their presentations and what they are able to provide to our city. It is so worthwhile to hear of all the hard work that these artists do. Therefore the cultural district will be able to foster our local cultural development by bringing a focal point for celebrating and strengthening our cultural identity. In addition, it will be able to further highlight our existing sceneries and work on recruiting and establishing new artists, cultural industries and organizations just to name a few. Without a doubt a designated cultural district would only transcend the city to greater heights and beyond.

I appreciate your time, work and dedication that does not go unnoticed and I fully support you all to the end.

Warmest Regards,

Dear Arts Longview,

My family and I are enthusiastic supporters of the Arts Longview grant application to the Texas Commission on the Arts for a Cultural District designation for the city of Longview.

I've witnessed the importance of the arts and historical preservation as a lifelong resident and long-term supporter of organizations such as the Longview Symphony; the Gregg County Historical Museum; and Preservation Longview. These organizations represent a small sample of those embracing the area culture; educating generations, young and old; and preserving legacies for generations to come.

My parents, Robert and Pauline Cargill, were pioneers in promoting the city of Longview. My husband, Charles, and I continue our support of my home town and the efforts to achieve the sought-after Cultural District designation.

The Longview Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is honored to support Arts Longview's grant application to the Commission of the Arts for a Cultural Designation for our city. As Longview continues its growth, Arts Longview will be able to enhance worthwhile cultural endeavors and artist through various activities. This designation would help in the revitalization within the city. Artists, cultural institutions and creative enterprises, as you well now, all contribute to a community's economic potential. Not only do they generate direct economic activity, but artists and creative entrepreneurs infuse communities with energy and innovation.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. supports arts as a national sorority initiative and encourages all chapters to embrace the ongoing commitments of their local cities as vital support. Our chapter was established in Longview in 1972, 47 years ago and has witnessed the positive impact on various levels. As visitors and organizations travel to take part in the attractions from the performing arts to fine art, a Cultural District designation would surely accelerate what has already begun.

Your dedicated and excellence in the Arts in Longview is appreciated and continue our support.

Dear Mr. McMillan,

It is with high regard that the East Texas Builders Association expresses support for the City of Longview to create a Cultural District. We are proud of the wonderful community services, amenities and entertainment that Longview currently offers- Longview Symphony, World of Wonder, Arts View Children's Theater, Gregg County Historical Museum, Longview Museum of Fine Arts, East Texas Symphonic Band, Longview Ballet Theater and Theater Longview.

Our organization represents the local building industry and we have been affiliated with the Texas Association of Builders and the National Association of Home Builders for 65 years. The Cultural District designation will make our City more appealing to families; therefore, current residents stay and new families move into our area. This residential retention and new growth generates a demand for housing.

If Longview's application is approved, the additional funding that our area would receive will better serve our Arts and Cultural organizations. The designation would provide an opportunity for Longview to improve tourism. We recognize that all improvements would have a tremendously positive impact on our local economic development and the local home building industry.

Thank you kindly for your consideration of designating the City of Longview as a Cultural District.

To the committee members of Arts! Longview,

As a resident of Longview and a member of the Cultural Arts Advisory Commission, I am proud to support the development of arts in Longview and the arts district in Longview. The arts district in Longview will help distinguish Longview and its personality and character as well as aid the city in developing growth.

Although I am a relatively new citizen of Longview, the desire to continually seek to better our small city is extremely evident to me. The continual work of self-improvement is demonstrated by the hard work of so many arts organizations from visual, to performing, to the many museums we are blessed with. But more so, it is evident to me by the desire to work together on the arts district project to be a unified and organized force for change, art, and culture in Longview.

I believe that the arts district in Longview will allow people beyond East Texas to know what we already know; Longview is a wonderful place to live, learn, and love.

Dear Arts! Longview,

As a small business owner of Tejas Hydraulics, Inc., member of the City of Longview Cultural Activities Advisory Commission, and patron of the arts, I am proud to support Arts! Longview and the application process for a Cultural Arts District Designation with the Texas Commission of the Arts.

I am so thankful to Arts Longview! and the amazing group of people and organizations that are helping set the standard for arts excellence in our community. I see its impact in a multitude of ways, from the diverse arts opportunities offered weekly for our community, to an overall climate and culture that breathes of art influences.

Being distinguished as a cultural arts district would ensure that Longview's art climate and culture would continue to thrive. It would also serve as a driving force and hub for economic development. It has been so exciting to see the downtown area and businesses gaining momentum, offering space for area musicians, artists, writers, and events to flourish. With such a cultural arts distinction, restaurants, shops, and living accommodations will no doubt prosper in the area.

Not only will the area zoned prosper, but I also see additional areas of Longview being impacted positively by these cultural arts influences. Tejas Hydraulics Inc.'s newest neighbors, The Green and Longview Arboretum Nature Center, are in the process of transforming a recently vacated building and developing the surrounding land into an oasis where various artists' touches will be on display and cultural art events will be held. My business recently commissioned local artist, Charles Arnold, to repurpose various old tools into a sculpture, soon to be debuted, on our front lawn. These are just a couple of examples of how the arts are already being incorporated into our community, businesses and city. This will only grow.

To acquire a cultural arts district designation would not only enhance this resurgence but also establish permanence and a continued commitment to the growth of the arts and economic development in Longview and East Texas. Thank you for initiating this vital next move for our city.

Sincerely,

Angela Wright

In my opinion, having a potential Longview Cultural Arts District would definitely help me appreciate the arts more and meet new people due to it boosting the local tourism in Longview.

Having the Longview Arts District can stimulate the economic development along with building the community revitalization in which it will be a great thing for the land value and the places around it.

It can and will build a sense of pride for the citizens of Longview, Texas.

That is my story and I am sticking to it.
