SO ANYWAY

Lyrics by BRIAN YORKEY

Music by TOM KITT

Ballad, colla voce \( (j = 72) \)

\[ \text{Diana: } \frac{p}{N.C.} \]

So any-way, I'm leav-ing.
I thought you'd like to know.
You're faith-ful, come what may.
But clear-ly I can't stay,
We'd both go mad that way.
So here I go.

Expressive, heartfelt, somewhat free \( (j = 112) \)

And any-way, I'm leav-ing.
I guess that you can
Asus     A2     A     D(9)     D
I'll try this on my own. A life I've never

E7sus    E7     E5/F#    F4m     D     E7/D    D(9)    E7/D known. I'll face the dread alone... but I'll be free.

D     E/D     D(9)      Bm9 freely     a tempo
With you always beside me

mf     rit.

D/E     E     D/E     E
to catch me when I fall, I'd never get to know. the feel of solid ground at all.

With you always believing that we can still come through, it makes me feel the fool to know that it's not true. What a tempo, cresc. poco a poco doctors call dysfunction, we tried to call romance. And true it's quite a trick to tell the mp a tempo, cresc. poco a poco dancers from the dance. But rather than let chance take me, I'll take a

D(9) E7/D

a tempo, flowing

D(9) E7/D D(9) E7/D

D(9) E7/D

D(9) freely mp

I'll take a chance on leaving.

p colla voce

E/D

it's that or stay and I loved you once, and though you love me still, I know it's time for me to fly... I loved you once, and though I love you still, I know it's time for me to go... and so goodbye...