I feel like you just don't want to date someone who had to have an abortion and that hurts too

I wish we were both stronger right now.
Bye

And I really do love you. I've never been lying

And was your concern this morning just that I might be the one leaving you? I just wish I understood better so I wasn't reduced to acting childishly. i apologize for that. Please contact me if you cool off and think there is anything between us. I understand that right now is super tough and emotional and I at least have said some things I do not mean to you. I won't send you more texts.
