any 2020-related shenanigans, make certain that you take some time to map out your ideal audience with this giveaway. Understand that while you could have multiple target audiences for your company, that doesn't mean that you need to own multiple targeted audiences for your giveaway. For instance, while your product may interest both young moms looking for gifts for their 4-6 year olds and 80+ grandparents looking for gifts for their teenage grandchildren, you can have wildly different advertising approaches for both.
