

Mai's semi-approved
Guide for

Game version: 1.4u
Guide version: 1.0

Disclaimer:

This is not an official guide. The opinions and ideas expressed here are strictly my own, and do not reflect the thoughts of the game's creators.

I am writing this guide for completion of the game from start to finish, as well as for people to easily find particular moments they could be stuck at. Don't hesitate to Ctrl+F to whatever section you may need. At the end of the document you may find all scenes by girl so you may check which parts you may be missing. The descriptions can be a bit vague, as I don't want to spoil the scenes, whenever possible.

If you found any inconsistencies or errors, please contact me on my Discord Aradeid#8183. If you have a question about things not present in the guide, you're better off contacting the dev through their official Discord at <https://discord.gg/uVMyzFN8Vg>

So let's get started:

The first choice

Choosing NO will lead you to the same screen just with 100k bucks in your pocket. While this may help you out, you will miss out on a big part of this game's experience. The grind in this game is very minor, and is accompanied by a ton of adorable ero-CGs, so choosing YES is highly advised.

And so it begins:

In case you skipped through the entire intro, you are ~~the Red Devil of Mondstadt~~ Klee and you really love to do pranks, especially on Jean, but the harsh reality is that you cannot get anywhere without money, even as a 10(?) year old child. Luckily this friendly, not-at-all-suspicious old man named Dion will pay good buck if you simply take pictures of your friends. So nice of him!

The Eternal Grind:

As the impressionable kid we are, we do as we're told. Go take some pictures for Dion until you have about 100 ~~dollars~~ mora. Don't worry about the slow cash flow, you will eventually get better sources of income.

Skipping:

You can speed things up by holding Ctrl on your keyboard, to skip through dialogue, although that only affects already seen dialogue, which is very limited at the start.

If you want to speed things up even more, you can enable Skip Unseen Text in your settings, but that is not recommended, as you may accidentally skip all the game's content.

PRANK TIME

Poster Paper:

It is time we visit Hu Tao or Hooty, and buy our first tool, Poster Paper.

With the new item in hand, we can go for Jean with

Move to Area -> Grandmaster's Office

Now choose the Funny Pictures Prank from the list.

Don't worry about the other pranks, you cannot play them until you have the corresponding item.

Now you can enjoy destroying Grandmaster Jean's public appearance.

Prank Success!

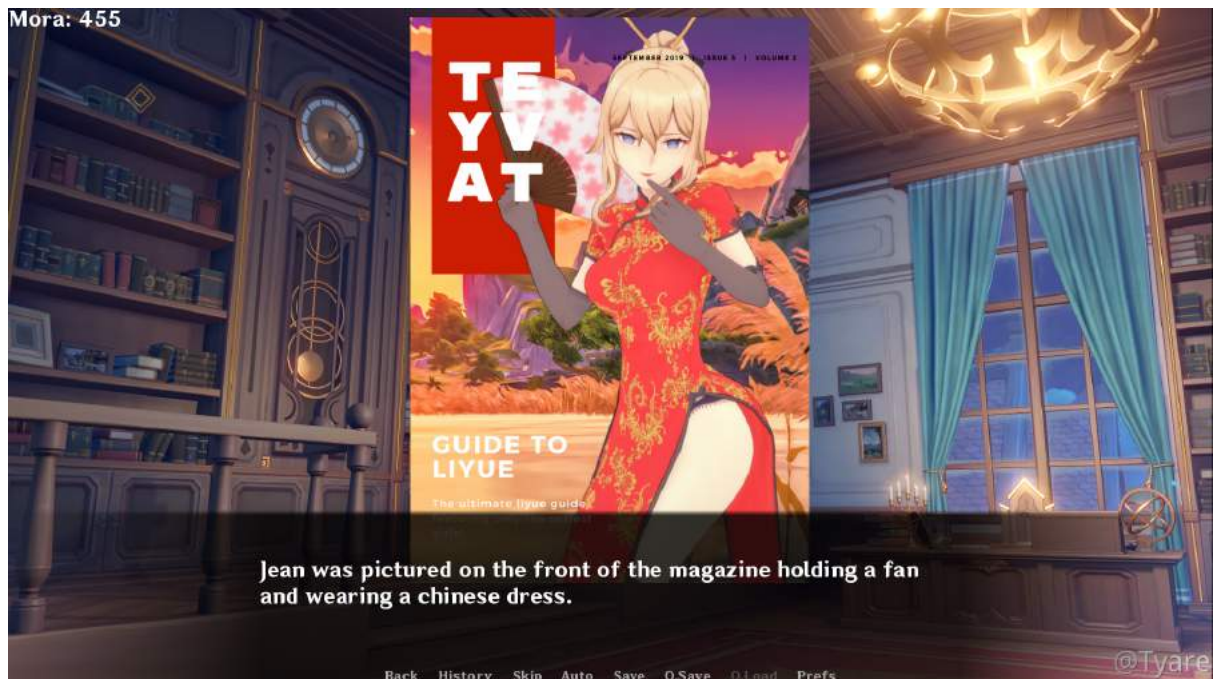

Teyvat Travel Guide 1:

(How to find: This event randomly appears during photoshoots, after you do the Poster Paper prank)

After grinding for some more mora, you will likely encounter this young man. He is looking for models for his magazine. As the good samaritan we are, we recommend the best person we know of, Jean. Oh he even gives us 200 bucks, funding our next prank.

Teyvat Travel Guide 1 continuation:

(How to find: Visit Jean's office after meeting the young man)

Time to discover what came off that photoshoot. Go visit Jean in her office.

I recommend SAVING here as this event is not repeatable.

Make Jean Sneeze:

Just like with Poster Paper, we head for Hooty, buy a Step Ladder, and select the prank in Jean's office. While doing our prank we discover some weird sounds coming from the Cathedral, I wonder what that's all about. Well, for now we continue shamelessly degrading Jean in public.

With this prank, we also get access to a much more lucrative grinding spot, Shower Room and Private Areas. Grind here for the next prank if needed. You also get access to Barbara.

Buy Strong Booze:

When you have 500 mora, you should buy some alcohol from dear Hooty. But would you look at that, even she isn't irresponsible enough to sell booze to a kid. We should definitely ask Lisa for help. We should visit her immediately

Move to Area -> Library

Oh no, Lisa too needs some help. This small purchase is becoming an RPG fetch quest. But at least you learn about the Comfy Room.

Time to do Lisa's part of the quest. Time to visit Jean again. Jean didn't fall for the bait, we'll have to inform Lisa. Looks like Lisa was not ready for our visit, but Klee is not known for her tact, so we immediately visit Lisa again, and ask her about the booze. Fetch quest complete, and we can now visit Lisa whenever we want.

Drunk as a Skunk:

Now we can finally buy our alcohol, and prank Jean. Purchase your prank booze, time to prank the grandmaster! Enjoy the mixer gone wrong gone sexual!

Drunk as a Skunk continuation:

Randomly when you visit Jean, after completing Drunk as a Skunk, you may encounter a random event.

I believe this is not rewatchable, so you may wanna save, if you want to see it again someday. Oh hey, we get a free outfit out of this!

Barbara's Secrets:

Mora: 140

No Barbara in this one sadly. Hope you weren't too hyped for this prank.

Grind for some mora, if needed. You will need 550 for the next tool.

As always buy the diary, choose the prank in Jean's office.

Looks like this one did not go according to keikaku. Prank successful anyway, I guess?

Barbara's Secrets continuation:

Mora: 340

After clearing the Barbara's Secrets prank, while taking pictures in the second area, you may encounter a polaroid-less event, where Klee complains about not seeing Jean when she was supposed to show up. As a concerned citizen, we visit Jean to see if she's ok. This event does not develop the story, but at least you get to see your player character for once.

Mystery Potion:

Mora: 70

You know the rules 🎵 And so do I 🎵
Grind for some mora, until you hit 600.

We buy the Mystery Potion to discover it is unfinished. What a scam.
It is time to visit the newly unlocked Sucrose and ask for her help.
Head for Move to Area -> Mondstadt Central -> Alchemy Bench

Sucrose is nice enough to fix the potion for free, even providing us with fanservice in the process. With the potion ready, we immediately feed it to Jean, by choosing the Potion prank.

Then we visit her again, to see the fruits of our labor. It seems like Jean hit puberty for a second time.

Mystery Potion continuation:

We can now visit Dion through to see the conclusion of this prank.

Move to Area -> Outskirts -> Dion's House

Looks like our favourite old man has finally been rewarded for all the money he has invested in us. He even paid us some extra, what a great guy!

Hole in the Wall:

We photograph our way to 650 mora and buy the Debate Club. Time to bring Klee's destructive power to a new level, and break a literal hole in the wall. We choose the corresponding prank in Jean's office, and now we can finally scratch the "stuck girl" spot from our fetish bingo card for this game.

From completing this prank, we now have access to the most lucrative photo spot, Dion's Recommendations. You can now fill your pokedex- I mean photo album completely!

Jean's Phone Prank:

From clearing Barbara's Secrets you will gain access to Jean's phone, which can be found when visiting her office.

Here you can check Jean's photo gallery or discover her solo adventures through text messages.

After clearing the Hole in the Wall prank, you may also write a message for a new prank.

The game specifically checks whether Dion's Recommendation has been unlocked, so you have to take at least one random picture to access this.

At Jean's office -> Check Jean's Phone -> Send a Message

Now we visit Jean again, check her phone, and read Message 3.

Here comes the hardest part, we grind Dion's Recommendation until we get a full on scene with Jean. This event is repeatable and can be encountered more than once.

Hilichurl Bait:

Mora: 175

After completing Barbara's Secrets you may wanna visit and talk to Dion for a special event.

Move to Area -> Outskirts -> Dion's House

And from the title you may have guessed, the hilichurl are finally getting some action as well. Our new destination is

Move to Area -> Outskirts -> Mondstadt Outskirts

Bait has been set, now we go and report Dion.

Don't worry about your next choice, you can replay the event and see both outcomes.

To see it again just go

Move to Area -> Outskirts -> Outrider Camp -> Use the Hilichurl Bait

This quest gives us access to the hot springs.

Help Lisa Prank Jean:

Mora: 175

As per Lisa's request, we take pictures in Shower Room and Private Areas until we encounter a cutscene.

Now that we have met Mona, we should immediately see her at

Move to Area -> Mondstadt Central -> Mona's Cottage

We talk to her about Lisa, and then visit Lisa again. May the prank commence.

Lisa tells us to not visit the comfy room, but we just got access to it, so you know what comes next

Move to Area -> Library -> Comfy Room

Comfy Room:

Mora: 230

Just visit the Comfy Room and there's quite a few random scenes you may encounter.

As of 1.3 you may find

- A very relaxed traveler
- A very relaxed Eula
- Jean and Lisa hanging out together some more
- A free costume for Lisa + a Naku Weed needed for potions

Help Mona Make Mora:

Not repeatable. Save to replay.

Visit Mona and talk to her about making mora.

It is time to be a nice person, and help our friend in need.

And how else can we help her besides asking the one loaded guy we know.

It is time to visit Dion.

Visit Mona again.

Help Mona Make MORE Mora:

(Requires clearing Mona's previous quest as well as the Hole in the Wall prank)

Not repeatable. Save to replay.

We visit Mona again, and ask her about making mora.

Since she is asking so nicely, we have to indulge her!

Talk to Dion again.

Now go to Hooty, and pick up her Parcel

Back to Mona we go!

Enjoy the event. You will receive a new costume for her too!

Send Mona to Make Mora:

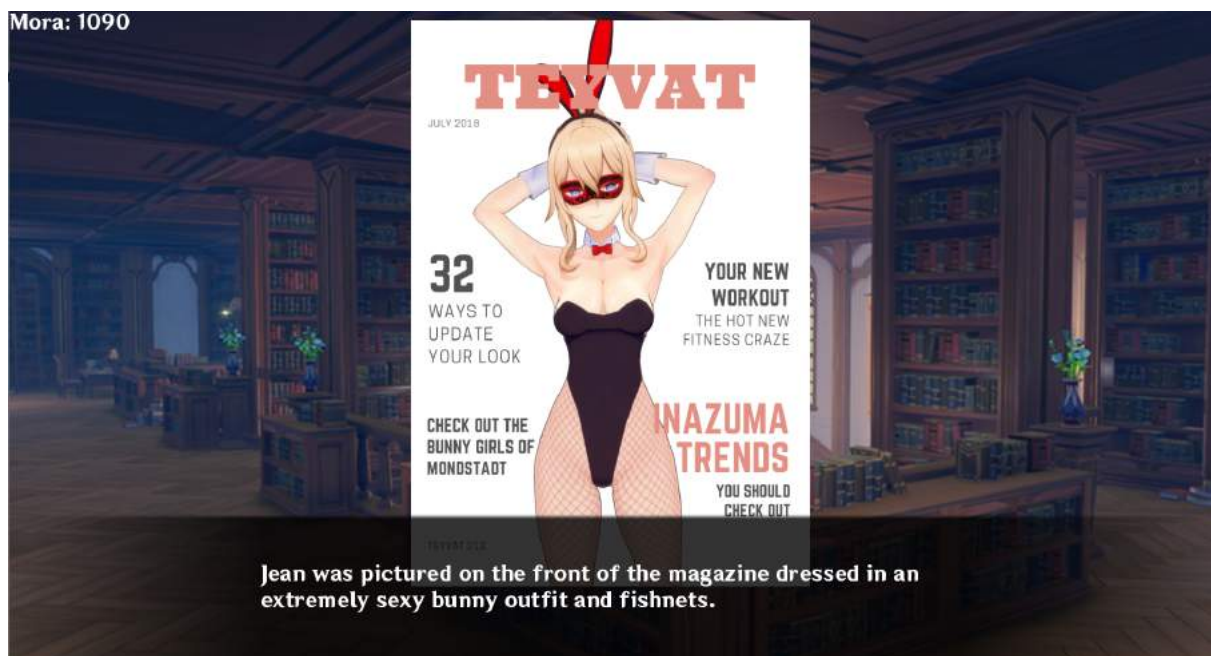

Not repeatable. Save to replay.

We visit Mona again, and see a new dialogue option. Send her to make more mora.

Teyvat Travel Guide 2:

After establishing a source of income for Mona (clearing Help Mona Make More Mora), you may now visit Jean for a new photoshoot event.

To see the results of your hard work, simply visit Lisa in the library.

Cathedral Peephole:

(requires clearing the Make Jean Sneeze prank)

It is time we investigate the strange sounds from the wall!

Buy the Drill from Hooty for 300. Grind for mora if needed.

The Drill is in Junk as opposed to your usual Prank Tools.

Ask Barbara about the strange noises to get her flustered

Move to Area -> Mondstadt Central -> Cathedral -> Cathedral -> Ask about the strange noise

Barbara is not very helpful but this conversation is required.

Time to visit the wall.

Move to Area -> Mondstadt Central -> Cathedral -> Cathedral Wall

Now we visit the wall again, to finally learn the truth! The wall is now called a Peephole btw.

We visit the wall 4 more times, until we are busted. It's a new scene every time though.

You can rewatch them all later by visiting the Peephole after getting discovered.

This event unlocks Rosaria.

Teyvat Travel Guide 3:

After getting busted by Rosaria in the Cathedral Peephole questline, you want to visit the cathedral itself. If you see Barbara, leave and come again. The odds of seeing Rosaria are only 50%. If you immediately see boobs, you're at the right place.

Alchemy bench:

From the Mystery Potion quest, we now have access to the Alchemy Bench via:

Move to Area -> Mondstadt Central -> Alchemy Bench

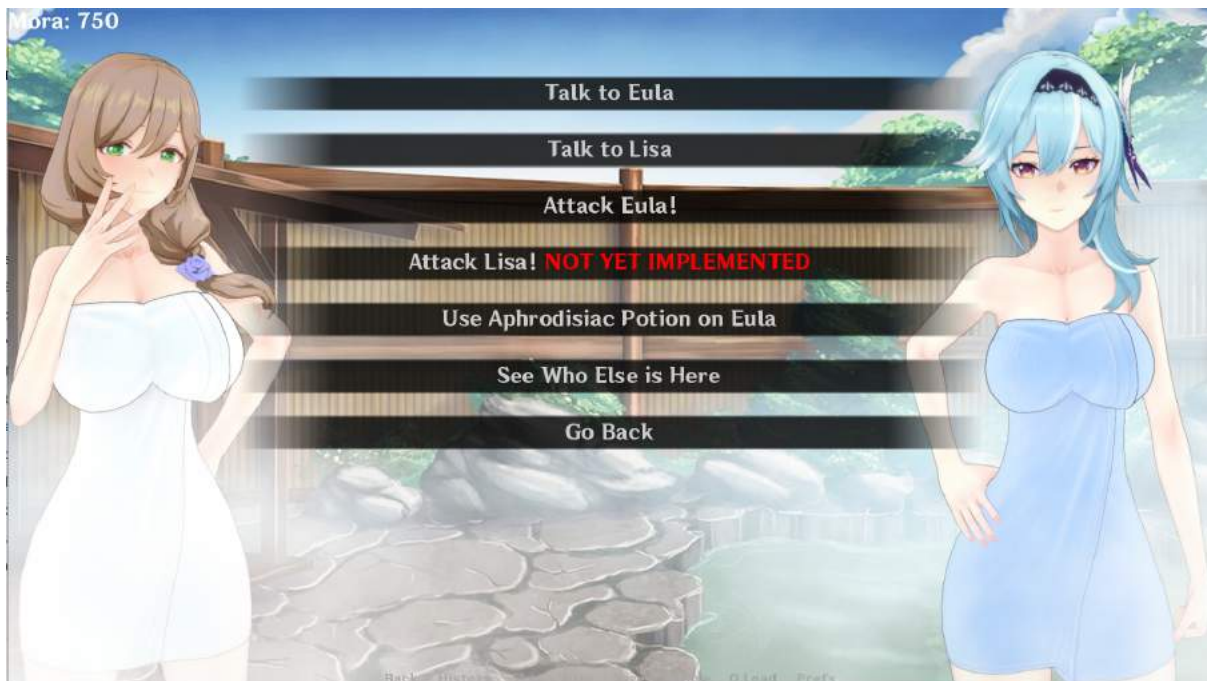

Here you can make potions, well... only one potion, as far as 1.4 goes.

The Aphrodisiac Potion requires the Naku Weed (which you can randomly find in Lisa's Comfy Room). You also need 300 bucks, but you should already have those if you followed the guide, otherwise it's grind time for you.

You make the potion. Sucrose being the nice girl she is, lets you test the potion on herself.

You may now use this potion on Lisa in her Library and on Eula in the Hot Springs.

Hot springs:

If you helped Dion with his Hilchurl Bait experiment, you now have access to the Hot Springs, by using:

Move to Area -> Outskirts -> Hot Spring

This is the most sandbox-y area of the game. On every visit you get a random ASSortment of 2 girls. By pressing See Who Else is Here, you can cycle through all girls and find whoever your victim for tonight is.

I recommend testing out all options for each girl. For Jean even her talk has some fanservices, and maybe future versions will let you lewd other girls too just by holding a conversation.

Below you can see the list of all girls you can find here and what exactly is available to them.

Lisa:

- Talk

Eula:

- Talk
- Attack
- Aphrodisiac Potion (if you made one at Alchemy Bench)

Amber:

- Talk
- Attack

Mona:

- Talk
- Attack

Hu Tao:

- Talk
- Attack

Jean:

- Talk (horny)

- Prank
 - Steal clothes

Noelle:

- Talk
- Attack

Fischl:

- Talk
- Just talk, can't lewd Fischl 😞

Rosaria:

- Talk
- Cry, because Rosaria is immune to your actions

Sucrose:

- Talk
- Attack

Special polaroids:

There are certain polaroids that can only be obtained outside of Take Pictures for Dion.

Currently these polaroids are:

- Talk to Mona in her default outfit
- Talk to Barbara in her default outfit
- Visit Jean after the Barbara's Secrets prank, there's a random 20% chance to see a special event that will net you a polaroid

End of the line:

These are all the quests you can see in version 1.4

So what now you ask? There's all the costumes for the girls. You can see the details in the Girls section. There's some random scenes that may trigger once you've progressed enough on certain questlines. You can also complete the whole photo album. Check with Dion to see your progress.

Support the creator on Patreon, discuss the game on F95, or on Discord.

Random events that didn't fit anywhere:

After completing Help Mona Make MORE Mora when visiting Mona, you may see her being hard at work.

When visiting Lisa in the Library you may encounter Fischl for a short scene. Not sure what unlocks this one. Definitely available after Help Lisa Prank Jean is complete.

All choices from giving clothes can be repeated so you can see all outcomes when there is an option.

Chatting with girls results in a different event for each outfit. Some or even erotic, like Lisa's slutty witch outfit, or Barbara's default outfit.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ):

Q: I bought the photo album very late. Do I have to rediscover all the polaroids?

A: No, the polaroids are registered whether or not you own the album, but you can only review them after buying it.

Q: I have followed the guide to a T, how come I cannot access some of the content?

A: Are you using a save file from an older version? Some content requires a brand new save file to trigger correctly. You'll have to restart from a new game.

Q: How do I access a random event? I have completed all the requirements, I keep visiting the location, but nothing happens.

A: Take a few pictures. Some "time" needs to pass for events to happen.
