

PROVEN FRAUD OF LEONARD McQUOWN

On March 2, 2014 McQuown posted screenshots of a “donation” he made in the amount of $250.00 to Raven’s Outreach, non-profit organization created to provide housing for homeless Veterans. Less than 2 hours after his paypal donation was made he requested a refund of his donation and to date has NOT rectified the situation nor made good on his donation.

Raven's Outreach Center for Homeless Veterans

March 19, 2014

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in response to the many inquiries relative to an alleged donation of $250.00 made to Ravens Outreach Center by Leonard Mccquown. On March 2, 2014, Raven's Outreach received an email from PayPal Customer Support advising Mr. Leonard Mcquown contacted them about the money he sent and requested a refund for personal reasons. Within hours of Mr. Mcquown's alleged donation posting, he intern went back in to his account and requested a refund. He is using a screen print showing a confirmed donation. However, after printing confirmation of donation, he circled back to request refund.

The screen prints of Ravens Outreach Center's PayPal email whereby he requested a refund for personal reasons dated March 2, 2014 as well as the screen print of the cancellation posted on Raven's Outreach Center's PayPal account dated March 2, 2014 are posted on Face Book.

Today, I voluntarily took part in an interview conducted by WBRZ News to further reiterate that Mr. Mcquown support of homeless veterans at Ravens Outreach Center is a Scam.

I appreciate those of you who do invest in our Organization and in the veterans we serve. Because of your generosity, we can continue to serve these heroes who never asked for our recognition or gratitude and served so unselfishly.

Respectfully,

Michelle Scott
