

New Year Serves Up News Of New 'T' Service For Navy Yard

After years of journeying, local elected officials and community representatives appear to have reached their destination for Charlestown Navy Yard bus service. Rep. Richard Voke, Sen. Thomas Birmingham, Councillor

Diane Modica, Charlestown Neighborhood Council Chairman Peter Looney and MBTA General Manager John Haley have announced that buses will be rolling through the Navy Yard this spring. "This is great news for residents of the Navy Yard and all of Charlestown. I certainly expect our victory in extending this bus service will make the Navy Yard more like a neighborhood for residents, more employee friendly for workers, more resource accessible for visitors and more travel efficient for our regional transportation network," stated Voke. "Extending service to the Navy Yard has certainly been a top priority of ours," said Birmingham. "I am pleased the T has finally concurred with our long-stated arguments as to why such service is so vital for local residents."

Modica stated, "As chairperson of the council's Committee on Commerce and Transportation, I am pleased that the public hearings held in Charlestown gave the residents an opportunity to make their case for expanded bus service to the MBTA." She added, "This service is long overdue and will serve to improve the transportation network for Charlestown residents and workers."

According to a T source, ridership levels will be the key to increasing further service to and from the Navy Yard. Echoing this, Voke said, "The more people ride, the more service we can hope to receive."

Added Birmingham, "We will continue to press for additional service, but ridership will be the real key to future service expansion."

According to the T's Haley, a limited number of trips along First Avenue within the Navy Yard will be added to the 93 Route beginning sometime in the spring. The T expects to have four trips from Haymarket in the morning rush, six round-trips during the day, and then five trips heading to Haymarket in the evening. "We believe that this (schedule) will provide the employers with the service they desire, as well as meet the needs of the elderly who wish to get out during the day. Also, it should not disrupt the commuting patterns of the many residents of Charlestown who rely on Route 93, in its present configuration, to get to work," communicated Haley to Charlestown's elected officials.

The exact trips which go into the Navy Yard are expected to be listed on the T's spring schedule card for the 93 bus. Those schedules will be available several weeks before the new service starts.

Calling All Hillbillies!

A PINT of Lady Borden Ice Cream is enjoyed by Arthur "Six Foot" Dowd, a member of the Bunker Hillbillies, who is shown in this 1947 photograph... And, do you know why he was called Six Foot? It was because he was four feet tall and had one foot in each shoe!

On Friday, Jan. 13 at 7 p.m., a group of former Bunker Hillbillies will be rehearsing at "Old Sully's" on Union Street, in preparation for their performance at the annual Boys Club Reunion.

At this year's reunion, to be held on Saturday, Jan. 21 at 7 p.m., the Boys Club Alumni Committee will be paying tribute to Bob Munstedt, founder and leader of the Bunker Hillbillies.

Former Hillbillies planning on attending the reunion who would be interested in performing in the evening's activities, should attend the rehearsal on Jan. 13 or contact Kevin Kelly at 241-0986.

'Children's Polar Bear Concert' With Kevin Devine At The BPL

Youngsters are invited to wake up their hibernating Teddy Bears and celebrate the wonder of winter with Boston musician Kevin Devine at a rollicking "Children's Polar Bear Concert" in the Rabb Lecture Hall of the Central Library in Copley Square on Saturday, Jan. 21 at 10:30 a.m.

Sing and clap to a wide-ranging selection of children's classics and international folksongs about snowflakes, frosty nights and rosy noses. Devine's accordion playing has been known to wake up even the coziest hibernating Teddy Bear.

Devine is a children's entertainer, recording artist and music educator, specializing in participatory music for children and families. In addition to regularly performing for youngsters at branch libraries throughout the Boston area, community centers and schools, the popular entertainer conducts weekly music programs for preschool children throughout eastern Mass. and southern N.H.

The concert is intended for children, preschool to age 7 and their caregivers. It is open to the public free of charge and groups are welcome without reservations, although seating is limited. FM assistive listening receivers are available for hard-of-hearing children.

For additional information, call 536-5400 ext. 328.

Charlestown Boys Club Annual Alumni Reunion To Be Held On Jan. 21

On Saturday evening, Jan. 21, the Alumni Committee of the old Charlestown Boys Club will hold the seventh renewal of its annual reunion. The event will be conducted, once again, at the High Street building, formerly known as the Charlestown Girls Club.

Since 1989, more than 200 former members have gathered annually at the reunion to meet with old friends and to relive boyhood memories.

In each of the past years, a former member has been recognized by the Alumni Committee for his contributions to the organization.

This year, however, the criteria for an awardee has been slightly altered so that a man who dedicated his life's work to the betterment of the Charlestown Boys Club might be recognized.

Bob Munstedt, founder and director of the Bunker Hillbillies, will be honored at the January gathering for his many years of service and for his dedication to the youth of the Charlestown community.

Several former Hillbillies, many of whom have become prominent in the world of entertainment, have agreed to perform as part of the evening's festivities.

Any former Hillbilly who might be interested in being part of the entertainment is asked to contact Kevin Kelly at 241-0986.

In addition to the entertainment, a sandwich buffet and a cash bar will be available. Tickets are nominally priced at $10 per person and can be purchased in advance by calling Club Director Jerry Steimel at 242-1775, or by contacting a member of the Alumni Committee. Tickets may also be purchased at the door on Saturday night, Jan. 21.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

When an agent begins to work with a new set of buyers, he or she will sit down, ask a lot of questions and do a lot of listening. In the initial buyer interview, we try to get a clear idea of what you are looking for as well as the approximate price range, considering your overall financial picture. The agent will do some talking, too, explaining how we work, the representation process, the local market and what we can do to help you locate that perfect home.

At this initial interview, it's important for buyers to be as clear as possible about their needs. When an agent has calculated what you can afford, he or she won't show you homes you might love but that are way out of your price range. If he or she knows that you have bad knees and want to avoid stairs, he or she won't take you through three-story colonials with top floor master suites. Promoting clear communication with our customers is good business for us, and it can save you hours of house hunting.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Monument Properties. Come by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

"Hearts in Bloom" is an opportunity for businesses to get involved with the AHA's efforts to save lives. Eastern Connection, an overnight delivery service will help sponsor this event through a commitment of dollars and delivery services. Thanks to the generosity of employees in companies all across the commonwealth, "Hearts in Bloom" has raised more than $600,000 over the past nine years to fund vital research at world-renowned medical centers right here in Mass. These funds are also used to teach school children how to prevent heart disease and to support a variety of community-based programs including smoking cessation, nutrition and CPR training.

★ State Of The City Address . . .

The mayor's address will focus on the role of public-private partnerships in city government and their effectiveness in achieving common goals for the city.

★ Child Focus Center Opening . . .

The Child Focus Center, a progressive preschool, will hold an Open House at noon on Thursday, Jan. 19. The center is a subsidiary of the Life Focus Center Inc. in collaboration with Bunker Hill Community College.

The opening ceremony will take place in Room E-234 at Bunker Hill Community College.

All are welcome to attend. Please reply by calling 241-5464.

★ CHAD Meeting . . .

Charlestown Against Drugs (CHAD) will meet at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 24 at the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club, 15 Green St.

All are welcome to attend.

★ Board Of Appeal Hearing . . .

The city of Boston Board of Appeal held a hearing on Jan. 10 at Boston City Hall to hear the petition of Keith Swan and Amy Hosford-Swan to change the legal occupancy of 49 Elm St. from a two-family to a three-family dwelling and to seek permission to construct a roof deck.

The petitioners did not appear at the hearing and the board denied the appeal without prejudice.

★ Police Community Relations/CNC Public Safety Meeting . . .

Area A of the Boston Police Department Community Service Officer Bill Smith and members of the CNC Public Safety committee met with residents on Jan. 10 at Bishop Lawton Hall.

The attendance was about double that of last month with the presence of members of the Charlestown After Murder Program (CHAMP).

Some of the same problems brought up last month were at the forefront this month.

CNC committee member John Dillon once again related the problems caused by cars parking in the rotary at Sullivan Square impeding the vision of motorists in the rotary. Officer Smith said that this problem should be resolved within a couple of weeks as the rotary will be posted for "no parking" and vehicles in violation will be tagged.

Residents also asked if a stop sign could be installed where the ineffectual yield sign now stands to direct vehicles coming from Everett into the Sullivan Square area. Smith stated that the yield sign was correct for that area of roadway.

The area around the C.R. Edwards School was discussed. Residents noted that the sensor lights in the rear of the school were better than nothing but many felt better lighting would decrease the activity around the building, particularly in the "pit." Principal Charles McAfee was going to be contacted and this issue discussed with him.

Dillon mentioned that officers taking their calls for three to four hours in one area resulted in a decrease in criminal activity at that site. He suggested that such a procedure might be utilized in the vicinity of the Edwards School.

Complaints of commuters parking in the town and taking the bus led to the advantages of resident parking. While commuter parking is most often thought of in the City and Thompson squares area, Committee member Bill McCabe related stories of commuters circling the blocks off Bunker Hill Street seeking parking. It was noted that CNC meetings, beginning with Precinct One, get underway at the end of this month focusing on resident parking. This may not be the ideal means of solving parking problems for all as the vehicle must be registered in Charlestown.

Complaints continue on speeding, particularly on Main and Bunker Hill streets. Committee member Edna Kelly told of the difficulty pedestrians have in crossing Main Street at Thompson Square, especially with motorists failing to abide by the stop sign at Main and Austin streets.

A suggestion at the meeting by Officer Smith was that residents who have found a breaking and entering at their property should request that an officer visit the scene and not just report the incident on the telephone.

★ Recycling In Boston . . .

The Boston Public Works Department Curbside Recycling Program is ongoing for residents who live in a building of six units or less.

You now can recycle each week on your regular trash day. Materials to be put in the blue box are glass bottles (any color), metal and tin cans, plastic bottles with the number 1 or 2 on the bottom and empty aerosol cans. Rinse out all containers.

The paper recycling program collects newspapers, magazines, phone books and corrugated cardboard. All paper products should be put in a brown paper bag or tied with string and placed outside of the box.

All items should be placed at the curb by 7 a.m. on trash day. Place paper materials outside of the box and all other materials inside the box.

For more information, call 635-4959 for missed pickup and complaints about the collection, call 635-7573.

Race For Mayor Of Charlestown Is Now Underway

The annual race for Mayor of Charlestown, sponsored by the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee, got underway on Jan. 11 as four candidates declared themselves for the coveted title. This, the 13th annual event will conclude with a gala celebration in March when a winner is declared.

To qualify as a candidate for Mayor of Charlestown, entrants must be at least 21 years of age and be a Charlestown resident. The responsibilities of the mayor during his or her year-long term include a tour of Ireland in early August attending the Western Rose Festival in Charlestown, County Mayo, and representing the committee at various community functions.

This race is unique in that a candidate sells a vote for him or herself at dollar a vote, so the more votes sold, the better the chance the candidate has in winning. In turn, persons who buy a vote for the candidate have a chance to win a fabulous prize.

Residents who have declared their candidacy for mayor (in alphabetical order) are: Tommy Donahue, Dave Evers, Tom Jackson Jr. and Mary Lou Tracy.

Persons who would like to enter the race or wish to obtain further information, should call Arthur Hurley at 242-2724.

Originally commissioned in 1797, the world's oldest commissioned warship is being refurbished by today's naval reservists. Dry docked adjacent to her normal berth in the Charlestown Navy Yard, USS Constitution's last major overhaul was in 1922.

Since that overhaul over 70 years ago, 72 million people have walked her decks, sharing a small piece of our American heritage. One of Boston's major historical attractions, visitors relive history aboard "Old Ironsides" every day.

Assisting in the overhaul efforts to preserve USS Constitution are unit members of MCU 2610 stationed at the Naval Reserve Center in Quincy. These naval reservists are using their construction skills to help the National Park Service who are currently engaged in the three-year effort to preserve and restore the mighty vessel.

Becoming a part of the team to help USS Constitution prepare to celebrate her 200th birthday upon her return to the fleet in 1997, the naval reservist Seabees had to demonstrate their talents first by building camels. Leading the naval reservists repair efforts at the deck plate level is the Leading Petty Officer of MCU 2610, BU1 Ernest Trombley. "We proved to the USS Constitution and the National Park Service that we could perform by constructing three camels in one and a half days" said Trombley. The camels, used as bumpers between a ship and a dock, are being utilized today.

With 23 years of combined active and reserve service, Trombley is no stranger to Seabee projects. After serving two tours in Vietnam, Trombley returned stateside where he has been a part of the naval reserves ever since.

Continuing to save the Navy thousands of dollars the MCU 2610 Unit is carrying on the Seabee tradition of providing quality building and construction expertise. Because the ship's hull, frames and longitudinal are all made of wood, preservation and selective replacement of many of her structural members is periodically required, while at the same time, preservation of as much of the original content as possible is the goal.

"This ship is a part of history, now I am a part of history," remarked CNCM

Chris Elias, one of the unit's newest members. He and other unit members have been busy since taking on the project. Painting, preservation and the removal of wooden decking are just a few of the tasks that MCU 2610 are performing.

Whether they are rebuilding the oldest commissioned naval vessel or constructing an airstrip in the middle of the desert, today's Naval Reserve Seabees are building a better Navy for tomorrow.

Origami Workshops For Preteens At The BPL

Youngsters 9 to 12 years of age are invited to explore and expand their creativity during the first of two "Origami Winter Workshop for Preteens" in the Children's Room of the Boston Public Library in Copley Square on Sunday, Jan. 22, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Following a step-by-step demonstration of the basic folds of this ancient art form, youngsters will enjoy hands-on participation and, depending on their skill and imagination, will create flying fish, jumping frogs, sailing ships, flapping birds or wiggly bugs.

The second workshop will be held on Sunday, Feb. 19. Both programs are free and open to the public, however, space is limited and preregistration is required. Day care groups cannot be accommodated. To register, call 536-5400 ext. 328.

Homecoming Weekend At Don Bosco

Don Bosco Technical High School in Boston will hold a Homecoming Weekend on Jan. 27 and 28.

The events will include rooting for the basketball team on Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Don Bosco gym when they play Catholic Memorial, and the hockey team on Saturday at noon when they oppose BC High at the UMass-Boston rink.

There will be a reception in the Don Bosco Alumni Hall following the basketball game on Friday evening. Former Bosco athletes are especially invited to attend the sports events to see the current day representatives of their sports in action.

For more information, call Brother Andrew Bertello SDB, coordinator of the alumni, at 426-9457.

Are You Moving? Don't Forget To Tell The IRS

When moving, most people inform the Postal Service of their forwarding address. This gets their mail forwarded to them for a limited period of time. "However, taxpayers should send the IRS a forwarding address too," said Francine Crowley, Boston Internal Revenue Service (IRS) district director.

The mail is still the most common way that most people deal with the IRS, therefore, there are numerous reasons why taxpayers would want the IRS to know of their address change.

Each year, the IRS sends out millions of tax refund checks, some of which go undelivered. "One of the reasons for this is taxpayers move after submitting their return and fail to notify us of their new address," said

Crowley.

Taxpayers receive a tax package each year just prior to the tax filing season that contains tax forms and instructions. This package is generally mailed to the taxpayer's last known tax filing address.

Finally, being out of touch and not receiving a notice of additional tax due can be expensive for a taxpayer. Even though you may not receive an additional IRS notice about owed taxes, the penalties and interest on your tax debt continue to grow.

The IRS Form 8822, "Change of Address," is a simple one-page form that can be used by individuals and businesses to alert the IRS to a new address. The form can be ordered by calling toll-free 1-800-829-3676.

CYO & ST. CATHERINE'S NEWS BY FATHER RON COYNE

▲ Parish Survey and Parish Visitation - Bishop John Boles will spend the weekend of March 11 and 12 at St. Catherine's Parish in an attempt to let our people know that the diocese is aware of our presence. He will be meeting with various individuals and parish organizations to listen to our concerns. He will also be celebrating and/or preaching at our parish Masses that weekend.

With this in mind, we are encouraged to take a parish survey of various aspects of life at St. Catherine's. Our pastoral council and members of our visitation committee drew up the survey which was distributed in our bulletins last weekend. Our parishioners are encouraged to read the survey and give us their honest opinions. You may fill it out at home and return it this weekend, Jan. 14 or 15, or everyone will be given time during the Mass to fill them out in church and leave them with us.

Our intent is to know how the people of the community feel about the parish and the direction in which we go.

Your thoughts and feelings are very important to us and we ask each adult 17 and over to take the time either at home or at church to help us plan for the future.

▲ Color Guard Contest in Charlestown - If you have been wondering why all the excitement about color guard, then make the time to join us on Saturday Jan. 21 at 5 p.m. at Charlestown High School's gym. St. Catherine's Townies and Little Townies are hosting a color guard show in our own back yard. We will be welcoming hundreds of contestants and thousands of family, friends and neighbors to our town. There is an entrance fee.

This is our fourth year competing in the Eastern Mass circuit and we are proud of the calibre of our program and every girl who marches with us. We ask you to come and show your support for our girls and the color guard program. Get there early and get a good seat. You will be entertained and enjoy every minute. The cafeteria will be open and all proceeds from the contest will benefit our color guard program.

▲ Color Guard Mass - On Sunday, Jan. 22, we will celebrate the 9 a.m. Mass with all of our color guard girls and their families. We will ask God to continue to inspire us as we attempt to offer our young people healthy ways to channel their energy. We wish St. Catherine's Color Guards the best for the 1995 season. They work hard and truly represent the best of Charlestown Pride.

▲ CYO Basketball - Our four CYO teams are in the midst of their season and have a wonderful spirit. This week we present our Bantam girls team coached by Lynn Brooks and Sharon Fidler. Players include Nicole Bourgeois, Jessica Brassil, Erin Coppinger, Thuong Duong, Candace Griffin, Kerri Locke, Kelleigh Mahan, Erin McCallum, Charlene O'Brien and Katie Prince. We are grateful to these girls for representing Charlestown so well in the CYO league.

▲ Charlestown Teen Day - With the financial support of CHAD (CHarlestown Against Drugs), various Charlestown youth organizations, including the CYO, the Boys & Girls Club, Community Center and Bunker Hill Teen Council, are sponsoring a Charlestown Teen Day on Sunday, Feb. 5 from noon to 10 p.m. at the Preble Room in the Charlestown Navy Yard. The afternoon will consist of workshops and seminars on topics such as self-esteem, cultural diversity, health issues, dating and violence, drug and alcohol use and abuse. Presentations in all of these areas will be made by professionals. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. and will be followed by a dance from 7 to 10 p.m. No one will be eligible for the dinner and dance unless he/she has participated in all workshops. The entire day is free to all teenagers 13 to 19 years of age. Tickets are available from the above teen organizations. Having a ticket as you enter will make you eligible for some great door prizes. All participants must be registered by noon. There will be no other teenage activities sponsored by these organizations on Feb. 5 so that every teenager may take advantage of this day. We ask parents to encourage their son/daughter to attend.

▲ Disney World This Summer? - Last summer, under the leadership of Sheila Brown, we took 90 Charlestown residents, including children, teenagers and adults, to Disney World for a week. This summer, we hope to run a similar trip to Florida from Saturday, Aug. 19 to Saturday, Aug. 26.

The package would include round trip Boston/Orlando airfare, transfers from airport and hotel, seven night stay at Disney All-Star Resort, Walt Disney World unlimited Magic Passport admission for eight days and seven nights.

The cost for your children would be: 12 to 17 years of age - $569, 10 to 11 years of age - $511, 3 to 9 years of age - $462 and 2 years of age - $234. Price is based on children staying in a room with at least one adult. Family members, neighbors and friends are more than welcome to join us. For further information on adult costs, call Sheila at 242-2683.

We are willing to help any child or teenager who would like to go on this trip, to raise money for his/her trip with a bike-a-thon in the spring. In order for this trip to become a reality, we must assure the travel agent of 75 definite reservations by Feb. 28. Therefore, I ask you to talk this over with your child/family to see if you are interested in committing yourselves to Disney World this summer.

If you plan on joining us, please leave your name, age, address, telephone number and a $50 deposit at the rectory.

Charlestown High School Sports News

by Sean Smyth

On the way to its best season since a 10-10 campaign in 1991-92, the Charlestown High School boys basketball team has gotten out of the box with a 6-1 record. And a big part of that turnaround is due to coach, Jack O'Brien.

O'Brien, in his second season as coach at Charlestown High, was a perennial winner in his nine seasons as boys head coach at Salem High School. In addition to winning a state title in 1990, O'Brien sent several prospects to big-time colleges, including Rick Brunson, who is now a senior at Temple University.

So far, the Townies have impressed many, coming away as the winner of the Arlington Catholic Christmas Classic, beating Arlington 60-56 in the first round and handing Burlington a 62-33 setback. Townie point guard Shawn Brown, also an all-city quarterback, was named tourney MVP.

"Shawn has played steady all year for us," O'Brien said in an interview last week. "He's our floor general out there. This is his first year playing varsity though, and he's still learning."

O'Brien has many first-year varsity players. Out of 12 varsity athletes, only two returned from last year, those being Harrison Bush and Charlie Robinson. Both are tri-captains, along with Brown. "Harrison has done a great job," O'Brien said. "Last year he would show up at 6:30 a.m. to work on his game. Some of the other kids saw that and they started to follow his lead.

"He's also a great kid. He's an honor roll student. He went to the ABA (Academic and Basketball Awareness) Camp at Merrimack College this summer and won the student/athlete award. He's been the glue to hold this team together," O'Brien concluded.

Bush currently ranks fourth in the Boston North and fifth in the city in scoring with an 18.0 average (points per game).

Another player who has impressed O'Brien is center Damien Finkley. "He's only six-feet tall," said O'Brien, "but he's held his own out there. And he's only a first-year (varsity) player. He's done a great job for us."

O'Brien has, in his second season, made progress in his plan to turn the program around. "You always have to try to implement things that make the kids feel important," O'Brien noted. "This year we were able to purchase new jerseys. We also played a night game at home against Arlington which drew a large crowd. We made calendars and distributed them around the community and the school.

"We also have mandatory study hall after school and I'm there too. We're trying to make the kids feel important, have them develop some pride."

Entering Tuesday's tilt at South Boston, Charlestown's only loss came at Latin Academy. The Hornets defeated the Townies 75-72. Due to that loss, Charlestown stands in a three-way tie for last place in the Boston North League with an 0-1 mark.

After facing off with South Boston, Charlestown travels to Brighton on Jan. 17, before hosting Madison Park on Jan. 19 at 3:30 p.m.

Local Townies suiting up for the varsity squad are

The girls basketball squad at Charlestown High School entered the week with a 2-2 overall 1-0 Boston North League mark, good enough for a share of first place in the league.

The team was hurt early on when, in a game with Latin Academy, sophomore Nicole Matson went down with a knee injury. The Lady Townies went on to drop their next two games in the Boston Girls Basketball Christmas Festival at English High and at Madison Park.

The Charlestown girls will host Brighton Tuesday before traveling to Madison Park next Thursday.

The CHS hockey team is currently 2-1-0 after defeating Madison Park 5-0.

After facing off with South Boston on Monday, the Townies meet O'Bryant tomorrow at Matthews Arena at 3:30 p.m.

Also, Charlestown will play Hyde Park in a matinee on Martin Luther King Jr. Day at Northeastern at 11:15 a.m.

Kennedy's internship program involves students in the administrative duties necessary to operate an effective congressional office, including all aspects of constituent case-work, including information intake, written correspondence and data entry. Internship positions are also available in the press and scheduling departments. Student interns will also be required to participate in general office support work. Typing and data entry skills are a plus.

CollegeLink Outreach Program Helps Students At Local Youth Centers Apply To College

Enrollment Technologies Inc. (ETI) has announced that its CollegeLink Outreach Program and The Boston Plan for Excellence's ACCESS program have arranged for computers and CollegeLink software to be available at local youth centers. The ACCESS program is donating a total of 10 personal computers with two going to the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club.

"The CollegeLink Outreach Program is designed to increase the number of traditionally underrepresented college applicants by making CollegeLink software and personal computers more readily available," explained Jerry Paxton, president of ETI. "The ACCESS program has generously donated personal computers and we look forward to having students use our software to complete their college applications at these centers."

"CollegeLink is a unique computer program which greatly simplifies the college application process. We hope our computers will make this service more accessible to students at these local centers," said Dawn Sinclair-Dixon, director of the ACCESS program. ACCESS is an initiative of The Boston Plan for Excellence which supports the Boston Public High Schools. ACCESS eliminates the barriers to higher education faced by students by providing financial aid counseling and scholarships.

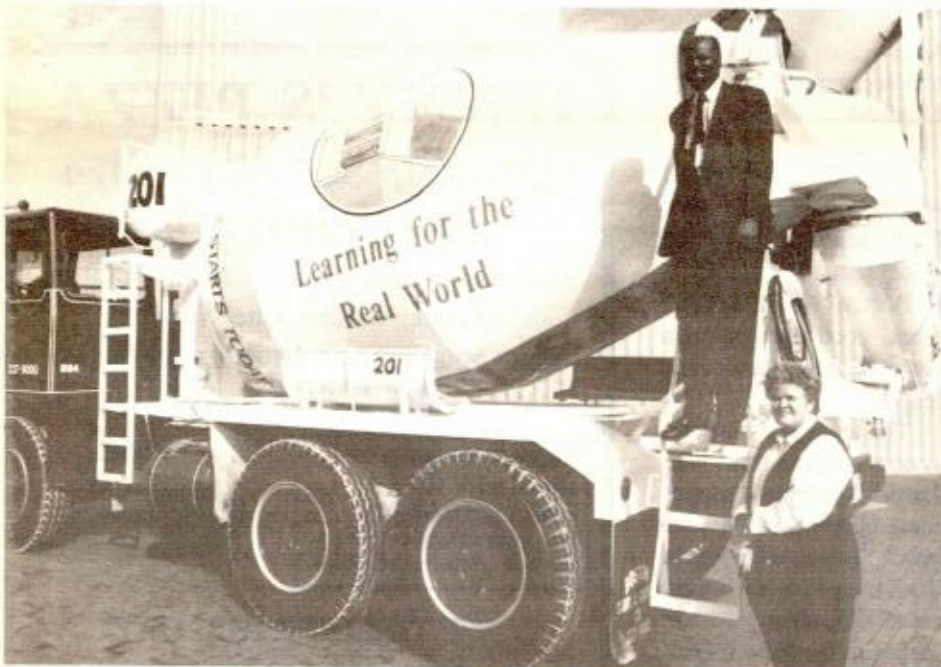

Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston will use the computers in its Career Exploration Program," said Robert Monohan, vice-president of operations. "CollegeLink has expanded the program greatly, because it makes the application process less intimidating. The software is user friendly and helps students realize that they can apply to college. It has been extremely popular." The Career Exploration Program is one of more than 50 programs Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston has designed to give young people a chance to enhance their educational opportunities.

The CollegeLink service allows students to apply to up to eight colleges at once by entering their information onto computer disk. The service guides students through the process and prints customized applications for each school. Currently more than 700 colleges and universities nationwide accept CollegeLink applications, including 57 in Mass.

The CollegeLink software is available for both PC and Macintosh computers and is offered free to students whose application fees are waived due to financial need.

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Teen Day . . . Circle Sunday, Feb. 5 on your calendar. Charlestown Teen Day is coming! A series of workshops, a dance and a dinner will highlight a full day of activities at the Preble Room in the Navy Yard. The day has been completely organized by input from Charlestown teens who take part in the major youth service organizations around the town.

The price is right, FREE, but you will need a ticket for admission as well as to be eligible for some exciting door prizes. The day is being sponsored in large part by CHARlestown Against Drugs (CHAD). Tickets are now available at the Boys & Girls Club, Charlestown Teen Connection, Bunker Hill Teen Center, Charlestown CYO and the Charlestown Neighborhood Youth Council. It will be a day to remember, and Feb. 5 is a date not to forget.

◆ A Beautiful Experience . . . On Sunday I attended the very first Spanish Mass at St. Catherine's Church. It was a beautiful and meaningful experience. I am used to attending Italian Masses in my own North End Parish of the Sacred Heart, but I don't think I understood how important it was until I saw the happy expressions on the faces of our many Spanish-speaking neighbors right here in Charlestown. We now have another reason why Charlestown is such a beautiful place.

◆ Bunker Hill Happenings . . . The Bunker Hill Teen Center is getting ready to roll in '95 with some rocking new programs. The Boy Scouts will be setting up camp right here at the center, the long-awaited computer corner will be in operation within a couple of weeks and our Humanities 101 program will be enhanced with some hands-on activities with the Museum of Fine Arts and through the Young at Hearts program at the Wang Center.

Peer leaders Sueigly Suaz and Dorothy Joseph are already organizing a new "For Girls Only" initiative and a "For Boys Only" project will soon be getting underway.

These are just some of the programs that will be added in the next few weeks and they are additions to our regular on-going programs - Girls Scouts, college trips, Discovery Project, etc.

I also take this opportunity to welcome Carmen Ivette Nunez, who comes from the BHA Youth on the Rise office, as our new and additional youth worker. Carmen is a resident of the Bunker Hill Housing Development and is no stranger to Charlestown.

1995 will be an exciting year for the Bunker Hill Teen Center and all the young people in Charlestown.

◆ High School Notebook . . . The hard work of Don Bosco hockey players didn't show on the scoreboard in their 3-1 loss to St. John's Prep, but it was quite evident to those attending Saturday's game at UMass-Boston. Young Shane Coleman is also a player to watch.

The Bosco hoopsters snapped their losing streak by defeating Malden 41-34, but they did lose to St. John's Prep 60-51 in a Catholic Conference League game.

Boston Latin basketball squad has started another win streak defeating Wayland 48-38 and Westford Academy 67-49.

Boston Latin hockey team (6-3-1) defeated Concord-Carlisle 2-1. In the Commonwealth Conference, Pope John belted Greater Lawrence 13-3.

◆ Pat Reynolds At The Boys & Girls

Club . . . Pat Reynolds, an heir to the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, will be the guest speaker at the Boys & Girls Club on Thursday, Jan. 19 at 6 p.m. He will speak on the topic of why young people might want to kick the habit of smoking or better still, not to start at all. The R. J. Reynolds Company is one of the nation's top tobacco manufacturers. This interesting presentation will take place in the Teen Room at 6 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

◆ New Year's Eve Party . . . Once again, the Boys & Girls Club hosted a New Year's Eve Party. Forty teens took advantage of the opportunity to ring in 1995 with their friends in a safe place with very caring people, who gave up their night so that these teens would have a place to go. Teen Director Kenny Giordano has continued the tradition former Teen Director and now Healthy Charlestown Coalition Coordinator Danny Ryan started three years ago.

◆ Friendship League . . . City-wide stats were listed in the South Boston Tribune and the final league standings are rather interesting.

Charlestown	7	0	14
Brighton	5	2	10
South Boston	4	3	8
Roslindale	2	5	4
Hyde Park	2	5	4

We also see that Shane Fisher was the league top scorer with 16 goals and 16 assists for a total of 32 points. His nearest opponent was Todd Lewis of South Boston who had eight goals and 13 assists for 21 points!

◆ Junior Hoops . . . Everything looked under control when our CYO junior basketball team jumped off to a quick 17-1 lead in Sunday's home game at the Girls & Boys Club. Most Precious Blood of Hyde Park wasn't convinced and the visitors stayed in control pulling off a very impressive 60-46 win. Charlestown star of the game award goes to Jimmy Tallent, who turned in a fine performance. This Sunday, Jan. 15, the Juniors will host Jamaica Plain CYO in the second game of their home and home series at 2 p.m., and will play Most Precious Blood again on Friday, Jan. 20 in Hyde Park.

◆ Job Start . . . Looking for a job? Let STRIVE assist you! They are conducting a three-week intensive job training workshop that will include: attitudinal training, introduction to computers, interviewing techniques, professional resumé writing and job placement assistance. You must be 18-30 years old to qualify. All services are FREE. For further information, call Boston Employment Services at 825-1800.

◆ Tidbits . . .
- Sorry Tim Warren, we know your favorite quarterback is Troy Aikman.

- Hello to Timmy Gallagher, hello to Jill Doherty.

- Dave Hurley, what happened to your New Kids on the Block tape?

- Is Shannon Murray moving to Southie?

- Hi Jacqui, hi Ian, hi Danny.

- Mike Burns has moved to Southie.

- Jimmy Yandle, Peter says Hello.

- Watch out girls, Andrew "Red Dog"

Ray is going to Cancun.

Tax Packages Arriving

The tax season is here again and tax packages are beginning to show up in the mail. Taxpayers who used professional tax preparers last year will receive IRS postcards, giving them the option of requesting a tax package from the IRS or using tax forms supplied by their preparer.

This year the IRS is continuing its efforts in three major areas:

- improving customer service for taxpayers;
- encouraging eligible low income workers to claim the earned income tax credit; and
- taking additional steps to combat tax filing fraud.

"While there are not many tax law changes for taxpayers to deal with this year, the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) has been significantly changed," said Francine Crowley, Boston IRS district director. "For 1994, more low income workers will qualify for the credit and the credit is easier to claim. Also, for the first time, childless workers aged 25 to 64 may now qualify for the credit," added Crowley.

Another significant change for this year is the taxability of social security benefits. Beginning in 1994, up to 85% of social security benefits and equivalent tier 1 railroad retirement benefits may be taxable.

Each year the filing requirements, personal exemptions, standard deduction and earned income credit amounts are adjusted for inflation. This year, all of the amounts have increased.

"This filing season, it will be very important for taxpayers to ensure they enter correct social security numbers for themselves and their dependents on their tax returns. We are increasing the screening and review of tax returns during processing to identify and stop fraud attempts," said Crowley. The IRS will delay refunds on returns with incorrect or missing social security numbers to allow time to verify that the taxpayers are entitled to the refunds they claim.

Remember to hold onto your tax package this year. It contains valuable information to assist you in preparing your return. But, if you still have questions after reading your package, visit your local IRS walk-in office or call the IRS toll-free taxpayer assistance line at 1-800-829-1040.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(never known to fail)
 O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. ## Brown Bag Bookies To Meet

The Brown Bag Bookies, the adult discussion group of the Charlestown Branch Library, will meet on Tuesday, Jan. 24 at noon at the library, 179 Main St.

The book that will be featured this month will be Bess W. Truman by Margaret Truman. According to the book jacket, "Young Bess was beautiful, popular, a strong-willed young woman who could play a nifty third base and swim and ride as well as any boy.

"Harry Truman was just a farmer's lad to whom Bess always seemed out of reach. Their courtship was long and arduous but . . . for 69 years, Harry would be at the center of Bess's life."

Participants may bring their lunch. New members are always welcome.

Dear Gloria,

On behalf of the Kennedy Center's Senior Lounge, I wish to thank Principal John Halloran, faculty and students of the Harvard-Kent School for the very generous donation of cereal, canned goods, etc. for use in the Senior Lounge. The food will be dispersed in a variety of ways to the seniors participating in Lounge events and activities.

Again, thank you for remembering us during the holiday season.

Thank You, 'Townie Santa'

Dear Gloria,

How can I begin to thank everyone for such wonderful, thoughtful gifts from "Townie Santa?" So much thought was put into everything. You know it filled my heart and lifted my spirit. That there are so many of you good, caring souls out there. Our dear Blessed Lord will reward all of you when you give your hearts as you do.

I wish to thank Carol M. for submitting my name and every single person who was part of Townie Santa. God bless all of you and may He grant you all of your intentions this year to come. I also wish to thank Sharon M., Drs. Penn, Taylor and Spirio, Karen, Carol M., Clara of the MGH Clinic, the Kennedy Center, Mary F., Father Coyne, Carol, Teresa, Kelley, the housing office, Judy Evers, Judy, Betty and Ruthie from the Senior Lounge. Thank you all for being you and for the sincere compassionate care you show to each of us. All of you are truly dedicated to your work. It shows and I am grateful.

I thank the Patriot for really being a family newspaper and making it possible for me to write this letter of thanks. I can't let a week pass without the Patriot. I am handicapped and by reading it I can sort of keep up with all that goes on that week.

I wish everyone God's blessings this year to come and may He send His holy angels to enfold us in their wings to protect us all.

Sincerely,
F. R.

Thanks For Your Support

We would like to thank some special people who were there for us at a time when we needed them the most.

To Father Coyne, thank you for taking the time to learn about our wife and mother . . . your sermon was beautiful. To Lucille, thank you for doing the first reading, you did a great job. To Denise Crilley, the poem that you wrote and read at the Mass was wonderful, and you're a good friend. To Lynn and Eddie Castronova, thank you for bringing the gifts up at Mass, you too are good friends. Thanks to Kathie and Butchie D'Urbano for being there night and day with all of your love, help and support. We thank you and the many people who sent food and flower arrangements. A very special thanks to Tony and Anne Sorrentino for all that you did.

Finally, to all of our family and friends, you made our recent loss more comforting just by being there or calling. We love you all. Thanks again.

The family of
Catherine M. Sorrentino

Thank You, 'Townie Santa'

Receiving gifts from "Townie Santa" was wonderful! There were so many assorted food products, toiletries, gifts, postage stamps, etc., and the delicious turkey dinner. Everything was most welcome and appreciated.

I extend my heartfelt thanks for the year round work of the Townie Santa Committee, businesses, organizations, merchants, friends, neighbors, the Scalli family and to all who donated money, products and gave of their time. Also, thanks to the volunteers that delivered the heavy boxes, bags and hot meals. They were so cordial and really added to the Christmas spirit.

The people of Charlestown can take great pride in all their hard work and generosity because Townie Santa deeply touched my life and many other recipients with great joy and happiness for the holidays.

A grateful recipient,
E. M.

'Families Helping Children' At The Charlestown Branch Library

April Foster, family resource supervisor, Department of Social Services for the commonwealth, will be the guest speaker at the adult discussion program at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St., on Friday, Jan. 20 at 10 a.m.

She will explain how foster parents are needed by children who are members of families in crisis, and how placements can be made on an emergency basis or for a short or long-term period.

This type of care is different from adoption and it's hard to think of caring for a child and then having to let go. The warmth and understanding that you can give to a child at a critical time can be the first block in rebuilding a life.

Wrighton Appears In 'Much Ado About Nothing'

Charlestown resident Rebecca Wrighton, an eighth grade student at the Winsor School in Boston, recently participated in a production of "Much Ado About Nothing."

The eighth grade Shakespearean play is an annual tradition at Winsor. With two full casts and crews, original costumes and sets and extra parts written for "groundlings and revellers," all 63 members of the class took part.

"The girls did a marvelous job of pulling this production together into a polished performance," said drama teacher Ros Clark, who directed the play.

Rebecca is the daughter of Mark and Deborah Wrighton.
