From: The desk of Alessandro Zamboni

Dear Internet Marketing Friend,

If you've spent any amount of time marketing online, you probably learned that one way to make money is by creating content that will send people to sales or opt-in pages. Or you can resell your texts to be paid a lot of dollars.

While this works, it has many moving parts and a ton of effort to get some content ready. You must think about what to write, research for details and ideas, and write and check the content. And this can become overwhelming if you want to create short stories, long ebooks, or paper books for Amazon.

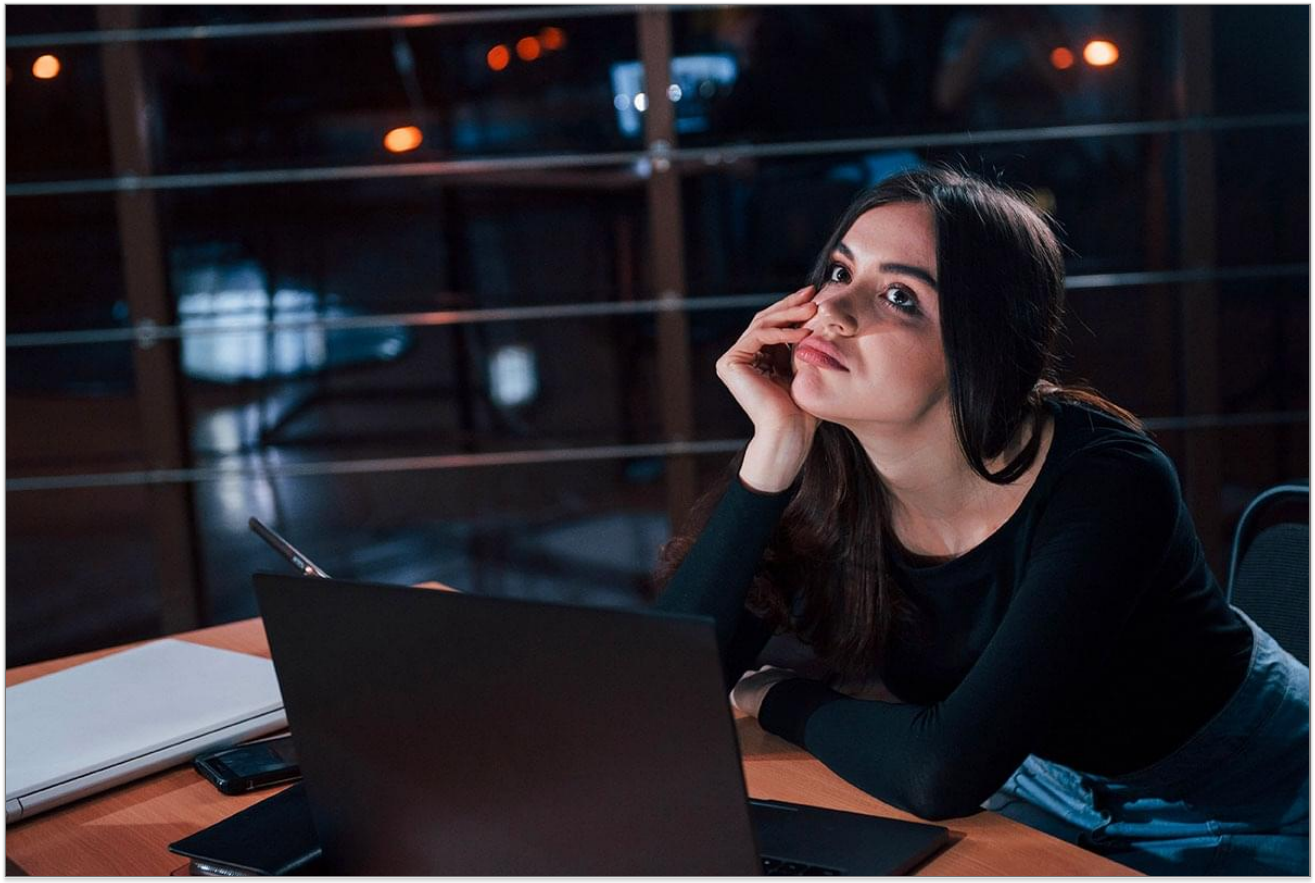

With standard content creation, you've got to:

- ✔ Spend hours researching for good ideas on what to write.
- ✔ Spend even more time writing and proofreading your text.
- ✔ Sit down and pound out the entire thing key by key or...
- ✔ Pay a freelancer through the nose for it, never knowing if they are or what quality they will deliver.
- ✔ Get crazy if you don't know what to write about a specific subject you know nothing about.
- ✔ Win writer's block. It is the biggest problem when you need content and ideas in a fast way.

As you can see, this process is so daunting that most people don't even attempt to generate any content, which is the key to success nowadays. Content is king if you want people to visit your website, blog, sales, and opt-in pages.

And also, if you want to make money on Amazon with Kindle and paper books, having content is mandatory.

Those that stop on their tracks end up frustrated with lackluster results and a feeling of regret for wasted time, money, and effort.

Well...

Would You Be Interested If I Told You That There Is a 100% Free Bot That Can Write Anything For You, In Real Time, And About Everything You Ask?

I'm one of those marketers that watches the industry like a hawk for new and emerging trends that I can exploit and monetize.

And I've discovered one that left me speechless.

Not too long, I was browsing the internet, and I heard about a tool called ChatGPT, which can write about any subject and answer even the most challenging questions.

So I rushed to try this tool, and a new world opened in front of me. It is a new era, and we are just starting to look at it.

This tool comes from another planet for what it can do. You can generate ebooks, articles, essays, product reviews, ideas, and interview questions, give a sense to your dreams, write about things you never heard about, and it does that in seconds after you hit the OK button. And it can do that in ANY LANGUAGE! It's totally crazy.

On top of that, there are countless secret methods to use this tool in more advanced ways than you can imagine, and that's what you will learn in my course.

At This Point, I Resolved To Figure Out How Exactly To Make a Lot Of Money With This Free Tool...

I checked countless websites to learn everything about this tool, and I saw almost everyone was scratching the surface.

I jumped into it and discovered many secret ways to generate top-quality content and things I never imagined AI could do.

I've generated one hundred articles, four eBooks, and an avalanche of other materials, completely free, without paying a cent for software or freelancers, and without using my precious time.

And I want to share everything I've learned from this process with you so you can begin creating, publishing, and profiting with this never-seen-before business model.

Now Introducing "ChatGPT Empire"!

This information is different from what you've seen before, and I can assure you that you will be one of the first marketers to get in on this trend on the right way.

That's right, ChatGPT is already in everyone's mouth, and they only use it for easy things. The software can do a lot more for you.

The hardest thing you'll have to do is come up with a single line of text to tell the software what to do for you. And you can also talk about yourself so that it can write content about you and your business, products, or services.

It's like having your freelancer with twenty of the best university diplomas ready to write for you at whichever hour of the day you want. And with stunning quality in every language. You can also translate what it writes into any language you wish, including Chinese, Japanese, Vietnamese, and all the world languages.

It'll take 2 minutes to sign up and no more than 15/20 seconds to receive even the most challenging answer to what you have requested.

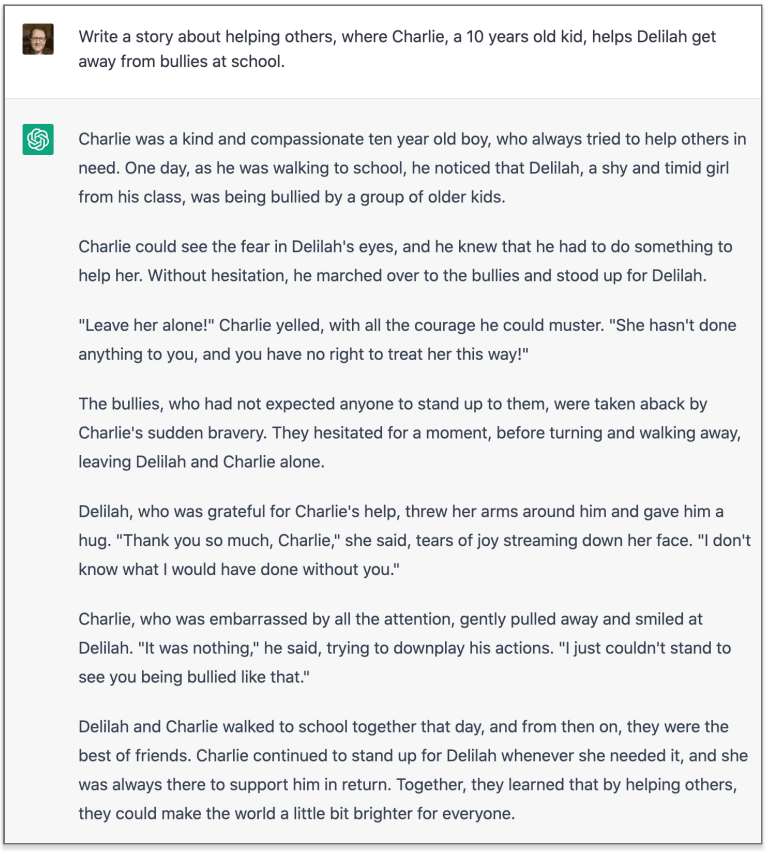

I used this software to create unique stories to resell as paper books on Amazon and eBooks on Kindle. And you can also generate workbooks, quiz books, poems of every type, recipes, social media content, and whatever comes to your mind. I can't stop using it!

I also used ChatGPT software to work on a lot of marketing materials, including reports, eBooks, video scripts, sales letters, emails and swipe files, headlines, ad templates, and much, much more. It's like having your copywriter always ready to answer 24/7.

You can create essays, non-fiction books, interview questions, and more content. Or you can talk with the chatbot like with an average person.

Want To See How It Works?

I ask ChatGPT to write a story for me about two kids that together won against bullies. Here we go:

Write a story about helping others, where Charlie, a 10 years old kid, helps Delilah get away from bullies at school.

Charlie was a kind and compassionate ten year old boy, who always tried to help others in need. One day, as he was walking to school, he noticed that Delilah, a shy and timid girl from his class, was being bullied by a group of older kids.

Charlie could see the fear in Delilah's eyes, and he knew that he had to do something to help her. Without hesitation, he marched over to the bullies and stood up for Delilah.

"Leave her alone!" Charlie yelled, with all the courage he could muster. "She hasn't done anything to you, and you have no right to treat her this way!"

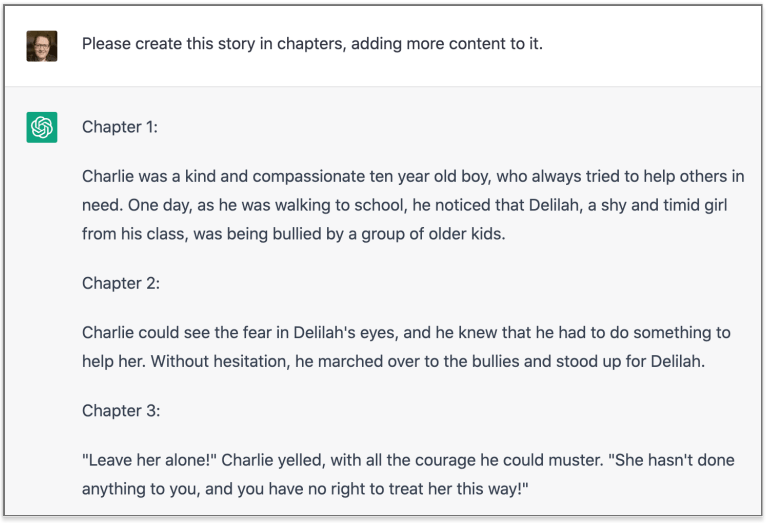

The bullies, who had not expected anyone to stand up to them, were taken aback by Charlie's sudden bravery. They hesitated for a moment, before turning and walking away, leaving Delilah and Charlie alone.

Delilah, who was grateful for Charlie's help, threw her arms around him and gave him a hug. "Thank you so much, Charlie," she said, tears of joy streaming down her face. "I don't know what I would have done without you."

Charlie, who was embarrassed by all the attention, gently pulled away and smiled at Delilah. "It was nothing," he said, trying to downplay his actions. "I just couldn't stand to see you being bullied like that."

Delilah and Charlie walked to school together that day, and from then on, they were the best of friends. Charlie continued to stand up for Delilah whenever she needed it, and she was always there to support him in return. Together, they learned that by helping others, they could make the world a little bit brighter for everyone.

Now I ask the software to develop the story in chapters... and I got a list of the 8 chapters.

Please create this story in chapters, adding more content to it.

Chapter 1:

Charlie was a kind and compassionate ten year old boy, who always tried to help others in need. One day, as he was walking to school, he noticed that Delilah, a shy and timid girl from his class, was being bullied by a group of older kids.

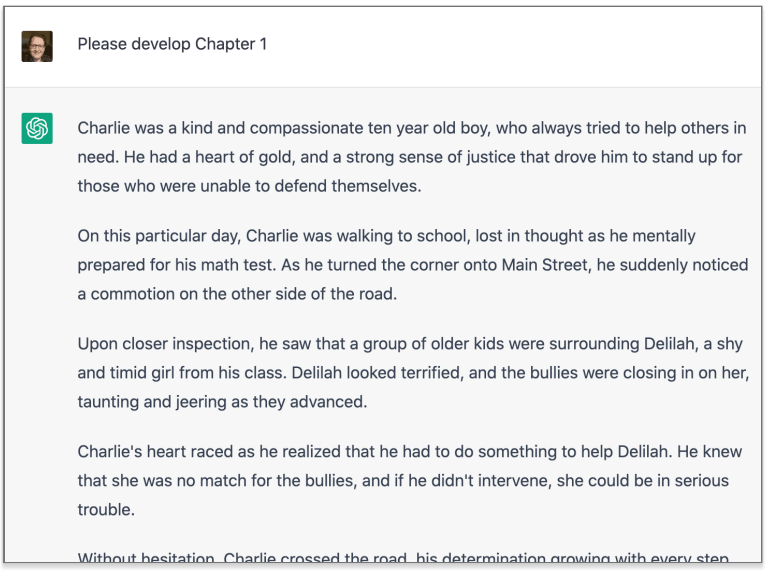

Chapter 2:

Charlie could see the fear in Delilah's eyes, and he knew that he had to do something to help her. Without hesitation, he marched over to the bullies and stood up for Delilah.

Chapter 3:

"Leave her alone!" Charlie yelled, with all the courage he could muster. "She hasn't done anything to you, and you have no right to treat her this way!"

Finally I tell the software to develop each chapter, and I got a 2,000 words short story ready to be published. If I wanted, I could have told ChatGPT to continue my story for way more chapters and pages to create a full book.

I asked the software to write a story about winning on bullies. I could have asked to generate 20 plots for me, so I could start also without ideas. Can you start to imagine its power?

You can literally write your next adventure, a sales page, an article or a product review with pros and cons, and another gazillion of things. That's why everyone is talking about ChatGPT and its power.

Imagine your alarm going off at 10:00 AM on Monday, you rolling out of bed, eating a nice healthy breakfast, and moving to your computer.

You enter the URL of ChatGPT, you enter a command, and get back the text you need for all your day: you can ask to get an email talking about you and business, you can have a new recipe book ready, and finally a story to read your kids before they go to sleep.

You spend the next part of the day doing what you love.

You hop in your car or in the metro, and you are off the catch a late afternoon movie with your significant other so you can enjoy an empty theater because all the normal folks are still at work!

What a life right? Well, stop imaging and wake up because this can be your reality a lot sooner than you think, since ChatGPT is already here, and it works like a charm.
