ABOUT

Taking inspiration from the rich, musical heritage of Basildon, 'New Town Sounds' is an exciting, all day event taking place across Basildon town centre on 31st August 2019 in celebration of the 70th anniversary of the town. Basildon is set to come alive to the sound of music, hosting over 50 performances from 11am, right the way through to midnight. Get ready to explore Basildon in a new way, uncovering an array of music, dance, film and kids activities - all for FREE!

The event will kick off with a travelling performance by Das Brass. Fresh from Glastonbury, Das Brass are an 8 piece brass ensemble, performing a melange of pop and funk favourites, balkanised afrobeats, twisted jazz standards, and few originals thrown in for good measure.

We'll also be joined by the fantastic Swing Patrol. Having performed at Buckingham Palace and 10 Downing Street, the award winning troupe will give locals the opportunity to dust off their dancing shoes and try swinging to Lindy Hop, Blues and the Charleston in the middle of St. Martin's Square and Basildon Market.

As well as top class national acts, New Town Sounds celebrates the abundance of local talent in the Borough. Throughout the day, The Edge will be packed to the rafters with original artists and performers that hail from Basildon and the surrounding areas. Meanwhile in Town Square we will be joined by T.I.M.E (Therapy in Musical Expression), an Essex based music service that will not only be showcasing some excellent local talent, but will also give residents the opportunity to join them in a jam.
