The Best Florida Beach Cities

Cataleya of Florida is divided into ten geographical compass points, and it is the beach city that is the closest in terms of size and proximity to the larger Atlantic Ocean. This makes it a popular place for tourists to visit. The majority of Florida beach cities are considered small, so they do not have many big hotels or resorts. Many families go to Florida to spend their spring break, as it is a fairly affordable vacation spot, especially when comparing it to other southern vacation spots.

The largest beach city in Florida, Fort Lauderdale, has only 20 beaches, and is the southernmost point in the Atlantic Ocean. Miami Beach is also one of Florida's beach closest to Georgia. Other Florida beach cities include Clearwater, Fort Lauderdale, Daytona Beach, Sarasota, and West Palm Beach. Each of these beaches has plenty of rental homes and upscale condos for those looking for a private, luxurious beach experience.

The state of Florida is located on the Gulf of Mexico, so it is the perfect place to enjoy the beautiful Gulf waters. The most popular Florida beach cities are located along the coast, where the waters are much calmer. The most popular destination for spring break and beaches is the Miami Beach area, which is the beach closest to the Gulf. This area has tons of upscale condos and villas, as well as luxury resorts.

Jacksonville is Florida's largest city, serving as its capital as well as its tourism center. People looking for a place to stay can rent a hotel room at one of the many trendy, budget-friendly hotels. One of the more popular beaches here is Hollywood Beach, which is south of downtown Jacksonville. This area is home to the popular nightclubs and resorts, as well as the annual Fashion Show. Jacksonville is also a popular area for tourists who travel to Georgia for the Augusta Medical Center, the University of Georgia and the U.S. Air Force Academy.

The second beach in Florida that is popular with tourists is Pinellas County. It is one of the southernmost counties in Florida, stretching from Saint Petersburg to Clearwater. This beach has some of the most beautiful beaches in Florida. It is located on the south side of the island. Many boat tours take visitors to the "Isle of Capiscum," an ancient volcano.

Another one of the more popular beaches along the south shore of Florida is Saint Pete Beach. This beach is home to popular resorts and sandy beaches. It is also located on the southern tip of Florida. This beach is one of the most crowded beaches in the state. Other popular beaches include southern tip of Florida, which is home to the well-known Southern Beach, as well as Hollywood, which are located on Hollywood Beach.

The third beach in Florida that is popular among tourists is the Florida Keys. This beach is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the United States. It is located on Key Largo, which is an island off the coast of Miami. The island is well-known for its excellent restaurants, world class shopping, water sports, as well as its beautiful sandy beaches. One of the most popular water sports that is enjoyed on this beach is parasailing.

This is just a few of the many popular beaches in Florida that are visited by tourists each year. If you want to have an even better vacation experience, you can plan to vacation in Florida by choosing to stay in one of the area's amazing hotels. There are many great hotel options in the area. Whether you are planning a romantic weekend or a family vacation, you will easily be able to find the hotel that will suit your needs and provide you with the beautiful environment that you are looking for.