Many Americans don't realize that marijuana and hash (or Cannabis as they call it) is typically only smoked with tobacco in many parts of the world, including Europe. Today, there are thousands of stores there dedicated to selling smokable hemp. It drove the hemp industry explosion in Switzerland and Italy.

Allowed to operate — as long as they observe proper social-distancing guidelines and do not include more than 10 people in one place — are a list of essential services including city and county government services, grocery stores, hardware stores and, wait for it, cannabis dispensaries.
