

Concentration camps, called corona camps, are appearing all over the world, but the world is still burying its head in the sand and doesn't want to see the reincarnation of Nazism

A fascist system of slavery, steeped in the ideologies of transhumanism and technocracy, is being created right before our eyes - and the current shutdowns, small business closures and redefinition of "normal" are all part of a planned global governance system that will end sovereignty and individual rights. In his book "Covid-19: The Great Reset," World Economic Forum founder and foreman Klaus Schwab is very clear about the WEF's future plans. Our society, under the motto 'Build Back Better', must be reset literally in every aspect. The 'Great Reset' is about implementing fascism, Nazism and communism into its biological nature. If you sin, the system punishes you directly. This is done through the social credit system as in China. Current corona puppet theater is nothing more than a crowbar to get this fascist Great Reset agenda into all facets of our lives and has nothing to do with public health, yet with saving the planet. The so called 'measures' are a new form of red socialist Nazi terror (read: corona terror)...

The path of discrimination and terror has been set for two years worldwide. Tyranny always creates a scapegoat to demonize. More and more warnings are appearing about the scapegoating phenomenon that characterizes unvaccinated people as less than human and requires forced compliance to protect the 'public interest'. Continued non-compliance must be punished by expelling them from society. Creating an enemy of the state requires: othering: a process of dehumanizing by marginalizing a group of people as something different, less than and different. Such other groups become an easy target to scapegoat and unfairly bear the blame for a society's ills. In France, globalist President Emmanuel Macron gave an interview already with Country working Le Parisien on January 4, 2021. In this interview, he categorized the unvaccinated as non-citizens, referred to their "lies and stupidity" as the "worst enemies" of democracy, and stated, "I really want to piss off (the unvaccinated). "Trudeau (Canada) says they should not be tolerated either....

The demonization of the unvaccinated continues to intensify around the world by Klaus Schwab's puppets. Officials and media experts alike are seemingly deliberately fanning the flames of unveiled hatred against those who choose not to participate in the world's largest medical experiment and receive a new injection that programs your body to produce a disease-causing protein. Getting the shot is a patriotic duty, we are told, and opting out is nothing short of a treasonous act, according to some. These kinds of stories are extremely dangerous. We are now walking a dangerous path. The 'new normal' has not become normal. Number of suicides among young people in the Netherlands is rising due to Great Reset measures. The Commission on Current Dutch Suicide Registry reported Friday(7 -1-2022) that the number of suicides among Dutch people under 30 years of age was 15 percent higher last year than in other years. The Great Reset measures touch on contact with peers, future prospects and forming friendships. These are important aspects for 30-somethings.¹¹³ Suicide Prevention Foundation also identified a lot of other suffering among young people in the past year, such as increased life fatigue, gloom and loss of perspective. The situation with the elderly is even worse, they have been living in complete isolation for two years now, without contact with their families. Terrible!...

Those who do not abide by the Corona Rules are branded public enemies. Those who do not wear a mouth mask, for example, where it is mandatory, are thrown to the ground like criminals and will end up in a corona camp. Newspaper Bild reports that Germany is building a kind of quarantine prison camp in Schleswig-Holstein. People who have to go in have bleak days ahead of them: a 12 square meter cell with tiles, a wooden bed, shelf, table, chair and mini bathroom. It reminds many of much worse old times. If you don't learn from the past, you have to repeat it in the future (i.e., now). The fact that extreme, inhumane measures of this kind are now being introduced in Germany is an example of this. More than 800 detention camps have now been built and set up in the U.S. by order of FEMA. Various sources report that these camps have been prepared in order to soon hold opponents who stand in the way of the New World Order clique's plans...

Schwab now wants to compulsively vaccinate the entire world population. Vaccination passports and vaccines have nothing to do with the coronavirus, but everyone must have QR codes, via where finance and many other things go in the future and also about making lots of money and depopulation. The reported mortality rate from COVID-19 injections is now higher than the reported mortality rate from more than 70 vaccines combined over the past 30 years, and it is about 500 times more deadly than the seasonal flu vaccine, which has historically been the most dangerous. In a June 24, 2021 peer-reviewed article in the medical journal Vaccines titled, "The Safety of COVID-19 Vaccination - We Should Rethink the Policy," an international team of scientists warns that the injections kill nearly as many as would die from COVID-19 itself. Janci Chunn Lindsay, Ph.D., a prominent toxicologist and molecular biologist working with MD Anderson Cancer Center-Houston, says the current COVID-19 injection campaign is a "massive clinical trial" using the general population as subjects, and calls for an end to the program.

Vaccinated people can still be contagious and pass on the virus. Those who have received one, two or even three doses are still contracting the infection. And totally nonsensical to give vaccinated people freedom and unvaccinated people not. The COVID stung people are clearly just as dangerous and are likely to kill their fellow human beings as those who are not stung. Most people already have an innate or general immunity to flu and other viruses, for example. This is confirmed by the findings on the cruise ship Diamond Princess, which was quarantined because of some passengers who died from Covid-19. Most of the passengers were elderly and in an ideal shipping situation on the ship. However, 75% turned out not to be infected. So even in this high-risk group, the majority are resistant to the virus. Most people already have innate or cross immunity, because they were already in contact with variants of the same virus. Humans need to be exposed to all kinds of viruses and bacteria on a daily basis for a properly functioning immune system. We do this, among other things, through our interactions with other people. The immune system has a memory. Once it has seen a particular virus it can respond more adequately and quickly the next time to clear it. Wearing masks and being in a lockdown is very damaging to our health immune system....

'Corona has been wrongly declared a pandemic and has led to a global wave of fear. In addition to the sacrifice, fear cries out for a solution, and in this case that is a hypothetical working future vaccine, which will cost billions of dollars', said Pierre Capel-the emeritus professor of immunology. The course of Covid-19 followed the course of a normal wave of infection, similar to a flu season. Like every year, we see a mix of flu viruses following the curve: first the rhinoviruses, then the influenza A and B viruses, followed by the coronaviruses. There is nothing different from what we normally see. By declaring Covid-19 a pandemic on March 11, the World Health Organization (WHO) opened an opportunity for the WEF to quickly implement its new world order. Everything was very carefully prepared. The Gates Foundation co-sponsored Event 201, a scripted tabletop exercise held just months before the COVID-19 outbreak that proved remarkably prophetic. What the WHO was in the beginning, it has been completely taken over by global players like Bill Gates, the Rockefeller Foundation, GAVI and Big Pharma. As a full-fledged agency of the UN, the WHO is corrupt from head to toe and totally committed to sustainable development, also known as Technocracy. Bill Gates is the number one funder of this WHO...

While the rise of dictatorships historically involved the use of armed forces to subdue an unruly public, today's burgeoning dictatorship relies heavily on weaponized medicine and the control of information. 'The danger of the corona crisis is that it can be used to establish an authoritarian regime. People should be alert to an argument that is often used: there is no alternative. When that is said, you have to realize that it can be a political ploy to push through measures that are not actually necessary,' says Laura Henderson, lecturer in international law and human rights at Utrecht University. In the past, the state of exception was often the prelude to dictatorial rule. A famous example: Adolf Hitler's emergency decrees at the end of the Weimar Republic, which allowed him to become a dictator. The cabinet has long sold the Netherlands- treason to the globalists. The government leaders are corrupt, who have sold their souls to the Bilderbergers and are only carrying out their agenda; see it as the late Prince Friso who stuck out his middle finger to the crowd who waved exuberantly and enthusiastically to the royal family. This is how your government looks at its citizens; with total disdain! STOP sleepwalking into the Nazi New World Order.

On June 13, 2019, Klaus Schwab, President of the World Economic Forum (WEF) and UN Secretary General António Guterres signed a partnership between their two organizations. This was done without any immediate media attention, despite the huge implications this has for humanity. Broadly speaking, this means that with the stroke of a pen, power over our lives has been handed over to major global corporations and their owners.

Since March 2020, far-reaching restrictions have been imposed in Australia such as lockdowns, the introduction of a vaccination certificate to work, study, go to the hospitality industry and store. Fines for violating the corona rules can be up to 90,000 Australian dollars (57,000 euros). Violators also face up to two years in prison. Unvaccinated Australians in the Northern Territory have been placed under a new lockdown in which they are not allowed to go outside to exercise or travel to work. Fully vaccinated people are not subject to any restrictions, despite the fact that they can still spread the virus. Clearly, this is not about a virus, but about power and control....

Everything can be taken away from a man except one thing: the last of the human freedoms - to choose your attitude in a given set of circumstances, to choose your own path. Restricting people slowly in freedom is like putting a frog in a pan of boiling water. It is war and we are the enemy. We humans who do not want to accept the false narrative, that you are sick if you have a positive PCR, that you are a danger, that we must/can control this virus (nature), are allowed to take away our freedom....

On the way to a hybrid humanity. Vaccination QR code is now linked to your microchip under the skin, but later everyone will have a brain chip, as told by Klaus Schwab, so just a little more patience people, then you will become really good zombies....

Australia is now building large quarantine camps for travelers without vaccination. Australia is rapidly turning into a dystopian police state larger than ever before in history. However, other countries are following suit with "quarantine camps" targeting unvaccinated travelers and others.
