Provision of information on the processing of data in the Population Information System in accordance with Article 13 of the EU General Data Protection Regulation

Name of register: Population Information System.

Data controller and contact information: Population Register Centre and Local Register Offices. Population Register Centre, P.O. Box 123 (Lintulahdenkuja 4), FI-00531 HELSINKI, Finland.

The contact details for local register offices can be found at www.maistraatti.fi.

Data protection officer: The contact information for the Population Register Centre's data protection officer is listed in the Population Information System's Data Protection description at <https://vrk.fi/en/data-protection>.

Purpose and legal basis for processing of personal data: The Population Information System is maintained under section 5 of the Act on the Population Information System and the Certificate Services provided by the Population Register Centre (661/2009). The Population Information System is maintained to facilitate, implement and ensure society's functions and information services as well as the rights and obligations of members of society.

Disclosure of data: Information listed in the act or regulation will be disclosed to state and municipal authorities as will information necessary for the performance of their statutory or required duties. Individuals or communities are given access to data from the Population Information System, when they need this information to implement their rights and obligations. Data can also be disclosed for direct marketing, opinion and market surveys, address services, the update of customer registers, historical or scientific studies and/or for other comparable reasons.

As a rule, the data contained in the Population Information System is not disclosed to parties outside the EU.

Personal data retention period: Personal data contained in the Population Information System is retained permanently with the exception of information on cases where social services have taken a child into care, which is deleted when the child is returned to his or her parent or when the child turns 18, and information on a foreign citizen's residence permit, which is deleted when the person receives Finnish citizenship.

As the information contained in the Population Information System is retained permanently, you do not have the right to request that your data be removed from the system.

Access to data: You have the right to know what information that applies to you is stored in the Population Information System. You can check your own information at <https://www.suomi.fi/register>. You can also check your own information by visiting your Local Register Office or by requesting the Local Register Office to send you a copy of your data by mail. Fill in the request form here <https://www.maistraatti.fi/en/Forms/>.

Correction of data and limiting the processing of data: You have the right to request that any information on you in the Population Information System that is incorrect be corrected. The correction request must be submitted to the Local Register Office that has jurisdiction in the region where your municipality of residence is located. You cannot demand a restriction to the processing of your data while the request for correction is pending.

Right to object: You do not have the right to oppose the processing of your data in the Population Information System, as the data is processed pursuant to the law. However, you have the right to prohibit the data controller from disclosing your data contained in the Population Information system for the purposes of direct advertising, distance selling and other direct marketing, market research and opinion surveys, public registers or genealogical research.

You can prohibit the disclosure of your address as an address service. You can notify a Local Register Office of a prohibition on information disclosure by telephone or in writing. For more information and forms visit your Local Register Office or view the Local Register Office website <https://www.maistraatti.fi/en/>.

A prohibition on information disclosure is register-specific. In other words, a prohibition registered in the Population Information System will not be relayed to other registers such as the postal service, and, for this reason, you must submit a prohibition on the disclosure of data separately for each register you want it to apply to.

Right to transfer data to another system: As processing of data in the Population Information System is based on the law and does not require your consent, you do not have the right to have your personal data transferred in electronic format from the Population Information System to another system.

Right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority: The data subject has the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority on the processing of their personal data. The complaint is submitted to the supervisory authority: Office of the Data Protection Ombudsman, PO Box 800, 00521 Helsinki, email: tietosuoja@om.fi.
