

Privacy Policy

Run City Girl("Game", "App") is casual game for entertainment. Privacy Policy is about how information is collected and used or disclose by Jayswal ("We", "Developer").By installing/Upgrading App user acknowledge that you are accepting or agree with our policy. If you are not agree with policy then uninstall immediately.

Information Collection

- Personal Information.

We do not collect any personal information which disclose personal identity of user. We will collect information about device call status and read and write permissions on Storage.

- Non-Personal information

We collect other information which are relevant to device like Operating system, device Model information. display resolution and similar information.

Use of Information

- Personal information

We do not collect and do not store any personal information on our server. Because of that we cannot use your personal information in anyway. App has integration of play service and analytics that will use your necessary information to identify you.

- Non-Personal Information

App will use device information and network information to perform necessary task to make application behavior smooth or good at your device.

If any legal request will received by us then we will disclose your information as response to that legal request. which is lawful and disclose that user is involved in any violation or illegal activity.

Third Party

Your Non-personal information will be used by analytics, play service. We use this to analyze app performance and in leader board. App also has AdMob/AdSense integration they will responsible for Advertisement policy. They are connected with you when you are using or interact with application.

User Sharing

Every user has their own opinion to share on sites or on forum. we cannot control any user behavior. Any user may share information on anywhere. we are not responsible for such share. which include your information. We will not be responsible for any behavior or conduct of third party circumventing our security measures.

Security

We design and develop app with security. Which make app secure and stop unauthorized access. We implement analytics and play service as guideline so it is also perform secure data transmission. Now's a day, A tool or software which can break very high level security exist so we do not give absolute guarantee that your information will not access by unauthorized access. We perform our best to stop such access. We do not collect any personal information so no need to worry for personal information.

Sensitive information

We do not collect your information and store any personal information which will disclose your identity. we read your call state and network state for application performance only. we do not share such information with anyone We inform all user that do not send your personal information to us. We do not ask for such information.

About Developer

We welcome your suggestion and comments about Game.you can share your opinion to Developer. If you have any query about policy or comment for policy then contact us at jayswalreshmav@gmail.com

Policy Modification

All right is reserved by Developer. Developer may change Policy for Game and continuous using app will consider as user agree with policy modification.