

Summary:

Bruce: We believe that the goal was to get the Zim in by the end of this month. That is going to be touch, but if they do get this started here shortly, they can get a lot of it in as little as a few days. Now I cannot tell you if that is their absolutely goal, but I believe they wanted to get this started in this fiscal year. This fiscal year ends Sunday.

Bruce: The new fiscal year starts October 1st, Monday. I believe their intention is to start us by the weekend. We have understood that the public who I refer to as Tier 5 maybe starting early next week. We may get a few days head start.

Bruce: [Abadi's new, more powerful Prime Minister] position and everything having to do with their new Parliament all of that along with CBI, everything we been looking for will be done on Monday, Iraq time.

Bruce: Some of the banks are talking about they are gearing up for a Monday, Tuesday start. the President is in charge of the release and he will give the green light.

Bruce: They are tracking our GPS [devices] in our phones to make sure we are safe and they will track us to the appointment and from the appointment till you get home for a period of an hour so everything is okay.

Bruce: If you are a Zim holder, you should say I have Zim bonds and then name your other currencies. If you are going to do some humanitarian projects and you are willing to put up to 75% of your Zim redemption into humanitarian projects, ...they will give you a higher rate for that (Bruce, referring to structured payouts): If I have 2% to 2.5%, that is plenty per year because the vast amount that you are investing is so great.

Bruce: You guys are prepared. We are the chosen. We are not bragging, but we are chosen to go forward and to really help humanity on this globe and maybe beyond this globe. Keep that in mind. You have been chosen for such a time as this. This is going to be an opportunity to give back in ways we never really thought possible back in the old days when we found out about currency and picking them up. This is going way beyond than we ever were before.

Yesterday I shared a long document called My Big Fat Wonderfully Wealthy Life. It was compiled by SongByrd21, but most of the research was provided by Rajaf, on TNT and other forums, as researched over a couple of years. I got a message from Rajaf this morning that reminded me of this, and pointed out that much of the information was now obsolete, so please be careful how you use it.—dle

.The Big call with Bruce Thursday 9-27-18 - Intel Only by PinkRoses

9/28/2018

TRANSCRIBED BY PINKROSES

Bruce: Welcome Everybody to the Big Call tonight. Let's go back and talk again about Iraq. We generally start with Iraq. We generally see what is going on from their perspective. There seems to be always something to pay attention to.

I remember on Tuesday call I said we are at the point now where we are not having to look at Iraq to complete something before we go. That is still the same tonight.

Bruce: However we did hear from Sulaymaniyah, Iraq today, and we heard that all the official notifications with Iraq with their Prime Ministership of Abadi will actually take sort of a role of more powers if you will.

More things have been given to him as Prime Minister than are typical. That is something that is going to put him in a situation where he can take care more of the situation of cleanup in Iraq regarding arrests, corruptions, that kind of thing.

He is going to be very involved with that. He is also involved with bring trade relationships together to Iraq for new business, infrastructure building, everything that they will be doing. Sort of a positive above what he has been.

That position and everything having to do with their new Parliament all of that along with CBI, everything we been looking for will be done on Monday, Iraq time. We could find out about it Sunday night or Monday morning, but that is going to be handled Monday.

Bruce: The fact of that does not necessarily delay us from starting. When I say us I am referring to Tier 4 Group B, the Internet Group. That is us. The ones waiting for the toll free number to come to me, and for me to put that out online and through various websites like we have like thebigcall.net, and bigcalluniverse.com. So we will do that as soon as I receive that.

Iraq is still there. It is all good, but they are so far along that we know what is going on. We know it is done. We are not really waiting on them as we were in the past. So that is what I want you to know about that.

Bruce: When it comes to what we are waiting for, we have been getting really good information the last day or two about the fact we are at the point of completion. What I mean by that is security has always been a concern. It is at the point where everything is ready.

All systems are ready. It is referring to the overall security and clean up all over the globe. We got certain number of people that been involved in that effort. We know roughly the amount of people that have been affected by that. They are trying to essentially cleanse that situation so that when we go in and when we come out of our redemptions or exchanges that we are safe. That we are safer and that we have every ability to move forward with our projects, with our lives without interference from some of the bad people that are still out there.

Bruce: That clean up on Aisle 3 has been ongoing for some time now. It sort goes in different phases. It could be a sting one time. It could be clean up. It could be indictments. Whatever it is, it is something that has been ongoing but it is at a point where a readiness level is very high.

Bruce: Some of you have heard there are as much as 24 security people at the Redemption Center. The real number is probably between 3 and 8 per shift. Remember if the Redemption center is 22 to 24 hour Redemption Center which many of them are, they will have 3- 8 hour shifts. You may have a total of 24 for the day, but there maybe 8 people per shift. It is plenty of security people overall.

They are tracking our GPS [devices] in our phones to make sure we are safe and they will track us to the appointment and from the appointment till you get home for a period of an hour so everything is okay. Then they will release that watchfulness on us. It is in this case for our own good. I am please about that.

Bruce: If you are a Zim holder, you will be asked when you set your appointment on the toll free number what currencies do you have. If you are a Zim holder, you should say I have Zim bonds and then name your other currencies if you have dinar, dong, rupiah, etc. You can tell them about that. The first thing out of your mouth should be in reference to the Zim if you have Zim. You recognize it is a bond. They know it is a bond that is gold backed. You know as well as I do it has a very high value.

Bruce: Why I am telling you that is so that when you set your appointment you will be treated differently. You will be treated better. They know the value of the Zim is very high. What they are going to do when you tell them you are a Zim holder, you do have the ability to ask, if you want, for a little bit of extra security. Perhaps you have a question that you might want them to answer regarding security, regarding how it is you should transport yourself going to and from the Redemption Center. Any sort of question you might ask is not going to be answered on your initial call. You may be able to get some answered in a one to two minute period.

Bruce: Overall, any extra questions, they may be able to contact you after your appointment is set if you have anything you want to discuss with them. You might be in a situation where you are going by yourself and maybe you like to have them help you to escort you. Normally they won't do that. However as a Zim holder, you might have the opportunity to ask for a little assistance in that area. It is up to you. You may not need it. You can always ask. All they can say is No. That is what I want to tell you about that.

Bruce: Security is of importance not only to us but also to them. You will be working with people for the first time and maybe with people you have never met. You will be presenting your projects if you have some. This is going to be one in a relative short period of time. You are not going to be going into great detail. They don't have the time and you don't have the time. What you are going to do is highlight just some of the things you plan to do even if it is with Rebuild America. I don't expect you to know everything that I said about Rebuild America, because it is still in its infancy, but you have the basic concept what it is we are going to do.

Bruce: I have a feeling the Redemption Centers already know about Rebuild America. They heard about it. If they haven't, you will be the one to bring them up to speed. Then the next person that comes in from the Big Call who wants to be part of it will tell them further about it. Eventually by the first and second day, they will be familiar with what Rebuild America is all about. We will do that. We will adopt a city, town, and community, and change it, help it, and improve it from anything with housing, infrastructure, schools, clinics, play grounds, and community gardens. There is a lot we will be able to do.

Bruce: You will want to survey the area. What does this community need? You may want to talk to some people. What do you all need? What is going on? What is lacking? What did you use to have in that building over there that use to manufacture something or that warehouse? You take it and you decide whether or not that might be something you need to put back into place, modernize or update, or put in another business. You will have so many options to help and create jobs, create infrastructure and most of all create longevity with your projects. I want you to know that.

Bruce: There was something I picked up today. If you are going to do some humanitarian projects and you are willing to put up to 75% of your Zim redemption into humanitarian projects, and I think that would be about the maximum they are looking for. They do not think you can possibly use more than 75% of this exchange or redemption especially with Zim. If you do have that feeling, they will give you a higher rate for that if you are willing to commit 75% of your mother lode to humanitarian projects. So keep that in mind.

Bruce: We talked long time ago about the idea of using 95% to 98% of your Zim redemption for humanitarian. They are not believing that you can do that. They are not believing it. So they do not want you to say that. They want you to say 70 to 75% range. To them that is credible. 75% is doable in their minds. Remember it is going to be up to you to decide with you how you are going to invest your funds. For me I told you many times I like the idea of a structure investment where I have a guaranteed amount of interest earned on the money. It doesn't need to be a high rate of interest. The rate of return is not going to be as important if you had $10,000 in the bank. This is where you are talking about major bucks in the bank, and even 1.5% to 2% on that huge mother lode turns into major bucks every quarter.

Bruce: My theory is I am going to try to go as long as I can with that type of return. It is stable. It is solid. I don't lose any principle. It is just going to be a lot of bucks. That is me. I am not going after 18% to 20% yield every year. I am not looking for that. If I have 2% to 2.5%, that is plenty per year because the vast amount that you are investing is so great. The base amount of your mother lode is so large that even if it is 1% to 2% you are not going to be able to spend all of it every quarter. It is going to compound.

Bruce: In terms of how close are we, you know me, I don't want to call it. If I did, I would be wrong. So I am not going to call it. With that being said, I have heard we are at the point now all systems are ready. They did test the ability to send funds around the world and back. Nether words let's say from California to the Far East and back, and they did that today. It took 34 seconds to go one direction half way around the world. Then it took another 34 seconds to send the same monies back to the original sender. So they got the system down. The system is strong. Everything is integrated. Everything is connected to it. Everything we are hearing is very positive.

Bruce: Some of the banks are talking about they are gearing up for a Monday, Tuesday start.

I am also hearing, however, that the President is in charge of the release and he will give the green light. He will give the green light to go. Now I am thrilled with that because that is one man that I trust to have his hand on the button. I think that is a really good thing. There has been some adjustments within this process.

I feel confident the President is making that move for us. I know many times he wanted it to go before now.

Bruce: We believe that the goal was to get the Zim in by the end of this month. That is going to be touch, but if they do get this started here shortly, they can get a lot of it in as little as a few days. Now I cannot tell you if that is their absolutely goal, but I believe they wanted to get this started in this fiscal year. This fiscal year ends Sunday.

The new fiscal year starts October 1st, Monday. I believe their intention is to start us by the weekend. We have understood that the public who I refer to as Tier 5 maybe starting early next week. We may get a few days head start. If we do with the Redemption Centers that would pull in a lot of the Zim that they want to get in there. They may want to get it in there this fiscal year, this quarter for the bank. So do not be surprised if we have an active weekend. I think that might satisfy the banks, satisfy the President, and everybody. Certainly it would satisfy us. Without calling it, I am saying keep an eye out for this weekend, and we will see what happens after that.

Bruce: I know that Iraq doing their thing bringing that out on Monday, that may have a lot to do with the public than it does with us. We have been following this. We have been watching this. We have been blogging. We have been listening to calls. We are more informed than people who been gifted, put it in a sock draw 5, 8, 10 years ago, and are not paying attention, That is why the group we have called the Internet Group is called the Informed Group. Those who are not part of it in the Public are referred to as the Uninformed. They are not up to speed. They have not been regular listeners to the Big Call, etc.

Bruce: You guys are prepared. We are the chosen. We are not bragging, but we are chosen to go forward and to really help humanity on this globe and maybe beyond this globe. Keep that in mind. You have been chosen for such a time as this. This is going to be an opportunity to give back in ways we never really thought possible back in the old days when we found out about currency and picking them up. This is going way beyond than we ever were before. That is in a nutshell I believe is what I wanted to bring you tonight. I can go on and on, but you guys just want to know when and how much. I can't give you how much, but the when is very near.

Bruce: With that I am going to thank you Sue, Pastor Steven, and Bob. I am ready. I was told last night to be ready last night for this today. I have been ready. I will be ready tomorrow and I will be ready thru the weekend. I will be ready to go as soon as I get it. I thank the listeners to the Big Call for your faithfulness. Good night Everybody. If you haven't registered your email, do so and go to bigcalluniverse.com. We will be touch with people after the RV

Thank you Everybody.

THANK YOU BIG CALL AND BRUCE, HUGSSS

www.wssic.com IS SUSPENDED

I am sorry to announce that due to matters beyond my control that Solutions in Commerce is now suspended. This suspension will be in effect until we have the change in government that I have been reporting on now for a long time.

Using the internet and funding WSSIC using FRNs is in fact a privilege. That privilege is now suspended awaiting the expected changes.

Hopefully, through my efforts many people have benefited from what I have been able to share over the 14 years of this effort. It has been an interesting journey as development of 'usable' technology has been shared.

With the expected change in our currency, the US Note which is substance backed as per the requirements of the Basel III agreements of all countries will change the world of commerce.

Also, the anticipated NESARA/GESARA announcements will launch the whole population of the planet into a 'new' commercial world.

So, we wait upon these developments.

My heart felt thanks goes out to the many who have supported the efforts of WSSIC are many. I love you. Thank you.

We understand: you were underage drinking, and you don't remember where you were, when you were there, why you were there, how you got home, who was with you, how old anyone (including yourself) was, or what they might (or might not) have done if they weren't falling-down drunk, too...

@PHAROSPROJECT

Just keep this to yourself for 35-ish years so you can "remember" it when it's politically convenient, if the guy you can't remember might be a nominee for the Supreme Court.
