Free Document on the Purpose of Humanitarian Support to States and Ensure their Protection in the Field of Their Threats and Their Status in the Needs of Military Protection, Humanitarian Protection and the Protection of the Civilian Population, in the event of confirmation of the consequences of a natural disaster, decentralized state of destruction, mass state riots, the case of activities of opposition criminal and armed groups, occupation by a terrorist group or the need for preventive evacuation and protection, as well as other cases that can be recognized as a consequence of a threat to the existence and stability of the state, meaning the responsible task of humanitarian protection.

Each government of a country has the right to act as a promoter of the Act for the purpose of gaining new staff of Institution, or staff under the Contract 03 and the CCI of Code 10, 11, 12, 13, to allow execution under this Contract 04 if the government of the country allows a common bilateral agreement with interest according to the objectives of Contract 01.

Each government of a country has the right to keep this document as a deposit of its own government office and, if it is interested, to use the purpose for its own civil protection or in the case of other acts of third parties against the Institution and cause the decentralization of the Institutional Function and thus to enable protection by its own legal justice as a first party, thereby enabling cooperative criminal prosecution of third party crime to be active as an actor in damaging the right to the stability of the claim of the assurance of the performance of this contract.

Government and method of payment for the service:

1. Payment from Institution Resources as the use of the Fund's own value of GDP growth from the mission performed, thereby creating a contract for repayment or recovery from a joint trade strategy only if the Government of the country affected by the disaster will be in a state of maximum risk damage and without the ability of its own function of repayment due to bankruptcy and depletion of resources,
2. Paying from Government resources in the form of its security insurance and agreeing on regular financial deposits in order to subscribe to the protection at regular minimum payments and allowing the use of special bonuses for both protection and stabilization,
3. Payment from government sources if this is made possible by sufficient resources and budgetary stability.

In the event that the act 1 will be used for the purpose of financial payment of the mission from the institution's own resources, the Institution must ensure the creation of a guarantee of prevention of currency inflation, which means maintaining the management of the payment of the labor and operating costs in accordance with the income of the reflows or materials and commercial contracts in proportion to their profitability.

In the event that the 2nd act is used for the purpose of financial payment from the sources of the insurance premium, such a strategy can only be used at the time of reaching the minimum payment limit for the requested mission or in the event of the establishment of a stable premium payment agreement for such a period.

If the 3rd act is used, for the purpose of the payment of the mission from government sources, then it is only necessary to secure the payment immediately.

If a country's government exploits the rights of contract number three and receives financial compensation for providing a military and security team under the provisions of ensuring the payment of funds from the institution's resources, it also means that the Government of the country that has provided the humanitarian service will also be willing to further exploit the emergence of the common market Government and Institution, this being the pre-agreed cycles of economic strategy ensuring the stability of the currency Institutions and the capacity for stable growth from their own development.

Obligation to create a General Team of Mission, establishing and defining:

1. Statistical Strategist of the mission budget, the profession of organizational and geographical skills knowledge of the practice and the management of the team, for the purpose of budgeting the necessary steps to ensure national security and capacity utilization of the Institution, and thus be used in official co-operation;
2. The legal service, which is the purpose of managing the mission archive and determining performance navigation in legal matters and enabling communication with legal parties,
3. Disaster Analyst and Conflict Threat as a source of State Threat Resources to assess the mission's operational progress and provide a plan to prevent further threats,
4. An economic unit allowing for the calculation of the damage incurred and to quantify the necessary financial costs for the purposes of its own financial assistance agreements with a view to stabilizing and thereby establishing common trading markets, guaranteeing the ability to recover humanitarian investment and establishing a guarantee function in the form of legal treaties applicable at International level,
5. Representative of Business Management of the Institution for the purpose of enabling the integration of logistics and resources Corporate networks Institutions enabling the use of large resources and forces of immediate construction and reconstruction and resources of security and infrastructure techniques,
6. Military by those composed for the purpose of protecting state centers and important state resources, as well as enabling the execution of humanitarian work,
7. Detective Authority for the Administration of the Security Agents of Police Agents for the Purpose of Protection and Investigation,
8. A health center dedicated to the ability to instantly treat injured, injecting and administering preventive assistance, care and setting up crisis centers,
9. Social care for the purpose of care for people affected by conflict and disasters, allowing the management of special camps and the strategic control of the media by social interest.

If the institution inserts funds into humanitarian resources, camps, medicines, food, textiles, transport or other humanitarian resources, the Institution has the right to use the authorities and the persons involved in verifying the use of financial resources in the interest of the established budgets, as well as the specified raw materials, and with the right to supervise their own systems for their direct use.

If the Government of the country allows the Institution, for the initiation of humanitarian activities on the territory of the State, the representative of the Institution, and the Head of the Institutional Mission Management have the right to sit and establish a superior logistics coordination infrastructure to prevent the destabilization of humanitarian performance.

The country's government also has the right to assign the Humanitarian Execution Task, in order to establish a mission function based on the instructions given and use from a number of commercial offers by the institution.

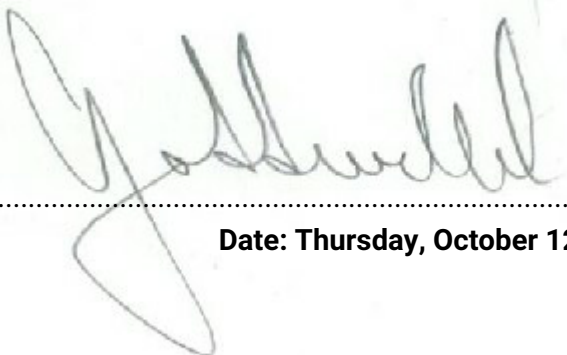

The country government has the right to use its own systems to recognize the uniform teams of the executive teams, as well as to ensure the distribution of the position of the central sites of the mission teams in the territory of the state, as well as to select representatives from their own ranks of the state, who will observe the team's performance and hold jointly agreed missions.

If the government of a country uses an agreement on stable security of use of the Institution's services, the purpose of cooperation in the case of such humanitarian needs or if the insurance contract is agreed or the government will hold at least the deposit of the contract and thereby ensure the judicial and legal protection strategies for the Institution, autonomously the right to use these bundles and issue regulations to their own government and government agencies, to enable the oversight of the function of training humanitarian teams and the management of their strategies, to confirm the ability to perform the service responsibly.

The Government of a country that uses the service for the purpose of its own stabilization can thus gain permanent responsibility for the purpose of joint protection and the maintenance of the Institution's functions on the basis of its development of security and risk prevention; therefore, the exercise of authority for the Institution to commercially communicate with the denial centers in the country and government uses the mission, and also rightly to establish partnership agreements with commercial corporations on the territory.
