

Union Of Shebuian Provinces

Constitution

In the Table, on January third, 2022.

Crafted By The People Of Shebuia

We The Shebuians Of The Union Of Shebuian Provinces need a strong government to protect and serve our great nation, and so we now come together to make the constitution of The Union Of Shebuian Provinces.

Article I : Leader Branch

Section 1 : Every three years there is the presidential election. Whoever wins will become the president of the Shebuian Provinces. The President shall be able to get reelected as long as they win the election in the third year a 2nd time. The President Shall be over 10 years of age and shall have to be a Shebuian Citizen. The President Must say an Oath of Office once in the first year of his or her Presidency if they don't say it there Vice President will Replace them. The Oath Shall be the Following :

“I (First Name) (Middle Initial) (Last Name) Pledge My Loyalty to the Union of Shebuian Provinces as The President of This Great Nation, and Under Doge will Proserve, Protect and Defend the Liberty’s of The People.”

The President will control the leader branch of the union.

Section 2 : The President gets to choose a Vice President. If the Vice President of the Union can not be chosen, the person who came in 2nd in the presidential election will become the Vice President of the union. If the president is out for a day the Vice President takes over the president's roles as acting President. If the president dies or resigns the Vice President becomes the new president. If the President is out for too long the Table will have a vote. If the vote is yes the Vice President Becomes President. The President can replace the Vice President with a new one if he has a good reason for it.

Section 3 : The President and Vice President will have advisers who would be incharge of departments. This group of advisers is the President and the Vice President will be called the Cabinet. The Cabinet Members will be chosen by the President shall be able to fire these members at any time and replace them at any time. Each member shall be incharge of their own department, the President can add new Departments at any time with permission from the Senate.

Section 4 : For the President to be impeached The Table has to have No confidence in the current President. If the table has no confidence then the table will have a vote if the majority of the members of table vote to impeach the president then a national impeachment election will occur, if the majority of Shebuian Citizens want to impeach the leader then the president will be impeached and the vice president will become president.

Section 5 : There is also a senate. Every 3 years following the year 2021 there is a senate election. The Union Shall be Divided into Regions. Each Region shall Contain the same Number of Provinces. Each Province's Region shall be decided by Geographical Location. Each Region shall get 2 Prime who will represent them in the Senate. If someone creates a bill the senate will vote on it. If the majority votes yes then they will send the bill to the Table for a Final Vote.

This concludes Article 1.

Article II : Approval Branch

Section 1 : The next branch is the Approval Branch. This branch will include the table. The table will have Chairmen. These Chairmen will represent each province in the table, and will be the leader of the province government of the providence that they represent. The table will approve the laws that the Senate comes up with. They would have a vote on the law otherwise called a bill if the vote says yes the bill shall be passed. If not, the law will be removed from the table.

Section 2 : If the vote is a tie there will be a Representative. This mentioned Representative shall be the voice of the Territories and Dependencies of the Union.

Section 3 : The chairman and representative will be elected in the same elections as the said Senate. The winning party will get the majority of the seats while the party that comes 2nd will get the remaining seats.

Section 4 : Every 6 months the party with the most Chairman in the Table will choose one of the Chairman as the Speaker of The Table or Speaker for Short. The Speakers can be picked two times in a row and can serve non-consecutive terms. The Speaker will still do Chairman jobs but will also preside over the Table and will stop the debates from becoming too much of a fight. The Speaker will also be behind the Vice President in the “line of succession” of the President (following the speaker shall be the Supreme Judge).

This concludes Article 2

Article III : Justice Branch

Section 1 : The next branch is the justice branch. The justice branch contains our court system. If somebody thinks a law needs to be removed or changed then they go to the court. The Judge will listen to arguments from the side of the person who wants to change it and one from a person who defended it. Then the judge will decide who he believes. If the change is made then it will become law or if they want to remove law then they remove the law. If the person who does not want it to change wins then the law stays the same.

Section 2 : If somebody really thinks that the court chose the wrong answer then they go to the prime court. The same thing will happen with the court. And the prime judge will answer. There will be 2 prime judges.

Section 3 : If somebody thinks the prime court got it wrong they go to the Supreme Court. The same thing will happen with the 2 other courts. The supreme judge will make the final decision. There is only 1 supreme judge, they will be in charge of the justice branch. The Supreme Judge is Also 4th in the Presidential line of section following the Vice President and Speaker of the Table.

Section 4 : These judges will be chosen by the President and Vice President; and keep the job until the next president comes along.

This concludes Article 3.

Article IV : Amendments of the Union Constitution

Should the people of Shebuia decide to amend the constitution, they shall notify the president. If the president gives his approval, the president will have to get the approval of the Table. If all goes well, the amendment will be added. However, if the amendment brings harm to Shebuia more than 3 times, the amendment will be repealed. Harm to the union is defined by economic downfall, more crime and to abuses of power.

Article V : Presidential Line of Succession

The Presidential Line of Succession shall be the following. 1 : Vice President, 2 : Speaker of the Table, 3 : the Supreme Judge. After the Supreme Judge it will be the Cabinet Leads in order of when their Department was Created. The Terms of if the person in secession is President or Acting President was Laid out in Article 1, Section 2.

This concludes Article 5
