Preparations Underway To Open Clougherty Pool Next Week

If plans go according to schedule and minor repairs are completed, the Clougherty Pool in the Doherty Playground on Bunker Hill Street will be open next week. According to Bob McGann, director of the Charlestown Community Schools that manages the facility, a Monday, July 2 opening is anticipated.

The pool will be open seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. The pool schedule is:

- open swim — 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- adult laps — 5 to 6 p.m.
- open swim — 6 to 8 p.m.

McGann stated that a schedule of swim lessons will be announced next week.

For further information on the pool, contact Community Schools at 242-2770.

'USS Constitution' Salute To Charlestown

by Kathy Giordano

Learn to sail this summer or bone up on your navigational skills at two of Charlestown's most attractive waterfront locations. You can choose to sail in Boston Harbor or along the Mystic River. If you're between the ages of 8 and 20, there are free programs waiting for you to come join the fun.

The Courageous Sailing Center on Pier 4 in the Charlestown Navy Yard offers the 8- to 20-year-old residents of Charlestown the opportunity to set sail in Boston Harbor with the guidance of certified instructors teaching them to sail, the importance of water safety and navigation rules.

The center will begin its fourth season on July 5 and continue through Aug. 31, running daily Monday through Friday between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Operating with 13 Rhodes-19 sailboats and 13 instructors, the program will be able accommodate up to 35 youngsters at one time. Preregistration for groups is urged.

SIX DAYS OF FUN SCHEDULED TO CELEBRATE JULY 4th

by Kathy Giordano

The ninth annual Boston Harborfest will celebrate America's birthday by offering over 100 attractions during an eventful six days from June 29 through July 4. This year's events will salute Boston's harbor and most particularly the Bicentennial of the U.S. Coast Guard.

Events will take place in and around Boston Harbor, and will include the ninth annual Constitution Cup Regatta and guided tours of numerous vessels docked at various locations on the waterfront. The festival will also feature town meetings, band concerts, parades, demonstrations, island tours and the traditional fireworks displays. An additional treat will be the ninth annual Boston Chowderfest on City Hall Plaza on July 1.

Daily events will occur at Faneuil Hall and along the water's edge. Boston Harborfest brochures are available throughout the city, or for more details call 277-1528.

Listed below are local events at the Charlestown Navy Yard and other activities within walking distance from the community.

Navy Yard Development Forced To Address Neighbors' Concerns

by Kathy Giordano

Piecemeal development in the Charlestown Navy Yard and the rights of residents in the Bricklayers affordable housing units on 13th Street highlighted the list of concerns raised at the June 26 Neighborhood Council's Housing and Development Committee meeting. Under discussion were The Raymond Group's plans to build on Parcels 4 and 7 at the Yard's End section of the Navy Yard. Under fire were the Boston Redevelopment Authority for its delay in implementing a Navy Yard Master Plan and those responsible for the broken promises made to the Bricklayers' residents.

Committee members Mel Stillman, Jim Mansfield, Bob Scalli, Jim Conway, Ken Stone, Peter Looney, Dan Kovacevic, Stephen Collins, Ellen D'Ambrosio and Bill Galvin, acting as chairman in the absence of Tom Cunha, heard testimony for over two hours from the nearly 50 residents in attendance at the Hull Room of Building 5 in the Navy Yard. The meeting began with a viewing of the Navy Yard scale model in the BRA office in Building 33.

Referring to a Navy Yard Master Plan as a "history of stubbed toes," Steve McHugh reviewed the series of events that have brought the community to where it is today. He stated that in July 1988, the Neighborhood Council approved a Master Plan put before them to redevelop the Navy Yard and two months later the entire plan changed with the announcement of the New England Aquarium coming into the picture. He further stated that after the council approved the 1990 version of the Master Plan last March, the BRA made zoning changes before a presentation was made to its Board of Directors. "I find inconsistencies here," McHugh stated. "Why rush? Delay your vote until you get more accountability from the BRA."

Residents voiced valid concerns on future development of the Navy Yard including zoning, height restrictions, transportation and parking schemes, the status of the Chapter 106 review and an update on discussion on the crucial issue of instituting a Haul Road off Medford Street. With numerous references being made by BRA personnel to a 1978 Master Plan that allows them certain rights of development in the Navy Yard, a copy of that plan was requested for the community to review.

BRA Assistant Director Paul Barrett said that the 1978 Master Plan was a public document and was available for review at the Charlestown BRA office. He also stated that a study of the Haul Road had been completed and a draft of that study would be made available to the council before its scheduled July 10 meeting.

Residents of the Bricklayers' affordable townhouses listed their grievances to the committee on the proposal by The Raymond Group to build a hotel adjacent to their homes. Each of them stated that they were informed at the time they passed papers for their condominiums that a duplicate row of affordable housing would be constructed behind their buildings. "If I knew a hotel was going there, I wouldn't have bought my unit," one resident stated.

Their concerns included: loss of waterfront views with the construction of a hotel; the question of a family neighborhood next to a hotel and how the two would mix; hours of operation of the restaurant and lounges; noise; pollution from ventilation systems and automobiles; adequate parking for hotel visitors and employees; trees planted at water's edge of the hotel blocking their remaining view of the harbor; garbage being left on their side of the hotel; rodent control; loss of privacy; appropriate compensation for the building of a hotel on that site; legal rights as abutters; hours of construction operation; the height of the hotel, causing loss of sunlight and air circulation; and affect on real estate values.

Barrett stated that the 1990 Master Plan, approved by the Neighborhood Council, called for a hotel to be built on Parcel 4.

David Francis, president of The Raymond Group, said that the 1978 Master Plan called for the developer to construct 386 units of residential housing. Of that number, he stated, 50 units were given away so that the Bricklayers could be built. This give-away added up to an estimated $2.5 million loss of potential real estate sales to The Raymond Group. He also stated that the developer advanced money to the Bricklayers to make their housing a reality.

There is a federal law that requires mortgage lenders to give prospective buyers a written itemized good-faith estimate of their settlement charges. People tend to arrive at the settlement table with this document firmly clutched against their chests, questioning each item on their HUD form that does not match perfectly. It makes settlement attorneys crazy.

This is just a reminder that those good-faith estimates are just that — estimates. The lender's own charges are fairly accurate, but the charges for attorneys, termite inspections, title insurance and other items that appear on the sheet are probably going to be a little bit off. So will some of the prorated items, like taxes or homeowner's association fees, if you don't settle on the date that was fed into the equation the lender used to get the estimate. The purpose of the law is to disclose the lender's charges and give you a close idea of how much you must bring to the settlement table. But we can almost promise that it won't be to the penny — probably not even to the dollar!

If you are considering a move, contact the professionals at Silva Realty Associates. Call us at 242-7470 or stop by our office at 371 Somerville Ave. in Somerville.

Recent Graduates Enroll In Colleges

Five Charlestown residents, members of the class of 1990 at Don Bosco Technical High School in Boston, have enrolled at colleges or universities for the fall semester.

The students and the institutions they will attend are: James D. MacDougall of 14 Allston St., U/Mass-Amherst; Stephen M. Kimball of 8 Parker St., U/Lowell; Derek J. Gallagher of 75 Tibbetts Town Way, Suffolk University; Sean P. Buckley of 332A Main St., Northeastern University; and Matthew M. Shea of 39 Mead St., Salem State College.

Close to 75 percent of the 200 members of the class will go on to higher education, seven will go into the military services and the balance will enter the job market in the technologies they have learned at Don Bosco.

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St., on Tuesday, July 3 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The features will be "Harold's Fairy Tale," the story of how Harold meets a magic garden and a flower-hating witch with the help of his crayon; Madeline teaches Pepito, the bad hat, a lesson about freedom in "Madeline And The Bad Hat;"

and "Drummer Hoff," an adaption of the Caldecott award-winning book.

Chico, a desert coyote, has many adventures in the Hollywood Hills in "A Country Coyote Goes Hollywood," shown only at 3:30 p.m.

The suggested readings in conjunction with these films are Harold's Trip to the Sky by Crockett Johnson, Madeline and the Bad Hat by Ludwig Bemelmans and Wonders of

Children's Films

Coyotes by Sigmund A. Lavine.

Boston Park Rangers To Conduct Walking Tours Of Downtown Parks

The Boston Parks Department's Park Rangers will host a week-long tribute to the nation's favorite patriots July 1 to 7 with historical walking and bicycle tours through Boston's downtown parks.

The Boston Park Rangers have scheduled a number of specially-designed walking tours through the Boston

Common, Granary Burial Ground and the Public Garden this week as part of the regularly scheduled summer program.

Each Monday, Tuesday and Thursday at 1 p.m., the rangers tour our uncommon heritage with an historical survey of America's oldest park, the Boston Common. Among the green lawns of this 48-acre park stands the Col. Robert G. Shaw Memorial commemorating the 54th Massachusetts Regiment of freed Black-American soldiers who served during the Civil War, Brewer's Fountain and a memorial to the Boston Massacre based on an original design by Paul Revere. Participants meet at the Boston Common Ranger Station.

Each Wednesday and Saturday at 1 p.m., the Park Rangers offer tours through Granary Burial Ground where America's most noted revolutionaries are interred. Among the historic patriots lie Paul Revere, John Hancock, Peter Fanueil and a tribute to the victims of the Boston Massacre. Participants meet at the Granary Burial Ground on Tremont Street.

The reverence and beauty of the nation's oldest botanical garden are extolled during the rangers' tour of the Public Garden each Wednesday evening at 6 p.m. Amidst the Victorian landscape of this downtown park are tributes to some of America's greatest abolitionists as well as Boston's most famous statue of George Washington.

The Park Rangers' Independence Day tours will culminate in a 16-mile afternoon bicycle ride through the Emerald Necklace — the circle of greenery surrounding Boston designed by landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted — on Saturday, July 7. Participants are encouraged to bring lunch and call 522-2639 for reservations.

For more information on the Boston Park Rangers' Independence Day tour, or to receive a free copy of the Summer Guide, call 522-2639.

Port-Of-Call Visits Enhance Boston's July 4th Events

by Kathy Giordano

Independence Day celebrations in Boston will be enhanced by a sundry of visiting ships dropping anchor at various waterfront locations around the city. In salute to the U.S. Coast Guard's Bicentennial and as part of the ninth annual Boston Harborfest tribute to the harbor, a variety of vessels will pay a port-of-call visit to Boston allowing visitors to either view their beauty from its berth or come aboard for a guided tour.

The USCG Cutter Eagle, a training ship for Coast Guard cadets, will enter Boston Harbor on July 1 and remain in port until July 5. The Eagle will have the honor of escorting the USS Constitution on her annual turnaround cruise. The 295-foot cutter with 22 billowing sails will be docked at the USCG Support Center, 427 Commercial St. in the North End. She will be open for public visitation on July 2, 4 and 5 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Also docked at the center will be the USCG Ice Breaker Polar Sea. She will be open to the public on June 30, July 1, 2, 3, and 4, between 1 and 4 p.m.

The landing ship USS Lamoure County will be docked at Commonwealth Pier's World Trade Center from June 30 to July 4. Visiting hours will take place on June 30 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., July 1 from 1 to 4 p.m., July 2 and 3 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and July 4 between 1 and 4 p.m.

The aircraft carrier USS John F. Kennedy will be moored at the EDIC Marine Industrial Park (former Army Base) in South Boston. The 1,051-foot-long carrier has a combined ship and airwing crew of 5,000. Visiting hours for guided tours of the ship will be July 4 and 6, between 1 and 6 p.m. and July 7 and 8, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Visitors planning to tour any of the ships are required to wear flat, rubber-soled or leather shoes and slacks if possible. Because of the large number of expected visitors, it is suggested that public transportation be used whenever possible. Parking facilities at each location are limited.

The Charlestown Navy Yard will see a flotilla of vessels docked from Piers 1 to 4 during the week. Naval Academy YDs, a Russian sailing ship and two pre-World War II J-Class America's Cup Challengers will be among the visiting ships.

The ninth annual Constitution Cup Regatta in Boston's outer harbor on June 30 is bringing three competing vessels into the Courageous Sailing Center on Pier 4. The Russian sailboat Fazisi, a 130-foot racing boat, will arrive on June 29 and remain in port until July 5. The Endeavour and Shamrock V will also be on display on Pier 4 from June 28 through July 1.

The 130-foot Endeavour, built in 1934, will be captained by Sen. Ted Kennedy during the Regatta. Sen. John Kerry will call the commands aboard the 60-year-old, 120-foot Sham- rock V for the race. Both vessels will depart from Pier 4 with full 165-foot-high sails at 9 a.m. on Saturday, June 30 to parade to the noon start of the race off Nantasket Beach in Hull.

Ted Raymond and Dick Bland of The Raymond Group have been the principal organizers in Charlestown for the Regatta, providing ground support, security, facilities and the financial connections necessary for the successful operation of the event.

For more information on the ships and possible boarding hours, call the Courageous Sailing Center at 725-3263.

Five Yard Boats (YDs) from the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis will arrive at Pier 1 on July 1, and remain until July 5. Manned by Naval Academy midshipmen, the small personnel carriers capable of transporting up to 15 people, will be used to carry Naval personnel during the holiday weekend activities.

Visitors may also tour the USS Cassin Young and the USS Constitution in the National Historic Park section of the Charlestown Navy Yard during regularly scheduled visiting hours.

A visit to Boston's waterfront during the 1990 Independence Day celebration will feature a variety of events and activities that will either jar memories or form new ones.

Kids Force Scoop!

by Cathy Kennedy

Summer slows us all down, whiling away the long, lazy days ... but here at Kids Force we've been busy enjoying the great outdoors.

PAST EVENTS

• Canobie Lake Park

Some 55 of us traveled north on May 28 to enjoy the weather and amusements offered at Canobie Lake Park. We all enjoyed a full day in the sun, our peaceful picnic lunch beneath shady elms and each other's company. We at Kids Force wish to extend our gratitude to some wonderful chaperones: Mike Cummings, Ellie Tallent, Chris Rizzo, Kathy Cummings, Aga Connolly, Peggy Cummings, JoAnne Libby, Jack Marsden, Laura "Lee" Hickey and Nellie Gilgunn. We appreciate their dedication to keeping us safe and happy. Thanks to you all!

• Red Sox Game

The Red Sox outplayed

the Baltimore Orioles on June 23, and 25 of us watched our boys beat the Orioles in overtime at Fenway Park. We would like to give special thanks to Charlestown Boys & Girls Club Director Jerry Steimel for his continuing support of the kids from the Bunker Hill Housing Development in all our endeavors. He's a very special and caring person! By the way, Jerry, the air conditioning in the van felt great after a hot day in the bleachers!

UPCOMING EVENTS

• Saturday, July 14

I've secured a bus for us to use on Saturday, July 14 to perhaps take some R&R away from all this city heat. Want to barbecue on a sandy shore or roast weenies somewhere in the woods? I need volunteers to sign up to chaperone, cook and a special someone with his or her Class II license to drive this bus for us ... Task Force members: any suggestions on a clean, relaxing destination?? Please call me at 242-3363 or 242-3200 with any suggestions you may have on this trip. Help is appreciated! Call today!

• Courageous Sailing

Courageous Sailing begins on Thursday, July 5. Please come by 76 Monument St. or call Cathy at 242-3200 to sign up. This is a free opportunity to learn the art of sailing right in our own backyard!

• Summer Plans

If you're between 6 and 13, live in the Bunker Hill Housing Development and do not have any plans for summer or have not signed up for a camp ... call Cathy at 242-3363 or 242-3200 as soon as possible. There are very few opportunities available, so call Cathy right now.

CHAPERONES on the recent Kids Force trip to Canobie Lake Park included (l. to r.) Mike Cummings, Ellie Tallent, Chris Rizzo, Kathy Cummings, Aga Connolly, Peggy Cummings, JoAnne Libby and Jack Marsden. Missing from the photograph are Laura Hickey and Nellie Gilgunn.

A TRIP to Canobie Lake Park for a day of members of the Kids Force and their chaperones was the destination of some 55 members.

Hope to see you soon!

Adult Literacy Graduation A Tribute To The Importance Of Education

On May 31, 53 graduates of Boston Central Adult High School crossed the stage at English High to receive their high school diploma. For some, the graduation marked the end of a long road traveled to finish their education.

Funded through the Adult Literacy Initiative of Mayor Raymond Flynn's Office of Jobs and Community Services and the Boston Public Schools, the External Diploma Program gives adult learners a chance to return to school and receive a high school diploma in a supportive environment, among other adult learners. Together, the students can confront common obstacles to completing their education such as job stress, child care issues and fear of being unable to do the course-work.

Helen Garafano, a life-long Charlestown resident, started studying in the Kent/Charlestown Community School's external diploma program when it began nine years ago. She has not missed a semester in the entire nine years.

After dropping out of school at the age of 16, Garafano resumed her studies many years later, reading and writing at a third-grade level. She is the single parent of two children, and was a welfare recipient. After six years in the EDP program she had gained enough skills to attend the city-sponsored Boston Jobs Academy and got a job as a part-time secretary. Today, with her diploma in hand, she plans to obtain full-time employment.

"Helen's biggest obstacle was her lack of confidence in herself. When you're 6 years old and learning to read you don't have much else on your mind. People who are older have children and family problems. It's hard to learn to read when it's not all you have on your mind. But Helen put the time in and came through it all to achieve this diploma," says Charlestown's EDP Program Director Peggy O'Brien.

As part of the Boston Safe Neighborhood Plan, Mayor Flynn has encouraged parent and community participation in educational initiatives to reduce drug and gang-related violence. The Mayor stated: "One key to the success of the Safe Neighborhood Plan is for parents to become involved in their children's education. But it is just as important for youth to see parents pursuing their own education. I applaud the efforts of these adult learners who have worked so hard and set such a powerful example by achieving their diplomas."

Fair Winds And Sunny Skies Complement 'Salute To Charlestown' Cruise Of 'USS Constitution'

A Townie's Dream

June 17th, a day to honor the Battle of Bunker Hill. What better way to specialize this day than by being chosen to cruise on the USS Constitution the day before, to salute the people of Charlestown for being the host of this U.S. Navy Frigate.

The Charlestown Patriot had reported that the Commanding Officer of "Old Ironsides," David Cashman, would hold a lottery for 100 residents from Charlestown to participate in the event, allowing each one a guest.

I was born and raised on Henley Street, which was part of the original waterfront before the Navy Yard was built. As a kid, I watched the politicians, dignitaries and diplomats cruise on the Constitution every July 4th, never dreaming that one day I would board her for a special cruise to honor my town.

The cruise was held June 16 and would depart at 10 a.m. Those chosen and their companions met at the Hull Room in the Charlestown Navy Yard. There we tried with no luck to keep our excitement in order as we were mesmerized by the crew in their attire of the old-fashioned Navy uniforms. All guests were logged in and checked off.

We marched up the gangplank, followed by the colonial band. The Waltham Post 156, American Legion Band was chosen to play on deck, and the singing group "Wednesday At Seven" was on board to entertain. As Charlestown "Townies," many of the passengers knew one another. It began to feel like a family reunion.

The band began to play Anchors Away and we were soon waving to all those left on the pier. We were escorted out by the Coast Guard cutters as well as the Boston and Metro Police boats.

As the Constitution passed the USS Kidd and USS Young, each saluted in the fashion of their times. Sailors of "Old Ironsides" were at attention and saluted by waiving their hats. The crews of the 20th century saluted in the fashion to which we are all accustomed.

On shore there was a spectacular sight. The fire trucks and hook and ladders were blowing their horns, raising their ladders and spraying their hoses to salute the "Ole Girl."

The fireboat came to meet her with hoses spraying in every direction. The skyline was never more beautiful. It was Boston at its finest from the view on the Frigate Constitution.

During the turnaround, the captain enlightened us all on a few historical facts. She was built in 1797 and won her popularity in the War of 1812. She is the oldest commissioned ship today in the U.S. Navy and contains the most guns of any U.S. Navy ship.

Soon the ship was heading back toward the pier. It looked as if all of Charlestown was waiting for her return. In the background, the Bunker Hill Monument could be seen with the backdrop of an enchanting blue sky. The scene was unforgettable!

At the captain's command, the crew, dressed in their colonial whites, climbed onto the riggings waiving their hats in salute to Charlestown. A second command was ordered as we approached the pier, and the cannon was shot 17 times in honor of the town. Before the smoke from the cannon could clear, the band began playing our beloved National Anthem. All eyes instinctively turned to the stern of the ship to salute the huge American Flag, which was blowing in the breeze. As we all joined in to sing our National Anthem, the love and patriotism expressed towards the majestic symbol of our freedom was so spiritually uplifting, you could see the American pride on every face.

The mighty flag, sailors in white along the riggings, the guests saluting, and the band playing was truly a breathtaking experience.

Cruising on the Constitution is literally a once in a lifetime opportunity; and thanks to the captain who appreciates the ordinary citizen of Charlestown, I was able to experience this opportunity in my lifetime. I will never forget it!

Local Bay State Game Participants Competing For Team Spots

With the tryouts underway, athletes from every city and town in the state are competing for spots on regional sport teams at the 1990 Bay State Games.

Several Charlestown residents hope to join the more than 4,000 athletes at this year's finals, July 19 to 22 in Boston. The local hopefuls are Todd Fisher, Charlestown High, ice hockey; Jason Gallagher, Boston Latin, basketball; Kerri A. Gillen, Matignon High, field hockey; William Hayes, Malden Catholic, basketball; Brian Healey, volleyball; and Amy E. Rolinson, Winthrop High, field hockey.

Athletes may still register for tryouts in five Bay State Game sports: track and field, baseball, lacrosse, wrestling and gymnastics.

There are also two new events which will be held at the finals, the Bank of Boston Streetball Challenge, a 3-on-3 basketball tournament; and the Coca Cola Classic, a 6-on-6 soccer tournament. Athletes may enter with their own team until June 29 and no tryout is necessary.

For more information on regional tryouts or the two new tournament events, call the Bay State Games office at 727-3227.

Bunker Hill Whips Old Colony — O'Neil Sparks Team Play

by Bob DeCristoforo
Week two of the Boston Housing Authority Fast Break League saw the Bunker Hill Team soundly defeat Old Colony of South Boston 39-16 in a very physical game.

Captain Mike Erardi and Ronny Carrington once again were the dominating offensive forces, leading a second-half charge that saw the six-point halftime lead quickly double in the early minutes of second-half play. Erardi, playing the point position for the first time, also had a number of key assists.

Kenny O'Neil, in his first game of the year, played an exceptional game. His hustle and spirit were key factors in the win.

Billy Barands and Mike Bassett, forced into new roles as starters, lived up to their responsibilities with each playing a fine game.

On Saturday, Bunker Hill will play the Old Harbor Development in a 9:30 a.m. game at Columbus Park.

C.Y.O. Try Outs

Attention 13- to 15-year-olds! There will be C.Y.O. baseball try outs at Ryan Field, Saturday, June 30 at 2:30 p.m. There is a $15 registration fee.

Remember, you cannot be 16 years of age before July 1, 1990.

Hope to see you there.

The Charlestown Against Drugs Corner . . .

LOOK AT THE NUMBERS

- 1 out of 8 Americans are affected by family alcoholism or another drug addiction.
 - 7 million of these are children under 18.
 - In a classroom of 20 kids, 5 come from homes where some type of chemical abuse occurs.
- Alcohol is the third leading cause of birth defects in the U.S. — surpassing LSD, marijuana and heroin.
- Almost one-tenth of the babies born in America, or about 400,000, are exposed to drugs before birth.
 - One-third of these babies will be born prematurely and suffer many complications.
 - There is no difference in these statistics among mothers on welfare or the more affluent. In fact, it's estimated that 80% of the drug users in America are middle-class casual users, not poor inner-city people.
- Your chances of having an accident are 15 to 20 times higher when your blood alcohol level is at the legal limit of .10 percent.
- 70 to 80% of those arrested 2 or more times for drunk driving are alcoholics.
- One-half of all emergency-room admissions are alcohol- or other-drug-related.
- Tobacco kills 1,000 people every day.
- Smoking between 1 and 3 joints a day has the same effect on the lungs as 15 cigarettes.
- $140 billion is spent on alcohol, $65 billion on other drugs, a year in this country.
- Drug abuse costs us $176.4 billion a year — $98.9 billion is in lost productivity.
 - 1 in 4 American workers knows personally that a co-worker uses illegal drugs on the job. 1 in 3 knows about drug use before or after work.
- Taking inflation into account, alcohol prices have gone down by 24% in the U.S., and the federal tax on beer and wine hasn't gone up since 1951.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER . . .

CHAD will be sponsoring a free Tennis Clinic for 6- to 16-year-olds on Friday, July 13 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the tennis courts in the National Park Services section of the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Tennis Clinic participants will have an opportunity to attend the U.S. Pro Tennis Championship Tournament at the Longwood Cricket Club in Chestnut Hill on Wednesday, Aug. 1. The day's events will include watching tennis matches and taking part in a Tennis Clinic at 2 p.m. that also features prizes and refreshments.

Tickets for the tournament are $10. Anyone interested in attending should leave their name with Tom Desmond at 241-8932 or Gloria Conway at 241-9511, and bring the ticket money to the July 13 clinic.

If you have comments, suggestions or would like information about CHAD, call Jerry Steimel at 242-1775, Gloria Conway at 241-9511, or Linda Smith at 241-7700.

Two Original One Acts Opening At The Charlestown Working Theater

The Charlestown Working Theater, located at 442 Bunker Hill St., opens its summer stock season with two original one acts: "Tony, Dean, And Sammy, A One Man Show" by Tony V and "It's Mary's Show ... A Drammer!" by Jennifer Johnson and John Peitso.

Performances are Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. from July 20 through Aug. 4. Tickets are $10.

Free Fig Newtons will be given to the first 100 at the door.

For more information and reservations, call 242-3534.

Sullivan A Providence College Graduate

Christine Marie Sullivan of Malden, formerly of Winthrop Street, Charlestown, recently graduated cum laude from Providence College. She is a member of Phi Sigma Iota and Sigma Delta Pi.

Her sister Paula Jean graduated from Matignon High School in Cambridge and will be attending Bridgewater State College in September.

They are the daughters of Paul J. and Patricia C. Sullivan and the granddaughters of the late Edward J. and Katherine R. Cummings and the late Edward C. and Mary A. Sullivan.

Post Offices Closed On July 4

Charlestown residents are advised that all post offices will be closed and there will be no regular mail delivery or collections on Wednesday, July 4 in observance of Independence Day.

In keeping with postal policy, Special Delivery and (continued from page one) sail must have a parental permission slip signed before being allowed to board a boat. All involved in the program are required to wear life jackets.

Registration begins on July 1 and is ongoing throughout the summer. Forms can be picked up at the Muster House inside Gate 4 in the Navy Yard or at the Sailing Center trailer on Pier 4.

The Courageous Sailing Center is a citywide program open to all youths of Boston, especially those in-

Sail Your Way Through Summer

involved in non-profit organizations.

Charlestown youngsters are always welcome, according to Russ Smith, program director. "If no pre-registered group is using the vessels," he stated, "they will be taken out for a lesson." He added, "They can also drop by at 2:30 p.m. and be taken out after the regular day of scheduled activities is over."

Smith has set aside the following days exclusively for Charlestown youngsters at the center: every Tuesday until Aug. 28 (except July 10); every Thursday from July 26 through Aug. 23; every Friday until Aug. 24 (except Aug. 3); and the last week of August on Monday through Thursday, Aug. 27 to 30. The exceptions are dates already booked by groups.

For more information on this program, call the Courageous Sailing Center at 725-3263.

Another popular sailing program in Charlestown is gearing up for its second season of operation. The Schrafft Sailing Club, located on the Mystic River is offering free instruction to Charlestown youngsters between the ages of 10 and 18.

The non-profit center, sponsored by The Flatley Co., operates six Cape Cod Mercurys, manned by certified instructors, from Monday to Friday between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Differing from the Courageous Sailing program, The Schrafft Center operates a sailing club running four, two-week sessions beginning July 2. These lessons will be on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Fridays will be reserved for day trips, picnics and races.

During the first few weeks of instruction, a new club member, called a Recruit, will go in a boat with an experienced sailor and learn how to tie knots, rig a boat, basic boat parts and a few simple sailing maneuvers. In no time a new club member may receive a Recruit Award and advance to Bosun.

The Schrafft Sailing Club offers five levels of mastery: Recruit, Bosun, First Mate, Helmsman and Helmsman Racing/Instructor. As a Bosun, members learn how to be an effective crew member as well as skipper a boat in light wind. As First Mate, instruction moves on so members learn how to skipper a boat in moderate to heavy winds. And as Helmsman, members learn the rules and strategies of sailboat racing and/or work toward becoming an instructor at The Schrafft Sailing Club. A member can work toward passing each of these levels at his or her own pace, or sail just for the fun of it.

Spaces are limited and early sign-up is encouraged. Applicants must show a proof of swimming ability and have a signed parental permission slip. All club members are required to wear life jackets while on board the vessels. Applications can be picked up at the club, located at The Schrafft Center Waterfront Park, behind The Schrafft Center, 529 Main St. at Sullivan Square. For more information, call Heidi Hibben, club director, at 241-5431.

Navy Yard Development Forced To Address Neighbors' Concerns

(continued from page 3) rett to clarify a statement he made referring to the proposal as being "put forward for the neighborhood's consideration." She stated "Does this leave it open? Is there still space to change it?"

Barrett responded: "The neighborhood can do what it wants. You can vote it up or down. Just ask the ad-hoc committee."

Galvin added, "This is not written in stone. It can be changed subject to the Boston Redevelopment Authority Board's approval."

Peter McClure asked the committee to "think clearly, be cautious, wait. It will eventually happen. You don't have to rush it through."

Collins asked for a more detailed benefits package from The Raymond Group, similar to that which came forward from the New England Aquarium. "Why the rush," he asked. "We need more information on benefits and a possible memorandum of understanding

(MOU)."

Francis stated that The Raymond Group has preceded any of its development proposals with benefits to the community, amounting to $60,000 a year for the past few years. He said that The Raymond Group has contributed to the Boys & Girls Club, Camp Bunker Hill, the Kennedy Center/Headstart Program, St. Catherine's Parish, the Preservation Society and the annual Harbor Park Day. He added that the developer gave up all rights to develop Building 104 to turn over the property to the Bricklayers for additional affordable housing units.

The Housing and Development Committee will hold another meeting to discuss The Raymond Group's development plans for Parcels 4 and 7 on Monday, July 9 at 7 p.m. at the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill St. The public is welcome to attend.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, You who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and in all instances of my life. You are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as You confirm once again that I never want to be separated from You even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with You in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. (Say for three consecutive days - favor will be granted.) Prayer must be published.

SAINT JUDE'S NOVENA

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the hopeless, pray for us. Say this prayer nine times a day and by the eighth day, your prayer will be answered. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised.
Thank you, Saint Jude.

DID JESUS COME FOR YOU?

"For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost," Luke 19:10. Jesus said that the purpose of His coming was twofold. He came to seek the lost. Many of the men He spoke to did not consider themselves lost, He could do nothing for them. Those who saw themselves on the path to HELL were eligible for His great work. He went to the cross, took their sins upon Himself, dying for them, to save them. He came forth bodily from the grave, ascended up to heaven, and now offers Salvation to all who will come in repentance to God by HIM. "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus," 1 Tim. 2:5. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life," John 3:16.

Not For Nothin'
But Have You Heard . . .

- Welcome . . . to Rev. Ronald Coyne, newly stationed at St. Catherine's Parish, effective this week. Father was seen making the rounds and getting to know the community and its people as one of his first official acts. Great to have you here.
- Did You Realize . . . that July 1st marks the mid point of the year? Well, it's about time to start thinking about the permanent placement of a Christmas tree within the confines of the Navy Yard. Let's get cracking, guys!
- Birthday Wishes Go Out This Week To . . . Bill McClellan of Elm Street who'll celebrate his 38th (again) this year . . . See, Bill, we make you younger each year! . . . Virginia Ellington of Sackville Street will celebrate a milestone on July 1st. We know it will be a great one, Ginger . . . and Patsy Keigney who'll turn 27 on July 4th. Have a wonderful Day, Patsy.
- Big Clean-up This Saturday, June 30th . . . in Mishawum Park. Residents and friends are urged to turn out for the event starting at 9 a.m. and running till noon. Report to 41 Tibbetts Town Way to pick up equipment.
- What A Guy . . . Senate candidate Tom Birmingham was willing to give a potential voter the shirt off his back last week during a visit to this newspaper's office. Not taken up on the offer, candidate Tom made good his promise and made sure the front-desk lady was properly attired for her next stroll down Old Ironside Way!
- Navy Yard Visitors . . . were the Kelly clan of Pleasant Street. Lead by Barbara, who reportedly turned 50 a few weeks ago, the family traveled back and forth from Central Wharf to Piers 1 and 4 during a recent Saturday outing. The destination was a surprise but all admitted to having a great time.
- Get Well Wishes . . . go out to Teresa Pollack of 13th Street who's recuperating at Brigham and Women's Hospital after recent surgery. Hope you're home and able to get around real soon, Teresa!
- Congrats . . . to Kathy (O'Neil) Smith for scoring in the top 57 for the Medical Boards. Great job, Kathy!
- Poster Contest Winner . . . is John Hickey of Walford Way. John, 12, received recognition at a downtown reception for his entry in the Boston Water and Sewer Commission's Conservation Poster Contest. His poster is on display in the Commission's lobby. Very proud of his achievement are his mother Laura and older brother Corey.
- Opps . . . "It's A Girl!" announcement in June 14th edition of the Patriot had grandparents listed wrong. Baby Samantha Pagliarulo's proud grandparents are: maternal — Margaret and Joseph Hennessey of Charlestown and Al Libby of Andover. Congrats to all!
- The Klemanskys Have Cause For Celebration . . . Anne (Klemansky) Pisarri has graduated from Lawrence Memorial School of Nursing and will be working at the New England Memorial Hospital. Her son Jason has been accepted as an eighth grader at Austin Prep. Good Luck to both and congrats to mother and grandmother Mary Patterson of Charlestown.
- Don't Poop Without A Scoop . . . in Shipyard Park in the Navy Yard. Signs have been posted and the city ordinance will be enforced if violators continue to persist in their resist. An animal control watch has been enforced, so curb your pet or you'll get it yet!
- Speaking of Dogs . . . We are now into the Dog Days of Summer. Beginning July 3rd and running till Aug. 15 we'll feel the heat. Keep cool and enjoy all that summer has to offer.
- The Heat Got To Him . . . We Hope! . . . On Sunday afternoon a man tossed out slices of bread at the corner of Main and West School Streets to feed the little critters, then threw the wrappings out onto the street. As the wrapper blew down the street, we bet he was the first to complain about how dirty the streets are! How do ya figure? Please don't litter.
- Don't Ya Just Want To Scream . . . Contractor went onto the job under the Tobin Bridge last week and found three trees that had just been planted the day before hacked away and totally destroyed. The $400,000 Massport project to beautify the area for all residents can't achieve its purpose if the actions of this sort go unpunished. Keep an open eye down there, won't ya folks?
- It's Now Been 97 Days . . . since a Charlestown person has been on the CANA project as a community liaison. We're still watching. Stay tuned. . . Meanwhile, police reports inform us that a construction worker was injured on the job last Tuesday when he fell off a broken ladder. Not serious, we understand, although he was taken to MGH for treatment.
- July Is . . . officially National Hot Dog month. Make mine all around!

*Happy Birthday, America!
Have a Great July 4th celebration, Charlestown!*

Summer Reading Club To Get Underway At The Library

Children 6 and older are invited to become an undercover investigator and join the Summer Reading Club at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St.

The club meets every Wednesday morning beginning July 11, and concludes with an awards ceremony on Aug. 22. It consists of an hour of stories, games, crafts and mysterious surprises.

Several books suggested for snoops are Miss Nelson Is Missing by Harry Allard, Nate The Great by Marjorie Weinman Sharmat, Howliday Inn by James Howe, Dracula Is A Pain In The Neck by Elizabeth Levy, Court Of The Stone Children by Eleanor Cameron and The Wrestling Game by Ellen Raskin.

Honored By Northeastern

Volunteer Case Reviewers Needed In Charlestown

The Foster Care Review Unit of the Department of Social Services is in need of volunteer case reviewers in the Charlestown area. A volunteer case reviewer participates as a member of a panel of three people reviewing cases of families who have a child placed outside the home.

The Department of Social Services provides services to children and families. Its first priority is to protect children while strengthening and supporting family life. When family problems require placing a child outside the home, DSS arranges substitute care to meet the child's needs. The Foster Care Review Unit is an independent unit within DSS whose primary responsibility is to review cases of families who have a child in substitute care.

Volunteers will receive training, a stipend, ongoing support and participate in at least two case reviews a month at the local DSS office. Each review takes one to two hours.

Please call Pamela Rheume at 727-0900, ext. 513 for further information.

During the summer, the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club Teen Center will be open from 6 to 10 p.m. every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday night starting July 5. There will be a number of drop-in activities including pool, ping pong, movie nights, cook-outs and Red Sox trips. Also there will be field trips on alternate Saturdays, July 14 and 28 and Aug. 11 and 25, going to such places as amusement parks, water slides and various beaches. Club membership is not required for any of the drop-in activities or trips.

The gymnasium will also be open with both a boys and a girls three-on-three basketball tournament, a whiffle ball league, ball hockey and other activities planned.

So come in off the street and see what's happening at the club this summer.

SUMMER CLUB BEGINS

The Summer Club Day Camp and the Adventure Camp begin Monday, July 2. There are four sessions in each camp, and they run until Aug. 24. It is not too late to sign up for some of the sessions. So if you need a safe and well-supervised activity for your children this summer, contact the club at 242-1775.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters to the Editor must be signed and include name, address and telephone number for verification. The name will be withheld if the writer so requests. Anonymous letters will NOT be published.

Thank You, Father Burns

Dear Father Burns,

We would like to thank you for the beautiful service for our mother and wife. Your support was greatly appreciated in our time of need. Sadie may be gone, but will never be forgotten; she will live on through us all.

Thank you again,
The Awbrey Family

Thank You

To the Editor,

The Charlestown Healthy Aging Program (CHAP) extends a sincere thank you to its members. Your time, your planning and your presence at our meetings and workshops/functions are most appreciated. The time and energy you gave for the String of Pearls event made it a great success. The weather prevented many from attending but those present had a wonderful afternoon.

We also express our gratitude to Gloria Conway and her staff for the support and encouragement CHAP has received from the Patriot in our first two years.

Sincerely,
Sr. Ann Rita Sullivan and Zelma Lacey

The Veterans Garden On Bunker Hill Street

I would like to thank Jimmy Hall of the Community Gardens for his donation of flowers for the Veterans Garden in the Bunker Hill Housing Development, Councillor Bob Travaglini for his donation and our manager Jeannie Giuglio for her donation, Senator Fran Doris for his donation of a new M.I.A. flag and, last but not least, Bob Urquhart for his help in getting the garden ready for the 17th of June parade and his family for their donation of flowers.

It was a lot of hard work but we have at least started a garden that will always be there to perpetuate its founder, the late James "Butsy" McGrath. We on Bunker Hill Street lost a good friend and neighbor and miss him being around, so it was indeed a pleasure to work so hard.

Hopefully in the months to come we will have some more flags to replace the old ones. Plans are being made to formally dedicate the garden in the future.

My thanks again to everyone who helped me.

A Local Pol Who Actually Helped Us, No Connections, No Anything!

To the Editor:

My wife and I recently moved our primary residence from Marshfield to Charlestown. We chose Charlestown because of its proximity to our jobs and the quaintness of the town. The narrow streets and early American architecture are very similar to Marblehead but the brick and clapboard townhouses assure you that the city is within reach.

We had our fears though. As much as we liked the looks of the town we didn't know a lot about its citizens. People told us that we would be dealing with the Boston bureaucracy if we had any problems and that it was virtually impossible to get anything done here. We had heard that Townies were tough, we had read about someone named Butchie Doe and had vague memories of forced busing. On the other hand, we knew a guy who was born and raised here, Dan Doherty, who still takes care of the pensioners from the Longshoreman's Union, and we had read about another guy, Pete Looney, who really seemed to care about this town. We didn't foresee any problems so we decided to take the chance.

Problems did arise however. They started about two months after we moved in. Not big problems, little problems, the kind that are not important enough to involve the bureaucracy but damned aggravating just the same. The first involved Hood Milk and a particular piece of snow-removal equipment that could, honestly, wake the dead. We are located just across the street from the plant and when they had to plow (usually in the wee hours of the morning) the noise from that plow would just dare you to try to get any sleep. It was so noisy in fact that even after the plowing stopped your mind would not let you go back to sleep for fear of being jolted awake from its howl.

The incident happened twice before we decided to try our city councillor's office. On my first attempt I got Councillor Travaglini himself who, after listening to the problem, said he would look into it and get back to me. Two days later a guy named Charlie Clabaugh called and said he had spoken with a representative of Hood Milk and that they would attempt to resolve the problem. At about 2:30 a.m., after the next snowstorm, we were blasted awake by the deadly howl of the dreaded plow. We both angrily agreed that indeed you couldn't get anything done in the city.

Charlestown Babe Ruth League Needs Your Support

This year in Charlestown there has been a Babe Ruth League formed with the North End. At this time, the league officers are looking for donations to continue the growth of this fine organization. If you are interested in helping us keep the youth of our town active in sports, please help support Babe Ruth. Any donation you can possibly afford will be greatly appreciated.

Checks can be made payable to: C.Y.B., c/o Robert P. McIntosh, P.O. Box 341, Charlestown, Mass. 02129.

Thank you for your support.
Charlestown Babe Ruth League

I called the councillor's office that morning, more to aggravate him than report the failure, and was connected with Clabaugh. I reiterated the problem, with that little edge in my voice that lets someone know I'm angry, and he said: "I'm sorry Bill, I didn't realize that it was a particular piece of equipment. Let me get back to you." I responded, "Sure!" allowing that defeated attitude to carry the word. He called me back a short time later to say that he was meeting with a vice president of Hood later that day to discuss the problem, to which I responded, "Sure!" The next morning he reported that Hood would remove the offending equipment. I said, "Thanks!" but I meant "Sure!"

We watched the weather reports carefully, just waiting for the next snowstorm, and when it finally happened the noise was gone. It was gone and it hasn't been back since. We couldn't believe it; a local pol had actually helped us, no connections, no nothing. Could it be possible that this guy was legit?

We were to find out shortly thereafter when we encountered a rather big problem which could only be solved by the Traffic and Parking Department. I have had to deal personally with that department and have usually come away frustrated to the point of suicide. The details are too lengthy to cover here, but suffice it to say that the problem was corrected within three days. That is not just good results, that's miraculous.

The next problem wasn't a biggie, but bothersome. The Post Office refused to deliver mail to our townhouse because they considered it to be like a condo, because some of the units are attached. It is not a condo, officially or otherwise, but they demanded that we put up a central mail facility or they would simply not deliver the mail. We did not. They did not. Several biggies were contacted, and not just by us: Joe Kennedy's office, Sen. Doris (I think), all the contacts the CEDC might have, and finally Councillor Travaglini's office. I know I'm being prejudiced now, but the Post Office finally agreed to deliver the mail very shortly after we added Travaglini's office to our list of supporters.

We have been here eight months now and have met many more people, from Mishawum to the Flagship Wharf area. Each day we are more impressed with this town, its people and the unique sense of community that exists here. We know we'll never be Townies or as dedicated as Pete Looney, but two things are certain: 1. We love living in Charlestown, and 2. Bobby Travaglini owns our votes (thanks Charlie).

Sincerely yours,
William and Dianne Green

A Special Thank You

I would like to extend a special thank you to all the people who were so concerned and so helpful when my son Michael had his accident. Thank you all.

Gallagher A Scholarship Semi-Finalist

Jason Gallagher, a basketball player and student at Boston Latin School, has been selected from among hundreds of student athletes across the state to be interviewed as a semi-finalist in the Bank of Boston/Bay State Games "Lead By Example" scholarship program.

The scholarships are eventually awarded to eight outstanding high school juniors who have demonstrated leadership in school, sports and their community.

This year's scholarship applications reached record numbers, making the regional selections the most difficult ever. The eight winners from the four regional semi-finalists interviews will share $20,000 in scholarship awards. Their names will be announced at the Games opening ceremony on July 20 at Boston College.

POLICE LINE

From the desk of Deputy Superintendent Robert T. Hayden Area A, Boston Police Department

Monday, June 18

An apartment at 101 Rutherford Ave. was broken into during the day. The person(s) climbed in the side window, and took jewelry and camera equipment.

A stolen automobile was recovered on Polk Street.

Tuesday, June 19

While patrolling at 6:45 p.m., officers heard a loud noise in the alley way at 360 Main St. Upon investigation, they found an exploded pipe in the alley that had been stuffed with fireworks.

An automobile parked on Cambridge Street was broken into, and the radar detector was stolen.

Wednesday, June 20

An automobile parked on Spice Street was broken into, and golf clubs and a radar detector were stolen.

Friday, June 22

A stolen automobile was recovered on Terminal Street, and another was recovered on Spice Street.

At 3 a.m., Officers O'Connory and Zambello responded to Russell Street on the report of an automobile accident. Upon arrival, they observed damage to three automobiles. The driver, a 29-year-old resident, was found to be intoxicated and was placed under arrest for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence.

At 2 p.m., an individual entered the parking lot at 50 Cambridge St., pointed a knife at the attendant, demanded the receipts and then fled on foot.

An automobile parked on West School Street was broken into, and an attempt was made to steal it.

At 11 p.m., officers responded to Old Landing Way where they found a 17-year-old resident who had been shot in the side. He was transported to Mass. General Hospital where he was reported in stable condition. Information about the cause of this incident is under investigation by the detectives.

Saturday, June 23

A stolen automobile was recovered on Tufts Street.

At 2:30 a.m., Officer Calabro stopped an automobile on Medford Street for a violation and found the driver, a 20-year-old Somerville resident to be intoxicated. The officer placed him under arrest for operating under the influence. Cocaine was found in his vehicle, and complaints will be sought.

At 4 a.m., the estranged husband of a Baldwin Street resident broke in the front door and assaulted an individual inside. The man, a 30-year-old Medford resident, was later apprehended in South Boston and was placed under arrest for the assault and home invasion.

At 4 p.m., Officers Assad and Denalicki observed two individuals inside a stolen automobile in the Mishawum housing development. Upon seeing the officers, the suspects jumped out of the car and fled into the development.

An automobile parked on Constitution Road was broken into, and a radio was stolen.

Sunday, June 24

A resident of Old Landing Way reported that at approximately 1 a.m., youths in the area threw a rock through a window.

These incidents are under investigation by the detectives of Area A.

Residents are reminded: If you know of any drug activity in your neighborhood, call the Boston Police Hot Line at 247-4697. It is not necessary to give your name, and all information will be investigated.

Bunker Hill Day Parade Raffle Winners

William McCabe, Chief Marshal of the 1990 Bunker Hill Day Parade, has announced the winners of the raffle to benefit this year's parade which were drawn on June 16 at the American Legion's "Nite Before"

Banquet.
