

ABOUT PAIN MANAGEMENT

The medical field of pain management blends science and alternative medicine to study, diagnose, and ultimately treat pain anywhere in the body. A pain management clinic will provide a variety of advanced procedures and therapies for those needing chronic pain treatment. Such procedures may include: massage therapy, physical therapy, and epidural steroid injections before more intensive alternatives are explored.

Take a moment to see where your current pain level lies with one or more of the following pain charts.

