

How dangerous each zodiac sign is?

These are the top 10:

Capricorn is the zodiac sign (December 22 - January 19)

An all-around criminal who is sloppy is most likely to have this indicator.

There's no limit to what Capricorn may do when it comes to crimes of all kinds, from small robbery to murder.

As a result, they are prone to being taken advantage of.

Secondly, Leo (July 23 - August 23)

Leo's fierce anger might make him appear crazy at times. With Mercury in their head, Leos rule with fire and symbolized by a lion.

They commit crimes primarily for the purpose of gaining notoriety.

Scorpion 3 (October 23 - November 21)

Scorpios are hazardous because of their aggression, jealousy, and sadism.

When the stakes are high, a Scorpio's jealousy and aggression may be lethal.

Even if they don't commit crimes on their own, they are the ones who orchestrate the events that lead to them.

Sagittarius is the fourth sign of the zodiac (November 22 - December 21)

Sagittarius is harmful because of its severe nature and ability to steal.

As long as their lives are in danger, Sagittarius will not shed a drop of blood. However, when the perfect conditions arise, they may be incredibly violent.

They have a reputation for being superb criminals who have escaped from jail.

The fifth sign of the zodiac is Aquarius (January 21 - February 18)

It is possible for Aquarius to have a manipulative and vindictive attitude. Aquarius is the greatest at retaliation since they are usually well-behaved.

In addition to being skilled manipulators, they are also excellent hackers.

Libra is the sixth sign of the zodiac (September 23 - October 22)

Libras may engage into financial or drug-related crimes. Even though the scales are the zodiac's representation, Librans are capable of criminal activity, but with much difficulty.

They're more interested in money, and they're more likely to engage in bank robbery-related offenses. Another area of interest is drugs.

They prefer to operate as part of a team rather than commit crimes on their own.

The seventh sign of the zodiac is Aries (March 21 - April 19)

For many Aries, being oppressed is the height of humiliation. If you try to control an Aries, you'll get a swift retort from them.

To avoid the rat race and attain success in life, people may turn to criminal vocations such as working as a hired gunman.

8. The sign of Pisces (February 19 - March 20)

Pisces may be risky because of their temperament and the way they treat their bodies.

They're going to go a little crazy. If Pisces is left alone, he or she might become dangerously irascible.

Gemini is number nine (May 21 - June 20)

Gemini's inconsistency and potential involvement in fraud or theft might make them hazardous.

synastry calculator and other non-violent crimes are more likely to be committed by Gemini, however this is not always the case. Consistency and shallowness are inherent characteristics of Gemini.

10. The zodiac sign Virgo (August 23 - September 22)

Virgos are particularly skilled at committing theft while remaining undetected. Virgo, the perfectionist, is an expert pickpocket.

It's nearly impossible to detect a trace of their crime since they know their job so well and perform it so meticulously.

In terms of criminal activity, Virgos are more prone to engage in hacking and robbery.

Cancer is the eleventh leading cause of death in the (June 21 - July 22)

In some cases, cancer patients may suffer from mental instability. They may leave distinctive markings on their victim's body as a result of a cancer-related crime of passion. Due to their mental instability, they are frequently arrested for repeat offenses.

Taurus is the 12th sign of the zodiac (April 20 - May 20)

It's possible that Taurus has a volatile nature. Taurus may become ruthless world rulers if their instincts are misguided.

They're born to lead, and they'll stop at nothing to achieve their goal of conquering the globe.