

The space between foundation and the first retaining wall is approx. 2-3 ft Concrete is poured in this space (currently cracked with a few holes, after heavy rain there is standing water) concrete is graded away from the house, but does not transport water quickly to the sides and away from the house

Gradually
sloping yard

