Keyes Elected To At-Large Seat On CNC - Vacancies Now In Precincts 4 And 6

The Charlestown Neighborhood Council held its monthly meeting on May 2 at the K. of C. Hall. The meeting opened with Chairman Peter Looney reading two letters of resignation from council members. The first was from Precinct 6 representative Nancy Keyes who has moved from that precinct, and the second was from Precinct 4 representative Pat McClellan whose work prevents his attendance at meetings.

Keyes opted to run for the at-large seat recently vacated by Gregg Nolan. She was elected and will serve the remainder of his term until the fall of 1996. Looney declared the precinct 4 and 6 seats vacant and requested that persons 18 or over who live in either of these precincts to send a letter of interest to him at P.O. Box 397, Charlestown, MA 02129 prior to the June 6 meeting.

Bill Galvin reported on an April 24 meeting relative to City Square bus stops. The committee and residents were in agreement on the proposed change of the stop for Charlestown-bound 92 and 93 buses from Chelsea Street to the end of the North Washington Street Bridge. Opposition has been expressed on a proposal to move the bus stop away from the Harvard Mall. Galvin said he would call another meeting with representatives of the MBTA present, and Jim Conway promised to place flyers in the neighborhood doorways to notify the abutters of the meeting as soon as the date is set.

Ken Stone reported on the Billboard Committee meeting that unanimously opposed the erection of an illuminated sign on a monopole on the elevation adjacent to the 99 Restaurant. The Board of Appeal (BOA) will hear this petition on Tuesday, May 9 at 9:30 a.m. The CNC voted to approved the recommendation of the committee, and a letter will be sent to the BOA asking denial of the petition, with a copy of the letter also sent to the director of the Boston Redevelopment Authority.

Judy Evers, community liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, told the CNC that Don Kehoe, chief traffic investigator for the Boston Transportation Department (BTD) related to her that the traffic signs prohibiting parking 20 feet from the corner of short Monument Avenue and 20 feet from the corner of Pleasant Street (in front of Monument Properties) will be installed shortly to allow drivers crossing Warren Street better visibility. This is the first cooperative between the CNC, area residents and the BTD to secure measures that will allow for a safer street. Information on suggested crosswalk changes will be forthcoming from the BTD.

Sullivan Square Community Garden

Annual Plant Sale Starts May 6th

The Sullivan Square Community Garden will hold its 1995 plant sale starting May 6, 1995 (in time for Mother's Day) until June 18th, the day of the Bunker Hill Parade. There will be abundant geraniums, pansies, and many other flowers. This year we will take orders for plants we do not have. Vegetables and herbs will be available in mid-May. When you see a bright orange cone with the sign, "Plant sale" at the entrance to the garden on Bunker Hill Street, you will know (without leaving your car) that the plant sale is up and running. If there is no orange cone, come back later. The Plant Sale is run with volunteers. We plan, however, to be open every weekend, Saturday and Sunday, between the dates given above and most weekdays late in the afternoon, so you can buy plants and order others.

'A Visit With Louisa May Alcott' At The Charlestown Branch Library

In celebration of Charlestown Preservation Week, historian and actress Jan Turnquist will portray the famous author of Little Women during a "Visit with Louisa May Alcott" at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St., at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 11.

Coordinator of Living History Programming for Orchard House, Miss Alcott's former home in Concord, Turnquist will offer insights into Louisa May's experiences as an author, independent working woman, abolitionist, Civil War nurse and suffragist with entertaining educational anecdotes of her life and times, including dramatic readings, reminiscences of famous friends such as Ralph Waldo Emerson, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Henry David Thoreau and Julia Ward Howe and revelations about her fascinating family.

HOW CAN YOU KEEP TRACK OF IT ALL?

Looking at houses can become overwhelming for many prospective buyers. After a while, it can all run together, and you have trouble remembering which homes you liked a lot and which ones you didn't. When you're out looking, you can use a few tricks that good Realtors use to remember what we've seen.

Take a little spiral notebook and a pencil with you. Jot down the address of each house you see and make some notes on its major features. Write down one distinctive feature that will help you remember it. Maybe it had unusual mouldings in the dining room, or perhaps there was a big apple tree in the back yard. If the house was of particular interest to you, put a big star on the top of the page to remind yourself that you'd like to see it again or even write an offer on it. If there are features for which you have a strong preference, or if you eliminate a house from consideration for any reason, be sure to tell the agent who is helping you. This way, the agent can show only the homes that meet your special needs, and save you a lot of time and effort in your search.

If you are considering a move, contact the professionals at Monument Properties. Come by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900

Local Couple Attend Golden Anniversary Party

Who says marriage can't last forever? Not the 50 Boston couples who celebrated their golden wedding anniversaries at Northeastern University's Henderson House in Weston on April 23.

Mayor Thomas Menino and City Councillors Charles Yancey, Daniel Conley and Richard Iannella turned out to honor the couples at the 16th annual Senior Citizen's Golden Wedding Anniversary Party sponsored by Northeastern University and the city of Boston's Commission on Elderly Affairs. All of the couples have been married for at least 50 years. The longest married are Harvey and Mary Gray, ages 96 and 90 respectively, of Roslindale who tied the knot on Sept. 16, 1928.

Charlestown residents Alexander and Dorothy Jarvie, who are celebrating 51 years of marriage, enjoyed the reception which included dinner and dancing.

written acknowledgement of charitable contributions of $250 or more. Without the written substantiation, a taxpayer cannot take a deduction for his or her contribution.

Taxpayers will be allowed to claim deductions for charitable contributions of $250 or more on their 1994 tax returns if they have obtained written acknowledgements by Oct. 16, 1995, or have made a "good faith effort" to obtain acknowledgement by that date (i.e. sending the charitable organization a letter requesting the acknowledgement).

The written acknowledgement from the charity must contain the amount of cash, or a description of property contributed and a description and estimate of the value of goods or services provided by the charity (if any) in return for the contribution.

H.P. Hood Inc. Consolidates Fluid Milk Operations

ees over a 60-day period ending in July. The Charlestown plant additionally employs 397 in juice and extended-shelf-life cream production, distribution, transportation and administration.

While the restructuring of the milk business is underway, Hood also is evaluating the best future use of the Charlestown plant. Currently, no time frame for the completion of this evaluation has been determined, since the interests of potential buyers of H.P. Hood must be taken into account.

According to Keller, this restructuring was developed to return profitability to Hood's fluid milk business and re-establish its cost-competitive status in the fluid milk business. The price-competitive challenges inherent in the fluid milk business are not unique to Hood; throughout the Northeast, all processors have been adversely affected by diminishing profit margins and excess capacity. Hood's three other businesses, the Hood Ice Cream Division, Hood Cultured Products and the Hood Manufactured Products Group, the latter which produces extended-shelf-life dairy products, are all profitable.

"The bottom line is, to be competitive in the fluid milk business, the company must operate at industry-leading levels of cost-effectiveness and at capacity," Keller says. "After a thoughtful and comprehensive analysis of the company's fluid milk operations and after reviewing various options, we concluded that the key to Hood's long-term competitiveness in the fluid milk business is in consolidating milk production from Charlestown to our highly effective plants in Agawam and Portland. In this way, Hood gains valuable operational efficiencies in the fluid milk business.

"While this consolidation will achieve significant cost savings in the fluid milk portion of our business, we deeply regret that it comes at the expense of members of our valued and dedicated workforce," Keller adds. "To support our employees transition from Hood, we will be providing them with a comprehensive separation package and outplacement services."

With the transfer of production from one facility to another being relatively straightforward, Hood's production distribution, and service to the marketplace will not be interrupted. "During the transition and following, Hood will continue to serve Greater Boston and all New England with our full line of fluid milk and other dairy, juice and ice cream products," Keller added.

Parent company Agway Inc., based in Syracuse, N.Y., is pursuing new ownership for Hood following Agway's decision to divest of its major food processing holdings. There are preliminary discussions taking place with potential buyers; confidentiality agreements prevent disclosing names.

There are still a lot of choices out there as to where you can do your banking. And we're one of them. Citizens Bank.

Now more than ever, people are choosing us because of how we choose to treat our customers.

Specifically, we make life easier by offering all the products and services you want — under one roof. As well as ATMs where you're likely to need them. Including every Shaw's supermarket in Eastern Massachusetts.

What really sets us apart, though, is our commitment to old-fashioned courtesy. Meaning we hire nice people. And do thoughtful things. Like giving out dog biscuits at our drive-up windows.

And increasing our lollipop budget by one hundred percent.

If you're a business customer, it means making loan decisions locally instead of in some far-flung processing center where you're an unknown entity.

We even choose to play a very active role in our customers' communities. So much so that we offer our employees paid sabbaticals to roll up their sleeves and help where the need is greatest.

One last thing: we're not perfect. Except when it comes to taking a little constructive criticism when a customer sees fit to give it.

No, you don't have to bank here at Citizens. But we're doing everything we can to make sure that you do. Including giving you our toll-free number: 1-800-222-4322.

'The Baltimore Waltz' Opens Tonight At The Charlestown Working Theater

The Threshold Theater presents The Baltimore Waltz, a moving and often humorous new play about AIDS and one life's extraordinary last journey, written by Paula Vogel, directed by Kate Caffrey with Lizza Riley, Jeff Miller and Brian Turner.

"In 1986, my brother Carl invited me to join him on a joint excursion to Europe. Due to pressures of time and money, I declined, never dreaming he was HIV positive," stated Vogel.

The Baltimore Waltz is a sexy and surreal journey with Carl to a Europe that exists only in the imagination. The play won an Obie award and the AT&T Best Play Award.

The Baltimore Waltz is a moving and often humorous look into the frustrating absurdity of modern fatal diseases for which we have no answers and no cures. Dealing with guilt, loss and society's denial about HIV, the play is also a story about hope, health authorities and one last hurrah.

Performances begin tonight, Thursday, May 4, at the Charlestown Working Theater, 442 Bunker Hill St., and will continue through Saturday, May 27. Shows will be every Thursday through Saturday at 8 p.m. and every Sunday at 7 p.m.

General admission is $12 and $10 for senior citizens and students. Group rates are available and tickets can be purchased through Bostix or the Threshold Theater Box Office. Please call 965-3859 for tickets and further information.

'Mr. Wizard' Science Program To Visit Charlestown Catholic Elementary School

On Wednesday, May 10, the mysteries of science will be explored at Charlestown Catholic Elementary School, when ECA Educational Services, in conjunction with the Mr. Wizard Studios, presents Mr. Wizard's Everyday Energy In Action.

New guidelines set by the American Academy for the Advancement of Science ask teachers to use hands-on projects in an effort to improve the science programs in our nation's schools. In keeping with these guidelines, Mr. Wizard Science Assembly Programs demonstrate the science of everyday living using interactive teaching methods.

Don Herbert, better known as "Mr. Wizard" from NBC-TV's Watch Mr. Wizard and Nickelodeon's Mr. Wizard's World, has produced a program to bring this hands-on style of science to Charlestown. Although Herbert himself will be busy creating new ways to illustrate energy conservation, Wayne Kirsch, his official assistant, will present this fast-paced show guaranteed to educate and entertain.

How do you use energy around your home? What can you do to save energy? These are questions that every student who sees this show will be able to answer. In the style of the Mr. Wizard television show, student volunteers from the audience are invited to help present visually exciting and inspirational demonstrations that promote creative ways to save energy everyday around the home.

Honored At Community Appreciation Awards Ceremony

Several hundred residents and friends gathered at the K. of C. Hall on April 21 to recognize individuals and groups that contribute in some outstanding measure to the community. This was the fifth annual Community Appreciation Awards Dinner and Ceremony and many former recipients joined in the celebration.

Peter Looney, chairman of the Community Appreciation Awards Committee, welcomed the gathering. He noted that Charlestown has many outstanding citizens who live and/or work in this community and the awards are just "a small way of saying thank you." He added that many hours are spent by the committee to sort through the many nominations and arrive at the recipients.

The first presentation was the Business Award which went to Jenny's Pizza. The presentation was made by Moe Gillen and Bob Wallace. Gillen said a truck driver ("Butch" Gordon) and a mailman (Tony McLaughlin) got together and learned to make pizza to sell to Irishmen. He spoke about the support of the business for community causes such as Little League and Townie Santa, noting they have supported many very quietly. Gordon accepted the award on behalf of Jenny's.

The Organization Award went to Charlestown Against Drugs (CHAD). Looney and Stephen Collins made the presentation. CHAD was praised for its dedication to help those with a drug or alcohol problem as well as for teaching prevention. Some of the programs cited were "Just The Facts Day," Teen Day, the CHAD Tennis Team, "The Other End" newspaper written by teens for teens and its "Parades Are For Kids" on Bunker Hill Day. Charlestown teens accepting the award to a standing ovation were Matt Ezekiel, Mary Ellen Wood, Monique Matarazzo, Joe Tallent, Rosetta Cannizzaro, Tim Warren, Danny Awbrey and Joe Brennan.

This year's Public Service Award went to Jay Ash, legislative aid to Rep. Richard A. Voke and the presentation was made by Marty O'Brien and Tom Cunha. Ash was praised for his "unwavering commitment to issues affecting Charlestown." He was cited for his loyalty and dedication to the concerns of Charlestown residents and his active involvement in youth programs, the problems of the elderly or just "making government a friendly and available resource." In his response, Ash stated that "no man is alone," and he said he "shar-

The New Resident Award was presented to a duo - Patricia Simpson and Erin Farley. Colleen Meyers and Mel Stillman made the presentation. They were cited for their dedication particularly to the "Celebrate Our Children" project at the Warren-Prescott School. They have worked with the 99 Restaurant to award children dinner certificates for work well done and are fund raising for a playground at the Warren-Prescott School. In accepting the award, Farley said that when they started two years ago, they didn't know how far they could go, and now they know "the sky's the limit!" They thanked the community for its support.

Ruthellen Chardavoine and Kay Whelan were the presenters for the Elderly Award which also went to a duo - Zelma Lacey and Sister Ann Rita Sullivan, O.P. It was noted that the Charlestown Healthy Aging Program (CHAP) was conceived and developed by these two women some seven years ago, with help from the Kennedy Center, to educate and organize seniors and advocate on issues that affect the quality of life of Charlestown elderly. Both women, who are over 70, are presently working for a site to locate a nursing home in Charlestown.

Nicole DeRoeve was the recipient of this year's Youth Award which was presented by Jim Mansfield and Looney. She was cited for her character, the qualities she possesses and her leadership ability. She was one of a few teens that met with President Bill Clinton on his recent visit to Boston, speaking very highly of her community. She represents Charlestown on the Mayor's Youth Council, she is a member of the Healthy Charlestown Coalition and devotes a great deal of her time to the youth of the town. She assisted in the founding of the Junior CYO and teaches confirmation classes at St. Catherine's. She has given to the younger children as well as to her peers. With the audience rising to their feet for a standing ovation, DeRoeve came to the podium to receive her award.

This year's Dennis McLaughlin Unsung Hero Award went to Francis "Bud" Coleman and was presented by Kay Whelan, Bill Galvin and Moe Gillen. Coleman, the proud father of six, is a retired Superintendent-In-Chief of the Boston Police Department. He is the founding president of the Charlestown Lions Club; winner of the Melvin Jones Fellow Award by Lions Club International for excellence in the organization; board member of Townie Santa Committee, Charlestown Youth Sports Fund and the Bunker Hill Health Center Cardiac Advisory Board; former member of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council; and active in district and zone programs of the Lions Club. It was noted that Charlestown is fortunate to have this lifelong Townie. Coleman thanked the committee and congratulated his fellow recipients. He spoke briefly of his accomplishments in the police department and the community, noting two organizations that always help, "the Patriot and the K.of C." He said that "residents can go their separate ways and then get back together on what's best for Charlestown."

Each recipient was presented with a paperweight containing a miniature of the Bunker Hill Monument which was designed by Tom Gorsuch. They also received citations from the House of Representatives presented by Rep. Richard Voke and citations from the Boston City Council from City Councillor Diane J. Modica.

Among the guests at the ceremony, in addition to Voke and Modica, were City Councillors Peggy Davis-Mullen, John Nucci and Richard Iannella, and candidate Paul Gannon; C. Scully Stikes, president of BHCC; Mike Cummins, the Flatley Co.; Vinnie Ragucci, MWRA; and Dorothy Steele, Massport.

Schedule of Activities

Art Exhibit: Now through May 14

Art Exhibit Reception: Saturday, May 6

Library Lecture: Thursday, May 11

Park Cleanup: Saturday, May 13

On Monday, May 1, the Ninth Annual Charlestown Artists' Exhibit opened in the Preble Room in the Boston National Historical Park's section of the Charlestown Navy Yard. The exhibit is jointly sponsored by the Boston National Historical Parks and the Charlestown Preservation Society.

The entrants are drawn from those artists who are over 17 years of age and who live or work in Charlestown. In the past, the exhibit has included sculptures, oil paintings, wood-working, water colors, photographs, textiles, mixed media, acrylics and pastels.

A reception will be held on Saturday, May 6, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. At the reception, the Best of Show, Second Place and Third Place as well as Honorable Mentions are awarded. The reception, which is open to the public, is a wonderful forum at which to meet the artists, view their works, enjoy the culinary art of Charlestown's local chefs and meet new and old friends.

This exhibit is a much anticipated and enjoyed event that yearly attracts many residents as well as visitors.

All inquiries concerning the Artists' Exhibit are to be directed to Jini Goscinak at 330-8969 or Wendy Withington at 242-4026.

This year the Library Lecture will be presented jointly by the Friends of the Library and the Charlestown Preservation Society.

We are happy to invite the community to meet "Louisa May Alcott" at the Charlestown Branch Library on Thursday, May 11 at 7:30 p.m. to hear her reminisce about her unconventional childhood, her experiences as an author, an abolitionist, Civil War nurse and suffragette. Educator and actress Jan Turnquist brings Alcott to life in an innovative blend of stage drama and living history.

This event is being sponsored through the generosity of the Law Firm of McCullough, Steivater & Polvere, Charlestown. Admission is free and school-age children are welcome. A reception will follow.

All inquiries regarding the Library Lecture should be directed to Lurette Bourne at 241-9494.

The Charlestown Preservation Society will begin a new tradition. The Annual Park Cleanup for the year will be focused on the two historic burying grounds located on Phipps Street and Bunker Hill Street, and will take place Saturday morning, May 13 from 9 a.m. to noon.

The cleanup is cosponsored by the Parks & Recreation Department's Historic Burying Grounds Initiative and the Charlestown Preservation Society.

The Parks Department has offered to supply shovels, rakes, garbage bags and refreshments to keep us going! A team from City Year has also offered their assistance. The meeting place will be in Thompson Square at 9 a.m. From there, we will get our instructions on how to proceed.

If you're interested in helping out in any way, please contact Eric Philippi at 241-8185.

Fitness In The Park Event A Big Winner With Local Youngsters

Mayor Thomas M. Menino was on hand to cheer on all the youngsters who participated in the fifth annual Fitness in the Park for Kids. Menino got into the action by acting as the official starter for a kid-sized road race and handing out Easter baskets to the winners of the Easter egg hunt.

Charlestown was especially well-represented at this year's event. The annual pre-marathon meet also featured a mini-marathon, broad jump, softball throw and other games presented in a non-competitive atmosphere stressing the health benefits of regular exercise.

"This is just the type of event that our parks are designed for," noted Boston Parks Commissioner Patrick S. Harrington. "Healthy, educational and, above all, fun."

MAYOR THOMAS M. MENINO congratulates 9-year-old Francisco Alarcon of Charlestown (center) and his fellow winners in the Easter egg hunt held on Boston Common April 15, as part of the fifth annual Fitness in the Park for Kids event sponsored by the Boston Parks and Recreation Department and the Boston Athletic Association.

Charlestown Little League News

The annual Charlestown Little League Parade and Jamboree took place on a brisk, but sunny Sunday, April 23. The players, attired in their new uniforms, were met with crowds of enthusiastic relatives and friends all along the route from Hayes Square to Ryan Field.

Upon arrival at Ryan Field, a dazzling exhibition put on by St. Catherine's Color Guard, preceded the ceremony to dedicate the season to the late Bryan McGonagle. Then after a cry of "Play Ball" from President Eddie Greatorex, all 14 teams, eight majors and six minors, took part in a spirited Jamboree.

Money Matters

by Nicholas C. Pino

"Let us assist you in your financial planning"

LIFE INSURANCE AND TAXES

Life insurance is one of the most common financial products, and you probably own at least one policy. But do you know how tax laws affect life insurance? Here are some key issues.

As a general rule, life insurance premiums aren't tax deductible, and life insurance proceeds aren't subject to income tax. However, businesses generally can deduct premiums for group-term life insurance, and each employee may receive up to $50,000 of group-term coverage tax-free.

Dividends on life insurance policies generally aren't subject to tax, since dividends represent a partial refund of your premium.

If you die owning an insurance policy on your life, the proceeds from the policy will be included in your estate and may be subject to estate tax. You can keep life insurance proceeds out of your estate by giving your insurance policies to an irrevocable insurance trust while you're still alive. You also can cut estate taxes by giving your insurance policies to children of other heirs. The transfer of a life insurance policy raises many complex tax issues, so consult us and your attorney before taking any action.

Whole life and universal life insurance policies combine life insurance coverage with a savings or investment account, which is also known as a "cash value" account. As long as money accumulates in this account, it isn't subject to tax. But be careful if you cancel a cash value policy that you've owned for a while, since some of the proceeds may be subject to income tax. You're less likely to trigger income tax if you borrow your cash value rather than withdraw it. But see us first, since borrowing also involves some tricky tax rules.

TO SEE HOW THIS CAN AFFECT YOU, CALL TODAY!

From Jerry's Desk . . .

Summer is just around the corner and that means parents need to start making "survival plans." In other words, how can we keep our kids busy until Labor Day and the start of school shortly thereafter?

The Boys & Girls Club promises to do its part and is offering five different camp experiences for it members ages 6-13. Our camps begin on July 5 and run until August 18. Complete information is available by calling the club at 242-1775 or stopping by the front desk. Of special note however, is the Adventure Camp which is for members ages 12 and 13. These older members have "outgrown" the other camps and yet are too young for any of the summer job programs. The Adventure who attended.

The night commenced with a short trip to Good Time Billiards in Somerville. After laser tag, pool, and other games, the group made its way to the movies and then to Kelly's Roast Beef. Upon returning to the club, the teens spent the early morning hours in the gym and in the pool before taking part in an intense game of flashlight tag. At 4:30 a.m., the teens relaxed and watched a movie.

Those attending were: Tim Warren, Tim Gallagher, Joe Brennan, Steve Linnane, Jim Tallent, Rob Murray, Nick Smith, Meghan Murray, Jacque Neff, Jenn Ray, Erin Brennan, Lauren Brennan, Jenna Donovan, Diane Ferreira, Mike O'Leary, Ben Burnett, Antonio "Beef" Donahue, Katie O'Leary, Aileen Gorman, Matt Ezekiel, Dede Arroyo and D.J. O'Brien.

CHAD Junior Bowling League Update

by John Dillon
Jenny's Wins Championship!

After a year-long battle in the CHArlestown Against Drugs (CHAD) Junior Bowling League, there is finally a champion.

For the second-half of the season, nobody could defeat The Red Store. They always won. They never had a bad day until Saturday, April 29 - then the roof fell in.

The Red Store couldn't have picked a worse day to have a bad day. Jenny's, on the other hand, being undermanned losing John Harrington to the flu, felt they had nothing to lose and they buried the head pin shot after shot.

In the first string, Jim Kissane threw a torrid 96. Kristen Ford backed him up with a 72 string and Marianne Kissane threw a nice 69 string with John Harrington's automatic score of 67, his average. Jenny's finished with a terrific 304 total.

Sean Reilly and Ryan Hickey tried to stop the bleeding with an 84 and 63 respectively, but the cow was out of the barn. The first string went to Jenny's by 90 pins. The Red Store bounced back in the second string. Kerriane Hayes had a great 77 string and Steven Aubrey threw a nice 71. But Jenny's would not be denied. Kristen Ford threw a terrific 79 and closed the lid on the coffin for a one-pin victory.

The final match was a close one, but Jenny's won by 15 pins. Three weeks ago The Red Store beat Jenny's 6-2.

Top bowler in the playoffs was Jimmy Kissane with 246. Runner-up was Sean Reilly with 240. These are two great bowlers.

Congratulations to the championship team of Jim Kissane, Marianne Kissane, Kristen Ford and John Harrington and the runner-up team of Sean Reilly, Ryan Hickey, Steven Aubrey and Kerriane Hayes for a wonderful job.

On any given week, there is anywhere from 35 to 40 kids bowling and there has never been any discipline problems. The kids come to bowl and have fun. This speaks very well for the parents. These kids are reflective of what Charlestown has to offer and only goes to show that Charlestown is in great shape.

Bowlers will be notified as to the date of the banquet. See you all there!

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Wadman And Evers At Boston Garden . . . A thrill of a lifetime! That's the only way to describe the experience of playing basketball on the famed parquet at Boston Garden. Two of our great young people had this experience last Monday afternoon. Brian Wadman, a senior at Boston Latin Academy, and Dave Evers, a sophomore at Malden Catholic, played at Boston Garden in an exhibition game for our neighboring North End Athletic Association (NEAA).

The game is an annual event and has always been played at Columbus' Center, but with the closing of Boston Garden, what better place to showcase the fine work of the NEAA! Special thanks to longtime friend and game organizer Bob "Ted" Tomasone for providing two roster spots for the Charlestown duo. Both these young people represent all that is good. They go to school, work hard, have set their goals and have been a significant part of the Charlestown Pride basketball team during the year.

◆ Prom Time . . . It's May and junior and senior proms will be the social events of the month. Tuxes and gowns will be the dress, and limos will be the mode of transportation. Many happy and beautiful memories will be formed for years to come. Like Spring Break, proms have become a Rite of Spring, but like Spring Break, proms must also mean responsibility. Enjoy yourself and be around to talk about it for a long time to come.

◆ 50-Point Club . . . In this strike-shortened NHL season, Keith Tkachuk of the Winnipeg Jets is still one of the league's top point getters. In 45 games, Keith's numbers read 22 goals and 28 assists for 50 points.

◆ Reminder . . . Tuesday, May 9 is Children and Youth Advocacy Day from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the State House in Boston.

◆ Townie Football Fund Raiser . . . The Charlestown "Townies" Football team will be back in action this year thanks in large part to Danny Ryan. A fund raising get-together will take place on Friday, May 12 at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

◆ MacInnes Park . . . As we begin to see the planting of the landscape around the Bunker Hill Development and the new park nearing completion, it would be fitting to name the area "Mary MacInnes Park." Mary, a life-long resident of the Bunker Hill Development, has done much to preserve the quality of life for all the residents of Bunker Hill. She has worked very hard, and this would be a fine and everlasting tribute to her.

◆ Bunker Hill Junior Ball Hockey . . . Year two is underway thanks to the efforts of some very good people. The Bunker Hill Junior Ball Hockey League is comprised of 10 teams and over 100 youngsters participating each weekend in some "fast and furious" action and very positive activity at the hockey cage on Bunker Hill Street, adjacent to the "Little Red Schoolhouse."

Participants include: Bow's Angels - Coach Jennifer Kelley, Nicole Matson, Marc Hanscom, Dennis Devlin, Meg Gallagher, Danielle Gillis, Dan McGoff, Jeff Curry, Ryan Nelson, Danielle Whalen and Nolan Burns.

Mama Maria's - Coach Bucky Jones, Phil Jones, Jackie Burke, Patrick Rose, Michelle Williams, Sheilann Williams, Courtney Considine, Patrick Considine, Pat Kelley, John Murphy and Robert Collier.

Thank You, Everyone!

Dear Gloria,

What a great town I live in to have so many people care how I am coming along. There is not a day goes by when I don't receive a card, flowers and phone calls.

I would not only like to thank everyone, but also to let you know the joy and pleasure I receive when I hang up every card and remember every phone call. It means so very much to me.

Charlestown, thank you for caring, but that's the way "Townies" are.

Please remember me in your prayers. Thank you kindly.

Love you all,
Terry Ring

Thank you again for this wonderful opportunity - it made a real difference in helping me to pursue my education.

Sincerely,

'Smoke Shoppe' Sold

Because of new job responsibilities, Cindy and Danny Wrenn must move on after almost six years with the Smoke Shoppe.

Most customers already know that Dan and his sons started The Eagle Elevator Company last May.

Cindy's job position has also changed to manager and direct sales of her company for the entire New England area.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Smoke Shoppe crew for all their support and loyalty through the years, in particular, Mae Killoran. It wouldn't have worked without her! Also, thanks to Janie Wrenn, Evie Cali, Charlie "Cha Cha" Loring and Dottie Duffy.

The fondest and most sincere thank you is to all of our loyal customers and friends. We will really miss everyone.

We spent a lot of time getting to know the new owners, the Sarnos and Kings, and are very impressed with their excitement and eagerness to please customers. We're sure you will all enjoy getting to know them, too. Mae will still be there every day to greet you.

We wish the new owners much success! And to everyone, the best of health and happiness.

Sincerely,
The Wrenns

TIARA To Meet On May 12

The Irish Ancestral Research Association, known as TIARA, will hold a brief business meeting followed by a program on Friday, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 307, Higgins Hall, Boston College.

Sean O Suilleabhain, renowned County Librarian in Leitrim, will speak on "Tracing Ancestors in Leitrim." Leitrim's Genealogy Centre is recognized as one of the most successful Family History Centres in Ireland.

Suilleabhain was one of the first to work on establishing a national genealogy service for all of Ireland, the goal of which is to index and computerize all records used for genealogical purposes.

TIARA is an organization of amateur, family and professional researchers who meet to exchange information about Irish family history. There is no admission charge and the public is welcome.

MATTERS OF THE HEART

The "MGH Bunker Hill Health Center Loves A Healthy Charlestown - Prevention is The Key" spring health fair is fast approaching. This event will be held on Thursday, May 11 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Johnnie's Foodmaster in the Bunker Hill Mall.

Once again, free screenings for cholesterol, glucose, blood pressure, hearing, posture and cancer risk, as well as several informative displays will be featured.

Several nutrition-related activities will be conducted by the Nutrition Services of the MGH Community Health Centers on or around the date of the annual spring event.

On Thursday, May 11, the nutrition display will include information on healthy eating for prevention of cancer, heart disease and hypertension and information on which foods to eat to prevent osteoporosis. Healthy recipes are always available, as are registered dieti-cians who can give you personalized advice on the best eating habits for you!

Also on Thursday, Marisol Santiago, community outreach coordinator, will be giving out information on the WIC program, the supplemental food program for Women, Infants and Children. She'll have stickers, pins, magnets, pens and other goodies to help spread the word about the WIC program.

On Wednesday, June 7, from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m., the Nutrition Class, "Healthy Eating for Healthy Living," will be held free of charge at the Bunker Hill Health Center, 73 High St., and will focus on which healthy foods to eat to lower cholesterol and improve health. This program is especially helpful for people who had their cholesterol screened at Healthy Heart Day and found it to be high. Call the nutrition office at 724-8198 for details or to sign up for the class.

PROFESSIONAL DISPOSAL

BARRY DISPOSAL uses trucks for disposal services that cost less than companies using rented container disposal outfits.

John Barry, owner of Barry Disposal, does the jobs most people can't or won't do themselves, as well as anybody you can find and for lower prices.

"We do residential and commercial clean-outs of condos, offices, factories — you name it," he says. "We pick up the load, whether it's one piece of furniture, 100 items or the whole house." He strives to get tough work done right as quickly as possible.

In an age when illegal dumping is rampant, John is licensed by the Department of Public Utilities to dump at legal landfills and refuse areas, and is insured while many others aren't. He pays the DPU for proper removal and disposal of tanks and boilers, considered hazardous waste.

Barry Disposal will dispose of a mass of debris for home owners and businesses. "I take things people usually find hard to remove by themselves, like metal or furniture," says John. He will also do commercial and residential construction.

John and his crews use trucks, saving customers money. Since he uses trucks for hauling, customers only pay for the weight on the trucks and not for a container rental. He performs same-day service.

"I can get there quickly," he says, "and I call people back to set up and confirm appointments. I don't care if it's raining or dark, I'm trying to run a business the way it ought to be run."

John — who has a phone in his truck — is on call 24-hours a day, seven days a week for customer convenience. "We'll load any time of day, especially if there's an emergency," he says. You may call Barry Disposal, the residential and commercial specialist, at 246-7762.
